23 And I wyll sowe her for my selfe in the earth, and wyll haue mercie vpon her that had not obtayned mercie: and to them which were not my people, I wyll say, Thou art my people: and they shall say, Thou art my God.

The. x. Chapter.

1 Against Israel and his idols. 14 His destruction for the same.

ISrael (is) an (a) emptie vine, (yet) hath it brought forth fruite to it selfe, according to the multitude of the fruite therof he hath encreased the aulters: according to the goodnesse of their land they haue made them fayre images. 2 Their heart is diuided, (therfore) shall they nowe be destroyed, (the Lord) shall breake downe their aulters, he shall destroy their images.

3 For nowe shall they say, We haue no kyng, because we haue not feared the Lorde: and what shoulde then a kyng do to vs? 4 They haue spoken wordes, sweating falsly in making a (b) couenaunt: thus (c) iudgement groweth as wormewood in the furrowes of the fielde. 5 They that dwell in Samaria shall feare because of the Calfe of Bethauen, for the people therof shall mourne ouer it, yea and the priestes also reioyced on it for the glory therof, because it is departed from it. 6 It shalbe brought to the Assyrian for a present to the king Iareb: Ephraim shall receaue shame, and Israel shalbe confounded for his owne imaginations. 7 Samaria with his king shall vanishe away as the fome vpon the water. 8 The hye places of Auen where Israel doth sinne shalbe destroyed, thistles and thornes shall growe vpon their aulters: then shall they say to the mountaynes, Couer vs, and to the hylles, Fall vpon vs. 9 O Israel, thou hast sinned from the dayes (d) of Gabaa: there they stoode, the battayle in Gabaa against the chyldren of iniquitie dyd not touche them. 10 It is my desire that I shoulde chastise them: and the people shalbe gathered against them, when they shall ioyne them selues together in their (e) two furrowes. 11 And Ephraim (is as) an heyffer vsed to delite (f) in treading out the corne: but I wyll passe by her fayre (g) necke, I wyl make Ephraim to (h) ryde: Juda shall (i) plowe, (and) Jacob shall breake his cloddes.

12 Sowe to your selues in rygh-teousnesse, and reape the fruites of well doyng, plowe vp your freshe land: for it is tyme to seeke the Lorde tyll he come and rayne righteousnesse vpon you. 13 For you haue plowed vngodlynesse, ye haue reaped iniquitie, you haue eaten the fruite of lyes, because thou puttest thy confidence in thyne owne wayes, and leanest to the multitude of thy strong men.

14 There shall growe a sedition among thy people, all thy strong cities shalbe layde waste, euen as Salma destroyed Beth Arbel in the day of battayle, where the mother with the chyldren were dasshed in peeces.

15 Euen so shall Bethel do vnto you because of your malitious wickednesse: in a morning shall the kyng of Israel be destroyed.

¶ The. xi. Chapter.

1 The benefites of the Lorde towarde Israel. 5 Their ingratitude against hym.

WHen Israel was young, I loued hym, and called my sonne out of the lande of Egypt.

2 They (a) called them (but) they went thus from them: they sacrificed vnto Baal, and burned incense to images.

3 I gaue to Ephraim one to leade (b) hym, who shoulde beare hym in his armes: but they knewe not that I healed them. 4 I led them with cordes of a man (euen) (c) with bandes of loue: and I was to them as he that taketh of the yoke from their iawes, and I layde (d) meate to them.

5 He shall no more returne into Egypt, but Assur (e) shalbe his kyng, because he refused to conuert. 6 Therfore shall the swoorde fall on his cities,

(a) As the vine spoyled of her grapes beareth new the yere following, so the Israelites enioying rest after afflictions, renewed their former wickednesse and idolatrie

(b) Promising to be faythfull to God.

(c) They pretend sincerite, but their fruites shewed the contrary, muche like as when wormewood groweth where wheat was looked for,

(d) In those dayes wast thou as wicked as the Gabaonites, and hast cõtinued in the same euer sithence.

(e) Bynding them selues together by leagues to ayde one another, as cattell are yoked together at the plough.

and shall consume his (f) braunches, and deuour them, because of their own counsayles. 7 And my people shall stande in a doubt for their rebellion against me: for when the (prophetes) called them to the most hye, not one yet would geue hym his glorie.

8 How shal I geue thee vp Ephraim? (howe) shall I deliuer thee Israel? how shall I make thee, as (g) Adama? (how) shall I set thee, as Zeboim? myne heart is turned within me, my repentinges are kindled within me. 9 I will not execute the fiercenesse of my wrath, I will not returne to destroy Ephraim: for I am God and not man, the holy one in the middest of thee, and I will not enter into the citie.

10 They shall walke after the Lorde, he shall roare lyke a Lion: when he shall roare, then the children of the west shall feare. 11 They shall feare as a sparowe out of Egypt, and as a doue out of the lande of Assyrie, and I will place them in their houses, saith the Lorde. 12 Ephraim compasseth me about with lyes, and the house of Israel with deceipt: but Iuda yet ruleth (h) with God, and is faythfull with the saintes.

¶ The.xii. Chapter.

He admonisheth by Iacobs example to trust in God, and not in man.

EPhraim is fed with the winde, and followeth after the east wynde, he daily encreaseth lyes and destruction, they be confederate with the Assyrians, their oyle is carried into Egypt. 2 The Lorde hath a controuersie with Iuda, and will visite Iacob according to his wayes, according to their owne inuentions will he recompence them. 3 He toke his brother by the heele when he was yet in his mothers wombe, and in his strength he wrestled with God: 4 He stroue with the angell and gate the victorie, he wept and prayed to hym: he found hym at Bethel, and there he spake with vs. 5 Yea the Lorde God of hoastes, euen the Lorde hym selfe is his memoriall. 6 Therfore turne to thy God, kepe mercy and iudgement, and hope styll in thy God. 7 (He is) (a) Chanaan, the ballaunces of deceipt are in his hande, he loueth to oppresse.

8 And Ephraim hath sayde, Truly I am riche, I haue good inough: in all my workes shall not one iniquitie be founde wherein I haue offended.

9 Yet am I the Lorde thy God from the lande of Egypt, I will yet make thee dwel in the tabernacles as in the hye feast dayes. 10 I haue spoken thrugh the prophetes, and haue multiplied visions, and shewed similitudes by the ministerie of the prophetes.

11 In Galaad is iniquitie, they are fallen to vanitie: at Gilgal they haue sacrificed oxen, & their aulters are as heapes in the furrowes of the fielde.

12 Iacob fled into the lande of Syria, and Israel serued for a wyfe, and for a wyfe he kept (sheepe.) 13 By a prophete the Lorde brought them out of Egypt, and by a prophete was he preserued. 14 But Ephraim hath prouoked him to displeasure thrugh his abhominations, therfore shall his blood be powred vpon hym selfe, and the Lorde his God shall rewarde hym his blasphemies.

The.xiii. Chapter.

1 The abhomination of Israel, 9 and cause of their destruction.

WHen Ephraim spake, there was trembling, he was exalted among the Israelites: but he hath sinned in Baal, and is dead.

2 And nowe they sinne more and more, and of their siluer they haue made them molten images after the imaginations of their owne braynes, (that is) very idols, and yet all is nothing but the worke of the craftesman: they say one to another. Whyles they (a) sacrifice a man let them kysse (b) the calues. 3 Therfore they shall be as the morning cloude, and as the deaw that early passeth away, and like as dust that the whirlewinde taketh away from the flooze, and as smoke that goeth out of the chimney.

4 Yet I am the Lorde thy God (which brought thee) out of the lande of Egypt, and thou shalt knowe no God but me only, neither is there any sauiour besides me. 5 I did knowe thee in the wyldernesse, in the lande of drought. 6 But when they were well fed, and had inough, they waxed proude, and forgat me. 7 Therfore will I be vnto them as a Lion, and as a Leoparde in the wayes to the Assyrians. 8 I wyl meete them as a thee Beare that is robbed of her whelpes, and I wil breake that stubburne heart of theirs, there wyll I deuour them like a Lion, yea the wylde beastes shal teare them. 9 O Israel (thyne iniquitie) hath destroyed thee: but in me (only is) thy helpe. 10 I am: where is 12 The wickednesse of Ephraim is bounde together, and his sinne lyeth hid. 13 Therfore shall sorowes come vpon hym as vpon a woman that trauayleth: an vndiscrete sonne is he, els woulde he not stande styll at the tyme (c) of byrth of chyldren. 14 I wyll redeeme them from the power of the graue, and deliuer them from death: O death, I wyll be thy death: O hell, I wyll be thy kyng: yet can I see no comfort. 15 Though he grewe among his brethren, the east wynde (euen) the winde of the Lord shall come vp from the wildernesse, and dry vp his veyne, and his fountaynes shalbe dryed vp: he shall spoyle the treasure of all pleasaunt vessels. 16 Samaria shalbe made waste, for she is disobedient vnto her God: they shall perishe with the swoorde, their chyldren shalbe dasshed in peeces, and their women great with chylde shalbe ript vp.

¶ The.xiiii. Chapter.

1 The destruction of Samaria. 3 He exhorteth the Israelites to turne to God, who requireth prayse and thankes.

O Israel, returne vnto the Lorde thy God, for thou hast fallen through thine owne wickednesse.

2 Take these wordes with you, when ye turne to the Lorde, and say vnto hym, O forgeue vs all our sinnes, receaue vs gratiously, and then wyll we offer the calues of our lippes vnto thee. 3 Assur shalbe no more our helper, neither wyl we ride vpon horses any more, neither wyll we say any more to the worke of our handes, ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherlesse findeth mercy. 4 I wyll heale their rebellio, I wyl loue them freely: for myne anger is turned away from him. 5 I wyll be vnto Israel as the dewe, and he shall grow as the lilie, & his roote shal breake out as the (trees) of Libanus. 6 His braunches shall spreade out abrode, and be as fayre as the olyue tree, and smell as Libanus.

7 They that dwell vnder his shadowe, shall returne and growe vp as the corne, and florysshe as the vine: he shall haue as good a "name as the wine of Libanus. 8 Ephraim (shall say) What haue I to do with idols any more? I haue hearde hym, and looked vpon hym, I am lyke a greene firre tree, vpon me is thy fruite founde.

9 Who so is wyse, shall vnderstande these thinges, and he that is ryght instruct wyll regarde them: for the wayes of the Lorde are righteous, such as be godly wyll walke in them: as for the wicked, they shall stumble therein.

¶ The first Chapter.

1 A prophecie against the Iewes. 2 He exhorteth the people to prayer and fasting for the miserie that was at hande.

The worde of the Lorde that came to Joel the sonne of Pethuel.

2 Heare ye this you elders, and hearken with your eares all you that dwell in this lande: was there euer such a thing in your dayes, or in the dayes of your fathers?

3 Of this thing tell your chyldren, and let your chyldren (shewe it) to their chyldren, and their chyldren to (their) posteritie afterwarde. 4 That which the caterpiller hath left the grashopper hath eaten, and what the grashopper left hath the (a) canker worme eaten, and what the canker worme left the locust hath deuoured. 5 Awake ye drunkardes, and weepe, howle all ye wine bibbers for lacke of newe wine: for it is cleane taken away from your mouth. 6 For a nation is come vp vpon my lande, mightie and without number: his teeth are as the teeth of a Lion, and he hath the tawes of a great Lion. 7 He hath destroyed my vine, and barked my figge tree, he hath pilled it and cast it from hym, and hath left bowes therof whyte. 8 Lament as a virgin gyrded with sackecloth, for the husbande of her youth. 9 The meate offering and drinke offering is cut of from the house of the Lorde, the priestes (I meane) the Lordes ministers mourne. 10 The fielde is wasted, the lande mourneth: for corne is destroyed, the newe wine is dryed vp, the oyle is vtterly taken away.

11 Be ye ashamed O ye husbandmen, howle O ye vine dressers for the wheate and for the barly: for the harueste of the fielde is perished. 12 The vine is dryed vp, and the figge tree is decayed, the pomgeanate tree, and the paulme, and the apple tree, (euen) all the trees of the fielde are withered vp: for ioy is withered away from the sonnes of men. 13 Gyrde your selues and lament O ye priestes, howle ye out ye ministers of the aulter, come and lye all night in sackcloth ye seruaunts of my God: for the meate and drinke offeringes are taken away from the house of your God. 14 Proclayme a fast, call a congregation, gather the elders together, (with) all the inhabitaunts of the land, vnto the house of the Lord your God, and crye vnto the Lorde, 15 Alas for this day, for the day of the Lorde is at hande, euen as a destruction from the almightie shall it come. 16 Is not the meate cut of before our eyes, (yea) myrth and ioy from the house of our God? 17 The seede is rotten vnder their cloddes, the garners are destroyed, the barnes are ouerthrowen: for the corne is withered. 18 O howe cattell mourne: the heardes of beastes are in wofull case for lacke of pasture, & the flockes of sheepe are destroyed. 19 Vnto thee O Lorde will I crye, for fire hath destroyed the fruitfull places of the desart, and the flame hath burnt vp all the trees of the field. 20 The beastes also of the fielde crye out vnto thee: for the riuers of waters are dryed vp, and fire hath deuoured vp the fruitfull places of the desart.

¶ The. ii. Chapter.

1 He prophecieth of the comming and cruelte of their enemies. 13 An exhortation to moue them to conuert. 18 The loue of God towarde his people.

BLowe vp a trumpet in Sion, and showte in my holy hyll, let all the inhabitaunts of the earth tremble: for the day of the Lorde is come, for it is nye at hande. 2 A darke and glomie day, a cloudie and blacke day: as the morning is spread ouer the mountaynes (so is this) populus and strong people, lyke vnto whom there was none from the beginning, nor shalbe hereafter for euermore. 3 Before hym is a deuouring fire, and behynde hym a burning flame: the lande is as a pleasaunt garden before hym, and behinde hym a waste desart, yea and nothing shall escape hym. 4 The shewe of hym is as the shewe of horses, and lyke horsemen, so shall they runne. 5 Lyke the noyse of charets vpon the toppes of the mountaynes they shall skip, lyke the noyse of a flaming fire deuouring the stubble, (and) as a strong people prepared to battayle. 6 Before his face shall the people tremble, the countenaunce of all folkes shall wax blacke.

7 They shall runne lyke strong men, and clime the walles lyke men of warre: and euery one shall march on in his way, and they shall not linger in their pathes. 8 No man shall thrust another, but euery one shall walke in his path: and if they shall fall on the swoorde, they shall not be wounded. 9 They shall runne to and fro in the citie, they shall runne vp and downe vpon the wall, they shall clyme into the houses, they shall enter in at the windowes lyke a theefe.

10 The earth shall quake before hym, the heauens shall tremble, the sunne and the moone shalbe darke, and the starres shall withdrawe their shyning. 11 And the Lorde shall geue his voyce before his hoast, for his campe is exceeding great, for he is mightie that executeth his commaundement: for the day of the Lorde is great and very terrible, and who can abyde it? 12 But nowe saith the Lorde, Turne you vnto me with all your heartes, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning. 13 And rent your heartes and not your garmentes, and turne you vnto the Lorde your God, for he is gratious and mercyfull, slowe to anger, and of great goodnesse, and he wyll repent hym of the euyll. 14 Who knoweth whether the Lorde wyll returne and take compassion, and wyll leaue behynde hym a blessing, (euen) meate offering and drinke offering vnto the Lorde your God? 15 Blowe vp a trumpet in Sion, proclayme a fast, call an an assembly, sanctifie the congregation. 16 Gather the people, gather the elders, assemble the chyldren and sucking babes: let the bryde grome come fooorth of his chamber, and the bryde out of her closet. 17 Let the priestes the Lordes ministers weepe betwixt the porche and the aulter, and let them say, Spare thy people O Lorde, and geue not ouer thyne heritage to reproche, that the heathen shoulde rule ouer them: Wherefore should they say amongst the heathen, Where is their God? 18 And (then) the Lorde will be ielous ouer his lande, and will spare his people.

19 Yea the Lorde will aunswere, and say to his people, Beholde I will sende you corne, and wine, and oyle, and will satisfie you therewith, and will not geue you ouer any more to be a reproche among the heathen.

20 And I will remoue farre from you the northen (armie) and I will driue hym into a lande barren and desolate, with his face towardes the east sea, and his hynder partes towardes the vttermost sea: and his stinch shall arise, and his corruption shall ascend, because he hath exalted hym selfe to do this. 21 Feare not O thou lande, be glad and reioyce: for the Lorde will do great thinges. 22 Be not afrayde ye beastes of the fielde, for the fruitfull places of the desart are greene: for the tree beares her fruite, the figge tree and the vine yeelde their strength. 23 Be glad then ye chyldren of Sion, and reioyce in thy Lord your God: for he "hath geuen you moderate (a) rayne, and he will sende downe for you the rayne (euen) the first rayne and the latter rayne, and in the first (moneth.) 24 And the barnes shalbe filled with corne, and the presses shall ouerflowe with wine and oyle. 25 And I will restore to you the yeres whiche the grashopper, the ranker worme, the locust, and the caterpiller haue deuoured, my great armie whiche I sent among st you.

26 And you shall eate in plentie and be satisfied, and shall prayse the name of the Lorde your God whiche hath dealt wonderously with you: and my people shall not be shamed any more.

27 And you shall knowe that I am in the middle of Israel, and (that) I am the Lorde your God, and none but I: and my people shall neuer be ashamed. 28 And it shall come to passe after this: I will powre out my spirite vpon all flesche, and your sonnes & your daughters shall prophecie, your olde men shall dreame dreames, your young men shall see visions. 29 Also in those dayes vpon the seruauntes and vpon the handmaydens will I powre out my spirite. 30 And I will shew wonders in heauen and in earth, blood, and fire, and pillers of smoke.

31 The sunne shalbe turned into darknesse, and the moone into blood, before that great and terrible day of the Lorde come. 32 But whosoeuer shall call on the name of the Lorde shalbe saued: for there shalbe deliuerance in mount Sion and in Hierusalem, as the Lorde hath promised, and (also) in the remnaunt whom the Lorde shall call.

"Or, he hath geuen you the teacher of righteousnesse.

(a) At the first beginning belonging to running, and in the first belonging to corning or hardning of corne, that there be no hinderaunce for lacke of necessarie rayne.

¶ The. iii. Chapter.

Of the iudgement of God against the enemies of his people.

FOr beholde, in those dayes and in that tyme when I shall bryng again the captiuitie of Iuda and Hierusalem, I will also gather all the gentiles, and cause them to come into the valley of (a) Iehosaphat, and I will pleade with them there for my people and heritage Israel, whiche they haue scattered amongst the nations, and haue parted my lande.

(a) He alludeth to the victorie described. 2. Chro. 20.

5 And they haue cast lottes for my people, and chaunged the boy for (b) harlot, and solde the gyrle for wine, that they myght drinke. 4 And what haue you to do with me O Tyre and Sidon, and all the coastes of Palestine? will ye render me recompence? and if you recompence me, I shall swyftly (and) speedyly returne your recompence vpon your owne heades. 5 For ye haue taken my siluer and my golde, my pleasaunt and pretious thinges, and haue caryed them into your temples. 6 You haue solde also the chyldren of Iuda and the chyldren of Hierusalem to the Grecians, that you myght sende them farre from their owne countrey.

(b) They bestowed the spoyle of gods people on whordome and drunkennes.

7 Beholde, I will rayse them out of that place whyther you haue solde them, & will returne your recompence vpon your owne heades. 8 And I will sell your sonnes and your daughters into the handes of the chyldren of Iuda, and they shall sell them vnto the Sabeans, to a nation that dwelleth farre of: for the Lord hath spoken it.

B 9 Publiche this thing among the gentiles, proclayme warre, wake vp the mightie men, let all the men of warre drawe neare and come vp.
10 Breake your plowe ſhares into ſwordes, and your ſithes into ſpeares, let the weake ſay, I am ſtrong.
11 Aſſemble your ſelues and come all you heathen, and gather your ſelues together rounde about, there ſhall the Lorde caſt downe thy mightie men.
12 Let the heathen aryſe and come vp to the valley of Jehoſaphat: for there will I ſit to iudge all nations rounde about. 13 Put in your ſithes, for the harueſt is ripe: come ye (and) deſcende, for the (c) wine preſſe is ful, (yea) the preſſes ouerflowe: for their wickednes is multiplyed. 14 O people, people, (come) into the valley of ſtrall " iudgement: for the day of the Lorde is at hande in the valley of " final iudgement. 15 The ſunne and the moone ſhalbe darkened, and the ſtarres ſhall withdrawe their light.
16 The Lorde alſo ſhall roze out of Sion, and out of Hieruſalem ſhall he geue his voyce, the heauens and the earth ſhall ſhake: but the Lorde will C be the hope of his people, and the ſtrength of the chyldren of Iſrael.
17 So ſhall you know that I am the Lorde your God dwelling in Sion my holy mountayne: then ſhall Hieruſalem be holy, and there ſhall no ſtraungers paſſe through here any more. 18 And in that day ſhall the mountaines drop downe ſweete wine, and the hylles ſhall flow with mylke, and all the riuers of Juda ſhall runne with water, and a fountaine ſhal come out of the houſe of the Lorde, and ſhall water the valley of Sittim.
19 Egypt ſhalbe waſte, and Edom ſhalbe a deſolate wildernelle: for the iniuries (done) to the chyldren of Juda: becauſe they haue ſhed innocens blood in their lande. 20 But Juda ſhall dwell for euermore, and Hieruſalem from generation to generation.
21 I will alſo clenſe the blood of them (that) I haue not clenſed, and the Lorde dwelleth in Sion.

The. ii. Chapter.

He prophecieth agaynst Moab, Iuda, and Israel.

THus sayth the Lozde, Foꝛ three wickednelles of Moab, and foꝛ foure I wyll not "spare him: because he burnt the bones of the kyng of Edom into (a)lime. 2 Therefoꝛe wyll I sende a fyꝛe into Moab, which shall consume the palaces of Carioth, and Moab shal dye with tumult, with howtyng, and with the sounde of the trumpet. 3 And I wyll cut of the iudge out of the midst theꝛof, and wyll slay all the pꝛinces theꝛeof with hym, sayth the Lozde. 4 Thus sayth the Lozde, Foꝛ three wickednelles of Iuda, and foꝛ foure I wyll not spare hym: because they haue cast away the lawe of the Lozde, and haue not kept his oꝛdinaunces, and theiꝛ lyes caused them to erre, after the which theiꝛ fathers walked. 5 Therefoꝛe wyll I sende a fyꝛe into Iuda, whiche shall consume the palaces of Hieruſalem: 6 Thus sayth the Lozd, Foꝛ three wickednelles of Israel, and foꝛ foure I wyll not spare hym: because they solde the ryghteous foꝛ syluer, and the pooze foꝛ a paire of shoes.

7 They "gape foꝛ breath ouer the head of the pooze in the dust of the earth: and peruert the way of the "meeke: A man and his father will go in to one "maide, to dishonour my holy name. 8 And they "lye vpon clothes layde to pledge by euery aulter: and in the house of theiꝛ god they dꝛinke the wine "of the condempned.

9 Yet destroyed I the Amozite beꝛfoꝛe them, whose heyght was like the height of the Cedar trees, and he was stꝛong as the okes: notwithstanding I destroyed his fꝛuite from aboue, and his roote from beneath. 10 Also I bꝛought you vp from the lande of Egypt, and led you fourtie yeres thoꝛowe the wyldernelle, to possesse the lande of the Amozites. 11 And I ꝛaysed vp of your sonnes foꝛ pꝛophetes, and of your young men foꝛ "Nazarites: Is it not euen thus, O ye chyldzen of Israel, saith the Lozde? 12 But ye gaue the Nazarites wine to dꝛinke, and commaunded the pꝛophetes, saying, Pꝛophecie not. 13 Behold, I am pꝛessed vnder you, as a cart is pꝛessed that is full of sheaues. 14 Therefoꝛe the "flight shal perish from the swift, and the stꝛong shal not stengthen his foꝛce, neither shall the mightie saue his lyfe. 15 Noꝛ he that handleth the bowe shall stande, noꝛ he that is swift of foote shall escape, neither shall he that rydeth the hoꝛse, saue his lyfe.

16 And he that is of mightie courage among the stꝛong men, shal flee away naked in that day, saith the Lozde.

The. iii. Chapter.

1 He reproueth the house of Israel of ingratitude, foreshewing gods most iust punishment for the same. 9 Straungers are called to see the equitie of gods iudgementes agaynst Israel.

HEare this woꝛde that the Lozde pꝛonounceth agaynst you, O chyldzen of Israel (euen) agaynst the whole familie whiche I bꝛought vp from the lande of Egypt, saying,

2 You only haue I knowen of all the families of the earth, therefoꝛe I wyll visite you foꝛ all your iniquities.

3 Can two walke together, except they be agreed? 4 Wyll a lion ꝛoare in the foꝛest when he hath no pꝛay? oꝛ wyl a lions whelpe cꝛye out of his denne, if he haue taken nothyng? 5 Can a birde fall in a snare vpon the earth where no fouler is? oꝛ wyll he take vp the snare from the earth, and haue taken nothyng at all? 6 Oꝛ shall a trumpet be blowen in the citie, and the people be not afrayde? oꝛ shall there be (a) euyll in a citie, and the Lozde hath not done it? 7 "Surely the Lozde God wyll do nothyng, but he reuealeth his secrete vnto his seruauntes the pꝛophetes. 8 The lion hath ꝛoared, who wyll not be afrayde? The Lozde God hath spoken, who who * can but prophecie?

* Or, who will not prophecie?

9 Proclaime in the palaces at Asdod and in the palaces in the lande of Egypt, and say, Assemble your selues vppon the mountaynes of Samaria, and beholde the great tumultes in the mids thereof, and the oppressed in the mids thereof: 10 For they know not to do eyght, sayth the Lorde, they store vp * violence and robberie in theyr palaces. 11 Therfore thus sayth the Lord God, An aduersarie (shall come) euen rounde about the countrey, and shall bryng downe thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shalbe spoyled.

* Or, iniurie.

12 Thus sayth the Lord, As the shepheardе taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legges or a peece of an eare: so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus (as in) a couche. 13 Heare and testifie in the house of Iacob, sayth the Lorde God, the God of hoastes: 14 That in the day that I shall visite the * transgressions of Israel vpon hym, I will also visite the aulters of Bethel, and the hornes of the aulter shalbe * broken of, and fall to the grounde. 15 And I wyll smyte the winter house with the sommer house, and the houses of yuorie shall perysh, and the great houses shalbe consumed, sayth the Lorde.

The.iiii. Chapter.

1 Vnder the name of fat kyne of Basan, he inueyeth agaynst the gouernours of Samaria, and foresheweth theyr punishment.

HEare this worde ye kyne of Basan, that are in the mountayne of Samaria, whiche oppresse the poore, and destroy the needye, whiche say to theyr (a) maisters, Bring and let vs drinke. 2 The Lorde God hath swoorne by his holinesse, that lo the dayes shall come vppon you, that he wil take you away with (b) hookes, and your posteritie with fishehookes.

(a) That is, to the creditours to whō the poore are indebted. (b) He alludeth to fishers, which catche fishe by hookes & thornes.

3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, euery (Cow) forward: and ye shal * cast your selues out of the palace, sayth the Lorde. 4 Come to Bethel, and * transgresse: to Gilgal, and multiplie transgression: and bring your sacrifices in the morning, and your tythes after three yeres. 5 And offer a thankesgeuing of leauen, publyshe and proclayme the free offerynges: for this lyketh you O ye children of Israel, sayth the Lorde God.

* Or, caste downe the palace.

* Or, commit wickednesse.

6 Therefore haue I geuen you (c) cleannesse of teeth in all your cities, and scarcenesse of bread in all your places: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, sayth the Lorde. 7 And also I haue withholden the rayne from you when there were yet three monethes to the harueste, and I caused it to rayne vpon one citie, and haue not caused it to rayne vpon another citie: one peece was rayned vpon, and the peece whereupon it rayned not, wythered.

(c) That is, lack of bread and meate.

8 So two (or) three cities wandred vnto one citie to drynke water, but they were not satisfied: yet haue ye not returned vnto me sayth the Lorde.

9 I haue smitten you with blastyng and mildeawe, your great gardens, and your vineyardes, and your figge trees, and your olyue trees, dyd the * palmer worme deuour: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, sayth the Lorde. 10 Pestilence haue I sent among you after the maner of Egypt: your young men haue I slayne with the swoorde, and haue taken away your horses, and I haue made the stinke of your tentes to come euen vp to your nostrels: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, sayth the Lorde. 11 I haue ouerthrowen * you, as God ouerthrewe Sodoma and Gomorra: and ye were as a fyrebrande pluckt out of the burnyng: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, sayth the Lorde. 12 Therefore thus wyll I do vnto thee O Israel, (and) because I wyl do this vnto thee, (d) prepare to meete thy God O Israel.

* Or, caterpylles.

* Or, among you, meanyng some part of theyr countrey to haue bēn ouerthrowen.

(d) Turne to him by repentaunce.

¶ The.v. Chapter.

1 The prophete lamenteth the captiuitie of Sion. 4 He calleth to repentaunce. 8 He describeth the power of God.

HEare ye this worde which I lyft vp vpon you, (euen) a lamentation of the house of Israel.

* Or, Of the house.

2 The virgin Israel is fallen, and shall no more ryse: she is left vppon her lande, and there is none to rayse her vp. 3 For thus sayth the Lorde God, The citie whiche went out by a thousande shall leaue an hundred, and that whiche went forth by an hundied, shall leane ten to the house of Israel. 4 For thus sayth the Lorde vnto the house of Israel, Seeke ye me, and ye shal lyue. 5 But seeke not Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal, and go not to Beer-seba: for Gilgal shall go into captiuitie, and Bethel shall come to naught. 6 Seeke the Lorde, and ye shal liue: lest he breake out like fire in the house of Ioseph, and deuoure it, and there be noone to quenche it in Bethel. 7 They turne iudgement to wormwood, and forsake righteousnesse in the earth. 8 He maketh the seuen starres and Orion, and he turneth (a) the shadowe of death into the mornyng, and he maketh the day darke as night: he calleth the waters of the sea, and powreth them out vpon the open earth, the Lorde is his name. 9 He strengthneth the destroyer agaynst the mightie, and the destroyer shall "come agaynst the fortresse. 10 They hate hym that rebuketh (b) in the gate, and they abhorre hym that speaketh vprightly.

11 Forasmuch then as your treading is vpon the poore, and ye (c) take from hym burthens of wheate: ye haue buylt houses of hewen stone, but ye shall not dwell in them: ye haue planted pleasaunt vineyardes, but ye shal not drynke wine of them. 12 For I knowe your "manyfolde transgressions, and your mightie sinnes: they afflict the iust, they take rewardes, and they oppresse the poore in the gate. 13 Therfore the wise shal kepe silence in that tyme: for it is an euyll tyme. 14 Seeke good, and not euyll, that ye may lyue: and so the Lord God of hoastes shalbe with you, as you haue spoken. 15 Hate the euill, and loue the good, and establyshe iudgement in the gate: it may be, that the Lorde God of hoastes wilbe mercifull vnto the remnaunt of Ioseph. 16 Therfore the lord God of hoastes the Lord sayth thus, Mourning shalbe in all streetes, and they shal say in all the bye wayes, Alas, alas: and they shall call the husbandman to lamentation, and suche as can mourne "to mourning. 17 And in all the vines shalbe lamentation: for I will passe through thee, sayth the Lorde.

22 Though ye offer me whole burnt offerynges, and meate offerynges, I will not accept them, neither will I regarde the peace offeryng of your fat beastes. 23 Take thou away from me the multitude of thy songues, for I will not heare the melodie of thy violes. 24 And "let iudgement run downe as water, and righteousnesse as a mightie ryuer. 25 Haue ye offered vnto me sacrifices and offerynges in the wildernesse fourtie yeres, O house of Israel? 26 But ye haue borne (e) Sicuth your kyng, and Chiun your ymages, and the starre of your gods, whiche ye made to your selues. 27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captiuitie beyonde Damascus, sayth the Lorde, whose name is the God of hoastes.

(a) That is, the thickest darkenesse into the morning lyght.

"Or, Assaile.

¶ The.vi. Chapter.

1 He prophecieth agaynst the princes of Israel liuyng in pleasures.

WO to them that are at ease in Sion, and trust in the mountayne of Samaria, whiche were famous at the begynnyng of the nations, and the house of Israel came to them. 2 Go you vnto Calneh, and see, and from thence go you to Hemath the great, then go downe to Gath of the Philistines: be (a) they better then these kyngdomes? or the border of theyr lande greater then your border? 3 Ye that put farre away the euyll day, and "approche to the seate of iniquitie. 4 They lye vpon beddes of yuorie, and stretche them selues vpon theyr couches, and eate the lammes out of the flocke, and the calues out of the stall. 5 They syng to the sounde of the viole, they inuent to them selues instrumentes of musicke, lyke Dauid.

6 They drynke wine in bowles, and annoynt them selues with cheefe oyntmentes: but no man is sorye for the affliction of Ioseph. 7 Therefore nowe shall they go captiue with the first that go captiue, and the 9 And yf there remayne ten men in one house, they shal dye. 10 And his vncle shall take hym vp, and burne hym, to cary out the bones out of the house, and shall say to hym that is by the (c) sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? And he shal say, None. Then shall he say, Holde thy tongue: for we may not remember the name of the Lorde. 11 For behold the lord commaundeth, and he wyll smyte the great house with breaches, & the lytle houses with clefftes. 12 Shal horses run vpon the (d) rocke? or wyll one plowe there with oxen? for ye haue turned iudgement into * gall, and the fruite of righteousnesse into wormewood. 13 Ye reioyce in a thyng of naught, ye say, Haue not we gotten vs hornes by our owne strength?

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

1 God sheweth certayne visions, whereby he signifieth the destruction of the people of Israel.

THus hath the Lorde God shewed vnto me, and beholde, he fourmed grashoppers in the begynnyng of the shootyng vp of the latter growth, and lo it was in the latter growth, after the (a) kinges mowing. 2 And when they haue made an end of eating the grasse of the lande, then I sayde, O Lorde God, spare I beseeche thee: Who shall rayse vp Jacob? for he is small. 3 So the Lord (b) repented for this: it shall not be, sayth the Lorde.

4 Thus also hath the lord god shewed vnto me, and beholde the lord god called to iudgement by fire, and it deuoured the great deepe, and did eate vp a part. 5 Then sayde I, O Lorde God, ceasse I beseech thee: Who shall rayse vp Jacob? for he is small. 6 So the Lord repented for this: this also shall not be, sayth the Lord God. 7 Thus agayne he shewed me, and beholde the Lorde stoode vpon a wall (made) by line (c) with a line in his hande.

8 And the Lorde sayde vnto me, Amos what seest thou? And I sayde, A line. Then sayde the Lorde, Behold I wil set a line in the mids of my people Israel, & wyll passe by them no more.

9 And the hie places of Isahac shalbe desolate, and the * temples of Israel shalbe destroyed, and I wyll rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword. 10 Then Amazia the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam kyng of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the mids of the house of Israel: the land is not able to beare all his wordes. 11 For thus Amos sayth, Jeroboam shall dye by the sworde, and Israel shalbe led away captiue out of their owne lande.

12 Also Amazia sayde to Amos, O thou the sear, Go, flee thou away into the lande of Juda, and there eate thy bread, and prophecie there. 13 But prophecie no more at Bethel: for it is the kings chappel, and it is the kings court. 14 Then aunswered Amos, and sayde vnto Amazia, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophets sonne: but I was an heardeman, and a gatherer of wilde figges. 15 And the lord toke me as I folowed the flocke, and the Lorde sayd vnto me, Go, prophecie vnto my people Israel.

16 Now therefore heare thou the word of the Lorde: Thou sayest, Prophecie not against Israel, and speake not thyng against the house of Isahac.

17 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde, Thy wife shalbe an harlot in the cite, and thy sonnes and thy daughters shall fall by the sworde, and thy lande shalbe diuided by line, and thou shalt dye in a polluted land, and Israel shall surely go into captiuitie foorth of his lande.

(c) Signifying that this shoulde be the last measuring of the people, and that he would defer his iudgement no longer.

¶ The. viii. Chapter.

1 By a vision of a basket of sommer fruite, the ende of the kingdome of Israel is shewed.

THus hath the Lorde God shewed vnto me: and beholde, a basket of sommer fruite. 2 And he sayde, Amos what seest thou? And I sayde, A basket of (a) sommer fruite. Then sayd the Lorde vnto me, The ende is come vpon my people of Israel, I wil passe by them no more. 3 And the songues of the temple shalbe howlinges in that day, sayth the Lorde God: many dead bodies shalbe in euery place, they shall cast them foorth with silence.

4 Heare this, O ye that swalowe vp the

And it shall rise vp wholly as a floodde, and it shalbe cast out, and (c) drowned, as by the floodde of Egypt. 9 And in that day sayth the lord God, I will euen cause the (d) sun to go downe at noone, and I will darken the earth in the cleare day.

10 And I will turne your feastes into mourning, and all your songues into lamentation: and I wyll bryng sackcloth vpon all loynes, and baldenesse vppon euery head, and I wyll make it as the mourning of an only sonne, and the ende thereof as a bitter day. 11 Behold the dayes come saith the Lorde God, that I wyll sende a famine in the lande, not a famine of bread, nor thirst for water, but of hearyng the worde of the Lorde. 12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north euen vnto the east shal they run to and fro to seeke the worde of the Lorde, and shall not fynde it.

13 In that day shal the faire virgins, and the young men perysshe for thirst.

14 They that sweare by the (e) sinne of Samaria, and that say, Thy God O Dan liueth, and the (f) maner of Beersheba lyueth, euen they shall fall, and neuer ryse vp agayne.

The booke of the prophete Abdias.

1 The vision of Abdi. Thus saith the lord god agaynst Edom, We haue hearde a rumour from the Lorde, and an ambassadour is sent among the heathen: Aryse, and let vs ryse vp agaynst her to battayle. 2 Beholde, I haue made thee small among the heathen, thou art vtterly despised. 3 The pride of thyne heart hath deceaued thee, thou that dwellest in the clefftes of the rocken, whose habitation (is) hye, that sayth in his heart, Who shal bring me downe to the ground? 4 Yea though thou exalt thy selfe as the Egle, and make thy nest among the starres, thence wil I bring thee downe, sayth the Lorde. 5 Came theeues to thee, or robbers by nyght: howe wast thou brought to silence? woulde they not haue stollen till they had ynough? If the grape gatherers came to thee, woulde they not leaue (some) grapes? 6 Howe are the thynges of Esau sought vp, (and) his treasures searched? 7 All the men of thy confederacie haue brought thee to the borders, the men that were at peace with thee haue deceaued thee, and preuayled agaynst thee, (they that eate) thy bread haue layd a wounde vnder thee, there is none vnderstandyng in hym.

8 Shall not I in that day, sayde the Lord, euen destroy the wise men out of Edom, and vnderstandyng from the mount of Esau? 9 And thy strong men O Theman shalbe afrayde: because euery one of the mount of Esau shalbe cut of by slaughter. 10 For thy cruelte agaynst thy brother Jacob shame shall couer thee, and thou shalt be cut of for euer. 11 When thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the straungers caryed away his substaunce, and straungers entred into his gates, and cast lottes vpon Hierusalem, euen thou wast as one of them. 12 But thou shouldest not haue beholden the day of thy brother in the day that he was made a straunger, neither shouldest thou haue reioyced ouer the children of Juda in the day of theyr destruction, thou shouldest not haue spoken proudly in the day of affliction: 13 Thou shouldest not haue entred into the gate of my people in the day of theyr destruction, neither shouldest thou haue once looked on theyr affliction in the day of theyr destruction, nor haue layde handes on theyr substance in the day of theyr destruction: 14 Neither shouldest thou haue stande in the crosse wayes to cut of them that shoulde escape, neither shouldest thou haue shut vp the remnaunt thereof in the day of affliction.

15 For the day of the Lorde is neare vppon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shalbe done to thee, thy reward shall returne vpon thyne head.

16 For as ye haue (a) dronke vppon myne holy mountayne, so shall all the heathen drynke continually: yea, they shall drinke and swalowe vp, and they shalbe as though they (b) had not ben.

17 But vpon mount Sion shalbe deliuerannce, and it shalbe holy, and the house of Jacob shall possesse theyr possessions. 18 And the house of Jacob shalbe a fyre, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau as stubble, and they shall kindle in them and deuoure them, and there shalbe no remnant of the house of Esau: for the Lorde hath spoken it. 19 And they shal possesse the south side of the mount of Esau, and the playne of the Philistines, and they shall possesse the feeldes of Ephraim, and the feeldes of Samaria, and Benjamin (shal haue) Gilead. 20 And the captiuitie of this hoast of the children of Israel, whiche were among the Chanaanites (shall possesse) vnto Zarephath, and the captiuitie of Hierusalem whiche is in Sepharad, shall possesse the cities of the south. 21 And they that shall (c) saue, shall come vp to mount Sion to iudge the mount of Esau, and the kyngdome shalbe the Lordes.

(a) That is, reioyced and triumphed.
(b) That is, at the length they shal vterly perysh.
(c) Meanyng that god wyll rayse vp in his Churche his suche as shal rule and gouerne for the defence of the same, and destruction of his enemies vnder Messias.

The booke of the prophete Ionas.

¶ The first Chapter.

¶ 3 Ionas fled when he was sent to preache. 4 A tempest aryseth, and he is cast into the sea for his disobedience.

THe woꝛd of the loꝛd came vnto (a) Ionas the sonne of Amittai, saying, 2 Aryse, and go to (b) Ninive that great citie, & crye agaynst it: foꝛ theyr wyckednesse is come vp before me.

3 And Ionas rose vp to flee into Tharsis from the presence of the loꝛd, and went downe to (c) Ioppa, and founde a ship goyng to (d) Tharsis: so he payed his fare, and went downe into it, that he myght go with them vnto Tharsis from the (e) presence of the Loꝛde. 4 But the Loꝛde sent out a great wynde into the sea, and there was a mightie tempest in the sea, so that the shyppe was in daunger of splitting in sunder. 5 Then the mariners were afrayde, and cryed euery man vnto his God, and cast the wares that were in the shippe into the sea, to lighten it of them: but Ionas was gone downe into the sides of the ship, and he lay downe sleeping. 6 And the shipmaister came vnto hym, and sayd, What meanest thou sleeper? Vp, and call vpon thy God, if so be that God wyll "thyne vnto vs, that we perysshe not. 7 And they sayde euery one to his felow, Come, let vs cast lottes: that we may knowe foꝛ whose cause this euill is on vs. And they cast lots: and the lot fell on Ionas. 8 Then sayde they vnto hym, Tell vs foꝛ whose cause is this euill come vppon vs? what is thine occupation? whence camest thou? what countrey man art thou? and of what nation? 9 And he aunswered them, I am an Hebrue, and I feare the Loꝛde God of heauen, which hath made the sea, and the dryc lande. 10 Then were the men exceedyngly afrayde, and sayde vnto hym, Why hast thou done this? (foꝛ the men knewe that he fled from the presence of the Loꝛde, because he had tolde them.) 11 And they sayde vnto him, What shall we do vnto thee, that the sea may be calme vnto vs? Foꝛ the sea wrought and was troublous. 12 And he sayd vnto them, Take me, and cast me into the sea, and the sea shalbe calme vnto you: foꝛ I knowe that foꝛ my sake this great tempest is vpon you. 13 Neuertheles, the men assayed with rowing to bryng the shippe to lande, but they could not, because the sea wrought, and was troublous agaynst them. 14 Wherefoꝛe they cryed vnto the Loꝛde, and sayde, We beseech thee O Loꝛd, we beseeche thee let vs not perysshe foꝛ this mans lyfe, and laye not to our charge innocent blood: foꝛ thou O Loꝛd hast done as it pleased thee. 15 So they tooke vp Ionas, and cast hym into the sea, and the sea left ragyng. 16 And the men feared the Loꝛde exceedyngly, and offered a sacrifice vnto the Loꝛde, and made (f) vowes. 17 And the Loꝛde prepared a great fishe to swalowe vp Ionas: and Ionas was in the belly of the fyshe thꝛee dayes and thꝛee nyghtes.

¶ 1 Ionas is in the fishes belly. 3 His prayer. 10 He is deliuered.

AND Ionas prayed vnto the Loꝛd his God out of the (a) fishes belly, 2 And sayde, In affliction I cryed vnto the Loꝛde, and he hearde me: out of the belly of hell cryed I, and thou heardest my voyce. 3 Thou haddest cast me downe into the deepe, into the myddest of the sea, and the flooddes compassed me about: all thy billowes and waues passed ouer me. 4 And I sayde, I am cast away out of thy syght, yet wyll I loke agayne towarde thyne holy temple. 5 The waters compassed me euen vnto the soule, the deapth closed me on euerye side, and the weedes were wrapt about my head. 6 I went downe to the bottome of the mountaynes, the earth with her barres was about me foꝛ euer: yet hast thou brought vp my lyfe from coꝛruption O Loꝛde my God.

7 When my soule faynted within me, I remembred the Loꝛde, and my prayer came in vnto thee into thy holy temple. 8 They that hold vpon (b) lying vanitie, foꝛsake "his mercie. 9 But I wyll sacrifice vnto thee with the voyce of thankesgeuyng, and wyll pay that that I haue vowed; foꝛ saluation is of the Loꝛde.

(d) It is the name of a place lykely to be Cicilia, for there was a great citie of that name, where also Paul was borne.

10 And the Lorde spake vnto the fishe, and it cast out Jonas vppon the (c) drye lande.

The. iii. Chapter.

1 Ionas is sent agayne to Niniue. 5 The repentaunce of the king of Niniue.

AND the worde of the Lorde came vnto Jonas the seconde time, saying, 2 Aryse, and go to Niniue that great citie, and preache agaynst it the preachyng whiche I speake vnto thee. 3 So Jonas arose and went to Niniue according to the worde of the Lorde (Niniue was a great citie and (a) excellent, of three dayes tourney.) 4 And Jonas began to enter into the citie a dayes tourney, and he cried, and sayde, Yet fourtie dayes, and Niniue shalbe destroyed. 5 And the men of Niniue beleued God, and proclaymed a fast, and put on sackcloth from the greatest of them to the least of them.

6 And worde came vnto the king of Niniue: whiche arose from his throne, and put of his robe, and couered him selfe with sackcloth, and sate downe in asshes. 7 And he caused a cryer to crye, and say through the citie by the counsel of the king and his nobles, Let neither man nor beaste, bullocke, nor sheepe, taste ought at all, neither feede, nor drinke water.

8 And let both man and beast put on sackcloth, and crye myghtyly vnto god: yea let euery man turne from his euyll way, and from the wyckednesse that is in his handes. 9 Who can tel whether God wyll turne and be moued with (b) repentaunce, and turne from his fierce wrath, that we perysshe not? 10 And God saw their workes that they turned from theyr euyll wayes, and he repented of the (c) euyll that he sayde he would do vnto them, and did it not.

The. iiii. Chapter.

¶ The great goodnesse of god toward his creatures.

AND this displeased Jonas greatly, and he was (a) angrye (within him selfe.) 2 And he prayed vnto the Lorde, and sayde, I pray thee O Lorde, was not this my saying when I was yet in my countrey: therefore I hasted to flee vnto Tharsis: For I knew that thou art a gratious God, and mercifull, long sufferyng, and of great kindnesse, and repentest thee of euyll. 3 And nowe O Lorde, take I beseeche thee my lyfe from me: for it is better for me to dye then to lyue.

4 Then sayde the Lorde, Doest thou well to be angry? 5 And Jonas went out of the citie, and sate hym downe on the east side therof, and there made hym a boothe, and sate vnder it in the shadow, till he might see what should be done in the citie. 6 And the Lord God prepared a gourde, and made it spryng vp ouer Jonas, that it might be a shadowe ouer his head, to deliuer him from his greefe: So Jonas was exceeding glad of the gourde. 7 But god prepared a worme when the morowning rose the next day, whiche smote the gourde, that it withered. 8 And when the sunne rose, God prepared a feruent east winde, and the sunne beat vpon the head of Jonas that he fainted: and wished vnto his soule that he might die, and said, It is better for me to dye then to lyue. 9 And the Lord sayde vnto Jonas, Doest thou well to be so angrye within thy selfe for the gourde? And he sayde, I do well to be angry euen vnto death. 10 Then sayde the Lorde, Thou hast had compassion on the gourd about the which thou bestowedst no labour, neither madest it growe: which came vp in a night, and perished in a night: 11 And shall not I spare Niniue that great citie, in the which are more then sixe score thousand persons that know not theyr right hande and theyr left, and also muche cattayle?

(a) Because hereby he should be taken as a false prophet, and so the name of God whiche he preached, should be blaspheamed, or, prouuented.

The booke of the prophete Micheas.

¶ The first Chapter.

¶ Of the destruction of Samaria because of theyr idolatrie.

THE worde of the lorde came vnto Micheas the Morasthite, in the dayes of Jotham, Achas and Ezechias, kinges of Juda, which he saw concerning Samaria and Hierusalem. 2 Heare all ye people, marke this well O earth and all that therein is, yea let the Lorde God hym selfe be witnesse agaynst you, (euen) the Lorde from his holy temple. 3 For beholde, the Lorde shall come out of his holye place, and come downe and treade vpon vpon the high thinges of the earth.

4 The mountaynes shall melt vnder hym, and the valleyes shall cleaue a sunder, lyke as wax (meketh) before the fyre, and as the waters runne downewarde. 5 And all this shalbe for the wickednesse of Jacob, and the sinnes of the house of Jsrael: but what is the wickednesse of Jacob? is not (a) Samaria? which are the hye places of Juda? is not Hierusalem?
6 Therefore I wyll make Samaria an heape of the feelde (meete) for the plantyng of a vineyarde: her stones wyll I tumble downe into the valley, and discouer her foundations.
7 All her images shalbe broken downe, and all her "garmentes shalbe brent in the fyre, yea all her idols wyll I destroy: for they are gathered out of the hyre of an (b) harlot, and into an harlots hyre shall they be turned agayne. 8 Wherefore I wyll mourne and make lamentation, bare and naked wyll I go: I wyll mourne lyke the Dragons, and take sorowe as the Ostriches. 9 For their wounde is past remedie, it is come into Juda, and hath touched the gate of my people at Hierusalem afredie.
10 Declare it not at Gath, neither weepe ye: for the house of Aphra roule thy selfe in the dust. 11 Thou that dwellest at Saphir get thee hence naked with shame: the that dwelleth at (c) Zaanan, shall not come forth in the mournyng of Bethezel: (the enemie) shall receaue of you for his (d) standyng. 12 For the inhabitauntes of Maroth wayled for good, but the plague shal come from the Lorde, euen vnto the gates of Hierusalem. 13 O thou (e) inhabitaunt of Lachis, binde the charret to the swiftest (f) beast, she is the beginnyng of the sinne of the daughter of Sion: for the transgressions of Jsrael were founde in thee.
14 Therefore shalt thou byrng presentes to (g) Mozesheth Gath: the houses of Achzib (shalbe) as a lye to the kynges of Jsrael. 15 And as for thee O thou that dwellest at Mareia, I wyll bryng a possessioner vpon thee, he shall come to Adullam, the glorye of Jsrael. 16 Make thee baulse, (h) and shaue thee because of thy tender children: make thee cleane baulde as an Egle, for they shalbe caried away captyue from thee.

¶ The .ii. Chapter.
Threatninges agaynst the sinfull people.
6 They woulde teache the prophetes to preache.

WO vnto them that imagine iniquitie, and worke wickednesse vpon their beddes: when the morrowyng is lyght they practise it, because their hand hath power. 2 And they couet feeldes, and take them by violence, and houses, and take them away: so they oppresse a man and his house, (euen) man and his heritage. 3 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde, Behold, agaynst this household haue I deuised a plague, whereout ye shall not plucke your neckes: ye shall no more go so proudly, for it wyll be a perilous tyme. 4 In that day shall this parable be vsed, and a mournyng shalbe made ouer you on this maner: We be vtterly "desolate, the portion of my people is chaunged: how wyll "he part vnto vs the lande that he hath taken from vs. 5 Therefore there shalbe no man to diuide thee thy portion in the congregation of the Lorde. 6 Ye shall not (a) prophecie (say they) to them that prophecie: (b) they shall not prophecie to them, neither shall they take shame. 7 O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the spirite of the Lord shortened? are these his workes? are not my wordes good vnto hym that walketh vprightly? 8 But he that was yesterday my people, is risen vp on the other side (as) agaynst an enemie: they spoile the beautiful garment from them that passe by peaceably, as thongh they returned from the warre. 9 The women of my people haue ye shut out from their pleasaunt houses, and taken away "myne excellent gyftes from their children, 10 Vp, get you hence, for here shall ye haue no rest: because (the lande) is defiled, it shall destroye (you) with bitter destruction. 11 If a man (c) walke in the spirite, and would lye falsely (saying) I wyll prophecie to thee of (d) wine and strong drinke: that were a prophete for this people. 12 I wyll surely gather thee wholly O Jacob, I wyll surely gather the remnaunt of Jsrael, I wyll put them together as the sheepe of Bozra, as the flocke in the middest of their folde, they shal make great noise by reason of the (multitude) of men.

(h) To stirre his wrathfull indignation agaynst the Israelites, for their obstinate wickednesse.

¶ The .iii. Chapter.

Agaynst the tyranny of princes and false prophetes.

AND I sayde, Heare I pray you O heades of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel, should not ye knowe iudgement? 2 (But) they hate the good, and loue the euill, they pluche of their shinnes from them, and their flesshe from their bones.

3 And they eate also the flesshe of my people, and flay of their shinne from them: and they breake their bones, and chop them in peeces as for the pot, and as flesshe within the cauldron.

4 Then shall they crye vnto the lozd, but he wyll not heare them: he wyll euen hyde his face from them at that tyme, because they haue done wickedly in their wozkes. 5 Thus sayth the Lozde concernyng the prophetes that deceaue my people, (a) and byte them with their teeth, and crye peace: but yf a man put not into their mouthes, they prepare warre against him.

(a) False prophetes deuoured the substaunce of their followers, and make gayne of religion.

6 Therefore (b) nyght (shalbe) vnto you for a vision, and darknesse (shalbe) vnto you for a diuination: and the sunne shall go downe ouer the prophetes, and the day shall be darke ouer them. 7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the soothsayers confounded: yea (c) they shall all couer their lippes, for they haue none answere of God. 8 Yet notwithstandyng, I am full of power by the spirite of the Lozd, and of iudgement, and of strength, to declare vnto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sinne. 9 Heare this I pray you ye heades of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel: they abhorre iudgement, and peruert all equitie. 10 (d) They buylde vp Sion with blood, and Hierusalem with iniquitie. (11 The heades therof iudge for rewardes, and the priestes therof teache for hyre, and the prophetes therof prophecie for money: yet wyll they leane vpon the Lozde, and say, Is not the Lozde among vs? no euyll can come vpon vs.) 12 Therefore shal Sion for your sake be plowed (as) a feelde, and Hierusalem shalbe an heape, & the mountayne of the house as the hie places of the forest.

(b) Ye now pretende, shalbe knowen to be grosse ignorannce.
(c) They shal couer their faces for shame.
(d) They fortifie and garnishe their citie with goodes wrongfully gotten, which here are called blood and iniquitie

¶ The .iiii. Chapter.

The calling of the gentiles and conuersion of the Iewes.

BVt in the (a) latter dayes it wyll come to passe that the hyll of the Lozdes house shalbe prepared in the toppe of the mountaynes, and shalbe set vp higher then any mountaynes or hilles, and people shall preasse vnto it. 2 Yea the multitude of the gentiles shall haste them thyther, saying, Come, let vs go vp to the hill of the Lozde, and to the house of the God of Jacob, and he shal teache vs his wayes, and we wyll walke in his pathes: for the lawe shall come out of Sion, and the wozde of God from Hierusalem. 3 And he shall iudge many people, and rebuke mighty nations of farre countreis: so that of their swoordes they shall make ploughshares, and sythes of their speares: one people shall not lift vp a swozde agaynst another, yea they shal no moze learne to fyght. 4 But euery man shall sit vnder his vineyarde, and vnder his figge tree, and no man shall make them afrayde: for the mouth of the Lozde of hoastes hath spoken it. 5 Therefore all people wyll walke euery man in the name of his God: and we wyll walke in the name of our Lozde God for euer and euer. 6 At the same tyme sayth the Lozde, wyll I gather vp the lame and the outcast, and such as I haue chastened. 7 And wyll geue a remnaunt vnto the lame, and make of the outcast a mightie people: and the Lozde him selfe shalbe their kyng vpon the mount Sion, from this tyme foorth for euermoze. 8 And vnto thee O thou towze of the flocke, thou strong holde of the daughter Sion, vnto thee shall it come, euen the lozdeship and kingdome to the daughter Hierusalem. 9 Why then dost thou crye and lament? is there no kyng in thee? are thy counsellers perished, that thou art so payned as a woman in her trauayle? 10 And nowe O thou daughter Sion, sozdweand lament as a woman in her trauaile: for nowe must thou get thee out of the citie, and dwell vpon the plaine feelde: yea vnto Babylon shalt thou go, (but) there shalt thou be deliuered, and there the Lozde shall redeeme thee from the hande of thyne enemies. 11 Nowe also are there many people gathered together agaynst thee, saying, Sion shalbe shalbe condempned, and our eye shall loke vpon Sion. 12 But they know not the thoughtes of the Lorde, they vnderstande not his counsell: for he shall gather them together as the sheaues in the barne. 13 Therefore ℭ get thee vp O thou daughter Sion, and threshe out the corne: for I wyll make thy horne iron, and thy hoofes brasse, that thou mayst breake in peces many people: their goodes shalt thou consecrate vnto the Lorde, and their substaunce vnto the ruler of the whole worlde.

¶ The .v. Chapter.

Of the destruction of Hierusalem.

NOwe "shalt thou be robbed thy selfe O thou robbers daughter: they shall lay siege agaynst vs, and smite the iudge of Israel with a rodde vpon the cheeke. 2 And thou Bethlehem Ephrata art litle among the thousandes of Juda, out of thee shall he come forth vnto me whiche shall be the gouernour in Israel, whose outgoing hath ben from the beginning, and from euerlasting.

3 Therfore wyl he geue them vp for a season, vntyl the tyme that she which shall beare haue borne: then shall the remnaunt of his brethren be conuerted vnto the chyldren of Israel.

4 He shal stande fast, and geue foode in the strength of the Lorde, and in the maiestie of the name of the Lorde his god: and when they be conuerted, he shalbe magnified vnto the farthest partes of the worlde. 5 And he shall be our peace: when the Assyrians shal come into our lande, when he shall treade in our palaces, then shall we rayse agaynst him seuen sheepheards, and eyght principall men. 6 These shall subdue the lande of Assur with the sworde, and the lande of Nimrod with their naked weapons: thus shal he deliuer vs from the Assyrian when he commmeth within our lande, and setteth his foote within our borders.

7 And the remnaunt of Jacob shalbe among the multitude of people as the deawe of the Lorde, and as the droppes vpon the grasse, that tarryeth for no man and waiteth on no body.

8 Yea the residue of Jacob shalbe among the gentiles and the multitude of people, as the lion among the beastes of the wood, and as the lions whelpe among the flockes of sheepe: which when he goeth through, treadeth downe, teareth in peeces, and there is no man that can deliuer.

9 Thyne hande shalbe lyft vp vpon thyne enemies, and all thyne aduersaries shall perishe. 10 And it shall come to passe in that day sayth the Lorde, that I wyl take thyne horses from thee, and destroy thy charrettes. 11 I wyll breake downe the cities of thy lande, and ouerthrowe all thy strong holdes. 12 All witchcraftes wyl I roote out of thyne hande, there shal no mo soothsayinges be within thee. 13 Thyne idols and thine images wyl I destroy out of thee, so that thou shalt no more bowe thy selfe vnto the workes of thyne owne handes. ℭ 14 Thy groues wyll I plucke vp by the rootes, and breake downe thy cities, 15 And I wyl execute a vengeaunce in my wrath and indignation vpon the heathen, such as they haue not heard.

¶ The .vi. Chapter.

1 An exhortation to heare the iudgement agaynst Israel beyng vnkynde. 8 What maner of sacrifices do please God.

HEarken ye nowe what the Lorde sayth, Aryse thou, and contende with the mountaynes, and let the hilles heare thy voyce. 2 Heare O ye mountaines the Lordes quarel, and ye mightie foundations of the earth: for the Lorde hath a quarell agaynst his people, & wyll pleade with Israel. 3 O my people what haue I done vnto thee? or wherin haue I greeued thee? geue me aunswere.

4 I haue brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, and deliuered thee out of the house of bondage, and I made Moyses, Aaron, and Miriam to leade thee. 5 Remember O my people, what Balach the kyng of Moab had deuised agaynst thee, and what aunswere that Balaam the sonne of Beor gaue him, from Sethim vnto Galgal, that ye may knowe the righteousnesse of the Lorde.

6 Wherewith shall I come before the Lorde, and bowe my selfe to the hye God? Shall I come before him with burnt offeringes, & with calues of a yere olde? 7 Hath the Lorde a pleasure in many thousandes of rammes, or innumerable streames of oyle? shall I geue my first borne for myne offences, and the fruite of my bodye for the sinne of my soule.

8 He hath shewed thee O man what is good, and what the Lord requireth of thee: (namely) to do iustly, to loue mercie, and to humble thy selfe to walke with thy god. 9 The Lordes voyce cryeth vnto the citie, and the man that halbe saued consydereth thy name: hearken what is your rod, and heare hym that warneth you.

10 Are not yet the treasures of wickednesse in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure whiche is abhominable? 11 Shoulde I iustifie the false balaunces, and the bagge of deceitfull weightes? 12 For the riche men therof are full of crueltie, & the inhabitanntes thereof haue spoken lyes, and haue deceitful tongues in their mouthes. 13 Therefore I wyll take in hande to punishe thee, and to make thee "desolate, because of thy sinnes. 14 Thou shalt eate, and not haue inough: yea thou shalt bryng thy selfe downe in the middes of thee, thou "shalt slee, but not escape, and those that thou wouldest saue, wyll I deliuer to the swoorde.

15 Thou shalt sowe, but not reape, thou shalt presse out Olyues, but oyle shalt thou not haue to annoynt thy selfe with oyle: thou shalt treade out sweete must, but thou shalt drynke no wine. 16 Ye kepe the ordinaunces of Amri, and all the customes of the house of Ahab, ye walke in their counsels: therefore wyll I make thee waste, and cause thy inhabiters to be hissed at, and ye shall beare the reproche of my people.

¶ The .vii. Chapter.

1 A complaynt of the litle number of the ryghteous. 5 Agaynst the trueth ought we not to holde with our greatest freendes. 14 The prosperitie of the Churche.

WO is me, I am become as the summer gatherynges, & as the grapes of the vintage: there are no nro grapes to eate, yet would I fayne with all my heart haue of the best fruite. 2 There is not a godlye vpon earth, there is not one righteous among men: they all lie in wayte for blood, and euery man hunteth his brother as with a net. 3 To make good the euyll of their handes, the prince and the iudge (a) asketh a reward, therefore the great man speaketh out of the corruption of his soule, and so they wrappe it vp. 4 The best of them (is) as bryer, and the most ryghteous of them is (sharper) then a thorne edge: the day of thy watchmen (and) of thy visitation commeth: then shalbe their confusion. 5 Let no man beleeue his freende, nor put his confidence in "his brother: kepe the dooze of thy mouth from her that lyeth in thy bosome. 6 For the sonne dishonoreth his father, the daughter ryseth agaynst her mother, the daughter in lawe agaynst her mother in lawe: and a mans foes are euen they of his owne houshold.

7 Neuertheleſſe I wyll loke vp vnto the Lorde, I wyll patiently abyde God my sauiour: my God shall heare me. 8 O thou enemie of myne reioyce not at my fall, for I shall ryse agayne: and though I sit in darkenesse, yet the Lorde is my lyght. 9 I wyll beare the wrath of the Lorde, for I haue offended hym, tyl he sit in iudgement vpon my cause, and see that I haue ryght: then wyll he bryng me foorth to the light, and I shall see his ryghteousnesse. 10 She that is myne enemie, shall loke vpon it and be confounded, whiche nowe sayth, Where is the Lorde thy God? myne eyes shall beholde her when she shalbe troden downe as the myre in the streetes. 11 This is the day that thy walles shalbe buylt, this day shall dryue farre away the (b) decree.

12 And at that tyme shall they come vnto thee from Assur, from the strong cities, and from the strong holdes, euen vnto the riuer: from the one sea to the other, and from mountayne to mountayne. 13 Notwithstanding the lande must be wasted, because of them that dwell therein, and for the fruites of their owne imaginations.

14 Therefore feede thy people with thy rod, the flocke of thyne heritage (which dwelt desolate in the wood) let them feede vpon the (c) mount of Carmel: in Basan, and Gilead, as afore tyme. 15 Marueylous thinges wyl I shewe thee, lyke as when thou camest out of the lande of Egypt. 16 This shall the heathen see, and be ashamed for all their power: so that they shall lay their hande vpon their mouth, and their eares shall be deafe.

17 They shall licke the dust lyke a serpent, and as the wormes of the earth that tremble in their holes: they shalbe afrayde of the Lorde our God, and they shall feare thee.

¶ The ende of the prophecie of Micheas.

The booke of the prophete Nahum.

¶ The first Chapter.

Of the destruction of the Assyrians, and of the deliuerance of Israel.

THe burden of (a) Niniue: the booke of the visiō of Nahum the Elkoshite.

(a) The Niniuites were spared, because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; but afterwardes they returned to their former wickednesse, therefore God threatneth them by this prophete.

2 God is ielous, and the Lord auengeth, the Lord auengeth and hath wrath in store: the Lord taketh vengeance on his aduersaries, and keepeth wrath in store for his enemies.

3 The Lorde is slowe to anger, and (also) of great power, and in no case will acquite (the wicked,) the Lordes dealyng is with blustring tempest and whirle winde, and the cloudes are the dust of his feete. 4 He rebuketh the sea and dryeth it vp, all the riuers also he maketh drye: Basan and Carmel are destroyed, the spring also of Libanus is destroyed. 5 The mountaynes quake * at his power, and the hilles are resolued: the earth also burneth at his countenaunce, the worlde, and all that dwelleth therein.

* Or, for hym.

6 Who can stande before his wrath? or who can rise vp before the anger of his countenance, his fiercenesse is powred out lyke fyre, yea the rockes cleaue in peeces at his might.

B 7 The Lorde is gracious, a strong holde in the day of trouble, and knoweth them that trust in hym.

* Meanyng Niniue, and the Assyrians.

8 But with an ouerrunnyng flood he will destroy her place, and will pursue his enemies with darkenesse.

9 What imagine ye agaynst the Lorde? he makes an vtter destruction: ye shall not be troubled twyse.

10 For though they be as thornes folden one in another, and as drunkardes in their banquet, yet shal they be deuoured vp as dery drye stubble.

11 There came out of thee suche as thought euyll agaynst the Lorde, such as gaue wicked counsell. 12 Thus sayth the Lorde, Though ye be in concorde, and also many, yet so shall ye be cut downe, & passe: and (though) I haue afflicted thee, yet will I trouble thee no more. 13 And nowe I will breake of his yoke from thee, C and I will breake thy bones in sunder. 14 The Lorde also hath geuen a commaundement touching thee, that there shalbe no more offspring of thy name: frō the house of thy god I wil cut of the carued & molten image, I will make (it) thy graue, for thou art vile. 15 Behold vpon the mountaynes the feete of him that bringeth good tidinges, that preacheth peace: kepe thy festiual dayes O Juda, paye thy vowes: for the wicked shall hereafter passe no more through thee, he is vtterlie cut of.

¶ The .ii. Chapter.

A He describeth the victories of the Chaldeans agaynst the Assyrians.

THe destroyer is come vp before thy face, kepe thy toure, see to the way, strengthen (thy) loynes, increase (thy) strength mightyly:

2 For the Lorde restoreth agayne the glorious estate of Jacob, as (also) the glorious estate of Israel: for spoylers hath spoiled them, & hath wasted their braunches. 3 The shielde of his valiaunt souldiers (is) dyed red, his captaynes of warre are clad with scarlet: the charret is (compassed) with flaming torches in the day of his expedition, and the fyrre staues are drenched in poyson. 4 The charrets shal rage in the streetes, they shal make a terrible noyse in the broade wayes, to looke to lyke (flaming) cressets, shooting as lightning. 5 He shall remember his notable souldiers, they shall stumble in goyng, they shal hasten to the wall, the couering fence is prepared.

brought foorth captiue, made to ascende (into the charrets) her handmaydens also leadyng (one another) as in the voyce of doues, knockyng vppon their brestes. 8 Yea many a day Ninive was as a ponde full of water, yet (now) they flee: Stande ye, stande ye, and no man loketh backe. 9 Take your spoyle of siluer, take your spoyle of golde, for there is no end of riches: and her treasure passing all treasure.
10 Sacking, resackyng, rasing, a dissolued heart and collision of knees, sorowe in all loynes also, and the faces of them all as blacke as a pot.
11 Where is the abiding place of lions, and the feeding plot of lions whelpes, whyther the young and olde lion had their resort? there dwelt the lion, & there was no man to put him in feare. 12 The lion made his pray aboundauntly for his whelpes, and strangled for his the lions, and hath filled his dennes with pray, and his abydyng places with spoyle. 13 Beholde me agaynst thee sayeth the Lord of hoastes, and I will burne in smoke her charets, and the swoorde shall deuoure thy lions, I will roote out also from the earth thy spoyling, and the voyce of thy messengers shalbe heard no more.

¶ The .iii. Chapter.

1 Of the fall of Niniue. 8 No power can escape the hande of God.

O Bloody citie, stuffed throughout with falsehood, with "extreme dealyng, nor wylbe brought frō spoylyng. 2 The noyse of the whip, the noyse of ratling of wheeles, the praunsing of horses, and the iumping of charets: 3 The horseman lifting vp both the glistering blade of the swoorde, and also the shining speare, many wounded, many corpses, and no ende of carcalles, they shall stumble at dead bodyes. 4 Because of the manifolde fornication of the beautifull harlot, full of charmes, that selles nations by the meanes of her whordom, & the people through her charminges.
5 Lo I agaynst thee sayth the Lorde of hoastes, & wyl turne vp thy skirtes ouer thy face, and wyll shewe the gentiles thy filth, and kingdomes thy shame: 6 And wil cast vpon thee abhominable filth, and wyll bring thee downe, and wyll make thee as vile as 9 Ethiopia and Egypt (were thy) strength, and there was none ende (of ayde) Phut and Lubim were thy helpers. 10 Notwithstandyng she passed away, she went into captiuitie, her children also were dashed in peces in the top of all the streetes: for her honorable men they cast lottes, & all her great states they chayned in fetters. 11 And thou (also) shalt be dronken (with trouble) thou shalt be hyd: thou " also shalt seeke after strength agaynst thyne enemie.

" Or, more ouer.
12 All thy strong aydes (are as) figge trees with the first ripe figges: if they be stirred, they fall into the mouth of the eater. 13 Beholde thy men (are as barren) women in the middes of thee, the gates of thy lande shalbe set wide open to thyne enemies, fire hath deuoured thy barres. 14 Drawe thee water for the siege, strengthen thy fortes, go into the clay, treade the morter, make strong the bricke worke.
15 There the fyre shall deuoure thee, the swoorde shal cut thee of, it shall deuoure as the locust, though (thou) be multiplied as the locust, and though thou be as many as the grashopper.
16 Thou hast increased thy marchauntes as the starres of heauen, the locust spoyleth, and fleeth away.
17 Thy princes are as grashoppers, and thy rulers as great locustes, they swarme in hedges in colde weather, the sunne aryseth and they flee, and the place where they were is not knowen. 18 Thy shepheardes O kyng of Assur slumber, thy noble men shall dwell (in death) thy people is scattered vpon the mountaynes, and there is none to gather them together. 19 Thy wounde (shall) not be healed, thy plague is great, all that heare of thee, clap their handes: for vpon whom hath not thy cuyll dealing passed continually?

1 A complaynt agaynst the wicked that persecute the iust.

THE (a) burden whiche Habacuc the prophete dyd see. 2 O Lorde, howe long shall I crye, & thou wylt not heare? (euen) crie out vnto thee for violence, and thou wylt not helpe? 3 Why doest thou shewe me iniquitie, and cause me to beholde sorowe? for spoylyng and violence are before me, and there are that rayse vp stryfe and contention. 4 Therefore the lawe is " dissolued, and iudgement doth neuer go forth: for the wicked doth compasse about the righteous, therfore wrong iudgemēt proceedeth. 5 Beholde among the heathen, and regarde, and wonder, and marueyll: for I wyll worke a worke in your dayes, ye wyll not beleue it though it be tolde you. 6 For loe, I rayse vp the Chaldeans, that bitter and furious nation, which shall " go vpon the breadth of the lande, to possesse the dwellyng places that are not theirs. 7 They are terrible and fearfull: (b) their iudgement and their dignitie shal proceede of them selues. 8 Their horses also are swifter then the Leopardes, and are more fierce then the Woolues in the euenyng, and their horsemen are many, and shall come from farre: they shal flee as the Egle hastyng to meate. 9 They come all to spoyle: before their faces shalbe an (c) east winde, and they shal gather the captiuitie as the sande. 10 And they shall mocke the kynges, and the princes shalbe a scorne vnto them: they shall deride euery strong holde, for they shall gather (d) dust, and take it. 11 Then shal they " take a courage, and transgresse, and do wickedly, (imputing) this their power vnto their God. 12 Art not thou of olde, O lord my God, my holy one? we shall not dye, O Lord thou hast ordayned them for iudgement, and O God thou hast established them for correction.

13 Thou art of pure eyes, and canst not see euyll, thou canst not beholde wickednes: wherfore (then) doest thou loke vpon the transgressors, and holdest thy tongue, when the wicked deuoureth the man that is more righteous then he? 14 And makest men as the (e) fishe of the sea, and as the creepyng thinges that haue no ruler ouer them. 15 They take vp all with the angle, they catch it in their net, and gather it in their yarne: wherof they reioyce and are glad. 16 Therefore they sacrifice vnto their (f) net, and burne incense vnto their yarne: because by them their portion is fat, & their meate " plenteous. 17 Shall they therefore " stretche out their net, and not spare continually to slay the (g) nations?

7 For iniquitie I sawe the tentes of Chusan (and) the (c) curtaynes of the lande of Madian dyd tremble.

8 Was the Lorde angry agaynst the (d) riuers? or was thine anger against the floodes? or was thy wrath against the sea, that thou dyddest ryde (e) vpon thy horses? thy charets (brought) saluation. 9 Thy (f) bow was manifestly reuealed, and the (g) othes of the tribes (were) a sure worde. Selah, thou diddest cleaue the earth with riuers. 10 The mountaynes sawe thee and they trembled, the streame of the water (h) passed by, the deepe made a noyse, and lyft vp his handes on hye. 11 The sunne (and) moone stoode still in (their) habitation, (i) at the light of thine arrowes they went, (and) at the bright shining of thy speares. 12 Thou " trodest downe the land in anger: (and) diddest threshe the heathen in displeasure. 13 Thou wentest forth for the saluation of thy people, (euen) for saluation with thyne (k) annoynted: thou hast wounded the head of the house of the wicked, and discoueredst the foundations vnto the (l) necke. 17 For the figgetree shall not florish, neither shall fruite be in the vines: the labour of the oliue shall fayle, and the feeldes shall yelde no meate: the sheepe shalbe cut of from the folde, and there shalbe no bullocke in the stalles. 18 But I wyll reioyce in the Lord, I wyl ioy in the God of my saluation. 19 The Lorde God is my strength, he wyll make my feete like hindes (feete) and he wyll make me to walke vpon my hye places. ¶ Threatnynges agaynſt Iuda and Hieruſalem, becauſe of their idolatrie.

THE worde of the Lorde which came vnto Sophoni the ſonne of Chuſi, the ſonne of Gedaliah, the ſonne of Amarias, the ſonne of Ezekias in the tyme of Iosia the ſonne of Amon king of Iuda. 2 I wyll surely deſtroy all thynges in the lande, ſaith the Lord. 3 I wyll deſtroy man and beaſt, I wyll deſtroy the foules in the ayre, and the fiſhe in the ſea, and great ruine ſhall fall on the wicked, and I wyll vtterly deſtroy the men out of the lande, ſaith the Lorde. 4 I wyll ſtretche out myne hande vpon Iuda and vpon all ſuch as dwell at Hieruſalem: thus wyll I roote out the remnaunt of Baal from this place, and the names of the Kemurins and prieſtes: 5 Yea & ſuch as vpon their houſe toppes worſhip and bow them ſelues vnto the hoaſt of heaue, which ſweare by the Lorde, and by their (a) Malchom alſo: 6 Which ſtart backe from the Lorde, and neither ſeke after the Lorde nor regarde him.

7 Be ſtyll at the preſence of the Lord God, for the day of the Lorde is at hande: yea the Lorde hath prepared a ſacrifice, and called his gheſtes thereto. 8 And thus ſhall it happen, in the day of the Lordes ſacrifice I wyll viſite the princes and the kinges children, and all ſuch as weare ſtraunge clothyng. 9 In the ſame day alſo wyll I viſite all thoſe that leape ouer the threſholde ſo proudely, which fyll their lordes houſe with robberie and falſehood. 10 At the ſame tyme ſaith the Lorde, (there ſhalbe hearde) a great crye from the Fiſhe port, and an howlyng from the ſeconde port, and a great deſtruction from the hylles.

11 Howle ye that dwell in the lowe places, for all the marchaunt people are deſtroyed, and all they that were laden with ſiluer, are rooted out.

12 At the ſame tyme wyll I ſearche Hieruſalem with lanternes, & viſite them that continue in their dregges, and ſay in their heartes, Tuſhe, the Lorde wyll do neither good nor cupll.

13 Therefore their goodes ſhalbe ſpoyled, and their houſes layde waſte: they ſhall builde houſes, and not dwel in them, they ſhall plant vineyardes, but not drynke the wine therof.

14 For the great day of the Lorde is at hande, it is harde by, and commeth on a pace, euen the bitter voyce of the Lordes day, then ſhall the ſtrong man crye out. 15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and beaunes, a day of vtter deſtruction & miſerie, a darke and glowmyng day, a cloudy and ſtormie day. 16 A day of the trumpet & alarum agaynſt the ſtrong cities and hye towres. 17 I wyll bryng the people into ſuch vexation, that they ſhall go about lyke blynde men, becauſe they haue ſinned agaynſt the Lorde, their blood ſhalbe powred out as duſt, and their bodyes as the myre. 18 Neither their ſiluer nor their gold ſhalbe able to deliuer them in that wrathful day of the Lorde, but the whole lande ſhalbe conſumed through the fire of his ielouſie: for he ſhall ſoone make cleane riddaunce of all them that dwell in the lande.

The booke of the prophete Aggeus.

1 The tyme of the prophecie of Aggeus. 8 An exhortation to builde the temple agayne.

IN the seconde yere of king Darius, in the firth moneth, the first day of the moneth, came the word of the Lord by the ministerie of the prophete Aggeus (a) vnto Zorobabel (b) the sonne of Salathiel a prince of Juda, and to Josua the sonne of Josedech the hye priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the Lord of hoastes, saying, This people saith, (c) The time is not yet come for the Lordes house to be builded. 3 Then came the word of the Lorde by the ministerie of the prophete Aggeus, saying, 4 Is it tyme for you your selues to dwell in seeled houses, & this house lye waste?

5 Nowe thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, Consyder your owne wayes in your hearres. 6 Ye haue (d) sowen much, but ye bryng little in: ye eate, but ye haue not inough: ye drinke, but ye are not fylled: ye clothe you, but ye be not warme: and he that earneth wages, putteth the wages into a broken bagge. 7 Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, Consyder your owne wayes in your hearres. 8 Get you vp to the mountayne, and fetch wood, and builde this house, and I wyll take pleasure in it, and I wyll be glorified, saith the Lorde. 9 Ye loked for much, and lo it came to litle, and when ye brought it home, I did blowe vpon it: and why, saith the Lorde of hoastes? because of my house that is waste, and you runne euery man into his owne house. 10 Therefore vpon you the heauen is stayed from deawe, and the earth is stayed from yeeldyng her increase. 11 And I haue called for a drought vpon the lande, & vpon the mountaynes, and vpon the corne, and vpon the wine, and vpon the oyle, and vpon all that the ground bringeth fooith, vpon men, & vpon cattel, and vpon all the labour of the handes.

12 Whē Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, and Josua the sonne of Josedech the hie priest, with all the (e) remnaunt of the people hearde the voyce of the Lorde their God, and the (f) wordes of the prophete Aggeus, as the Lord their God had sent him, thē the people did feare before the Lorde. 13 Then Aggeus the Lordes messenger said in the Lordes message vnto the people, saying, I am with you saith the Lorde. 14 And the Lorde stirred vp the spirite of Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel a prince of Juda, and the spirite of Josua the sonne of Josedech the hye priest, and the spirite of all the people: and they came and dyd the worke in the house of the Lorde of hoastes their God.

¶ He sheweth that the glorie of the latter temple shall exceede the first.

IN the (a) twentie and fourth day of the firt moneth, in the seconde yere of king Darius, 2 In the (b) seuenth moneth in the twentie and one day of the moneth, came the worde of the Lorde by the ministerie of the prophete Aggeus, saying, 3 Say now to Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel prince of Juda, and to Josua the sonne of Josedech the hye priest, & to the rest of the people, saying, 4 Who is among you left, which sawe this house in her first glorie, and howe do you see it nowe? Is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?

5 Yet nowe be of good cheare O Zorobabel, saith the Lorde, and be of good comfort O Josua thou hie priest sonne of Josedech, and be strong all ye people of the lande, saith the Lorde, and worke: for I am with you saith the Lorde of hoastes.

(a) Though the people transgresse: yet the prophete is sent to the prince and priest, whose negligence often tymes is the cause of the peoples sin.

(b) Zorobabel was the son of Phadaia, 1.Chr.3, and ver.18. his fathers name is left out, & his graundfathers name supplied, because it was not so obscure as was the other.

(c) And yet there were nowe seuenteene yeres past sence Cyrus had graunted them libertie to builde.

(d) God is the geuer of encrease, neither may any thyng prosper with out his blessyng.

(e) For the greater part taryed in Babylon, and woulde not take the libertie which Cyrus had geuen them.

(f) Here is no difference made betweene the worde of the prophet & the word of god, to shewe that the prophet must so speake, & the people so heare them as the words of god.

(a) They had but three weekes and three dayes to heare the prophete, and to prepare their tooles for their worke, so diligent were they after the preaching of the prophet.

(b) They had nowe not wrought a full moneth yet thei waxed weerie: and therfore had neede to be set on a freshe by the prophete, who was therefore nowe sent vnto them agayne.

6 Accordyng to the (c) worde that I conenaunted with you, when ye came out of Egypt: and my (d) spirite shall remayne with you, feare ye not.
7 For thus saith the Lord of hoastes, (e) yet a litle while, and I wyll shake the heauens, and the earth, and the sea, and the drye lande: 8 And I wyl moue all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come, and I wyll fyll this house with glorie, saith the Lord of hoastes. 9 The siluer is mine, and the golde is myne, saith the Lorde of hoastes. 10 The glorie of the latter house, shalbe greater then the glorie of the first, saith the Lord of hoastes: and in this place wyll I geue peace, saith the Lord of hoastes. 11 In the twentie & fourth day of the ninth moneth in the seconde yere of king Darius, came the worde of the Lorde vnto the prophete Haggeus, saying,
12 Thus saith the Lorde God of hoastes, Aske nowe ye priestes (concernyng) the lawe, saying, 13 If one beare holy fleshe in the shirt of his coate, and with his shirt do touche the bread, potage, wine, oyle, or any other meate, shall it be holy? And the priestes aunswered and sayde, No. 14 And Haggeus sayde, If a polluted person touche any of these, shall he not be polluted? And the priestes aunswered & sayde, He shalbe polluted. 15 Then Haggeus aunswered and sayde, So is this people, and so is this nation before me saith the Lorde, and so is all the worke of their handes: and that which they offer there is vncleane.
16 And nowe consyder I pray you in your myndes from this day and vpwarde, before there was layde one stone vpon another in the house of the Lorde, 17 Before these thynges (were done) when one came to a heape of twentie (measures) there were but ten: so who came to the wine presse for to drawe out fifte (vessels of wine) out of the presse, there were but twentie. 18 I smote you with blastyng, and with mildeawe, and with hayle, in all the worke of your handes, and you turned not vnto me, saith the Lorde. 19 Consyder nowe in your myndes from this day, and afore, from the foure and twentie day of the ninth (moneth) euen from the day that the foundation of the Lordes temple was layd, consyder it in your myndes:
20 Is the seede yet in the barnes, as yet the vines, and the figge tree, and the pomegranate, and the olyue tree hath not brought forth? from this day wyll I blesse (you.) 21 And (f) agayne the worde of the Lorde came vnto Haggei in the foure and twentie (day) of the moneth, saying.
22 Speake to Zorobabel the prince of Iuda, and say, I wyll shake the heauens & the earth: 23 And I wyll ouerthrowe the "throne of kingdomes, & I wyll destroy the strength of the kingdomes of the heathen, and I wyll ouerthrowe the charrets and the sitters theron, and the horse and the riders shall fall downe euery one by the swoorde of his brother. 24 In that day, saith the Lorde of hoastes, wyll I take thee Zorobabel my seruaunt sonne of Salathiel, saith the Lord, and wyll make thee as a signet: for I haue chosen thee, saith the Lord of hoastes.

(c) God made many promises to his people after their departure out of Egypt: but in as much as he goeth about to speke of Christe in this place, it may well be thought that he meaneth here by promise made. Deut. 18. verse. 15. and repeated. Act. 7. ver. 27.

(d) Before he confirmed his promise made of Christ, nowe he promiseth his spirite: therfore ther is no cause of feare.

1 He moueth the people to returne to the Lorde and eschewe the wickednesse of their fathers. 36 He prefigureth Christe and his Apostles.

IN the eyght moneth of the seconde yere of king Darius, came the word of the Lord vnto Zacharias the sonne of Barachias the sonne of Addo the prophete, saying, lyke as the Lorde of hoastes determined to do vnto vs according vnto our owne wayes and imaginations, euen so hath he dealt with vs. 7 Vpon the twentie and fourth day of the eleuenth moneth, (which is the moneth Sebah) in the second yere of Darius, came the worde of the Lorde vnto Zacharias the sonne of Barachias the sonne of Addo the prophete, saying, 8 I sawe by nyght, and beholde there sate one vpon a red horse, and stoode styll among the Myrte trees that were in a bottome: and behynde him were there red, speckled, & whyte horses. 9 Then sayd I, O my Lorde, what are these? And the angell that talked with me, sayd vnto me, I wyll shewe thee what these be. 10 And the man that stoode among the Myrte trees answered and sayde, These are they whom the Lorde hath sent to go through the worlde. 11 And they answered the angell of the Lorde that stoode among the Myrte trees, and sayde, We haue gone through the worlde, and beholde all the worlde sitteth styll, and is careles. 12 Then the Lordes angell gane answere, and sayde, O Lord of hoastes, howe long wylt thou be mercifull vnto Hierusalem, and to the cities of Juda, with whom thou hast ben displeased nowe these threescore and ten yeres? 13 So the Lorde gaue a louyng and a comfortable answere vnto the angell that talked with me. 14 And the C angell that communed with me, sayde vnto me, Crye thou, and speake, Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, I am exceedyng ielous ouer Hierusalem and Sion, 15 And sore displeased at the careles heathen: for where as I was but a litle angrie, they helped forward the affliction. 16 Therefore thus saith the Lorde, I wyll returne vnto Hierusalem in tender mercie, so that my house shalbe builded in it, saith the Lorde of hoastes: yea and the (a) line shalbe stretched vpon Hierusalem. 17 Crye also and speake, thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, My cities through prosperitie shalbe spread abrode, the Lorde shall yet comfort Sion, and choose Hierusalem. 18 Then lyft I vp myne eyes and sawe, and beholde, foure hornes. 19 And I sayde vnto the angel that talked with me, What be these? He answered me, These are the hornes which haue scattered Juda, Israel, and Hierusalem. 20 And the Lorde shewed me foure carpenters. 21 Then sayd I, What wyll these do? He answered and sayd, These are the hornes which haue scattered Juda, so that no man durst lyft vp his head: but these are come to fray them away, and to cast out the hornes of the gentiles which lyft vp their horne ouer the lande of Juda to scatter it abrode.

I Lyft vp myne eyes agayne and I loked: and beholde a man, with a measure line in his hand. 2 Then sayde I, whyther goest thou? And he sayde vnto me, To measure Hierusalem, that I may see howe long & howe brode it is. 3 And behold ỹ angell that talked with me, went his way forth: then went there out another angell to meete him, 4 And sayde vnto him, Runne, speake to this young man, and say, Hierusalem shalbe inhabited without any wall, for the very multitude of people and cattell that shalbe therin. 5 For I my selfe saith the Lorde, wyll be vnto her a wall of fire rounde about, and wyll be the glorie in the middest of her. 6 O get you forth, O flee from the lande of the north, saith the Lorde: for I haue scattered you into the foure windes of the heauen, saith the Lorde.

7 Saue thy selfe O Sion, thou that B dwellest with the daughter of Babylon: 8 For thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, After this glorie hath he sent me out to the heathen which spoyled you: for who so toucheth you, shall touche the apple of his owne eye.

9 Beholde, I wyll lift vp mine hande ouer them, so that they shalbe spoyled of those which afore serued them: and ye shall knowe that the Lorde of hoastes hath sent me. 10 Be glad and reioyce O daughter Sion: for lo I am come to dwell in the middest of thee, saith the Lorde. 11 At the same tyme there shall many heathen cleaue to the Lorde, and shalbe my people: thus wyll I dwell in the middest of thee, and thou shalt knowe that the Lorde of hoastes hath sent me vnto thee. 12 The Lorde shall haue Juda in possession for his part in the holy lande, and shall choose Hierusalem yet agayne. 13 Let all flesche be styll before the Lorde: for he is raysed vp out of his holy place.

2 And the Lorde sayde vnto Satan, The Lorde rebuke thee thou Satan, yea the Lorde that hath chosen Hierusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand taken out of the fire? 3 Nowe Iosua was clothed in vncleane rayment, and stoode before the angell.

And vnto him he sayde, Beholde I haue taken away thy sinne from thee, and I will clothe thee with chaunge of rayment. 5 And I sayd, Let them set a faire miter vpon his head. So they set a faire miter vpon his head, and put on clothes vpon him, and the angell of the Lorde stoode there.

¶ The. xi. Chapter.

1 The destruction of the temple. 4 The care of the faythfull is committed to Christe by the father. 7 A greeuous vision against Hierusalem and Iuda.

OPen thy doores O Libanus, that the fire may consume thy Cedar trees. 2 Howle ye fire trees, for the Cedar is fallen, yea all the proude are wasted away: Howle O ye Oke trees of Basan, for the mightie strong wood is cut downe.

3 Men may heare the sheepheardes mourne, for their glory is destroyed: men may heare the Lions whelpes roare, for the pryde of Jordane is wasted away. 4 Thus saith the Lorde my God, Feede the sheepe of the slaughter, 5 Whiche haue ben slayne of those that possessed them, yet they (take it) for no sinne, but they that solde them sayde, The Lorde be thanked, for I am ryche: yea their owne sheepheardes spare them not.

6 Therefore wyll I no more spare those that dwell in the lande saith the Lorde: but lo, I wyll deliuer the people, euery man into his neighbours hande, and into the hande of his king, that they may smyte the lande, and out of their handes I wyll not deliuer them. 7 I my selfe fed the slaughter sheepe, a poore flocke verely, and take vnto me two staues: the one called Beautie, the other called Bandes: and so fedde the sheepe.

8 Three sheepheardes I put out of office in one moneth, for I might not away with them: neither had they any delight in me. 9 Then sayde I, I wyll feede you no more: the thing that dyeth, let it dye: and that that wyll perishe, let it perishe: and let the remnaunt eate euery one the fleshe of his neighbour. 10 I take also my staffe (euen) Beautie, and brake it, that I myght disanull the couenaunt whiche I made with all people. 11 And so it was broken in that day: then the poore simple sheepe that had a respect vnto me, knewe thereby that it was the worde of the Lorde. 12 And I sayde vnto them, If ye thinke it good, bryng hyther my wages: if no, then leaue. So they wayed downe thirtie syluer pence, the value that I was prysed at. 13 And the Lorde sayde vnto me, Cast it vnto the potter, a goodly price for me to be valued at of them. And I take the thirtie syluer pence, and cast them to the potter in the house of the Lorde. 14 Then brake I my other staffe also (namely) Bandes, that I myght loose the brotherhood betwixt Juda and Israel. 15 And the Lorde sayde vnto me, Take thee also the "staffe of a foolishe sheepheardе. 16 For lo, I wyll raise vp

¶ THE (heauie) burthen whiche the Lorde hath demised for Israel. Thus saith the Lorde whiche spread the heauens abrode, layde the foundacion of the earth, and gaue man the breath of lyfe, 2 Beholde, I wyll make Hierusalem a cuppe of "ouerflowyng poyson vnto all the people that are rounde about her: yea Juda hym selfe also shalbe in the syege against Hierusalem. 3 At the same tyme wyll I make Hierusalem an heauie stone for all people, so that all such as lyft it vp shalbe torne & rent, and all the people of the earth shalbe gathered together against it. 4 In that day saith the Lord, I wyl make al horses astonied, and those that ryde vpon them to be out of their wittes: I wyl open myne eyes vpon the house of Juda, and smyte al the horses of the people with blyndnesse. 5 And the princes of Juda shall say in their heartes, The inhabiters of Hierusalem shall geue me consolation in the Lord of hoastes their God. 6 In that tyme wyll I make the princes of Juda lyke an hot burning ouen with wood, and lyke a fyrebrand among the "strawe, so that they shall consume all the people rounde about them, both vpon the right hande and the left: Hierusalem also shalbe inhabited agayne, (namely) in the same place where Hierusalem standeth. 7 The Lorde shall preserue the tentes of Juda as aforetime, so that the glory of the house of Dauid and the glory of the citezins of Hierusalem shall not be exalted against Juda. 8 In that day shall the Lorde defend the citezins of Hierusalem, so that the weakest then among them shalbe as Dauid: and the house of Dauid shalbe as gods house, and as the angell of the Lorde before them. 9 At the same tyme wyll I go about to destroy all such people as come against Hierusalem. 10 Moreouer, vpon the house of Dauid and vpon the citezins of Hierusalem wyll I poure out the spirite of grace and compassion, so that they shall looke vpon me whom they haue pearsed, and they shall lament for hym as men mourne for their only begotten sonne: yea and be sore for hym, as men are sore for their first chylde. 11 Then shall there be a great mourning at Hierusalem, lyke as the lamentation at Adadremmon in the fielde of Mageddon. 12 And the lande shall bewaile, euery kindred by them selues alone: the kindred of the house of Dauid by them selues, and their wiues by them selues: the kindred of the house of Nathan them selues, and their wyues by them selues: 13 The kindred of the house of Leui them selues alone, and their wyues by them selues: the kindred of the house of Semei them selues alone, & theyr wyues by them selues. 14 In lyke maner, all the other generations euery one by them selues alone, and their wiues by them selues.

Threatnynges agaynst the priestes, beyng seducers of the people.

AND nowe O ye priestes, this commaundement is for you.
2 If ye wyll not heare it nor regard it, to geue the glorie to my name, sayth the Lorde of hoastes, I wyll sende a curse vpon you, and will curse your blessynges, yea I haue cursed them alredie, because ye do not consyder it in your heart. 3 Behold, I wyl (a) corrupt your seede, & cast (b) doung on your faces, (euen) the doung of your solemne feastes, and you shalbe lyfte vnto it. 4 And you shall knowe that I haue sent this commaundement vnto you, that my couenaunt whiche I haue made with Leui might stande, sayth the Lorde of hoastes. 5 My couenaunt was with him of lyfe and peace, and I gaue them hym (for) the feare wherewith he feared me, and was afrayde before my name. 6 The lawe of trueth was in his mouth, and

and there was no iniquitie founde in his lyppes, he (c) walked with me (d) in peace and (e) in equitie, and he turned many from theyr iniquitie. 7 (f) For the prieſtes lippes ſhall kepe knowledge, and they ſhall ſeeke the lawe at his mouth: becauſe he is the meſſenger of the Lorde of hoaſtes. 8 But ye haue gone out of the way, ye haue cauſed many to fal by the law: ye haue corrupted the couenaunt of Leui, ſayth the Lorde of hoaſtes. 9 Therefore haue I alſo made you deſpiſed and vyle before all the people, becauſe you kept not my wayes, but haue ben partiall in the lawe. 10 Haue we not al one father? hath not God made vs al? why then is euery one deceaued of his brother, to violate the couenaunt of our fathers? 11 Juda hath offended, and abhomination is committed in Iſrael and in Hieruſalem: for Juda hath defiled the holyneſſe of the Lorde which he loued, and hath maried the daughter of a ſtraunge God.

12 The Lorde wyll deſtroy the man that doth this, both the " rayſer vp and the aunſwerer out of the tabernacle of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering vnto the Lord of hoaſtes.

13 (g) And this againe haue ye done; in couering the autter of the Lorde with teares, with weeping and mourning, and therfore there is no more reſpect to the offring, neither acceptable receauing of it at your handes.

14 Yet ye ſay, Wherin? Becauſe the Lord hath ben witneſ betweene thee and thy wyfe of thy youth, againſt whom thou haſt tranſgreſſed, yet is ſhe thyne owne companion, and the wyfe of thy couenaunt. 15 And dyd not he make one? yet had he aboundaunce of ſpirite: And wherfore one? Becauſe he ſought a godly ſeede: therfore kepe your ſelues in your ſpirite, and let none tranſgreſſe againſt the wyfe of his youth. 16 If thou hateſt her, put her away, ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael: yet he couereth the iniurie vnder his garment, ſayth the lord of hoaſtes, and be ye kept in your ſpirite, and tranſgreſſe not. 17 Ye haue weeried the Lorde with your wordes, and you haue ſayde, Wherein haue we weeried him? Whyleſt you ſay, Euery one that doth euil, is good in the ſight of the Lorde, and he is pleaſed in them: or where is the God of iudgement?

1 Iosias appointeth priestes, and kepeth the passouer. 7 Offeringes for the priestes and the people. 23 The vpright lyfe of Iosias. 53 The destruction of Hierusalem.

A 2.Chr.35.a 2.kin.23.c.

AND Iosias helde the feast of Easter in Hierusalem vnto his Lorde, and offered the passouer the fourteenth day of the first moneth. 2 He set the priests also in order according to their dayly courses, being arayed in long garmentes, in the temple of the Lord. 3 And he spake vnto the Leuites the holy ministers of Israel, that they shoulde halowe them selues vnto the Lord, to set the holy arke of the Lorde in the house that kyng Solomon the sonne of Dauid had buylded, 4 And sayde, Ye shall no more beare the arke vpon your shoulders: and nowe serue the Lorde your God, and take the charge of his people Israel, and prepare you after your villages and tribes, 5 According as kyng Dauid the kyng of Israel hath left in writting, and * according as Solomon his sonne hath honourably prepared, and standing eche of you in that degree of aucthoritie whiche in the distribution was appointed vnto your fathers the. Leuites in the presence of your brethren the children of Israel: 6 Offer the passouer in order, and make redye the sacrifices for your brethren, and kepe (the passouer) according to the commaundement of the Lord which was geuen vnto Moyses. 7 And vnto the people that was founde there, Iosias gaue thirtie thousande lammes and kiddes, and three thousande calues. These thinges were geuen of the kinges owne possessions, according as he promised to the people, to the Priestes, and to the Leuites. 8 And Helkias, and Zacharias, and Syelus the gouernours of the temple, gaue to the priestes for the passouer two thousande and fiue hundred sheepe, & three hundred calues. 9 Moreouer Iechonias, and Samaias, and Nathanael his brother, & Sabias, and Ochiel, and Iozam, capraynes ouer thousandes, gaue to the Leuites for the passouer, fiue thousande sheepe, and seuen hundred calues. 10 And when these thinges were brought to passe, the Priestes and Leuites stoode goodly in their order, and had the vnleauened bread throughout the tribes.

11 And after the degrees of preheminence appointed to their fathers, to offer to the Lorde in the sight of the people, according as it is written in the booke of Moyses: and thus dyd they in the morning. 12 And they rosted the Easter lamme with fire, as according was: as for the offeringes, they dight them in kettles and potes with good sauours, 13 And set them before all them of the people, and afterward they prepared for them selues and the priestes their brethren the sonnes of Aaron. 14 For the priestes offred the fat, * vntyll the tyme was expired, and the Leuites prepared for them selues, and for the priestes their brethren the children of Aaron.

C * Or, vntyl the euening tyme.

15 The holy singers also the children of Asaph, stoode in their orders according as Dauid deuised, to wit, Asaph, * Zacharias, and Idithun, which was appoynted by the kyng.

* Or, Iazaras and Eddinus.

16 Moreouer, the (porters and) doore keepers stoode by the doores (and that diligently,) so that none went out of his * standing and seruices, for their brethren the Leuites prepared for them. 17 Thus were all thinges performed that belonged to the offering of the Lorde in that day, that they might hold the passouer, 18 And offer sacrifices vpon the aulter of the Lorde according to the commaundement of king Iosias. 19 So the children of Israel whiche were then present, helde a (honourable) passouer, and the feast of sweete bread seuen dayes long: 20 Yea such a passouer was not kept in Israel, from the tyme of the prophete Samuel. 21 And al the kinges of Israel held not such an Easter as this which kyng Iosias held, & the Priestes, the Leuites, the Iewes, and all Israel, of all them that * were at Hierusalem. 22 In the eyghteenth yere of the raigne of Iosias was this passouer kept. 23 And with an heartful of godlines did king Iosias rightly order al his workes before the Lord.

* Or, his watche, or turne and course.

* Or, found dwelling at Hierusalē.

24 And the thinges that came to passe in his tyme, they were written of olde before those dayes, concerning those E that sinned and were vngodly against the Lorde above all people and kyng-domes, and howe they greeued him in seruing sensible thinges, so that the wordes of the Lorde rose vp against Israel. 25 Now after all these actes of Iosias, it came to passe that Pharao the kyng of Egypt came to Carchamis vpon Euphrates to mone warre: and Iosias went out against hym. 26 But the kyng of Egypt sent to hym, saying, What haue I to do with thee, O kyng of Iudea? 27 I am not sent of the Lorde God against thee, for my warre is vpō Euphrates, and nowe the Lorde is with me, yea

" Or, haste. the Lorde maketh diligent " speede with me: depart from me, and be not against the Lorde. 28 Howbeit Iosias woulde not turne backe his chariot from hym, but vndertoke to fight with hym, and hearkened not to the wordes of the prophete Ieremie spoken by the mouth of the Lorde:
29 But pitched a battaile against him " Or, Me- in the feelde of " Mageddo: and the giddo. princes preassed to kyng Iosias.
30 Then sayde the kyng vnto his servauntes, Cary me away out of the battayle, for I am very weake. And immediatly his seruauntes toke hym away out of the frunt of the battayle.
31 Then gate he vp vpon his seconde charet, came to Hierusalem, dyed, and was buryed in his fathers sepulchre.
32 And in all Iurie they mourned for Iosias, yea Ieremie the prophete lamented for Iosias, and the rulers also with their wyues made lamentation for him vnto this day, and it became a custome to be done continually in all the kinred of Israel. 33 These thin-F ges are written in the booke of the storyes of the kynges of Iuda: and all the actes of Iosias, and his glory, and vnderstanding in the law of the Lord, and the thinges whiche he had done before, and that was nowe (recited) are written in the booke of the kinges of Israel and Iuda. 34 And the peo-

Iosias his father, when he was twen-tie and three yeres olde. 35 And he raigned in Iuda and in Hierusalem three monethes: and then the kyng of Egypt put hym downe from raigning in Hierusalem: 36 And rayled vp a taxe of the people, namely an hundred talentes of siluer, and one talent of golde. 37 The kyng of Egypt also made Ioacim his brother kyng of Iuda and Hierusalem. 38 (a) And (thus) he " bounde Ioacim and his gouernours: but Zaracen his brother he apprehended & led away with him into Egypt. 39 Fiue and twen-tie yeres olde was Ioacim when he was made kyng in the lande of Iuda and Hierusalem, and he dyd euill before the Lorde. 40 Wherefore against him Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon came vp, and bounde hym with bandes of iron, and caryed hym vnto Babylon. 41 Nabuchodonosor also toke of the holy vessels of the Lorde, caryed them away, and set them in his owne temple at Babylon.
42 But all his actes, and his prophānation and reproche, are written in the chronicles of the kinges. 43 And Ioachin his sonne raigned in his steede. He was made kyng beyng eyghteene yeres olde, 44 And raig-ned but three monethes and ten dayes in Hierusalem, and dyd euyll before the Lorde. 45 So after a yere Na-buchodonosor sent, and caused him to be brought vnto Babylon with the holy vessels of the Lorde. 46 And made Zedechias kyng of Iuda and Hierusalem when he was twentie verse. 21. also in the sight of the Lorde, and cared not for the wordes that were spoken vnto hym by the prophete Ieremie from the mouth of the Lorde.

48 And where he had made an othe G vnto kyng Nabuchodonosor, he forswore hym selfe by the name of the Lorde, and hardened his neche and heart, and transgressed the lawes of the Lorde God of Israel. 49 The gouernours also of the people and priestes did many thinges against the lawes, and passed all the pollutions of all nations, and defiled the temple of the Lorde whiche was sanctified in Hierusalem. 50 Wherfore the god of their fathers sent his (b) messenger to call them backe, because he spared them and his tabernacle also. 51 But they had his messengers in derision:
and looke when the Lorde spake vnto them, they made a sport of his prophetes. 52 This dyewe on so long tyll the Lorde was wroth with his people for their great vngodlynes, so that he caused the kinges of the Chaldees to come vp against them:

The. ii. Chapter.

1 Cyrus gaue leaue to the Iewes to returne. 13 The names of them that returned. 16 Their aduerſaries dyd let their buylding, 17 and the kinges letters for the ſame.

NOwe when kyng Cyrus raigned ouer the Perſians in his firſt yere, when the Lorde would performe the woꝛde that he had promiſed by the mouth of (the prophete) Jeremie: 2 The Lord ꝛayſed vp the ſpiryte of Cyrus the kyng of the Perſians, ſo that he cauſed this wꝛyting to be proclaymed throughout his whole realme, 3 Saying thus ſaeth Cyrus kyng of the Perſians: The Lorde of Iſrael, that hye Lorde, hath made me kyng of the whole woꝛlde: 4 And commaunded me to buylde hym an houſe at Hieruſalem in Jurie. 5 If there be any nowe of you that are of his people, let the Lorde, euen his Lorde be with him, and let hym go vp to Hieruſalem that is in Judea, and buylde the houſe of the Lorde of Iſrael, that is, the Lorde that dwelleth in Hieruſalem. 6 And all they that dwell rounde about that place ſhall helpe him, al that dwell in his place I ſay, whether it be with golde, with ſiluer, 7 With gyftes, with hoꝛſes and neteſſarie cattel, and al other thinges that are bꝛought with a free wyll to the * houſe of the Lorde at Hieruſalem. 8 Then the principall men out of the tribes and villages of Juda and Beniamin ſtoode vp: ſo dyd the Pꝛieſtes alſo and the Leuites, and all they whoſe mynde the Lorde had moued to go vp, and to buylde the houſe of the Lorde at Hieruſalem. 9 And they that dwelt about them helped them in all thinges, with ſiluer and golde, hoꝛſes, and cattell, and with * many free giftes of many men, whoſe myndes were ſtyred vp thereto.

13 And this was the number of them: a thouſand golden cuppes, and a thouſand of ſiluer, baſons of ſiluer twentie & nine foꝛ the ſacrifices, vials of golde thirtie, and of ſiluer two thouſandes foure hundꝛed and ten, and a thouſand other veſſels. 14 So all the veſſels of golde and ſiluer whiche they caryed away, were fiue thouſande, foure hundꝛed, threeſcoꝛe and nine. 15 Theſe were bꝛought by Salmanaſar, with them of the captiuitie from Babylon to Hieruſalem. 16 But in the tyme of Artaxerces kyng of the Perſians, Belemus, and Mithridates, and Tabellius, and Rathumus, and Beeltethmus, and Semellius the ſecretarie, with other that were ioyned to them dwelling in Samaria and other places, wꝛote vnto him againſt them that dwelt in Judea and Hieruſalem, theſe letters following: To the king Artaxerxes our lorde. 17 Thy ſeruauntes, Rathumus the Gozie wꝛyter, and Semellius the ſecretarie, and the reſt of their counſell, and the iudges that are in Coeloſyria and Phenice: 18 Be it now knowen to our lozde the kyng, that the Jewes whiche are come vp from you vnto vs into the rebellious and wicked citie, begin to buylde the market places, and to make vp the walles about it, and to ſet vp the temple a newe. 19 Nowe if this citie and the walles therof be ſet vp again, they ſhall not only refuſe to geue tributes (and taxes) but alſo rebell bitterly

aguinst kinges. 20 And forsomuch as they take this in hand nowe about the temple, we thought it reason to thinke no scorne of it: 21 But to shewe it vnto the lorde the kyng, to the intent that if it please the kyng, he may cause it to be sought in the bookes of olde. 22 And thou shalt finde in recordes hereof written, and shalt understande that this citie hath alway ben rebellious and disobedient, that it hath troubled kynges and cities, 23 And that the Jewes were rebellious, & raysed alwayes warres therin: for the whiche cause this citie is wasted. 24 Wherefore nowe we certifie our Lord the kyng, that if this citie be buylded (and occupied) agayne, and the walles thereof set vp a newe, thou canst haue no passage into Coelosyria and Phenice. 25 Then wrote the kyng to Rathumus the " scripe wryter, to Beeltethmus, to Semellius the scribe, and to the other officers and dwellers in Samaria, and Syria, and Phenice, after this maner. 26 I haue read the epistle whiche ye sent vnto me: therefore I commaunded to make diligent search, and haue found that this citie hath euer resisted kinges, 27 That the same people are disobedient, and haue caused much warre, and that mightie kinges haue raigned in Jerusalem, whiche also haue raysed vp taxes of Coelosyria and Phenice. 28 Wherfore I haue commaunded to forbid those men that they shall not buylde vp the citie, and herde to be taken that there be no more done in it: 29 And that they proceede no further in those wicked workes, forsomuch as it might be occasion of trouble vnto princes.

30 Now when Rathumus & Semellius the scribe had read the writing of king Artaxerxes, they gate them together, and came in all the haste to Jerusalem, with an hoast of horsemen, and with much people on foote, 31 And forbad them to buylde: and so they left of from buylding of the temple, vnto the seconde yere of king Darius, kyng of the Persians.

The. iii. Chapter.

2 The feast of Darius. 16 The three wyse-sentences.

KYng Darius made a great feast vnto his " seruaunces, vnto all his court, and to all the officers of Medea and Persia, 2 Yea to all the gouernours and captaynes, and lieftenauntes that were vnder him, from India vnto Ethiopia, an hundred and twentie and seuen " countreys. 3 So when they had eaten and dronken, being satisfied, and were gone home agayne, Darius the king went into his chaumber, layde him downe to sleepe, and after that awaked. 4 Then the three young men that " kept the kings person, and watched his body, (communed among themselues, and) spake one to another. 5 Let euery one of vs speake a sentence, and looke who shall ouercome, and whose sentence may seeme wyser then the others, vnto hym shall kyng Darius geue great gyftes, and great thinges, in token of victorie: 6 As to weare purple, to drinke in golde, and to sleepe in golde, and a chariot with bridles of golde, and an " head tyre of fine linnen, and a chayne about his necke: 7 Yea he shall sit next to Darius because of his wysdome, and shalbe called Darius cosin. 8 So euery one wrote his " meaning, sealed it, and layde it vnder kyng Darius pelowe, 9 And sayde, when the kyng aryseth they woulde geue hym the wrytinges, and looke whose worde the kyng and the three princes of Persia shall iudge to be the most wyselye spoken, the same shall haue the victorie as it was appoynted. 10 One wrote, Wine is a strong thing. 11 The seconde wrote, The kyng is strong. 12 The thirde wrote, Women haue very much strength, but aboue all thinges the truth beareth away the victorie.

13 Nowe when the kyng was rysen vp, they toke their writinges, and deliuered them vnto him, and so he read them. 14 Then sent he forth to call all his cheefe lordes of Persia, and of Media, and the rulers, and the captayns, and lieftenauntes, and counsuls: 15 And when he had set hym downe in the counsell, the wrytinges were read before them 16 And he commaunded to call for the young men, that they might declare their " meanings them selues by mouth. So they were sent for, and came in.

17 And then he sayde vnto them, Shew vs and make vs to vnderstand what the thinges are that ye haue written. Then began the first whiche had spoken of the strength of wine. 18 And sayde thus, O ye men, howe strong is wine, that deceaueth all men whiche drinke it? 19 It maketh the kinges kinges minde and the fatherielle to be both one, the bondmans and the free, the poore mans and the ryche. 20 Ie turneth also euery thought into ioy and gladnes, so that a man remembreth neither heauines nor debt.

21 And it maketh euery heart (thinke it selfe) riche, so that a man remembreth neither king nor gouernour, and it maketh to speake all thinges by talentes. 22 Moreouer when men haue dronke, they forget all frendshyp and brotherly faythfulnes, and a litle after they draw out swordes: 23 And afterwardes when they are from the wine, they remember nothing what was done. 24 O ye men, is not wine the strongest, that thus enforceth (men) to do? And when he had spoken this, he helde his peace.

The. iiii. Chapter.

1 Of the strength of a king. 13 Of the strength of women. 34 Of the strength of trueth, which sentence is approued, 47 and his petition graunted.

Then the seconde that had spoken of the strength of the kyng, began to say, 2 O ye men, are not men the strongest of all, that conquer both by lande and sea, and all the thinges that are in them? 3 Howe is the kyng stronger, as lorde of all these thinges, and that hath the dominion ouer them: and looke what he commaundeth them, it is all done. 4 If he byd them the one against the other to make warre, they do it: if he sende them out against the enemies, they go and breake downe mountaynes, walles, and towres. 5 They slay and are slayne, & ouerpasse not the kinges commaundement: if they get the victorie, they bring al to the kyng, so wel the spoyle as other thinges. 6 Likewise the other that meddle not with warres and fighting, but till the grounde: when they haue sowen and reaped, they bring to the kyng, and compell one another to pay his tribute vnto the kyng. 7 And if the kyng, though he be but one man, commaunde to kyll, they kyll, if he commaunde to " forgeue, they forgeue:

8 If he commaunde to smite, they smite, if he byd " driue away, they driue away, if he commaund to build, they builde: 9 If he commaunde to breake downe, they breake downe, if he commaunde to plant, they plant. " 10 So the common people and the rulers are obedient vnto hym, and the kyng in the meane season sitteth hym downe, eateth and drinketh, and taketh his rest. 11 And these kepe hym roumde about, and not one of them dare get hym out of the way to do his owne busines, " but must be obedient vnto the kyng at a worde.

12 Judge ye nowe O ye men, howe shoulde not the kyng go farre aboue, when in such sort he is obeyed? And (when he had spoken thus) he helde his tongue. 13 The thirde (whose name was Zorobabel) which had spoken of women, and of trueth, began to say (after this maner.) 14 O ye men, it is not the great kyng, it is not the multitude of men, neither is it wine that excelleth. Who is it then that ruleth them, or hath the lordship ouer them? is it not women? 15 Women haue borne the kyng, and all the people whiche beare rule by sea and by lande. 16 And euen of them were they borne, and they brought those vp that planted the vines whereof the wine commeth. 17 They make garmentes for men, they get honour vnto men, and without women can not men continue. 18 Yea if they haue gathered togeather golde and siluer, or any other precious thing, do they not loue a woman for her comely shape and beautie? 19 And letting all those thinges go, do they not gape and euen with open mouth fixe their eyes fast on her? and haue not all men more desire vnto her then vnto siluer and golde, or any maner of precious thing?

20 A man leaueth his owne father that brought hym vp, leaueth his owne naturall countrey, and cleaueth vnto his wyfe. 21 Yea he " ieopardeth his lyfe with his wyfe, and remembreth neither father nor mother, nor countrey. 22 By this also ye must needes know, that women haue dominion ouer you: Do ye not labour and trauayle, and gene and bring all to the woman? 23 A man taketh his sworde, and goeth his way to steale, (to kyll,) to murther, to sayle vpon the sea, and vpon riuers,

24 And seeth a lion, and goeth in the darknesse: and when he hath stollen, " deceaued, and robbed, he bringeth it vnto his loue. 25 Wherefore a man loueth his wyfe better then father and mother: Yea manye there be that runne out of their wittes, and become bondmen for their " wiues sakes.

" Or, neither disobeyed they hym in any thing.

27 Many one also haue perished, haue erred, & sinned also for women.
28 And nowe do ye not beleue me? is not the kyng great in his power? do not al regions feare to touche him?
29 Yet did I see him and Apame the daughter of the great kyng Bartacus the kynges concubine sate beside the kyng vpon the right hande, 30 And toke of his crowne from his head, & set it vpon her owne head, and stroke the kyng with her left hande. 31 And therwhyle stedyly the king looked vpon her with open mouth: if she laughed vpon hym, he laughed also: but if she toke any displeasure with hym, the king was fayne to flatter her (and to geue her good wordes) tyll he had gotten her fauour agayne. 32 O ye men, are not women then stronger that do these thinges? 33 Then the kyng and the princes looked one vpon another: so he began to speake of the trueth: 34 O ye men, are not women stronger? Great is the earth, hye is the heauen, swyft is the course of the sunne, he compasseth the heauen rounde about, and fetcheth his course agayne to his owne place in one day. 35 Is he not excellent that maketh these things? therfore great is the trueth, and stronger then all thinges. 36 All the earth calleth vpon trueth, the heauen prayseth it, all workes shake and tremble at it, and with it is no vnrighteous thing.
37 Wine is wicked, the kyng is wicked, women are wicked, all the children of men are wicked, yea and such are al their wicked workes, and there is no trueth in them, in their vnrighteousnesse also shall they (be destroyed and) perishe: 38 As for the trueth it endureth, and is alway strong, it liueth, and conquereth for euermore worlde without ende. 39 With her there is no exception or difference of persons, but she doth that iust is, & refrayneth from all vniust and wicked thinges, & all men do well lyke of her workes.
40 In the iudgement of it there is no vnrighteous thing, and she is the strength, kyngdome, power, and maiestie of all ages. Blessed be the God of trueth. 41 And with that he helde his peace: and all the people cryed, and then sayde, Great is trueth, and aboue all. 42 Then sayde the kyng vnto hym, Aske what thou wilt more then is appointed in the writing, and we shall geue it thee, for thou art founde wiser (then thy companions) thou shalt sit next me, and shalt be called my kinsman. 43 Then sayde he vnto the kyng, Remember thy (promise and) bowe whiche thou hast vowed (and promised) in the day when thou camest to the kyngdome, to buylde vp Hierusalem: 44 And to send agayne all the vessels (and iewels) that were taken away out of Hierusalem, which Cyrus set apart when he vowed to destroy Babylon, & to sende them againe thyther. 45 And thy minde was also to buylde vp the temple whiche the Edomites burnt when Iudea was destroyed by the Chaldees. 46 And nowe this only (O kyng) is the thing that I require and desire of thee, this is the princely liberalitie that I aske of thee, I desire therfore that thou performe the bowe whiche thou with thine owne mouth hast made vnto the kyng of heauen. 47 Then Darius the kyng stoode vp, and kyssed hym, wrote him letters vnto all the deputies & lieftenauntes, to all the lordes and nobles, that they should conuey hym forth, and al them that went vp with hym, to buylde Hierusalem.
48 He wrote letters also vnto all the lieftenauntes that were in Coelosyria and Phenices, and vnto them in Libanus, that they should bryng Cedar trees from Libanus vnto Hierusalem, and buylde the citie with hym.
49 Moreouer, he wrote for all the Iewes that were gone out of his realme into Iurie concerning their freedome, that no officer, no ruler, no lieftenaunt, nor stewarde, should enter into their doores: 50 And that all their lande whiche they kept, should be free and not tributarie: and that the Edomites should geue ouer the (cities and) villages of the Iewes whiche they had taken in: 51 Yea and that there should be yerely geuen twentie talentes to the buylding of the temple, vntil the time that it were finished: 52 And to maintayne the whole burnt offerings vpō the aulter euery day, (as they had a commaundement to offer seuenteene) other ten talents euery yere. 53 And that all they which come from Babylon to buylde the citie, should haue free libertie, they and their chyldren, and all the priestes that went away. 54 He wrote also concerning the charges, & the priestes garment wherein they minister.
55 And lykewyse for the charges of the the Leuites to be geuen them vntyll the day that the house were finished, and Hierusalem buylded vp. 56 And he commaunded that all they that watched the citie, shoulde haue theyr pensions and wages. 57 He sent away also all the vessels that Cyrus had separated from Babylon: and all that Cyrus had geuen in commaundement, the same charged he also that it shoulde be done, and sent vnto Hierusalem. 58 Nowe when this young man was gone forth, he lyfted vp his face to heauen towarde Hierusalem, and praysed the kyng of heauen, 59 And sayde, Of thee commeth victorie, of thee commeth wisdome, and thyne is the glorie, and I am thy seruaunt. 60 Blessed art thou whiche hast geuen me wysdome, for to thee I acknowledge it O Lorde (thou God) of our fathers. 61 And so he tooke the letters, and went out, and came vnto Babylon, and tolde it all his brethren. 62 And they praysed the god of theyr fathers, that he had geuen them freedome and libertie, 63 To go vp, and to buylde Hierusalem and the temple, * wherein the name of the Lorde is called vpon: and they reioyced with instrumentes of musicke and gladnesse seuen dayes long.

7 The copie of the letters whiche he wrote and sende vnto Darius. Sisinnes gouernour of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with theyr companions, whiche are head rulers in Syria and Phenice, sende theyr salutation vnto Darius the kyng. 8 We certifie our Lorde the kyng, that we came into the lande of Iurie, and went to Hierusalem, where we founde the auncientes of the Iewes that were of the captiuitie in the citie of Hierusalem, 9 Building an house vnto the Lord, great and newe, of hewen and costlye stones, and the timber alredy layde vpon the walles: 10 Yea they make great haste with the worke, and it goeth foorth prosperously in theyr handes, and with great diligence and worshyp is it made. 11 Then asked we the elders, saying, By whose commaundement build you vp this house, and lay the foundations of these workes? 12 Whiche we demaunded of them, to the intent that we might geue knowledge vnto thee, and wryte vnto thee of those that gouerned it: and we required of them theyr names in wryting that were theyr cheefe leaders to it. 13 So they gaue vs this aunswere, C We are the seruauntes of the Lorde which made heauen and earth:

14 And as for this house, it was buil- 1.king.6.a. ded many yeres agone by a kyng of Israel great and strong, and was finished. 15 But when our fathers prouoked God vnto wrath, and sinned against the Lorde of Israel which is in heauen, he gaue them ouer into the 2.King.23. power of Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon, of the Chaldees: 16 Which brake downe the house and burnt it, and caried away the people prisoners vnto Babylon. 17 Neuertheles, in the first yere that kyng Cyrus raigned 1.Esd.5.a. ouer the countreys of Babylon, Cyrus the kyng wrote, (and commaunded) to builde vp this house (agayne:)

18 And the holy vessels of golde and of syluer that Nabuchodonosor had caried away out of the house at Hierusalem, and had dedicated them in his owne temple: those brought Cyrus forth agayne out of the temple at Babylon, and deliuered them to Zorobabel and to Sanaballarus the ruler: 19 Commaundyng hym that he shoulde cary away those same vessels, and put them in the temple at Hierusalem, and that the temple of the Lord shoulde be built in his (owne) place. 20 Then the same Sanaballarus being come hither, layde the foundations of the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem, and from that to this beyng styll a buyldyng, it is not yet fully ended. 21 Nowe therefore O kyng, if thou thinkest it good, let it be sought in the libraries (and rolles) of kyng Cyrus: 22 And if it be founde then that the building of the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem hath ben done with the (counsell and) consent of kyng Cyrus, and yf our lorde the kyng be so minded, let him geue aunswere vnto vs thereof. 23 Then commaunded 1.Esd.6.a. kyng Darius to seeke in the kynges 2.Esd.4.f. libraries at Babylon: and so at Ecbatane a towne in the region of Medea, there was founde a place where

26 And the holy veſſels of the houſe of the Lorde, both of golde and of ſyluer, that Nabuchodonoſor toke out of the houſe at Hieruſalem and brought to Babylon, ſhoulde be reſtored to the houſe at Hieruſalem, and be ſet in the place where it was (before.) 27 And alſo he commaunded that Sisinnes the gouernour of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuſanes, with their companions, and other conſtituted rulers in Syria and Phenice, ſhoulde take heede not to meddle with that place, but to ſuffer Zorobabel the ſeruaunt of the Lorde and gouernour of Juda, and the elders of the Jewes, to builde that houſe of the Lorde in that place.

28 I haue commaunded alſo to haue it built vp whole againe, and that they be diligent to helpe thoſe that be of the captiuitie of the Jewes, till the houſe of the Lorde be finiſhed: 29 And out of the tribute of Coeloſyria and Phenice, a portion diligently to be geuen thoſe men vnto the offerynges of the lord, and the ſame to be deliuered vnto Zorobabel the officer, that he therewithall may offrayne oxen, rammes, lammes, 30 And alſo corne, ſalt, wine, oyle, and that continually euery yere, after the expences whiche the prieſtes that be at Hieruſalem ſhall teſtifie to be made dayly (this ſhalbe geuen vnto them) without delay, 31 That they may offer ſacrifices dayly to the hyeſt God for the king and for his children, and to pray for their lyues. 32 And he commaunded alſo that whoſoeuer ſhoulde breake any poynt of the foreſaid and foredecreed thinges, or make it voyde, of his owne goods ſhoulde a tree be taken, and he theron be hanged, and all his goods ſeaſed vnto the kyng. 33 The Lorde therefore whoſe name is there called vpon, roote out and deſtroy euery kyng and nation that ſtretcheth out his hand to hynder or (hurt and) endomage that houſe of the Lorde in Hieruſalem.

The. vii. Chapter.

1 Siſinnes and his companions folowe the kynges commaundement, & helpe the Iewes to buylde the temple, 5 The tyme that it was built, 10 They kepe the Paſſouer.

THen Siſinnes the gouernour in Coeloſyria and Phenice, & Sathrabuzanes with their companions obeied the thynges that king Darius had ordeyned, 2 And were diligent aſſiſters in the holy workes, working with the auncientes and gouernours of the ſanctuarie: 3 And ſo the holy workes went forth and proſpered when Aggeus and Zacharias the prophetes prophecied. 4 And they performed all thynges through the commaundement of the Lorde God of Iſrael, and with conſent of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes kynges of Perſia. 5 And thus was the holy houſe finiſhed in the twentie and three day of the moneth Adar, in the ſixte yere of Darius kyng of the Perſians.

6 And the chyldren of Iſrael, the prieſtes and the Leuites, and other that were of the captiuitie that had any charge, did accordyng to the things wrytten in the booke of Moyſes.

7 And to the dedication of the temple of the Lorde, they offered an hundred * oxen, two hundred rammes, foure hundred lammes, 8 And twelue goates, for the ſinnes of all (the people of) Iſrael, after the number of the cheefe of the tribes of Iſrael. 9 The prieſtes alſo and the Leuites ſtoode arayed in their long robes after their kindredes in all the workes of the lord God of Iſrael accordyng to the booke of Moyſes, and the porters at euery doore. 10 And the chyldren of Iſrael with thoſe that were come out of captiuitie, helde the Paſſouer the fourteenth day of the firſte moneth, after that the prieſtes and the Leuites were ſanctified. 11 They that were of the captiuitie were not all ſanctified together: but the Leuites were all ſanctified together. 12 And ſo they offered the Paſſouer for all them of the captiuitie, and for their brethren the prieſtes, and for them ſelues. 13 And the chyldren of Iſrael that came out of captiuitie did eate, all they that had ſeparated them ſelues from the abhominations

The. viii. Chapter.

1 Esdras commeth from Babylon to Hierusalem. 10 The copie of the commission geuen by kyng Artaxerxes. 26 Esdras geueth thankes to the lorde.

A 2. Esd. 7. b. AND after these, when Artaxerxes the king of the Persians raigned, there went vnto him Esdras the sonne of Saraias, the sonne of Ezerias, the sonne of Melchiah, the sonne of Sallum, 2 The sonne of Sadoc, the sonne of Achitob, the sonne of Amarias, the sonne of Ezias, the sonne of Menuerath, the sonne of Saraias, the sonne of Sauias, the sonne of Boccas, the sonne of Abisun, the sonne of Phinees, the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron the first priest:

3 This Esdras went vp from Babylon beyng a scribe of good vnderstandyng in the lawe of Moyses that was geuen by the Lorde God of Israel.

4 And the kyng fauoured hym, and dyd him great (worship and) honour "or, in al his suites. after all his desires. 5 There went vp with him also certayne of the children of Israel, of the priestes, of the Leuites, of the syngers, porters, and ministers of the temple, vnto Hierusalem. 9 In the seuenth yere of the raigne of king Artaxerxes in the fifth moneth, whiche was the seuenth yere (for they went from Babylon in the first day of the first moneth, 7 And came to Hierusalem according as god gaue them speede in their iourney,)

8 For Esdras had gotten great knowledge to omit nothyng of that was in the lawe and the commaundements of the Lorde, and to teache all Israel al the "or, rightes vnlesse. ordinaunces and iudgements. 9 The copie of the commission which Artaxerxes the king wrote, and that was geuen to Esdras the priest and reader of the lawe of the Lorde, this is it that followeth.

B 10 King Artaxerxes sendeth his greeting vnto Esdras the priest and reader of the lawe of the Lord. 11 I hauing wayed thinges with pitie, haue ordey-

ned and) charged, yf there be any of the Iewes, of the priestes and Leuites in my "or, kyngdome. realme, whiche desireth and is content to go with thee vnto Israel, that he may do it. 12 Therefore, so many as long thereafter, let them depart together, and go with thee like as I am content and my seuen freendes my counsaylers, 13 To see what they do at Hierusalem and in Iurie, conueniently, accordyng as thou hast in the law of the lord: 14 And to bryng the giftes vnto (god) the Lorde of Israel, that I and my freendes haue "or, bowed promised to Hierusalem, and al the siluer and golde that in the countrey of Babylon may be founde (pertayning) to the Lorde in Hierusalem, 15 With the thyng that is geuen of the people to the lord their Gods temple at Hierusalem: that the same siluer and gold may be gathered for oxen, rammes, sheepe, and goates, and other that belong to these thynges, 16 That they may offer sacrifices vnto the Lorde vpon the aulter of the Lord their God which is at Hierusalem. 17 And C whatsoeuer thou and thy brethren will do with the siluer and golde, that do accordyng to the will of thy God:

18 And the holy vessels of the Lord, which are geuen thee for the seruice of the temple of thy God whiche is in Hierusalem, thou shalt set (them) before thy God in Hierusalem. 19 And what soeuer thyng els thou shalt remember for the vse of the temple of thy God, thou shalt geue it out of the kynges treasure. 20 And I kyng Artaxerxes haue also commaunded the keepers of the treasures in Syria and Phenice, that whatsoeuer Esdras the priest and the reader of the lawe of the highest God shall sende for, they shoulde geue it hym with speede:

21 Euen to the summe of an hundred talentes of siluer: of corne also an hundred "or, cores. measures, and tyll an hundred "or, peeces vessels of wine, and other thinges aboundauntly. 22 Let all thinges be done after the lawe of God diligently vnto the highest God, that wrath come not vpon the kyngdome of the king and of his sonnes. 23 I commaunde you also, that ye require no taxe nor tribute of the priestes, Leuites, holy singers, porters, and ministers of the temple, nor of any that haue doynges in this temple, and that no man haue authoritie to put any impost vpon them. 24 Also for thee O

Esdras

Esdras, set thou iudges and arbiterers to iudge in the whole lande of Syria and Phenice after the wisdome of God, all skilfull in the lawe of God, and teache suche as are ignoraunt.

25 And let all them whiche shall offende against the lawe of God and the kyng, be diligently punished, whether it be by death or other payne, by punishment in money, or els by banyshment. 26 Then sayde Esdras the scribe, Blessed be the only Lorde God of my fathers that hath geuen so good a minde and will into the heart of the kyng, to magnifie his house that is at Hierusalem, 27 And hath "made me to be accepted in the sight of the king, of his counsayle, of his freendes, and of his nobles. 28 And so I was "stedfast in my minde accordyng as the Lorde my God helped me, and I gathered vp men of Israel to go vp with me. 29 And these are the guides after theyr families & orders of dignities, that went vp with me from Babylon in the raigne of kyng Artaxerxes.

30 Of the sonnes of Phinees, Gersom: of the sonnes of Ithamar, Gamaliel: of the sonnes of Dauid, Hattus the sonne of Cechemah: 31 Of the sonnes of Phares, Zacharias, and with hym there returned agayne an hundred and fiftie men. 32 Of the sonnes of Pahath, Moab Elioenai, the sonne of Zacharias, and with hym two hundred men. 33 Of the sonnes of Zathoe, Shechenias the sonne of Iezolus, and with him three hundred men: and of the sonnes of Adin, Obed the sonne of Jonathan, and with hym two hundred and fiftie men. 34 Of the sonnes of Elam, Iesias, sonne of Gotholias, and with hym seuentie men. 35 Of the sonnes of Saphatias, Zarias, sonne of Machael, and with him three score and ten men. 36 Of the sonnes of Joab, Badias, sonne of Jezelus, and with hym two hundred and twelue men. 37 Of the sonnes of Banid, Assalimoth sonne of Josaphias, and with him an hundred and three score men. 38 Of the sonnes of Babi, Zacharias sonne of Bebai, and with him twentie and eyght men.

39 Of the sonnes of Astath, Johannes sonne of Acatan, and with him an hundred and ten. 40 Of the sonnes of Adonicam the last: and these are the names of them, Eliphalet, Jeuel, & Maias, and with them seuentie men. 41 Of the sonnes of Bagouthi sonne of Jscaconus, and with him seuentie men. 42 Al these called I together by the water Thia, where we pitched our tentes three dayes, & there I mustered them. 43 As for the sonnes of the priestes and Leuites, I founde none there. 44 Then sent I vnto Eleazar, and behold there came Maasman, and Maloban, 45 And Anathan, and Samatan, and Jozibon, and Nathan, Ennatan, Zacharian, and Mosollamon the cheefe and best learned: 46 And I bad them that they shoulde go vnto Baddeus the captayne, which was in the place of the treasurie: 47 And commaunded them that they shoulde speake vnto Baddeus, and to his brethren, and to those that were the treasurers, to sende vs such men as might execute the priestes office in the house of our lord. 48 And with the mightie hande of our lorde (God) they brought vnto vs men of good "experience, from among the sonnes of Moli, the sonne of Leui, the sonne of Israel, Seredia and his sonnes and his brethren which were eyghteene. 49 And Asebia and Amon, and Osaian his brethren of the sonnes of Canaineus, theyr sonnes were twentie men.

50 And of them that serued in the temple whom Dauid had ordeyned, and the principal men to the worke of the Leuites that were ministers in the temple, two hundred and twentie, whose names are all signed vp in writing. 51 And then commaunded I a fasting vnto the young men before the lord, that I might desire of him a prosperous iourney (and a good way) both for vs and them that were with vs, for our children, and for the cattell.

52 For I feared to desire of the kyng men of horse & of foote, to conuey vs safely against our enemies. 53 For we had sayde vnto the kyng, that the power of the Lorde our God shoulde be with them that seeke him, to direct them in all thynges. 54 And therfore we besought our Lord agayne as touching these thynges, and founde hym fauourable vnto vs. 55 Then I separated from among the cheefe of the tribes and from the priestes twelue men (to wit) Esebrias, and Assanias, and ten men of theyr brethren with them. 56 And I wayed them the golde and the siluer and the holy vessels of the house of our Lorde, which the king and his counsel and his princes, and whole Israel had geuen.

57 And when I had wayed it, I delyuered vnto them fyue hundred and fiftie talentes of syluer, and an hundred talentes in syluer vessels, and an hundred talentes of golde, 58 And twentie golden basons, and twelue vessels of braſſe, euen fine braſſe, lyke shynyng golde. 59 And I sayde vnto them, Ye are holy vnto the Lorde, and the vessels are holy, and the golde and the siluer is *promised vnto the Lord (god) of our fathers. 60 Be *diligent nowe and kepe it, vntill the time that ye deliuer it to the cheefe of the priestes and Leuites, and to the principall men of the families of Israel in Hierusalem, in the chaumbers of the house of our god. 61 So the priestes and the Leuites which receaued of me the golde, the syluer, and the vesselles, brought it vnto Hierusalem vnto the temple. 62 And from the riuer Thia we brake vp the twelfth day of the first moneth, accordyng to the myghtie hande of our Lorde whiche was with vs: and from the begynnyng of our iourney the Lorde delyuered vs from euery enemie, so that we came vnto Hierusalem: and when the thirde day was paste, the wayed golde and siluer was delyuered in the house of the Lorde on the fourth day vnto Meremoth the priest and sonne of Uri: 64 And with hym was Eleazar the sonne of Phinees, & with them were Iosabdus the sonne of Iesu, and Moeth the sonne of Sabbanns, Leuites: all was delyuered them by number and wayght. 65 And all the wayght of them was wrytten vp the same houre. 66 After that they that were come out of captiuitie, offered sacrifice vnto the Lorde God of Israel, euen twelue oxen for all Israel, foure score and sixteene rammes, 67 Threescore and twelue sheepe, twelue goates for saluation, all in sacrifice to the Lorde. 68 And the kings commission delyuered they vnto the kinges stewardes, and to the gouernours of Coelosyria, and Phenice, who honoured the people and the temple of God. 69 Now when these thynges were done, the rulers came vnto me & sayd, 70 The nation of Israel, the princes, the priestes, & Leuites, haue not put away from them the straunge people of the lande, nor the vncleannes of the Gentiles: to wit of the Chananites, Hethites, Pherezites, Iebusites, and the Moabites, Egyptians, & Edomites:

71 For both they and theyr sonnes haue myngled them selues with the daughters of them, and the holy seede is mixt with the straunge people of the land: and sence the beginning of the affaires, the rulers and head men haue ben partakers of this wyckednesse.

2. Esd. 9. a.

72 And assoone as I had hearde these thynges, immediatly I rent my clothes and the holy garment, & pulled of the heere of my head and my bearde, and sate me downe sorowfull and heauie. 73 So al they that were moued through the worde of the Lord God of Israel, came vnto me whyles I wept for the iniquitie: but I sate stil full of heauinesse vntyll the euenyng sacrifice. 74 Then stoode I vp from fastyng, hauyng rent clothes and the holy garment, & kneeled downe vpon my knees, and helde out my handes vnto the Lorde, 75 And sayd, O Lord, I am confounded, and ashamed before thy face. 76 For our sinnes are become many, euen aboue our heades, and our ignorances are lifted vp euen vnto heauen: 77 For sence the time of our fathers we are in great sinne vnto this day. 78 And for the sinnes of vs and our fathers, we with our brethren and with our kynges, & with our priestes, haue ben geuen vp vnto the kings of the earth, into the sword, & into captiuitie, & became a spoile with confusion (and shame) vnto this day. 79 And nowe O Lorde God, howe great is the mercie that we haue goten of thee, in that thou hast left vs a roote and a name in the place of thy sanctuarie? 80 And that thou hast discouered to vs a light in the house of the Lorde our God, and hast geuen vs meate in the tyme of our seruitude? 81 And when we were in captiuitie, we were not forsaken of the Lord our God: but he made the kynge of Persia gracious and fauourable vnto vs, so that they gaue vs victuals (and meate.) 82 Yea, and honoured the temple of our Lorde, and repayred the wasted places of Sion, and gaue vs assurrance in Iurie and Hierusalem. 83 And nowe O Lorde, what shall we say hauyng all these thynges (in possession?) For we haue broken thy commaundementes, whiche thou gauest vnto vs by the handes of thy seruauntes the prophetes, saying, 84 Because the lande whyche ye go to possesse as an heritage, is a lande defiled with the vncleannesse (and fylthines) thynesse) of the straungers of the land, and with their abhomination they haue polluted it altogether: 85 Therfore nowe shall ye not ioyne their daughters vnto your sonnes, neither marrie your daughters to their sonnes. 86 Moreouer ye shall neuer seeke to make peace with them, that ye may " increase and eate the best in the lande, and that ye may leaue the inheritaunce of the lande vnto your children for euermore. 87 As for the thinges that are come to passe, they come all for our wicked workes and great sinnes: for thou O Lorde hast made our sinnes light. 88 And geuen vs such a roote: but we haue turned backe agayne, so that we haue broken thy lawe, and mingled our selues with the vncleannes of the outlandishe heathen. 89 Mightest not thou be angry with vs, to destroy vs? so that thou shouldest leaue vs neither roote, seede, nor name? 90 O Lorde God of Israel, thou art true: for our roote endureth yet vnto this present day. 91 And Beholde, now are we before thee in our sinnes, neither can we stande before thee for them. 92 And when Esdras with this prayer had knowledged the sinne, weeping & lying flat vpon the ground before the temple, there gathered vnto him from Hierusalem a great multitude of men and women, of young men and maydens: for there was a very great (weeping and) mournyng among the multitude. 93 The Iechonias the sonne of Iehell, one of the children of Israel, cryed out and said, O Esdras, we haue sinned agaynst the Lord god, (because) we haue married straunge women of the nations of the lande. 94 And nowe al Israel hangeth in doubt: We will sweare an oth therefore vnto the Lorde, that we shall put away all our wyues which we haue taken of the " heathen with their children: 95 Like as it may seeme good to thee, and to all those that obay the lawe of the Lorde.

96 Stande vp and put it in execution: for to thee doth this matter appertayne, and we are with thee to adde thee strength. 97 So Esdras arose, and toke an oth of the cheefe of the priestes and Leuites of all Israel, to do after these thinges: and they sware.

The .ix. Chapter.

7 After Esdras had read the lawe for the straunge wyues, 18 They promised to put them away.

THen Esdras ryssing from the court of the temple, went to the chamber of Joannan, the sonne of Eliasib. 2 And remayned there and dyd eate no meate, nor dronke " ozynke, weeping for the great wickednesse of the people. 3 And there was made a proclamation in al Iuri, and at Hierusalem, for all them that were of the captiuitie, that they should gather together at Hierusalem, 4 And that whosoeuer met not there within two or three dayes, accordyng as the elders that bare rule appoynted, their cattell should be seased to the vse of the temple, and he be excluded from them that were of the captiuitie.

5 And in three dayes were all they of the tribe of Iuda and Beniamin gathered together at Hierusalem, the twentith day of the ninth moneth. 6 And the whole multitude sate tremblyng in the " court of the temple: for it was winter. 7 So Esdras arose vp, and sayd vnto them, Ye haue done vnrighteously, in that ye haue taken " outlandishe wyues to marriage, and so to encrease the sinnes of Israel.

8 And now knowledge the same, and geue prayse vnto the Lorde God of our fathers. 9 And performme his wyll, departing from the heathen of the lande, and from the " outlandishe wyues. 10 Then cryed the whole multitude, and sayde with a loude voyce, Lyke as thou hast spoken, so wyll we do. 11 But forasmuch as the people are many, and winter season, so that we may not stande without the house: and because this worke is not a thing that can be finished in a day or two, seeing we be many that haue sinned in these thinges:

12 Ordayne therfore that the rulers of the multitude, and they of our families that haue straunge wyues, tarry. 13 And let the priestes and iudges come out of euery place in their time appoynted, tyll they swage the wrath of the Lorde in this businesse. 14 Then Jonathas the sonne of Asael, and Ezechias the sonne of Thecan, receaued the charge of this matter: and Mosollam, and Leuis, and Sabatheus helped them thereto.

32 And of the sonnes of Annas, Elionas, and Aseas, and Melchias, and Sabbeus, and Simon a Chosamite. 33 And of the sonnes of Asom, Altaneus, and Matthias, and Banaias, Elyphalet, and Manasses, and Semi. 34 And of the sonnes of Maani, Jeremias, Momdis, Omairus, Jnel, Mamai, and Pactias, and Amos, Carabasion & Enasibus, and Mamnuata, Naius, Eliasibs, Vamus, Etali, Samis, Selemias, Nathanias: and of the sonnes of Ozoras, Sels, Esril, Ezaelus, Samates, Sambis, Josiphus. 35 And of the sonnes of Ethma, Mazitias, Zabadias, Ethes, Jnel, Banaias.

38 And the whole multitude came together with one accorde into the wyde place before the east gate of the temple. 39 And they spake vnto Esdras the hye priest & reader, that he woulde bryng the lawe of Moyses which had ben geuen of the Lord God of Israel.

40 So Esdras the hye priest brought the lawe vnto the whole multitude, man & woman, and to all the priestes, that they might heare the lawe in the " new moone of the seuenth moneth. 41 And he read in the first wyde place that is before the port of the temple, from the morning early vnto midday before men and women: and they applied their minde all vnto the lawe.

4 The wonderous workes which God dyd for the people are recited. 31 Esdras marueyleth that God suffereth the Babylonians to haue rule ouer his people, which yet are sinners also.

A IN the thirtith yere after the fall of the citie I was at Babylon, and lay troubled vpon my bed, and my thoughtes came vp ouer my heart:
2 For I sawe the desolation of Sion, and the plenteous wealth of them that dwelt at Babylon. 3 And my spirite was sore moued, so that I began to speake fearefull wordes to the most hyest, and sayde, 4 O Lorde Lorde, thou spakest at the beginning, when thou plantedst the earth (and that thy selfe alone) and gauest commaundement vnto the people, 5 And a body vnto Adam without soule, which was a " creature of thy hands, and hast breathed in him the breath of lyfe, and so he liued before thee:

The. iiii. Chapter.

1 The angell reproueth Esdras, because he seemed to enter into the profound iudgementes of God.

AND the angell that was sent vnto me, whose name was Vriel, gaue me an answere, 2 And said, Thy heart hath taken to much vppon it in this worlde, and thou thynkest to comprehende the way of the highest.

3 Then sayde I, Yea my Lorde. And he answered me, and saide, I am sent to shew thee three wayes, and to set foorth three similitudes before thee:

4 Whereof yf thou canst declare me one, I will shewe thee also the way that thou desirest to see: and I shall shewe thee from whence the wicked heart commeth. 5 And I sayde, Tell on my Lorde. Then sayde he vnto me, Go thy way, wayghe me the wayght of the fyre, or measure me the blast of the winde, or call me agayne the day that is past. 6 Then answered I, and sayde, What man borne is able to do that, that thou shouldest aske such thinges of me? 7 And he saide vnto we, If I shoulde aske thee howe deepe dwellynges are in the middest of the sea, or howe great water springes are in the beginnyng of the deepe, or howe great water springes are vpon the stretching out of the heauens, or which are the * outgoinges of Paradise? 8 Peraduenture thou wouldest say vnto me, I neuer went downe yet into the deepe, nor hell, neither did I euer climbe vp into heauen.

9 Neuertheless nowe haue I asked thee but onlye of fyre, and winde, and of the day wherethrough thou hast trauailed, and from the whiche thou canst not be separated: and yet canst thou gene me no answere of them.

10 He said moreouer vnto me, Thyne owne thinges, and such as are growen vp with thee, canst thou not knowe: 11 Howe shoulde thy hert sell then be able to comprehende the way of the highest, and now outwardly in the corrupt worlde to vnderstand the corruption that is euident in my syght? 12 Then sayde I vnto him, It were better that we were not at all, then that we shoulde lyue in wickednesse, and to suffer, and not to knowe wherefore. 13 He answered me and sayde, I came to a forrest in a playne, and the trees toke such a deuice, 14 And sayde, Come, let vs go, and fyght agaynst the sea, that it may depart away before vs, and that we may make yet more woods.

Of these thinges haue I asked ques-sayde, The more thou searchest, the more thou shalt marualye: for the worlde hasteth fast to passe away, 27 And can not cõprehend the thinges that are promised to the righteous in tyme to come: for this worlde is full of vnrighteousnesse and weakenesse.

28 But as concernyng the thinges whereof thou askest me, I wyll tell thee: the euyll is sowen, but the destruction thereof is not yet come.
29 If the euyll nowe that is sowen be not turned vpsyde downe, and yf the place where the euyll is sowen passe not away: then can not the thing come that is sowen with good.
30 For the corne of euyll seede hath ben sowen in the heart of Adam from the beginning: and howe much vngodlynesse hath he brought vp vnto this tyme? and howe much shall he yet bryng forth vntyll he come into the barne? 31 Wonder nowe by thy selfe howe great fruite of wickednesse the corne of euyll seede bryngeth forth? 32 And when the stalkes shalbe cut downe, whiche are without number, howe great a barne shall it fil? 33 Then I aunswered & sayde, How & when shal these thinges come to passe? wherfore are our yeres fewe & euil? 34 And he aunswered me, saying, Haste not thou to much aboue the most highest: for thy hastynesse to be aboue him is but vayne, though thou do all that thou canst for it. 35 Wyll not the soules also of the righteous aske question of these thinges in their chambers, saying, Howe long shall I hope on this fashion? when commeth the fruite of my barne and our re-warde? 36 And vpon this Jeremiel that chiefe angel gaue them answere, and sayde, Euen when the number of the seedes is fylled in you, for he hath waygbed the worlde in the ballaunce, 37 In measure and number hath he measured the tymes, and moueth it not, nor shaketh it, vntyll the sayde measure be fulfilled. 38 Then aun-swered I, and sayde, O Lorde, Lorde, nowe are we all full of sinne: 39 And for our sake peraduenture it is that the barne of the righteous is not fulfilled, because of the sinnes of them that dwell vpon the earth. 40 So he aunswered me, and saide, Go thy way to a woman with chylde, and aske of her when she hath fulfilled her nine monethes, yf her wombe may kepe the birth any longer within her?
41 Then sayde I, No Lorde, that can she not. And he saide vnto me, Lyke graue the secrete places of soules are lyke the wombe of a woman. 42 For lyke as a woman that trauayleth ma-keth haste to escape the necessitie of the trauaile: euen so do these places haste to deliuer those thinges that are committed vnto them. 43 Loke what thou desirest to see, it shalbe shewed thee from the begynnyng.
44 Then aunswered I, and saide, If I haue founde fauour in thy syght, and yf it be possible, and yf I be meete therefore, 45 Shewe me then whether there be more to come then is past, or more past then is for to come.
46 What is past, I knowe: but what is for to come, I knowe not. 47 And he sayde vnto me, Stande vp vpon the right side, and I shall expounde the similitude vnto thee. 48 So I stoode, and beholde an hotte burnyng ouen passed by before me: and it happened that when the flame was gone by I loked, & beholde the smoke had the vpper hande. 49 After this there passed by before me a waterie cloude, and sent downe much rayne with a storme: and when the storme rayne was past, " the droppes remayned still. 50 Then sayde he vnto me, Consider with thy selfe: lyke as the rayne is more then the droppes, and as the fyre exceedeth the smoke: euen so the measure of the thynges that are past hath the vpper hand, and the droppes and smoke worke much in quantitie. 51 Then I prayed, and sayde, May I lyue thynkest thou vntyll that tyme? or what shall happen in those dayes? 52 He aun-swered me, and sayde, As for the tokens whereof thou askest me, I may chyng

thyng thy lyfe, I am not sent to shewe thee: for I do not knowe it.

¶ The.v. Chapter.

1 In the latter tymes trueth shalbe hid, vnrighteousnesse and all wickednesse shall raigne in the worlde.

A NEuertheleſſe as concernyng the tokens, marke this:) beholde the dayes shal come that they which dwell vpon earth shalbe taken in a great number, & the way of the trueth shalbe hid, and the lande shalbe barren from fayth: 2 But iniquitie shalbe increased aboue that which now thou seest, or that thou hast heard long ago. Mat. 24. 8

3 And the lande that thou seest nowe to haue rule, shalt thou shortly see waste. 4 But if God graunt thee to lyue, thou shalt see after the thirde trumpet, that the sunne shall sodaynly shine againe in the night, & the moone three tymes in the day: 5 And blood shall drop out of wood, and the stone shall geue his voyce, and the people shalbe vnquieted: 6 And euen he shall rule whom they hope not that dwell vpon earth, and the foules shall flit: 7 And the Sodomiticke sea shal cast out the fishe, and make a noyse in the nyght, which many haue not knowen: but they shall all heare the voyce thereof. 8 There shalbe a confusion also in many places, and the fire shalbe oft sent out agayne: and the wylde beastes shal chaunge their places, and menstruous women shall beare monsters, 9 And salt waters shalbe found in the sweete, and all freendes shall fyght one agaynst another: then shall all wyt and vnderstandyng be hid and put aside into their secrete places:

10 And shalbe sought of many, and yet not be founde: then shall vnrighteousnesse & * voluptuousnesse haue the vpper hande vpon earth. 11 One lande also shall aske another, and say, Is righteousnes * that maketh a man righteous gone through thee? And it shall say, No. 12 At the same tyme shall men hope, but nothyng obteyne: they shall labour, but their wayes shal not prosper. 13 To shewe thee such tokens I haue leaue: and if thou wylt pray agayne, and weepe as nowe, and fast seuen dayes, thou shalt heare yet greater thinges. 14 Then I awaked, and a fearfulnes went through all my body, and my mynde was feeble, so that I almost sowned withal: 15 So the angel that was come to talke with me helde me, comforted me, and set me vp vpon my feete. 16 And in the seconde nyght it came to passe, that Salathiel the captayne of the people came vnto me, saying, Where hast thou ben? and why is thy countenaunce so heauy? 17 Knowest thou not that Israel is committed vnto thee in the lande of their captiuitie?

18 Vp then and eate, and forsake vs not, as the sheephearde that leaueth his flocke in the handes of * wicked woolues. 19 Then sayd I vnto him, Go thy wayes fro me, and come not nye me. And he hearde it, and as I sayde, so he went his way from me. * Or, cruell

20 And so I fasted seuen dayes mourning and weeping, lyke as Uriel the angel commaunded me. 21 And after seuen dayes so it was, that the thoughtes of my heart were very greenous vnto me agayne: 22 And my soule receaued the spirite of vnderstandyng, and I began to talke with the most highest againe, 23 And sayde, O Lorde, Lorde, of euery wood of the earth, and of all the trees therof, thou hast chosen thee one only vineyarde. 24 And of all landes of the whole world, thou hast chose thee one pit, & of all floures of the ground, thou hast chosen thee one lilie:

25 And of all the deapthes of the sea, thou hast filled thee one ryuer: and of all builded cities, thou hast halowed Sion vnto thy selfe: 26 And of all the foules that are created, thou hast named thee one doue: and of all the cattel that are made, thou hast prouided thee one sheepe: 27 And among all the multitudes of peoples, thou hast gotten thee one people: and vnto this people whom thou louedst thou gauest a lawe that is proued of all.

28 And nowe O Lorde, why hast thou geuen this one people ouer vnto many? and vpon the one roote thou hast * prepared others, and why hast thou scattered thy one only people among many? 29 Which treade them down, yea which haue euer withstande thy promises, and neuer beleued thy couenauntes. 30 If thou didst so much hate thy people, yet shouldest thou punishe them with thine owne handes. * Or, set.

31 Nowe when I had spoken these wordes, the angell that came to me the nyght afore, was sent vnto me,

32 And sayde vnto me, Heare me, and I will instruct thee: hearken to the thyng that I say, and I shall tell thee more. 33 And I sayde, Speake on my Lorde. Then sayde he vnto me, Thou art sore troubled in mynde for Israels sake: louest thou that people better then he that made them?

34 And I sayde, No Lorde, but of very greefe (and compassion) haue I spoken: for my reynes payne me euery houre, because I woulde " haue experience of the way of the most hyest, and seke out part of his iudgement. 35 And he sayde vnto me, That thou " mayest not. And I sayde, Wherfore Lorde? whereunto was I borne then? or why was not my mothers wombe then my graue, that I myght not haue seene the miserie (and trouble) of Jacob, and the wearyng out of the stocke of Israel?
36 And he sayde vnto me, Number me the thynges that are not yet come, gather me together the droppes that are scattered abrode, make me the floures greene agayne that are wythered, 37 Open me the places that are closed, and bryng me foorth the wyndes that in them are shut vp, shewe me the image of a voyce: and then I wyll declare to thee the thyng that thou labourest to knowe.
38 And I sayde, O Lorde, Lorde, who may knowe these thynges, but he that hath not his dwellyng with men?
39 As for me I am vnwise: howe may I then speake of these thynges wherof thou askest me? 40 Then sayde he vnto me, Lyke as thou canst do none of these thynges that I haue spoken of: euen so canst thou not fynde out my iudgement, or in the ende the loue that I haue promised vnto my people. 41 And I sayde, Beholde O Lorde, yet art thou nye vnto them that be reserued tyll the ende: and what shall they do that haue ben before me, or we that be nowe, or they that shall come after vs? 42 And he sayde vnto me, I wyll lyken my iudgement vnto a ryng: Lyke as there is no slacknesse of the last, euen so there is no swyftnesse of the first. 43 So I answered and sayde, Couldest thou not make those that haue ben made, and be nowe, and that are for to come, at once, that thou myghtest shewe thy iudgement the sooner? 44 Then answered he me, and sayd, The creature may not haste " aboue the maker, neither may the worlde holde them at once that shalbe created therein. 45 And he sayde, As thou hast sayde vnto thy seruaunt, that thou which quickenest all thynges hast geuen lyfe at once to the creature (or worke) that thou hast created, and the creature bare it: euen so myght it nowe also beare them that nowe be present at once. 46 And he sayde vnto me, Aske the wombe of a woman, and say vnto her, If thou bryngest foorth children, why doest thou it not together, but one after another? Pray her therfore to bryng foorth ten children at once. 47 And I sayde, She can not: but must do it by distaunce of tyme. 48 Then sayde he vnto me, Euen so haue I diuided by distaunce of tyme the childbed of the earth for those that be sowen vpon her. 49 For lyke as a young childe may not bryng foorth the thynges that belong to the aged, euen so haue I ordeyned " the worlde which I created. 50 And I asked and sayde, Seyng thou hast now geuen me the way, I wyll proceede to speake before thee: for our mother of whom thou hast tolde me that she is young, draweth she nowe nye vnto age? 51 He aunswered me, and sayd, Aske a woman that beareth children, and she shall tell thee. 52 Say vnto her, Wherfore are not they whom thou hast nowe brought foorth lyke those that were before thee, but lesse of stature? 53 And she shal aunswere thee, They that be borne in the youth of strength, are of one fashion: and they that are borne in the tyme of age (when the wombe fayleth) are otherwise. 54 Consider nowe thy selfe, howe that ye are lesse of stature then those that were before you: 55 And so are they that come after you lesse then ye, as the creatures which nowe begyn to be olde, and haue passed ouer the strength of youth. 56 Then sayd I, Lorde I beseche thee yf I haue founde fauour in thy sight, shewe thy seruaunt by whom thou visitest thy " creature?

¶ The.vi. Chapter.

1 God hath foreseene all thynges in his secrete counsayle, and is authour therof, and hath created them for his children. 25 The felicitie of the age to come.

AND he sayde vnto me, In the beginnyng when the " grounde was made, before the borders of the worlde stoode, or euer the wyndes blewe, 2 Before it thundred and lyghtened, or euer the foundations of Paradise

" Or, compasse of the earth.

Paradise were layde, 3 Before the faire floures were seene, or euer the moueable powers were stablished, before the innumerable * multitude of angels were gathered together, 4 Or euer the highnesses of the ayre were lyfted vp, afore the measures of the firmament were named, or euer the chimneys in Sion were hot, 5 And or the present yeres were fought out, and or euer the inuentions of them that nowe stirre were * put aside, before they were sealed that haue gathered fayth for a treasure: 6 Then dyd I consider & ponder all these thinges, and they all were made through me alone, and through none other: by me also they shalbe ended, and by none other. 7 Then aunswered I, and sayde, What shalbe the * partying asunder of the tymes? or when shalbe the ende of the first, and the begynnyng of it that followeth? 8 And he sayde vnto me, From Abraham vnto Isahac, when Jacob and Esau were borne of him, Jacobs hande helde first the heele of Esau: 9 For Esau is the ende of this worlde, and Jacob is the begynnyng of it that followeth.

10 The hande of man betwixt the heele and the hande: Other question Esdras aske thou not. 11 I aunswered then, and sayde, O Lorde, Lorde, yf I haue founde fauour in thy syght, 12 I beseche thee * shewe thy seruaunt the ende of thy tokens, wherof thou shewedst me part the last nyght.

13 So he aunswered, and sayde vnto me, Stande vp vpon thy feete, and heare * a perfect voyce and sounde.

14 There shal come * a great motion, but the place where thou standest shal not be moued. 15 And therfore when * thou hearest the wordes, be not afrayde: for of the ende shall the worde be, and of the foundation of the earth shall it be vnderstande. 16 And why? the worde therof trembleth and quaketh: for it knoweth that it must be chaunged at the ende. 17 And it happened that when I had hearde it, I stoode vp vpon my feete, and hearkened: and beholde there was a voyce that spake, and the sounde of it was lyke the sounde of many waters.

18 And it sayde, Beholde the dayes come that I will begyn to drawe nye, and to visite them that dwell vpon earth: 19 And will begyn to make inquisition of them what they be that haue hurt vnlustly with their vnrighteousnesse, and when the lowe estate of Sion shalbe fulfylled. 20 And when the worlde that shall vanishe away shalbe ouersealed, then will I do these tokens: the bookes shalbe opened before the * firmament, and they shall see altogether: 21 And the children of a yere olde shall speake with their voyces, the women with childe shall bring forth vntymely children of three or foure monethes olde, and they shall liue, and be rayled vp. 22 And sodaynly shall the sowen places appeare as the vnsowen, the full store houses shall sodaynly be founde emptie: 23 And the trumpet shall gene a sounde, which when euery man heareth, they shalbe hastyly afraide. 24 At that time shal freends fight one agaynst another lyke enemies, and the earth shall stande in feare with them: the springes of the welles shall stande styll, and in three houres they shall not runne.

25 Whosoeuer remayneth from all these thynges that I haue tolde thee, * shall escape, and see my saluation, and the ende of your worlde. 26 And the men that are receaued shall see it, they that haue not tasted death from their birth: and the heart of the * inhabiters shalbe chaunged, and turned into another meanyng.

27 For euyll shalbe put out, and deceipt shalbe quenched. 28 As for fayth it shall florishe, corruption shalbe ouercome, and the trueth which hath ben so long without fruite shalbe * declared. 29 And when he talked with me, beholde I loked a litle & a litle vpon him before whom I stoode: 30 And these wordes sayde he vnto me, I am come to shewe thee the tyme of the nyght for to come.

31 If thou wylt pray yet more, and fast seuen dayes agayne, I shall tell thee more thynges and greater then before, which I haue hearde by the day. 32 For thy voyce is heard before the hyest: for why? the myghtie hath seene thy righteous dealyng, he hath seene also thy chastitie which thou hast had euer since thy youth:

33 And therefore hath he sent me to shewe thee all these thynges, and to say vnto thee, Be of good comfort, & feare not: 34 And haste not with the tymes that are past to thynke vayne thynges, that thou mayest not hasten from the latter tymes.

35 And it came to passe after this, that that I wept agayne, and fasted seuen dayes in lyke maner, that I myght fulfyll the thyce weekes which he tolde me. 36 And in the eyght nyght was my heart vered within me agayne, and I began to speake before the hyest. 37 For my spirite was greatly set on fire, and my soule was in distresse: 38 And I sayd, O Lorde, thou spakest vnto thy creature from the begynnyng, euen the first day, and saydest, Let heauen & earth be made: Gen. 1.a. and thy worde was a perfect worke.

39 And then was there the spirite, and the darknesses were yet on euery side, and silence: there was no mans voyce as yet from thee. 40 Then commaundedst thou a * fayre lyght to come forth of thy creatures, that thy worke myght appeare and be seene.

* Or, bright

41 Vpon the seconde day thou madest the spirite of the firmament, and commaundedst it to part asunder and to make a diuision betwixt the waters, that the one part might remayne aboue, and the other beneath. 42 Vpon the thirde day thou broughtest to passe that the waters were gathered in the seuenth part of the earth: fiue partes hast thou dryed vp, and kept them, * to the intent that men myght sowe and occupie husbandrye therein.

* Or, to the intent that of thē there myght be some to minister before the sowen of God, and tylled.

43 Assoone as thy word went forth, the worke was made. 44 For immediatly there was great and innumerable fruite, and many diuers pleasures for the taste, and flowres of vnchaungeable colour, and odours of wonderfull smell: And this was done the thirde day. Gen. 1.d. 45 Vpon the fourth day thou commaundedst that the sunne should geue his shyne, and the moone her lyght, the starres bydst thou set in order: 46 And gauest them a charge to do them seruice euen vnto man that was to be made. Deut. 4.c. 47 Vpon the fyft day thou saydest vnto the seuenth part where the waters were gathered, that it shoulde bryng forth (diuers) beastes, foules, and fishes: and so it came to passe. 48 For the dumbe water & without soule, brought forth lyuyng thynges at the commaundement of God, that all * people myght prayse thy wonderous workes. Gen. 1. c.

49 Then bydst thou ordeyne two soules: the one thou calledst * Enoch, and the other Leuiathan, 50 And bydst separate the one from the other: for the seuenth part (namely, where the water was gathered together) might not holde them both. 51 Vnto * Enoch thou gauest one part, which was dryed vp the thirde day, that he shoulde dwell in the same part, wherein are a thousande hylles. 52 But vnto Leuiathan thou gauest the seuenth part, namely the moyst, and hast kept him to deuour what thou wylt, and when. 53 Vpon the sixt day thou gauest commaundement vnto the earth, that before thee it should bryng forth beastes, catrell, and all that creepe: 54 And besides this Adam also, whom thou madest lorde of all thy creatures, of him come we all, and the people also whom thou hast chosen (specially vnto thy selfe.)

* Or, Behemoth.

55 All this haue I spoken before thee O Lorde (that I might shewe howe) that the worlde is made for our sakes. 56 As for the other people which also come of Adam, thou hast sayde that they are nothyng, but lyke vnto spittle, and hast lykened the aboundaunce of them vnto a droppe that falleth from a bucket. 57 And nowe O Lorde beholde, the heathen which haue euer ben reputed as nothyng, haue begun to be lordes ouer vs, and to deuour vs: 58 But we thy people (whom thou hast called thy first borne, thy only begotten, and thy feruent loues) are geuen into their handes and power. 59 If the worlde nowe be made for our sakes, why haue we not the inheritaunce of the worlde in possession? Howe long shall this endure?

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

5 Without tribulation none can come to felicitie. 12 God aduertiseth all in tyme. 28 The commyng and death of Christe. 32 The resurrection and last iudgement.

AND when I had made an ende of speaking these wordes, there was sent vnto me an angel, which had ben sent vnto me also the nyghtes afore: 2 And he sayde vnto me, Vp Esdras, and heare the wordes that I am come to tell thee. 3 And I sayde, Speake on (Lord) my God. Then sayd he vnto me, The sea is set in a wyde place, that it might be deepe & great. 4 But put case the entraunce is narowe and small lyke a ryuer. 5 Who then coulde go into the sea to loke vpon it, and to rule it? If he went not through the narowe, howe myght he come into the brode?

6 Item * another. A citie is buylded and set vpon a hyde feelde, and is ful of all good thynges: 7 The entraunce thereof is narowe, and is set in a daungerous place to fall, lyke as if there were a fire at the ryght hande, and a deepe water at the left, 8 And as it were only one strayte path betwixt them both, euen betweene the fire and the water, so small that there coulde but one man go there at once. 9 If this citie nowe were geuen to a man for an inheritaunce, and he neuer went through the perilous way before, howe woulde he receaue his inheritaunce? 10 And I sayde, It is so Lorde. Then sayde he, Euen so also is Israels portion. 11 And why? for their sakes haue I made the worlde: and when Adam transgressed my statutes, then was the thyng so appoynted as nowe is done. 12 Then were the entraunces of the worlde made narowe, full of sorowe and trauayle: they are but fewe and euyll, full of perils, and labour. 13 For the entraunces of the fore worlde were wyde and sure, and brought immortall fruite.

C 14 If then they which are liuyng, enter not diligently through these strayte and brittle thynges, they can not receaue the thinges so layde vp in secrete. 15 Why disquietest thou thy selfe then, seyng thou art but a corruptible man? And why art thou moued, wheras thou art but mortal? 16 And why hast thou not receaued into thine heart the thynges that are to come, rather then them that are present?

17 Then sayd I, O Lorde, Lord, thou hast ordayned in thy lawe that the righteous shoulde inherite these thinges, but that the vngodly shoulde perishe: 18 Neuertheless, the righteous shall suffer strayte thinges, and hope for wyde: for they that haue lyued vngodly and suffred strayt things, shall not see the wyde. 19 And he sayde vnto me, There is no iudge aboue God, and none that hath vnderstandyng aboue the hyest. 20 For there be many that perishe in this life, because they despise the lawe of god that is * set before them: 21 For God hath geuen strayte commaundement to such as came, so oft as they came, what they shoulde do to haue life, and what they shoulde kepe to auoyde punishment. 22 Neuertheless they were not obedient vnto him, but spake agaynst him, and imagined vayne thinges: 23 And deceaued them selues by wicked deedes, and denyed the power of the most hygh, and regarded not his wayes. 24 But his lawe haue they despised, and denyed his promises: in his statutes and ordinaunces haue they not ben faithfull and stedfast, and haue not performed his workes. 25 And therefore Esdras, for the emptie are the emptie thynges, and for the full are the full thynges. 26 Beholde the tyme shall come that these tokens which I haue tolde thee, shall come to passe, and the bryde shall appeare, and the commyng forth shalbe seene that nowe is vnder the earth: 27 And whosoeuer is deliuered from the foresayde euyls, shall see my wonders. 28 For my sonne Jesus shalbe openly declared with those that be with him: and they that remayne, shalbe merie within foure hundred yeres. 29 After these same yeres shall my sonne Christe dye, and all men that haue life:

30 And the worlde shalbe turned into the olde scilence seuen dayes, lyke as in the foresayde iudgementes, so that no man shall remayne. 31 And after seuen dayes the worlde that yet awaketh not, shalbe rayled vp, and that shall dye, that is corrupt. 32 And the earth shal restore those that haue slept in her, and so shall the dust those that dwel therin in scilence, and the secrete places shall deliuer those soules that were committed vnto them.

33 And the most hyghest shalbe openlye declared vpon the seate of iudgement, and all miserie shall banishe away, and long sufferyng * shalbe gathered together. 34 But the iudgement shall continue, the truethe shall remayne, and fayth shall waxe strong. 35 The worke that folowe, and the reward shalbe shewed, the * righteousnesse shall watche, and the vnrighteousnesse shal beare no rule. 36 Then sayde I, Abraham prayed first for the Sodomites, and Moyses for the fathers that sinned in the wildernesse. 37 And they came after him, for Israel in the tyme of Achas and Samuel, 38 And Dauid for the destruction; and Solomon for them that came into the sanctuarie, 39 And Helias for those that receaued rayne, and for the dead that he might liue, 49 And Ezechias for the people in the tyme of Sennacherib: and diuers other in like maner which haue prayed for many.

41 Euen so nowe, seyng the ᵃ corrupt is growen vp, and wickednes increased, and the righteous haue prayed for the vngodly: wherfore shall it not be so nowe also? 42 He aunswered me & sayde, This present lyfe is not the ende, ofte tymes honour is retayned in it: therfore haue they prayed for the weake. 43 But the day of doome shalbe the ende of this tyme, and the begynnyng of the immortalitie for to come, wherin all corruption shalbe vanished: 44 Intemperauncie shalbe loosed, infidelitie be cut of, righteousnesse growe, and the veritie spring vp.

45 Then shall no man be able to saue him that is destroyed, nor to oppresse him that hath gotten the victorie.

46 I aunswered then, and sayd, This is my first and last saying, That it had ben better not to haue geuen the earth vnto Adam: or els when it was geuen him, to haue kept him that he shoulde not haue sinned. 47 For what profite is it for men nowe in this present tyme to liue in heauines & after death to ᵇ loke for punishment? 48 O thou Adam what hast thou done? For though it was thou that sinned, thou art not fallen alone, but we all that come of thee. 49 For what profite is it vnto vs yf there be promised vs an immortall ᵃ tyme, whereas we do the workes that bryng death:

50 And that there is promised vs an euerlastyng hope, where as our selues are euyll and bayne: 51 And that there are layde vp for vs dwellynges of health and saferie, where as we haue lyued wickedly: 52 And that the glorie of the hyghest is kept to defende them which haue led a patient life, where as we haue walked in the most wicked wayes of all? 53 And that there shalbe shewed a paradise, whose fruite endureth for euer, wherin is ᵃ freedome and medicine, whereas we shall not go in? 54 For we haue walked in vnpleasaunt places.

55 And that the faces of them which haue abstayned, shall shyne aboue the starres: whereas our faces shalbe blacker then darknes. 56 For while we lyued & did vnrighteously, we considered not that we should suffer therfore after death? 57 Then aunswered he me, & sayde, This is the maner of the battayle which man that is borne vpon the earth shall fyght, 58 That yf he be ouercome, he shall suffer as thou hast sayde: but if he get the victorie, he shal receaue ᵃ thing that I say: 59 For this is the life wherof Moyses spake vnto the people whyle he lyued, saying, Choose thee life, that thou mayest lyue. 60 Neuertheles they beleued him not, neither the prophetes after him, no nor me which haue sayde vnto them. 61 That heauinesse should not so be vnto their destruction, lyke as ioy is for to come ouer those ᵃ that haue suffered them selues to be enfourmed in saluation.

62 I aunswered then & sayd, I knowe Lord, that the hyghest is called mercifull, in that he hath mercie vpon them which are not yet come vnto that worlde, 63 And vpon those also that walke in his lawe. 64 And that he is patient: for he long suffereth those that haue sinned, as his creatures.

65 And that he is liberall to gene wheras neede requireth. 66 And that he is of great mercie: for he passeth in mercie much both those that are present, and that are past, and also them which are for to come. 67 For if he multiplied not his mercies, the worlde coulde not continue his beyng with those that haue inheritaunces therin.

68 He ᵃ geueth also: for if he gaue not of his goodnesse, that they which haue done euyll myght be eased from their wickednesse, the ten thousandth part of men shoulde not remayne lyuyng. 69 And yf he beyng iudge forgaue not those that be healed with his worde, and take not away the multitude of contentions, 7 There should be very fewe left peraduenture in an innumerable multitude.

¶ The.viii. Chapter.

6 The workes of god are excellent, 20 Esdras prayeth for him and for his people. 39 The promise of saluation to the iust.

AND he aunswered me, saying. The most hyest made this worlde for many, but the worlde to come for fewe. 2 I will tell thee a similitude Esdras. As whē thou askest the earth, it shall say vnto thee that it geueth much ᵃ moulde whereof earthen vessels are made, but litle of it that golde commeth of: euen so is it with the worke of this worlde. 3 There be many created, but fewe shalbe saued.

4 Then aunswered I. and sayde, Then swalowe vp thy wyt (O my soule) and deuour the vnderstandyng. 5 For thou art agreed to hearken & to gene eare, and wyllyng to prophecie: for thou thou hast no longer space but this life geuen thee. 6 O Lorde, if thou suffer not thy seruaunt to intreate thee, that thou mayest geue seede vnto our heart, and builde our vnderstandyng, that there may come fruite of it, whereby eche man may lyue that is corrupt: then who shall step foorth in the place of man? 7 For thou art alone, & we all one worckmanchip of thy handes, lyke as thou hast sayde. 8 For when the body is fashioned nowe in the mothers wombe, and thou geuest the members, thy creature is preserued in fire & water, and nine monethes doth thy worke suffer thy creature which is fashioned in her: 9 But the thinges that kepeth, and that is kept, shall both be preserued: and when the tyme cõmeth, the wombe preserued deliuereth vp the thinges that grewe in it.

10 For thou hast commaunded the partes of the body, euen the breastes to geue mylke vnto the fruite of the breastes: 11 That the thyng which is created & fashioned may be nourished for a tyme, till thou disposest and ordrest it with thy mercie. 12 And then thou bryngest it vp with thy ryghteousnesse, nurturest it in thy lawe, and reformest it with thy vnderstanding, 13 a Mortifiest it as thy creature, and makest it liuing as thy worke. 14 Seyng then that thou destroyest him which with so great labours is created and fashioned through thy commaundement, thou couldest lightly ordayne also that the thyng which is made, myghtbe preserued. 15 Nowe therfore Lorde I wyll speake (for concernyng all men in general thou shalt rather prouide) but touchyng thy people for whose sake I am sory, 16 And thyne inheritaunce for whose cause I mourne, and Israel for whom I am wofull, and Jacob for whose sake I am greeued: 17 Therfore begyn I to pray before thee for my selfe and for them: for I see the faules of vs that dwell in the lande. 18 But I haue hearde the a swiftnesse of the iudge which is to come. 19 Therfore heare my voyce, and vnderstand my wordes, and I shall speake before thee. This is the begynnyng of the wordes of Esdras, before he was taken vp:

20 O Lorde, thou that dwellest in euerlastyngnes, which beholdest from aboue thinges in the heauen and in the ayre: 21 Whose throne is inestimable, whose glorie (and maiestie) may not be comprehended, before whom the hoastes of angels stande with tremblyng, 22 Whose keppyng is turned in wynde and fire, whose worde is true, whose sayinges are stedfast, whose commaundement is strong, whose ordinaunce is fearefull, 23 Whose loke dryeth vp the deapthes, whose wrath maketh the mountaynes to melt away, a and whose trueth beareth witnesse: 24 O heare the prayer of thy seruaunt, and marke with thyne eares the petition of thy creature. 25 For whyle I liue I wyll speake, and so long as I haue vnderstandyng I wyll aunswere. 25 O loke not vpon the sinnes of thy people, rather then on them which serue thee in trueth. 27 Haue no respect vnto the wicked studies of the heathen: but to the desire of those that kepe thy testimonies with afflictions. 28 Thynke not vpon those that haue walked faignedly before thee: but remember them which accordyng to thy wyll haue knowen thy feare. 29 Let it not be thy wyll to destroy them which haue had beastly maners: but to loke vpon them that haue clearely taught thy lawe.

30 Take thou no indignation at them which b are worse then beastes: but loue them that alway put their trust in thy righteousnesse and glorie. 31 For we and our fathers haue all the same sicknesse (and disease:) but because of vs sinners thou shalt be called mercifull. 32 For yf thou hast mercie vpon vs, thou shalt be called mercifull to vs that haue no workes of ryghteousnesse. 33 For the ryghteous which haue layde vp many good workes together, shall out of their deedes receaue rewarde.

34 But what is man that thou shouldest take displeasure at him? Or what is this corruptible and mortall generation, that thou shouldest be so rough towarde him? 35 For of a trueth there is no man among them that be borne but he hath dealt wickedly, and among the c faithfull there is none which hath not done amisse. 36 For in this O Lorde, thy ryghteousnesse and thy goodnesse shalbe prayised (and declared) yf thou be mercifull vnto them which d are not riche in good workes. 37 Then aunswered he me, and sayde, Some thinges hast thou spoken aryght, and accordyng vnto thy wordes it shalbe.

38 For I will not verily consider the workes * of them which have sinned before death, before iudgemēt, before destruction: 39 But I will reioyce ouer the worke and thought of the righteous, I will remember also the pilgrimage, the saluation, and the rewarde that they shal haue. 40 Like as I haue spoken nowe, so shall it come to passe. 41 For as the husbandman soweth much seede vpon the ground, and planteth many trees, and yet alway the thyng that is sowen or plāted is not al kept safe, neither doth it all take roote: euen so is it of them that are sowen in the world, they shall not all be saued. 42 I answered then and sayd, If I haue founde grace, then let me speake. 43 Like as the husbandmans seede perisheth, if it come not vp & receaue not thy rayne in due season, or if there come to much rayne vpon it and corrupt it: 44 Euen so perisheth man also which is created with thy handes, & is lyke vnto thyne owne image & to thy selfe, for whose sake thou hast made all thynges, and likened him vnto the husbandmans seede. 45 Be not wroth with vs (O Lorde) but spare thy people, and haue mercy vpon thine owne inheritaunce: for thou wilt be merciful vnto thy creature. 46 Then answered he me, & sayd, Thinges present are for the present, and thinges to come, for such as be to come. 47 For thou lackest yet much, seyng thou canst loue my creature aboue me: but I haue oft tymes drawen nye vnto thee, and vnto it, but neuer to the vnrighteous. 48 In this also thou art marueylous before the hyest. 49 In that thou hast humbled thy selfe as it becommeth thee, and hast not iudged thy selfe worthy to be much glorified among the righteous.

50 For many and great miseries remayne for them that in the latter tyme shal dwell in the worlde, because they * haue walked in great pride.

51 But vnderstand thou for thy selfe, and seeke out the glorie for such as be like thee. 52 For vnto you is paradise opened, the tree of life is planted, the tyme to come is prepared, plenteousnes is made redy, the citie is builded (for you) and rest is prepared, yea perfect goodnesse & wisdome. 53 The roote of euyll is * marked from you, the weakenes & moth is hid from you, and into hell fleeth corruption in forgetfulnesse. 54 Sorowes are vanished away, and in the ende is shewed the treasure of immortalitie.

55 And therfore aske thou no more questions concernyng the multitude of them that perishe. 56 For when they had taken libertie, they despised the hyest, thought scorne of his lawe, & forsoke his wayes. 57 Moreouer they haue troden downe his righteous, 58 And sayd in their heart that there is no God, * yea and that wittyngly, for they dye. 59 For lyke as the thyng that I haue spoken of is made redy for you, euen so is thirst & payne prepared for them: for it was not * his will that man should * come to naught. 60 But they which be created, haue defiled the name of him that made them, and are vnthankfull vnto him which prepared lyke for them. 61 And therefore is my iudgement nowe at hande.

62 These thinges haue I not shewed vnto all men, but vnto fewe, namely vnto thee, and to such as be like thee. Then answered I and sayd, 63 Beholde O Lord, nowe hast thou shewed me the multitude of the wonders which thou wylt begyn to do in the last tymes: but at what tyme (and when) thou hast not shewed me.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

5 All thinges in this worlde haue a begynnyng and an ende. 10 Tormentes for the wicked after this life. 15 The number of the wicked is more then of the good.

HE answered me then and sayde, Measure thou the tyme diligently in it selfe: and when thou seest that one part of the tokens come to passe which I haue tolde thee before, 2 Then shalt thou vnderstande that it is the very same tyme wherin the hyghest wyll begyn to visite the worlde which he made. 3 Therfore when there shalbe seene an earthquake and vprore of the people in the worlde, 4 Then shalt thou well vnderstande that the most highest spake of those thinges from the dayes that were before thee, euen from the begynnyng. 5 For lyke as all that is made in the worlde, hath a begynnyng and ende, and the ende is manifest:

8 Shalbe preserued from the sayde perils, and shall see my "sauiour in my lande, and within my borders: for I haue halowed "me from the worlde.
9 Then shall they pitie them selues whiche nowe haue abused my wayes: and they that haue cast them out disspitefully shall dwell in payne.
10 For such as in their lyfe haue receaued benefites, and haue not knowen me: 11 And they that haue abhorred my lawe whyle they had yet "freedome, and when they had yet open leysure of amendement and conuertion, vnderstoode not, but despised it:
12 The same must knowe it after death in payne. 13 And therfore be thou no more "carefull howe the vngodly shalbe punished: but inquire howe the righteous shalbe saued, and whose the worlde is, and for whom the worlde is, and when(it is.) 14 Then aunswered I, and sayde, 15 I haue sayde before, and nowe I speake, and will speake it also hereafter: that there be many mo of them whiche perishe, then of them whiche shalbe saued: 16 Like as the flud is greater then a drop. 17 And he aunswered me, saying, Like as the feelde is, so is also the seede: as the floures be, so are the colours also: suche as the workeman is, such is also the worke: and as the husbandman is him self, so is his husbandry also: for it was the time of the worlde. 18 And when I prepared for them that are now, or euer the worlde was made wherin they should dwell: then was there no man that spake against me. 19 For then euery one (obayed) but nowe the maners of them whiche are created in this worlde that is made, are corrupted by a perpetuall seede, and by a law whereout they can not rid them selues.
20 So I considered the worlde, and beholde there was perill because of the "thoughtes that were come into it. 21 And I sawe, and spared them greatly, and haue kept me a "wineberie of grapes, and a plant of a great people. 22 Let the multitude perish then whiche are growen vp in vayne, and let my grape (and wineberie) be kept, and my plant: for with great labour haue I made it vp. 23 Neuertheles, if thou wylt ceasse yet seuen dayes mo, but thou shalt not fast in them: 24 Go thy way then into a feelde of floures, where no house is buylded, and eate only of the floures of the feelde, taste no flesche, drinke no wine, but eate floures only. 25 And pray vnto the highest continually, so will I come and talke with thee.
26 So I went my way, and came into the feelde whiche is called Ardath, like as he commaunded me, and there I sate among the floures, and did eate of the herbes of the feelde, and the meate of the same satisfied me.
27 After seuen dayes I sate vpon the grasse, and my heart was vexed within me like as before. 28 And I opened my mouth, and began to talke with the most highest, and sayd: 29 O Lorde, thou that shewest thy selfe vnto vs, thou hast declared and opened thy selfe vnto our fathers in the wylderneſſe, in a place where no man dwelleth, in a barren place, when they came out of Egypt: 30 And thou spakest, saying, Heare me O Israel, and marke my wordes thou seede of Jacob. 31 For beholde I sowe my lawe in you, and it shall bryng fruite in you, and ye shalbe honoured in it for euer. 32 But our fathers whiche receaued the lawe, kept it not, and obserued not thy ordinances and statutes, and the fruite of thy lawe dyd not appeare, neither could it: for why? it was thyne. 33 For they that receaued it, perished, because they kept not the thing that was sowen in them.
34 And lo, it is a custome when the grounde receaueth seede, or the sea a ship, or a bellel meate and drinke: that when it perisheth or is broken wherin a thing is sowen, or wherein any thing is put, 35 The thinges also perish and are broken which are sowen or put therin and receaued, and the things that are receaued remayne not then with vs: but in vs it hath not happened so. 36 For we that haue receaued the law, perishe in sinne, and our heart whiche also receaued the lawe: 37 Notwithstanding the law perisheth not, but remayneth in his force. 38 And when I spake these thinges in my heart (after this maner) I looked about me with myne eyes, and vpon the right syde I sawe a woman which mourned sore, made great lamentation, and wept with loude voyce, and was greeued in heart, and rent her clothes, and the had ashes vpon her head. 39 Then let I my thoughtes go that I was in, and turned me vnto her, 40 And said, Why?

The. x. Chapter.

Eſdras and the woman that appeareth vnto him, commune together.

A Nd it ſo came to paſſe that when my ſonne went into his chaumber, he fell downe and dyed.
2 Then ouerthrew we all the lightes, and al my neighbours roſe vp to comfort me, then toke I my reſt vnto the ſeconde day at night. 3 And when they had all left of to comfort me, that I ſhoulde be quiet: then I roſe vp by night and fled, and am come hither into this feelde as thou ſeeſt. 4 And am purpoſed not to r eturne into the citie, but to remayne here, and neither to eate nor drinke, but continually to mourne, and to faſt vntyll I dye.
5 Then let I my meditation and thoughtes fall that I was in, & ſpake to her in diſpleaſure, ſaying. 6 Thou fooliſhe woman aboue all other, ſeeſt thou not our heauineſſe and mourc ning, and what happeneth vnto vs?
7 Howe Sion our mother is al wofull and ſozy, and howe ſhe is cleane brought downe, and mourneth extremely? 8 Seyng we be all now in heauineſſe, and make our mone, foz we all be ſozowfull: art thou ſo heauie foz one ſonne? 9 Demaunde the earth, and ſhe ſhall tell thee that it is the which ought (by reaſon) to mourne foz the fall of ſo many that growe vpon her. 10 Foz from the beginning all men are borne of her, and other ſhall come: and beholde they walke almoſt all into deſtruction, and the multitude of them ſhalbe rooted out.
11 Who ſhould then (by reaſon) make moze mourning, then ſhe that hath loſt ſo great a multitude, and not thou whiche art ſozy but foz one? 12 But if thou wouldeſt ſay vnto me, My mourning is not lyke the mourning of the earth: foz I haue loſt the fruite of my * body, which I brought foorth with beauineſſe, & bare with ſozowes: * Or, wombe.
13 But the earth is according to the maner of the earth, and the preſent multitude goeth agayne into her " as it is come to paſſe: 14 Then ſay I vnto thee, Like as thou haſt borne with trauayle and ſozowe, euen ſo the earth alſo from the beginning geueth her fruite vnto man, euen to hym that laboured her. 15 And therfoze withholde thy ſozowe and beauineſſe by thy ſelfe, and looke what happeneth vnto thee beare it" ſtrongly. 16 Foz if thou iudgeſt the matter and ende of God to be righteous and good, and receaueſt his counſell in time, thou ſhalt be commended therein. 17 Go thy way then into the citie to thy huſbande. 18 And ſhe ſayde vnto me, That wyl I not do: I wyll not go into the citie, but here wyl I dye. 19 So I communed moze with her, and ſaid, 20 Do not ſo, but be counſelled, and folow me: foz howe many fauls hath Sion? Be of good comfort becauſe of the ſozowe of Hieruſalem. 21 Foz thou ſeeſt that our ſanctuarie is layde waſte, our aulter broken, our temple deſtroyed, 22 Our playing of inſtrumentes is layde downe, and ſonges are put to ſcilence, our myrth is banished away, the light of our candelſtick is quenched, the arke of our couenaũt is taken from vs, al our holy thinges are defiled, and the name that is called vpon ouer vs is almoſt diſhonoured: our chyldren are put to ſhame, our prieſtes are brent, our Leuites are caryed away into captiuitie, our virgins are defiled, and our wyues rauiſhed, our righteous men ſpoyled, and our chyldren deſtroyed, our young men are brought in bondage, and our ſtrong worthyes are become weake: 23 And Sion our ſeale, whiche is the greateſt of all, is looſed vp from her worſhip: foz ſhe is deliuered into the handes of them that hate vs. 24 And therfoze ſhake of thy great heauineſſe, and put away the multitude of ſozowes, that the mightie may be mercyfull vnto thee, and that the highest may geue thee rest and ease from thy labour and trauayle. 25 And when I was talking with her, her face and beautie shined sodainly, and her countenaunce glistered, so that I was afraide of her, and mused what it might be. 26 And immediatly she cast out a great voyce very fearefull, so that the earth shoke at the noyse of the woman. 27 And I looked, and beholde the woman appeared vnto me no moze: but there was a citie buylded, and a place was shewed from the grounde and foundation: then was I afrayde, and cryed with a loude voyce, & sayd, 28 Where is Uriel the angell, whiche came to me at the first? Foz he hath caused me to come in many considerations and hye thoughtes, and myne ende is turned to corruption, and my prayer to rebuke. 29 And as I was speaking these wozdes, he came vnto me, and looked vpon me: 30 And lo, I lay as one that had ben dead, and myne vnderstanding was altred: and he toke me by the right hande, and comfozted me, and set me vpon my feete, and sayd vnto me, 31 What ayleth thee? and why is thyne vnderstanding vexed, and the vnderstanding of thy heart? and wherfoze art thou sozy? 32 And I sayde, because thou hast forsaken me, and I haue done accozding vnto thy wozdes, I went into the feelde, and there haue I seene thinges, and see that I am not able to expresse.

33 He said vnto me, Stande vp and be manly, and I shall geue thee exhoztation. 34 Then sayd I, Speake on to me my Lozde, forsake me not, lest I dye thozowe my rashnesse: 35 Foz I haue seene that I knew not, and heare that I do not knowe. 36 Oz is my vnderstanding deceaued, oz doth my soule dreame? 37 Nowe therefoze I beseche thee, that thou wylt shewe thy seruaunt of this wonder. 38 He annswered me then and sayde, Heare me, and I shal enfourme thee, and tell thee wherefoze thou art afraide: foz the hyest hath opened many secrete thinges vnto thee. 39 He hath seene that thy "way is right, foz that thou takest sozowe continually foz thy people, and makest great lamentation foz Sion. 40 And therfoze vnderstand the vision whiche thou sawest a litle whyle ago after this maner.

42 Neuertheleſſe, nowe seest thou the likenesse of the woman no moze, but there appeared vnto thee a citie buylded: 43 And where she tolde thee of the fall of her sonne, so is this the solution of it, 44 This woman whom thou sawest, is Sion: and where as she told thee, euen she whom thou seest nowe as a citie buylded.

45 And as touching that she sayd vnto thee, that she hath ben thirtie yeres vnfruitefull and baren: those are the thirtie yeres wherein there was no offering made in her. 46 But after thirtie yeres Solomon buylded the citie, and offred offeringes: and then bare the baren a sonne. 47 And where as she tolde thee that she nourished hym with labour, that was the dwelling in Hierusalem. 48 But where as she tolde thee that her sonne ded as his chaunce was when she came into her chaumber, that is the fall that is come to Hierusalem.

50 Foz nowe the most hyghest seeth that thou art sozy in thy minde, and suffrest from thy whole heart foz her, and so hath he shewed thee her clearenesse, and the fayrenesse of her beautie. 51 And therfoze I bad thee remayne in the feelde where no house was buylded. 52 Foz I knewe that the highest wouldе shewe this vnto thee: 53 Therefoze I commaunded thee to go into the feelde where no foundation noz buylding is. 54 Foz in the place where the highest beginneth to shewe his citie, there can no mans buylding be able to stande.

55 And therfoze feare not, and let not thyne heart be afraide: but go thy way in, and see the beautie and greatnesse of the building, as much as thine eyes be able to see. 56 And then shalt thou heare as muche as thyne eares may compzehende. 57 Foz thou art blessed aboue many other, and art called with the highest as the fewe.

58 But to-mozow at night thou shalt remayne here: 59 And so shall the highest shewe thee visions of the hye thinges, whiche he wyll do vnto them that dwel vpō earth in the last dayes. So I slept the same night and another, like as he commaunded me.

The.xi. Chapter.

2 The vision of an Egle comming foorth of the sea, and of her fethers. 37 Of a Lion comming out of the forest.

2 THen saw I a dreame, and beholde there came vp from the sea an Egle, whiche had twelue fethered wynges, and three heades. 2 And I saw, and beholde she spread her wynges ouer all the earth, and all the windes of the ayre blewe on her, and gathered them together. 3 And I beheelde, and out of her fethers there grewe other contrary fethers, and they became litle fethers and small. 4 But her heades remayned still, the head in the middest was greater then the other, yet rested it with the residue. 5 Moreouer I sawe that the Egle flewe with her wynges, and raigned vpon earth, and ouer al them that dwelt vpon the earth. 6 And I saw that all thinges vnder heauen were subiect vnder her, and no man spake against her, no not one creature vpon earth. 7 I sawe also that the Egle stoode vp vpon her clawes, and * gaue a sounde with her fethers, and a voyce saying after this maner, 8 Watche not altogether, sleepe euery man in his owne place, and watche by course. 9 But let the heades be preserued for the last.

10 Neuertheielle, I sawe that the voyce went not out of her heades, but from the middest of her body. 11 And I numbred her contrary fethers, and beholde there were eyght of them. 12 And I looked, and beheld vpon the right side there arose one fether, and raigned ouer all the earth. 13 And so it was that when it raigned, the ende of it came, and the place thereof appeared no more: so the next following stoode vp and raigned, and had a great tyme. 14 And it happened that when it raigned, the ende of it came also like as the first, so that it appeared no more. 15 Then came there a voyce vnto it, and sayde, 16 Heare thou that hast kept the earth so long, this I say vnto thee before thou beginnest to appeare no more, 17 There shall none after thee attaine vnto thy tyme, neither vnto the halfe therof. 18 Then arose the thirde, and raigned as the other afore: and appeared no more also. 19 So went it with all the residue one after another, so that euery one raigned, and then appeared no more. 20 Then I looked, and beheld in processe of time the fethers that folowed stoode vp on the right side, that they might rule also, and some of them ruled: but within a whyle they appeared no more.

21 For some of them were set vp, but ruled not. 22 After this I looked, and beholde the twelue fethers appeared no more, nor the two wynges: 23 And there was no more vpon the Egles body but two heades that rested, and fiue wynges. 24 Then saw I also that two wynges diuided themselues from the fiue, and remayned vnder the head that was vpon the right syde: for the foure continued in their place. 25 So I looked, and beholde the fethers that were vnder the wyng thought to set vp themselues, and to haue the rule. 26 Then was there one set vp, but shortly it appeared no more. 27 And the seconde was sooner away then the first. 28 And I beheld, and lo the two that remained thought also in themselues to raigne: 29 And when they so thought, beholde there awaked one of the heades that were at rest, namely it that was in the myddest: for that was greater then the two other heades. 30 And then I sawe that the two heades were ioyned with hym: 31 And the head was turned with them that were with hym, and dyd eate vp the two vnder wynges that would haue raigned. 32 But this head put the whole earth in feare, and bare rule in it ouer all those that dwelt vpon the earth with much labour: and he had the gouernaunce of the worlde ouer all the wynges that had ben. 33 After this I looked, and beholde the head that was in the middest sodaynly appeared no more, lyke as the wynges.

34 But there remayned the two heades whiche ruled vpon earth, and ouer those that dwelt therin. 35 And I beheld, and lo the head vpon the right syde deuoured it that was vpon the left syde.

36 Then I hearde a voyce whiche sayde vnto me, Looke before thee, and consider the thing that thou seest. 37 Then I sawe, and beholde as it were a Lion that roareth running hastily out of the wood: and I sawe that he sent out a mans voyce vnto the Egle, and sayde,

38 Weare thou, I wyll talke with thee, and the hyest shall say vnto thee:
39 " Is it not thou that hast the victorie of the foure beastes whom I made to raigne (vpon earth and) in my worlde, that the ende of their tymes might come through them? 40 And the fourth came, and ouerran all the beastes that were past, and had power ouer the worlde with great fearefulnesse, and ouer the whole compasse of the earth with most wicked oppression, and so long tyme dwelt he vpon the earth with deceipt. 41 For the earth hath not iudged with truth.
42 For thou hast troubled the meeke, thou hast hurt the peaceable (and quiet,) thou hast loued lyers, and destroyed the dwellings of them that brought foorth fruite, and hast cast downe the walles of such as dyd thee no harme.
43 Therfore is thy wrongfull dealing (and blasphemie) come vp vnto the hyest, and thy pryde vnto the mightie.
44 The hyest also hath looked vpon the proude tymes, and beholde they are ended, and their abhominations are fulfilled. 45 And therfore appeare no more thou Egle, and thy horrible winges, and thy wicked fethers, and thy vngracious heades, and thy sinnefull clawes, and all thy vayne body:
46 That the earth may be refreshed, (and come agayne to her selfe) when she is deliuered from thy violence, and that she may hope for the iudgement and mercy of hym that made her.

" Or, art not thou he that remaynest of the foure beastes.

The.xii. Chapter.

The declaration of the former visions.

AND it happened when the Lion spake these wordes vnto the Egle, I sawe: 2 And beholde, the head that afore had the vpper hande, appeared no more: neither did the foure wynges appeare any more that came to hym and were set vp to raigne, and their kingdome was small and full of vproze. 3 And I saw, and beholde they appeared no more, and the whole body of the Egle was burnt, so that the earth was in great feare: then awaked I out of the trouble and traunce of my mynde, and from great feare, and sayde vnto my spirite: 4 Lo, this hast thou geuen me, in that thou searchest out the wayes of the hyest. 5 Lo, yet am I weerie in my minde, and very weake in my spirite: and litle strength is there in me, for the great feare that I receaued this night. 6 Therefore wyll I nowe beseche the hyest that he wyll comfort me vnto the ende.
7 And I saide, Lorde, Lorde, if I haue found grace before thy sight, and if I am iustified with thee before many other, and if my prayer in deede be come vp before thy face: 8 Comfort me then, and shewe me thy seruaunt the interpretation and playne difference of this horrible sight, that thou mayest perfectly comfort my soule: 9 For thou hast iudged me worthy to shewe me the last of times.
10 And he sayde vnto me, This is the interpretation of this sight:
11 The Egle whom thou sawest come vp from the sea, is the kyngdome whiche was seene in the vision of thy brother Daniel: 12 But it was not expounded vnto hym, therfore nowe I declare it vnto thee. 13 Beholde the dayes wyll come, that there shall ryse vp a kyngdome vpon earth, and it shalbe feared aboue all the kyngdomes that were before it. 14 In " the same kyngdome shall twelue kynges raigne, one after another.
15 Wherfore the seconde shall begin to raigne, and shall haue more tyme then the other twelue. 16 And this do the twelue wynges signifie whiche thou sawest. 17 As for the voyce that thou heardest speake, and that thou sawest not to go out from the heades, but from the middes of the body therof, it betokeneth. 18 That after the time of that kingdome, there shall aryse great struinges, and it shall stande in perill of falling: neuertheleste it shall not then fall, but shalbe restored againe into his beginning.
19 And the eyght fethers vnder the winges which thou sawest hang vnto her wynges, betoken, 20 That in hym there shall aryse eyght kynges, whose time shalbe but small, and their yeres swyft, and two of them shall perishe. 21 But when the middest time commeth, there shalbe foure kept for a tyme, whyles " his tyme beginneth to come that it may be ended: but two shalbe kept vnto the ende. 22 And whereas thou sawest three heades resting, this is the interpretation:
23 In his last dayes shall the most high raise vp three kyngdomes, and call many thinges agayne in to them, and they shall haue the dominion of the earth. 24 And of those that dwell

therin, with much " labour above all those that were before them: therefore are they called the heades of the Egle. 25 For it is they that shall " bring forth his wickednesse agayne, and that shall performe and finishe his last. 26 And whereas thou sawest that the great head appeared no more, it signifieth that one of them shall dye vpon his bed, and yet with payne. 27 For the two that remaine, shalbe slayne with the sworde. 28 For the sworde of the one shall devour the other: but at the last shall he fall throwe the sworde hym selfe. 29 And whereas thou sawest two fethers vnder the wynges passing towarde the head that is on the right side, 30 It signifieth that it is they whom the hyest hath kept vnto their ende: this is the small kyngdom:, and full of trouble as thou sawest. 31 And the Lion whom thou sawest rising vp out of the wood, and roaring, and speaking vnto the Egle, and rebuking her for her vnrighteousnesse, with all the wordes which thou hast hearde,

32 Is the wynde whiche the hyest hath kept for them, and for their wickednesse vnto the ende: he shall reproue them, and cast before them their owne spoylinges. 33 For he shal set them alyue in iudgement, and shall rebuke them, and correct them. 34 For the residue of my people shall be deliuer by trouble, those that be preserued vpon my borders, and he shall make them ioyfull vntyll the coming of the day of iudgement, wherof I haue spoken vnto thee from the beginning. 35 This is the dreame that thou sawest, and these are the interpretations. 36 Thou only hast ben meete to knowe this secrete of the hyest. 37 Therefore wryte all these thinges that thou hast seene in a booke, and hyde them, 38 And teache them to the wise of the people, whose heartes thou knowest may comprehende and kepe these secretes.

39 But wayte thou here thy selfe yet seuen dayes mo, that it may be shewed thee whatsoeuer it pleaseth the hyest to declare vnto thee. And with that he went his way. 40 And when all the people perceaued that the seuen dayes were past, and I not come agayne into the citie, they gathered them altogether from the least vnto the most, and came vnto me, and sayd, 41 What haue we offended thee? and what euyll haue we done against thee, that thou forsakest vs and sittest here in this place? 42 For of all the people thou only art left vs, as a grape of the vine, and as a candell in a darke place, and as an hauen for ship preserued from the tempest. 43 Haue we not els aduersitie inough? 44 If thou shalt forsake vs, were it not better for vs that we had ben burnt with Sion?

45 For we are not better then they that dyed there. And they wept with loude voyce. Then answered I them, and sayde, 46 Be of good comfort O Israel, and be not heauie thou house of Jacob. 47 For the hyest hath you in remembraunce, and the mightie hath not forgotten you in temptation. 48 As for me I haue not forsaken you, neither am I departed from you: but am come into this place to pray because of the miserie of Sion, that I might seeke mercy for the lowe estate of your sanctuarie. 49 And nowe go your way home euery man, and after these dayes wyll I come vnto you.

50 So the people went their way into the citie, lyke as I commaunded them: 51 But I remayned styl in the feelde seuen dayes, as the " angel bad me, and did eate only of the floures of the feelde, and had my meate of the hearbes in those dayes.

The. xiii. Chapter.

2 The vision of a winde comming foorth of the sea, 3 whiche became a man. 5 His propertie and power against his enemies. 21 The declaration of this vision.

AND after the seuen dayes I dreamed a dreame by night. 2 And beholde, there arose a winde from the sea, that it moued all the waues therof. 3 And I looked, and beholde ther was a strong man with the thousandes of heauen: and when he turned his countenaunce to looke, all the thinges trembled that were seene vnder him: 4 And when the voyce went out of his mouth, all they burnt that heard his voyce, like as the earth fayleth when it feeleth the fire. 5 After these I sawe, and beholde there was gathered together a multitude of men out of number, from the foure windes of the heauen, to fight against the man that came out of the sea. 6 And I looked, and beholde he graued hym selfe a great mountayne, and flewe vp vpon vpon it. 7 But I would haue seene the region or place whereout the hyll was grauen, and I coulde not.

8 I sawe after these, that all they whiche came to fight against hym were sore afraide: and yet durst they fight. 9 Neuertheleese, when he sawe the fiercenesse and violence of the people that came, he neither lyft vp his handes, " nor helde swoorde, nor any weapon: 10 But onlye as I sawe he sent out of his mouth as it had ben a blast of fire, and out of his lippes the winde of the flame, and out of his tongue he cast out sparkes and stormes. 11 And they were all mixt together: the blast of fire, the wynde of the flame, and the great storme: and fell with " a rushe vpon the people whiche was prepared to fight, and burnt them vp euery one, so that of the innumerable multitude there was nothing seene but only dust and smell of smoke: When I sawe this, I was afraide. 12 Afterwarde sawe I the same man come downe from the mountaine, and calling vnto hym another peaceable " people.

13 And there came much people vnto him, some were glad, some were sorie, some of them were bounde, and other some brought of them that were offered: then was I sicke through great feare, and I awaked, and sayde, 14 Thou hast shewed thy seruaunt these wonders from the beginning, and hast counted me worthy that thou mightest receaue my prayer:

20 Yet is it easier that he whiche is in daunger, fall (into these) and nowe to see that whiche shall chaunce hereafter, then to passe out of this worlde as a cloude. Then answered he me, and saide, 21 The interpretation of the sight shall I shewe thee, and I will open vnto thee the thing that thou hast required. 22 Whereas thou hast spoken of them that are left behynde, this is the interpretation, 23 He that beareth the perill in that tyme, hath kept him selfe: they that be fallen into daunger, are suche as haue workes & fayth vnto the most mightie. 24 Knowe this therefore that they whiche be left behynde, are more blessed then they that be dead.

25 " This is the meaning of the vision, Whereas thou sawest a man comming vp from the " deepe of the sea; 26 The same is he whom God the hyest hath kept a great season, whiche by his owne selfe shall deliuer his creature: and he shall order them that are left behynde. 27 And whereas thou sawest that out of his mouth there came as a blast of wynde, fire, and storme: 28 And howe that he lyft vp neither swoorde nor weapon; but that the " rushing in of hym destroyed the whole multitude that came to fight against hym: it signifieth, 29 That the dayes come when the most hyest wyll begyn to deliuer them that are vpon earth: 30 And " in a traunce of mynde shall he come vpon them that dwell in the earth.

31 And one shall vndertake to fight against another: one citie against another, one place against another, one people against another, and one realme against another. 32 When this commeth to passe, then shall the tokens come that I shewed thee before: and then shall my sonne be " declared whom thou sawest clymbe vp as a man. 33 And when all the people heare his voyce, euery man shall in their owne lande leaue the battayle that they haue one against another:

34 And an innumerable multitude shalbe gathered together, as they that be wyllyng to come, and to ouercome hym by fighting. 35 But he shall stande vpon the toppe of the mount Sion. 36 And Sion shall come, and shalbe shewed to all men, beyng prepared and buylded, lyke as thou sawest the hyll grauen foorth without any handes. 37 And this my sonne shall rebuke those nations whiche are fallen into the tempest, for their wickednesse and euyll imaginations, 38 And into tormentes lyke to flame, wherewith they shalbe punished: and without any labour shall he destroy them, euen by the lawe, whiche is compared vnto the fire. 39 And-wherein thou sawest that he gathered another peaceable people vnto hym: 40 Those are the ten tribes whiche were caryed away prysoners out of their owne lande in the tyme of Osee as the kyng, whom Salmanasar the kyng of Assyria toke prysoner: and caryed them " ouer the water, & so came they into another lande. 41 But they toke this counsayle among them selues, that they would leane the multitude of the heathen, and to go foorth into a farther countrey, where neuer mankind dwelt: 42 That they might there kepe their statutes, whiche they neuer kept in their owne land. 43 And so they entred in at the narowe passages of the riuer of Euphrates. 44 For the most highest then shewed tokens for them, and helde styll the flud tyll they were passed ouer. 45 For through the countrey there was a great way, namely of a yere and a halfe tourney: and the same region is called Arsareth. 46 Then dwelt they there vntyll the latter tyme: and when they come foorth agayne, 47 The hyest shall holde styll the springes of the streame agayne, that they may go through: therefore sawest thou the multitude with peace. 48 But they that be left behynde of thy people, are those that are founde within my borders. 49 Nowe when he destroyeth the multitude of the nations that are gathered together, he shal defende his people that remayne: 50 And then shall he shewe them great wonders.

51 Then sayd I, O Lord, Lord, shewe me this, Wherefore haue I seene the man comming vp from the " deepe of the sea? 52 And he sayde vnto me, Like as thou canst neither seeke out nor knowe these thinges that are in the deepe of the sea: euen so can no man vpon earth see my sonne, or those that be with hym, but in the tyme of " the day. 53 This is the interpretation of the dreame whiche thou sawest, and wherby thou only art here lightened: 54 For thou hast forsaken thine owne lawe, and applyed thy diligence vnto mine, and sought it. 55 Thy life hast thou ordered in wysdome, and hast called vnderstanding thy mother: 56 And therfore haue I shewed thee the treasures of the hyest. After other three dayes I will shewe thee more, and talke with thee more at large, yea beaute and wonderous thinges will I declare vnto thee. 57 Then went I foorth into the feelde, geuing prayse and thankes greatly vnto God, because of his wonders whiche he dyd in tyme, 58 And because he gouerneth the same, and suche thinges as fall in their seasons, and there I sate three dayes.

The. xiiii. Chapter.

3 Howe God appeared to Moyses in the bushe. 10 All thinges decline to age. 16 The latter age worse then the former. 29 The ingratitude of Israel. 35 The resurrection and iudgement.

VPon the thirde day I sate vnder an oke tree, then came there a voyce vnto me out of the bushe, and sayde, Esdras, Esdras. 2 And I sayde, Here am I Lorde: and I rose vp vpon my feete. 3 Then sayde he vnto me, In the bushe did I appeare vnto Moyses, and talked with hym when my people serued in Egypt. Exod. iii. a.

4 And I sent hym, and led my people out of Egypt, and brought hym vp to the mount Sina, where I helde hym by me a long season: 5 And told him many wonderous workes, and shewed hym the secretes of the tymes and the ende, and commaunded hym, saying: 6 These wordes shalt thou declare, and these shalt thou hyde.

7 And now I say vnto thee, 8 That thou lay vp in thyne heart the signes that I haue shewed, and the dreames that thou hast seene, and the interpretations which thou hast heard. 9 For thou shalt be taken away from among all, and hereforth thou shalt remayne with my counsayle, and with such as be like thee, vntyll the tymes be ended. 10 For the worlde hath lost his youth, and the tymes begin to waxe olde. 11 For the worlde is diuided into twelue partes, and ten partes of it are gone alreedy, and halfe of a tenth part: 12 And there remayneth there that whiche is after the halfe of " the tenth part. 13 Therefore set thyne house in order, and reproue thy people, comfort suche of them as be in trouble, and nowe renounce corruption, 14 Let go from thee mortall thoughtes, cast away the burthens of men, put of the weake nature. 15 And set aside the thoughtes that are most heauy vnto thee, and haste thee to flee from these tymes: 16 For as for such euyl (and wickednes)

Ioh.2.1. weaker that the worlde is by reason of age, the more shall euyls increase vpon them that dwell therin. 18 For the trueth is fled farre away, and lea-syng is harde at hande: For nowe hasteth the vision to come that thou hast seene. 19 Then answered I C before thee, and sayde, 20 Beholde Lorde, I will go as thou hast commaunded me, and reforme the people whiche are present: but they that shalbe borne afterwarde, who will ad-monyshe them? Thus the worlde is set in darknesse, and they that dwell therin are without lyght. 21 For thy lawe is burnt, therefore no man knoweth the thynges that are done of thee, or the workes that shalbe done.
22 But yf I haue founde grace before thee, send the holy ghost into me, and I shall wryte all that hath ben done in the world since the beginning, whiche was written in thy lawe, that men may fynde the path, and that they whiche will lyue in the latter dayes, may lyue. 23 And he answered me, saying, Go thy way, gather the people together, and say vnto them that they seeke thee not for fourtie dayes.
24 But looke thou gather thee many boxe trees, and take with thee Sarea, Dabria, Selemia, Ecanus, and Asiel, these fyue whiche are redy to wryte swyftly: 25 And come hyther, and I shall lyghte a candell of vnderstandyng in thyne heart, whiche shall not be put out tyll the thynges be performed whiche thou shalt begyn to wryte.
26 And then shalt thou declare some thynges openly vnto the perfect, and some things shalt thou theme secretly vnto the wise: To morowe this houre shalt thou begyn to wryte. 27 Then went I foorth as he commaunded D me, and gathered all the people together, and sayde, 28 Heare these wor-des O Israel, 29 Our fathers at the beginnyng were straungers in Egypt, from whence they were deliuered, Deut.4.d. 30 And receaued the lawe of lyfe, whiche they kept not, whiche ye also haue transgressed after them. 31 Then was the land, euen the lande of Sion parted among you by lot (to possesse:) but your fathers, and ye your selues also haue done vnrighteousnesse, and haue not kept the wayes whiche the hyest commaunded you: 32 And for so muche as he is a righteous iudge, he toke from you in tyme the thyng that he had geuen you. 33 And nowe are ye here, and your brethren among you. 34 Therefore, yf so be that ye wil subdue your owne vnderstanding, and reforme your heart, ye shalbe kept alyue, and after death shall ye obtayne mercie. 35 For after death shall the iudgement come when we shall lyue agayne: and then shall the names of the righteous be manifest, and the workes of the vngodly shalbe declared. 36 Let no man therefore come nowe vnto me, nor seeke after me these fourtie dayes. 37 So I toke the fyue men as he commaunded me, and we went into the feelde, and remayned there. 38 The next day a Ezech.1.&2.
voyce called me, saying, Esdras, open Apoc.10.b.
thy mouth, and drynke that I geue thee to drynke. 39 Then opened I my mouth, and beholde he reached me a full cuppe, whiche was full as it were with water, but the colour of it was lyke fyre. 40 And I toke it, and dranke: and when I had dunken it, my heart had vnderstandyng, and wysdome grewe in my brest: for my spirite was strengthened in remembraunce, 41 And my mouth was opened, and shut no more. 42 The hy-est gaue vnderstanding vnto the fyue men, that they wrote the hye thynges of the night whiche they vnderstoode not. 43 But in the nyght they dyd eate bread: as for me I spake in the day, and held not my tongue by night.
44 In fourtie dayes they wrote two hundred and foure bookes. 45 And it came to passe when the fourtie dayes were fulfylled, that the hyest spake, saying, The first that thou hast written, publishe openly, that the worthy and vnworthy may reade it: 46 But kepe the seuentie last, that thou mayest deliuer them only to such as be wise among thy people. 47 For in them is the spryng of vnderstandyng, the fountaine of wisdome, and the streame of knowledge. 48 And I dyd so.

11 But wyll bryng them out with a myghtie hande and a stretched out arme, and smyte it with plagues as afore, and will destroy all the lande of it. 12 Egypt shall mourne, and the foundations of it shalbe smitten with the plague and punishment that God shall bryng vpon it. 13 They that till the grounde shall mourne, for theyr seedes shalbe destroyed through the blastyng and hayle, and by an horrible starre. 14 Wo worth the worlde, and them that dwell therein: 15 For the swoorde and theyr destruction draweth nye, and one people shall stande vp to fight against another, and swoordes in theyr handes. 16 For men shalbe vnstedfast, and some shall do violence vnto other, they shal not regarde their kyng, and the princes shall measure the way of theyr doinges by theyr power. 17 A man shall desire to go into a citie, and shall not be able.

* or, for there shalbe sedition among men.

18 For because of theyr pride the cities shalbe troubled, the houses shall tremble, and men shalbe afrayde.

19 A man shall haue no pitie vpon his neyghbour, but shall destroy their houses with the swoorde, and spoyle their goods because of the * hunger of bread, and because of the great trouble. 20 Beholde, saith God, I call together all the kynges of the earth to reuerence me, whiche are from the * vprising, from the south, from the east, and Libanus, to turne vpon them, and restore the thynges that they haue done to them: 21 Like as they do yet this day vnto my chosen, so wyll I do also, and recompence them in theyr bosome: Thus sayth the Lorde God.

22 My ryght hande shall not spare the sinners, and my swoorde shall not cease ouer them that shed the innocent blood vpon earth. 23 The fyre is gone out from his wrath, and hath consumed the foundations of the earth, and the sinners lyke the strawe that is kyndled. 24 Wo worth them that sinne, and kepe not my commaundementes, sayth the Lorde. 25 I wyl not spare them: go your way ye chyldren from the power, defyle not my sanctuarie: 26 For the Lorde knoweth all them that sinne against hym, and therefore deliuereth he them vnto death and destruction. 27 For nowe are the plagues come vpon the worlde, and ye shall remayne in them: for God shall not deliuer you, because ye haue sinned against hym. 28 Beholde an horrible vision commeth from the east, 29 Where generations of dragons of Arabia shall come out with many charettes, & the multitude of them shalbe caried as the wynde vpon earth, that all they whiche heare them may feare and tremble, 30 Then the Carmanies ragyng in wrath, shall go forth as the wylde boores of the forrest, and with great power shall they come, and stande fyghtyng with them, and shall waste a portion of the lande of the Assyrians. 31 And then shall the dragons haue the vpper hande, and remembring theyr nature, shall turne about, conspiring together in great power to persecute them.

32 Then these shalbe troubled, and kepe scilence in theyr power, and shall flee: 33 And from the lande of the Assyrians shall the enemie besiege them, and consume some of them, and in theyr hoast shalbe feare and dread, and stryfe among theyr kynges.

34 Behold cloudes from the east, and from the north vnto the south, & they are very horrible to loke vpon, full of wrath and stormes: 35 They shall smyte one vppon another, and they shall smyte downe a great multitude of starres vpon the earth, euen theyr owne starre: and the blood shalbe from the swoorde vnto the belly.

36 And the dounig of man vnto the Camels lyther, 37 And there shalbe great great fearfulnes and trembling vpon earth: and they that see the wrath shalbe afrayde, and a trembling shall come vpon them: 38 And then shall there come great raynes from the south, and from the north, and parte from the west: 39 And strong windes shall aryse from the east, and shall ouer-ken it, and the cloude whiche he raised vp in wrath, and the starre styrred to cause feare towarde the east and west winde shalbe destroyed: 40 The great clondes shalbe lift vp, and the mightie clondes full of wrath, and the starre, that they may make all the earth afrayde and them that dwell therein, and that they may powre out ouer euery hygh place an horrible starre.

42 And they shall breake downe the cities, and walles, mountaynes, and hylles, trees of the wood, & the grasse of the meddowes, and all they shall come. 43 And they shal go stedfast vnto Babylon, and make her afrayd. 44 They shall come to her, and beseege her, the starre and all wrath shal they powre out vpon her, then shall the dust and smoke go vp vnto the heauen, and all they that be about her shall bewayle her: 45 And they that remaine vnder her, shall do seruice vnto them that haue put her in feare. 46 And thou Asia that comfortest thy selfe also vpon the hope of Babylon, and art the glorie of her person: 47 Wo be vnto thee thou wretche, because thou hast made thy selfe lyke vnto her, and hast decked thy daughters in whoredome, that they myght triumph and please thy louers which haue alway desyred to commit whoredome with thee.

48 Thou hast followed the abhominable citie in all her workes and inuentions: therfore saith God, 49 I will sende plagues vpon thee, widdowhood, pouertie, hunger, warres, and pestilence, to waste thy houses with destruction and death. 50 And the glorie of thy power shalbe dryed vp as a floure, when the heate riseth that is sent ouer thee: 51 Thou shalt be sicke as a poore wyfe that is plagued and beaten of women, so that the mightie and louers shal not be able to receaue thee. 52 Woulde I so hate thee saith the Lorde, 53 If thou haddest not alway slayne my chosen, exalting the strohe of thy handes, and sayd ouer them death when thou wast drunken, 54 Set forth the beautie of thy countenaunce: 55 The reward of thy whoredome shalbe recompenced thee in thy bosome, therefore shalt thou receaue rewarde. 56 Lyke as thou hast done vnto my chosen, sayth the Lorde: euen so shall God do vnto thee, and shall deliuer thee into the plague. 57 Thy children shall dye of hunger, and thou shalt fal through the swoorde: thy cities shalbe broken downe, and al thyne shall perishe with the swoorde in the feelde. 58 They that be in the mountaynes shal dye of hunger, and eate their owne flesh, and drinke their owne blood, for very hunger of bread and thirst of water.

59 Thou as vnhappie shalt come through the sea, and receaue plagues agayne. 60 In the passage they shall cast downe the slayne citie, and shall roote out one part of the lande, and consume the portion of thy glorie, and shal returne to her that was destroied.

61 They shall treade thee downe like stubble, & they shalbe thy fire: 62 And shall consume thee, thy cities, and thy lande, and thy mountaynes, all thy woodes & thy fruitful trees shal they burne vp with the fire. 63 Thy children shall they cary away captiue, and looke what thou hast they shal spoyle it, and marre the beautie of thy face.

The. xvi. Chapter.

18.38 Of the euils that shal come vpon the world, with admonition howe to gouerne them selues in afflictions.

WO be vnto thee Babylon and Asia, wo be vnto thee Egypt & Syria. 2 Girde vp your selues with clothes of sacke and heere, and mourne your children, be sory: for your destruction is at hande. 3 A swoorde is sent vpon you, and who will turne it backe? 4 A fyre is sent among you, and who wyll quench it? 5 Plagues are sent vnto you, and what is he that wil driue them away? 6 May any man dryue away an hungry lion in the wood? or may any man quenche the fyre in stubble when it hath begunne to burne? 7 May one turne agayne the arrowe that is shot of a strong archer? 8 The myghtie Lorde sendeth the plagues, and what is he that wyll dryue them away? 9 The fyre is kindled and gone forth in his wrath, and what is he that may quenche it? 10 He shall cast lightnings, and who shall shall not feare? He shall thunder, and who shall not be afrayde? 11 The Lord shall threaten, and who shall not vtterly be beaten to powder at his presence? 12 The earth quaketh and the foundations thereof, the sea ariseth vp with waues from the deepe, and the waues of it are vnquiet and the fishes therof also, before the Lord, and before the glorie of his power.

13 For strong is his right hande that bendeth the bowe, his arrowes that he shooteth are sharpe, and shall not misse when they begin to be shot into the endes of the worlde. 14 Behowe the plagues are sent, and shall not turne agayne tyll they come vppon earth. 15 The eye is vnabled, and shall not be put out till it consume the foundations of the earth. 16 Lyke as an arrowe which is shot of a mightie archer returneth not backwarde: euen so the plagues that shalbe sent vpon the earth, shal not turne againe.

17 Wo is me, wo is me, who will deliuer me in those dayes? 18 The begynnyng of sorowes and great mourning, the beginning of dearth & great death, the begynnyng of warres, and the powers shall stande in feare: the beginning of euils, and they shal tremble euery one. 19 What shall I do in these things, when the plagues come?

20 Behold, hunger and plague, trouble and anguishe are sent as scourges for amendement: 21 But for all these things they shall not turne from their wickednes, nor be alway mindefull of the scourges. 22 Behold, victuals shalbe so good cheape vppon earth, that they shall thynke them selues to be in good case: and euen then shall mischiefe grow vpon earth, warres, dearth, and great * disquietnes. 23 For many of them that dwel vppon earth shall perysshe of hunger, and the other that escape the hunger, shall the swoorde destroy: 24 And the dead shalbe cast out as dounge, and there shalbe no man to comfort them: For the earth shalbe wasted, and the cities shalbe cast downe. 25 There shalbe no man left to till the earth, and to sowe it. 26 The trees shall geue fruite, and who shall plucke them of and gather them? 27 The grapes shalbe ripe, and who shal treade them? For all places shalbe desolate of men: 28 So that one man shal desire to see another, or to heare his voyce.

29 For of one whole citie there shal be ten left, and two of the feeld which shall hyde them selues in the thycke bushes, and in the cliffes of stones.

30 Lyke as when there remayne three or foure olines in the place where olines growe, or among other trees, 31 Or as when a vineyarde is gathered, there are left some grapes of them that diligently sought throughe the vineyarde: 32 Euen so in those dayes there shalbe three of foure left by them that search their houses with the swoorde. 33 And the earth shalbe left waste, and the feeldes therof shall ware olde, and her wayes and all her pathes shall growe full of thornes, because no man shall trauayle there throughe. 34 The virgins shal mourne hauyng no bridegromes, the women shall make lamentation hauyng no husbandes, their daughters shall mourne hauyng no helpers. 35 In the warres shall their bridegromes be destroyed, and their husbandes shal perysshe of hunger. 36 But ye seruauntes of the Lorde, heare these thynges, and marke them. 37 Behold the woorde of the Lorde, O receiue it: beleue not the gods of whom the Lorde spake, 38 Behoolde the plagues drawe nye, and are not slacke in tarying. 39 Lyke as a trauayling woman whiche in the nynth moneth trangerly foorth a sonne, when the houre of the byrth is come, an houre two or three afore that, the paynes come vpon her body, and when the chylde commeth to the byrth they tary not the twynckling of an eye:

40 Euen so shall not the plagues be slacke to come vpon the earth, and the worlde shall mourne, and sorowes shall come vpon it on euery syde.

41 O my people, heare my woorde, make you redy to the battayle, and in all euill be euen as pilgrimes vpon earth. 42 He that selleth, let hym be as he that fleeth his way: and he that byeth, as one that wyll leese.

43 Who so occupieth marchaundise, as he that winneth not: and he that buyldeth, as he that shall not dwell therein, 44 He that soweth, as one that shall not reape, he that cutteth the vineyarde, as he that shall not gather the grapes: 45 They that mary, as they that shall get no chyldren: and they that mary not, as the widdowes.

46 And therefore they that labour, labour in vayne. 47 For straungers shall reape their fruites, and spoyle their theyr goods, onerthrowe theyr houses, and take their children captiue: for in captiuitie and hunger shall they get children. 48 And they that occupie theyr marchaundise with robberie, the more they decke theyr cities, theyr houses, theyr possessions, and theyr owne persons, 49 The more will I punish them for their sinnes, saith the Lorde. 50 Like as an whore enuieth an honest and vertuous woman: 51 So shall righteousnes hate iniquitie when she decketh her selfe, and shal accuse her to her face, when he commeth that shall byrdle the auctour of al sinne vpon earth. 52 And therfore be not ye lyke therevnto, nor to the workes therof: 53 For or euer it be long, iniquitie shalbe taken away out of the earth, and ryghteousnesse shall raigne among you. 54 Let not the sinner say that he hath not sinned: for coles of fire shal burne vpon his head whiche sayth, Before the Lorde God and his glorie I haue not sinned.

55 Beholde the Lorde knoweth all the workes of men, theyr imaginations, their thoughtes, & their heartes. Psal. 138. a. 56 For he spake but the worde, Let the earth be made: and it was made, Let the heauen be made: and it was created. Psal. 146. a. 57 In his worde were the starres made: and he knoweth the number of them. 58 He searcheth the ground of the deepe, and the treasures therof, he hath measured the sea and what it conteyneth. 59 He hath shut the sea in the middest of the waters, and with his worde hath he hanged the earth vpon the waters. 60 He spreadeth out the heauen like a vant, vpon the waters hath he founded it: 61 In the desart and dyre wildernesse hath he made springes of water, and pooles vpon the toppe of the mountaynes, that the fludds might poure downe from the stony rockes to water the earth. 62 He made man, and put his heart in the middes of the body, and gaue him breath, lyfe, and vnderstanding, 63 Yea and the spirite of the almightie God which made all thinges, and hath searched the ground of al the secrets of the earth. 64 He knoweth your imaginations and inuentions, and what ye thynke when ye sinne, and wouldst hyde your sinnes. 65 Therfore hath the Lord searched and sought out al your workes, and he shall bewray you all: 66 And when your sinnes are brought forth ye shalbe ashamed before men, and your owne sinnes shalbe your accusers in that day. 67 What will ye do? or howe will ye hyde your sinnes before God and his angels? 68 Beholde, God him selfe is the iudge, feare him: leaue of from your sinnes, and forget your vnryghteousnesses, and meddle no more with them: so shal God leade you forth, and deliuer you from all trouble. 69 For beholde the heate of a great multitude is kindled ouer you, and they shall take away certayne of you, and shall slay for meate to the dogs: 70 And they that consent vnto them, shalbe had in derision, laughed to scorne, and troden vnder foote. 71 For there shalbe in every place, and in the next cities a great insurrection vpon those that feare the Lorde. 72 They shalbe lyke mad men, they shall spare no man, they shall spoyle and waste such as yet feare the Lord: 73 For theyr goods shall they take from them, and shut them out of theyr houses. 74 Then shall it be knowen who are my chosen, and they shalbe tryed as the golde in the fire.

75 Heare O ye my beloued, sayth the lord: beholde the dayes of trouble are at hande, but I will deliuer you from the same. 76 Be not ye afrayd, dispaire not: for god is your captaine. 77 Who so kepeth my commaundementes and preceptes sayth the Lord God, let not your sinnes waygh you downe, and let not your vnryghteousnes be lift vp. 78 Wo be vnto them that are bound with their sinnes, and couered with theyr wickednesse, lyke as a feelde is hedged in with bushes, and the path thereof couered with thornes that no man may trauayle through: it is shut vp, and is cast into the fire for euer to be consumed therewith.

¶ The ende of the fourth booke of Esdras.

¶ The booke of Tobias.

The first Chapter.

1 Tobias parentage. 3 His godlines. 6 His equitie. 8 His charitie and prosperitie. 23 He fleeth and his goods are confiscate, 25 and after restored.

A TObias was of the tribe and citie of Nephthali, whiche lieth in the hie countreys of Galilee a-boue Naasson, beside the way that leadeth to the west, hauyng the citie of Sephet vpon the left syde. 2 Though he was taken prysoner in the dayes of Salmanasar kyng of the Assyrians, neuertheles being in captiuitie, he forsoke not the way of trueth: 3 In so muche that whatsoeuer he myght get, he parted it dayly with his felowe prisoners and brethren that were of his kintrede.

4 And though he were younger then all in the tribe of Nephthali, yet did not he behaue hym selfe chyldyshly in his workes. 5 And when al the other went to the golden calues whiche Jeroboam the king of Israel had made, he alone fled all theyr companies:

6 And gat him to Hierusalem vnto the temple of the lorde, & there worshypped the lord God of Israel, faithfully offering of all his first fruites & tithes:

7 So that in the thirde yere he ministred al the tithes vnto the straungers and conuerts. 8 These and such like thynges dyd he obserue accordyng to the lawe of God when he was yet but young. 9 But when he was a man he toke out of his owne tribe a wyfe called Anna: and of her he begat a sonne, whom he called after his owne name, 10 And taught hym from his youth vp to feare God, and to refraine from al sinne. 11 Now when he with his wyfe, his sonne, and with all his kintrede was come in captiuitie vnto the citie of Niniue, 12 What time as they all dyd eate of the meates of the heathen, he kept his soule, and was neuer defiled in theyr meates.

13 And for so muche as he was mindfull of the Lorde in all his heart, God gaue hym fauour in the sight of Salmanasar the kyng: 14 Whiche gaue hym power to go where he would, and so had he libertie to do whatsoeuer he would. 15 So went Tobias vnto all them that were in captiuitie (and comforted them) and gaue them wholsome exhortations. 16 And when he came to Rages a citie of the Medes, hauing ten talentes of syluer (of the thinges wherewith the kyng had honoured hym) 17 And sawe among a great company of people of his kinred one Gabelius which was of his owne tribe beyng in necessitie, he gaue him the same wayght of siluer vnder an hande wryting. 18 After a long season when Salmanasar the king was dead, and Senacherib his sonne raigned in his steade, which hated the children of Israel: 19 Tobias went dayly throughout all his kinred, and comforted them, and gaue of his goods to euery one of them as much as he might. 20 He fed the hungry, clothed the naked, and buried the dead and slayne, and that diligently.

21 And when Senacherib the kyng came agayne & fled out of Iurie (what time as God punished him for his blasphemie) and in his wrath slue many of the children of Israel, Tobias buried their bodies. 22 But when it was told the king, he commaunded to slay him, and toke away al his goods.

23 Neuertheles Tobias with his sonne and with his wyfe fled his way naked, and was hyd: for there were many that loued hym. 24 But after fourtie and fiue dayes the kyng was slayne of his owne sonnes: 25 Then came Tobias agayne to his house, and all his goodes were restored vnto hym.

The.ii. Chapter.

1 Tobias calleth the faythfull to his table. 3 He leaueth the feast to burie the dead. 10 Howe he became blynde. 13 His wyfe laboureth for his liuyng. 16 She reprocheth him bitterly.

AFter those thynges, vppon a solempne day of the Lorde, Tobias made a good feaste in his house, 2 And sayde vnto his sonne, Go thy way, and bryng hyther some of our tribe, suche as feare God, that they may make mery with vs.

3 And when he was gone, he came agayne

agayne, and tolde his father that one of the chyldren of Israel lay slayne vpon the streete. 4 And immediatly he leapt from his table, left the feast, came fasting to the dead coarse, tooke hym and bare hym priuyly into his house, that when the sunne was downe he myght safely burie hym.

5 And when he had hyd the coarse, he dyd eate his meate with mourning and feare, 6 Remembryng the wordes that the lord sayde by the prophet Amos, Your dye feastes shalbe turned to sorowe and heauinesse. Amos. 8. c.

7 But when the sunne was downe, he went his way and buried hym. B

8 Then all his * neighbours reproued hym, saying, It is not long sence it was commaunded to slay thee because of this matter, and hast scarce escaped the daunger of death, and buriest thou the dead agayne? * or, his wyfe & kin.

9 Neuertheleſſe Tobias fearyng God more then the kyng, tooke the bodies of the slayne, and hyd them in his house, and buried them at mydnightes. 10 It happened vpon a day that he had buried the dead and was weery, came home and layed hym downe by the wall, and slept. 11 And whyle he was a sleepe there fell downe vpon his eyes warme doung out of the swallowes nest, so that he was blynde. 12 This temptation did God suffer to happen vnto hym, that they which came after might haue an example of his patience, like as of holy Job. 13 For in so much as he euer feared God from his youth vp, and kept his commaundementes, he grudged not agaynst God, that the plague of blyndnesse chaunced vnto hym:

C 14 But remayned stedfast in the feare of God, and thanked God all the dayes of his lyfe. 15 For lyke as blessed Job was had in derision of kynges: euen so was he laughed to scorne of his elders and kinsfolkes, which sayde vnto hym, 16 Where is thy hope for the which thou hast done almes and buried the dead? 17 But Tobias rebuked them, and spake, Say not so: 19 For we are the chyldren of holy men, and looke for the lyfe which God shall geue vnto them that neuer turne theyr belefe from hym.

19 And Anna his wyfe went dayly to the weauing worke: 20 And lake what lyuyng she coulde get with the labour of her handes, she brought it. And it happened that she toke a hyd, and brought it home. 21 And when her husbande hearde it crye, he sayde, Loke that it be not stolen: restore it agayne to the owners, for it is not lawfull for vs to eate or to touche any thyng of theft. 22 Then was his wyfe angry, and sayde, Nowe is thy hope become vayne openly, and thy almes deedes are manifest. 23 With these and such like wordes did she cast hym in the teeth. B

The. iii. Chapter.

3 The prayer of Tobias. 7 Sara Raguels daughter, and the thynges that came vnto her. 12 Her prayer heard. 19 The angel Raphael sent.

THen Tobias * toke it heauily, and with teares began to make his prayer, 2 Saying, O Lorde thou art righteous, and all thy iudgementes are true: yea all thy wayes are mercie, faythfulnesse, and iudgement. 3 And nowe O Lorde be mindfull of me, and take no vengeaunce of my sinnes, neither remember my misdeedes, neither the misdeedes of my forefathers. 4 For we haue not ben obedient vnto thy commaundementes, therefore are we spoyled, brought into captiuitie, into death, into derision and shame vnto all nations, among whom thou hast scattered vs. 5 And now O lord thy iudgementes are great: for we haue not done accordyng to thy commaundementes, neither haue we walked innocently before thee. 6 And nowe O Lord deale with me accordyng to thy will, and commaunde my spirite to be receaued in peace: for more expedient were it for me to dye then to lyue. A * or, sighed.

7 At the same time it happened that Sara the daughter of Raguel at Rages a citie of the Medes, was also reproched by one of her fathers handemaydes, 8 That she had had seuen husbandes, whiche assoone as they were gone in vnto her were slayne of the deuill, called Asmodeus. 9 Therefore when she reproued the mayden for her fault, she answered her, saying, God let vs neuer see sonne nor daughter of thee more vpon earth, thou kyller of thy husbandes. B

10 Wylt thou slay me also, as thou hast slayne seuen men? At this woyce went Sara into an hye chaumber of her house, and three dayes and three nightes she neither eate nor dranke: 11 But continued in prayer, and besought sought god with teares, that he would deliuer her from this rebuke. 12 Wpon the thirde day it came to passe, that when she had made an ende of prayer, she prayed the Lord, 13 Saying, Blessed be thy name O God of our fathers, whiche when thou art wroth shewest mercie, and in tyme of trouble thou forgeuest the sinnes of them that call vpon thee. 14 Vnto thee O Lorde turne I my face, vnto thee lift I vp myne eyes: 15 I beseeche thee O Lord loose me out of the bondes of this rebuke, or els take me vtterly away from of the earth.

16 Thou knowest Lorde that I neuer had desire vnto man, and that I haue kept my soule cleane from al vncleanly lust: 17 I haue not kept companie with those that passe their time in sporte, neither haue I made my selfe partaker with them that walke in light behauiour. 18 An husband haue I consented to take, not for my pleasure, but in thy feare. 19 Howe peraduenture eyther I haue ben vnworthy of them, or els were they vnmeete for me: for thou happyly hast kept me to another husbande. 20 For why? thy counsell is not in the power of man. 21 But euery one that serueth thee is sure of this, that if his lyfe be in trying, it shalbe crowned: and yf he be in trouble, that God (no doubt) shal deliuer him: and yf his lyfe be in chastening, that he shall haue leaue to come vnto thy mercie. 22 For thou hast no pleasure in our "dampnation: and why? after a storme thou makest the weather fayre and styll, after weeping and heauines thou geuest great ioy. 23 Thy name O God of Israel be praysed for euer. 24 At the same time were both their prayers heard in the sight of the maiestie of the hiest God. 25 And Raphael the holy angel of the Lorde was sent to helpe them both, whose prayers "came at one time together before God.

The. iiii. Chapter.

1 Preceptes and exhortations of Tobias to his sonne.

SO when Tobias thought his prayer to be heard, that he myght dye, he called vnto hym his sonne Tobias: 2 And sayde vnto hym, My sonne heare the wordes of my mouth, and lay them in thine heart as a foundation. 3 When God taketh away my soule, burie thou my body: and honour thy mother in honour all the dayes of her life. 4 For thou oughtest to remember what and howe great perils she suffred for thee in her wombe.

5 And when she also hath fulfylled the time of her life, burie her "besyde me. 6 Haue God in thy thought all the dayes of thy lyfe, and beware lest at any tyme thou consent vnto sinne, and lest thou let slippe the commaundementes of the Lorde our God.

7 Geue almes of thy goods, & turne neuer thy face from the poore: and so shall it come to passe that the face of the Lorde shall not be turned away from thee. 8 Be mercifull after thy power. 9 If thou haue muche, geue plenteously: if thou hast lytle, do thy diligence gladly to geue of that lytle: 10 For so gatherest thou thy selfe a good rewarde in the day of necessitie. 11 For mercie deliuereth from al sinne and from death, and suffreth not the soule to come into darknesse. 12 A great comfort is mercie before the hye God vnto all them that shewe it.

13 My sonne, kepe thee well from al whoredome: and beside thy wife suffer not thy selfe to know of sinne. 14 Let neuer pryde haue rule in thy mynde, nor in thy worde: for in pryde began all destruction. 15 Whatsoeuer worketh any thyng for thee, immediatly geue him his hyre, and loke that thy hyred seruauntes wages remayne not at all with thee. 16 Loke that thou neuer do vnto another man, the thyng that thou wouldest not another man should do vnto thee. 17 Eate thy bread with the hungrye and poore, and couer the naked with thy clothes. 18 Set thy bread and wine vpon the buriall of the ryghteous, and do not thou eate and drinke thereof with the sinners.

19 Aske euer counsell at the wise.

20 Be alway prayeng of God, and beseeche hym that he wyll "order thy wayes, and that whatsoeuer thou denysest or takest in hande, it may remayne in hym. 21 I certifie thee also my sonne, that when thou wast yet but a babe, I delyuered ten talentes of syluer vnto Gabelus at Rages a citie of the Medes, and his hand writing haue I by me: 22 And therefore seeke some meanes howe thou mayst come by him, and receaue of hym the sayde wayght of syluer, and geue hym his hande writyng agayne.

23 My sonne be not afrayd: trueth it is ts we leade here a poore lyfe, but great good shal we haue if we feare god, and depart from all sinne, and do well.

The .v. Chapter.

2 Tobias is sent to Rages. 5 He meeteth with the angell Raphael, whiche dyd conduct him.

THen Tobias aunswered his father, and sayde, Father, all that thou hast commaunded me wyll I do, and that diligently. 2 But how I shall requite this money I can not tell, neither doth he knowe me, nor I him: what token shall I geue him? And as for the way thither, I neuer knewe it. 3 Then his father aunswered him, and sayde, I haue his hande writing by me: whiche when thou shewest him, immediatly he shall pay thee. 4 But go thy way nowe and get thee some faithfull man to go with thee for an hyre, that thou mayst receaue the money while I am yet lyuyng. 5 Then went Tobias out, and vpon the streete he founde a faire young man standyng, gyrded vp, and as it were one redy to take his iourney. 6 And he knewe not that it was an angell of God, but saluted him, and sayd, From whence art thou, thou good young man? 7 He aunswered, Of the children of Israel. And Tobias sayde vnto him, Knowest thou the way that leadeth vnto the countrey of the Medes? 8 He aunswered, I knowe it well, and all those "streetes haue I gone oft tymes, and haue lodged with our brother Gabelus that dwelleth in Rages a citie of the Medes, which lyeth vpon the mount Ecbatanis. 9 Tobias sayde vnto him, I pray thee tary for me, tyll I haue tolde my father these thinges.

10 Then went Tobias in, and tolde his father all: at the which his father marueyled, and prayed that he woulde come in vnto him. 11 Nowe when he came in, he saluted him, and saide, Joy be with thee for euermore.

12 And olde Tobias sayde, What ioy can I haue that sit here in darknesse, and see not the lyght of heauen?

13 The young man sayde vnto him, Be of good cheare, God shall helpe thee shortly. 14 And Tobias sayde vnto him, Canst thou bryng my sonne to Gabelus vnto the citie of Rages in Medea: and when thou comest agayne, I shall pay thee thy hyre?

15 And the angell sayde vnto him, I shall leade thy sonne, and bryng him to thee agayne. 16 Then Tobias aunswered him, Tell me I pray thee, of what house or of what tribe art thou? 17 The angell Raphael said vnto him, Seekest thou after the kinred of an hyrelyng, or an hyred man him selfe for thy sonne to go with him? 18 But that I make thee not carefull, I am Azarias the sonne of great Hananias. 19 And Tobias aunswered, Thou art come of a great kinred: but I pray thee be not displeased that I desire to knowe thy kinred.

20 The angell sayde vnto him, Thy sonne shall I leade forth safely, and bryng him whole & sounde to thee agayne. 21 Then aunswered Tobias, and sayde, Well, go on your way, and God be in your iourney, and his angel beare you company. 22 So when they had prepared all thinges that they woulde take with them in their iourney, Tobias bade his father and his mother farewell: and they went on their way both together. 23 Now when they were gone, his mother began to weepe, and sayde, The staffe of our age hast thou taken away, and sent him from vs. 24 Would God that money had neuer ben, for the whiche thou hast sent him away. 25 For our pouertie was sufficient for vs, why we shoulde haue counted it rychesse that we saw our sonne here. 26 Then sayde Tobias vnto her, Weepe not, our sonne shall go safely, and come to vs agayne sounde, and thyne eyes shall see him. 27 For I trust that the good angell of God shall beare him company, and order well all the thinges that he doth, so that he shall come to vs agayne with ioy. 28 At these wordes his mother left of from weeping, and helde her peace.

The .vi. Chapter.

2 Tobias deliuered from the fishe. 8 Raphael sheweth him certayne medicines. 19 He conducteth him towarde Sara.

SO Tobias went on his way, and a dogge folowed him: and the first nyght they abode by the water of Tigris. 2 Then went he out to washe his feete, and beholde there came forth an horrible fishe to deuoure him. 3 Of whom Tobias was afrayde, and cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Lorde, he commeth vpon me. 4 And the angell sayde vnto

him, Take him by the gyll, and drawe him to thee. And he dyd so, and drewe him vnto the lande: and the fysshe began to leape at his feete. 5 Then sayde the angell vnto him, Take out the bowels of this fysshe: and as for the heart, the gall, and the lyuer, kepe them by thee: for these thinges are necessarie and good for medicines.

6 Tobias dyd so, and rosted the fleshy, and they toke it with them in their iourney: the residue they salted, as much as was sufficient for them, tyll they came to Rages a citie of the Medes. 7 Then Tobias asked the angell, and said vnto him, I pray thee brother Azaria, tell me whereto are these thinges good of the fysshe that thou hast bidden me keepe. 8 The angell aunswered him, and sayde, If thou layest a peece of the heart vppon the coales, the smoke thereof dryueth away all euyll spirites, whether it be from man or from woman, so that from thenceforth the same shall come no more vnto them. 9 The gall is good to annoynt or to stribe the eyes withall, where as there is any blemishe in them, so that they shalbe whole. 10 And Tobias sayde vnto him, Where wylt thou that we remayne? The angell aunswered,

11 And sayde, Here is a nye kinsman of thyne and of thy tribe, one Raguel by name, which hath a daughter called Sara, and hath neither sonne nor daughter but her. 12 All his good belongeth vnto thee, and thou must marrye her. 13 And therefore desire her of her father, and he shall geue her thee to wyfe. 14 Then aunswered Tobias, and sayde, As I vnderstande she hath ben marryed vnto seuen husbandes, and they all are dead: and I haue heard say that the deuyll slue them. 15 I am afrayde therefore lest such thinges happen vnto me also: whiche yf it came to passe, seeyng I am the only sonne of my father and my mother, I should bryng them in their age with sorowe to their graues. 16 Then saide the angell Raphael vnto him, Heare me, and I wyll tell thee what they be of whom the deuyll hath power. 17 Namely, they that receaue marryage after such a fashion that they shut God out from them and from their heart, and geue themselues to their owne lust, euen as it were an horse and Mule which haue no vnderstandyng: vppon such hath the deuyll power. 18 But when thou takest her, and art come into the chamber, withholde thy selfe from her three dayes, and geue thy diligence vnto nothyng but vnto prayer with her. 19 And in the first nyght rost the lyuer of the fysshe, & the deuyll shalbe driuen away. 20 The second nyght shalt thou be receaued into the company of the holy patriarches.

21 The thirde nyght shalt thou obtayne the blessing of God, so that whole chyldren shalbe borne of you.

22 After the thirde nyght take the mayden in the feare of God, and more for the desire of chyldren then for any fleshly lust, that in the seede of Abraham thou mayst obtayne the blessing in chyldren.

The .vii. Chapter.

Tobias maryeth Sara Raguels daughter.

Then went they in vnto Raguel, whiche receaued them ioyfully. 1

2 And when Raguel loked vpon Tobias, he sayd vnto Anna his wyfe, Howe lyke is this young man vnto my systers sonne? 3 And when he had spoken this, he sayde, Whence be ye ye young men and our brethren? They sayde, Of the tribe of Nephthali, out of the captiuitie of Ninine. 4 Then sayde Raguel vnto them, Knowe ye my brother Tobias? They sayde, Yea we knowe him well.

5 And when he had spoken much good of him, the angell saide vnto Raguel, Tobias of whom thou askest, is this young mans father. 6 Then Raguel bowed him selfe downe, and wept, and toke him about the necke and kissed him: 7 And sayde, Gods blessing haue thou my sonne, for thou art the sonne of a good vertuous man. 8 And Anna his wyfe and Sara his daughter wept also.

9 Nowe when they had talked together, Raguel bade kyll a weather, and to make a feaste: and when he had exhorted them to sit downe to dinner,

10 Tobias sayde, I wyll neither eate nor drynke here this day, except thou first graunt me my petition, and promise me to geue me thy daughter Sara. 11 When Raguel heard this, he was astonied, for he knewe what had happened vnto the other seuen men that went in vnto her: and he began to feare that it should chaunce vnto him in lyke maner. And whyle he stoode so in doubt, and gaue the young man no answere, 12 The angell sayde vnto him, Feare not to geue him thy daughter, for vnto this man that feareth God belongeth thy daughter to wyfe: therefore might none other haue her. 13 Then sayde Raguel, I doubt not but God hath accepted my prayers and teares in his sight:

12 Or, sonne

14 And I beleue he caused you to come vnto me for the same intent, that this daughter of myne myght be Num.36.c. married in her owne kynred accor-dyng to the lawe of Moyses: and nowe doubt thou not but I will geue her vnto thee. 15 So he toke the right hande of his daughter, and gaue her into the ryght hande of Tobias, and sayde, The God of Abraham, the God of Isahac, and the God of Jacob be with you, ioyne you together, and fulfill his blessing in you. 16 And they toke a letter, and made a writing of the marryage. 17 And then made they merry, and praysed God. 18 And Raguel called Anna his wyfe vnto him, and bade her prepare another D chamber. 19 And thither he brought Sara his daughter, and she wept.
20 Then sayde he vnto her, Be of good cheare my daughter: the Lorde of heauen geue thee ioy for thy heaui-nesse that thou hast suffered.

The .viii. Chapter.

2 Tobias driueth away the euyll spirite.
4 He prayeth to God with his wyfe.
11 Raguel prepareth a graue for his sonne in lawe. 16 Raguel blesseth the Lorde.

E NOwe after that they had supped, they brought the young man in to her. 2 Then thought Tobias vpon the wordes of the angell, and toke out of his bagge a peece of the liuer of the fishe, and laide it vpon the hotte coales. 3 So the angell Ra-phael toke holde of the deuyl, and sent him away, and bounde him in the wil-dernesse of the higher Egypt. 4 Then spake Tobias vnto the virgin, and sayd, Vp Sara, let vs make our prayer vnto God to day, to morowe, and *Or, the thirde day. *ouermorow: for these three nightes wyl we * reconcile our selues with God: and when the thirde holy nyght is past, we shall ioyne together in the *Or, ioyne our selues to God. dueties of marryage. 5 For we are the chyldren of holy men, and we may not come together as the heathen that knowe not God. 6 Then stoode they vp both together, and besought God earnestly * that he would preserue them. 7 And Tobias sayde, O * Or, that Lorde God of our fathers, prayse be health thou of heauen and earth, of the sea, might be welles, and fluddes, and of all thy geuen them creatures that be therein. 8 Thou madest Adam of the moulde of the Gen.ii.
earth, and gauest him Eua for an hel-B per. 9 And nowe Lorde thou know-est that it is not because of voluptuousnes that I take this sister of myne to wyfe, but only for the loue of chyldren, in whom thy name may be blessed for euer. 10 And Sara sayde, Haue mercie vpon vs O Lorde, haue mercie vpon vs, and let vs both come whole and sounde together to a good age. 11 And about the cocke crowing it came to passe, that Raguel called his seruauntes: 12 And they went with him to make a graue.
13 For he saide, It is chaunced nowe vnto him peraduenture as it dyd vnto the other seuen men that went in vnto her. 14 Nowe when they had made the graue, Raguel came agayne to his wyfe, and sayde vnto her, Send one of thy maydens to loke yf he be dead, that I may bury him afore it be lyght day. 15 So she sent a mayden C to see: whiche when she came into the chamber, founde them whole and sounde, sleeping together. 16 And so she came agayne, and brought good tydinges: then Raguel and Anna his wyfe praysed the Lord, 17 And said, Prayse be thou O Lorde God of Israel, that it is not happened vnto vs as we thought. 18 For thou hast dealt mercifully with vs, and put away from vs the enemie that persecu-ted vs, 19 And hast shewed mercie vnto yonder two the only borne chyldren of their parentes: O Lord cause them to magnifie thee more perfectly, and to offer the sacrifice of thy prayse and of their health: that all people may knowe that thou only art God in all the earth. 20 And immediatly Raguel commaunded his seruauntes to fill the graue that they had made with earth, afore it was light. 21 And bade his wyfe prepare a feaste, and to make redy all thinges that were necessary for meate to such as went by the way. 22 He caused two fat kine D also and foure weathers to be slaine, and meates to be prepared for all his neighbours and freendes.
23 And Raguel charged Tobias to remayne with him two weeches.

14 As for all the good that he had, he gaue Tobias the halfe of it, and made this wryting, that the halfe whiche remayned shoulde fall vnto Tobias after their death.

The .ix. Chapter.

The angell goeth to Gabelus, at the desire of Tobias: which deliuereth the letter, and receaueth the money.

THen Tobias called vnto him the angell, whom he thought to haue ben a man, and sayde vnto him, Brother Azarias, I pray thee hearken vnto my wordes, 2 If I shoulde geue my selfe to be thy seruaunt, I shall not deserue thy prouidence.

3 Neuertheleſſe I beseche thee that thou wilt take the beastes and the seruauntes, and go vnto Gabelus in Rages the citie of the Medes, and deliuer him his hande wryting, and receaue the money of him, and pray him to come to my marryage. 4 For thou knowest thy selfe that my father doth number the dayes: and yf I tary one day to long, he wyll be sory in his mynde. 5 Nowe seest thou howe earnestly Raguel hath required me, so that I can not say him nay. 6 Then toke Raphael foure of Raguels seruauntes, and two Camels, and went vnto Rages the citie of the Medes: and when he had founde Gabelus, he gaue him his hande wryting, and receaued all the money. 7 He tolde him also of Tobias the sonne of Tobi, howe all thinges had happened: and caused him to come with him to the marryage. 8 Nowe when he came into the house of Raguel, he founde Tobias sitting at the table: and he leaped vp, and they kissed one another, and Gabelus wept, and prayſed God, 9 And sayde, The blessing of the God of Israel haue thou, for thou art the sonne of a right vertuous and iust man, and of one that feareth God, and geueth great almes:

10 And blessing haue thy wyfe, and your elders, 11 That ye may see your chyldren, and your chyldrens chyldren vnto the thirde and fourth generation: and your seede be blessed of the God of Israel, whiche raigneth worlde without ende. 12 And when they all had sayde Amen, they went to the feast: but with the feare of the Lorde helde they the feast of the marryage.

The .x. Chapter.

1 Tobias and his wyfe thynke long for their sonne. 10 Raguel sendeth away Tobias and Sara.

NOwe whyle young Tobias made long tarying, by reason of the marryage, his father was full of care and heauinesse, saying, Canst thou thynke what should be the cause that my sonne tarryeth so long? or why he shoulde be kept so long there?

2 Thynkest thou Gabelus is dead, and no man wyl geue him the money?

3 Thus began he to be very sorowefull, he and Anna his wyfe with him: and began to weepe both together, because their sonne was not come again vnto them at the day appoynted. 4 As for his mother she wept with discomfortable teares, and sayde, Wo is me my sonne, Oh what ayled vs to sende thee away into a straunge countrey, thou lyght of our eyes, thou staffe of our age, thou comfort of our lyfe, thou hope of our generation?

5 Seing all the thinges that we haue are onlye in thee, we shoulde not haue sent thee away from vs. 6 Then Tobias (comforted her and) said, Holde thy peace, and be not discomforted, our sonne is whole and sounde: the man that we sent him withal is faithfull inough. 7 Neuertheleſſe she might in no wyse be comforted: but daily went out, loked about, and went about all the streetes whereby she thought he shoulde come agayne, that yf it were possible she might see him comming a farre of. 8 But Raguel saide vnto his sonne in lawe, O tary here, and I shall sende a messenger vnto thy father Tobias, to tell him that thou art in good health. 9 Tobias sayde vnto him, I am sure that my father and my mother count euery day, and that their heartes are sorye.

10 So when Raguel had prayed Tobias with many words, and he would in no wyse heare him, he deliuered Sara vnto him, and the halfe part of all his good in seruauntes, and handmaydens, in sheepe, in camels, and in kyne, and much money: and so sent him away from him with health and ioy, 11 And sayde, The holy angell of the Lord be with you in your iourney, and bryng you forth safe and sounde: that ye may finde all thinges in good case with your elders, and that myne eyes may see your chyldren afore I dye. 12 So the elders embraced their daughter, kissed her, and let her go: 13 Exhorting her to honour her father and mother in law, to loue her husbande, to rule well her houshold, to kepe her house in good order, and to shewe her selfe faultles.

The .xi. Chapter.

1 The returne of Tobias to his father, 11 Howe he was receaued. 15 His father hath his syght restored, and prayseth the Lorde.

A S they nowe were going homewarde agayne, vpon the eleuenth day they came to Charran, which lyeth in the halfe way towarde Ninine. 2 And the angel sayde, Brother Tobias, thou knowest how thou hast left thy father. 3 Therefore yf it please thee, we two wyl go before, and let the houshold with thy wyfe and the cattell come faire and softly after vs. 4 And when Tobias was content that they should go before, Raphael sayde vnto him, Take of the gall of the fishe with thee: for it shalbe necessary. So Tobias tooke of the gall, and they went their way. 5 But Anna the mother of Tobias sate dayly by the way side vpon the top of an hill, from whence she might see farre about her. 6 And whyle she was wayting there for his comming, she loked a farre of, and anone she perceaued her sonne comming, and ranne and tolde her husbande, saying, beholde thy sonne commeth. 7 And Raphael sayde vnto Tobias, Assoone as thou commest into the house, immediatly worship the Lorde thy God, and geue thankes vnto him: then go to thy father, and kisse him. 8 And straightwayes strike his eyes ouer with the gal of the fishe that thou hast brought with thee: for be sure that his eyes shall straightway be opened, and thy father shall see the light of heauen, and shall reioyce at the syght of thee. 9 Then the dogge that had ben with them in their iourney ranne before, and came as a messenger, and wagged his tayle for gladnesse.

10 So the blynde father arose, and began to runne, and stumbled with his feete: and gaue a seruaunt his hande, and ranne to meete his sonne, 11 Receaued him, and kissed him, he and his wyfe, and they both began to weepe for ioy. 12 Nowe when they had worshipped and thanked God, they sate downe. 13 Then tooke Tobias of the fishes gall, and annoynted his fathers eyes: 14 And taryed halfe an houre, and then began the bleimithe to go out of his eyes, lyke as it had ben the white skinne of an egge: 15 Whiche Tobias tooke, and drewe from his eyes, and immediatly he receaued his sight. 16 Then they praysed God, he and his wyfe, and al they that knewe him. 17 And Tobias sayde, O Lorde God of Israel I geue thee prayse and thankes, for thou hast chastened me, and made me whole: and lo, now do I see my sonne Tobias. 18 After seuen dayes came Sara his sonnes wife also whole and sounde, with al the houshold and cattel, with camels, and much money of his wyues, and with the money that he had receaued of Gabelus. 19 And he tolde his father and his mother all the benefites which God had done for him by the man that led him.

20 Achior also and Nabath Tobias sister sonnes came, and were glad, and reioyced with him by reason of all the good thinges that God had shewed vnto him: and so for the space of seuen dayes they made mery, and were right ioyfull euery one.

The .xii. Chapter.

1 Tobias declareth to his father the pleasures that Raguel had done him, 5 the whiche he woulde recompence.

T Hen Tobias called his sonne vnto him, and sayde, What may we geue this holy man that * went with thee? 2 Tobias answered his father, and saide, Father, what reward shall we geue him? or what thing can deserue his benefites? 3 He hath ben my guide and brought me saue agayne, he receaued the money from Gabelus, he caused me to get my wife, he droue the euyll spirite from her, he hath ben an occasion of gladnesse to her father and mother, he deliuered me that I was not deuoured of the fishe, he hath made thee to see the light of heauen: yea we all haue receaued great good of him. 4 Howe shoulde we worthyly deserue these thinges vnto him? But I pray thee my father that thou wylt desire him, if haply he wyll vouchsafe to take with him the halfe of all that we haue brought. 5 So the father and the sonne called him, tolde him aside, and began to pray him that he woulde be content to take in good worth the halfe part of all that they had brought. 6 Then sayde he secretly

* Or, came.

vnto them, Prayse ye the God of heauen, and gene thankes vnto him before all men lyuing: for he hath shewed his mercie vnto you. 7 It is good to hyde the kynges secrete: but to shewe and to prayse the workes of God it is an honorable thing.

8 Prayer is good with fasting, and mercie is better then to hoorde vp treasures of golde. 9 For mercie deliuereth from deathe, clenseth sinne, and causeth to finde mercie and lyfe euerlasting. 10 But they that do sinne and vnrighteousnelle, are the enemies of their owne soule.

11 Wherefore I tell you the trueth, and will hide no secrete saying from you. 12 When thou prayedst with teares, and buriedst the dead, and lefte thy dynner and hydest the dead in thyne house vpon the day time, that thou mightest burie them in the night, I offered thy prayer before the Lorde. 13 And because thou was accepte and beloued of God, it was necessary that temptation shoulde proue thee. 14 And nowe hath the Lorde sent me to heale thee, and to deliuer Sara thy sonnes wyfe from the euyll spirite. 15 For I am Raphael an angell, one of the seuen that stande before the Lorde. 16 When they heard this, they were sore afrayde, and trembled, and fell downe vpon their faces vnto the grounde.

17 Then saide the angel, Peace be with you, feare not. 18 For where as I haue ben with you, it is the will of God: geue prayse and thankes vnto him. 19 You thought that I dyd eate and dyrnke with you, but I vse meate that is inuisible, and dyrnke that can not be seene of men.

Gen. 18. a. Iudi. 13. c.

20 Nowe therfore is the tyme that I must turne agayne vnto him that sent me: but be ye thankfull vnto God, & tell out all his wonderous workes.

21 And when he had spoken these wordes, he was taken away out of their sight, so that they coulde see him no more. 22 Then fell they downe flat vpon their faces by the space of three houres, and praysed God: and when they rose vp, they tolde all his wonderous workes.

The .xiii. Chapter.

A thankes geuing of Tobias, who exhorteth all to prayse the Lorde.

THen olde Tobias opened his mouth and praysed the Lord, and saide, Great art thou O Lorde for euermore, and thy kingdome worlde without ende. 2 For thou scourgest and healest, thou leadest vnto hell, and bringest out agayne: and there is none that may escape thyne hande.

3 O gene thankes vnto the Lorde ye children of Israel, and prayse him in the sight of the heathen: 4 For among the heathen whiche knowe him not hath he scattered you, to the intent that ye shoulde shewe forth his marueilous workes, and cause them for to know that there is none other god Almightie but he. 5 He hath chastened vs for our misdeedes, and for his owne mercie sake shall he saue vs.

6 Consider then howe he hath deale with you, and prayse him with feare and dreade: and magnifie the euerlasting kyng in your workes. 7 I wyll prayse him euen in the lande of my captiuitie: for he hath shewed his maiestie vnto a sinfull people. 8 Turne you therefore O ye sinners, and do righteousnelle before God, and be ye sure that he wyll shewe his mercie vpon you. 9 As for me and my soule, we wyl reioyce in God. 10 O prayse the Lorde all ye his chosen: hold the dayes of gladnelle, and be thankfull vnto him. 11 O Hierusalem thou citie of God, the Lorde hath punished thee for the workes of thyne owne handes. 12 O prayse the Lord in thy good thinges, and geue thankes to the euerlasting God, that he may builde vp his tabernacle agayne in thee, that he may call agayne vnto thee all such as be in captiuitie, & that thou mayst haue ioy for euermore. 13 With a fayre light shalt thou shine, and al the endes of the worlde shall honour thee. 14 The people shall come vnto thee frō farre, they shal bring gifres, and worship the Lord in thee, and thy lande shall they haue for a sanctuarie: for they shall call vpon the great name in thee. 15 Curled shall they be that despise thee, and all that blaspheme thee shall be condemned: but blessed shall they be that builde thee vp. 16 As for thee thou shalt reioyce in thy children: for they all shalbe blessed, and gathered together vnto the Lord. 17 Blessed are al they that loue thee, & that be glad of thy peace. 18 Prayse thou the Lord, O my soule: for the lord our god hath deliuered his citie Hierusalem frō all her troubles. 19 I wil count my selfe happy, if my seede remayne to see the clearenelle of Hierusalem.

Hierusalem. 20 The gates of Hierusalem shalbe builded with Saphir and Smaragde, and all the compasse of her walles with precious stones.

21 All her streates shalbe paued with white and faire stone, & in all streetes shal Hallelua be song. 22 Praysed be the Lord which hath exalted her, that his kyngdome may be vppon her for euermore, Amen.

The .xiiii. Chapter.

5 Lessons of Tobias to his sonne. 6 He prophesieth the destruction of Niniue, 7 and the restoring of Hierusalem and the temple.

AND so Tobias made an ende of speakyng: and after that Tobias had gotten his sight agayne, he lyued fourtie and two yeres, and sawe his childers childzen. 2 Now when he was an hundzed and two yeres old (he dyed, and) was buried honozably in Niniue. 3 For when he was fyue and fiftie yeres of age, he lost the sight of his eyes: and when he was threescore yeres olde, he gate his sight agayne. 4 The residue of his lyfe led he in ioy, and increased well in the feare of god, and departed in peace. 5 But in the houre of his death he called vnto him his sonne Tobias, and seuen young * syzingaldes his sonnes childzen, and sayde vnto them, 6 The destruction of Niniue is at hande, (for the worde of the Lozde can not fayle) and our bzethren that are scattered out of the lande of Israel, shall come thyther agayne. 7 And the whole lande of it that hath ben waste, shalbe filled, and the house of God that was bzent in it, shalbe builded agayne: and all such as feare God, shall returne thyther.

* Or, young impes.

8 The heathen then also shal forsake their idols, and come to Hierusalem, and dwel there: 9 And al the kinges of the earth shalbe glad in her, and worship the Lozde God of Israel.

10 And therefore my childzen, heare your father, serue the Lozde in the trueth, seeke after his wyll to do the thing that pleaseth him: 11 Commaunde your childzen that they do ryght, geue almes, be mindefull of God, and euer to be thankfull vnto him in trueth, and with al their power. 12 Heare me nowe therefore my childzen, and abyde not here: but in what day soeuer ye haue buryed your mother by me in one sepulchre, get you from hence: 13 For I see that the wickednesse of it shall bryng it to (destruction and) end. 14 After the death of his mother, Tobias departed away from Niniue, with his wyfe, & childzen, and with his childers childzen, and came agayne to his father and mother in lawe, 15 And founde them whole and in a good age, & toke the care of them: and he closed their eyes, and was heyre vnto all Raguels goods, and sawe the fyft generation, and his childers childzen. 16 And nynette and nyne yeres beyng ended in the feare of God, they buryed him with ioy. 17 And al his kinred and posteritie continued in a good lyfe & holy conuersation: so that they were loued and accepted both of God and men, and of all the people of the land.

The ende of the booke of Tobias.

The booke of Iudith.

The first Chapter.

1 The buylding of Ecbatanis. 5 Nabuchodonosor made warre agaynst Arpharad and ouercame him. 12 He threatneth them that woulde not helpe him.

ARpherad the king of the Medes subdued many people vnto his dominion, and buylded a strong citie, whiche he called Ecbatanis. 2 The walles of it made he of free stone foure square, seuentie cubites hie, and thirtie cubites bzode: he made towzes therevpon an hundzed cubites hye. 3 But along the foure cozners euery side was twentie foote bzode: he made the portes in the heyght, lyke as the towzes.

4 (This kyng) trusted in his mightie hoast, and in his glozious charets.

5 So in the twelfth yere of his raigne, it happened that Nabuchodonosor the king of the Assyrians which raigned in the great citie of Niniue, fought agaynst Arpharad:

6 And ouercame him in the great feeld called Ragau beside, Euphrates, and Tigris, and Jadason in the feelde of Celoth the kyng of the Elimes.

7 Then was the kingdome of Nabuchodonosor exalted, and his heart was lyfte vp: and he sent vnto all them that welt in Cilicia, in Damascus, and Libanus: 8 And vnto the heathen that dwelt in Carmel and Cedar, and to such as dwelt in Galilee in the great feelde of Esdrelon: 9 To all them that dwelt in Samaria, and beyonde the water of Jordane vnto Hierusalem, and the whole lande of Jesse, vnto the borders of Ethiopia:

10 Vnto all these dyd Nabuchodonosor the kyng of the Assyrians sende messengers. 11 But they all with one consent wolde not agree vnto him, and sent the messengers agayne emptie, and put them away without honour. 12 Then Nabuchodonosor the kyng toke indignation at all those landes, and swore by his trone and by his kyngdome that he woulde be auenged of all those countreys.

The .ii. Chapter.

1 Nabuchodonosor commaunded presumptcously that all people should be brought in subiection.

IN the thirteenth yere of kyng Nabuchodonosor, vppon the twentie and two day of the first moneth, it was deuised in the court of Nabuchodonosor the kyng of the Assyrians, that he woulde reuenge him selfe.

2 So he called vnto him all the elders, all his captaynes and men of warre, and shewed them his secrete counsel, 3 And tolde them that his purpose was to bryng the whole earth vnder his dominion. 4 Now when they were all content with this saying, Nabuchodonosor the kyng called Holophernes the cheefe captayne of his warres, 5 And sayde vnto him, Go thy way forth against all the kyngdomes of the west, and specially against those that haue despised my commaundement. 6 Thou shalt spare no realme, all strong cities shalt thou bryng in subiection vnto me. 7 Then Holophernes called together all the captaynes and rulers of all the power in Assyria, and mustred the souldiers vnto the hoast lyke as the kyng commaunded him (namely) an hundred & twentie thousande fyghting men vppon foote, and twelue thousand archers vppon horsebacke.

8 All his ordinaunce sent he before with an innumerable multitude of camels, so that the hoast was well prouided for with oxen & small cattel, and that without number. 9 He appoynted to prepare corne out of all Syria in his passage. 10 Much gold & siluer also toke he out of the kinges house. 11 So he toke his iourney, and all his hoast, with charrets, horsmen, & archers: of whom there were so many that they couered the ground of the lande lyke the grashoppers.

13 As for the wealthie citie of Melothus he brake it downe, and spoyled all the children of Thartis and the Ismaelites, which lay towarde the wildernesse, and vpon the south side of the lande of Chellon. 14 He went ouer Euphrates also, and came into Mesopotamia, & brake downe all the hye cities that were there, from the brooke of Mambre tyll a man come to the sea: 15 And he toke the borders in from Cilicia vnto the coastes of Japhet towarde the south. 16 He caryed away all the Madiantes, and spoyled all their goodes, and whosoeuer withstoode him he slue them with the sworde. 17 After this he went downe into the feelde of Damascus in the tyme of harnest, and burnt vp all the corne, and all the trees and vines he caused to be cut downe: 18 And the feare of him fell vpon all them that dwelt on the earth.

The .iii. Chapter.

1 The people subiect to Holophernes. 12 He destroyed their gods, that Nabuchodonosor might only be worshipped.

SO the kinges and princes of all the cities and landes sent their embassadours, namely they of Syria and Mesopotamia, Syria Sobal, and Libya, and Cilicia, which came to Holophernes, and sayde, 2 Let thy wrath ceasse towarde vs: it is better for vs to serue the great king Nabuchodonosor with our liues, and to be subiect vnto thee, then that we shoulde dye, & with our slaughter sukker the euyls of our bondage. 3 All our cities and possessions, all mountaynes & hylles, all feeldes, great and small cattell, sheepe, goates, horses, and camels, all our our goodes and houſholdes be in thy power. 4 Vnder thy ſubiection be all that we haue. 5 We our ſelues and alſo our children wyll be thy ſeruauntes. 6 Come vnto vs peaceable lorde, and vſe our ſeruice at thy pleaſure. 7 Then came Holopherne downe from the mountaynes with horſmen and great power, and conquered all ſtrong fenſed cities, and all that dwelt in the lande. 8 And out of all cities he toke ſtrong men, and ſuch as were meete for the warre (to helpe him.) 9 And there came ſuch a feare vpon thoſe countreys, that the inhabiters of all the cities, the princes and rulers, and the people together, went forth to meete him as he came: 10 And receaued him (honourably) with garlandes and torches, with daunces, tabrets, and pypes. 11 Neuertheleſſe though they dyd this, yet myght they not aſſuage his rigorous ſtomache. 12 But he deſtroyed their cities, and hewed downe their woods. 13 For Nabuchodonoſor the king had commaunded him that he ſhoulde roote out all the gods of the *lande, to the intent that he only myght be called (and taken) for god of the nations which Holopherne with his power myght bring vnder him.

*Or, earth.

14 So went he through Syria Sobal, and through all Appamea, and all Meſopotamia, and came to the Idumeans in the lande of Gabaa. 15 And toke their cities, and remayned there thirtie dayes, in which ſpace he cauſed all the whole multitude of his hoaſt to be gathered together.

¶ The. iiii. Chapter.

5 Eliacim the prieſt writeth to Bethulia, that they ſhoulde fortifie them ſelues. 8 They cryed to the Lorde, and humbled them ſelues before him.

WHen the children of Iſrael that dwelt in Iurie hearde this, they were ſore afrayde of him.

2 There came ſuch trembling alſo and feare vpon them, leſt he ſhould do vnto the citie of Hieruſalem and the temple of the Lorde, as he had done to other cities and their temples.

3 So they ſent into all Samaria rounde about vnto Jericho, (toke in) and occupied all the toppes of the mountaynes: 4 And made faſt the townes with walles, and prepared corne for them againſt the battayle.

5 Eliacim alſo the prieſt wrote vnto all them that dwelt towarde Eſdrelon, which lieth ouer againſt the great feelde by Dothain, and vnto all thoſe by whom men might haue paſſage vnto them, 6 That they ſhould take in the wayes of the mountaynes where by there might be any way and paſſage to Hieruſalem, and that they ſhoulde holde diligent watch where any ſtrayte was betwixt the mountaynes. 7 And the children of Iſrael dyd as Eliacim the prieſt of the Lorde had commaunded them. 8 And all the people cryed vnto the Lorde earneſtly, and humbled their ſoules with faſting and prayers, they & their wyues: 9 The prieſtes put on heery clothes, and layde the young babes before the temple of the Lorde, and couered the aulter of the Lorde with an heery cloth: 10 And with one accorde they cryed vnto the Lorde God of Iſrael, that their children ſhoulde not be geuen into a pray, and their wyues into a ſpoyle, that their cities ſhoulde not be layde waſte, and that their "ſanctuarie ſhoulde not be vnhalowed, and ſo they to be a ſhame & rebuke vnto the heathen. 11 Then Eliacim the hye prieſt of the Lorde went rounde about all Iſrael, and ſpake vnto them, 12 Saying, Be ye ſure that the Lorde wyll heare your petitions, yf ye continue ſtedfaſt in faſtinges and prayers in the ſight of the Lorde. 13 Remember Moyſes the ſeruaunt of the Lorde, which ouerthrewe the Amalekites that truſted in their might and power, in their hoaſt, in their ſhyelds, in their charets and horſemen, not with weapons, but with holy prayers. 14 Euen ſo ſhall all the enemies of Iſrael be, if ye continue in this worke that ye haue begun. 15 So vpon this exhortation they continued in prayer before the Lorde, 16 Inſomuch that they which offred burnt ſacrifices vnto the Lorde, offered the offringes vnto the Lorde beyng arayed in heery clothes, and had aſhes vppon their heades. 17 And they all beſought God from their whole heart, that he would viſite his people of Iſrael.

"or, holy thinges.

The .v. Chapter.

1 Achior the Ammonite doth declare to Holophernes of the maner of the Iſraelites.

AND worde came to Holopherne & the prince of the warre of the Aſſyrians, that the childre of Iſrael preparprepared them selues to make resistaunce, and howe they had stopped the wayes betwixt the mountaynes.

2 Then was he exceedyng wroth, and ralled all the princes of Moab, and the captaynes of Ammon, 8 And sayd vnto them, Tell me what people is this that kepeth in the mountaynes? Or what maner and howe great cities theirs are? What is their power? Or what maner of hoast haue they? Who is their captayne? 4 And why do they despise vs more then all those that dwell in the east, and come not forth to meete vs, that they myght receaue vs with peace?

5 Then Achior the captayne of all the Ammonites aunswered, and sayde, Sir, yf it please thee to heare, I will tell the trueth before thee concernyng this people that dwell in the mountaynes, and there shall no vntrueth go out of my mouth. 6 This people is of the generation of the Chaldees:

B 7 They dwelt first in Mesopotamia, for they would not forowe the gods of their fathers that were in the land of the Chaldees. 8 And so forsoke they the customs of their forefathers which had many gods, and worshipped one God that made heauen and earth: which also commaunded them that they shoulde go from thence, and dwel at Charran. 9 Now when there came a dearth into the whole lande, they went downe to Egypt, and there they dwelt foure hundred yeres, in the which they multiplied greatly, that their hoast myght not be numbred. 10 And when the king of Egypt oppressed them, and yoked them in buildyng of his cities with makyng of clay & bricke, they cryed vnto God their Lord which punished the whole lande of Egypt with diuers plagues.

11 And when the Egyptians had cast them out, and the plague ceassed from them, and they folowyng after them to take them & to bryng them agayne into their bondage: 12 Whyle they were fleeyng away the God of heauen opened the sea, so that the waters stoode fast vpon both the sides as a wall, and these went through the bottome of the sea drye shod. 13 In the which place when an innumerable people of the Egyptians folowed vpon them, they were so ouerwhelmed with the waters, that there remayned not one to tell them that came after howe it happened. 14 So when this people was passed through the red sea, they came into the wildernesse of mount Sina, where neuer man might dwell afore, and where the sonne of man had neuer rested. 15 There were the bitter waters made sweete for them that they might drinke, & fourtie yeres had they meate from heauen.

16 Whersoeuer they went, without bowe and arrowe, without buckler or sworde, their God fought for them, and caused them to haue the victorie. 17 Yea no man was able to hurt this people, except it were when they departed vnfaythfully from the worshippyng of the Lorde their God. 18 But as oft as they worshipped any other beside their God, he gaue them ouer to be spoyled, to be slayne, and to be put to confusion. 19 Neuertheles as oft as they were sory for their departyng from the worship of their God: the same God of heauen gaue them power & strength to withstande (their enemies.) 20 Moreouer they slue the king of the Chanaanites, Jebusites, Pherezites, Hethites, Heuites, and Amorites, and all the mightie in Hesebon, and toke their landes & cities in possession: 21 And so long as they sinned not in the sight of their God, it went well with them: for their God hateth vnrighteousnes. 22 For in times past when they went out of the way which God had geuen them that they shoulde walke in it, they were destroyed in diuers battayles of many nations, and many of them were caryed away prisoners vnto a straunge countrey. 23 But nowe lately they haue turned them selues agayne vnto the Lorde their God, and are come together agayne out of the countreys where they were scattered abrode: and thus haue they conquered these mountaynes, and dwell therin: and as for Hierusalem where their sanctuarie is, they haue it agayne in possession. 24 And therfore my Lord, make diligent inquisition yf this people haue done wickednesse in the sight of their god, then let vs go vp against them: for doubtlesse their God shal deliuer them into thine handes, and subdue them vnto thy power. 25 But if C this people haue not displeased their God, we shall not be able to withstand them: for their God shal defend them, and so shall we be a shame to all the worlde. 26 Nowe when Achior had spoken out these wordes, all the great men men of Holophernes were wroth, and thought to slay him, and sayde one to another, 27 What is he this which dare say that the children of Israel are able to withstande Nabuchodonosor the king & his hoastes? where as they are an vnweaponed people, without strength or vnderstandyng of ꝑ feates of warre? 28 That Achior therefore may knowe that he hath deceaued vs, we wyll go vp into the mountaynes: & when the mightie men of them are taken, he with them shalbe stricke with the swoorde: 29 That all the people may knowe that Nabuchodonosor is the God of the earth, and that there is none other beside him.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

1 Holophernes blasphemeth god, whom Achior confessed.

AND so when they had left of speakyng, Holophernes toke sore indignacion, and sayde vnto Achior, 2 For so much as thou hast prophecied vnto vs, saying, That the people of Israel shalbe defended of their God: I wyll shewe thee that there is no God but Nabuchodonosor. 3 Yea when we slay them all as one man, thou also shalt perishe with them through the swoorde of the Assyrians, and all Israel shalbe destroyed with thee: 4 And then shalt thou feele that Nabuchodonosor is the Lorde of the whole earth: then shall the swoorde of my knighthood go through thy sides, and thou shalt fal downe stricke among the wounded of Israel, and* shalt not come to thy selfe agayne, but be vtterlye destroyed with them. 5 Furthermore yf thou thynkest thy prophesie to be true, why doest thou then change thy colour? why art thou afrayde? Thynkest thou that my woordes are not able to be performed? 6 But that thou mayest knowe that thou shalt feele these thynges with them, beholde from this houre forth wyll I sende thee vnto yonder people, that when the punishment of my swoorde (which they haue worthyly deserued) falleth vpon them, thou mayest be punished with them. 7 So Holophernes commaunded his seruauntes to take Achior, and to carry him vnto Bethulia, and to deliuer him into the handes of the children of Israel.

8 Then Holophernes seruauntes toke him, and went through the playne feelde: but when they drue nye vnto the mountaynes, the slyng casters came out agaynst them.

9 Neuertheleſſe they gat them away by the side of the mountaine, & bounde Achior hands and foote to a tree, and so left him bounde with withes, and turned agayne vnto their lord. 10 After that, the children of Israel went downe from Bethulia, came vnto him, loosed him, brought him into Bethulia, set him in the middest of the people, and asked him what the matter was that the Assyrians had left him bounde? 11 Ozias the sonne of Micha of the tribe of Simeon, and Charmi which is also called Gothoniel, were the principall rulers at the same tyme. 12 Nowe when Achior stoode in the middest of the senatours, and before them all, he tolde them what aunswere he gaue Holophernes to the thyng that he asked him, and howe Holophernes people woulde haue slayne him for so saying, 13 And howe Holophernes him selfe was wroth, and commaunded him for the same cause to be deliuered vnto the Israelites: that when he ouercame the children of Israel, he myght commaunde Achior also to be put to death with diuers tormentes, because he sayde, The God of heauen is their defender. 14 And when Achior had C playnly tolde out all these thynges, all the people fell downe vpon their faces, prayeng the Lord, and powred out their prayers together vnto the Lorde, with a generall complaynt and weepyng, 15 And sayd, O Lorde God of heauen and of earth, beholde their pryde, and loke vpon our lowlyneſſe, and consider howe it standeth with thy saintes, and make it to be knowē that thou forsakest not those which holde them fast by thee: and howe that thou bringest them lowe that presume of them selues, and make their boast in their owne strength. 16 So whē the weeping & prayer of the people (which they had made the whole day long) was ended, they comforted Achior, 17 Saying, The God of our fathers, whose power and strength thou hast prayed, shall so rewarde thee, that thou shalt rather see their destruction. 18 When the Lorde our God then shall gene his seruauntes this libertie, God be also with thee among vs: so that as it shall please thee, so thou with all thyne mayest dwell with vs.

19 Nowe when Ozias had ended the counsell, he toke him into his house, and and made a great supper, 20 Called the elders to it: and so they refreshed them selues after the fastyng. 21 And afterwarde was all the people called together, which made their prayers all the night long * in the congregation, & besought the god of Israel for helpe.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

1 Holophernes doth besiege Bethulia.

THE next day Holophernes commaunded his hoast to go vp against Bethulia. 2 There were an hundred & twentie thousande fightyng men on foote, and two and twentie thousande horsmen, beside the prepatyng of them that were wonne, and came to them on euery side out of the countreys & cities which he had take. 3 All these prepated them selues vnto the battayle agaynst the Israelites, & came on by the hyll side vnto the top that loketh ouer against Dothain, fro the place which is called Belma, vnto Chelmon, that lieth toward Esdrelon. 4 Nowe when the children of Israel sawe so great multitude of the Assyrians, they fell downe flat vpon the grounde, strawed ashes vpon their heades, and prayed with one accorde that the God of Israel would shewe his mercie vpon his people. 5 And so they take their weapons, and sate bewirt the mountaynes in the narowe place, and kept the way day and nyght. 6 But whyle Holophernes was goyng rounde about, he founde the water spryng, which from the south side was conueyed into the citie by a conduite, and he commaunded their conduite to be cut in sunder.

7 There were welles also not farre from the walles, which they vsed secretely, more for pleasure * then for necessitie. 8 Then went the Ammonites and the Moabites vnto Holophernes, and sayd, The children of Israel trust neither in speare nor arrow, but haue taken in and kept the mountaynes, and steepe hilles defend them. 9 That thou mayest ouercome them therfore without the stryking of any battel, set men to kepe the welles, that they drawe no water out of them, so shalt thou destroy them without swoorde: or at the least they shall be so feeble that they must be fayne to geue ouer the citie, which they thynke not able to be wonne, for so much as it lyeth in the mountaynes. 10 These wordes pleased Holophernes well, & all his men of warre, and he set an hundred at euery well rounde about.

* Or, then to drynke them.

11 And when this watche had endured twentie dayes, the cesternes and all that had water failed them that dwelt in the citie of Bethulia, so that in the whole citie they had not drynke enough for one day, for the people had water geuen them daily in a measure. 12 Then came the men and women, young persons and children, all vnto Ozias, and sayde all with one voyce: 13 God be iudge betwirt vs and thee, for thou hast dealt cuyll with vs: thou wouldest not speake peaceably with the king of the Assyrians, therefore hath God solde vs into their handes. 14 And there is no man to helpe vs, whereas we are brought downe before their eyes in thirst and great destruction. 15 Therfore gather nowe together all the people that be in the citie, that we may all yeelde our selues willyngly vnto the people of Holophernes. 16 For better it is that we be captiue and praise the Lorde with our liues, then to be slayne & perishe, and to be laughed to scorne and shamed of euery man when we see our wyues and children dye before our eyes. 17 We take heauen and earth this day to recorde, and the God of our fathers, which punisheth vs accordyng to (the deseruyng of) our sinnes, (and geue you warnyng) that ye geue vp the citie nowe into the power of Holophernes hoast, that our ende may be short with the swoorde, which els shall endure long for want of water and for thirst. 18 When they had spoken out these wordes, there was a great weepyng and howlyng in the whole congregation (and that of euery man) and they cryed * a whole houre long vnto God with one voyce, 19 Saying, We haue sinned with our fathers, we haue done a misse, we haue dealt wickedly. 20 Thou that art gracious haue mercie vpon vs, or punishe our vnrighteousnesse with thyne owne scourge, and geue not those ouer that knowledge thee, vnto a people which knowe thee not: 21 That they may not say among the heathen, Where is their god? 22 And when they were so weery with this crying & weeping that they held their peace, 23 Ozias stoode vp with watry eyes, and sayde, O take good heartes vnto you deare brethren (& be of good cheare) & let vs wayte yet these fiue dayes for mercy of the Lord.

* Or, many houres.

24 Peraduenture he shall put away his his indignation, and gene glorie vnto his name. 25 But yf he helpe vs not when the fiue dayes are past, we shall do as ye haue sayde.

¶ The. viii. Chapter.

1 The parentage, life, and conuersation of Iudith.

A And it hapned when these wordes came to the eares of Iudith a widowe, which was the daughter of Merari the sonne of Idor, the sonne of Joseph, the sonne of Ossa, the sonne of Elai, the sonne of Jamnor, the sonne of Gedeon, the sonne of Raphaim, the sonne of Achitob, the sonne of Melchia, the sonne of Enan, the sonne of Nathania, the sonne of Salathiel, the sonne of Simeon, the sonne of Ruben: 2 And her husband was called Manasses, which dyed in the dayes of the barly harueſt.

3 For whyle he was bindyng the sheaues together in the feelde, the heate came vpon his head, and he dyed at Bethulia his citie, and there was he buryed beside his fathers.

4 Nowe was Judith his desolate widowe three yeres, & sixe monethes.

5 And in the vpper partes of her house she made her selfe a priuie chamber where she dwelt beyng closed in with her maydens: 6 She ware a smocke of heere, and fasted all the dayes of her lyfe, except the sabbathes, and newe moones, and the solempne dayes that the people of Israel kept. 7 She was a very faire and beautifull person, her husbande also had left her great riches, a plenteous houshold, great vnmoueable possessions, and many cattell. 8 This Judith was a woman of a very good report with euery one, for she feared the Lorde greatly: and there was no body that spake an euyll worde of her. 9 When this Judith heard how Ossas had promised the people that after the fift day he woulde geue vp the citie vnto the Assyrians, she sent for the elders Chabri and Charmi.

10 And when they came to her, she sayde, What thyng is this wherein Ossas hath consented, that yf God helpe not within fiue dayes he wyll geue ouer the citie to the Assyrians?

11 What are ye, that ye tempt the Lorde? 12 This deuice obtayneth no mercie of god: but prouoketh him vnto wrath and displeasure. 13 Wyll ye set the mercie of the Lord a tyme, and appoynt him a day after your wyll?

14 Neuertheleſſe for so much as the Lorde is patient, let vs rather repent in this, powryng our teares, and beseechyng him of grace. 15 For God threatneth not as a man, neither wyll he be prouoked vnto wrath as the children of men. 16 And therfore let vs heartyly fal downe before him, and serue him with a meeke spirite,

17 And with weepyng eyes say vnto the Lord, that he deale with vs accordyng to his owne wyll speedyly in mercie: that lyke as our heart is now vexed and brought lowe through the pride of them, it may so be comforted through his grace. 18 In so much as we folowe not the sinnes of our fathers which forsake their God, and worshipped other gods: 19 For the which sinne they perished with the swoorde, were spoyled, and brought to shame of all their enemies: as for vs we knowe none other God but only him. 20 For whose comfort let vs tary with meekenesse, and he shall require and make inquisition for our blood from the vexations of our enemies: he shall bryng downe all the heathen that rise vp agaynst vs, and put them to dishonour, euen the Lord our god. 21 Therfore deare brethren, seing ye are the (honourable and) elders in the people of God, and their lyfe hangeth all vpon you, lyft vp their heartes with your exhortation, that they may call to remembraunce howe our fathers also in tymes past were tempted, that they myght be proued if they worshipped their God a right.

22 They ought to remember howe our father Abraham beyng tempted, and tryed through many tribulations, was founde a louer and frende of God. 23 So was Isahac, so was Jacob, so was Moyses: and all they that pleased God, passed stedfast in fayth through manyfolde troubles.

24 Agayne, they that receaued not their temptations with the feare of God, but put them selues frowth with vnpatiencie and murmuryng agaynst God, 25 Perished of the destroyer, and were slaine of serpentes. 26 And therfore shoulde not we vndertake to be auenged for the thinges that are done vnto vs: 27 But to consider that all these punishmentes are farre lesse then our sinnes and misdeedes, and beleeuyng that this correction cōmeth vnto vs as to the seruauntes of God, for amendement, and not for our destruction. 28 Then sayd Ozias and the elders vnto Judith, All that thou speakest is true, and no man can reprooue thy wordes. 29 Pray thou for vs nowe therfore (vnto God,) for thou art an holy woman, and fearest God. 30 And Judith sayde vnto them, Seyng ye know that my wordes are of God, 31 Then proue my counsayle and deuice if it be of god: and beseche God that he wyl bring my counsayle to good ende. 32 (Thus haue I deuised) ye shall stande this nyght before the porte, and I wyll go forth with Abra my mayden: and pray ye therfore vnto God, that he wyll graciously remember his people of Israel within fiue dayes, as ye haue sayde. 33 As for the thyng that I go in hand withal, ask ye no questions of it: and tyll I bring you worde agayne of it, do ye nothyng els but pray vnto the Lord our God for me. 34 Then Ozias the prince of the people of Juda sayd vnto her, Go thy way in peace, the Lorde be with thee, that we may be auenged of our enemies. And so they went from her agayne.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

1 Iudith humbleth her selfe before the Lorde, and maketh her prayers for the deliuerance of her people.

NOwe when they were "gone their way, Judith went into her closet, put on a heery smocke, strawed ashes vpon her head, fell downe before the Lorde, and cryed vnto him, saying, 2 O Lorde God of my father Simeon, which gauest him a sworde for "a defence agaynst the enemies that vsed violence in their vncleanneſſe, and that rauished the virgin, (and) put her to shame & confusion: 3 Thou that gauest their wiues into a pray, and their daughters into captiuitie, & all their pray for a spoyle vnto thy seruauntes which bare a zeale vnto thee: helpe me widowe, O Lorde my God I beseche thee.

4 For thou hast made the first thinges: and after that, loke what thou hast taken in hande and deuised, it came euer to passe. 5 For all thy wayes are prepared, and thy iudgementes are put in thy euerlastyng foreknowledge.

6 O loke nowe vpon the "armies of the Assyrians, lyke as it was thy pleasure sometyme to loke vpon the hoast of the Egyptians, when they beyng weaponed persecuted thy seruauntes, and put their trust in their charrets, horsemen, & in the multitude of their men of warre. 7 But thou lokedst vpon their hoast, castyng a thicke darknesse before them. 8 And when they came into the deepe, the waters ouerwhelmed them. 9 Euen so Lorde let it go with these that trust in the power and multitude of their men of warre, in their charrets, arrowes, and speares: 10 And knowe not that thou only art our God which destroyest warres frō the begynnyng, and "that thou art the Lorde. 11 O lyft vp thyne arme (nowe) lyke as euer from the beginning, and in thy power bring their power to naught: cause their might to fal in thy wrath, which make their boast that they wyll vnhallowe and defile thy sanctuarie, and to waste the tabernacle of thy name, and to cast downe the horne of thyne aulter with their sworde. 12 Bring to passe O Lorde, that the pryde of "the enemie may be cut downe with his owne sworde. 13 That he may be taken with the snare of his eyes in me, and that thou mayest smyte him with the lyppes of my loue. 14 O geue me a stedfast mynde, that I may despise him and his strength, and that I may destroy him. 15 This shall bring thy name an euerlastyng remembraunce, yf the hande of a woman ouerthrowe him. 16 For thy power O Lorde standeth not in the multitude (of men) neither hast thou any pleasure in the strength of horses, neither was there from the begynnyng any proude persons that pleased thee: but in the prayer of the humble and meeke hath thy pleasure ben euermore. 17 O thou god of the heauens, thou maker of the waters, and Lorde of all creatures, heare me poore woman callyng vpon thee, and puttyng my trust in thy mercie. 18 Remember thy couenaunt O Lorde, and minister wordes in my mouth, and stablishe this deuice in my heart, that thy house may continue styll in holynesse: 19 And that all the heathen may knowe that thou art God, and that there is none other but thou.

before the Lorde, 2 And called her mayden Abra, went downe into her house, layde the heery cloth from her, put of the garmentes of her widowhood, 3 Washed her body, annoynted her selfe with precious thinges of sweete sauour, brayded and platted her heere, set a coyffe vpon her head, and put on such apparell as belonged vnto gladnesse, slyppers vpon her feete, bracelets, spanges, eare ynges, fynger ynges, and decked her selfe with all her best arap. 4 The Lorde gaue her also a speciall beautie and fairnesse: for all this deckyng of her selfe was not done for any voluptuousnesse, but of a vyght discretion and vertue: therfore did the Lord encrease her beautie, so that she was exceedyng amiable and welfauoured in all mens eyes. 5 She gaue her mayden Abra also a bottel of wine, a pot with oyle, pottage, cake bread, and cheese, and went her way. 6 Nowe when they came to the port of the citie, they founde Ozias and the elders of the B citie wayeyng there: 7 Which when they sawe her, they were astonyed, and marueyled greatly at her beautie.

8 Neuertheles they asked no question at her, but let her go, saying, The God of our fathers geue thee grace, and with his power perfourme all the deuice of thy heart, that Hierusalem may reioyce ouer thee, and that thy name may be in the number of the holy and righteous. 9 And all they that were there sayd with one voyce, So be it, so be it. 10 Iudith made her prayer vnto the Lorde, and went out at the port, shee her mayde Abra. 11 And as she was goyng downe the mountayne, it happened that about the spryng of the day the spyes of the Assyrians met with her, and toke her, saying, Whence commest thou? or whyther goest thou? 12 She answered, I am a daughter of the Hebrues, and am fled from them: for I know that they shalbe geuen vnto you to be spoyled, because they thought scorne to yeelde themselues vnto you, that they myght fynde mercie in your
C sight. 13 Therfore haue I deuised by my selfe after this maner, I will go before the prince Holophernes, and tell him all their secretes, and will shewe him how he may come by them, and wyn them: so that not one man of his hoast shall perishe. 14 And when these men had hearde her wordes, and considered her faire face, they were astonied (for they wondred at her excellent beautie,) 15 And sayde vnto
D her, Thou hast saued thy lyfe by fyndyng out this deuice, that thou wouldest come downe to our lord. 16 And be thou sure that when thou commest vnto him, he shall entreate thee well, and thou shalt please him at the heart. So they brought her in to Holophernes pauilion, and tolde him of her.

17 Nowe when he came in before him, immediatly he was ouercome and taken with her beautie. 18 Then sayde his seruauntes, Who woulde despise the people of the Iewes that haue so faire women? shoulde we not by reason fyght agaynst them for these? 19 So when Iudith sawe Holophernes sittyng in a canapie that was wrought of purple silke, golde, smaragde, and precious stones, 20 She loked fast vpon him, bowed her selfe, and fell downe vpon the earth: and Holophernes seruauntes toke her vp agayne at their lordes commaundement.

¶ The. xi. Chapter.

1 Holophernes comforteth Iudith, 3 and asketh the cause of her cõmyng. 5 She deceaueth him by her faire wordes.

THen sayde Holophernes vnto her, Be of good cheare, and feare not in thyne heart: for I neuer hurt man that would serue Nabuchodonosor the king. 2 As for thy people yt they had not despised me, I shoulde not haue lyft vp my speare agaynst them. 3 But tell me nowe what is the cause that thou art departed from them, and wherfore art thou come vnto vs? 4 And Iudith sayde vnto him, Syr, vnderstand the wordes of thy handmayden: for yf thou wylt do after the wordes of thy handmayden, the Lorde shall bryng thy matter to a prosperous effect. 5 As Nabuchodonosor the king of the earth liueth, and as his power liueth which is in thee to the punishment of all men that go wrong: all men shall not only be subdued vnto him through thee, but all the beastes also of the feelde. 6 For all people speake of thy prudent actiuitie, and it hath euer ben reported howe thou only art good and mightie in all his kingdome, and thy discretion is commended in all landes.

7 The thyng is manifest also that Achior spake, and it is well knowen what thou commaundest to do vnto him. 8 For this is playne and of a suretie, that our god is so worthy with vs by the reason of our sinnes, that he hath shewed by his prophetes vnto the people, howe that for their sinnes he wyll deliuer them ouer (vnto the enemie.) 9 And for so much as the children of Israel knowe that they haue so displeased their God, they are sore afrayde of thee. 10 They suffer great hunger also, and for want of water they are dead nowe in a maner. 11 Moreouer they are appoynted to slay all their cattell, that they may drynke the blood of them: 12 And are purposed to spend the holy things of their God which he hath forbidden them to touche, (as) of corne, wine, and oyle, and they wyll consume those thynges which they ought not to touch with their handes: Seyng now that they do these thynges, it is a playne case that they must needes be destroyed. 13 Which when I thy handmayden perceaued, I fled from them: and the Lorde hath sent me to shewe thee these thynges. 14 For I thy handmayden worship God euen here nowe beside thee, and thy handmayden shall go forth, and I wyll make my prayer vnto God: 15 And he shall tell me when he wyll reuenge them their sinne, then shal I come and shewe thee, and bring thee through the middest of Hierusalem, so that thou shalt haue all the people of Israel as sheepe without a sheepheard, and there shall not so much as one dogge barke agaynst thee. 16 For these thynges are shewed me by the prouidence of God. 17 And for so much as god is displeased with them, he hath sent me to tell thee the same. 18 These wordes pleased Holophernes, and all his seruauntes: which marueyled at the wisdome of her, and sayde one to another, 19 There is not such a woman vpon earth in fauour, in beautie, and discretion of wordes. 20 And Holopherne sayd vnto her, God hath done well that he hath sent thee hyther before thy people, that thou mayest gene them into our handes. 21 And for so much as thy promise is good, yf thy God performe it vnto me, he shalbe my God also, and thou shalt be excellent and great in the court of Nabuchodonozor, and thy name shalbe spoken of in all the lande.

1 Iudith woulde not pollute her selfe with the meate of the Gentiles.

THen commaunded he her to go in where his treasure lay, and charged that she should haue her dwelling there, & appoynted what shoulde be geuen her from his table. 2 Iudith aunswered him, and sayde, As for the meate that thou hast commaunded to gene me, I may not eate of it as now, lest I displeake my God: but wyll eate of such as I haue brought with me.

3 Then sayde Holopherne vnto her, If these thynges that thou hast brought with thee fayle, what shall we do vnto thee? 4 And Iudith sayd, As thy soule lyueth my Lorde, thy handmayden shall not spende all this, tyll God hath brought to passe in my hande the thynges that I haue deuised. So his seruauntes brought her into the tent whereas he had appoynted. 5 And as she was goyng in, she desired that she myght haue leaue to go forth by nyght and before day to her prayer, and to make intercession vnto the Lorde. 6 Then cõmaunded Holopherne his chamberlayne that she shoulde go out and in at her pleasure, to pray vnto god those three dayes. 7 And so in the nyght season she went forth into the valley of Bethulia, and washed her selfe in the wel water. 8 And commyng vp, she besought the Lorde God of Israel that he woulde prosper her way for the deliuerance of his people. 9 And so she went in, and remayned cleane in her tent, tyll she toke her meate in the euenyng. 10 Vpon the fourth day it came to passe that Holopherne made a supper vnto his seruauntes, & sayde vnto Vagao his chamberlayne, Go thy way, and counsell this Hebruelle that she may be wyllyng to consent to kepe companie with me. 11 For it were a shame vnto all the Assyrians, that a woman shoulde so laugh a man to scorne, that she were come from him vnmedled withal. 12 Then went Vagao vnto Iudith, and sayde, Let not the good daughter be afrayde to come in to my lorde, that she may be honoured before him, that she may eate and drynke wine, and be merry with him. 13 Vnto whom Iudith aunswered, Who am I that I shoulde say my lorde nay? 14 Whatsoeuer is good good and best before his eyes, I shall do it: and looke what is his pleasure, that shall I thinke well done as long as I liue. 15 So she stoode vp, and decke her selfe with her apparell, and went in, & stoode before him. 16 And Holophernes heart was whole moued: for he brent in desire towarde her. 17 And Holophernes sayd vnto her, Drinke now, and sit downe and be mery, for thou hast founde fauour before me. 18 Then sayd Judith, Sir, I will drinke, for my minde is merier to day then euer it was in all my lyfe. 19 And she toke, and dyd eate, and dranke before hym the thinges that her mayden had prepared for her.

20 And Holophernes was mery with her, and dranke more wine then euer he dyd afore in his life.

The.xiii.Chapter.

7 Iudith prayeth for strength. 10 She smyteth of Holophernes head. 12 She returneth to Bethulia, and reioyceth her people.

NOwe when it was late in the night, his seruaunts made haste euery man to his lodging, and Bagao shut the chaumber doores, and went his way: 2 For they were all ouerladen with wine. 3 So was Judith alone in the chaumber. 4 As for Holophernes he lay vpon the bed (all drunken) and of very drunkennesse fell asleepe. 5 Then commaunded Judith her mayden to stande without before the doore, and to wayte.

6 And Judith stoode before the bed, making her prayer with teares, and moued her lippes secretly, 7 And sayde, Strengthen me O Lorde God of Israel, and haue respect vnto the workes of myne hands in this houre, that thou mayest set vp thy citie of Hierusalem lyke as thou hast promised: and graunt that I may performe the thing, which in hope that it may be done by thee, I haue deuised.

8 And when she had spoken this, she went to the piller that was at Holophernes beddes head, and loosed his swoorde that hanged vpon it, and drew it out: 9 And when she had taken it out of the scabberd, she tooke holde of the heerie lockes of his head, and sayde, Strengthen me O Lorde God in this houre. 10 And with that she gaue him two strokes vpon the necke, and smote of his head: then toke she the canapie away from the pillers, and roulled the dead body aside.

11 Immediatly she gate her foorth, and deliuered the head of Holophernes vnto her mayden, and bad her put it in her waller. 12 And so these two went foorth together after their custome, as though they would pray: and so passed by the hoast, and came about through the valley vnto the port of the citie. 13 And Judith cryed a farre of vnto the watchmen vpon the walles, Open the gates (sayde she) for God is with vs whiche hath shewed his power in Israel.

14 And when they hearde her voyce, they called the elders of the citie (together.) 15 And they came all to meete her, litle and great, young and olde: for they thought not that she shoulde haue come so soone. 16 So they lighted candels, and gathered about her euery one: but she went vp into an high place, and caused silence to be proclaymed. 17 And when euery man nowe helde his peace, Judith sayde, O prayse the Lorde our God, for he hath not despised nor forsaken them that put their trust in him: 18 And in me his handmayden he hath performed his mercy, whiche he promised vnto the house of Israel: yea, in my hande this same night hath he slaine the enemie of his people. 19 And with that she toke foorth the head of Holophernes out of the wallet, and shewed it them, saying, Beholde the head of Holophernes the captayne of the army of the Assyrians, & this is his canapie wherein he lay in his drunkennesse, where the Lord our God hath slayne him by the hand of a woman. 20 But as the Lorde liueth, his angell hath kept me goyng thyther, remayning there, and comming hyther againe from thence: and the Lord hath not suffred me his handmayden to be defiled, but without any defiling of sinne hath he brought me agayne vnto you, and that with great victorie, so that I am escaped, and ye deliuered. 21 O geue thankes vnto him euery one, for he is gratious, and his mercy endureth for euer. 22 So they praysed the Lord altogether (and gaue thankes vnto him) and to her they sayde, The Lord hath blessed thee in his power, for through thee he hath brought our enemies to naught. 23 And Ozias the chiefe ruler of the people of Israel sayd vnto her, O daughter blessed art thou of the Lord the high God, aboue all women vpon earth. 24 Blessed be the Lord the maker of heauen and earth, whiche hath guyded thee aright to wounde & to smyte of the head of the captaine of our enemies. 25 For this day he hath made thy name so honourable, that thy prayse shal neuer come out of the mouth of men whiche shall alway remember the power of the lord, seyng thou hast not spared thine owne selfe (but put thee in iopardie) confidering the anguishe and trouble of thy people: and so hast helped their fall before God our Lord. 26 And al the people said, Amen, Amen. 27 Achior also was called, and he came: then sayde Judith vnto hym, The God of Israel, vnto whom thou gauest witnesse that he would be auenged of his enemies, euen he hath this night throwe my hande smitten of the head of all the vnfaythful. 28 And that thou mayest see that it so is, beholde this is the head of Holopherues, whiche in his presumptuous pryde despised the God of Israel, and threatned thee with destruction, saying, When the people of Israel is taken, I shall cause thee also to be sticke with the swoorde. 29 When Achior saw Holopherues head, he fell downe vpon his face to the grounde for very anguishe and feare, so that he sowned withall. 30 But after that he was come agayne to hym selfe, he fell downe before her, and praised her, saying, 31 Blessed art thou of thy God in al the tabernacles of Jacob: for all the people that heare of thy name, shal prayse the God of Israel because of thee.

IUdith sayd vnto al the people, Brethren heare me, Sticke vp this head vpon our walles: 2 And when the sunne ariseth, take euery man his weapon, and fall out violently: not as though ye woulde go beside them, but to run vpon them with violence. 3 When the spyes see this, they shall of necessitie be compelled to flee backwarde, and to rayse vp their captayne to the battayle. 4 So when their captaynes come into Holopherues pauilion, and find the dead body wrapped in the blood, fearefulnesse shall fall vpon them: 5 And when ye perceiue that they flee, folow them without all care, for God shall * deliuer them vnto you to be destroyed.

6 Then Achior seeing the power of God whiche he had shewed vnto the people of Israel, fell of from his heathenishe beliefe, and put his trust in God, and let him selfe be circumcised, and so was he numbred among the people of Israel, he and all his posteritie vnto this day. 7 Howe soone as it was day, they sticke vp Holopherues head vpon the walles, and euery man take his weapon, and so they went out with an horrible crye.

8 When the spyes sawe that, they ran vnto Holopherues tent. 9 And they that were within the tent, came before his chaumber and made a great rushing that Holopherues might awake, not by stirring hym vp, but by their noyse. 10 For there durst not one of the Assyrians knoche, go in, or open. 11 But when the captaynes and princes and all the cheefe in the kyng of the Assyrians hoast came together, they sayde vnto the chaumberlaynes: 12 Go your way in, and wake him vp: for the myce are creept out of their holes, and dare prouoke vs vnto battayle. 13 Then went Vagao into his chaumber, stoode before the * bed, and clapped with his handes: for he thought he had ben sleeping with Judith. 14 But when he hearkened perfectly with his eares, and coulde perceaue no stirring, he went nyer to the * bed, and lyft it vp, and when he sawe the dead body of Holopherues lying there without a head welcred in his blood vpon the earth, he cryed with a loude voyce, and with weeping rent his clothes.

15 And went into Judiths tent, and founde her not. 16 And so he lept out vnto the people, and sayde, One woman of the Jewes hath brought all Nabuchodonosors people to shame: for lo, Holopherues lieth vpon the grounde, and hath no head.

17 When the cheefe of the Assyrians hoast heard that, they rent their clothes, and there fell an intollerable feare and trembling vpon them: so that their mindes were sore afraide.

18 And there was an exceeding great crye in * the whole hoast.

* Or, the Lorde shall breake the vnder your sense.

NOwe when all the hoast heard that Holophernes was beheaded, their minde and counsell fel from them: and beyng amased with feare only and trembling, they sained them selues by fleeyng away. 2 One spake not to another, but hanged downe their heades, left all behinde them, and made haste to escape from the Hebrues: for they hearde that they were hasting to come after with their weapons, and so they fled by the wayes of the feeldes, and thyough all the foote pathes of the "dales.

3 And when the chyldren of Israel sawe that they fled, they folowed vpon them: & went downe with trumpetes blowing, and making a great crye after them. 4 As for the Assyrians they had no order, and kept not them selues together, but fled their way: neuertheleese the chyldren of Israel fell vpon them with one company and order, and discomfited as many as they might get. 5 And Ozias sent messengers vnto all the cities and countreys of Israel. 6 So all the region and euery citie sent out their best men after them in harneese, and smote them with the swoorde, tyll they came to the vttermost part of their borders. 7 And the other that were in Bethulia, came into the tents of the Assyrians, and toke al that they which were fled had left behinde them, and so they found great good. 8 And they that came agayne to Bethulia from the battayle, toke with them such thinges as had ben theirs: there was no number of the cattayle and of all costly iewels, so that from the lowest vnto the hyest they were all made riche of the spoyles of them. 9 And Joachim the hye priest came from Hierusalem to Bethulia with all the elders, that they might see Judith.

10 Nowe when she came out vnto them, they began al to praise her with one voyce, saying. Thou worship of the citie of Hierusalem, thou ioy of Israel, thou honour of our people.

11 Because thou hast done manly, and thy heart is comforted, and for that thou hast loued cleanlineese and chastitie, & hast knowen no man but thyne owne husbande: therefore hath the hande of the Lorde comforted thee, & blessed shalt thou be for euer. 12 And all the people said, So be it, So be it.

13 In thirtie dayes coulde the people of Israel scarse gather vp the spoyles of the Assyrians. 14 But all that belonged vnto Holophernes, and had ben his specially (whether it were of golde, of siluer, precious stone, clothing, and all ornamentes) they gaue it vnto Judith, and it was deliuered vnto her of the people. 15 And all the people reioyced, both women, maydens, and young people, with pipes, and harpes.

The. xvi. Chapter.

1 Judith prayseth God with a song. 25 She offereth to the Lord Holophernes stuffe. 26 Her continencie, lyfe, and death. 29 Al Israel lamenteth her.

THen sang Judith this song vnto the Lorde, saying. 2 Begin vnto the Lorde vpon the tabrettes, sing vnto the Lorde vpon the cymbales, O sing vnto hym a newe song of thankes geuing, be ioyfull and call vpon his name. 3 It is the Lorde that destroyeth warres, euen the Lord is his name. 4 Whiche hath pitched his tentes in the middest of his people, that he might deliuer vs from the hand of al our enemies. 5 Assur came out of the mountaines of the north in the multitude of his strength: his people stopped the water brookes, and their horses couered the valleys. 6 He purposed to haue brent vp my "land, and to slay my young men with the swoorde. 7 He woulde haue caryed away my chyldren and birgins into captiuitie, but the almightie Lord hindred him, and deliuered hym into the handes of a woman, whiche brought hym to confusion. 8 For their mightie was not destroyed of the young men, it was not the sonnes of Titan that slue hym, neither haue the great giaunces set them selues against him: but Judith the daughter of Merari with her fayre beautie hath discomfited hym, (and brought him to naught.) 9 For she layde away her widowes garment, and put on the apparell of gladneese to the retoycing of the chyldren of Israel. 10 She annoynted her face with oyntment, and bounde vp her heere in a coyffe, and toke a newe "stole to beguyle him. 11 Her slippers rauished his eyes, her beautie captiuated his minde, with the swoorde smote she of his necke. 12 The Persians were astonied at her stedfastnes, & the Medes at her boldnesse. 14 Then howled the armies of the Assyrians, when my simples appeared dyre of thirst.

14 The sonnes of the daughters haue

pearsed them through, and slaine them as fugitiue chyldren: they perished in the battayle, * for the very feare of the Lorde my God. 15 Let vs sing a song of thankesgeuing vnto the Lorde, a newe song of prayse wyll we sing vnto our God. 16 Lord, Lord thou art a great God, mightie in power, whom no man may ouercome.

17 All thy creatures must serue thee: for thou spakest but the worde, and they were made, thou sentest thy spirite, and they were created, and no man can withstande thy voyce.

18 The mountaynes shall moue from the foundations with the waters, the stonie rockes shall melt before thee like waxe. 19 But they that feare thee, shalbe great with thee in all thinges. 20 Wo vnto the people that ryse vp against my generation: for the almightie Lorde wyll auenge hym selfe of them, and in the day of iudgement wyll he visite them.

21 For he shall geue fire and wormes in their flesshe, that they may burne and feele it for euermore. 22 After this it happened, that after the victorie all the people came to Hierusalem to geue prayse and thankes vnto the Lorde: and when they were purified, they offred al their whole burnt sacrifices and their vowes, and their promised offeringes. 23 And Iudith offered all Holophernes weapons (and all the iewels) that the people had geuen her, and the canapie that she tooke from his bed, and hanged them vp * vnto the Lorde. 24 The people were ioyfull as the vse is: and this ioy with Iudith, by reason of the victorie, endured three monethes.

25 So after these dayes euery man went home agayne, and Iudith was in great reputation at Bethulia, and right honourably taken in al the land of Israel. 26 Vnto her vertue also was chastitie ioyned, so that after her husbande Manasses dyed, she neuer knewe man all the dayes of her lyfe.

27 Vpon the hye solempne dayes she went out with great worship.

28 She dwelt in her husbands house an hundred and fiue yeres, and left her handmayden Abra free, 29 And died, and was buryed beside her husbande in Bethulia: and all the people mourned for her seuen dayes. 30 So long as she lined there was none that troubled Israel, and many yeres also after her death. 31 The day where in this victorie was gotten, was solemply holden, and reckened of the Iewes in the number of the holy dayes, and it is yet greatly holden of the Iewes euer since, vnto this day.

The dreame of Mardocheus.

MArdocheus the son of Jair, the sonne of Semei, the sonne of Cis of the tribe of Beniamin,

2 A Iew, which had his dwelling in the citie of Susis, a man of great reputation, & excellent among all them that were in the kynges courte. 3 Neuertheles he was one of the prisoners whom Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon had caryed away from Hierusalem vnto Babylon with Iechonias the king of Iuda. 4 In the seconde yere of the raigne of great Artaxerxes, in the first day of the moneth Nisan, had this Mardocheus such a dreame.

5 He thought he heard a great tempest, horrible thunderclappes, earthquakes, and great vproze in the land,

6 And that he sawe two great dragons redie to fight one against another. 7 Their crye was great: at the which roaring and crye, al the heathen were vp to fight against the righteous people. 8 And the same day was full of darkenesse and derke vncleare, full of trouble and anguishe, yea a great fearefulnesse was there in the lande. 9 The righteous were amased, for they feared the plagues plague and euil that was deuised ouer them, and were at a poynt with them selues to dye: So they cryed vnto God. 10 And whyle they were crying, the litle well grewe into a great riuer, and into many waters. 11 And with that it was day, and the sunne rose vp agayne: and the lowly were exalted, and deuoured the glorious and pronde. 12 Nowe when Mardocheus had seene this dreame, he awoke, & mused stedfastly in his heart what God would do: and so he desired to knowe all the matter, and his minde was therupon vntyll night.

The. xii. Chapter.

Mardocheus vttereth the treason deuised against the kyng, and is therefore rewarded of him.

¶ AT the same tyme dwelt Mardocheus with Bagatha and Thara in the kynges court, the kynges chaumberlaynes and porters of the palace. 2 But when he heard their deuice, and had diligently considered their imaginations, he perceaued that they went about to lay their (cruell) handes vpon the kyng Artaxerres, and so he certified the kyng thereof.

3 Then caused the kyng to examine the two "gelded with tormentes: and when they had graunted it, they were put to death. 4 This the kyng caused to be put in the chronicles for an euerlasting remembraunce, and Mardocheus wrote vp the same matter. 5 So the kyng commaunded that Mardocheus should remayne in the court, and for this faythfulnesse of his he gaue hym a rewarde. 6 But Aman the sonne of Amadathu the Agagite, which was holden in great honour and reputation in the kynges court, vndertoke to hurt Mardocheus and his people, because of the two chaumberlaynes that were put to death.

The. xiii. Chapter.

1 The copie of the letters of Artaxerxes against the Iewes. 9 The prayer of Mardocheus.

¶ THe great kyng Artaxerres, which raigneth from India vnto Ethiopia ouer an hundred and twentie and seuen landes, sendeth his frendly saluation vnto all the princes and deputies of the countrey, whiche be subiect vnto his dominion. 2 When I was made lorde ouer many people, and had subdued the whole earth vnto my dominion, my mind was not with crueltie and wrong to exalt my selfe by the reason of my power: but purposed with equitie alway and gentlenesse to gouerne those that be vnder my iurisdiction, and wholly to set them in a peaceable lyfe, and thereby to bryng my kyngdome vnto tranquilitie, that men might safely go thorow out euery syde, & to renue peace agayne, whiche all men desire. 3 Now when I asked my counsellours howe these thinges myght be brought to a good ende (there was one by vs excellent in wysdome, whose good will, trueth, and faythfulnesse hath oft ben shewed and proued (which was also the principall and next vnto the kyng) Aman by name, 4 Whiche certified vs, howe that in all landes there was scattered abrode a rebellious folke, that made statutes and lawes against all other people, and haue alway despised the proclaymed commaundementes of kynges, and howe that for this cause it were not to be suffred that such rule should continue by vs and not to be put downe. 5 Seeing nowe we perceaue the same, that this people alone are contrary vnto euery man, vsing straunge and other maner of lawes, and withstande our statutes and doynges, and go about to stablish shewde matters, that our kyngdome shoulde neuer come to good estate (and stedfastnesse:) 6 Therfore haue we commaunded that all they that are appointed in writing and shewed vnto you by Aman, whiche is ordayned and set ouer all our landes, and the most principal next vnto the king, and in maner as a father: shall with their wiues and chyldren be destroyed and rooted out with the sworde of their enemies and aduersaries, and that there shalbe no mercy shewed, and no man spared: and this shalbe done the fourteenth day of the moneth called Adar of this yere. 7 That they which of olde and now also haue euer ben rebellious, may in one day with violence be thrust downe into the hell, to the intent that after this maner our empire may haue peace and tranquilitie. 8 But Mardocheus thought vpon all the workes and noble actes of the Lord, and made his prayer vnto hym, 9 Saying, O Lorde, Lorde, thou valiaunt and almightie king, for all thinges are in thy power: and if thou wylt helpe and deliuer

liuer Israel, there is no man that can withstande nor let thee. 10 For thou hast made heauen and earth, and what wonderous thing soeuer is vnder the heauen. 11 Thou art Lorde of all thinges, and there is no man that can resist thy maiestie O Lorde. 12 Thou knowest al thinges, thou wotest Lord that it was neither of malice nor presumption, nor for any desire of glory, that I would not bow downe my self, nor worship yonder proude presumptious Aman: (13 For I would haue ben content, and that with good will, if it might haue done Israel any good, to haue kyst euen his foote-steppes.) 14 But that I dyd it because I woulde not set the honour of a man in the steede of the glory of God, and because I woulde worship none but only thee my Lorde: and this haue I done in no pryde nor presumption. 15 And therfore O Lord, thou God and kyng, haue mercy vpon thy people, for they imagine howe they may kyng vs to naught, yea their minde and desire is to destroy and to ouerthowe thy people that hath euer ben thyne inheritaunce of olde. 16 O despise not thy portion whiche thou hast deliuered & brought out of Egypt for thyne owne selfe.

17 Heare my prayer, and be mercyfull vnto thy people whom thou hast chosen for an heritage vnto thy selfe: turne our complaynt and sorowe into ioy, that we may liue O Lorde and prayse thy name: O Lorde suffer not the mouthes of them that prayse thee, to be destroyed. 18 All the people of Israel in like maner cryed as earnestly as they coulde vnto the Lorde, for their death and destruction stoode before their eyes.

The.xiiii. Chapter.

The prayer of Esther for the deliuerance of her and her people.

a * Or, peril.

QVeene Esther also beyng in the * bataple of death, resorted vnto the Lorde, 2 Layde away her glorious apparell, and put on the garmentes that serued for syghing and mourning: In the steede of precious oyntment, she scattered ashes and doung vpon her head: and as for her body, she humbled it with fasting, and brought it very lowe: All the places where she was wont to haue ioy afore, those filled she with her owne heere that she pluckt of. 3 She prayed also vnto the Lord God of Israel with these wordes, O my Lorde, thou only art our kyng, helpe me desolate woman, whiche haue no helper but thee. 4 For my miserie and destruction is harde at my handc.

5 Eo my youth vp I haue heard out of the kinred of my father, that thou tokest Israel from among all people, and so haue our fathers of their forefaders, that they shoulde be thy perpetuall inheritaunce, and looke what thou dydst promise them, thou hast made it good vnto them. 6 Nowe Lord we haue sinned before thee, therfore hast thou geuen vs into the handes of our enemies, 7 Because we worshipped their gods: Lorde thou art righteous. 8 Neuertheless it satisfieth them not that we are in bitter and heauie captiuitie and oppressed among them, but they haue layde their handes vpon the hands of their gods. 9 So that they begin to take away the thing that thou with thy mouth hast ordayned and appointed, to destroy thyne inheritaunce, to shut and to stop the mouthes of them that prayse thee, to quench the glory and worship of thy house and thine aulter: 10 And to open the mouthes of the heathen, that they may prayse the power and vertue of the gods, and to magnifie the fleshly kyng for euer.

11 O Lorde geue not thy scepter vnto them that be nothing, lest they laugh vs to scorne in our miserie and fall: but turne their deuice vpon them selues, and punishe hym that hath begun the same ouer vs, and set hym to an example. 12 Thinke vpon vs O Lorde, and shewe thy selfe vnto vs in the tyme of our distresse and of our trouble: strengthe me O thou kyng of Gods, thou Lorde of all power:

13 Geue me an eloquent & pleasaunt speach in my mouth before the Lion: turne his heart into the hate of our enemies, to destroy hym, and all such as consent vnto hym. 14 But deliuer vs with thy hande, and helpe me thy handmayde, which haue no defence nor helper but only thee Lorde.

15 Thou knowest all thinges, thou wotest that I loue not the glory and worship of the vnrighteous, and that I hate and abhorre the bed of the vncircumcised, and of all heathen.

16 Thou knowest my necessitie, that I hate the token of my preeminence and worship, whiche I beare vpon my head head what tyme as I muste shewe my selfe and be seene, and that I abhorre it as an vncleane cloth, and that I weare it not when I am quiet and alone by my selfe: 17 Thou knowest also that I thy handmayden haue not eaten at Amans table, and that I haue had no pleasure nor delight in the kinges feast, that I haue not dronke the wine of the drinke offeringes.

18 And that I thy handmayden haue no ioy since the day that I was brought hyther vnto this day, but onlye in thee O Lorde, O thou God of Abraham. 19 O thou mightie God aboue all, heare the voyce of them that haue no other hope, and deliuer vs out of the hand of the wicked, and deliuer me out of my feare.

The.xv. Chapter.

1 Mardocheus moueth Esther to go in vnto the king, and make intercession for her people. 9 And she perfourmed his requeste.

MArdocheus also bade Esther go in vnto the kyng, and pray for her people, and for her countrey.

2 Remember (saith he) the dayes of thy lowe estate, howe thou wast nourished vnder my hande: for Aman whiche is next vnto the kyng, hath geuen sentence of death against vs:

3 Call thou therfore vpon the Lord, and speake for vs vnto the kyng, and deliuer vs from death. 4 And vpon the thirde day it happened that Esther layde away the mourning garmentes, and put on her glorious apparell.

5 And decked her selfe goodly (after that she had called vpon God, whiche is the beholder and sauiour of all things) (and) toke two maydens with her: 6 Vpon the one she leaned her selfe, as one that was tender: 7 The other folowed her, and bare the trayne of her vesture. 8 The shine of her beautie made her face rose coloured, the similitude of her face was chearefull and amiable: but her heart was sorowfull for great feare. 9 She went in thorowe all the doores, and stoode before the king: the kyng sate vpon the trone of his kyngdome, and was clothed in his goodly aray, all shining with golde, and set with precious stones, and he was very terrible.

10 He lyft vp his face that shone in the clearnesse, and looked grimly vpon her: then fell the Quene downe, was pale and fayne, leaned her selfe vpon the head of the mayde that went with her. 11 Neuertheles God turned the kynges minde that he was gentle, that he leaped out of his seate for feare, and gate her in his armes, and helde her vp till she came to her selfe againe, he gaue her louing words also, and sayd vnto her, 12 Esther, what is the matter? I am thy brother, be of good cheare: 13 Thou shalt not dye, for our commaundement toucheth the commons, and not thee: Come nye. 14 And with that he held vp his golden rodde, and layde it vpon her necke, 15 And imbraced her frendly, and sayde, Talke with me.

16 Then sayde she, I sawe thee (O Lorde) as an angell of God, and my heart was troubled for feare of thy maiestie and clearnesse. 17 For excellent and wonderfull art thou O Lorde, and thy face is full of amitie. Gene.33.d.

18 But as she was thus speaking vnto hym, she fell downe agayne for fayntnesse: 19 For the whiche cause the kyng was afraide, and all his seruauntes comforted her.

The.xvi. Chapter.

The copie of the letters of Artaxerxes, whereby he reuoketh those whiche he first sent foorth.

THe great kyng Artaxerxes, which raigneth from India vnto Ethiopia ouer an hundreth and twentie and seuen landes, sendeth vnto the princes & rulers of the same landes, such as loue hym, his frendly salutation. 2 There be many that for the sundry frendshippes and benefites whiche are diuerslye done vnto them for their worship, be euer the more proude and hye minded: 3 And vndertake not onlye to hurt our subiectes (for plenteous benefites may they not suffer, and begin to imagine somethyng against those that do them good, 4 And take not only all vnthankfulnesse away from men) but in pryde and presumption, as they that be vnmyndfull and vnthankfull for the good deedes, they go about to escape the iudgement of God that seeth all thinges, whiche iudgement hateth and punisheth all wickednesse.

5 It happeneth oft also, that they whiche be set in office by the higher power, and vnto whom the businesse and causes of the subiectes are committed to be handled, ware pronde, and defile them selues with 25 shedding of innocent blood, whiche bringeth them to intollerable hurt.

6 Which also with false and deceiptfull wordes and with lying tales, de-ceaue and betray the innocent goodnesse of princes. 7 Nowe is it profitable and good that we take heede, make searche thereafter, and consider not onlye what hath happened vnto vs of olde, but the shamefull, vnho-nest, and noysome thinges that the deputies haue nowe taken in hand before our eyes. 8 And thereby to beware in tyme to come, that we make the kingdome quiet and peaceable for all men, and that we might sometime drawe it to a chaunge. 9 And as for the thing that nowe is present before our eyes, to withstande it, and to put it downe after the most frendly maner. 10 What tyme nowe as Aman the sonne of Amadathu the Macedonian, a straunger verily of the Persians blood, and farre from our goodnesse, was come in among vs as an alisaunt, 11 And had obtayned the frendship that we beare towarde all people, so that he was called our father, and had in hye honour of euery man, as the next and principall vnto the kyng: 12 He could not forbeare hym selfe from his pryde, hath vnder-taken not only to rob vs of the kyng-C dome, but of our lyfe: 13 With ma-nyfolde deceipt also hath he desired to destroy Mardocheus our helper and preseruer, whiche hath done vs good in all thinges, and innocent Esther the lyke partaker of our kyngdome, with all her people. 14 For his minde was (when he had taken them out of the way, and robbed vs of them) by this meanes to translate the kingdome of the Persians vnto them of Macedonia. 15 But we finde that the Jewes (whiche were accused of the wicked that they might be destroyed) are no cuyll doers, but vse reasonable and right lawes: 16 And that they be the chyldren of the most high liuing God, by whom the kyngdome of vs and of our progenitours hath ben well ordered hytherto.
17 Wherefore as for the letters and commaundementes that were put forth by Aman the sonne of Amada-thu, ye shall do well if ye holde them of none effect. 18 For he that set them vp and inuented them, hangeth at Susis before the port, with all his D kinred: and God whiche hath all thinges in his power, hath reward-ded him after his desecuing. 19 And vpon this ye shall publishe and set vp the copie of this letter in all places, that the Jewes may freely and without hinderaunce holde them selues after their owne statutes: 20 And that they may be helped, and that vp-on the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth Adar, they may be auenged of them whiche in the tyme of their an-guishe and trouble wouldе haue oppressed them. 21 For the God that gouerneth all thinges, hath turned to ioy the day wherein the chosen people shoulde haue perished. 22 Moreo-uer, among the hye solempne dayes that ye haue, ye shall holde this day also with all gladnesse: 23 That nowe and in tyme to come this day may be a remembraunce of good for all such as loue the prosperitie of the Persians: but a remembraunce of destruction to those that be seditious vnto vs. 24 All cities and landes that do not this, shall horribly perishe, and be destroyed with the swoord and fire, and shall not only be no more inhabited of men, but be abhorred also of the wylde beastes and foules.

¶ The ende of the rest of the booke of Esther.

¶ The wysdome of Solomon.

¶ The first Chapter.

1 Howe we ought to enquire and searche after God. 2 Who they are that fynde hym.

Loue ryghteousnesse ye that be iudges of the earth: consider deepely of the Lord in goodnesse, and seeke him in singlenes of heart: 2 For he wyll be found of them that tempt him not, and appeareth vnto suche as put no distrust in hym. 3 For wycked thoughtes separate from God, and (his) power when it is * tryed reproueth the vnwyse.

4 For why? wisdome shall not enter into a wycked soule, nor dwell in the body that is subiect vnto sinne.

5 For the holy spirite of discipline fleeth from deceipt, and withdraweth hym selfe from thoughtes that are without vnderstandyng, and is declared when wyckednesse commeth.

6 For the spirite of wysdome is louyng, and wyll not absolue hym that blasphemeth with his lippes, for God is witnesse of his raynes, and a true beholder of his heart, & an hearer of his tongue. 7 For the spirite of the Lorde filleth the rounde compasse of the worlde, and the same that vpholdeth all thynges hath knowledge also of the voyce. 8 Therfore he that speaketh vnryghteous thinges can not be hid, neither shall the iudgement of reproofe let him escape. 9 And why? inquisition shalbe made for the thoughtes of the vngodly, and the sounde of his wordes shall come vnto God, so that his wickednesse shalbe punished.

10 For the eare of gelouse heareth all thinges, and the noyse of the grudginges shall not be hid. 11 Therfore beware of murmuryng whiche is nothing worth, and refraine your tongue from sclaunder: for there is no worde so secrete that it shall go for naught, and the mouth that speaketh lyes slayeth the soule. 12 O seeke not your owne death in the errour of your life, destroy not your selues thyough the workes of your owne handes:

13 For God hath not made death, neither hath he pleasure in the destruction of the lyuing: 14 For he created all thynges that they might haue their beyng, and the * generations of the worlde were healthfull, and there is no poyson of destruction in them, nor the kingdome of hell vpon the earth.

* or, beginnings,

15 For ryghteousnesse is (euerlastyng and) immortall: but vnryghteousnesse bryngeth death. 16 Neuertheles, the vngodly call (a) it vnto them both with workes and wordes: and whyle they thynke to haue it theyr freende, they come to naught, and they haue made an agreement with it, for they are worthy to be of her part.

(a) to wit death.

The. ii. Chapter.

The imaginations and desires of the wycked, and theyr counsayle agaynst the faythfull.

FOr the vngodly say reasonyng with them selues but not a ryght, Our lyfe is short and tedious, and in the death of a man there is no remedie, neither is there any man knowen to haue returned from the graue.

2 For we are borne at all aduenture, and we shalbe hereafter as though we had neuer ben: for our breath is as a smoke in our nosethrilles, and wordes as a sparke raysed out of our heartes: 3 Which beyng extinquished, our body shalbe turned into ashes, and our spirite shal vanishe as the soft ayre. 4 Our lyfe shall passe away as the trace of a cloude, and come to naught as the mist that is driuen away with the beames of the sunne and put downe with the heate therof: our name also shalbe forgotten by litle and litle, & no man shall haue our workes in remembraunce. 5 For our tyme is a very shadowe that passeth away, and after out ende there is no returnyng: for it is fast sealed, so that no man commeth agayne. 6 Come on therefore, let vs entoy the pleasures that are present, & let vs chearefully vse the creatures lyke as in youth: 7 Let vs fyll our selues with good wine and oyntment, and let there no flowre of the tyme escape vs. 8 Let vs crowne our selues with rose buddes, afore they be withered: 9 (a) Let there be no fayre medowe but our lust go thyough it. Let euery one of vs be partakers of our voluptuousnes, let vs leaue some token of our pleasure in euery place: for that that is our portion, and this (only) our lot. 10 Let vs oppresse the poore ryghteous, let vs not spare the wyddowe nor olde man, let vs not regarde the heades that are gray for age.

11 Let the lawe of vnrighteousnesse be our strength: for the thyng that is feeble is nothing worth. 12 Therfore let vs defraude the ryghteous, and why? he is not for our profite, yea he is cleane contrary to our doynges, he checketh vs for offendyng agaynst the lawe, and sclaundereth the faultes of our maner of lyuyng. 13 He maketh his boast to haue the knowledge of God, yea he calleth hym selfe Gods sonne. 14 He is made vnto vs for reprofe of our thoughtes. 15 It greeueth vs also to looke vpon hym, for his lyfe is not lyke other mens, his wayes are of another fashion. 16 He counteth vs but " dayne persons, he withdrawerh hym selfe from our wayes as from filthines, he commendeth greatly the latter end of the iust, and maketh his boast that god is his father. 17 Let vs see then yf his wordes be true, let vs proue what shall happen in the ende of hym. 18 For yf the iust man be the sonne of God, he will receaue hym, and deliuer hym from the handes of his enemies.

19 Let vs examine him with despitefull rebuke and tormenting, that we may knowe his meekenes, and proue his patience. 20 Let vs condempne hym with the moste shamefull death: for as him selfe sayth, he shalbe rewarded (of god.) 21 Such thinges do they imagine, and go astray, for their owne wickednes hath blinded them.

22 As for the mysteries of God they vnderstande them not, they neither hope for the rewarde of righteousnes, nor regarde the worshyppe that holy soules shall haue. 23 For God created man to be vndestroyed, yea after the image of his owne lykenesse made he him. 24 Neuerthelesse through enuie of the deuill came death into the worlde, and they that helde of his side do finde it.

The. iii. Chapter.

1 The conseruation and assurannce of the ryghteous. 7 The rewarde of the faythful. 11 Who are miserable.

BVt the soules of the righteous are in the hande of God, and there shal no torment touche them. 2 In the sight of the vnwise they appeared to dye, and their ende is taken for miserie, 3 And their departyng from vs to be vtter destruction: but they are in rest. 4 For though they suffer paine before men, yet is their hope full of immortalitie. 5 They are punished but in fewe thynges, neuertheless in many things shall they be wel rewarded: for God proueth them, and findeth them meete for him selfe. 6 As gold in the furnace doth he trye them, and receaueth them as a burnt offeryng: and when the tyme commeth they shalbe loked vpon. 7 They shall shyne and runne through as the sparkles among the stubble. 8 They shall iudge the nations, and haue dominion ouer the people: and their lorde shall raigne for euer. 9 They that put their trust in him, shall vnderstand the truth, and suche as be faythfull, shall persener with hym in loue: for his saintes haue grace and mercie, and he hath care for his elected. 10 But the vngodly shalbe punished accordyng to their owne imaginations, for they haue despised the ryghteous, and forsaken the Lorde. 11 For who so disspiseth wisdome and " nurture, he is " vnhappy, and as for the hope of suche it is but paine, their labours vnfruitfull, and their workes vnprofitable.

12 Their wyues are vndiscrete, and their children most vngodly. 13 Their offspring (or progenie) is cursed: wherfore blessed is the barren that is vndefiled, which hath not knowen the sinful bed, she shall haue fruite in the visitation of soules: 14 And the gelded which with his handes hath wrought no vnrighteousnes, nor imagined wicked things agaynst God: for vnto him shalbe geuen the special gyft of faith, and the most acceptable portion in the temple of god. 15 For glorious is the fruite of the good labour, & the roote of wysdome shall neuer fade away.

16 As for the children of aduouterers they shall not come to a perfect ende, and the seede of an vnryghteous bed shalbe rooted out. 17 And though they lyue long, yet shall they be no thyng regarded, and their last age shalbe without honour. 18 If they dye quickly, they haue no hope, neither comfort in the day of inquirie.

19 For horrible is the ende of the vnryghteous generation.

" or, discipline.

The

The. iiii. Chapter.

1 Of vertue and the cõmoditie thereof. 10 The death of the righteous, and the condempnation of the vnfaythfull.

O Howe fayre is a chaste generation with vertue? the memoriall therof is immortall: for it is knowen with God and with men.

2 When it is present, men take example at it, and if it go away, yet they desire it: it is crowned, and euer triumpheth, when it hath wunne the reward of the vndefiled battayles.

3 But the multitude of the vngodly abounding in children, shall profite nothyng, nor geue deepe roote by the seed of aduulterie, nor lay any fast foundation. 4 For though they bud forth in the braunches for a tyme, yet shall they be shaken with the wynde, for they stande not fast, and through the vehemencie of the wynde they shalbe rooted out: 5 The vnperfect braunches shalbe broken, their fruite shalbe vnprofitable, and sowre to eate, yea meete for nothing. 6 And why? all the children that are borne of the wycked bed, must beare recorde of the wickednes against theyr fathers and mothers when they be asked: 7 But though the righteous be ouertaken with death, yet shall he be in rest.

8 For honorable age is not that whiche standeth in length of time, nor that that is measured by number of yeres: 9 But a mans wisdome is the graye heere, and an vndefiled life is the olde age. 10 He pleased god and was beloued of him, so that whereas he lined among sinners, he translated hym.

Gen. 5. c.

11 Yea speedily was he taken away, to the intent that wickednelle shoulde not alter his vnderstanding, and that deceipt shoulde not beguyle his soule.

12 For wyckednelle with bewitching doth darken the honest thynges: and the lightnelle of * voluptuous desyre * carneth alyde the synple mynde.

* or, chaungeth, or alte reth.

13 Though he was soone dead, yet fulfylled he muche tyme: 14 For his soule pleased God, therefore hasted he to take him away * from among the wicked. 15 This the people see, and vnderstand it not, they lay not by such thynges in theyr heartes, how that the louyng fauour and mercie (of God) is vpon his saintes, and that he hath respect vnto his chosen. 16 Thus the righteous that is dead, condempneth the vngodly which are liuing: and the youth that is soone brought to an end, the long lyfe of the vnryghteous.

* or, from out of the middest of wickednes.

17 For they see the ende of the wyse: but they vnderstande not what God hath deuised for him, and wherfore the Lorde hath taken hym away to be in safetie. 18 And why? they see hym and dispise him, therefore shall God also laugh them to scorne. 19 So that they them selues shall dye hereafter without honour, yea in shame among the dead for euermore: for without any voyce shall he burst those that be pufte vp, and shake them from the foundations, so that they shalbe layd as vtterly wasted: they shalbe in sorowe, and theyr memoriall perysshe. 20 So they shall come afrayde in remembraunce of theyr sinnes, and theyr owne iniquities before theis face shall conuince them.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

1 The constantnesse of the righteous before theyr persecutours. 14 The hope of the vnfaythfull is vayne. 15 The blessednes of the saintes and godly.

THen shall the ryghteous stande in great boldnesse before the face of such as haue dealt extremely with them, and taken away theyr labours. 2 When they see it, they shalbe vexed with horrible feare, and shall wonder at his health so farre beyond all that they loked for. 3 And chaungyng theyr opinion with gronyng for the redresse of mynde, they shall say, This is he whom we sometyme had in derision, and iested vpon. 4 We fooles thought his lyfe very madnes, and his ende to be without honour: 5 But lo howe he is counted among the children of God, and his portion is among the saintes. 6 Therefore haue we erred from the way of trueth, the lyght of ryghtewsnesse hath not shyned vnto vs, and the sunne of vnderstandyng rose not vp vpon vs.

7 We haue weeried our selues in the way of wyckednelle and destruction, yea we haue gone through tedious desartes: but as for the way of the Lorde we haue not knowen it.

8 What good hath pryde done vnto vs? or what profite hath the pompe of riches brought vs? 9 All those thynges are passed away lyke a shadowe, and as a poste that hasteth by: 10 As a shyp that passeth ouer the waues of the water, whiche when it is gone by

the trace thereof can not be founde, neither the path of it in the fluddes:
11 Or as a birde that fleeth through in the ayre, and no man can see any token where she is flowen, but only heareth the noyse of her wynges beating the light winde, parting the ayre through the vehemencie of her going, and fleeth on shaking her wynges, whereas afterwarde no token of her way can be founde: 12 Or lyke as when an arrowe is shot at a marke, it parteth the ayre whiche immediatly commeth together agayne, so that a man can not knowe where it went through: 13 Euen so we in lyke maner assoone as we were borne began immediatly to drawe to our ende, and haue shewed no token of vertue, but are consumed in our owne wickednes.
14 Such wordes they that haue sinned speake in the hell: 15 For the hope of the vngodly is lyke a " dyse thistle flowre that is blowen away with the wynde, lyke a thin " scumme that is scattered abroade with the storme, lyke as the smoke whiche is dispearsed here and there with the winde, and as the remembraunce of a straunger that taryeth but a day and then departeth. 16 But the righteous shall liue for euermore, their rewarde also is with the Lorde, and the care for them is with the hiest. 17 Therfore shal they receaue a glorious kingdome, and a beautifull crowne of the lordes hand: for with his right hande shal he couer them, and with his arme shal he defend them. 18 His iealousie also shall take on harnelle, and he shal arme the creature to be reuenged of his enemies. 19 He shall put on righteousnelle for a brestplate, and take vnfayned iudgement in steade of an helmet. 20 The inuincible shielde of equitie shall he take. 21 His fierce wrath shal he sharpen for a swoorde, and the whole compalle of the worlde shall fyght with hym agaynst the vnwise. 22 Then shal the thunder bolted go " right out of the lightninges, and come as out of the well bent bowe of the cloudes to the place appoynted.
23 And as from an angry caster of stones there shall fall thycke haples, and the water of the sea shalbe wroth agaynst them, and the fluddes shal run roughly together. 24 Yea a mighty wynde shall stande vp agaynst them, and a storme shal scatter them abrode: thus vnrighteous dealyng shall bryng all the lande to a wyldernelle, and wyckednelle shall ouerthrowe the royal " seates of the mighty.

The. vi. Chapter.

2 The callyng of kynges, princes, and iudges, which are also exhorted to searche wisdome.

WIsdome is better then strength: and a man of vnderstandyng is more worth then one strong.
2 Heare therefore (O ye kinges) and vnderstande, O learne ye that be iudges of the endes of the earth. 3 Geue eare ye that rule the multitudes, and glorie in the number of peoples:
4 For the power is geuen you of the Lorde, and the strength from the highest, which shall trye your workes, and searche out your imaginations:
5 Howe that ye beyng officers of his kingdome, haue not geuen true iudgement, haue not kept the lawe of righteousnes, nor walked after the wyl of God. 6 Horribly & that right soone shal he appeare vnto you: for an hard iudgement shall they haue that beare rule. 7 Mercie is graunted vnto the lowest: but they that be in auctho'itie shalbe sore punished. 8 For he which is Lorde ouer all shall " except no mans person, neither shall he stande in awe of any mans greatnelle: for he hath made the small and great, and careth for al a like. 9 But the mightie shal haue the sorer trial. 10 Vnto you therefore (O ye kynges) do I speake, that ye may learne wysdome, and not go amisse. 11 For they that kepe holinelle " holyly, shalbe iudged holy: & they that haue learned suche thynges, shal finde defence. 12 Wherfore " set your delyght vpon my wordes, and desire them, so shall ye " come by nurture. 13 Wysdome is a noble thing, and neuer faderh away: yea she is easyly seene of them that loue her, and founde of such as seeke her. 14 She preuenteth them that desire her, that she may shewe her selfe vnto them.
15 Who so awaketh vnto her betimes, shal haue no great trauaple: for he shall fynde her sitting redy at his doores. 16 To thynke therfore vpon her, is perfect vnderstandyng: and who so watcheth for her, shall quickly be dispatched of care. 17 For she goeth about seekyng suche as are meete for her, sheweth her selfe chearefully vnto them in " their goynges, and meeteth them with " all diligence.

mation is her beginning: to care for nurture is loue. 19 And loue is the kepyng of her lawes, and the kepyng of her lawes is the assurance of immortalitie: 20 And immortalitie maketh a man familier with God.

21 And so the desire of wisdome leadeth to the kyngdome (euerlastyng.)

22 If your delyght be then in royall seates and scepters (O ye kings of the people) set your * lust vpon wisdome, that ye may raigne for euermore.

23 O loue the light of wisdome al ye that be rulers of the people. 24 As for wysdome, what she is and how she came vp I wil tell you, and wyll not hyde the mysteries of (God) from you: but will seeke her out from the beginnyng of her natiuitie, and bryng the knowledge of her into light, and wyll not kepe backe the trueth. 25 Neither will I haue to do with consumyng enuie: for such a man shall not be partaker of wisdome. 26 But the multitude of the wise is the welfare of the worlde: and a wyse kyng, is the * vpholding of the people. 27 O receaue nurture then through my wordes, and it shall do you good.

The. vii. Chapter.

Wisdome ought to be preferred aboue all thynges.

A I My selfe also am a mortall man, lyke as all other, and am come of the earthy generation of hym that was first made, 2 And in my mothers wombe was fashioned to be flesshe in the tyme of ten monethes, beyng brought together in blood, through the seede of man, & the pleasure that came with sleepe. 3 And when I was borne I receaued lyke ayre as other men, and fell vpon the earth whiche is of lyke nature, crying and weping at the first as al other do.

4 I was wrapped in swadling clothes, and brought vp with cares.

5 For there is no kyng that hath had any other beginning of byrth: 6 All men then haue one entrauce vnto lyfe, and one goyng out in lyke maner.

B 7 Wherefore I desyred, and vnderstanding was geuen me: I called, and the spirite of wisdome came into me.

8 I set more by her then by kyngdomes and royall seates, and counted riches nothing in comparison of her.

9 As for precious stone I compared it not vnto her: for all golde is but a litle grauel vnto her, and siluer shalbe counted but clay before her sight.

10 I loued her aboue * welfare and beautie, and purposed to take her for my light: for her light can not be quenched. 11 All good thinges together came to me with her, & innumerable riches through her handes. 12 And I was glad in all thynges, because wysdome went before them: and I knewe not that she was the mother of them. 13 And I my selfe learned vnfaynedly, and make other men partakers of her without enuie, and hyde her riches from no man. 14 For she is an infinite treasure vnto men: whiche who so vse, become partakers of the loue (and frendship) of God, and are accepted vnto hym for the giftes of * wisdome. 15 God hath graunted me to speake what my mynde conceaueth, and to thinke as is meete for the thynges that are geuen me: for it is he that leadeth vnto wysdome, and teacheth to vse wysdome a ryght.

16 For in his hande are both we and our wordes, yea all our wisdome, and knowledge of (his) workes. 17 For he hath geuen me the true science of the things that are, so that I knowe how the worlde was made, and the powers of the elementes: 18 The beginning, endyng, and myddest of the times, howe the times alter, howe one goeth after another, and howe they are fulfilled, 19 The course of the yere, the ordinaunces of the starres, 20 The natures of lyuyng thynges, the furiousnesse of beastes, the power of the wyndes, the imaginations of men, the diuersities of young plantes, the vertues of rootes. 21 And al such things as are either secrete or manifest, them haue I learned. C 22 For wisdome whiche is the worker of all thynges hath taught me: for in her is the spirite of vnderstandyng, whiche is holy, one only, manifolde, subtile, * quicke, mouyng, cleare, vndefiled, playne, sweete, louyng the thing that is good, sharpe, which can not be letted, doyng good, 23 Kynde to man, stedfast, sure, free from care, hauyng all * vertues, * circumspect in all thynges, and passing through al vnderstanding cleane, and subtile spirites. 24 For wisdome is nimbler then all nimble thynges, she goeth through and attayneth to al thynges because of her cleannesse.

3 As for those olde inhabiters of thy holy lande, thou mightest not away with them: 4 For they committed abhominable workes(agaynst thee)as witchcraft, sorcerie, and wicked sacrifices: 5 They slue their owne children without mercie, they dyd eate vp the bowels of mens flesshe, and deuoured the blood in abhominable banckets, and had their mad fanaticall priestes: 6 And the fathers were the chiefe murderers of the soules destitute of helpe, (these doers) thou wouldest destroy by the handes of our fathers: 7 That the land which thou louest aboue al other, might be a meete dwellyng for the children of God.

9 Not that thou wast vnable to subdue the vngodly vnto the righteous in battaile, or with cruell beastes, or with one rough word to destroy them together: 10 But thy mynde was in punishing them by litle and litle, to geue them place for amendement, knowyng well that it was an vnrighteous nation, and wicked of nature, and that their thought might neuer be altered. 11 For it was a cursed seede from the beginning: yet hast thou not pardoned their sinnes wherin they offended, for that thou fearedst any man. 12 For who dare say(vnto thee)What hast thou done? or who wil stand agaynst thy iudgement? or who wyll blame thee for the nations that perish, whom thou hast made? or who wyll come before thy face to be reuenged for the vnrighteous men? 13 For there is none other God but thou, that carest for all thinges: that thou mayst declare howe that thy iudgement is not vnright. 14 There dare neither kyng nor tyraunt in thy sight require accomptes of them whom thou hast "destroyed. 15 Forsomuch then as thou art righteous thy selfe, thou ordrest all thinges righteously, thinking it vnseemely for thy power to condempne him that hath not deserued to be punished. 16 For thy power is the beginning of righteousnesse, and because thou art Lorde of al thinges, it maketh thee to be gracious vnto all. 17 For when men thinke thee not to be of a ful strength, thou declarest thy power, and reprouest the boldnesse of the wyse.

SWrely vayne are al men by nature, which were ignorannt of God, and couldē not out of the good thinges A that are seene, knowe him that of him selfe is (euerlasting,) neither toke so much regarde of the workes that are made, as thereby to knowe who was the craftes man of them: 2 But some toke the fyre, some the winde or swyft ayre, some the course of the starres, some the running water, (some toke sunne and moone) or the lightes of heauen, for gods that rule the worlde.

3 But though they had such pleasure in their beautie, that they thoughte them to haue ben gods, yet shoulde they haue knowen how much more " kynder he is that made them: for the " maker of beautie hath ordayned all these thinges. 4 Or yf they marueyled at the power and worke of them, they shoulde haue perceaued thereby, howe much he whiche made these thinges is mightier then they. 5 For by the greatnes of the beautie and of the creatures, the maker thereof compared with them, may plainely be " knowen. 6 Notwithstandyng they are the lesse to be blamed that seeke God, and would finde him, and yet peraduenture " misse: 7 For they being occupied in his workes, do seeke him diligently, and are perswaded by the sight, because the thinges are beautifull that are seene. 8 Howbeit, yet neither are they to be excused.

17 Then making prayer for his goodes, for his mariage, and for chyldren, he is not ashamed to speake to that whiche hath no soule. 18 For " health, he maketh his petition vnto him that is " sicke: for lyfe, he humblie prayeth vnto him that is dead: he " calleth vpon him for helpe, that hath no experience at all: and to send him a good iourney, he prayeth him that may not go. 19 And for gayne, for worke, and for successe of his affayres, he asketh power of him which is without all maner of power.

The .xv. Chapter.

The voyce of the faythfull prayſing the mercie of God, by whoſe grace they ſerue not idols.

BVt thou O our God art gratious, true, and long ſuffering, and in mercie ordreſt thou all thinges.
2 Though we ſinne, yet are we thyne, for we know thy ſtrength: but we will not ſinne, becauſe we knowe we are counted thyne. 3 For to knowe thee, is perfect righteouſneſſe: yea to know thy power, is the roote of immortalitie. 4 As " for the thing that men haue founde out through their euyll ſcience it hath not deceaued vs, nor the paynters vnprofitable labour(to wit)an image " ſpotted with diuers colours, 5 Whoſe ſight entiſeth the ignorant to luſt after it, and he deſireth the " picture of a dead image that hath no breath. 6 Both they that make them, they that deſire them, and they that worſhip them, loue euils, and are worthie to haue ſuche thinges to truſt vppon. 7 For the potter tempereth ſoft earth, laboureth it, and geueth it the faſhion of whatſoeuer veſſel ſerueth for our vſe: and of the ſelfe ſame clay he maketh both the veſſels that ſerue for cleane vſes, and alſo ſuch as ſerue to the contrary: whereunto euery veſſell ſerueth, the potter him ſelfe being the iudge. 8 So by his wicked labour he maketh a vayne God of the ſame clay, this doth euen he whiche a litle before was made of earth him ſelfe, and within a litle whyle after returneth to the ſame out of which he was taken, when the lone of his lyfe ſhall be demaunded from him agayne.
9 Notwithſtandyng he careth not the more for this that he muſt labour, nor that his lyfe is ſhort: but ſtriueth to excell goldſmithes & ſiluerſmithes, and endeuoureth to do lyke the copper ſmithes, and taketh it for an honour to make " deceauable thinges.
10 His heart is but aſhes, his hope is more vayne then earth, and his life of " leſſe honour then clay. 11 For ſomuch as he knoweth not his owne maker that gaue him his ſoule of power to worke, and breathed in him the breath of life. 12 But they counted our lyfe but a paſtime, and (our) converſation to be but a market for gayne, and that men ſhould euery way be getting, yea though it were by euill meanes. 13 Knowe he that of earth maketh fraile veſſels and images, knoweth him ſelfe to offende aboue all other. 14 All the enemies of thy people that holde them in ſubiection, are moſt vnwyſe, and are more miſerable then very " fooles. 15 For they iudge all the idols of the heathen to be gods, whiche neither haue eyeſight to ſee, nor noſes " to ſmell, nor eares to heare, nor fingers or handes to grope, and as for their feete they are(to)ſlowe to go. 16 For man made them, and he that borowed his owne ſpirite faſhioned them: but no man can make a god lyke vnto him ſelfe. 17 For ſeeyng he is but mortall, it is but mortall that he maketh with vnrighteous handes: he him ſelfe is better then they whom he worſhippeth, for he lyued as they dyd neuer. 18 Yea they worſhipped (ſuch) beaſtes alſo as are " moſt hatefull: for yf they were compared, for " madneſſe they are worſe then others.

The .xvii. Chapter.

The iudgementes of God agaynst the wicked.

FOr great are thy iudgementes (O Lorde) and can not be expressed: A therefore men do erre that wyl not Rom.xi.c. be reformed (by thy wysdome.)

2 For when the vnrighteous thought Exod.x.c. to haue thy holy people in subiection, they were bounde with the bandes of darknesse and long nyght, shut vp vnder roofes, and lay there to escape the eternall prouidence. 3 And whyle they thought to be hyd in the darknesse of their sinnes, they were scattered abrode in the very middest of the darke couering of forgetfulnesse, put to horrible feare, and " wonderously * Or, astonied with sightes of straunge apparitions. vexed. 4 For the corner where they lay hyd, myght not kepe them from feare, because the soundes came round about them and vexed them, yea many terrible and " straunge visions appeared vnto them. 5 No power of the " Or, phantasies with woful countenances. fyre might geue them lyght, neither myght the cleare flames of the starres lighten the horrible nyght:

6 But there appeared vnto them a sodayne fyre only, very dreadfull: at the which syght wherein they sawe nothing throughly, they were so afraide, that they thought the thing which they sawe to be " the more fearefull. 7 As for the illusions of the magical art they came to naught, and it was a most shamefull reprochе of the pride that they had of their owne wysdome. 8 For they that promised to dryue away the feares and troubles from the sicke soule, were sicke them selues with feare worthy to be laughed at. 9 For though no terrible thing dyd feare them, yet were they afrayde at the beastes which passed by them, and at the hissing of the serpentes. 10 Insomuch that with trembling they " sowned, and " sayd they sawe not the ayre, which no man yet may escape.

11 For malice is a dreadefull thing that is condempned by his owne witnesse: and being pressed with conscience, it euer " suspecteth cruel things. 12 For feare is nothing els but a " betraying of the succours which reason offereth. 13 And loke how much the lesse his hope is within, the greater doth he recount his ignorance of that cause that bringeth the torment. 14 But (they that dyd indure) the night that in deede was intollerable, and that came from the dungeons of intollerable hell sleping the same slepe,

15 Were sometimes chased with monsterous apparitions, and somtymes they sowned as their owne soules had betrayed them: for an hastie feare, and that was not looked for, came vpon them. 16 And thus whosoeuer was there fallen, he was in prison, but without chaynes.

17 For whether a man had occupied husbandrie, or had ben an heardman, or labourer in the " woods, yf he were taken, he suffered " intollerable necessitie. 18 For they were all bounde with one chayne of darknesse: whether it were a blasing winde, or a sweete song of the birdes among the thicke braunches of the trees, or the vehemencie of hastie running water,

19 Or great noyse of the falling downe of stones, or the running of playing beastes which they sawe not, or the mightie noyse of roaring wylde beastes, or " the sounde that aunswered agayne in the holonesse of mountaynes: these terrible thinges made them sowne (for very feare.) 20 For all the " earth shined with cleare light, and no man was hindred in his labour. 21 Onlye vpon them there fell a heauie night, an image of darknesse that was to come vpon them: yea they were vnto them selues more heauie then darknesse.

The .xviii. Chapter.

3 The firie piller that the Israelites had in Egypt. 8 The deliueraunce of the faythfull.

NEuertheless thy saintes had a very great lyght, whose voyce they hearing, & not seeing their figure, for that they suffered not the same thinges, they thought them blessed. 2 And for that they did not hurt them nowe of whom they had ben wronged before, they thanked them, and besought them pardon of that they had ben enemies. 3 Therefore thou ganest them a burning piller of fyre to leade them in the vnknowen way, and the sunne not to hurt them in their honorable tourney. 4 But reason it was that they shoulde leese the lyght and be put in the prison of darknesse, whiche had kept thy children " shut vp, by whom the vncorrupt lyght of the lawe was to be geuen vnto the worlde. 5 After when they thought to slay the babes of the saintes, one childe being cast out, and preserued to reproue them, thou tookest away the whole multitude of their children, and destroyedst them altogether in a mightie water. 6 Of that night were our fathers certified afore, that they knowing vnto what othes they had geuen credence, might be of good cheare. 7 Thus thy people receaued the health of the righteous, but the vngodly were destroyed.

8 For lyke as thou hast " reuenged our enemies, so hast thou promoted vs whom thou hast called. 9 For the righteous children of the good men offered secretly, and made a godly law with one consent, that the saintes shoulde in lyke maner receaue together both good and euyll, and that the fathers nowe shoulde sett sing prayses. 10 But there was heard a disagreeing voyce of the enemies, and there was a miserable lamentation for children that were bewayled.

11 The maister and the seruaunt were punished after one maner: and lyke as the kyng, so suffered the common people. 12 So they had innumerable that dyed with one kynde of death altogether; altogether: neither were the liuing sufficient to burie the dead: for in the twinckling of an eye the noblest offspring of them was destroyed.

13 For whereas they would discredite all thinges by reason of the inchauntmentes, in the destruction of the first borne they acknowledged that this people was the children of God. 14 For whyle all thinges were still in silence, and when the night was in the middest of her course, thy almightie worde O Lorde lept downe from heauen out of thy royall trone,

15 As a rough man of warre in the middest of the land that was destroyed, 16 And brought thyne vnfayned commaundement as a sharpe swoorde, and standyng vp, fylled all thinges with death, yea it stoode vppon the earth and reached vnto the heauen.

17 Then the sightes of the euill dreames vexed them sodainely, and feare fulnesse came vppon them vnwares.

18 Then lay there one here, another there halfe dead (halfe quicke) & shewed the cause of his death. 19 For the visions that vexed them, shewed them these thinges afore, that they might not be ignorannt wherefore they perished. 20 Yea the temptation of death touched the righteous also, and among the multitude in the wylderneſſe there was insurrection: but thy wrath endured not long.

21 For the blameleſſe man went in al the haste, and take the battraile vppon him, brought foorth the weapon of his ministration, euen prayer and the reconciliation of incense, set him selfe agaynst the wrath, and so brought the miserie to an ende, declaring (thereby) that he was thy seruaunt. 22 For he ouercame not the multitude with bodyly power or force of weapons: but with the worde he subdued him that vexed, alleaging the oth and couenaunt made vnto the fathers.

23 For when the dead were fallen downe by heapes one vpon another, he stoode in the middest, & partisted the wrath, and parted the way that it might not come to the liuing. 24 And why? in his long garment was al the beautie, and in the foure rowes of the stones was the glory of the fathers graued, and thy maiestie was written in the crowne of his head. 25 Vnto these the destroyer gaue place, & was afraid of them: for it was inough that they only tasted of the wrath.

The .xix. Chapter.

1 The death of the Egyptians, and the great ioy of the Hebrewes.

AS for the vngodly, the wrath came vpon them without mercie vnto the ende: for he knewe before what shoulde happen vnto them:

2 Howe that when they had consented to let them go, and had sent them out with great diligence, they woulde repent and folowe vpon them.

3 For whyles they were yet mournyng and makyng lamentation by the graues of the dead, they deuised another foolishnesse, so that they persecuted them in their fleeing, whom they had (a)cast out afore with prayer.

4 For the necessitie which they had deserued brought them vnto this end, and made them forget the thinges that had alredy happened, that they might by torimentes fulfill their punishment whiche remayned: 5 And that thy people might trie a marueylous passage: and these might fynde a straunge death. 6 For euery creature in his kynde was fashioned agayne of newe, seruyng the peculiar offices as was commaunded them, that thy children might be kept without hurt: 7 For the cloude ouershadowed their tentes, and the drye earth appeared where afore was water: so that in the red sea there was a way without impediment, and the great deepe became a greene feelde:

8 Wherethrough all the people went that were defended with thy hande, seyng thy marueylous straunge wonders. 9 For as the horses ryght so they neyed, and leaped lyke lammes, prayſing thee (O Lorde) whiche hadst deliuered them. 10 And why? they were yet myndefull of the thinges that were done whyle they dwelt in the straunge lande, howe the grounde brought foorth flies in steade of cattel, and howe the ryuer strawled with the multitude of frogges in steade of fishes. 11 But at the last they sawe a newe generation of birdes, what tyme as they were stirred with lust, & desired delicate meates. 12 For why? the quayles came vp to them from the sea for their comfort: but punishmentes came vppon the sinners, not without the signes which came before to passe by vehemencie of the thicke lyghtenynges: for they suffered worthyly according to their wickednesse, because they dealt so churlishly and with an hate of straungers.

¶ The ende of the booke of wysdome.

The booke of Iesus the sonne of Sirach, which is called in Latine Ecclesiasticus.

The prologue of Iesus the sonne of Sirach vnto his booke.

MANY and great men haue declared wysdome vnto vs out of the lawe, out of the prophetes, and out of other that folowed them: in the whiche thinges Israel ought to be commended by the reason of doctrine and wysdome: therefore they that haue it, and reade it, shoulde not only them selues be wyse therethrough, but serue other also with teachyng and wryting. After that my grandefather Iesus had geuen diligent labour to reade the lawe, the prophetes, and other bookes that were left vs of our fathers, and had well exercised him selfe therein: he purposed also to wryte some thing of wysdome and good maners, to the intent that they which were wylling to learne, and to be wyse, myght haue the more vnderstandyng, and be the more apt to leade a good conuersation. Wherefore I exhort you to receaue it louingly, to reade it with diligence, and to take it in good worth, though our wordes be not so eloquent as the famous oratours. For the thing that is wrytten in the Hebrewe tongue, soundeth not so well when it is translated into another speache: not onlye this booke of myne, but also the lawe, the prophetes, and other bookes sounde farre otherwyse then they do when they are spoken in their owne language.

Nowe in the thirtie and eyght yere when I came into Egypt in the tyme of Ptolomie Euerges, and continued there a long season, I founde bookes there left full of great and profounde learning. Wherefore I thought it good and necessarie to bestowe my diligence and trauayle to interprete this booke: and consydering that I had tyme, I laboured and dyd my best to perfourme this booke, and to bryng it vnto lyght, that the straungers also which are disposed to learne, myght applie them selues vnto good maners, and lyue accordyng to the lawe of the Lorde.

¶ The first Chapter.

1 Wisdome commeth of god. 11 A prayse of the feare of god.
29 The meanes to come by wisdome.

ALl wisdome (commeth) of God the Lord, and hath ben euer with him, and is before all time.
2 Who hath numbred the sand of the sea, the droppes of the rayne, and the dayes of tyme?
3 Who hath measured the heyght of heauen, the breadth of the earth, and the deepenesse of the sea? 3 Who hath sought out the grounde of gods wisdome, which hath ben before all thinges? 4 Wisdome hath ben created before all thinges, and the vnderstanding of prudence from euerlasting.
5 (Gods worde in the heyght is the well of wisdome, and the euerlastyng commaundementes are the entraunce of her.) 6 Vnto whom hath the roote of wisdome ben declared? or who hath knowen her wit? 7 Vnto whom hath the doctrine of wisdome ben discouered and shewed? and who hath vnderstande the manifolde entraunce of her? 8 There is one, euen the hyest, the maker of all thinges, the Almightie, the king of power, of whō men ought to stande greatly in awe, which sitteth vpon his throne, beyng a God of dominion. 9 He hath created her through the holy ghost, he hath seene her, numbred her, and measured her. 10 He hath powred her out vpon al his workes, & vpon all flesshe, accordyng to his gift he geueth her richely vnto them that loue him. 11 The feare of the Lorde is worthip and triumph, gladnesse, and a ioyfull crowne.
12 The feare of the Lorde maketh a mery heart, geueth gladnesse, ioy, and long lyfe. 13 Who so feareth the Lorde, it shall go well with him at the last, and in the day of his death he shalbe blessed. 14 The loue of God is honorable wisdome: loke vnto whom it appeareth, they loue it, for they see what wonderous thinges it doth.
15 The feare of the Lorde is the begynnyng of wisdome, and was made with the faythfull in the mothers wombe, it shall go with the chosen women, and shalbe knowen of the righteous and faythful. 16 The feare of the Lord is the right gods seruice.
17 That preserueth and iustifieth the heart, and geueth mirth and gladnesse.
18 Who so feareth the Lorde shalbe happy, and when he hath neede of comfort, he shalbe blessed. 19 She hath built her euerlastyng foundations with men, & is geuen to be with their seede. 20 To feare God is the wisdome that maketh riche, & bringeth all good with her. 21 She fylleth the whole house with her gyftes, and the garners with her treasure.
22 The feare of the Lorde is the crowne of wisdome, and geueth plenteous peace and health: he hath seene her and numbred her: both these are the giftes of god. 23 Knowledge and vnderstandyng of wisdome hath he powred out as rayne, and them that helde her fast hath he brought vnto honour. 24 The feare of the Lorde is the roote of wisdome, & her braunches are long lyfe. 25 In the treasures of wisdome is vnderstandyng and deuotion of knowledge, but wisdome is abhorred of sinners. 26 The feare of the Lorde driueth out sinne, and when she is present, she driueth away anger. 27 For he that is without feare can not be made righteous, and his wylfull boldnesse is his owne destruction. 28 A patient man wyll suffer vnto the tyme, and then shall he haue the rewarde of ioy. 29 A good vnderstandyng wyll hyde his wordes for a tyme, and many mens lyppes shall speake of his wisdome. 30 In the treasures of wisdome is the declaration of doctrine: but the sinner abhorreth the worship of god. 31 My sonne if thou desire wisdome, kepe the commaundement, and God shall geue her vnto thee: 32 For the feare of the Lorde is wisdome and nurture: he hath pleasure in fayth and louyng meekenesse, and he shall fyll the treasures thereof. 33 Be not obstinate and vnfaythfull to the feare of the Lorde, and come not vnto him with a double heart. 34 Be not an hypocrite in the sight of men, and take good heede what thou speakest.
35 Exalt not thy selfe, lest thou happen to fall, and bryng thy soule to dishonour.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

1 To our father and mother ought we to geue double honour. 10 Of the blessyng and curse of the father & mother.

THe children of wisdome are a congregation of the ryghteous, and their offspryng is obedience and loue. 2 Heare your fathers iudgement (O my deare children) and do therafter, that ye may be safe. 3 For the Lorde wyll haue the father honoured of the children: and loke what a mother commaundeth her children to do, be wyll haue it kept. 4 Who so honoureth his father, his sinnes shal be forgeuen him: and he shal abstayne from them, and shall haue his dayly desires. 5 And he that honoureth his mother, is lyke one that gathereth treasure together. 6 Who so honoureth his father, shall haue ioy of his owne children: and when he maketh his prayer, he shalbe heard. 7 He that honoureth his father, shall haue a long lyfe: and he that is obedient vnto the Lorde, shall comfort his mother. 8 He that feareth the Lorde, honoreth his father and mother, and doth them seruice as it were vnto lordes. 9 Honour thy father and mother in deede, in worde, and in all patience, that thou mayest haue Gods blessyng: and his blessyng shall abyde with thee at the last. 10 The blessyng of the father stablisheth the houses of the children: but the mothers curse rooteth out the foundations. 11 Reioyce not when thy father is reproued: for it is not honour vnto thee, but a shame. 12 For the worshyp worshippe of a mans father, is his owne worshyp: and the reproche of the mother, is the dishonesty of the sonne.

13 My sonne, make much of thy father in his age, and greeue him not as long as he lyueth. 14 And yf his vnderstandyng fayle, haue patience with him, & despise not him in thy strength.
15 For the good deede that thou shewest vnto thy father shall not be forgotten: and when thou thy selfe wantest, it shalbe rewarded thee: and for thy mothers offence thou shalt be recompensed with good, yea it shalbe founded for thee in ryghteousnesse. 16 And in the day of trouble thou shalt be remembred: thy sinnes also shall melt away, lyke as the yce in the faire warme weather.
17 He that forsaketh his father shall come to shame: and he that defyeth his mother, is cursed of God.
18 My sonne, perfourme thy workes with louyng meekenesse, so shalt thou be loued aboue other men. 19 The greater thou art, the more humble thy selfe in all thynges, and thou shalt fynde fauour in the sight of God.
20 Many are excellent and of renowme: but the secretes are reuealed vnto the meeke. 21 For great power belongeth only vnto God, and he is honoured of the lowly. 22 Seke not out the thinges that are aboue thy capacitie, and searche not the grounde of such thynges as are to mightie for thee: 23 But loke what God hath commaunded thee, thynke vpon that alway, and be not curious in many of his workes: for it is not needefull for thee to see with thyne eyes the thinges that are secrete. 24 Make not to much searche in superfluous thinges, and be not curious in many of his workes: for many thinges are shewed vnto thee alredy which be aboue the capacitie of men. 25 The medlyng with such hath beguiled many a man, and tangled their wittes in vanitie. 26 Thou canst not see without eyes, therfore profesle not the thing that thou hast not. 27 An harde heart shall feare euyll at the last: and he that loueth daunger, shall perishe therin. 28 An heart that goeth two wayes shal not prosper: and he that is frowarde of heart, wyll euer be worse and worse. 29 An obstinate heart shalbe laden with sorowes, and the vngodly sinner wyll heape one sinne vpon another. 30 The counsayle of the proude hath no health, and his footesteppes shalbe plucked vp: for the plant of sinne hath taken roote in him. 31 The heart of him that hath vnderstandyng, shall perceaue hye thynges: and a good eare wyll gladly hearken vnto wisdome. 32 An heart that is wise and hath vnderstandyng wyll abstayne from sinnes, & increase in the workes of ryghteousnesse.
33 Water quencheth burnyng fire, and mercie reconcileth sinnes.
34 God hath respect vnto him that is thankfull: he thynketh vpon him agaynst the tyme to come, so that when he falleth he shal finde a strong holde.

¶ The. iiii. Chapter.

1 Almes must be done with gentlenesse.
12 The studie of wisdome & her fruite.
20 An exhortation to eschewe euyll, and to do good.

My sonne, defraude not the poore of his almes, and turne not away thine eyes from him that hath neede. 2 Despise not an hungry soule, and defye not the poore in his necessitie. 3 Greeue not the heart of him that is helpelesse, and withdrawe not the gyft from the needefull.
4 Refuse not the prayer of one that is in trouble, turne not away thy face from the needy. 5 Cast not thyne eyes aside from the poore for any euil wyll, that thou geue him not occasion to speake euyll of thee. 6 For yf he complayne of thee in the bitternesse of his soule his prayer shalbe hearde: euen he that made him shall heare him. 7 Be curteous vnto the companie of the poore, humble thy soule vnto thy elder, and bowe downe thy head to a man of worship. 8 Let it not greene thee to bowe downe thyne eare vnto the poore, (a) but pay thy dept, and geue him a freendly aunswere, and that with meekenesse.
9 Deliuer him that suffereth wrong, from the hande of the oppressour: and be not faynt hearted when thou sittest in iudgement. 10 Be mercifull vnto the fatherlesse as a father, and be in steade of an husbande vnto their mother: so shalt thou be liuer the inas an obedient sonne of the hyest, and he shall loue thee more then thy mother doth. 11 Wisedome exalteth her children, receaueth them that seke her, and wyll go before them in the way of ryghteousnesse.

28 Then shall she stablishe him, bryng the ryght way vnto him, make him a glad man, shewe him her secretes, and heape vppon him the treasures of knowledge, and vnderstandyng of righteousnesse. 29 But yf he go wrong, she shall forsake him, and geue him ouer into the handes of destruction and ruine. 30 My sonne, make much of the tyme, eschewe the thyng that is euyll: 31 And for thy lyfe shame not to say the trueth: (b) for there is a shame that bryngeth sinne, & there is a shame that bryngeth worshyp and fauour. 32 Accept no person after thyne owne wyll, that thou be not confounded to thyne owne decay: be not ashamed of thy neyghbour in his aduersitie. 33 And kepe not backe thy counsayle when it may do good, neither hide thy wisdome in her beautie. 34 For in the tongue is wisdome knowen, so is vnderstandyng, knowledge, and learnyng in the talkyng of the wise, & stedfastnesse in the workes of righteousnesse. 35 In no wyse speake agaynst the worde of trueth: but be ashamed of the lyes of thyne owne ignorauunce. 36 Shame not to confesse thine errour, and resist not the course of the riuer. 37 And submit not thy selfe vnto a foolishe man, neither accept the person of the mightie.

38 And stryue thou not agaynst the streame: but for ryghteousnesse take payne with all thy soule, and for the trueth stryue thou vnto death, and god shall fyght for thee agaynst thine enemies. 39 Be not hasty in thy tongue, neither slacke and negligent in thy workes. 40 Be not as a lion in thine owne house, destroying thy houshold folkes, and oppressyng them that are vnder thee. 41 Let not thyne hande be stretched out to receaue, and shut when thou shouldest geue.

TRust not vnto thy riches, and say not, Tushe I haue enough for my lyfe, for it shall not helpe in the tyme of vengeaunce and temptation. 2 Folowe not the lust of thyne owne heart in thy strength. 3 And say not, Tushe, howe haue I had strength? or who wyll bryng me vnder because of my workes? For doubtlesse God shall auenge it. 4 And say not, I haue sinned, and what euyll hath happened me? for the Almightie is a patient rewarder. 5 Because thy sinne is forgeuen thee, be not therfore without feare, neither heape one sinne vpon another. 6 And say not, Tushe, the mercie of the Lorde is great, he shall forgeue me my sinnes be they neuer so many: for like as he is mercifull, so goeth wrath from him also, and his indignation commeth downe vpon sinners. 7 Make no tarying to turne vnto the Lorde, and put not of from day to day: for sodenly shal his wrath come, and in the tyme of vengeaunce he shall destroy thee. 8 Trust not in wicked riches, for they shall not helpe thee in the day of punishment and wrath. 9 Be not caryed about with euery wynde, and go not into euery way: for so doth the sinner that hath a double tongue. 10 Stande fast in the way of the Lord, be stedfast in thy vnderstandyng, abyde by the worde, and folowe the worde of peace and righteousnes. 11 Be gentle to heare the worde of God, that thou mayest vnderstande it: and make a true answere with wisdome. 12 Be swyft to heare, but slowe and patient in geuyng answere. 13 If thou hast vnderstandyng, shape thy neyghbour an answere: yf no, lay thy hande vpon thy mouth, lest thou be trapped in an vndiscrete worde, and so confounded. 14 Honour and shame is [C] in the talke, but the tongue of the vndiscrete is his owne destruction. 15 Be not a pyttie accuser as long as thou Iohn.12.b.

27 Be not proude to do thy worke, and dispaire not in the time of aduersitie. 27 Better is he that laboureth & hath plentousnesse of all thinges, then he that is gorgious and wanteth bread. 29 My sonne, ger thy soule honour by meekenesse, and geue her her due honour.

30 Who shall iustifie him that sinneth agaynst him selfe? Who wyll honour him that dishonoureth his owne soule? 31 The poore is honored for his faithfulnesse & trueth: but the riche is had in reputation because of his goodes.

32 He that honoreth him selfe honestly in powertie, howe much more shall he behaue hym selfe honestly in riches? and who so ordreth hym selfe vnhonestly in riches, how much more shall he behaue him selfe vnhonestly in powertie?

The .xi. Chapter.

1 The prayse of humilitie. 2 After the outwarde appearaunce ought we not to iudge.

THe wysdome of hym that is brought low shal lift vp his head, and shall make hym to sit among great men. 2 Commende not thou a man in his beautie, neither despise a man in his vtter appearaunce. 3 The Bee is but a small beast among the fowles, yet is her fruite exceeding sweete. 4 Be not proude of thy rayment & exalt not thy self in the day of thy honour: for the workes of the lyest only are wonderfull: yea glorious, secrete, & vnknowen are his workes. 5 Many tyrauntes haue ben fayne to sit downe vpon the earth, & the vnlikely hath worne the crowne. 6 Many mightie men haue ben brought lowe, and the honorable haue ben delinered into other mens handes. 7 Condemne no man before thou haue tryed out the matter: and when thou hast made inquisition, then rebourne righteously. 8 Geue no sentence before thou hast heard the cause: but first let men tell out their tales. 9 Strine not for a matter that toucheth not thy selfe, and stande not in the iudgement of sinners. 10 My sonne, meddle not with many matters: and if thou gaine much thou shalt not be blameles, and if thou folowe after it, thou shalt not attayne it: and though thou runnest thy way afore, yet shalt thou not escape. 11 There is some man that laboureth & taketh payne, & the more he weerieth him selfe, the lesse he hath.

12 Agayne, some man is slouthfull, hath neede of helpe, wanteth strength, and hath great powertie: 13 And gods eye looketh vpon him to good, setteth him vp from his low state, and lifteth vp his head: so that many men marueil at him, & geue honour vnto God.

14 Prosperitie and aduersitie, life and death, powertie and richelle, come all of the Lorde. 15 Wysdome, nurture, and knowlege of the lawe are with God, loue and the wayes of good are with hym. 16 Errour and darknesse are made for sinners, and they that exalt them selues in euyll, waxe olde in euyll. 17 The gyft of God remayneth for the righteous: and his good wyll shall geue prosperitie for euer.

18 Some man is riche by his care and nigardship, and that is the portion of his rewarde: 19 In that he saith, Nowe haue I gotten rest, and nowe wyll I eate and drinke of my goodes my selfe alone: and yet he considereth not that the tyme draweth nye, and death approacheth, that he must leaue all these thinges vnto other men, and dye him selfe.

20 Stand thou fast in thy couenaunt, and exercise thy selfe therein, and remayne in the worke vnto thy age.

21 Marueil not at the workes of sinners, but put thy trust in god and bide in thy labour: for it is but an easie thing in the sight of God to make a poore man rich, and that sodenly.

22 The blessing of God hasteth to the rewarde of the righteous, and maketh his fruites soone to flourishe and prosper. 23 Say not, What helpeth it me? and what good thing shall I haue hereafter? 24 Againe, say not, I haue enough, how can I want? 25 When thou art in welfare, forget not aduersitie: and when it goeth not well with thee, haue a good hope that it shalbe better: 26 For it is but a small thing vnto God to rewarde euery man accordyng to his wayes. 27 The aduersitie of an houre maketh one to forget all pleasure: & when a man dyeth, his workes are discouered. 28 Iudge no man blessed before his death: for a man shalbe knowen in his childyen.

29 Bryng not euery man into thyne house: for the disceiptfull layeth wayte diuerslly, (a) and are lyke stomaches that beiche filthyly. 30 Like as a partrich in a maunde, so is the heart of the proude: and like as a spye that looketh vpon the fall of his neighbour. 31 For he turneth good vnto euyll, and slaundereth the chosen.

32 Of one sparke is made a great fire, and of one disceiptfull man is blood increased: and an vngodly man layeth wayte for blood.

33 Beware of the disceiptfull, for he imagineth wicked thinges, to bryng thee into a perpetuall shame.

34 If thou takest an aliaunt vnto thee, he shall destroy thee in vnquietnesse, and drive thee from thyne owne wayes.

1 Vnto whom we ought to do good.
10 Enemies ought not to be trusted.

A WHen thou wylt do good, knowe to whom thou doest it, and so shalt thou be greatly thanked Gala.vi.a. for thy benefites. 2 Do good vnto
i.Tim.v.a. the righteous, and thou shalt finde great rewarde, though not of hym, yet (no doubt) the Lord him selfe shall rewarde thee. 3 He standeth not in a good case that is alway occupied in euyll, and geueth no almes: for the highest hateth the sinners, and hath mercy vpon them that shewe the workes of repentaunce. 4 Geue thou vnto such as feare God, and receaue not a sinner. 5 As for the vngodly and sinners, he shal recompence vengeaunce vnto them, and kepethem to the day of wrath. 6 Geue thou vnto the good, and receaue not the sinner, do well vnto hym that is lowly, but geue not to the vngodly: Let not the bread be geuen hym, that he be not mightier then thy selfe therin: for so shalt thou receaue twyse as much euyll in all that good that thou doest
B vnto hym. 7 And why? the highest hateth sinners, and shall rewarde vengeaunce to the vngodly. 8 In prosperitie a freende shalbe knowen, and in aduersitie an enemie shall not be hid. 9 For when a man is in wealth, it greeueth his enemies: but in heauinesse & trouble a mans very freende wyll depart from hym. 10 Trust neuer thyne enemie: for lyke as iron rusteth, so doth his wickednesse.

11 And though he make much crouching and kneeling, yet kepe well thy minde, and beware of hym: and thou shalt be to hym as he that wypeth a glasse, and thou shalt knowe that all his rust hath not ben well wyped away. 12 Set hym not by thee, neither let him sit at thy right hande: lest he turne hym, get into thy place, take thy roome, and seeke thy seate, and so thou at the last remember my wordes, and be pricked at my sayinges.

Eccle.viii.a and.xxi.a. 13 Binde not two sinnes together: for there shall not one be vnpunished.
C 14 Who wyll haue pitie of the charmer that is stinged of the serpent, or of all such as come nye the beastes?
15 Euen so is it with hym that keepeth companie with the wicked man, and lappeth him selfe in his sinnes.
16 For a season wyll he byde with thee; but if thou stumble, he tarieth not. 17 An enemie is sweete in his
D lippes, he can make many wordes, & Iere.xli.b. speake many good things: yea he can weepe with his eyes, but in his heart he imagineth how to throwe thee into the pit: and if he may finde opportunitie, he wyl not be satisfied with blood.
18 If aduersitie come vpon thee, thou shalt finde him there first, and though he pretende to do thee helpe, yet shall he undermine thee. 19 He shal shake his head, and clap his handes ouer thee for very gladnesse: and whyle he maketh many wordes, he shall disguise his countenaunce.

The.xiii. Chapter.

1 The companies of the proude and of the riche are to be eschewed. 15 The loue of God. 17 Lyke do companie
E with their like.

WHo so toucheth pitch, shalbe defiled withall: and he that is familier with the proude, shall clothe him selfe with pryde. 2 He that beth a burthen vpon him that accompanieth a more honorable man then him selfe, therfore kepe no familiaritie with one that is richer then thy selfe: How agree the kettell and the pot together? for if the one be smitten against the other, it shalbe broken.

3 The riche dealeth vnrighteously, & threatneth withall: but the poore being oppressed and wronged fully dealt withall, suffreth scarcenesse, & geueth fayre wordes. If the riche haue done wrong, yet must he be entreated: but if the poore haue done it, he shall straight wayes be threatned. 4 If thou be for his profite, he vseth thee: but if thou haue nothing, he shall forsake thee. 5 As long as thou hast any thing of thyne owne, he shalbe a good felowe with thee: yea he shall make thee a bare man, & not be sory for thee.
6 If he haue neede of thee, he shall defraude thee, & with a pinte mocke
F shall he put thee in an hope, and geue thee all good wordes, and say, What wantest thou? 7 Thus shal he shame thee in his meate, vntyll he haue supt thee cleane vp twyse or thryse, and at the last shall he laugh thee to scorne: afterwarde, when he seeth that thou hast nothing, he shall forsake thee, and shake his head at thee. 8 Submit thy selfe vnto God, and wayte vpon his hande. 9 Beware that thou be not disceaued and brought downe in thy simplenesse: Be not to humble in thy wysdome, lest when thou art brought brought lowe thou be deceaued thorowe foolishnesse. 10 If thou be called of a mightie man, absent thy selfe, so shall he call thee to hym the more oft. 11 Preasse not thou vnto him, that thou be not shut out: but go not thou farre of, lest he forget thee.

12 Withdraw not thy selfe from his speache, but beleue not his many wordes: for with much communication shall he tempt thee, and with a pitnie mocke shall he question with thee of thy secretes. 13 The vnmercifull minde of his shall marke thy wordes, he shall not spare to do thee hurt, & to put thee in prison. 14 Beware and take good heede to thy selfe, for thou walkest in perill of thy ouerthrowing: Nowe when thou heerest his words, make thee as though thou wast in a dreame, & wake vp. 15 Loue God all thy lyfe long, and call vpon hym in thy neede. 16 Euery beast loueth his like: euen so let euery man loue his neighboure. 17 All flesh wil resort to their like, and euery man wil kepe company with such as he is him selfe. 18 But as the woolfe agreeth with the lamme: so doth the vngodly with the righteous. 19(a) What peace is there betwene Hyena and a dogge? howe can the riche & the poore agree together? 20 The wylde asse is the lions pray in the wildernesse: euen so are poore men the meate of the riche. 21 Like as the proude may not away with lowlinesse: euen so doth the rich abhorre the poore. 22 If a rich man fall, his freendes set hym vp agayne: but when the poore falleth, his acquaintaunce forsake him. 23 If a riche man fall into an errour, he hath many helpers, he speaketh proude wordes, and yet men iustifie hym: but if a poore man go wrong, he is punished, yea though he speake wisely, yet can it haue no place. 24 When the riche man speaketh, euery body holdeth his tongue, and looke what he saith, they prayse it vnto the cloudes: but if the poore man speake, thei say, What felowe is this? and if he do amisse, they shal destroy him. 25 Riches are good vnto him that hath no sinne in his conscience: and pouertie is a wicked thing in the mouth of the vngodly. 26 The heart of man chaungeth his countenaunce, whether it be in good or euyll. 27 A chearefull countenaunce is a token of a good heart: for els it is an harde thing to knowe the thought.

(a) That is, with a sinner that returneth continually to his sinne againe as a dogge to his vomit: or els after the other translation Hyena is a subtill beast, watching about sheepheards foldes resembling a mans voyce, and learning certaine names, doth call the foorth & so destroy the, whose nature is contrarie to the dog, whiche is a keper of the folde, and freendly vnto man.

The.xiii. Chapter.

1 The offence of the tongue. 17 Man is but a vayne thing. 21 Happy is he that continueth in wysdome.

BLessed is the man that hath not fallē with the word of his mouth, and is not pricked with the conscience of sinne. 2 Happy is he that hath no heauinesse in his minde, & is not fallen from his hope in the Lord.

3 It becommeth not a couetous man and a nygarde to be riche: and what shoulde an enuious man do with money? 4 He that with all his carefulnesse heaperth together vnrighteously, gathereth for other folkes, and another man shal make good cheare with his goodes. 5 He that is wicked vnto him selfe, howe shoulde he be good vnto other men? howe can such one haue any pleasure of his goodes.

6 There is nothing worse then when one disalloureth him selfe: and this is a reward of his wickednesse. 7 If he do any good, he doth it not knowing thereof and against his wyll, and at the last he declareth his vngraciousnesse. 8 A nygarde hath a wicked eye, he turneth away his face, and despiseth men. 9 A couetous mans eye hath neuer enough in the portion of wickednes, vntill the time that he wither away, & haue lost his owne soule.

10(a) A wicked eye enuieth bread, and there is scarcenesse vpon his table.

11 My sonne, do good to thy selfe of that thou hast, and geue the Lorde his due offeringes. 12 Remember that death tarieth not, & howe that the (b) graue is not shewed vnto thee: for the couenaunt of this world shall dye the death. 13 Do good vnto thy freende before thou dye, and according to thy abilitie reache out thyne hand & geue vnto the poore. 14 Be not disapointed of the good day, & let not the portion of the good desire ouerpasse thee. 15 Shalt thou not leaue thy trauailes and labours vnto other men? In the diuiding of the heritage geue & take, and sanctifie thy soule. 16 Worke thou righteousnes before thy death: for in the hell there is no meate to finde. 17 All flesche shall fade away like a garment, and like a flourishing leafe in a greene tree. 18 Some growe, some are cast downe: euen so is the generation of flesche and blood: one commeth to an ende, another is borne, and this is the condition

19 All transitorye thinges shall fayle at the last, and the worker therof shall go withall. 20 Euery chosen worke shalbe iustified, and he that medled withall shall haue honour therein.
21 Blessed is the man that kepeth hym in wysdome, and exercyseth hym selfe in vnderstanding, and with discretion shall thinke vpon the foreknowledge of God, 22 Which considereth the wayes of wisdome in his heart, hath vnderstanding in her secretes, 23 Goeth after her as one that seeketh her out, and continueth in her wayes. 24 He looketh in at her windowes, and hearkeneth at her doores. 25 He taketh his rest beside her house, and fastneth his stake in her walles: he shall pitche his tent nye vnto her hande, and in his tent shall good thinges rest for euermore.

The.xv. Chapter.

1 The goodnesse that foloweth hym which feareth God. 8 God reiecteth and casteth of the sinner, 11 God is not the auctour of euill.

HE that feareth God, wyl do good: and who so kepeth the lawe, shall obtayne wysdome. 2 As an honorable mother shall she meete hym, and (a) she as his wyfe maryed of a virgin shall receaue him. 3 With the bread of lyfe and vnderstanding shall she feede hym, and geue hym the waters of wholsome wysdome to drinke.
4 If he be constant in her, he shall not be moued, and if he holde him fast by her, he shall not come to confusion.
5 She shall bring hym to honour among his neighbours, and in the middest of the congregation shal she open his mouth: 6 With the spirite of wysdome and vnderstanding shall she fill hym, and clothe hym with the garment of glory. 6 She shall heape the treasure of myrth and ioy vpon him, & geue hym an euerlasting name to heritage. 7 Foolishe men wyll not take holde vpon her, but such as haue vnderstanding wyll meete her: foolishe men shall not see her, for she is farre from pryde and disceipt.
8 Men that go about with lyes, wyll not remember her: but men of trueth shalbe founde in her, and shall prosper euen vnto the beholding of God.
9 Prayse is not seemely in the mouth of the vngodly, for he is not sent of the Lorde. 10 But if prayse come of wysdome and be plenteous in a faythfull mouth, then the Lorde wyll prosper it. 11 Say not thou, It is the Lordes fault that I am gone by: for thou shalt not do the thing that God hateth. 12 Say not thou, he hath caused me to do wrong: for he hath no neede of the vngodly. 13 God hateth all abhomination of errour, and they that feare God will loue none such.
14 God made man from the beginning, and left him in the hande of his counsell: he gaue his commaundementes and preceptes. 15 If thou wylt obserue the commaundementes and kepe acceptable faythfulnesse for euer, they shall preserue thee. 16 He hath set water and fire before thee, reache out thyne hande vnto whiche thou wylt. 17 Before man is lyfe and death, good and euill: loke what hym liketh, shalbe geuen him. 18 For the wysdome of God is great and mightie in power, and beholdeth all thinges continually: 19 The eyes of the Lorde are vpon them that feare hym, and he knoweth all the workes of man. 20 He hath commaunded no man to do vngodly, neither hath he geuen any man licence to sinne: for he destroyeth not a multitude of infidels and vnprofitable chyldren.

The.xvi. Chapter.

1 Of vnhappy & wicked children. 19 No man can hide him selfe from God.

DElite not thou in the multitude of vngodly chyldren, and haue no pleasure in them if they feare not God. 2 Trust not thou to their lyfe, and regarde not their labours. 3 For one sonne that feareth God, is better then a thousand vngodly: and better it is for a man to dye without chyldren, then to leaue behynde hym such chyldren as are vngodly. 4 For by one that hath vnderstanding, may a whole citie be vpholden: but though the vngodly be many, yet shall it be wasted through them. 5 Many such thinges hath myne eye seene, and greater thinges then these haue I hearde with mine eares. 6 In the congregation of the vngodly shall a fire burne, and among vnfaythfull people shall the wrath be kindled.

Exod. v. 2.

11 For mercy and wrath is with him, he is both mighty to forgeue, and to powre out diſpleaſure. 12 Like as his mercy is great, euen ſo is his puniſhment alſo: he iudgeth a man accordyng to his workes. 13 The vngodly ſhall not eſcape in his ſpoyle, & the long patience of him that ſheweth mercy, ſhall not byde behinde. 14 He wyll make a place for euery mercyfull deede, and euery man ſhall finde accordyng to his workes. 15 The Lorde hardened Pharao that he ſhould not knowe hym, and that his workes might be knowen vpon the earth vnder the heauen. 16 His mercy is knowen to all creatures, he hath ſeparated his light from the darkeneſſe with an adamant. 17 Say not thou, I wyll hyde my ſelfe from God: for who wil thinke vpon me from aboue? I ſhall not be knowen in ſo great an heape of people: for what is my ſoule among ſo many creatures? 18 Beholde the heauen, yea the heauen of heauens of God, the deepe, the earth, and all that therein is, ſhalbe moued at his preſence. 19 The mountaines, the hilles, and the foundations of the earth ſhall ſhake for feare, when God diſtreth them. 20 Theſe things doth no heart vnderſtande worthyly: but he vnderſtandeth euery heart. 21 And who vnderſtandeth his wayes? no man ſeeth his ſtormes, & the moſt part of his workes are ſecrete. 22 Who wyll declare the workes of his righteouſneſſe? or who ſhalbe able to abide them? for the couenaunt is farre from ſome, and tryng out of men is in the ende. 23 He that is humble of heart, thinketh vpon ſuch thinges: but an vnwyſe & erronious man caſteth his minde vnto fooliſhe thinges. 24 My ſonne, hearken thou vnto me, and learne vnderſtanding, and marke my wordes with thyne heart: I wyll geue thee a ſure doctrine, and playnely ſhall I inſtruct thee. 25 Marke my wordes then in thyne heart: for in righteouſneſſe of the ſpirite do I ſpeake of the wonders that God hath ſhewed among his workes from the beginning, and in the trueth do I ſhewe the knowledge of him. 26 God hath ſet his workes in good order from the beginning, and part of them hath he ſundred from the other.

27 He hath garniſhed his workes from euerlaſting, & their beginnynges accordyng to their generations: they are not hungrye nor weerye in their labours, nor ceaſſe from their offices.

28 None of them hindred another, neither was any of them diſobedient vnto his wordes. 29 After this God looked vpon the earth, and filled it with his goodneſſe. 30 With all maner of liuing beaſtes hath he couered the grounde, and they all ſhalbe turned vnto earth agayne.

GOD ſhaped man of the earth, and made hym after his owne image, & turned hym vnto earth agayne, and clothed hym with his owne ſtrength. 2 He gaue hym the number of dayes and certayne tyme, yea and gaue hym power of the thinges that are vpon earth. 3 He made all fleſhe to ſtande in awe of hym, ſo that he had the dominion of all beaſtes and foules. 4 He made out of hym an helper like vnto him ſelf, and gaue them diſcretion and tongue, eyes, and eares, and a hart to vnderſtande:

9 Beſide this, he gaue them inſtruction, and the lawe of lyfe for an heritage, that they might nowe know that they were (a) mortall. 10 He made an euerlaſting couenaunt with them, and shewed them his righteousnesse and iudgementes. 11 They sawe the maiestie of his glory with their eyes, and their eares heard the maiestie of his voyce, and he sayde vnto them, Beware of al vnrighteous thinges.

12 He gaue euery man also a commaundement concerning his neighbour. 13 Their wayes are euer before him, & are not hid from his eyes.

14 Euery man from his youth is geuen to euyll, and their stony heartes can not become (b) fleshy. 15 He hath set a ruler vpon euery people, but Israel is the lordes portion: 16 Whom he nourisheth with discipline as his first borne, and geueth hym most louing light, and doth not forsake him.

17 All their workes are as the sunne in the sight of God, and his eyes are alway looking vpon their wayes.

18 All their vnrighteousnesses are manifest vnto hym, and all their wickednesses are open in his sight.

19 And as he is merciful and knoweth his worke, he doth not leaue them nor forsake them, but spareth them.

20 The mercy that a man sheweth is (c) as a seale with hym, and the grace that is geuen to man preserueth hym as the apple of an eye, and geueth repentaunce to their sonnes and daughters. 21 At the last shall he awake, and reward euery man vpon his head, and shal turne them together into the nethermost partes of the earth.

22 But vnto them that wyll repent he hath geuen the way of righteousnesse: as for such as be weake, he comforteth them, suffereth them, and sendeth them the portion of the veritie. 23 O turne then vnto the Lorde, forsake thy sinnes, make thy prayer before the Lorde, do the lesse offence. 24 Turne agayne vnto the Lorde, for he will bring thee from darknesse vnto holsome light, forsake thyne vnrighteousnesse, be an vtter enemie to abhomination. 25 Learne to knowe the righteousnesse and iudgements of God, stande in the portion that is set foorth for thee, and in the prayer of the most hye God. 26 Go in the portion of the holy worlde with suche as be liuing, & geue thankes vnto God. 27 Who wyll prayse the Lorde in the hell? abyde not thou in the errour of the vngodly, but geue thankes before death. 28 As for the dead, thankfulnesse perisheth from him as nothing: geue thou thankes in thy lyfe, yea whyle thou art liuing and whole that thou geue thankes, and prayse God, and reioyce in his mercy. 29 O how great is the louing kindnesse of the Lorde, and his mercifull goodnes vnto such as turne vnto hym? 30 For all thinges may not be in man, and why? the sonne of man is not immortall, and he hath pleasure in the vanitie of wickednesse. 31 What is more cleare then the sunne: yet shall it fayle. 32 Or what is more wicked then the thing that flesshe and blood hath imagined? and that same shalbe reproued. 33 The Lorde seeth the power of the hye heauen, and all are but earth and ashes.

The. xviii. Chapter.

1 The marueylous workes of God.
6 The miserie and wretchednes of man. 9 Against God ought we not to complayne.

A

HE that liueth for euermore, made all thinges together: God only is righteous, & there is none other but he, and remayneth a victorious kyng for euer. 2 He ordereth the worlde with the power of his hande, and all thinges obey his wyll: for he gouerneth all thinges by his power, and diuideth the holy thinges from the prophane. 3 Who shalbe able to expresse the workes of him? who will seeke out the grounde of his noble actes? 4 Who shall declare the power of his greatnesse? or who wyll take vpon him to tel out his mercy? 5 As for the wonderous workes of the Lorde, there may nothing be taken from them, nothing may be put vnto them, neither may the ground of them be founde out. 6 But when a man hath done his best, he must begin agayne: and when he thinketh to be come to an ende, he must go agayne to his labour. 7 What is man? wherto is he worth? what good or euill can he do? 8 If the number of a mans dayes be almost an hundred yeres, it is much: and no man hath certayne knowledge of his death. 9 Like as the droppes of rayne are vnto the sea, and as a graueil stone is in comparison of the sande: so are these fewe yeres to the dayes of euerlasting.

10 Therefore is the Lorde patient with them, and powreth out his mercy vpon them. 11 He sawe and perceaued the thoughtes and imaginations of their heart that they were euil, therefore heaped he vp his mercyfull goods

goodnes vpon them, and shewed them the way of righteousnes. 12 The mercy that a man hath, reacheth to his neighbour, but the mercy of God is vpon all flesche: he chasteneth, he teacheth and nurtureth: yea euen as a sheepheard turneth againe his flocke, so doth he all them that receaue chastening, nurture, and doctrine.

Eccle.xi.d. 25 From the morning vntil the euening the time is chaunged, and al such thinges are soone done in the sight of God. 26 A wyse man feareth God in all thinges, and in the dayes of transgression he kepeth hym selfe from sinne: but the foole doth not obserue the tyme. 27 A discrete man hath pleasure in wisdome, and he that findeth her, maketh much of her.

28 They that haue had vnderstanding, haue dealt wysely in wordes, haue vnderstand the trueth and righteousnes, and haue sought out wyse sentences and iudgementes. 29 The cheefe auctoritie of speaking, is of the Lorde alone: for a mortall man hath but a dead heart. 30 Folowe not thy lustes, but turne thee from thyne owne wyll. 31 For if thou geuest thy soule her desires, it shall make thyne enemies to laugh thee to scorne.

Eccl.xiiii.a 26 A man falleth sometyme with his tongue, but not with his wyll: for what is he that hath not offended in his tongue? 27 Geue thy neighbour warning before thou threaten hym: and geue place vnto the lawe of the Lorde. 28 The feare of the Lorde is the first degree to be receaued of him: and wysdome obtayneth his loue.

29 The knowledge of the commaundementes of the Lord, is the doctrine of life: and they that obey hym, shall receaue the fruite of immortalitie.

30 The feare of God is all wysdome: and he that is a righteous man kepeth the lawe. 31 If a seruaunt say vnto his maister, I wyll not do as it pleaseth thee: though afterwarde he do it, he shall displease hym that nourisheth hym. 32 As for the doctrine of wickednes it is no wisdome, & the prudence of sinners is no good vnderstanding: it is but wickednes, and abhominacion, and a blaspheming of wysdome. 33 A simple man of small vnderstanding that feareth God, is better then one that hath much wysdome, and transgresseth the lawe of the highest. 34 A craftie subtle man can be wise, but he is vnrighteous, and with gyftes he wresteth the open and manifest lawe: agayne, there is that is wyse & iudgeth righteously. 35 A wicked man can behaue him selfe humbly, and can bucke with his head, and yet is he but a deceauer within: he hydeth his face,

The.xx. Chapter.

1 Of correction and repentaunce. 6 Of the gyft of the wyse man, and of the foole. 23 Of lying.

SOme man reproueth his neighbour oft tymes, but not in due season: agayne, some man holdeth his tongue, and he is wyse and discrete. 2 It is much better to geue warning and to reproue, then to beare euyll wyll: for he that knowledgeth hym selfe openly, shalbe preserued from hurt and destruction. 3 Like as when a gelded man throughe desire and lust desireth a mayden: euen so is it with hym that vseth violence and vnrighteousnesse in the lawe. 4 O howe good a thing is it, a man that is reproued to shewe openly his repentaunce: for so shalt thou escape wylfull sinne. 5 Some man kepeth silence and is founde wyse: but he that is not ashamed what he saith, is hatefull. 6 Some man holdeth his tongue, because he hath not vnderstanding of the language: and some man kepeth silence, watting a conuenient tyme. 7 A wyse man wyl hold his tongue tyll he see opportunitie: but a wanton and vndiscrete body shal regarde no tyme. 8 He that vseth many wordes, shall hurt his owne soule; and he that taketh auctoritie vpon hym vnrighteously, shalbe hated.

9 Some man hath oft times prosperitie in wicked thinges: againe, some man getteth much, and hath harme and losse. 10 There is some gyft that is nothing worth: agayne, there is some gyft whose reward is double. 11 There is an humilitie for glories sake, and some commeth to worship from lowe estate. 12 Some man byeth much for a litle pryce, & must pay for it seuen fold. 13 A wise man with his wordes maketh him self to be beloued: but the merie tales of fooles shalbe powred out. 14 The gyft of the vnwise shal do thee no good, nor yet of the enuious, for his imporunitie is seuen folde: for he looketh to receaue many things for one. 15 He shal geue litle, & say he gaue much: he openeth his mouth & cricth out, as it were one that cryed out wide. 16 To day he lendeth, to morow asketh he againe: and such a man is to be hated of god & man. 17 The foole saith, I haue no frende, I haue no thanke for all my good deedes, yea euen they that eate my breade speake no good of me: O howe vfe and of how many shal he be laughed to scorne? 18 He taketh a more perilous fall by such wordes, then if he fel vpon the ground: euen so shall the fall of wicked men come hastily. 19 In the mouth of him that is vnlearned, are many vnconuenient and vnmeete wordes. 20 A wyse sentence shal not be alowed at the mouth of the foole: for he speaketh not it in due season.

21 Some man sinneth not because he hath not wherewithall, and in his rest he shalbe stinged. 22 Some man there is that destroyeth his owne soule with shame, and for an vnwyse bodies sake destroyeth he it, and with accepting of persons shall he vndoe him selfe. 23 Some man promiseth his freende a gift for very shame: and getteth an enemie of hym for naught. 24 A lye is a wicked shame in a man: yet shall it be euer in the mouth of the vnwise. 25 A theefe is better then a man that is accustomed to lie: but they both shal haue destruction to heritage. 26 The conditions of liers are vnhoneste: and their shame is euer with them. 27 A wise man shal bring him selfe to honour with his wordes: and he that hath vnderstanding shalbe set among great men. 28 He that tilleth his land, shall increase his heape of corne: he that worketh righteousnesse shalbe exalted, and he that pleaseth great men shal escape much euill.

29 Rewardes and gyftes blynde the eyes of the wise, and make him dumbe that he can not tell men their faultes. 30 Wysdome that is hyd, and treasure that is hoorded vp, what profite is in them both? 31 Better is he that keepeth his ignorance secrete, then a man that hydeth his wysdome.

32 The necessarie patience of hym that foloweth the Lorde, is better then he that gouerneth his lyfe without the Lorde.

The. xxi. Chapter.

1 Not to continue in sinne. 5 The prayer of the afflicted. 6 To hate to be reproued. 17 The mouth of the wyse man. 26 The thought of the foole.

MY sonne, if thou hast sinned, do it no more: but pray for thy foresinnes that they may be forgeuen thee. 2 Flee from sinne, euen as from a serpent: for if thou commest to nye her, she will byte thee: the teeth therof are as the teeth of a lion, to slay the soules of men. 3 The wyckednes of man is as a sharpe two edged swoorde, which maketh such woundes that they can not be healed. 4 Scrite and wrongfull dealyng shall waste away a mans goods, and through pryde a ryche house shalbe brought to naught: so the riches of the proud shal be rooted out. 5 The prayer of the poore goeth out of the mouth, & commeth vnto the eares, and his vengeaunce (or defence) shall come hastily. 6 Who so hateth to be reproued, he is a token of an vngodly person: but he that feareth God, will remember him selfe. 7 A mighty man is knowen a farre of by his tongue: but he that hath vnderstandyng perceaueth that he shall haue a fall. 8 Who so buildeth his house with other mens cost, (a) is like one that gathereth stones to make his greaue. 9 The congregation of the vngodly is like stubble gathered together, their ende is a flame of fire. 10 The way of the vngodly is set with stones: but in their ende is hell, darknesse, and paynes.

11 He that keepeth the law, will holde fast the vnderstanding therof: and the ende of the feare of God is wysdome and vnderstandyng. 12 He that is not wyse, will not be taught in good, but the vnwise man abounded in wickednesse: and where bytternesse is, there is no vnderstandyng. 13 The knowledge of the wise shal flowe like water that runneth ouer, & his counsayle is lyke a pure fountayne of lyfe. 14 The heart of a foole is lyke a broken vessel, he can kepe no wysdome. 15 When a man of vnderstanding heareth a wyse wozde, he shall commende it, and make much of it: but if a voluptuous man heare it, he shall haue no pleasure therin, but cast it behinde his backe. 16 The talking of a foole is lyke an heauy burthen by the way: but to heare a wise man speake, it is pleasure. 17 Where a doubt is in the congregation, it is asked at the mouth of the wyse, and they shall ponder his wordes in their heartes. 18 Like as is a house that is destroyed, euen so is wysdome vnto a foole: as for the knowledge of the vnwyse, it is but darke wordes. 19 Doctrine is vnto him that hath no vnderstanding, euen as fetters about his feete, and lyke manicles vpon his right hand. 20 A foole lifteth vp his voyce with laughter: but a wise man shall scarse laugh secretly. 21 Learnyng is vnto a wyse man a tewell of golde, and lyke an armlet armlet vpon his ryght arme. 22 A foolishe mans foote is soone in his neighbours house: but one that hath experience shalbe ashamed at the person of the mightie. 23 A foole will peepe in at the wyndowe into the house: but he that is well nurtured will stande without. 24 A foolishe man standeth hearkening at the doore: but he that is wyse will be ashamed.

25 The lippes of the vnwyse will be telling foolishe thinges: but the wordes of suche as haue vnderstandyng shalbe wayed in the ballance. 26 The heart of fooles is in their mouth: but the mouth of the wyse is in their heart. 27 When the vngodly curseth the (b) blasphemer, he curseth his owne soule. 28 A prude accuser of other men shall defile his owne soule, and be hated of euery man: but he that repenteth his tongue and is discrecte, shall come to honour.

The. xxii. Chapter.

1 Of the sluggarde. 12 Not to speake much to a foole. 16 A good conscience feareth not.

A Slouthfull body is moulded (a) of a stone of clay, and euery man wyll speake to his disprayse.

2 A slouthfull body is made of the doung of oxen, and euery one that toucheth him must washe his handes agayne. 3 A misnurtured sonne is the dishonour of the father: a foolishe daughter shalbe litle regarded. 4 A wise daughter is an heritage vnto her husband: but she that commeth to dishonestie, bringeth her father in heauynes. 5 A daughter that is past shame, dishonoureth both her father and her husbande: the vngodly shall regarde her, but they both shall despise her.

6 A tale out of time is as musicke in mourning: but wisdome knoweth the seasons of correction and doctrine.

7 If children liue honestly and haue where withall, they shall put away the shame of their parentes: 8 But yf children be proude with hautines and foolishnes, they blot out the nobilitie of their kinred. 9 Who so teacheth a foole, is euen as one that gleweth a potsharde together, and as one that telleth a tale to hym that heareth hym not, and as one that raiseth a man out of an heauy sleepe. 10 Who so telleth a foole of wysdome, is euen as a man which speaketh to one that is a sleepe: when he hath folde his tale, he sayth, What is the matter? 11 When one dyeth, lamentation is made for hym, because the light fayleth him: euen so, let men mourne ouer a foole, for he wanteth vnderstandyng. Make but litle weepyng because of the dead, for he is come to rest: but the lyfe of the foole is worse then the death. 12 Seuen dayes do men mourne for hym that is dead: but the lamentation ouer the vnwise and vngodly should endure all the dayes of their lyfe. 13 Talke not much with a foole, and go not with him that hath no vnderstanding: beware of him, lest it turne thee to trauaile, and thou shalt not be defiled with his sinne. Depart from hym, and thou shalt fynde rest, and shalt not be drawen backe into his foolyshnes. 14 (b) What is heuier then lead? and what should a foole be called els but lead? 15 Sand, salte, and a lumpe of yron is easier to beare, then an vnwyse, foolyshe, and vngodly man.

16 Lyke as the bande of wood bound together in the foundation of the house can not be loosed: euen so is it with the heart that is stablished in the thought of counsell. The thought of the wise shal neuer feare, nor be confounded at any time. 17 Lyke as a fayre plastered wall in a winter house and a hye buyldyng may not abyde the wind and storme: euen so is a fooles heart afrayde in his imagination, he feareth at euery thyng, and can not endure.

18 A wauering heart in the imagination of a foole wyll not euer stande in awe: but he that abydeth in the commaundementes of God, wyll alway feare. 19 He that nippeth a mans eye, bringeth sooth teares: and he that pricketh the heart, bringeth forth the meaning and thought. 20 Who so casteth a stone at the birdes, frayeth them away: and he that blasphemeth his freende, breaketh frendshyp.

21 Though thou drewest a swoorde at thy freende, yet dispayre not: for thou mayst come agayne to thy freende. 22 If he speake sourely, feare not: for ye may be agreed together agayne, except it be that thou blaspheme him, disdayne hym, open his secretes, and wounde hym trayterously: for all such thynges shall driue away a freende.

23 Be faythfull vnto thy neyghbour in his pouertie, that thou mayst reioyce with him also in his prosperitie: abyde stedfast vnto hym in the time of his trouble, that thou mayst be heyre

(a) That is, lyke as the idle stone gathereth mosse and filth, so doth the slouthfull both sickines of body and corruption of minde. & as euery man doth auoyde the filthines of doung, & shaketh it of: so doth he auoyd the company of idle loyterers, lest he be accompted lyke vnto them.

with him in his heritage: for powertie is not alwayes to be contemned, nor the riche that is foolishe to be had in estimation. 24 Lyke as the vapour and smoke goeth out at the ouen before the fire: euen so euill woordes, rebukes, and threatnynges, go before blood shedding. 25 Be not ashamed to defend thy freende, as for me I wyll not hyde my face from hym though he shoulde do me harme: whosoeuer heareth it, shalbe ware of hym.

Psal. cxli.a 26 Who shall set a watche before my mouth, and a sure seale vpon my lippes, that I fall not with them, and that my tongue destroy me not?

The. xxiii. Chapter.

1 A prayer agaynst pride, letchery, and gluttony. 13 Many sinnes proceede of adulterie. 27 Of the feare of god.

A O Lorde, father and gouernour of my lyfe, leaue me not in theyr imagination and counsell: Oh let me not fall in such reproofe. 2 Who wyll kepe my thought with the scourge, and the doctrine of wysdome an mine heart? that he spare not mine ignorance, that I fall not with them: 3 Lest myne ignorances increase, that mine offences be not many in number, and that my sinnes exceede not: lest I fall before myne enemies, and so my aduersarie reioyce, whose hope is farre from thy mercie. 4 O Lord thou father and God of my life, leaue me not in theyr imagination: O let me not haue a proude looke, but turne away al voluptuousnes fro me. 5 Take from me the lustes of the body, let not the desires of vncleannesse take holde vpon me. 6 And geue me not ouer into an vnshamefaste and obstinate mynde. 7 Heare me O ye children, I wyll geue you a doctrine howe ye shall order your mouth: who so kepeth it shal not perishe through his lyppes, nor be hurt through wycked workes. 8 As for the sinner, he shalbe taken in his owne vanitie: he that is proude and cursed, shall fall therin.

Exod. 20.b 9 Let not thy mouth be accustomed with swearing, for in it there are many falles: let not the naming of God be continually in thy mouth, and meddle not with the names of saintes, for thou shalt not be excused of them.

10 For lyke as a seruaunt whiche is oft punished, can not be without some sore: euen so whatsoeuer he be that sweareth and nameth God, shall not be cleane purged from sinne. 11 A man that vseth muche swearyng shall be filled with wickednes, & the plague shal neuer go from his house: if he beguile his brother, his fault shalbe vpon hym, yf he knowledge not his sinne, he maketh a double offence, and yf he sweare in vayne, he shall not be found ryghteous: for his house shalbe full of plagues. 12 The woordes of the swearer bryngeth death, God graunt that it be not founde in the house of Jacob: but they that feare God eschue all such, and lye not weltering in sinne. 13 Vse not thy mouth to vnhoneste and filthy talkyng, for in it is the word of sinne. 14 Remember thy father and thy mother when thou art set among great men: lest God forget thee in theyr syght, and lest thou doting in thy custome, suffer rebuke, and wysshe not to haue ben borne, and so curse the day of thy natiuitie. 15 The man that is accustomed with the woordes of blasphemie, wyll neuer be reformed all the dayes of his lyfe.

16 To sinne twise is to much, but the third bringeth wrath and destruction: An hot stomache can not be quenched (euen like a burnyng fire) tyll it haue swalowed vp some thing: euen so an vnchaste man hath no rest in his flesh, tyll he haue kindled a fire. 17 All bread is sweete to an whoremonger, he will not leaue of tyll he dye. 18 A man that breaketh wedlocke, and regardeth not his soule, but saith, Tushe who seeth me? I am compassed about with darknesse, the walles conceyne me, no body seeth me, whom nede I to feare? the highest will not remember my sinnes: 19 He vnderstandeth not that his eyes see al things, for al such feare of men driueth away the feare of God from hym: for he feareth only the eyes of men, and considereth not that the eyes of the Lorde are clearer then the sunne, beholdyng all the wayes of men, and the grounde of the deepe, and lokyng euen to mens heartes in secrete places. 20 The Lorde God knewe all thynges or euer they were made, and after they be brought to passe also he looketh vpon them all. 21 The same man shalbe openly punished in the streetes of the citie, and shalbe chased abroade lyke a young horse foale: and when he thynketh least vpon it, he shalbe taken.

1 A prayse of wysdome proceedyng foorth of the mouth of God: 6 Of her workes and place where she resteth.

WIsdome shall praise her selfe, and be honoured in God, and reioyce in the middest of the people.

2 In the congregations of the hyest shal she open her mouth, and triumph in the beholdyng of his power.

3 In the myddest of her people shall she be exalted, and wondred at in the holy fulnesse. 4 In the multitude of the chosen she shalbe commended, and among suche as be dieted she shalbe praysed, and shall say. 5 I am come out of the mouth of the hyghest, fyrste borne before all creatures. 6 I caused the light that fayleth not to aryse in the heauen, and couered all the earth as a cloude. 7 My dwellyng is aboue in the heygth, and my seate is in the pyller of the cloude. 8 I my selfe alone haue gone rounde about the compasse of heauen, and pearsed the ground of the deepe. 9 I haue walked in the fludes of the sea & haue stande in al landes, my dominion is in euery people, and in euery nation, and with my power haue I troden downe the hearces of all both hye and lowe.

10 In al these thynges also I sought rest, and a dwellyng in some inheritaunce. 11 So the creator of all thynges gaue me a commaundement, and he that made me, appoynted me a tabernacle, and sayd vnto me, Let thy dwelling be in Iacob, & thine inheritaunce in Israel, and roote thy selfe among my chosen. 12 I was created from the begynnyng and before the worlde, and shall not leaue of vnto the worlde to come: 13 In the holy habitation haue I serued before hym, and so was I stablished in Sion. 14 In the holy citie rested I in lyke maner, and in Hierusalem was my power. 15 I toke roote in an honorable people, euen in the portion of the Lord and in his heritage, and kept me in the fulnesse of the saintes. 16 I am set vp an hye lyke a Cedar vpon Libanus, and as a Cipers tree vpon the mount Hermon. 17 I am exalted lyke a palme tree in Cades, and as a rose plant in Iericho, as a fayre Olme tree in the feelde, and am exalted lyke as a plantane tree by the water syde. 18 I haue geuen a smell in the stretes as the Cinnamom & Balme that hath so good a sauour, yea a sweete odour haue I geuen as it were myrrhe of the best: 19 I haue made my dwellinges to smell as it were of Rosin, Galbanum, of Cloues, Incense, and as Libanus when it is not hewen downe, and myne odour is as the pure Balme. 20 As the (a) Terebint haue I stretched out my braunches, and my braunches are the braunches of honour and louyng fauour. 21 As the vine haue I brought foorth fruite of a sweete sauour, and my flowres are the fruite of honour and riches. 22 I am the mother of beautifull loue, of feare, of knowledge, and of holy hope: I gene eternall thinges to all my children to whom God hath commaunded. 23 In me is all grace of lyfe and truth, in me is all hope of lyfe and vertue. 24 O come vnto me all ye that be desirous of me, and fill your selues with my fruites. 25 For my spirit is sweeter then hony, and so is myne inheritance more then the hony combe: the remembraunce of me endureth for euermore. 26 They that eate me, shall haue the more hunger: and they that drinke me, shall thirst the more. 27 Who so heareth me, shal not come to confusion, and they that worke in me, shall not offende: they that take me to be knowen, shall haue euerlastyng lyfe. 28 All these things are the booke of lyfe, the couenaunt of the hyghest, and the knowledge of the truth. 29 Moyses commaunded the lawe

The.xxv.Chapter.

1 Of three thynges which please God, and of three which he hateth. 7 Of nyne thynges that be not to be suspect, and of the tenth. 15 Cheesely of the malice of a woman.

THree thynges there are that my spirite fauoureth, which be also alowed before God and men: The Gen.13.D. Rom.12.b. Eccle.40.D. vnitie of brethren, the loue of neyghbours, a man and wife that agree well together. 2 Three thynges there be which my soule hateth, and I vtterly abhorre the life of them: A poore man that is proude, a ryche man that is a lyer, and an olde body that doteth and is vnchaste. 3 If thou hast gathered nothing in thy youth, what wylt thou finde then in thine age? 4 O how pleasaunt a thyng is it when gray headed men are discrete, & when the elders can geue good counsel? 5 O how comely a thing is wisdome vnto aged men? yea, vnderstanding and counsel to men of honour is a glorious thing. 6 The crowne of olde men, is to haue muche experience: and the feare of God, is theyr worshyp. 7 There be nyne thynges whiche I haue iudged in my heart to be happy, and the tenth wil I tell foorth vnto men with my tongue: A man that whyle he lyueth hath ioy of his children, and seeth the fal of his enemies. 8 Wel is him that dwelleth with an houswyfe of vnderstandyng, & that hath not fallen with his tongue, and that hath not ben fayne to serue such as are vnmeete for him.

9 Well is him that findeth a faythful freende: and wel is him which talketh of wysdome to an eare that heareth him. 10 O howe great is he that findeth wisdome and knowledge? Yet is he not aboue hym that feareth the Lorde. 11 The feare of God hath set it selfe aboue all thinges. 12 Blessed is the man vnto whom it is graunted to haue the feare of God: vnto whom shall he be likened that kepeth it fast?

13 The feare of god is the begynning of his loue: and the beginning of fayth, is to cleaue fast vnto it. 14 The heauinesse of the heart is all the punishment, and the wickednes of a woman goeth aboue all. 15 All punishment and plague is nothing in comparison to the plague of the heart: euen so, all wickednes is nothing to the wickednes of a woman. 16 What so euer happeneth vnto a man, is nothing in comparison of it that his cruel wylleres do vnto him: and all vengeaunce is nothyng to the vengeaunce of the enemie. 17 There is not a more wicked head then the head of ♱ serpent: & there is no wrath aboue the wrath of 20 Her huſband is brought to ſhame among his neighbours becauſe of her, and when he heareth it, it maketh him to ſigh. 21 All wickednes is but litle to the wickednes of a woman: the portion of the vngodly ſhal fal vpon her. 22 Lyke as the clymyng vp a ſandy way is to the feete of the aged: euen ſo is a wife full of wordes to a ſtil quiet man. 23 Loke not to narowly vpon the beautie of a woman, leſt thou be prouoked in deſyre towarde her. 24 The wrath of a woman is diſhonour and great confuſion: yf a woman get the maſtrie, then is ſhe contrary to her huſband. 25 A wycked wife maketh a ſory heart, an heauy countenaunce, and a dead wounde: Weake handes and feeble knees is a woman that her huſbande is not the better for. 26 Of the woman came the (a) beginning of ſinne, and through her we al are dead. 27 Geue thy water no paſſage, no not a litle, neither geue a wycked woman her wyll.

28 If ſhe walke not after thy hande, ſhe ſhall confounde thee in the ſight of thine enemies: cut her of then from thy fleſhe, that ſhe do not alway abuſe thee.

The.xxvi. Chapter.

1 The prayſe of a good woman. 6 Of the ielouſie and drunkenneſſe of a woman.

HAppy is the man that hath a vertuous wyfe: for the number of his yeres ſhalbe double. 2 An honeſt woman maketh her huſbande a ioyful man, and ſhe ſhal fil the yeres of his lyfe in peace. 3 A vertuous woman is a noble gift, whiche ſhalbe geuen for a good portion vnto ſuch as feare God: 4 Whether a man be rich or poore, he may haue euer a mery heart, and a chearfull countenaunce.

5 There be three thynges that my heart feareth, and my face is afrayd of the fourth: treaſon in a citie, a ſeditious people, and ſuſpicious tongues: all theſe are heauier then the death.

6 When one woman is ielous ouer an other, it bringeth payne and ſorow vnto the heart: and a woman that telleth out al thinges, is a ſcourge of the tongue. 7 When one hath an euyll wyfe, it is euen as when an vnlyke payre of oxen muſt drawe together: he that getteth her, getteth a ſcorpion.

8 A drunken woman is a great plague: for ſhe can not couer her owne ſhame. 9 The whordome of a woman may be knowen in the pryde of her eyes and eye lidde. 10 If thy daughter be not chaſte, holde her ſtraytely, leſt ſhe abuſe her ſelfe throwe ouer much libertie. 11 Beware of all the diſhoneſtie of her eyes, and marueyle not yf ſhe do againſt thee.

12 As a way faryng man that is thirſtie, when he hath founde a well, drinketh of euery next water: ſo wil ſhe ſit downe by euery hedge, and make her ſelfe common to euery man that paſſeth by. 13 A louing wyfe reioyceth her huſbande, and feedeth his bones with her wyſdome. 14 A woman of ſewe wordes is a gyft of God: to all nurtured myndes may nothyng be compared. 15 An honeſt and manerly woman is a gift aboue other giftes: and there is no wayght to be compared vnto a minde that can rule it ſelfe.

16 Like as the ſunne when it ariſeth is an ornament in the hye heauen of the Lorde: ſo is a vertuous wyfe the beautie of her houſe. 17 Like as the cleare lyght is vpon the holy candelſticke: ſo is the beautie of the face vpon an honeſt body. 18 Like as the golden pillers are vpon the ſockets of ſiluer: ſo are the fayre feete vppon a woman that hath a conſtant myndе.

19 Perpetuall are the foundations that be laide vpō a whole ſtony roche: ſo are the commaundementes of God vppon the heart of an holy woman.

20 There be two thinges that greeue my heart: & in the third is diſpleaſure come vpon me: When an oppreſſe man of warre ſuffereth ſcarcenes and powertie, when men of vnderſtandyng and wyſdome are not let by, and when one departeth from righteouſnes vnto ſinne: who ſo doth ſuche, the Lorde hath prepared hym vnto the ſwoorde.

21 There be two maner of thynges which me thinke to be harde and perilous: A marchaunt can not lyghtly kepe hym from wrong, neither a tauerner hym ſelfe from ſinne.

and the seller. 3 If he holde hym not diligently in the feare of the lorde, his house shall soone be ouerthrowen.

4 Lyke as when one sifteth, the filthinesse remayneth in the sue: so remayneth there some vncleane thyng in the thought of man. 5 The ouen proueth the potters vessell: so doth temptation of trouble trye ryghteous men. 6 The tree of the feelde is knowen by his fruite: so is the thought of mans heart knowen by his wordes.

7 Prayse no man except thou haue hearde hym: for a man is knowen by his wordes. 8 If thou folowest righteousnesse, thou shalt get her, and put her vpon thee as a fayre garment: and thou shalt dwell with her, and she shal defend thee for euer, and in the day of knowledge thou shalt finde stedfastnes. 9 The byrdes resort vnto their lyke: so doth the trueth turne vnto them that be occupied withal. 10 The lion wayteth the praye: so doth sinne vpon them that worke vnryghteousnes. 11 The talking of hym that feareth God, is nothing but wysdome: as for a foole he chaungeth as the moone. 12 If thou be among the vndiscrete, kepe thy wordes to a conuenient time: but among suche as be wise, speake on hardyly. 13 The talkyng of fooles is abhomination, and their sport is voluptuousnes, and misnurture. 14 Much swearing maketh the heere to stande vp: and to stryue with such, stoppeth the eares. 15 The strife of the proude is bloodshedding, and their blaspheming is beaute to heare. 16 Who so discouereth secretes, leeseth his credence, and fyndeth no freende after his wyll. 17 Loue thy freende, and bynde thy selfe in faythfulnes with him: but yf thou bewrayest his secretes, thou shalt not get hym agayne. 18 For lyke as the man is that destroieth his enemie: so is he also that dealeth falsly in the frendshyp of his neyghbour. 19 Lyke as one that letteth a byrde go out of his hande, can not take her agayne: euen so thou, if thou geue ouer thy freende, thou canst not get hym agayne.

20 Yea thou canst not come by hym, for he is to farre of: he is vnto thee as a Roe escaped out of the snare, for his soule is wounded. 21 As for woundes they may be bounde vp agayne, and an euyll worde may be reconciled: but who so bewrayeth the secretes of a freende, there is no more hope to be had vnto hym. 22 He that winketh with the eyes, imagineth some euyll: and he that knoweth him wil let him alone. 23 When thou art present, he shall byghly commende and prayse thy wordes: but at the last he shall turne his tayle, and slaunder thy saying. 24 Many thynges haue I hated, but nothyng so euyll: for the Lorde hym selfe also abhoreth suche a one. 25 Who so casteth a stone an hye, it shall fall vpon his owne head: and he that smiteth with guile, woundeth hym selfe. 26 Who so byggeth a pit shall fall therin, and he that layeth a stone in his neyghbours way, shall stumble thereon, and he that layeth a snare for another, shalbe taken in it hym selfe. 27 Who so geneth a wicked noysome counsayle, it shall come vpon hym selfe, and he shal not knowe from whence. 28 The proud blaspheme and are scorneful: but vengeaunce lurketh for them as a lion.

29 They that reioyce at the fal of the righteous shalbe taken in the snare: anguishe of heart shall consume them before they dye. 30 Anger and ingorousnesse are two abhominable thynges, and the vngodly hath them both vpon hym.

The. xxviii. Chapter.

1 We ought not to desire vengeaunce, but to forgeue the offence. 13 Of the vices of the tongue, and of the daungers therof.

HE that seeketh vengeaunce, shall finde vengeaunce of the Lorde, which shall surely kepe hym his sinnes. 2 Forgeue thy neyghbour the hurt that he hath done thee, and so shall thy sinnes be forgeuen thee also when thou prayest. 3 A man that beareth hatred agaynst another, howe dare he desyre forgeuenesse of God? 4 He that sheweth no mercie to a man which is like him selfe, how dare he aske forgeuenesse of his sinnes? 5 Yf he that is but flesshe, beareth hatred and repeth it, who wil intreate for his sinnes? 6 Remember the end, and let enmitie passe whiche seeketh death and destruction, and abyde thou in the commaundementes.

7 Remember the commaundements, so shalt thou not be rygorous ouer thy neighbour: thinke vpon the conenaunt of the hyghest, and forgeue thy

Prou.26.c. 10 The more wood there is, the more behement is the fire, and the mightier that men be, the greater is the wrath: according to his riches, his anger increaseth, and the longer the strife endureth, the more it burneth. 11 An hastie brawling kindleth a fyre, and an hastie strife sheddeth blood: a tongue also that beareth false witnesse, bringeth death. 12 If thou blowe the sparke it shall burne, if thou spit vpon it, it shall go forth, & both these come out of the mouth. 13 The scaunderer and double tongued is cursed: for many one that be freendes setteth he at variaunce. 14 The * thirde tongue hath disquieted many one, and dryuen them from one lande to another: strong cities of the riche hath it broken downe, and ouerthrowen the houses of great men: the strength of the people hath it brought downe, and ben the decay of mightie nations. 15 The thirde tongue hath cast out many an honest woman, and robbed them of theyr labours. 16 Who so hearkeneth vnto such, shall neuer finde rest, and neuer dwell safely. 17 The stroke of the rod maketh pyntes in the skin: but the stroke of the tongue smyteth the bones in sunder.

1 Howe we ought to lende our money, and do almes. 15 Of a faythfull man aunswering for his freende. 22 Of liberalitie and hospitalitie.

Who so will shewe mercie, let him lende vnto his neyghbour: and he that is able, let him kepe the commaundementes. 2 Lende vnto thy neyghbour in time of his neede, and pay thou thy neyghbour agayne in due season: 3 Kepe thy worde, and deale faythfully with him: and thou shalt alway finde the thyng that is necessarie for thee. 4 There haue ben many that when a thyng was lent them, reckened it to be founde, and made them trauayle and labour that had helped them. 5 Whyle they receaue any thing, they kisse the handes of suche as geue them, and for theyr neyghbours good they humble theyr boyce: but when they shoulde paye again, they kepe it backe, and geue euill wordes, & make many excuses by reason of the time. 6 And though he be able, yet geueth he scarse the halfe again, and reckeneth the other to be founde: and if he withholde not his money, yet hath he an enemie of him, and that vnde serued: he payeth him with cheeking and rebuke, and geueth him euyll wordes for his good deede.

18 (a) The wicked wyll not become suertie, and the vnthankfull and ignorant leaueth his suertie in daunger.

20 Suertiship hath destroyed many a riche man, & remoued them as the waues in the sea: mightie people hath it dryuen away, and caused them to wander in straunge countreys.

21 An vngodly man transgressing the commaundement of the Lorde, shall fall into an euyll suertiship: & though he force him selfe to get out, yet shall he fall into indgement. 22 Helpe thy neyghbour out after thy power, and beware that thou thy selfe fall not in suche debt. 23 The chiefe thing that keepeth thy lyfe, is water, and bread, clothyng, and lodging, to couer the shame. 24 Better is it to haue a poore liuing in a mans owne house, then delicate fare among the straunge. 25 Be it litle or much that thou hast, hold thee content withall: and thou shalt not be blamed as a vagabounde. 26 For a miserable lyfe is it to go from house to house, & where a man is (b) fremde, he dare not open his mouth.

27 Though one be lodged and haue meate and drynke, yet shall he be taken as vnworthy, and heare many bitter rough wordes, (namely thus,)

28 Go thy way thou straunger, and prepare a table for thy selfe, and feede me also of that thou hast. 29 Geue place thou straunger to an honorable man, my brother commeth into my house: and so tellest him the necessitie of his house. 30 These thinges are heauye to a man that hath vnderstandyng, (namely) the forbidding of the house, and that the lender casteth him in the teeth.

The .xxx. Chapter.

1 Of the correction of chyldren. 14 Of the commoditie of health. 17 Death is better then a sorowfull lyfe.

WHo so loueth his childe, holdeth him still vnder correction, that he may haue ioy of him afterwarde, and that he grope not after his neighbours doores. 2 He that teacheth his sonne shall haue ioy in him, and needs not to be ashamed of him among his acquayntaunce. 3 Who so enfourmeth and teacheth his sonne, greeueth the enemie: and before his freendes he may haue ioy of him.

4 Though his father dye, yet is he as though he were not dead: for he hath left one behinde him that is like him. 5 In his lyfe he sawe him and had ioy in him, and was not sorye in his death, neither was he ashamed before the enemies. 6 For he lefte behynde him an auenger against his enemies, and a good doer vnto the freendes. 7 For the life of chyldren he shall bynde the woundes together, and his heart is greeued at euery crie.

8 An vntamed horse wyl be harde, and a wanton childe wylbe wylfull.

9 If thou bring vp thy sonne delicately, he shall make thee afrayde: and yf thou play with him, he shall bryng thee to heauinesse. 10 Laugh not with him, lest thou weepe with him also, and lest thou gnashe with thy teeth at the last. 11 Geue him no libertie in his youth, and excuse not his follie. 12 Bow downe his necke whyle he is young, hyt him vpon the sides whyle he is but a chylde: lest he waxe stubburne, and geue no more force of thee, and so shalt thou haue heauynesse of soule. 13 Teache thy childe, and be diligent therein, lest it be to thy shame. 14 Better is the poore beyng whole and strong, then a man to be riche, and not to haue his health: 15 Health and welfare is aboue all golde, and a whole body aboue all treasure. 16 There is no riches aboue a sounde body, and no ioy aboue the ioy of the heart.

17 Weath is better then a bitter life, and eternall rest better then continuall sickneesse. 18 (a) The good thinges that are put in a close mouth, are lyke as when meate is layde vpon the graue. 19 What good doth the offering vnto an idoll? for he can neither eate, taste, nor smell: euen so is he that is chased of the Lorde, and beareth the rewardes of iniquitie.

1 We ought to geue diligent heede to honestie. 2 Of them that take payne to gather ryches.

1.Tim.vi.b

TRauaile & carefulnesse for riches taketh away the sleepe, and maketh the fleshe to consume.

2 When one lyeth and taketh care, he waketh euer vp, lyke as a great sickenesse dreaketh the sleepe. 3 The rich hath great labour in gathering his ryches together, and then with the pleasure of his ryches he taketh his rest and is refreshed. 4 But who so laboureth and prospereth not, he is poore: and though he leaue of, yet is he a begger. 5 He that loueth riches, Eccle.5.a. shall not be iustified: and who so followeth corruption, shall haue inough thereof. 6 Many one are come in great misfortune by the reason of golde, and haue founde their destruction before them. 7 It is a tree of 25 falling vnto them that offer it vp, and all such as be foolishe fall therein.

8 Blessed is the riche which is found without blemishe, and hath not gone after golde, nor hoped in money and treasures. 9 Where is there suche a one, and we shall commend him and call him blessed? for wonderfull thinges doth he among his people.

10 Who so is tryed and founde perfect in such thinges, shalbe commended and praysed: who might offende, and hath not offended? who coulde do euyll, and hath not done it? 11 Therefore shall his good be stablished, and the whole congregation shall declare his almes. 12 If thou sit at a great mans table, open not thy mouth wyde vpon it, & say not there is much meate on it. 13 Remember that an euyl eye is a thewe: what thing created is worse then a wicked eye? therefore weepeth it before euery mans face?

14 Lay not thyne hande vpon euery thing that thyne eye seeth, and strine not with him in the dishe. 15 Ponder by thy self what thy neighbour would faine haue, and be discrete in euery poynt. 16 Eate thy thing that is set before thee manerlie as it becommeth a man, and eate not to much, lest thou be abhorred. 17 Leaue thou of first of all because of nurture, lest thou be he whom no man may satisfie, whiche may turne to thy decay. 18 When thou sittest among many men, reache not thyne hande out first of all, neither Eccle.37.d. call thou first for drinke. 19 O howe well content is a wyse man with a little wine? so that in sleepe thou shalt not be sicke thereof, nor feele any payne. 20 A sweete holsome sleepe shall such a one haue, and feele no inwarde greefe: he ryseth vp betimes in the morning, and is well at ease in him selfe: but an vnsatiable eater sleepeth vnquietly, and hath ache & payne of the body. 21 If thou feelest that thou hast eaten to much, aryse, go thy way, cast it of thy stomache, and take thy rest: and it shall ease thee, so that thou shalt bring no sicknesse vnto thy body. 22 My son heare me, & despise me not, & at the last thou shalt finde as I haue tolde thee: in all thy workes be diligent & quicke, so shal there no sicknesse happen vnto thee. 23 Who so is liberall in dealing out his meate, many men shall bleese him, and prayse him with their lippes: and the same is a sure token of his loue and faithfulnesse. 24 But he that is vnfaithfull in meate, the whole citie shal complaine of him: and that is a sure experience of his infidelitie and wickednesse. 25 Shew not thy valiantnes in wine, for wine hath destroyed many a man. 26 The fyre proueth the hard iron: euen so doth wine prooue the hearts of the proude, when they Pro.xxii.a be dronken. 27 Wine soberly dronken quickeneth the lyfe of man: yf thou drinkest it measurably, thou shalt be temperate: what is the lyfe of him that is ouercome with wine? what taketh away the lyfe? euen death.

28 Wine was made from the beginning to make men glad, and not for dronckennesse: wine measurably dronken is a reioycing of the soule and body: a measurable drinking is health to soule and body. 29 But yf it be dronken with excesse, it maketh bitternesse and sorowe vnto the

A Deut.17.b Rom.xii.b

IF thou be made a ruler, pride not thy selfe therein, but be thou as one of the people: take diligent care for them, and loke well thereto. 2 And when thou hast done all thy duetie, sit thee downe, that thou mayst be merye with them, and receaue a crowne of honour. 3 Speake thou that art the elder, for it becommeth thee, but with sure knowledge: hinder not musicke.

Eccle. iii.a

4 Speake not where there is no audience: and poure not foorth wisdome out of time at an inportunitie.

5 Lyke as the carbuncle stone shineth that is set in gold: so doth a song garnisshe the wine feast. 6 And as the Smaradge that is set in golde: so is the sweetenes of musickeby the mirth of wine. 7 Geue care and be stil, and for thy good behauour thou shalt be loued. 8 Thou young mā speake that becōmeth thee, and that is profitable, and yet scarse when thou art twyse asked. 9 Comprehend much with fewe wordes, in many thinges be as one that is ignorraunt: geue eare and holde thy tongue withall. 10 If thou be among men of high aucthoritie, desire not to compare thy selfe vnto them: and when an elder speaketh, make not thou many wordes therein.

11 Before the thunder goeth lyghtnyng: and before nurture and shamefastnesse goeth loue and fauour.

12 Stande vp betimes, and be not the last: but get thee home soone,

13 And there take thy pastime, and do what thou wylt: so that thou do no euyll, and defile no man. 14 But for al thinges geue thankes vnto him that hath made thee, and replenished thee with his goodes. 15 Who so feareth the Lorde, wyll receaue his doctrine: and they that get them to him betimes, shall finde grace. 16 He that seeketh the law, shalbe filled withall: as for him that is but fayned, he wyll be offended thereat. 17 They that feare the Lorde, shall finde the iudgement: and their righteousnesse shalbe kindled as a lyght. 18 An vngodly man wyll not be refourmed, but can helpe him selfe with the example of others in his purpose. 19 A man of vnderstandyng despiseth no good counsell: but a wylde and proude body hath no feare, yea euen when he hath dealt rashly with another man: but his owne doinges shalbe his rebuke.

20 My sonne, do nothing without aduisement: so shall it not repent thee after the deede. 21 Go not in the way where thou mayst fall, nor where thou mayst stumble agaynst the stone: agayne, neither trust thou to the way that is playne. 22 And beware of thyne owne chyldren, and take heede of them that be of thyne owne household. 23 In all thy workes put thy trust in God from thy whole heart: for that is the keeping of the commaundementes. 24 Who so beleueth gods worde, taketh heede to the commaundementes: and he that putteth his trust in the Lorde, shall want nothing.

The .xxxiii. Chapter.

1 The deliueraunce of him that feareth God. 12 Man is in the hande of God, as the earth is in the hande of the potter.

THere shall no euyll happen vnto him that feareth God: but when he is in temptation the Lord shal deliuer him, and kepe him from euill.

2 A wyse man hateth not the lawe: but an hypocrite(a) is as a ship in ragyng water. 3 A man of vnderstandyng geueth credence vnto the lawe of God, and the lawe is faithfull vnto him. 4 Be sure of the matter, then talke thereof: be first well instruct, then mayst thou geue aunswere.

5 The heart of the foolishe is lyke a cart wheele, and his thoughtes runne about lyke the axeltree. 6 (b) Lyke as a wylde horse that neyeth vnder euery one that sitteth vpon him, so is it with a scornefull freende. 7 Why doth one day excell an other, seeyng all the dayes of the yere come of the sunne? 8 The wysdome of the Lorde hath so parted them asunder, and so hath he ordayned the tymes and solempne feastes. 9 Some of them hath he chosen and hallowed before other dayes.

10 And all men are of the grounde, and created out of the earth as Adam:

(a) As a ship in the surging wawes without a guide, dasheth against the rockes, or runneth on the sand: so the hypocrite that is not stayde vpon gods worde, is ouerthrowen with euery blast of trouble and temptation.

(b) As a horse caryeth euery man, and yet neyeth after euery mare: so is a scornefull frende that wyl flatter and serue euery man, & yet laugh him to scorn in the multitude of science hath the Lorde sundred them, and made their wayes of diuers fashions. 11 Some of them hath he blessed, made much of them, halowed them, and claymed them to him selfe: but some of them hath he cursed, brought them low, and C put them out of their estate.

12 Lyke as the clay is in the potters handes, and all the ordering thereof at his pleasure: so are men also in the handes of him that made them, to that he may geue them as liketh him best.
13 Against euil is good, and against death is lyfe: so is the vngodlie against such as feare God. 14 Behold these are the workes of the hiest, and there are euen two against two, and one set against another. 15 I am awaked vp last of all, as one that gathereth after in haruest: in the giftes of God and in his blessing I am increased, & haue fylled my wine presse Eccle. 24. D lyke a grape gatherer. 16 Beholde howe I haue not laboured onlye for my selfe, but for all such as loue nurture and wysdome. 17 Heare me, O ye great men of the people, and hearken with your eares ye rulers of the congregatiō. 18 Geue not thy sonne, and wyfe, thy brother, & frende, power ouer thee whyle thou lyuest: and geue not away thy substaunce & good to another, lest it repent thee, and thou be faine to aske of them agayne.
D 19 As long as thou lyuest and hast breath, (c) let no man chaunge thee.
(r) Let no man vse thee as his seruaunt, when thou hast committed all thy goodes into his hande.
20 For better it is thy chyldren to pray thee, then that thou shouldest be fayne to loke in their handes. 21 In all thy workes be excellent, that thy honour be neuer stayned. 22 At the tyme when thou shalt ende thy dayes and finishe thy lyfe, distribute thyne inheritaunces. 23 The fodder, the whippe, and the burthen belongeth vnto the asse: meate, correction, and worke vnto the seruaunt. 24 If thou set thy seruaunt to labour, thou shalt fynde rest: but yf thou let him go idle, he shall seeke libertie. 25 The yoke and the whippe bowe downe the hard necke: but tame thou thy euyll seruaunt with bondes and correction.
26 Sende him to labour, that he go not idle: for idlenesse byngeth much euyll. 27 Set him to worke, for that belongeth vnto him, and becommeth him well. 28 If he be not obedient, binde his feete: but do not to muche vnto him in any wyse, and without discretion do nothyng. 29 If thou haue a (faythfull) seruaunt, let him be vnto thee as thyne owne soule: entreate him as a brother, for in blood hast thou gotten him: yf thou haue a seruaunt, holde him as thy selfe, for thou hast neede of him as of thy selfe.
30 If thou intreatest him euill, and repentest him harde, and makest him to be proude, and to runne away from thee, thou canst not tell what way thou shalt seeke him.

The .xxxiiii. Chapter.

1 Of dreames, diuinations, and enchauntmentes. 6 We ought to confute vayne hope, and lying. 13 The prayse of them that feare God.

VNwyse people beguyle them selues with vayne and deceitfull hope, and fooles trust in dreames. 2 Who so regardeth dreames, is like him that wil take hold of a shadowe, and folowe after the winde.
A * Or, dreames make fooles to haue wings: for honour, ryches, pleasures, and such lyke, are but as dreames, wherein fooles do glorie: for when they awake frō their long sleepe, this thing shalbe banquished cleane away.
B 3 Euen so is it with the appearinges of dreames: before the face is the lykenesse of a face. 4 Who can be cleansed of the vncleane? or what trueth can be spoken of a lyer?
5 Soothsaying, witchcraft, sorcerie, and dreaming is but vayne: lyke as when a woman trauaileth with child, and hath many fantasies in her heart.
6 Where as such visions come not of God, set not thyne heart vppon them. 7 For dreames haue deceaued many a man, and they fayled that put their trust therein. 8 The lawe shalbe fulfylled without lyes, & wysdome is sufficient to a faythfull mouth: what knowledge hath he that is not tryed? 9 A wyse man that is well instruct, vnderstandeth much: and he that hath good experience, can talke of wysdome. 10 He that hath no experience knoweth litle, and he that erreth, causeth much wickednesse: he that is not tryed, what thinges knoweth he? he that hath ben deceaued, is full of subtelties. 11 When I was yet in errour, I learned much also: yea I was so learned, that I coulde not expresse it all. 12 And came oft in perill of death therefore, tyll I was deliuered from it through the grace of God. 13 Nowe I see that they which feare God haue the ryght spirite, for their hope standeth in him that can helpe them: and the eyes of the Lorde are on them that loue him.
C 14 Who so feareth the Lorde, standeth in awe of no man, & is not afraide: for the the Lorde is his hope and comfort.

15 Blessed is the soule of him that feareth the Lord: in whom putteth he his trust? who is his strength? 16 For the eyes of the lord haue respect vnto them that loue him, he is their mighty protection and strong grounde, a defence for the heate, a refuge for the hot noone day, a succour for stumbling, and an helpe for falling 17 He setteth vp the soule, and lighteneth the eyes: he geueth health, lyfe, & blessing.

18 He that geueth an offering of vnrighteous good, his offering is refused: and the scornefull dealinges of the vnrighteous please not God.

19 The Lorde is theirs only that patiently abyde him in the way of the trueth and of righteousnesse. 20 The highest doth not alowe the giftes of the wicked: and God hath no delyght in the offeringes of the vngodly, neither may sinne be reconciled in the multitude of obtations. 21 Who so byngeth an offering out of the goodes of the poore, doth euen as one that killeth the sonne before the fathers eyes.

22 The bread of the needefull is the lyfe of the poore: he that defraudeth him thereof, is a man of blood.

23 Who so robbeth his neighbour of his lyuing, doth as great sinne as though he slue him to death: he that defraudeth the labourer of his hyre, is a blood shedder. 24 When one buyldeth and an other breaketh downe: what profite haue they then but labour? 25(a) When one prayeth and another curseth, whose voyce wyll the Lord heare? 26 He that washeth him selfe because of a dead body, and then toucheth the dead agayne, what doth his washing? 27 So is it with a man that fasteth for his sinnes, and doth them agayne: who wyll heare his prayer? or what doth his fasting helpe him?

The .xxxv. Chapter.

1 It is well done to pray and to do sacrifice, 14 The prayer of the fatherlesse, & of the wydowe, and of him that humbleth him selfe.

WHo so kepeth the lawe, byngeth offeringes enough: he that holdeth fast the commaundement, offereth the ryght health offering.

2 He that is thankfull and recompenceth, offereth fine floure: who so is mercifull and geueth almes, that is the right thanke offering. 3 God hath pleasure when one departeth from sinne: and to forsake vnrighteousnesse, reconcileth vs with him.

4 Thou shalt not appeare emptie before the Lord: 5 For all such is done because of the commaundement of God. 6 The offering of the righteous maketh the aulter fat, and a sweete smell is it before the highest. 7 The offering of the righteous is acceptable vnto God, and shall neuer be forgotten. 8 Geue god his honour with a chearefull heart: and keepe not backe the firstlinges of thyne handes. 9 In all thy giftes shewe a chearefull countenaunce, and halowe thy tythes vnto God with gladnesse. 10 Geue vnto God accordyng as he hath enriched and prospered thee: and loke what thyne hand is able, geue with a chearfull eye. 11 For the Lorde recompenceth, and geueth thee seuen times as much agayne. 12 Geue no vnrighteous gyftes, for such wyll he not receaue: beware of wrong offeringes, for the Lorde is a righteous iudge, and regardeth no mans person. 13 He acceipteth not the person of the poore: but he heareth the prayer of the oppressed. 14 He despiseth not the desire of the fatherlesse, nor the wydowe when she powreth out her prayer before him. 15 Doth not God see the teares that runne downe the cheekes of the wydowe? or heareth he not the complaynt ouer suche as make her to weepe? For from her cheekes do the teares go vp vnto heauen, and the lord which heareth them doth accept them.

16 Who so serueth God after his pleasure, shalbe accepted: and his prayer reacheth vnto the cloudes. 17 The prayer of him that humbleth him self, goeth through the cloudes: tyll she come nye she wyll not be comforted, nor go her way tyll the highest God haue respect vnto her, geue true sentence, and performe the iudgement.

18 And the Lorde wyll not be slacke in comming, nor tary long, tyl he haue smitten in sunder the backes of the vnmercifull, and auenged him selfe of the heathen, tyll he haue taken away the multitude of the cruell, and broken the scepter of the vnrighteous, tyll he gene euery man after his workes, and reward them after their doinges, tyll he haue delyuered his people, maintayned their cause, and reioyced them in his mercie. 19 O how faire a thing is mercie in the time of anguish & trouble! it is like a cloude of rayne that

(a) Whe one riche man hauyng gotten his goodes by robberie, extortion, briberie, or craft, & subtelte, vsurie or simonie, or withholdyng seruauntes or labourers wages, & of that wyll offer a gift vnto God that he may heare his prayer: on the other part, the poore which is oppressed or defrauded, prayeth to God to see and iudge his cause: whose prayer thinke you wyl god most chiefely heare?

4 There is some companion which in prosperitie reioyceth with his freend: but in the time of trouble he taketh part agaynst him. 5 * There is some companion that mourneth with his freende for the bellies sake: but when trouble commeth, he taketh holde of the sheelde. 6 Forget not thy freende in thy minde, and thinke vpon him in thy riches. 7 Seeke no counsell at thy kinsmen, and hide thy counsell from such as beare thee no good will. 8 Euery counseller prayseth his counsell: neuertheless there is some that counselleth but for his owne profite.

18 For of heauines commeth death, the heauineſſe of the heart breaketh ſtrength. 19 Heauineſſe and pouertie, greeueth the heart in temptation and offence. 20 Take no heauineſſe to heart, driue it away, and remember the laſt thinges. 21 Forget it not, for there is no turnyng agayne, thou ſhalt do him no good, but hurt thy ſelfe.

22 Remember his iudgement, thyne alſo ſhalbe lykewyſe: vnto me yeſterday, vnto thee to day. 23 Let the remembraunce of the dead ceaſſe in his reſt, and comfort thee agayne ouer him, ſeeing his ſpirite is departed from him. 24 The wyſdome of the ſcribe is at conuenient time of reſt: and he that ceaſſeth from exerciſes and labour, ſhalbe wyſe. 25 Howe can he get wyſdome that holdeth the plough, and he that hath pleaſure in the goade and in dryuing the oxen, and is occupied in their labours, and his talke is but of the breeding of bullockes? 2.Sam.12.c

26 He ſetteth his heart to make forowes, and is diligent to geue the kine fodder. 27 So is euery carpenter alſo and worke maiſter that laboureth ſtil nighe and day: he carueth, graueth, cuteth out, and his deſyre is in ſundrye cunnyng thinges, his heart imagineth howe he may cunningly caſt an image, his diligence alſo and watching perfourmeth the worke. 28 The iron ſmith in lyke maner byderth by his ſtithie, and doth his diligence to labour the iron: the vapour of the fyre burneth his fleſhe, and he muſt fight with the heate of the fornace: the noyſe of the hammer euer ſoūdeth in his eares, his eyes loke ſtil vpon the thing that he maketh: he hath ſet his mind therevpon that he wyl make out his worke, and therfore he watcheth how he may ſet it out, and dryng it to an ende.

29 So doth the potter ſet by his worke: he turneth the wheele about with his feete, he is diligent and carefull in all poinges, & maketh his worke in number. 30 He faſhioneth the clay with his arme, and with his feete he tempereth it: his heart imagineth howe he may make it pleaſaunt, and his diligence is to cleanſe the ouen. 31 All theſe hope in their handes, and euery one thinketh to be cunnyng in his worke. 32 Without theſe may not the citie be mayntayned, inhabited, nor occupied: 33 Yet come they not bye in the congregation, neither ſit they vpon the iudgement ſeates: they vnderſtand not the couenaunt of the law, they can not declare equitie and iudgement, they can not ſhewe out the darke ſentences. 34 But through them ſhal the creature of the worlde be mayntayned, their deſire concerneth onlye the worke and labour of cunning. The .xxxix. Chapter.

1 A wyſe man. 16 The workes of God, 24 Vnto the good, thinges do profite: but vnto the euil, euen good thinges are euil,

HE that applieth his mynde to vnderſtande the lawe of God, doth diligently ſeeke out the wiſdome of them of the olde time, & exerciſeth him ſelfe in the prophetes. 2 He keepeth the ſayinges of famous men, and preaſeth to the vnderſtanding of darke ſentences of wyſdome. 3 He ſeeketh out the myſterie of ſecrete ſayinges, and exerciſeth him ſelfe therein continually. 4 He doth ſeruice among great men, and appeareth before the prince: he goeth into a ſtraunge countrey, and trauayleth through it: loke what good or euyll is among men, he proueth and ſeeketh it out. 5 He purpoſeth in his heart to reſort early vnto the Lord that made him, and to pray before the higheſt God: he openeth his mouth in prayer, and prayeth for his ſinnes. 6 When the great Lord wyl, he ſhalbe filled with the ſpirite of vnderſtandyng, that he may then powre out wyſe ſentences, and geue thankes vnto the Lorde in his prayer. B

7 He ſhall order his deuiſe, and leade his knowledge a ryght, and geue him vnderſtandyng of ſecrete thinges.

8 He ſhall ſhewe foorth the ſcience of his learning, and reioyce in the couenaunt of the lawe of the Lorde:

9 The whole congregation shal commende his wisdome, and it shal neuer be put out: the remembraunce of him shal neuer be forgotten, and his name shall continue from one generation to another. 10 His wisedome shalbe spoken of among the people, and the whole congregation shall openly declare his prayse. 11 Whyle he liueth, he hath a greater name then a thousande beside: and after death, the same name remayneth vnto him. 12 Yet wyll I speake of mo men of vnderstandyng, for I am full as the moone. 13 Hearken vnto me ye holy vertuous children, bryng foorth fruite as the rose that is planted by the brokes of the feelde. 14 And geue ye a sweet smell as incense, flourishe as the rose garden, syng a song of prayse, O geue thankes vnto God ouer all his workes. 15 Geue magnificence vnto his name, and set him foorth in his praise with your lippes, and with musicke and Harmonie: yea euen with the song of your lippes, with harpes and playing, and in geuyng thankes vnto him say after this maner:

16 All the workes of the Lorde are exceedyng good, and all his cõmaundementes are meete and conuenient in due season. 17 A man neede not to say, what is that? what is that? for at a tyme conuenient they shall all be sought: at his commaundement the water was as a wal, and at the worde of his mouth the water stoode stil.

18 In his commaundement is euery thyng acceptable & reconciled, and his healthy can not be minished. 19 The workes of all flesche are before him, and there is nothyng hyd from his eyes. 20 He seeth from euerlastyng to euerlastyng, and there is nothyng to wonderfull or hye vnto him. 21 A man neede not to say then, What is this, or that? for he hath made all thynges to do good vnto man.

22 His blessyng shall run ouer as the streame, and moysture the earth like a flood of water. 23 Lyke as he maketh the drouth: so shall his wrath fal vpon the heathen. 24 His wayes are playne and ryght vnto the iust: but the vngodly stumble at them.

25 (a) For the good are good thinges created from the begynnyng, and euyl thinges for the vngodly. 26 All thinges necessarie for the lyfe of man are created from the begynnyng: water, fire, iron, and salt, meale, wheate, and hony, mylke, and wine, oyle and clothyng: 27 All these thinges are created for the best to the faythfull: but to the vngodly shall all these thynges be turned to hurt and harme.

28 There be spirites that are created for vengeaunce, and in their rigorousnesse haue they fastened their tormentes: in the tyme of the ende they shal poure out their strength, and * pacifie the wrath of him that made them. Mat. 25. b * Or, accomplishe.

29 Fire, hayle, hunger, and death: all these thinges are created for vengeaunce. 30 The teeth of wylde noysome beastes, the scorpions, serpents, & the swoorde, are created also for vengeaunce to the destruction of the vngodly. 31 They shalbe glad to do his commaundementes, and when neede is, they shalbe redy vpon earth: and when their houre is come, they shall not ouerpasse the commaundement of the Lorde. 32 Therfore haue I taken a good courage vnto me from the begynnyng, & haue thought to put these thinges in writyng, and to leaue them behinde me: 33 All the workes of the Lorde are good, and he geueth euery one in due season, and when neede is.

34 So that no man neede not to say, This is worse then that: for in due season they are all pleasaunt & good.

35 And therfore prayse the Lord with whole heart and mouth, and geue thankes vnto his name.

(a) The creatures of god are good by creation. But as good men vse them to the glorie of god, the profit of others, and their owne necessitie: so the vngodly do not acknowledge them as the good giftes of god, but abuse them either in riot and excesse, or els in miserable kepyng of them, take them for their god.

¶ The. xl. Chapter.

1 Many miseries lyght in a mans lyfe.
11 All thinges passe away, but a firme and stable fayth remayneth. 14 Of the blessyng of the ryghteous, and prerogatiue of the feare of god.

A Great trauaple is created for all men, and an heauy yoke vpon all the sonnes of Adam, from the day that they go out of their mothers wombe, tyl they be buried in (the earth) the mother of all thinges. 2 (Namely) their thoughtes and imaginations, feare of the heart, counsell, meditations, longyng and desire, the day of death: 3 From the hyghest that sitteth vpon the glorious seate, vnto the lowest & most simple vpon the earth. 4 From him that is gloriously arayed and weareth a crowne, vnto him that is but homely and simple clothed.

5 There is nothyng but wrath, zeale, fearfulnesse, vnquietnesse, and feare of death, rigorousnesse, anger, and strife:

strife: and in the nyght when one shoulde rest and sleepe vpon his bed, the sleepe chaungeth his vnderstandyng and knowledge. 6 A litle or nothyng is his rest in the sleepe, as well as in the day of labour: he feareth and is disquieted in the vision of his heart, as one that runneth out of a battel. 7 And in the tyme of health he awaketh, and marueyleth that the feare was nothyng. 8 Such thinges happen vnto all flesshe, both man and beast: but seuen folde to the vngodly.

9 Moreouer, death, bloodsheddyng, strife, and swoorde, oppression, hunger, destruction, and punishment:

10 These thinges are all created agaynst the vngodly, and for their sakes came the flood also. 11 All that is of the earth, shall turne to earth agayne, and all waters ebbe agayne into the sea. 12 All bribes and vnrighteousnes shalbe put away: but faythfulnesse and trueth shall endure for euer. 13 The substaunce and goodes of the vngodly shalbe dryed vp, and sticke away as a water flood, (a) and they shall make a sounde lyke a great thunder in the rayne. 14 Like as the righteous reioyceth when he openeth his hande: so shall the transgressours be fayne when their goodes vanishe and consume away. 15 The children of the vngodly shall not obtayne many braunches: 16 And the vncleane rootes vpon the hie rockes, shalbe rooted out before the grasse by the water side, and vpon the riuer bankes. 17 Freendlynesse and liberalitie in the increase and blessyng of God, is lyke a paradise and garden of pleasure: such mercie also and kindnesse endureth for euer. 18 To labour and to be content with that a man hath, is a sweete pleasaunt lyfe: and that is, to fynde a treasure of all treasures. 19 To beget children and to repaire the citie, maketh a perpetuall name: but an honest woman is more worth then they both. 20 Wine and minstrelsie reioyceth the heart: but the loue of wisedome is aboue them both. 21 Pypyng and harpyng make a sweete noyse: but a freendly tongue goeth beyonde them both.

22 Thyne eye desireth fauour and beautie: but a greene seede tyme, rather then they both. 23 A freende and companion come together at opportunitie: but aboue them both is a wyfe that agreeth with her husbande.

24 Brethren and helpers are profitable in tyme of trouble: but almes shall deliuer more then they both.

25 Golde and siluer fasten the feete: but a good counsell is more pleasaunt then they both. 26 Temporall substaunce and strength lift vp the mynd: but the feare of the Lorde more then they both: the feare of the Lorde wanteth nothyng, and needeth no helpe.

27 The feare of the Lorde is a pleasaunt garden of blessyng, and nothyng so beautifull as it is. 28 My sonne leade not a beggers lyfe: for better it were to dye then to begge. 29 The lyfe of him that loketh vpon another mans table, is not to be counted for a lyfe, for he defyleth his soule in other mens meate: but a wise and well nurtured man will beware thereof.

30 Beggyng is sweete in the mouth of the vnshamefast: but in his belly there burneth a fire.

¶ The.xli. Chapter.

1 Of the remembraunce of death.
3 Death is not to be feared. 8 A curse vpon them that forsake the law of God.

O Death (a) howe bitter is the remembraunce of thee to a man that seeketh rest and comfort in his substaunce and riches, vnto the man that hath nothyng to vexe him, & that hath prosperitie in all thinges, yea vnto him that yet is able to receaue meate? 2 O death, howe acceptable and good is thy iudgement vnto the needefull, and vnto him whose strength fayleth, and that is nowe in his last age, and that in all thinges is full of care and fearfulnesse, vnto him also that is in dispaire, and hath no hope nor patience? 3 Be not thou afraide of death, remember them that haue ben before thee, and that come after thee: this is the iudgement of the Lorde ouer all flesshe. 4 And why wouldest thou be agaynst this pleasure of the hyghest? Whether it be ten, an hundred, or a thousande yeres, death asketh not howe long one hath lyued. 5 The children of the vngodly are abominable children, and so are they that kepe companie with the vngodly. 6 The inheritaunce of vngodly children shall come to naught, and their posteritie shall haue a perpetuall shame and confusion. 7 The children complayne of an vngodly father: and why? for his sake they are rebuked and dispised. 8 Wo be vnto you, O ye vngodly, which haue forsaken

(a) Temporal death is bitter to foure sortes of men: one to infidels that loke for no lyfe after this: seconde to them that set their pleasure in their riches from whence they nowe must needes depart: thirde to them that neuer tasteth of the crosse: fourth, to them that be strong and lusty in body, for that they strongly struggle with death: but sweete vnto the contrarie.

ſaken the lawe of the hyghest God: for though ye do encreaſe, yet ſhall you periſhe. 9 If ye do lyue, ye ſhalbe accurſed: yf ye dye, the curſe ſhalbe your portion. 10 All that is of the earth, ſhall turne to earth agayne: ſo go the vngodly alſo out of the curſe into deſtruction. 11 Though men mourne for their body: yet the name of the vngodly ſhall be put out, for it is nothyng worth. 12 Labour to get thee a good name: for that ſhall continue ſurer by thee then a thouſande great treaſures of golde. 13 A good lyfe hath a number of dayes: but a good name endureth euer. 14 My childzen kepe wiſedome in peace: for wiſedome that is hyd & a treaſure that is not ſeene, what profite is in them both? 15 A man that hydeth his foolyſhnelle, is better then a man that hyderh his wiſedome. 16 Therfore be ye turned at my wordes: for it is not good in all thynges and alway to be aſhamed: (a) true fayth muſt proue and meaſure it. 17 Be aſhamed of whordome before father and mother: be aſhamed to leaſyng before the prince and men of auctorite: 18 Of ſinne, before the iudge and ruler: of offence, before the congregation and people: of vnrighteouſnelle, before a companion and freende: 19 Of theft, before thy neyghbours: as for the trueth of God and his couenaunt, be not aſhamed therof: (b) be aſhamed to lye with thine elbowes vpō the bread, or to be reproued for geuing or taking, 20 And of ſilence vnto them that ſalute thee: be aſhamed to loke vpon harlotes: 21 Be aſhamed to turne away thy face from thy kinſeman, be aſhamed "to take and not to geue, 22 Be aſhamed alſo to loke vpon another mans wife, and to make many trifling wordes with her mayden, or to ſtande by her bed ſide. 23 Be aſhamed to vpbrayde thy freende: when thou geueſt any thyng, caſt him not in the teeth withall, 24 Or to repeat the matter that thou haſt heard, or to diſcloſe the ſecrete wordes: ſo ſhalt thou well be ſhamefaſte, and ſhalt fynde fauour with all men.

¶ The. xlii. Chapter.

1 The lawe muſt be taught, 9 A daughter, 14 A woman. 18 God knoweth all thynges, yea euen the ſecretes of the heart.

OF theſe thynges be not aſhamed, and accept no perſon to offende. (Namely of theſe thynges be not aſhamed:) 2 Of the lawe of God, of the couenaunt, of iudgement to byng the vngodly from his vngodlynelle vnto rygh teouſnelle, and to make him a good man, 3 To deale faythfully with thy neyghbour and companion, to diſtribute the heritage vnto the freendes: 4 To be diligent to kepe true meaſure and wayght: to be content whether thou getteſt much or litle: 5 To deale truely with temporall goodes in byng and ſellyng, to byng vp childzen with diligence, to correct an euyll ſeruaunt: 6 To kepe that thyne is from an euyll wyfe, to ſet a locke where many handes are:

7 What thou deliuereſt and geueſt out to be kept, to tell it, and to wey it: to write vp all thy outgeuyng and receauyng: 8 To enfourme the vnlearned and vnwiſe, & of the aged that are iudged of the young: yf thou be diligent in theſe thinges, truely thou ſhalt be learned and wyſe, and accepted of all men. 9 The daughter maketh the father to watche ſecretly, and the carefulneſſe that he hath for her taketh away his ſleepe, yea in her youth, leſt ſhe ſhould ouergrowe him, and when ſhe hath an huſband leſt ſhe ſhoulde be hated: 10 Leſt ſhe ſhoulde be defiled or rauiſhed in her virginitie, or gotten with childe in her fathers houſe: or when ſhe commeth to the man, leſt ſhe behaue her ſelfe not ryght, or continue vnfruitefull.

11 If thy daughter be wanton, kepe her ſtraytly, leſt ſhe cauſe thine enemies to laugh thee to ſcorne, and the whole citie to gene thee an euyll reporte: and ſo thou be faine to heare thy ſhame of euery man, and be confounded before all the people. 12 Beholde not euery bodyes beautie, and haue not much dwelling among women. Eccle. 19.

all his wonderous worke which the Almightie Lorde hath stablished? all thinges endure in his glorie. 18 He seketh out the grounde of the deepe, and the heart of men, and he knoweth all their imaginations and wisdome: for the Lorde knoweth all science, and he loketh into the token of the tyme. 19 He declareth the thinges that are past and for to come, and discloseth thinges that are secrete. 20 No thought may escape him, neither may any worde be hyd from him. 21 He hath garnished the hye excellent workes of his wisdome, and he is from everlastyng to everlastyng: vnto him may nothyng be added, neither can he be minished, he hath no neede also of any mans counsel. 22 O howe amiable are all his workes, and as a sparke to loke vpon? 23 They lyue all, and endure for euer: and when so euer neede is, they are all obedient vnto him. 24 They are all double one agaynst another: he hath made nothyng that hath fault or blemishe. 25 He hath stablished the goodes of euery one: (a) and who may be satisfied with his glorie when he seeth it?

(a) As who shoulde say, no man, for where Dauid saith psa. 17. The summe of the creation of the workes of god.

THe glorie of the heyght is the faire and cleare firmament, the beautie of the heauen is his glorious clearnesse. 2 The sunne when it appeareth, declareth the day in the goyng out of it, a marueylous worke of the hyghest. 3 At noone it burneth the earth, and who may abyde for the heate thereof? 4 Who so kepeth an ouen when it is hot, three tymes more doth the sunne burne vpon the mountaynes: when it breatheth out the fierie beames & shineth, with the bryghtnesse of it it blyndeth the eyes. 5 Great is the Lorde that made it, and in his commaundement he causeth it to run hastyly. 6 The moone also in all thynges accordyng to her season is a declaration of the tyme, and a signe for the worlde.

7 The token of the solempne feast is taken of the moone, a lyght that minisheth and increaseth agayne. 8 The moneth is called after the moone, it groweth wonderoully in her chaungyng. 9 The armie of heauen also is in the heyght: in the firmament of heauen it geueth a cleare and a glorious shine: this is the clearnes of the starres, the beautiful apparel of heauē, the apparel that the Lorde lightneth in the heyght. 10 In his holy worke they continue in their order, and not one of them fayleth in his watche.

11 Loke vpon the raynebowe, and prayse him that made it: very beautiful is it in his shine. 12 He compasseth the heauen about with a glorious circle, the handes of the hyghest haue bended it. 13 Through his commaundement he maketh the snowe to fall, and the thunder of his iudgement to smyte hastyly. 14 Through his commaundement the treasures are opened, & the cloudes flee as the foules.

15 In his power hath he strengthened the cloudes, and broken the hayle stones. 16 The mountaynes "leape at the sight of him, the winde bloweth accordyng to his wyl. 17 The sounde of his thunder beateth the earth, and so do the storme of the north: the whirle wynde also lyghteth downe as a fethered foule, casteth out and spreadeth the snowe abrode, and as the grashoppers that destroy all, so falleth it downe. 18 The eye marueyleth at the beautie of the whytenesse thereof, and the heart is afrayde at the rayne of it. 19 He powreth out the frost vpon earth lyke salt, and when it is frosen, it is as sharpe as the pricke of a thistle. 20 When the colde northy wynde bloweth, harde Christal commeth of the water: he lyghteth downe vpon all the gatherynges together of water, and putteth on the water as a brestplate.

21 He deuoureth the mountaynes, and burneth the wildernesses: and loke what is greene, he putteth it out lyke fire. 22 The medicine of all these is, when a cloude commeth hastyly, and when a deawe commeth vpon the heate, it shalbe refreshed agayne. 23 In his worde he stylleth the winde, in his counsel he appeaseth the deepe, and hath planted Iles in it.

24 They that sayle ouer the sea, tell of the perils and harmes thereof, and when we heare it with our eares, we marueyle therat. 25 For there be straunge wonderous workes, diuers maners of ryce beastes, and whale fishes. 26 Through him are all thinges set in good order & performed, & in his worde al thinges endure. 27 I speake much, but I can not sufficiently attrayne vnto it: for he him selfe only is the perfection of all workes.

there were some whose remembraunce is gone, they came to naught and perished as though they had neuer ben, and became as though they had neuer ben borne, yea & their children also with them. 10 Neuertheles these are louing men, whose righteousnes shall neuer be forgotten, but continue by their posteritie. 11 Their children are an holy good heritage: their seede endured fast in the couenaunt. 12 For their sakes shall their children and seede continue for euer, and their prayse shall neuer be put downe. 13 Their bodyes are buryed in peace, but their name liueth for euermore. 14 The people can speake of their wisdome, & the congregation can talke of their prayse. 15 Enoch walked vpright and acceptably before the Lorde, therfore was he translated for an example of amendement to the generations. 16 Noe was a stedfast and righteous man, and in the tyme of wrath he became a reconcilyng: therfore was he left a remnaunt vnto the earth when the flood came. 17 An euerlastyng couenaunt was made with him, that all flesche should perishe no more with the water. 18 Abraham was a great father of many people, in glorie was there none like vnto him. 19 He kept the lawe of the hyest, and came into a couenaunt with him. 20 He set the couenaunt in his flesche, and when he was proued he was founde faythfull. 21 Therfore swore God vnto him with an oth, that he would blesse all people in his seede, that he would multiplie and increase him as the dust of the earth, and to exalt his seede as the starres: yea and that his seede should haue the possession and inheritaunce of the lande from sea to sea, and from the riuer vnto the borders of the worlde. 22 With Jsahac did he stablishe the same couenaunt for Abraham his fathers sake: yea that gratious blessing and health of all men, and couenaunt did he stablishe with Jsahac, and made it rest vpon the head of Jacob.

1 The prayse of Moyses, 6 Aaron, and Phinehes.

MOyses beloued of God and men, whose remembraunce is in hye prayse: 2 Him that the Lorde made like in the glory of the saintes, and magnified him, so that the enemies stoode in awe of him.

3 Through his wordes he dyd great wonders: he made him glorious in the sight of kinges, gaue him commaundement before his people, and shewed him glorious power. 4 He stablished him with faythfulnesse and meeknesse, and chose him out of all men.

men. 5 For he heard his voyce, and he led him in the darke cloude, and there he gaue him the commaundementes, yea the lawe of lyfe and wisdome: that he might teache Jacob the couenaunt, and Israel his lawes.

6 He chose Aaron his brother also out of the tribe of Leui, exalted him, and made him such lyke. 7 An euerlastyng couenaunt made he with him, and gaue him the priesthood in the people: he made him glorious in beautifull aray, and clothed him with the garment of honour. 8 He put perfect ioy vpon him, and girded him with strength, he decht him with fyne clothes and a tunicle, with an ouerbody coate also, and a girdle.

Exod.28.f

9 Rounde about made he him belles of golde, and that many: that when he went in, the sounde myght be heard, that they myght make a noyse in the sanctuarie, and geue the people warnyng. 10 The holy garment was wrought and bordered with golde, yelowe silke, and purple: and in the brestlap there was a goodly worke, wherin was fastened iyght and perfectnesse. 11 Upon the same also there was a worke fastened and set with costly precious stones all bound with golde, and this he brought in his ministration: the stones were fastened for a remembraunce, after the number of the twelue tribes of Israel. 12 Upon his miter there was a plate of pure golde, a grauen image of holynesse, a famous & noble worke, garnished, and pleasaunt to loke vpon.

Exod. 4.c

13 Before him were there seene no such faire ornamentes, and these it behoued him alway to vse: there myght none other put them on, but only his children, and his childrens children perpetually. 14 Dayly performed he his burnt offerynges two tymes.

15 Moyses fylled(a) his handes, and annoynted him with holy oyle: this was nowe confirmed him with an euerlastyng couenaunt, and to his seede as the dayes of heauen, namely that his children should alway minister before him, and perfourme the office of the priesthood, and wisshe the people good in his name. 16 Before all men lyuyng chose he him, that he should offer incense before the Lorde, and make odours for a sweete sauour and remembraunce, that he should reconcile the people of the Lorde with him agayne. 17 He gaue him auctoritie also in his commaundementes and in the couenaunt, that he should teache Jacob the statutes and testimonies, & to enfourme Israel in the law.

Leuit.8.a (a) That was, either to put into his hand the booke of the law written to reade vnto the people, or els some sacrifice that he myght offer vnto god for their offences.

18 Therfore there stoode vp certayne agaynst him, and had enuie at him in the wildernes: namely they that were of Dathan & Abirons syde, and the furious congregation of Core. 19 This the Lorde sawe, and it displeased him, and in his wrathful indignation were they consumed: a great wonder did he vpon them, and consumed them with the flesh. 20 Besides this, he made Aaron yet more honorable & glorious, he gaue him an heritage, and parted the first fruites vnto him: vnto him specially he appoynted the bread of sustenaunce. 21 For the priestes dyd eate of the offerynges of the Lorde: this gaue he vnto him and his seede.

MAnly and strong in battayle was Jesus the sonne of Naue, and was the successour of Moyses in prophecies, & was geuen to be captayne of the people, which accordyng vnto his name was a great sauiour vnto the elect of God, to punishe the enemies that rose vp agaynst Israel, that Israel myght obtayne their inheritaunce. 2 O howe great, noble, & excellent excellent was he, when he lyft vp his hande, and drue out his swoꝛde against the cities? 3 Who stoode so manly before him? for the Lorde him selfe brought in the enemies? 4 Stoode not the sunne styll at his commaun-dement, and one day was as long as two? 5 He called vpon the hyest and most mightie when the enemies preassed vpon him on euery syde, and the mightie Lorde heaꝛde him with the hayle stones. 6 They smote the heathenishe people mightyly, and in fallyng downe they slue all the aduer-saries: so that the heathen knewe his honst, and all his defence, that the Lorde him selfe fought agaynst them:

for he folowed vpon the mightie men of them. 7 In the tyme of Moyses also, he and Caleb the sonne of Jephunne did a good woꝛke, which stoode agaynst the enemies, withholde the people from sinne, and stylled the wicked murmuryng. 8 And of sixe hundꝛed thousande people of foote, they two were preserued to bꝛyng them into the heritage, namely, a lande that floweth with mylke and hony.

9 The Lorde gaue strength also vnto Caleb, which remayned with him vnto his age: so that he went vp into the hye places of the lande, and his seede conquered the same for an heritage:
10 That all the children of Israel myght see how good a thyng it is to be obedient vnto the Lorde. 11 And the iudges or rulers euery one after his name, whose heart went not a whoꝛyng nor departed from the Lorde, and that forsooke not the Lorde vnfaythfully, whose remembꝛaunce hath a good reporte. 12 yea their bones flouryshe out of their place, and their names shall neuer be chaunged: but honour remayneth styll with the children of those holy men.

13 Samuel the prophete, beloued of the Lorde his God, ordayned a king, and annoynted the princes ouer the people. 14 In the lawe of the Lorde ruled he, and iudged the congregation, and the Lord had respect vnto Jacob.
15 The prophete was founde diligent in his faythfulnesse: yea and he is knowen faythfull in his woꝛdes, because he sawe the God of lyght.
16 He called vpon the Lorde Almigh-tie when the enemies preassed vpon him on euery syde, what tyme as he offred the sucking lamme. 17 And the Lord thundered from heauen, & made his voyce to be heaꝛde with a great noyse. 18 He discomfited the princes of Tyre, and all the rulers of the Philistines. 19 Before his last ende, he made protestation in the sight of the Lord and his annoynted, that he toke neither substaunce nor good of any man, no not so much as a shoe: and no man might accuse him. 20 After this he tolde that his ende was at hande, and shewed the king also his ende and death: and from the earth lyft he vp his voyce in the prophecie, that the vngodly people shoulde perishe.

1 The prayse of Nathan, 2 Dauid, 12 and Solomon.

AFterwarde in the tyme of king Dauid there rose vp a prophete called Nathan. 2 For lyke as the fat is taken away from the offeryng: so was Dauid chosen out of the children of Israel. 3 He played with the lions as with kiddes, and with beares lyke as with lammes of sheepe. 4 Slewe he not a giaunt when he was yet but young, and toke away the rebuke from his people, what tyme as he toke the stone in his hande, and smote downe proude Goliath with the slyng?
5 For he called vpon the hyest Lorde, which gaue him strength in his ryght hand, so that he ouerthrewe the mightie giaunt in the battell, that he might set vp the horne of his people againe.
6 So he glorified him in ten thousande, and made him to haue a good report in the prayse of the Lorde, that he shoulde weare a crowne of glorie.
7 For he destroyed the enemies on euery syde, rooted out the Philistines his aduersaries, and brake their horne in sunder, like as it is broken yet this day. 8 In all his woꝛkes he praysed the hyest and holyest, and ascribed the honour vnto him: with his whole heart dyd he prayse the Lorde, and loued God that made him. 9 He set singers also before the aulter, and in their tune he made sweete songes, that they myght geue prayses euery day to god with songes. 10 He ordayn-ned to kepe the holy dayes woꝛshipful-ly, & that the solempne feastes through the whole yere shoulde be honorably holden with prayesing the name of the Lorde, & with singing betymes in the mornyng in the sanctuary. 11 The Lorde toke away his sinnes, & exalted his horne for euer: he gaue him the

¶ The.xlviii. Chapter.

The prayse of Elias, Elizeus, Ezechias, and Esaias.

THen stoode vp Elias the prophete as a fire, and his worde burnt like a creslet. 2 He brought an hunger vpon them, and in his zeale he made them fewe in number: for they myght not away with the commaundementes of the Lorde. 3 Through the worde of the Lorde he shut the heauen, and three tymes brought he the fire downe. 4 O Elias, howe honorable art thou in thy wonderous deedes! who may make his boast to be lyke thee? 5 One that was dead thou rayledst vp from death, and in the worde of the hyest thou brought-est him out of the graue agayne.
6 Thou hast cast downe kinges and destroyed them, and the honorable from their seate. 7 Vpon the mount Sina thou hearedst the iudgement, and vpon Horeb the iudgement of the vengeaunce: 8 Which diddest an-noynt kinges to recompence, and or-daynedst prophetes after thee.
9 Thou wast taken vp in the storme of fire, in a charret of fierie horses.
10 Thou wast ordayned in the reprouynges in tyme to pacifie the wrath of the Lorde before it raged, to turne the heartes of the fathers vnto the children, and to set vp the tribes of Iacob agayne. 11 Blessed were they that sawe thee, and were garnished in loue, for we lyue in lyfe: but after death we shall haue no such name.
12 Elias was couered in the storme, but Elizeus was fylled with his spi-rite: while he liued he was afrayde of no prince, and no man myght ouer-come him. 13 There coulde no worde deceaue him, & after his death his body prophecied. 14 He did wonders in his life, and in death were his workes marueylous. 15 For all this the people amended not, neither departed they from their sinnes, tyll they were caryed away prisoners out of the lande, and were scattered abrode in all countreys, so that of the there remayned but a very litle people, & a prince vnto the house of Dauid. 16 Howbeit some of them did right, and some heaped vp vngodlynes. 17 Ezechias made his citie strong, conueyed water into it, digged through the stony roche with iron, and made vp a wall by the water syde. 18 In his tyme came Sennacherib vp, and sent Rabsakes,

¶ A neceſſarie Table for the knowledge of the ſtate of Iuda, from the begynning of the Monarchie of the Grekes, (where the Table that we haue ſet foorth vpon Eſdras endeth) vntyll the death and paſſion of Ieſus Chriſte.

The .70. weekes forethewed. Dan. 9 — The monarchie of the Grekes. — The ſtate of the Iewes.

The angel of the lord ſent to Daniel, ſaid that it was .70. weekes of yeres, that is to ſay .70. times ſeuen, whiche commeth to .490. from the geuing foorth of the commaundement that Hieruſalem ſhould be builded againe and reſtored, vntil Chriſte the prince. This commaundement was geuen foorth by the mouth of Darius longhande, monarche of the Perſians, the yere of his raigne as it is written in Nehemias. 2. Therefore the ſaide .70. weekes ought to begyn there, though all agree not therin: for ſome begyn it in the .2. yere of the ſaid Darius the other the firſt yere of Cyrus. So that from the begynnyng of the ſaid weekes, tyl the time that Alexander diſurped the monarchie, we recken .4. yeres and .18. weekes, whiche maketh .130. yeres. To ſhewe the verifyng of the ſaid weekes accordyng to the aforeſaide prophecie of Daniel the .9. we wyll proportion them with the yeres in which the kinges of Syria (ſet here in order on the ryght ſide) haue ended their kingdome eche of them in order.

Alexander the great, ſonne to Philip king of Macedo, conquered the monarchie of the Perſians from Darius, the .192. yere of Cyrus the firſt monarche, and tranſported it to the Grekes; he raigned .6. whole yeres, & the ſeuenth dyed, leauing diuers ſucceſſors, to whom he diuided the ſayde monarchie before his death: that is, the kingdomes of Syria, Aſia, Egypt, and Macedonia. We wyll here treate of his ſucceſſors the kinges of Syria only, becauſe the ſcripture maketh mention thereof, and maketh the ſupputation of the yeres by the time that the ſaid kinges raigned, beginning at the firſt: as appeareth in the firſt booke of Machabees. And we wyll orderlie ſet their names, and the tyme that eche of them hath raigned, to conferre them with the number of the weekes placed on the left ſyde of this Table, to the ende that the ſayde weekes may be verified, and that the propheſie of Daniel may be plainelye vnderſtood touchyng the comming and death of our ſauiour Chriſte.

The first Chapter.

1 After the death of Alexander the kyng of Macedonia,
11 Antiochus taketh the kyngdome.

A Fter that Alexander kyng of Macedonia sonne of Philipp went forth of the lande of " Cethim, and (a) slewe Darius kyng of the Persians & Medes, & raigned for him as he had done before in Grecia: 2 It happened that he tooke great warres in hand, wanne very many strong cities, and slue many kinges of the earth, 3 Going throughout to the endes of the world, and getting many spoyles of the people, insomuch that the whole worlde stoode in awe of him, and therefore was he proude in his heart. 4 (b) Nowe when he had gathered a mighty strong hoast, 5 And subdued the landes and people with their princes, so that they became tributaries vnto him, 6 Then he fell sicke, and when he perceaued that he must needes dye,

7 He called for his noble estates, whiche had ben brought vp with him of chyldren, and parted his kyngdome among them whyle he was yet alyue.

8 So Alexander raigned twelue yeres, and then dyed. 9 (c) After his death fell the kingdome vnto his princes, and they obtayned it euery one in his roome, 10 And caused them selues to be crowned as kinges: and so dyd their chyldren after them many yeres, and much wickednes increased in the worlde. 11 Out of theſe came the vngracious roote " noble Antiochus, the sonne of Antiochus the king which had ben a pledge at Rome: and he raigned in the hundred thirtie and seuen yere of the empire of the Grekes. 12 (d) In those dayes went there out of Israel wicked men, whyche moued much people with their counsell, saying, Let vs go and make a couenaunt with the heathen that are rounde about vs: for since we departed from them, we haue had much sorowe. 13 So this deuice pleased them well. 14 (e) And certayne of the people toke vpon them for to go vnto the kyng, whyche gaue them licence to do after the ordinance of the heathen. 15 (f) Then set they vp an open schoole at Hierusalem of the lawes of the heathen: 16 (g) And made them selues vncircumcised, but forsooke the holy testament, and ioyned them selues to the heathen, and were cleane solde to do mischiefe.

17 So when Antiochus began to be mighty in his kingdome, he went about to obtayne the lande of Egypt also, that he might haue the dominion of two realmes. 18 Upon this entred he into Egypt with a strong hoast, with charets, Elephantes, horsmen, and a great number of shippes. 19 (h) And began to warre agaynst Ptolome the kyng of Egypt: but Ptolome was afraid of him, and fled, & many of his people were wounded to death. 20 Thus Antiochus wan many strong cities, in Egypt, and toke away great good out of the land of Egypt. 21 And after that Antiochus had smitten Egypt, he turned agayne in the hundred fourtie and thyrde yere, and went towarde Israel, 22 And came vp to Hierusalem with a mighty people, 23 And entred proudely into the sanctuarie, and toke away the golden aulter, the candelsticke, and all the ornamentes thereof, the table of the shewbread, the pouring vessels, the chargers, the golde spoones, the vayle, the crownes, and golden apparell of the temple, and hake downe all in peeces. 24 He toke also the syluer and gold, the precious iewels, and the secret treasures that he founde.

25 And when he had taken away altogether, caused a great murther of men, and spoken very proudly, he departed into his owne lande. 26 Therefore there was great lamentation throughout all Israel. 27 The princes & the elders of the people mourned, the young men and the maydens were " defiled, and the fayre beautie of women was chaunged, 28 The bridegrome & the bride toke them to mourning. 29 The lande and those that dwelt therein was moued: for all the house of Jacob was brought to confusion. 30 (i) After two yeres the kyng sent his chiefe treasurer vnto the cities of Juda, which came to Hierusalem with a great multitude of people, 31 Speaking peaceable wordes vnto them, but all was deceite: for when they had geuen him credence,

32 He fell sodenly vpon the citie, and smote it sore, and destroyed much people of Israel: 33 And when he had spoyled

spoyled the citie, he set fyre on it, casting downe houses and walles on euery side. 34 The women and their chyldren toke they captiue, and led away their cattell. 35 Then buylded they the citie of Dauid with a great and thicke wall, & with mightie towers, and made it a strong holde for them. 36 Beside al this, they set wicked people and vngodly men to kepe it, 37 Stored it with weapons and victuales, gathered the goodes of Hierusalem, and layde them vp there: thus became it a theeuishe castell.

38 Thus they became a heauy burthen, laying wayte for the people that went into the sanctuarie, and for the cruel destruction of Israel. 39 Thus they shed innocent blood on euery side of the sanctuarie, and defiled it:

40 Insomuch that the citezins were faine to depart, and the citie became an habitation of straungers, being desolate of her owne seede: for her owne natiues were faine to leaue her.

41 Her sanctuarie was cleane wasted, her holy dayes were turned into mourning, her sabbathes were had in derision, and her honour brought to naught. 42 (k) Loke how great her glory was before, so great was her confusion, and her ioy turned into sorowe. 43 Antiochus also the kyng sent out a commission vnto all his kyngdome, that all the people should be one. 44 Then they left euery man his lawe, and al the heathen agreed to the commaundement of kyng Antiochus: 45 Yea, many of the Israelites consented therevnto, offering vnto idols, and defiling the sabbath.

46 So the kyng Antiochus sent his messengers with his commission vnto Hierusalem, and to all the cities of Iuda, that they should folowe the lawes of the heathen: 47 And forbad the whole burnt offering, meate offering, or peace offering to be made in the temple of God, and that there should no sabbath nor hie feast day be kept: 48 But commaunded that the sanctuarie and the holy people of Israel should be defiled: 49 He commaunded also, that there should be set vp aulters, temples, and idols, to offer vp swines flesh, and vncleane beastes, 50 That men should leaue their chyldren vncircumcised, to defile their soules with all manner of vncleanneslie and abhominations: 51 That they myght so forget the lawe, and chaunge all the holy ordinaunces of God, 52 And that whosoeuer would not accordyng to the commaundement of kyng Antiochus, should suffer death. 53 In like maner commaunded he throughout al his realme, and set rulers ouer the people, for to compel them to do these thinges: 54 Commaundyng all the cities of Iuda to do sacrifice (vnto idols.) 55 Then went the people vnto the heathen by heapes, forsoke the lawe of the Lorde, and committed much euill in the lande: 56 And they droue the Israelites into secrete places, euen where so euer they coulde flee for succour. 57 The fifteenth day of the moneth Casleu, in the hundred threescore and fifty yere, set kyng Antiochus an abhominable idol of desolation vpon the aulter of God, and they buylded aulters throughout all the cities of Iuda on euery side,

64 Not only that, but they hanged vp the children by the necke throughout all their houses, and slue the circumcisers of them. 65 Yet were there many of the people of Israel, which determined in them selues that they would not eate vncleane things: but chose rather to suffer death, then to be defiled with vncleane meates:

66 So because they would not breake the blessed lawe of God, they were cruelly slayne. 67 And this great tyranny encreased very sore vpon the people of Israel.

The .ii. Chapter.

1 The mournyng of Mathathias and his sonnes for the destruction of the holy citie.

A IN those dayes there dyd stande vp one Mathathias the sone of John, the sonne of Simeon the priest, out of the kinred of Joarib, from Hierusalem, and dwelt vppon the mount of Modin, 2 And had fiue sonnes: John, called Gaddis, 3 Simon called Thassi, 4 Judas, otherwyse called Machabeus, 5 Eleazer, otherwyse called Abaron, and Jonathan whose surname was Apphus. 6 These saw the euyll that was done among the people of Juda and Hierusalem.

7 And Mathathias sayd, Wo is me, alas that euer I was borne, to see this miserie of my people, and the pitteous destruction of the holy citie, B and thus to sit so still, it beyng deliuered into the handes of the enemies. 8 Her sanctuarie is come into the power of straungers, her temple is as it were a man that hath lost his good name: 9 Her precious ornamentes are caryed away captiue, her olde men are slayne in the stretes, & her young men are fallen thyough the swoorde of the enemies. 10 What people is it that hath not some possession in her kyngdome? or who hath not gotten some of her spoyles? 11 All her glorie is taken away, she was a free woman, and now she is become an handmayde. 12 Beholde our sanctuarie, our beautie and honour is wasted away, and defiled by the gentiles.

13 What helpeth it vs then to lyue? 14 And Mathathias rent his clothes, he and his sonnes, and put sackecloth vpon them, and mourned very sore.

15 Then came the men thyther whiche were sent of kyng Antiochus, to C compell such as were fled into the citie of Modin for to do sacrifice, & to burne incense vnto idols, and to forsake the lawe of God. 16 So many of the people of Israel consented and enclined vnto them: but Mathathias and his sonnes remayned stedfast.

17 Then spake the commissioners of king Antiochus, & saide vnto Mathathias, Thou art a noble man, of hye reputation, and great in this citie, hauing many fayre chyldren & brethren. 18 Come thou therfore first & fulfill the kinges commaundement, like as all the heathen haue done, yea and the men of Juda, and such as remayne at Hierusalem: so shalt thou & thy chyldren be in the kinges fauour, & enriched with golde, siluer, and great rewardes. 19 Mathathias answered, and spake with a loud voyce, Though all nations obey the king Antiochus, and fal away euery man from keping the lawe of their fathers, though they consent to his commaundementes:

20 (a) Yet wyl I and my sonnes and my brethren not fall from the lawes of our fathers. 21 God forbid we shoulde: that were not good for vs that we should forsake the lawe & ordinaunces of God, and to agree vnto the commaundement of king Antiochus. 22 Therefore we wyll do no such sacrifice, neither breake the statutes of our lawe, to go another way. 23 And when he had spoken these wordes, there came one of the Jewes, which openly in the sight of all dyd sacrifices vnto the idols vpon the aulter in the citie of Modin, according to the kinges cõmaundement. 24 Whẽ Mathathias sawe this, it greeued (b) him at the heart, so that his reynes shoke withall, and his wrath kindled for very zeale of the law: with that he start vp, and killed the Jewe beside the aulter: 25 Yea and slue the kinges commissioner that compelled him to do sacrifice, and destroyed the aulter at the same time: 26 Such a zeale had he vnto the lawe of God, lyke as Phinehes dyd vnto Zambri the sone of Salomi. 27 And Mathathias cryed with a loude voyce thyough the citie, saying, Who so is feruent in the lawe, and wyl kepe the couenaunt, let him folowe me. 28 So he and his sonnes fled into the mountaines, and left all that euer they had in the citie. 29 Many other godly men also whiche lyued iustly and vprightly departed into the wyldernesse, with their chyldren, their wyues, and their cattel, and remayned there: for the tiranie increased sore vppon them.

30 Now when the kinges seruauntes, and the hoast which was at Hierusalem in the citie of Dauid, hearde that certayne men had broken the kinges commaundement, & were gone their way to the wildernes into secret places: 31 Then many pursued after them, and after they had ouertaken them, they camped them selues, and set the battayle in array agaynst them in the sabbath day, 32 And saide vnto them, Will ye yet rebell? Get you hence, and do the commaundement of king Antiochus, and ye shal lyue. 33 They aunswered, We wyll not go (for thee) neither wyll we do the kinges commaundement, to defile the sabbath day. 34 Then began they to fight agaynst them:

35 But the other gaue them none other aunswere, neither cast they one stone at them, nor made fast their priuie places: 36 But said, We wyl dye all in our innocencie, heauen & earth shall testifie with vs that ye put vs to death wrongfully. 37 Thus they fought agaynst them vppon the sabbath, and slue both men and cattayle, their wyues and their chyldren, to the number of a thousande people.

38 When Mathathias & his frendes hearde this, they mourned for them right sore, 39 And sayde one to another, If so be that we al do as our brethren haue done, and fight not for our lyues, and for our lawes agaynst the heathen, then shall they the sooner roote vs out of the earth. 40 So they concluded among them selues at the same tyme, saying, 41 Whatsoeuer he be that commeth to make battaile with vs vpon the sabbath day, we wil fyght agaynst him, and not dye all as our brethren that were murthered in the wildernesse. 42 Vpon this came the assemblie of the Assideans vnto thē, which were of the strongest men in Israel, and all such as were feruent in the lawe: 43 And all they that were fled for persecution came to helpe them, and to stande by them:

44 Insomuch that they gathered an hoast of men, and slue the wicked doers in their gelousie, and the vngodly men in their wrath: but the rest fled vnto the heathen, and escaped.

45 Then Mathathias & his frendes went about, and destroied the aulters, 46 And circumcised the chyldren that had not yet receaued circumcision, as many as they found within the coastes of Israel: 47 And folowed mightily vpon the proude men: and this acte prospered in their handes, 48 Insomuch that they kept the lawe agaynst the power of the gentiles and the kinges, and gaue not ouer their dominion vnto wicked doers. 49 After this, when the time drewe on fast that Mathathias should dye, he saide vnto his sonnes, Nowe is pryde & persecution increased, nowe is the time of destruction and wrathfull displeasure:

50 Wherfore O my sonnes, be ye feruent in the lawe, and ieoparde your liues for the testament of the fathers.

51 Call to remembraunce what actes our fathers dyd in their tyme, so shal ye receaue great honour, and an euerlasting name. 52 Remember Abraham: was not he founde faythfull in temptation, and it was reckened vnto him for righteousnes? 53 Joseph in tyme of his trouble kept the commaundement, and was made a Lorde of Egypt. 54 Phinehes our father was so feruent for the honour of god, that he obtayned the couenaunt of an euerlasting priesthod. 55 Josuah for fulfilling the worde of god, was made the captayne of Israel. 56 Caleb bare recorde before the congregation, and receaued an heritage. 57 Dauid also in his mercifull kindnesse, obtayned the throne of an euerlasting kingdome. 58 Elias beyng zelous and feruent in the law, was taken vp into heauen. 59 Ananias, Azarias, and Misael remayned stedfast in fayth, and were deliuered out of the fyre.

60 In like maner Daniel beyng vngiltie, was saued from the mouth of the lions. 61 And thus ye may consider throughout all ages since the worlde began, that whosoeuer put their trust in god were not ouercome.

62 Feare not ye then the wordes of an vngodly man, for his glory is but doung and wormes: 63 To day is he set vp, and to morowe is he gone: for he is turned into earth, and his memoriall is come to naught.

64 Wherfore O my sonnes, take good heartes vnto you, & quite your selues lyke men in the law: for yf ye do the thinges that are commaunded you in the lawe of the Lorde your God, ye shall obtayne great honour therein.

65 And beholde, I knowe that your brother Simon is a man of wysdom: see that ye geue eare vnto him alway, he shalbe a father vnto you. 66 As for Judas Machabeus, he hath euer ben mightie & strong from his youth vp: let him be your captayne, and order the battayle of the people.

67 Thus shall ye bring vnto you all those that fauour the law, and see that ye auenge the wrong of your people,

68 And recompence the heathen agayne, & applie your selues wholy to the commaundement of the lawe.

69 So he gaue them his blessing, and was layed vp his fathers, 70 And dyed in the hundred fourtie & fyue yere at Modin, where his sonnes buried him in his fathers sepulchre, & all Israel made great lamentation for him.

THen stoode vp Judas Machabeus in his fathers steade, 2 And all his brethren helped him, and so dyd all they that helde with his father, and fought with chearefulnesse for Israel. 3 So Judas gate his people great honour: he put on a brest plate as a giaunt, & strayed him selfe with his harnesse, and defended the hoast with his swoorde. 4 In his actes he was lyke a lion, and as a lions whelpe roring at his pray.

Psal. ci. b. 2. Mac. 8. 8

5 He was an enemie to the wicked, and hunted them out, and brent vp those that vexed his people: 6 So that his enemies fled for feare of him, and all the workers of vngodlynesse were put to trouble: such lucke and prosperitie was in his hande.

7 This greeued diuers kinges: but Jacob was greatly reioyced thorough his actes, and he gate him selfe a great name for euer. 8 He went through the cities of Juda, destroying the vngodly out of them, turnyng away the wrath from Israel, 9 And receauing such as were oppressed: and the fame of him went vnto the vttermost part of the earth. 10 Then Appollonius (a prince of Syria) gathered a mightie great hoast of the heathen, and out of Samaria, to fight against Israel:

11 Which when Judas perceaued, he went forth to meete him, fought with him, slue him, and a great multitude with him: the remnaunt fled, and he toke their substaunce. 12 Judas also toke Appollonius owne swoorde, and fought with it all his lyfe long.

13 Nowe when Seron a prince of the armie of Syria, heard say that Judas had gathered vnto him the congregation and churche of the faithfull,

14 He sayd, I wyl get me a name and a prayse throughout the realme: for I wyll go fight with Judas and them that are with him, as many as haue despised the kinges commaundement.

15 So he made him redy, and there went with him a great mightie hoast of the vngodly to stande by him, and to be auenged of the children of Israel. 16 And when they came nye vnto Bethoron, Judas went forth against them with a small companie.

17 And when his people sawe suche a great hoast before them, they sayde vnto Judas, How are we able, beyng so fewe, to fyght against so great a multitude and so strong, seeyng we be so weery, and haue fasted al this day?

18 But Judas sayde, It is a small matter for many to be ouercome with fewe: yea there is no difference to the God of heauen to deliuer by a great multitude, or by a small companie:

1. Re. 14. 8.

19 For the victorie of the battel standeth not in the multitude of the hoast, but the strength commeth from heauen. 20 Beholde they come against vs with a cruel and proude multitude, to destroy vs, our wyues, and our children, and to robbe vs: 21 But we wyll fyght for our lyues, and for our lawes, 22 And the Lorde him selfe shall destroye them before our face: therefore be not ye afrayde of them. 23 Assoone as he had spoken these wordes, he leapt sodenly vppon them: Thus was Seron smitten, and his hoast put to flight, 24 And Judas folowed vpon them beyonde Bethoron, vnto the plaine feelde, where there were slaine eyght hundreth men of them, and the residue fled into the lande of the Philistines. 25 Then all the heathen on euery side were afraide of Judas and his brethren:

27 So when king Antiochus heard these tidynges, he was angry in his minde: wherefore he sent forth, and gathered an hoast of his whole realme, very strong armies: 28 And opened his treasurie, and gaue his hoast a yeres wages in hande, commaundyng them to be redie at all tymes. 29 Neuertheles when he saw that ther was not money enough in his treasuries, & that through the discorde & persecution which he made in the lande to put downe the lawes that had ben of old times, his customs & tributes of the land were minished:

30 He feared that he was not able for to beare the costes & charges any lenger, nor to haue such gifres to gene so liberally as he dyd afore, more then the kinges that were before him.

1. Mac. 6. 2.

31 Wherefore he was heauy in his minde, and thought to go vnto Persides for to take tributes of the land, and so to gather much money.

32 So he left Lysias a noble man of the kinges blood to ouersee the kinges businesse from the water Euphrates, vnto the borders of Egypt:

33 And to kepe well his sonne Antiochus tyll he came agayne. 34 Moreouer he gaue him halfe of his hoast, and Elephantes, and committed vnto him euery thyng, and gaue him the charge of all thynges that he wolde haue done, concernyng those which dwelt in Juda and Hierusalem:

35 That he should sende out an armie agaynst them, to destroy and to roote out the power of Israel, and the remnaunt of Hierusalem, to put out their memorial from that place: 36 To set straungers for to inhabite all their quarters, & to part their lande among them. 37 Thus the king toke the other part of the hoast, and departed from Antioche a citie of his realme, ouer the water Euphrates, in the hundred and fourtie and seuen yere, and went through the hye countreys.

38 And Lysias chose vnto him Ptolome the sonne of Dozymimus, Nicanor, & Gorgias, mightie men, and the kinges freendes. 39 These he sent with fourtie thousande footmen, and seuen thousand horsmen, for to go into the lande of Juda, and to destroy it, as the king cõmaunded. 40 So they went forth with all their power, and came to Emmaus into the playne feelde. 41 When the marchauntes of the countrey hearde the rumour of them, they and their seruauntes toke very much syluer and golde for to bye the children of Israel to be their bondmen: there came vnto them also yet mo men of warre on euery syde, out of Syria, and from the Palestines.

42 Nowe when Judas and his brethren sawe that trouble increased, and that the hoast drue nye vnto their borders, considering the kinges wordes which he commaunded vnto the people (namely) that they shoulde vtterly waste & destroy them: 43 They sayde one to another, Let vs redresse the decay of our people, let vs fyght for our folke, & for oure sanctuarie. 44 Then the congregation were soone redy gathered to fyght, to pray and to make supplication vnto God for mercie and grace. 45 As for Hierusalem it lay voyde, and was as it had ben a wilderneſſe: there went no man in nor out at it, and the sanctuarie was trode downe, the alauntes kept the castle, there was the habitation of the heathen, the mirth of Jacob was taken away, the pype & the harpe was gone from among them. 46 The Israelites gathered them together, and came to Maspha before Hierusalem: for in Maspha was the place where they prayed aforetyme in Israel. 47 So they fasted that day, & put sackclothes vpon them, cast ashes vpon their heades, rent their clothes, 48 And layde forth the bookes of the lawe, wherout the heathen sought to paynt the lykenes of their images: 49 And brought the prieſtes ornamentes, the firſtlynges, & the tithes: they set there also the Nazarites, which had accomplished their vowes before God:

50 And cryed with a loude voyce towarde heauen, saying, What shall we do with these? and whyther shall we cary them away? 51 For thy sanctuarie is troden downe and defyled, the prieſtes are come to heauineſſe & dishonour. 52 And beholde the heathen are come together for to destroy vs: thou knowest what thinges they imagine agaynst vs. 53 Howe may we stande before them, except thou (O God) be our helpe? 54 Then they blewe out the trumpet also with a loude voyce. 55 Then Judas ordeyned captaynes ouer the people, ouer thousandes, ouer hundredes, ouer fiftie, & ouer ten. 56 But as for such as builded them houses, marryed wyues, planted them vineyardes, and those that were fearefull, he commaunded them euery man to go home agayne, accordyng to the lawe. 57 So the hoast remoued, and pitched vpon the south syde of Emmaus. 58 And Judas sayde, Arme your selues, be strong O my children, make you redy agaynst to morowe in the morynng, that ye may fyght with these people, which are agreed together to destroy vs and our sanctuarie.

59 Better is it for vs to dye in battell, then to see our people and our sanctuarie in such a miserable case.

60 Neuertheleſſe as thy will is O God in heauen, so be it.

men that were with him, to smite the cheefe & principal of the kinges hoast at Emmaus: 4 For the armie was not yet come together. 5 In the meane season came Gorgias by nyght into Judas tentes, and when he founde no man there, he sought them in the mountaynes, & thought they had ben fled away because of him. 6 But when it was day, Judas shewed him selfe in the feelde with three thousand men only, which had neither harnesse, W nor swordes to their myndes. 7 But on the other side they saw that the heathen were mightie & well harnessed, and their horsmen about them, and al
these well expert in feates of warre.
8 Then sayde Judas to the men that were with him, Feare not ye the mul-Exod.14.f titude of them, be not afrayde of their violent runnyng. 9 Remember how our fathers were deliuered in the red sea, whē Pharao folowed vpon them with a great hoast. 10 Euen so let vs also crye nowe towarde heauen, and the Lorde shall haue mercie vpon vs, and remember the couenaunt of our fathers, yea and destroy this hoast before our face this day: 11 And all the heathen shall knowe that it is God him selfe which deliuereth and saueth Israel. 12 Then the heathen lyft vp their eyes, and when they sawe that they were commyng agaynst them, 13 They went out of their tentes into the battell, and they that were with 2.Mac.7.d Judas blewe vp the trumpets.
14 So they buckled together, and the heathen were discomfited, and fled ouer the playne feelde: 15 But the hinmost of them were slayne with the sword: for they folowed them vnto
* Or, Ga-zeron. Azaremoth, and into the feeldes of C Idumea toward Azot and Jamnia: so that there were slayne of them vpon a three thousande men. 16 So Judas turned agayne with his hoast, 17 And sayd vnto the people, Be not greedy of the spoyles, we haue yet a battel to fight: 18 For Gorgias and his hoast are here by vs in the mounttaynes, but stande ye fast agaynst our enemies, & ouercome them, then may ye safely take the spoyles. 19 As Judas was speakyng these wordes, behold there appeared one part of them vpon the mount. 20 But when Gorgias saw that they of his parte were fled, and the tentes burnt vp (for by the smoke they might vnderstande what was done) they perceiuyng this were very sore afrayde: 21 And when they sawe also that Judas & his hoast were in the feelde redy to strike battel.
22 They fled euery one into the land of the heathen. 23 So Judas turned agayne to spoyle the tentes, where they gat much golde & siluer, precious stones, purple, and great riches.
24 Thus they went home, and sung a psalme of thankesgeuyng, and praysed Osa.107.8
God in heauen, For he is gracious, & Osa.118.8 his mercie endureth for euer. 25 And so Israel had a great victorie in that day. 26 Now al the heathen that escaped, came and tolde Lysias euery thyng that had happened. 27 Wherfore Lysias was sore afrayd & greeued in his mynde, because Israel had not gotten such misfortune as he would they shoulde, neither as the king com-D maunded. 28 The next yere folowing gathered Lysias three score thousande chosen men of foote, & fiue thousande horsmen, to fight against Hierusalem.
29 So they came into Iurie, and pitched their tentes at Bethsoron: where Judas came agaynst them with ten thousand men. 30 And when he saw so great and mightie an hoast, he made his prayer, & sayde, Blessed be thou O 1.Sa.17.a sauiour of Israel, which didst destroy the violent power of the giaunt in the 1.Sa.14.b hande of thy seruaunt Dauid, and gauest the hoast of the heathen into the hande of Jonathan the son of Saul, & of his harnesse bearer: 31 Put this hoast now into the hand of thy people of Israel, & let them be confounded in their multitude & horsmen. 32 Make them afrayde, and discomfite the boldnesse of their strength, that they may be moued through their destruction.
33 Cast them downe through the swordes of thy louers, then shall all they that knowe thy name, prayse thee with thankesgeuyng. 34 So they stroke the battell, & there were slayne of Lysias hoast fiue thousande men.
35 Thē Lysias seyng the discomfiting E of his men, and the manlinesse of the Jewes, howe they were redy either to lyue or to dye like men: he went vnto Antioch, and chose out men of warre, that when they were gathered together, they might come againe into Iurie. 36 Then sayd Judas and his brethren, Beholde our enemies are discomfited, let vs nowe go vp to cleanse & to repaire the sanctuarie. 37 Vpon 2.Mac.10.a this all the hoast gathered them together, and went vp into mount Sion.
38 Nowe

38 Nowe when they sawe the sanctuarie layde waste, the aulter defiled, the dooꝛes brent vp, the shrubbes growyng in the courtes, like as in a wood oꝛ vpon mountaynes, yea and that the prieſtes chambers were brokē down: 39 They rent their clothes, and made great lamentation, cast asshes vpon their heades, 40 Fell downe flat to the grounde vpon their faces, made a great noyse with the trumpets, and cryed toward heauen. 41 Then Judas appoynted certayne men to fyght agaynſt thoſe which were in the caſtle, vntil they had clenſed the ſanctuarie.

42 So he choſe prieſtes that were vndefiled, ſuch as had pleaſure in the lawe of god: 43 And they clenſed the ſanctuarie, and bare out the defiled ſtones into an vncleane place. 44 And forſomuch as the aulter of burnt offerynges was vnhalowed, he toke aduiſement what he might do withall:

45 So he thought it was beſt to deſtroy it, leſt it ſhoulde happen to do them any ſhame, foꝛ the heathen had defiled it: and therfoꝛe they brake it downe. 46 As foꝛ the ſtones they layde them vp vppon the mountayne by the houſe in a conuenient place, vntil there came a prophete to ſhewe what ſhould be done with them.

47 So they toke whole ſtones accoꝛding to the lawe, & builded a newe aulter, ſuch one as was befoꝛe, 48 And made vp the ſanctuarie within & without, and halowed the houſe and the courtes: 49 They made newe holy ornamentes, and broughte the candleſticke, the aulter of incenſe, & the table into the temple. 50 The incenſe layde they vpon the aulter, & lyghted the lampes which were vppon the candleſticke, that they might burne in the temple: 51 They ſet the ſhewe bread vpon the table, & hanged vp the vayle, & finiſhed all the woꝛkes which they had begun to make. 52 And vpon the twentie and fifth day of the ninth moneth (which is called the moneth of Caſleu) in the hundꝛed fourtie & eyghte yeere: 53 They roſe vp betymes in the moꝛnyng, foꝛ to do ſacrifice accoꝛdyng to the lawe vpon the newe burnt offeryng aulter that they had made. 54 After the tyme & ſeaſon that the heathen had defiled it, the ſame day was it ſet vp agayne, with ſonges, pypes, harpes, and cymbales, 55 And all the people fell vpon their faces, woꝛſhipyng and thankyng the god of heauen, which had geuen them the victoꝛie. 56 So they kept the dedication of the aulter eyght dayes, offeryng burnt ſacrifices & thanke offerynges with gladnes: 57 They decket the foꝛefrunt of the temple alſo with crownes & ſhieldes of golde, and halowed the poꝛtes & celles, and hanged dooꝛes vpon them. 58 Thus there was very great gladneſſe among the people, becauſe the blaſphemie of the heathen was put away. 59 So Judas and his bꝛethren with the whole congregation of Iſrael oꝛdeyned, that the tyme of the dedication of the aulter ſhoulde be kept in his ſeaſon from yere to yere, by the ſpace of eyght dayes, from the twentie & fifth day of the moneth Caſleu with mirth and gladneſſe. 60 And at the ſame tyme builded they vp the mount Sion, with hye walles and ſtrong towꝛes rounde about, leſt the gentiles ſhoulde come & treade it downe, as they dyd afoze.

61 Therfoꝛe Judas ſet men of waꝛ in it to kepe it, & made it ſtrong foꝛ to defende Bethſura, that the people might haue a refuge agaynſt the Edomites.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

3 Judas vanquiſheth the heathen that go about to deſtroy Iſrael, and is holpen of his bꝛethren Simon and Ionathas.

IT happened alſo, that whē the heathen round about hearde howe that the aulter & the ſanctuarie were ſet vp in their old eſtate, it diſpleaſed them veꝛy ſoze, 2 Wherfoꝛe they thought to deſtroy the generatiō of Jacob that was among them: in ſo much that they began to ſlay & to perſecute certayne of the people. 3 Then Judas fought agaynſt the chyldꝛen of Eſau in Idumea at Arabathane: foꝛ they dwelt rounde about the Iſraelites, where he ſlue & ſpoyled a great multitude of them. 4 He thought alſo vpon the malice and vnfaythfulneſſe of the chyldꝛen of Bean, howe they were a ſnare and ſtop vnto the people, and how they layde wayte foꝛ them in the hie way: 5 Wherfoꝛe he ſhut them vp into towꝛes, & came vnto thē, beſieged them, & deſtroyed them vtterly, & bꝛent vp their towꝛes, with all that were in thē. 6 Afterward went he agaynſt the chyldꝛē of Ammon, wherof he found a mightie power & a great multitude of people with Timothi their captayne.

7 So he ſtroke many battels with thē, which were deſtroyed befoꝛe him.

wan Gazer the citie, with the townes belongyng therto, & so turned agayne into Jurie. 9 The heathen also in Galaad gathered them together agaynst the Israelites that were in their quarters, to slay them: but they fled to the castle of Datheman,

10 And sent letters vnto Judas and his brethren, saying The heathen that are about vs are gathered agaynst vs on euery side, to destroy vs. 11 And nowe they make them redy for to come & lay siege to the castle whervnto we are fled, & Timothi is captayne of their hoast: 12 Come therfore and deliuer vs out of their handes, for there is a great multitude of vs slaine alredy. 13 Yea and our brethren that were at Tubin are slayne & destroyed weinye a thousande men, and their wiues, their children & their goodes haue the enemies led away captiue.

C 14 While these letters were yet a readyng, beholde there came other messengers from Galilee with rent clothes, which tolde euen the same tydynges, 15 And sayde, that they of Ptolemais, of Tyrus and of Sidon were gathered agaynst them, and that all Galilee was filled with * enemies to destroy Israel. 16 When Judas & the people hearde this, they came together a great congregation, to deuise what they might do for their brethren that were in trouble and besieged of their enemies. 17 And Judas sayde vnto Simon his brother, Choose thee out certayne men, & go deliuer thy brethren in Galilee: as for me & my brother Jonathas, we will go into Galaaditim. 18 So he left Josephus the sonne of Zacharl, and Azarias, to be captaynes of the people, to kepe the remnaunt of the hoast in Jurie,

19 And commaunded them, saying, Take the ouerlight of this people, & see that ye make no warre agaynst the heathen, vntyl the tyme that we come againe. 20 And vnto Simon he gaue three thousand men for to go into Galilee: but Judas him selfe had eyght thousande in Galaaditim. 21 Then went Simon into Galilee, & stroke diuers battels with the heathen, whom he discomfited, 22 And followed vpon them into the port of Ptolemais: and there were slayne of the heathen almost three thousande men. 23 So he toke the spoyles of them, and caryed away the Israelites that were in Galilee and Arbatis, with their wiues, their children, and all that they had, & brought them into Jurie with great gladnes. 24 Judas Machabeus also and his brother Jonathas went ouer Jordane, and trauayled three dayes iourney in the wilderne: 25 Where the Nabathees met them, and receaued them louingly, & tolde them euery thyng that had happened vnto their brethrē in Galaaditim: 26 And how that many of them were besieged in Barasa, Bosor, Alimis, Casbon, Mageth, & Carnaim (all these are strong walled and mightie great cities)

27 And that they were kept in other cities of Galaaditim also, and to morowe they are appoynted to bryng their hoast vnto these cities, to take them, and to destroy them in one day.

28 So Judas & his hoast turned in al the haste in the wildernesse towarde Bosor, and wan the citie, slue all the males with the swoorde, toke all their goodes, and set fire vpon the citie:

29 And in the nyght they toke their iourney from thence, and came to the castle, 30 And betymes in the morning when they loked vp, beholde there was an innumerable people bearing ladders & other instrumentes of warre, to take the castel, and to ouercome them. 31 When Judas saw that the battell began, and that the noyse thereof went vp and rang into the heauen, and that there was so great a crye in the citie, 32 He sayde vnto his hoast, Fyght this day for your brethren: 33 And so came behynde their enemies in three companies, and blewe vp the trumpets, and cryed in their prayer to God. 34 But so soone as Timotheus hoast perceaued that Machabeus was there, they fled from him: and he slue them downe right fore, so that there were kylled of them the same day almost eyght thousande men. 35 Then departed Judas vnto Maspha, layde siege vnto it, and wan it, slue all the males in it, spoyled it, & set fire vpon it. 36 From thence went he and toke Casbon, Mageth, Bosor, & the other cities in Galaaditim. 37 After this gathered Timothi another hoast, which pitched their tentes before Raphon beyonde the water. 38 Judas also sent to spye the hoast, and they brought him worde agayne, saying, All the heathen that be rounde about vs are gathered vnto him, and the hoast is very great:

ed helpe them, and haue pitched their tentes beyonde the water, & are redie to come and fyght agaynst thee. So Judas went on to meete them.

40 And Timothi sayde vnto the captaynes of his hoast, When Judas and his hoast come nye the ryuer, yf he go ouer first, we shal not be able to withstande him: for why? he wyll be to strong for vs. 41 But yf he dare not come ouer, so that he pitch his tent beyonde the water: then wil we go ouer, for we shalbe strong enough agaynst him. 42 Nowe assoone as Judas came to the riuer, he appoynted certayne scribes of the people by the riuer, and commaunded them, saying, See that ye leaue none behinde vpon this side of the riuer, but let euery man come to the battell. 43 So he went first ouer vnto them, and all his people after him, and all the heathen were discomfited before him, and let their weapons fall, and ran into the temple that was at Carnaim,

44 Which citie Judas wanne, and brent the temple, with all that were in it: So was Carnaim subdued, & might not withstande Judas. 45 Then Judas gathered all the Israelites that were in Galaaditim, from the least vnto the most, with their wiues and their children, a very great hoast, for to come into the lande of Israel.

2. Mac. 7.c 46 So they came vnto Ephron, which was a mightie great and strong citie, and lay in their way: for they couldе not go by it neither on the right hand nor on the left, but must go through it. 47 Neuertheles they that were in the citie wouldе not let them go through, but walled vp the portes with stones: & Judas sent vnto them with peaceable wordes, saying, 48 Let vs passe through your lande, that we may go into our owne countrey, there shall no body do you harme, we wyll but onely go through on foote. But they would not let them in. 49 Wherefore Judas commaunded a proclamation to be made throughout the hoast, that euery man should assault the citie in his order. 50 And so they did their best, like valiaunt men: and Judas besieged the citie all that day, and all that night, and so wan it: 51 Where they slue as many as were males with the the edge of the swoorde, and destroyed the citie, and spoyled it, and went through all the citie ouer them that were slayne. 52 Then went they ouer Jordane into the playne feelde before Bethsan. 53 And Judas helped those forward that came behynde, and gaue the people good exhortation all the way through, tyll they were come into the land of Juda. 54 Thus they went vp vnto the mount Sion, where they offered whole burnt offerynges with mirth & thankesgeuyng, 2. Chr. 20.a because there were none of them slain, but came home agayne peaceably.

55 Nowe what tyme as Judas & Jonathas were in the lande of Galaad, and Simon their brother in Galilee before Ptolomais: 56 Then Josephus the sonne of Zachari & Azarias the captaynes, hearyng of the actes that were done, and of the battels that were striken, sayde, 57 Let vs get vs a name also, and go fyght agaynst the heathen that are rounde about vs.

58 So they gaue their hoast a commaundement, and went toward Jamnia. 59 Then came Gorgias and his men out of the citie to fyght agaynst them: 60 Josephus also and Azarias were chased vnto the borders of Jurie, and there were slayne that day of the people of Israel two thousande men: so that there was a great miserie 1 Mach. 5.b among the people of Israel. 61 And all because they were not obedient vnto Judas & his brethren, but thought they shoulde quite them selues manfullye. 62 Neuertheless they came not of the seede of these men by whō Israel was helped. 63 But the men that were with Judas were greatly commended in the sight of all Israel, and all the heathen whersoeuer their name was harde vpon. 64 And the people came vnto them, bydding them welcome. 65 After this went Judas foorth with his brethren, and fought agaynst the children of Esau in the lande that lyeth towarde the south, where he wan the citie of Hebron and the townes that lye beside it: and as for the walles and towres rounde about it, he brent them vp. 66 Then remoued he to go into the land of the Philistines, and went through Samaria. 67 At the same tyme were there (many) priestes slayne in the battell, which wylfully and without aduisement went out for to fyght to get them honour. 68 And when Judas came to Azor in the Philistines land, he brake downe their aulters, brent the images of their idols, spoyled the cities, and came agayne into the lande of Juda.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

1 Antiochus wyllyng to rake the citie of Elymas for a pray, is driuen away of the citezins.

NOwe when king Antiochus trauayled thzough the hye countreys, he heardе that Elymas in Perſia was a noble and plenteous citie in ſiluer and golde, 2 And that there was in it a very riche temple, wherein were clothes, coate armours, and ſhieldes of gold, which Alexander the ſonne of Philip king of Macedonia that raigned firſt in Grecia had left behynde him. 3 Wherefore he went about to take the citie and to ſpoyle it, but he was not able: for the citezins were warned of it, & fought with him. 4 And ſo he fled, and departed with great heauines, and came
2. Mac. 3. e agayne into Babylon. 5 Moreouer there came one which brought him tydynges in Perſia, that his hoaſtes which were in the lande of Juda were driuen away: 6 And how that Lyſias went foozth firſt with a great power, and was driuen away of the Jewes, howe that they had won the victozie, and gotten great goodes out of the hoaſtes that perished: 7 How they
B 8. Mach. 1. f had broken downe the abomination which he ſet vp vpon the aulter at Hieruſalem, and fenced the ſanctuarie with hye walles, like as it was afoze, yea & Bethſura his citie alſo. 8 So it chaunced that when the king heard theſe wozdes, he was afrayde, & greeued very ſoze: wherfore he layde him downe vpon his bed, and fell ſicke foz very ſozowe, and all becauſe it had not hapned as he had deuiſed. 9 And there continued he long: foz his greefe was euer moze & moze, ſo that he ſaw he muſt needes dye. 10 Therfoze he ſent foz all his freendes, and layde vnto them, The ſleepe is gone fro myne eyes for the very ſozowe and vexation of heart that I haue.

11 Foz when I conſider in my mynde the great aduerſitie that I am come vnto, and the flooddes of beauineſſe which I am come in, whereas afozetyme I was ſo mery, and ſo greatly ſet by by reaſon of my power:

12 Agayne, conſideryng the euyll that I haue done at Hieruſalem, from whence I toke all the riches of golde and ſiluer that were in it, and ſent to deſtroy the inhabitours of Jurie without any reaſon why: 13 I know that theſe troubles are come vpon me foz the ſame cauſe: and behold I muſt die with great ſozowe in a ſtraunge lande.

14 Then called he foz one Philip a C freende of his, whom he made ruler of all his realme, 15 And gaue him the crowne, his robe, and his ryng, that he ſhoulde take his ſonne Antiochus vnto him, and bryng him vp, tyll he 2. Mac. 9. a Joſep. cap. 14. lib. 12. might raigne him ſelfe. 16 So the king Antiochus dyed there in the hundzed fourtie & nine yere. 17 When Lyſias knew that the king was dead, he ozdayned Antiochus his ſonne, whom he had brought vp, to raigne in his fathers ſteede, and called him Eupatoz. 18 Nowe they that were in the caſtle (at Hieruſalem) kept in the Jewes rounde about the ſanctuarie, & ſought euer ſtyll to do them harme, and the ſtrengthnyng of the heathen.

19 Wherfoze Judas thought to deſtroy them, and called all the people together, that they myght lay ſiege vnto them. 20 So they came together in the hundzed and ſixtie yere, and beſieged them, layng foozth their ozdinaunce & inſtrumentes of warre.

21 Then certayne of them that were D beſieged, went foozth: vnto whom ſome vngodly men of Iſrael ioyned themſelues alſo, 22 And went vnto the king, ſaying, Howe long wyll it be ozr thou punyſhe, and auenge our bzethren? 23 We haue euer ben minded to do thy father ſeruice, to walke in his ſtatutes, and to obey his cõmaundementes: 24 Therfoze our people fell from vs, and whoſoeuer they founde any of vs, they ſlue them, and ſpoyled our inheritaunce. 25 And they haue not only medled with vs, but with all our countreys. 26 And beholde this day are they beſiegyng the caſtle at Hieruſalem to take it, 1. Mac. 4. g and haue made vp the ſtrong holde in E Bethſura. 27 And yf thou doeſt not preuent them ryght ſoone, they wyll do moze then theſe, and thou ſhalt not 2. Mac. 13. d be able to ouercome them. 28 When the king hearde this, he was very angry, and called all his freendes, the captaines of his armie, & (all his footemen and) hozſemen: 29 He hired men of warre alſo, of other realmes pertaynyng to the kinges that were confederate with him, and of the Iles of the ſea, which came vnto him. 30 And the number of his hoaſt was an hundzed thouſande footmen, and twentie thouſand hozſemen, and thirtie & two Elephantes well exerciſed to battell.

1.Mac.4.g 31 These came through Idumea vnto Bethsura, & besieged it a long season, & made diuers instrumentes of warre agaynst it: but the Iewes came out & brent them with fire, and fought lyke men. 32 Then departed Iudas from the castle (at Hierusalem) and remoued the hoast toward Bethzacharan, ouer against the kinges armie. 33 So the king arose before the day, and brought the power of his hoast into the way to Bethzacharan, where the hoastes made them redy to the battel, blowing the trumpets. 34 And to prouoke the Elephantes for to fyght, they shewed them the sappe of redde grapes, and mulberies. 35 And diuided the Elephantes among the hoast: so that by euery Elephant there stoode a thousande men wel harnessed, and helmets of steele vpon their heades: yea vnto euery one of the Elephantes also were ordayned fine hundred horsmen of the best, 36 Which wayted on the Elephant, going whersoeuer he went, & departed not from him. 37 Euery Elephant was couered with a strong towre of wood, fastened thereon with instrumentes, wherupon were thirtie and two valiaunt men with weapons to fyght, and within was a man of Inde, to rule the beast. 38 As for the remnaunt of the horsmen he set them vpō both the sides in two partes, with trumpets to prouoke the hoast, and to stirre vp such as were slowe in the armie. 39 And when the sunne shone vpon their shieldes of gold and steele, the mountaynes glistered agayne at them, and were as bryght as the flesters of fire. 40 The kinges hoast also was diuided, one part vpon the hye mountaynes, the other lowe beneath: so they went on, takyng good heede, and keping their order. 41 And all they that dwelt in the lande, were afrayde at the noyse of their hoast when the multitude went forth, and when the weapons smote together: for the hoast was both great & mighty. 42 Judas also and his hoast entred into the battell, and slue sixe hundred men of the kinges armie.

Or, Abaron. 43 Nowe when Eleazar the sonne of Saura did see one of the Elephantes decht with the kinges badge, and was a more goodly beast then the other, he thought the king shoulde be vpon him: 44 And iopparded him selfe to deliuer his people, and to get him a perpetuall name. 45 Wherfore he ranne with a courage vnto the Elephant in the middes of the hoast, smityng them downe on both the sides, & slue many about him. 46 So went he to the Elephantes feete, and gate him vnder him, (a) and slue him: then fell the Elephant downe vpon him, and there he dyed. 47 Judas also and his men seyng the power of the king and the mightie violence of his hoast, departed from them. 48 And the kinges armie went vp against them toward Hierusalem, and pitched their tentes in Jurie beside mount Sion.

(a) This example is not to be followed, because it is contrary to the commaundemēt.

49 Moreouer the king toke truce with them that were in Bethsura: but when they came out of the citie, because they had no vittels, but were shut vp within, and the lande lay vntylled, 50 The king toke Bethsura, and set men to kepe it, and turned his hoast to the place of the sanctuarie, 1.Mac.4.g

51 And layde siege to it a great while, where he made all maner ordinaunce, handbowes, sterie dartes, rachets to cast stones, scorpions to shoote arrowes, and slynges. 52 The Iewes also made ordinaunce agaynst theirs, and fought a long season. 53 But in the citie there were no vittels, for it was the seuenth yere of the warres: and those heathen that remayned in Jurie had eaten vp all their store.

54 And in the sanctuarie were fewe men left: for the hunger came so vpon them, that they were scattered abrode euery man to his owne place. 55 So when Lysias hearde that Philip (whom Antiochus the king whyle he was yet liuyng, had ordayned to bring vp Antiochus his son, that he myght be king) 56 Was come agayne out of Persia & Media with the kings hoast, and thought to obtayne the kingdome with the gouernaunce of all thynges: 57 He gate him to the king in all the haste, and to the captaynes of the hoast, and sayde, We decrease dayly, and our vittels are but smal: agayne, the place that we laye siege vnto is very strong, and it were our part to see for the realme: 58 Let vs agree with these men, and take truce with them, and with all their people, 2.Mac.6.b

59 And graunt them to lyue after their lawe, as they did afore: for they be grieued, and do all these thinges agaynst vs because we haue Or, bidden. despised their lawe. 60 So the king and the princes were content, and sent vnto thē to make peace: & they receaued it.

61 Nowe when the king and the princes had made an othe vnto them, they came out of the castle, 62 And the king went vp to mount Sion: but when he sawe that the place was well fenced, he brake the othe that he had made, and commaunded to destroy the wall rounde about. 63 Then departed he in all the haste, and returned vnto Antiochie, where he founde Philip hauyng dominion of the citie: so he fought agaynst him, and toke the citie agayne into his handes.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

1 Demetrius raigned after he had kylled Antiochus and Lysias.

IN the hundred sixtie and one yere came Demetrius the sonne of Seleuchus from the citie of Rome with a small companie of men, vnto a citie of the sea coast, and there he bare rule. 2 And when he came to Antiochie the citie of his progenitours, his hoast toke Antiochus and Lysias, to bryng them vnto him. 3 But when it was tolde him, he sayde, Let me not see their faces. 4 So the hoast put them to death. Nowe when Demetrius was set vpon the throne of his kingdome, 5 There came vnto him wicked and vngodly men of Israel, whose captayne was Alcimus, that woulde haue ben made hie priest. 6 These men accused the people of Israel vnto the king, saing, Judas and his brethren haue slayne all thy frendes, and driuen vs out of our owne lande. 7 Wherfore sende nowe some man to whom thou geuest credence, that he may go, and see all the destruction which he hath done vnto vs and to the kinges lande, and let him be punished, with al his frendes and fauourers. 8 Then the king chose Bacchides a freende of his, which was a man of great power in the realme beyonde the water, and faythfull vnto the king, and sent him (to see the destruction that Iudas had done:) 9 And as for that wicked Alcimus he made him hye priest, and commaunded him to be auenged of the children of Israel. 10 So they departed (from the king) and came with a great hoast into the lande of Juda, sendyng messengers to Judas & his brethren, and speakyng vnto them with peaceable wordes, but vnder disceipt. 11 Therfore Judas and his people beleeued not their saying: for they sawe that they were come with a great hoast. 12 After this came the scribes together vnto Alcimus and Bacchides, to entreate of reasonable couenauntes: 13 And the Assideans were the first among the children of Israel that required peace of them, 14 Saying, Alcimus the priest is come of the seede of Aaron, howe can he deceaue vs though he come with an armie? 15 So he gaue them louyng wordes, and swore vnto them, and sayde, We will do you no harme, neither your freendes. 16 And they beleeued him: but the very same day toke he threescore men of them, and slue them, accordyng to the wordes that are written, 17 They haue (cast) the fleshe of thy saintes and shed their blood rounde about Hierusalem, and there was no man that woulde burie them. 18 So there came a great feare and dread among all the people, saying, There is neither trueth nor righteousnesse in them: for they haue broken the appoyntment and othe that they made. 19 And Bacchides remoued his hoast from Hierusalem, and pitched his tent at Bethzecha, where he sent foorth, and toke many of them that had forsaken him: he slue many of the people also, and cast them into a great pit. 20 Then committed he the lande vnto Alcimus, and left men of warre with him to helpe him: and Bacchides him selfe went vnto the king. 21 And thus Alcimus defended his hye priesthood. 22 And all such as vexed Israel resorted vnto him: insomuch that they obtayned the lande of Juda, and dyd much euyll vnto the Israelites.

23 Nowe when Judas sawe all the mischeefe that Alcimus and his company had done (yea more then the heathen them selues) vnto the Israelites: 24 He went foorth rounde about all the borders of Jurie, and punished those vnfaythfull runagates, so that they came no more out into the countrey. 25 So when Alcimus sawe that Judas and his people had gotten the vpper hande, and that he was not able to abyde them: he went agayne to the king, & sayd al the worst of them that he coulde. 26 Then the king sent Nicanor, one of his cheefe princes, which bare euyll will vnto Israel, and commaunded him that he shoulde vtterly destroy the people.

27 So Nicanor came to Hierusalem with a great hoast, & sent vnto Judas and lyft vp his hande against Sion, and dested them with great pryde.

19 Then trembled their heartes and handes, so that they sorowed lyke a woman trauayling with chylde.

20 So they called vpon the Lorde whiche is merefull, and lyft vp their handes before hym: immediately the Lorde hearde them out of heauen.

21 He thought no more vpon their sinnes, nor gaue them ouer to their enemies: but delyuered them by the hande of Esaias. 22 He smote the hoast of the Assyrians, and his angell destroyed them. 23 For Ezechias had done the thing that pleased the Lorde, and remayned stedfastly in the way of Dauid his father, as Esaias the great and faythfull prophete in the sight of God had commaunded hym.

24 In his tyme the sunne went backwarde, and he lengthened the kynges lyfe. 25 With a right spirite prophecied he what should come to passe at the last: and to such as were sorowful in Sion, he gaue consolation, wherewith they might comfort them selues for euermore. 26 He shewed thinges that were for to come and secrete, or euer they came to passe.

The.xlix. Chapter.

Of Iosias, Ezechias, Dauid, Ieremie, Ezechiel, Zorobabel, Iesus, Nehemias, Enoch, and Ioseph.

THe remembraunce of Iosias, is like as when the apothecarie maketh many precious swerte smelling thinges together: his remembraunce shalbe sweete as hony in all mouthes, & as the playing of musicke at a banket of wine. 2 He was appointed to turne the people agayne, and to take away all abhominations of the vngodly. 3 He directed his heart vnto the Lorde, and in the tyme of the vngodly he set vp the worship of God agayne. 4 All kynges except (a) Dauid, Ezechias, and Iosias, committed wickednes: for euen the kings of Iuda also forsoke the lawe of God.

5 For they gaue their horne vnto other, their honour and worship also to a straunge people. 6 Therfore was the elect citie of the sanctuarie brent with fire, and the streetes therof layde desolate and waste in the hande of Ieremie. 7 For they entreated hym euyll, (b) whiche neuertheles was a prophete, ordayned from his mothers wombe, that he might roote out, breake of, and destroy: and that he might buylde vp, and plant agayne.

8 Ezechiel saw the glory of the Lord in a vision, whiche was shewed hym vpon the charet of the Cherubims.

9 For he thought vpon the enemies in the rayne, to do good vnto suche as had ordered their wayes aryght.

10 And the bones of the twelue prophetes florished from out of their place: for they gaue comfort and consolation vnto Iacob, and delyuered them faythfully. 11 How shall we prayse Zorobabel, whiche was as a ring on the right hande? 12 So was Iesus also the sonne of Iosedec: these men in their times buylded the house, and set vp the sanctuarie of the Lorde agayne, whiche was prepared for an euerlasting worship. 13 And among the elect was Nehemias, whose renowme was great, whiche set vp for vs the walles that were broken downe, made the portes and barres agayne, and buylded our houses a new.

14 But vpon the earth there is no man created like Enoch: for he was taken vp from the earth. 15 Neither was there a like man vnto Ioseph, which was lord of his brethren, and the vpholder of his people: (c) his bones were couered and kept.

16 Seth and Sem were in great honour among the people, and so was Adam aboue all the beastes when he was created.

4 He toke care for his people, and delyuered them from destruction: he kept his citie and made it strong, that it should not be besieged. 5 How honorable was his conuersation among the people, and when he came out of the house couered with the vayle? 6 He gaue light as the morning starre in the middest of the clowdes, and as the moone when it is full:

12 When he toke the portions out of the prieſtes hande, he him ſelfe ſtoode by the hearth of the aulter, and his brethren rounde about in order: as the braunches of Cedar tree vpon the mount Libanus, ſo ſtoode they round about hym: 13 And as the braunches of the Oliue tree, ſo ſtoode al the ſonnes of Aaron in their glory, and the oblations of the Lorde in their handes before al the congregation of Iſrael. 14 And that he might ſufficiently perfourme his ſeruice vpon the aulter, and garniſhe the offering of the higheſt God, 15 He ſtretched out his hande, and toke of the drinke offering, and powred in of the wine: ſo he poured vpon the bottome of the aulter a good ſmell vnto the hygheſt prince. 16 Then began the ſonnes of Aaron to ſing, and to blowe with trumpets, and to make a great noyſe, for a remembraunce and prayſe vnto the Lorde. 17 Then all the people together were haſted, and fell downe to the earth vpon their faces to worſhip the Lorde their God, and to geue thankes to the almightie God.

18 They ſong goodly alſo with their voyces, ſo that there was a pleaſaunt noyſe in the great houſe of the Lorde. 19 And the people in their prayer beſought the Lorde the higheſt that he would be mercyfull, till the honour of the Lorde were perfourmed, and they had ended their miniſtration and ſeruice. 20 Then went he downe and ſtretched out his handes ouer the whole multitude of the people of Iſrael, that they ſhould geue prayſe and thankes out of their lippes vnto the Lorde, and to reioyce in his name.

3 Thou haſt ben my helper from ſuch as ſtoode vp againſt me, and haſt deliuered me after the multitude of thy mercy, and for thy holy names ſake, from the roaring of them that prepared them ſelues to deuour me, out of the handes of ſuch as ſought after my lyfe, from the multitude of them that trouble me, 4 And from them that went about to ſet fire vpon me on euery ſide, ſo that I am not brent in the middeſt of the fyre: 5 From the deepe of hell, from an vncleane tongue, from lying wordes, from falſe accuſation to the kyng, from an vnrighteous tongue. 6 My ſoule ſhall prayſe the Lorde vnto death: for my lyfe draweth nye vnto hell downeward.

C (a) Wysdome is obtayned by one of these three meanes: first by prayer, as Solomon did and Iacob: secondly, by diligent reading of gods booke, wher in wysdome is contayned Pſal. 19. Sa. 6. Thirdly, by godly conuersation and continuing in the feare of god. Prou. 2. Iohn. 7. If any man wyll do my wyll, he shall knowe my doctrine.

13 When I was yet but young, or euer I went astray, I desired (a) wysdome openly in my prayer. 14 I came therfore before the temple and sought her vnto the last: then flourished she vnto me, as a grape that is soone ripe. 15 My heart reioyced in her, then went my foot the right way: yea from my youth vp sought I after her. 16 I bowed downe myne eare and receaued her: I founde me much wysdome, and prospered greatly in her. 17 Therfore wyll I ascribe the glorie vnto him that geueth me wysdom. 18 For I am aduised to do therafter, I wyll be geloug to cleaue vnto the thing that is good, so shall I not be confounded. 19 My soule hath wrestled with her, and I haue ben diligent to be occupied in her: I lyft vp mine handes on hye, then was my soule lightened through wisdome, and I knowledged my foolishnesse.

20 I ordered my soule after her, she and I were one heart from the beginning, and I founde her in cleannesse, and therfore shall I not be forsaken. 21 My heart longed after her, and I gat a good treasure. 22 Thyough her the Lorde hath geuen me a newe tongue, wherwith I wyll prayse hym.

23 O come vnto me ye vnlearned, Eſai. 55. a. and dwell in the house of wysdome.

24 Withdraw not your selues from her, but talke and commune of these thinges: for your soules are very thirstie. 25 I opened my mouth, and spake, O come and bye wysdome without money. 26 Bowe downe your necke vnder her yoke, and your soule shall receaue wysdome: she is harde at hande, and is content to be founde. 27 Beholde with your eyes, howe that I haue had but litle labour, and yet haue found much rest. Eccle. 51. c.

28 O receaue wysdome, and ye shall haue plentie ousnesse of siluer and gold in possession. 29 Let your myndе reioyce in his mercy, and be not ashamed of his prayse. 30 Worke his worke betymes, and he shall geue you your rewarde in due season.

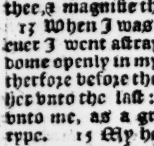
The ende of the booke of Iesus the sonne of Sirach, which is called in Latine Ecclesiasticus.

The booke of the prophete Baruch.

The first Chapter.

1 Baruch wrote a booke during the captiuitie of Babylon, whiche he read before Iechonias and all the people. 10 The Iewes sent the booke with money vnto Hierusalem to their other brethren, to the entent that they should pray for them.

A (a) Baruch was secretarie to Ieremie the prophet, of who in Ieremie is ofte made mention.



ND these are the wordes of the booke, which were (a) written by Baruch the sonne of Nerias, the sonne of Maasias, the sonne of Sedechias, the sonne of Helchias, at Babylon, 2 In the fifth yere, and in the seuenth day of the moneth, what time as the Chaldees toke Hierusalem, and brent it vp with fire. 3 And Baruch dyd reade the wordes of this booke, that Iechonias the sonne of Joachin kyng of Iuda myght heare, and in the presence of all the people that were come to heare the booke, 4 And before all the nobles, the kynges sonnes, and before the elders, and before the whole people, from the lowest vnto the highest: before all them that dwelt at Babylon, by the water of Sody, 5 Whiche when they heard it, wept, fasted, and prayed before the Lorde. 6 They made a collection also of money, according to euery mans power: 7 And sent it to Hierusalem vnto Joachin the sonne of Helchia, the sonne of Salom priest, with the other priestes, and to all the people which were with hym at Hierusalem,

8 (What time as they had gotten the vessels of the temple of the Lorde that were taken away out of the temple, that they might bring them againe into the land of Juda the tenth day of the moneth (b) Siuan (namely) siluer vessels which Sedechias the sonne of Josias kyng of Juda had made,)

9 After that Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon had taken Jechonias, with all his princes, lordes, and al the people, and led them captiue from Hierusalem vnto Babylon: 10 And they sayde, Beholde, we haue sent you money to bye you burnt offringes and incense withall, prepare a meate offering, and offer for sinne vpon the aulter of the Lorde our God: 11 And (c) pray for the prosperitie of Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon, and for the welfare of Balthasar his sonne, that their dayes may be vpon earth as the dayes of heauen: 12 That God also may geue vs strength, and lighten our eyes, that we may liue vnder the defence of Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon, and vnder the protection of Balthasar his sonne, that we may long do them seruice, and finde fauour in their sight. 13 Pray for vs also vnto the Lorde our God: for we haue sinned against the Lord our God, and vnto this day is not his wrath turned yet away from vs. 14 And see that ye reade this booke, whiche we haue sent vnto you to be rehearsed in the temple of the Lorde vpon the hye dayes, and at tyme conuenient.

15 Thus shall ye say, The Lorde our God is righteous, but we are worthy of confusion and shame, lyke as it is come to passe this day vnto all Juda, and to euery one that dwelleth at Hierusalem, 16 To our kinges, princes, priestes, prophetes, & to our fathers. 17 We haue sinned before the Lorde our God, we haue not put our trust in him, nor geuen him credence, 18 We haue not obeyed hym, we haue not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lord our God, to walke in the commandementes that he gaue vs openly.

19 Since the day that he brought our forefathers out of the land of Egypt, vnto this present day, we haue ben euer a misbeleuing and an vnfaythful people vnto the Lorde our God, destroying our selues vtterly, and shunning bache, that we should not heare his voyce. 20 Wherefore there are come vpon vs great plagues and diuers curses, like as the Lorde deuised by Moyses his seruaunt, whiche brought our fathers out of the lande of Egypt, to geue vs a land that floweth with mylke and hony, like as it is to see this day. 21 Neuertheles, we haue not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde our God, according to all the wordes of the prophetes, whom he sent vnto vs (and to our rulers:)

22 But euery man followed his owne minde and wicked imagination, to offer vnto straunge gods, and to do euyl in the sight of the Lorde our God.

The.ii. Chapter.

1 The Iewes confesse that they iustly suffer for their sinnes. 12 The Lorde wyll that we obey vnto princes, although they be euyll.

FOr the whiche cause the Lorde our God hath performed his deuice, whereof he certified vs, and our heades that ruled in Hierusalem, yea and our kynges, our princes, with all Israel and Juda: 2 And suche plagues hath the Lord brought vpon vs, as neuer came to passe vnder the heauen, lyke as it is fulfilled in Hierusalem, according as it is written in the lawe of Moyses, 3 That a man should eate the flesche of his owne sonne, and the flesche of his owne daughter. 4 Moreouer, he hath deliuered them into the handes of all the kynges that are rounde about vs, to be confounded and desolate, and scattered them abrode in all landes and nations. 5 Thus are we brought beneath and not aboue, because we haue sinned against the lord our God, and haue not ben obedient vnto his voyce. 6 Therefore the Lorde our God is righteous, and we with our fathers (as reason is) are brought to open shame, as it is to see this day.

7 And as for these plagues that are come vpon vs alredy, the Lorde had deuised them for vs. 8 Yet wouldst we not pray vnto the Lorde our God, that we myght euery man turne turne from his vngodly waies. 9 So the Lord hath caused such plagues to come vpon vs: for he is righteous in all his workes whiche he hath commaunded vs: 10 Which we also haue not done, nor hearkened vnto his voyce for to walke in the commaundementes of the Lorde, that he hath geuen vnto vs. 11 And now O Lord God of Israel, thou that hast brought thy people out of the lande of Egypt Dan. ix. c. Exod. viii. d. with a mighty hande, with tokens & wonders, with thy great power and outstretched arme, and hast gotten thy self a name, as it is come to passe this day: 12 O Lorde our God, we haue sinned, we haue done wickedly, we haue behaued our selues vngodly in all thy righteousnesse. 13 Turne thy wrath from vs (we beseche thee) for we are but a fewe left among the heathen where thou hast scattered vs.

14 Heare our prayers O Lorde, and our petitions, & for thine owne sake, deliuer vs out of captiuitie C & graunt vs fauour in the sight of them whiche haue led vs away: 15 That all landes Par. vi. c may knowe that thou art the Lorde our God, and that Israel and his generation calleth vpon thy name.

16 O Lord looke downe from thy holy house vpon vs, encline thyne eare Deut. 26. c. and heare vs. 17 Open thyne eyes, and behold: for the dead that be gone downe to their graues, & whose soules Psal. cxiiii. c are out of their bodyes, ascribe vnto the Lorde neither prayse nor righteousnes: 18 But the soule that is vexed for the multitude (of her sinnes) which goeth on heauyly and weakely, whose eyes begin to fayle, yea such a soule ascribeth prayse and righteousnesse vnto the Lorde. 19 For we poure out our prayers before thee, and require mercy in thy sight O Lord our God, not for any godlynes of our fathers: 20 But because thou hast sent out thy wrath and indignation vpon vs, according as thou diddest threaten vs by thy seruauntes the prophetes, saying, 21 Thus saith the Lorde, Bowe downe your shoulders and neckes, and serue the kyng D of Babylon: so shall ye remayne styll Jer. xxviii. a in the lande that I gaue vnto your fathers. 22 But if ye wyll not heare the voyce of the Lorde your God, to serue the king of Babylon, 23 I wyl destroy you in the cities of Juda within Hierusalem and without: I wyl also take from you the voyce of myrth, and the voyce of ioy, the voyce of the bridegrome, & the voyce of the bryde, and there shall no man dwell more in the lande. 24 But they would not hearken vnto thy voyce to do the king of Babylon seruice: and therfore hast thou performed the words that thou spakest by thy seruauntes the prophetes: (namely) that the bones of our kynges, and the bones of our fathers should be translated out of their places: 25 And lo, nowe are they layde out in the heate of the sunne, and in the colde of the night, and dead in great miserie, with hunger, with swoorde, (with pestilence) and are cleane cast foorth. 26 As for the E temple wherein thy name was called vpon, thou hast layde it waste, as it is to see this day, and that for the wickednesse of the house of Israel, and the house of Juda. 27 O Lorde our God, thou hast intreated vs after all thy goodnes, and according to all that great louing mercy of thyne, 28 Like as thou spakest by thy seruaunt Moyses, in the day when thou diddest commaunde hym to write thy lawe before the chyldren of Israel, saying, 29 If ye wyll not hearken vnto my voyce, Deut. xxxi. d. then shal this great multitude be turned into a very small people among the nations, for I will scatter them abroode. 30 Notwithstanding, I am sure that this folke wyl not heare me, for it is an harde necked people: but in the lande of their captiuitie they shall remember them selues, 31 And learne to knowe that I am the Lorde their god, when I geue them an heart F to vnderstande, and eares to heare.

32 Then shall they prayse me in the lande of their captiuitie, and thinke vpon my name. 33 Then shall they turne them from their harde backes, and from their vngodlinesse: then shal they remember the thinges that happened vnto their fathers whiche sinned against me. 34 So wyll I bryng them againe into the lande whiche I promised with an oth vnto their fathers Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, and they shalbe lordes of it, yea I wyl encrease them, and not minishe them. 35 And I wyll make another couenaunt with them, such one as shal en- Hebr. viii. e dure for euer: (namely) that I wyll be their God, and they shalbe my people: and I wyll no more driue my people the chyldren of Israel out of the lande that I haue geuen them.

The.vi. Chapter.

A copie of the epistle that Ieremie sent vnto the Iewes, whiche were led away prisoners by the kyng of Babylon: wherin he certifieth them of the thing that was commaunded him of God.

In this chapter are the makers and maintayners of images mightyly confuted.

BEcause of the sinnes that ye haue done against God, ye shalbe led a-
A way captiue vnto Babylon, euen of Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon. 2 So when ye be come into Babylon, ye shall remayne there many yeres, & for a long season (namely) (a) seuen generations: and after that wyll I bryng you away peaceably from thence. 3 Nowe shall ye see in Babylon gods of golde, of siluer, of wood, and of stone, borne vpon mens shoulders, to cast out a fearefulnesse before the heathen. 4 But looke that ye do not as the other: be not ye afraide, and let not the feare of them ouercome you. 5 Therfore when ye see the multitude of people worshipping them behinde and before, say ye in your heartes, O Lorde, it is thou that oughtest only to be worshipped.
6 Myne angell also shalbe with you, & I my selfe wil care for your soules.
7 As for the " timber of those gods, the carpenter hath pulliſhed them: yea gilted be they and layed ouer with siluer, yet are they but vayne thinges, and can not speake. 8 Like as a wench that loueth paramours is trimly decht: euen so are these made & hanged with golde. 9 Crownes of golde verily haue their gods vpon their heades: so the priestes them selues take golde & siluer from them, and put it to their owne vses: 10 Yea they geue of the same vnto harlottes, and trimme their whores withall: againe, they take it from the whores, and decke their gods therewith:
11 Yet can not these gods deliuer them selues from rust and mothes.
12 When they haue couered them with clothing of purple, they wype their faces for the dust of the temple, wherof there is much among them.
13 One hath a scepter in his hand as though he were iudge of the countrey, yet can he not slay such as offende him. 14 Another hath a sworde or an axe in his hande: for all that he is neither able to defend him selfe from battayle, nor from murtherers.
15 By this ye may vnderstande that they be no gods: therefore see that ye neither neither worship them, nor feare them.

16 For like as a vessell that a man vseth is nothing worth when it is broken, euen so is it with their gods: when they be set vp in the temple, their eyes be full of dust through the feete of those that come in. 17 And like as the doores are shut in rounde about hym that hath offended the king, or as it were a dead body kept beside the graue: euen so the priestes kepe the doores with barres and lockes, lest their gods be spoyled with robbers. 18 They set vp candels before them, yea verily and that many, whereof they can not see one: but euen as blockes, so stande they in the temple. 19 It is sayde, that the serpentes & wormes whiche come of the earth gnawe out their beartes, eatyng them and their clothes also, and yet they feele it not. 20 Their faces are blacke, through the smoke that is in the temple. 21 The owles, swalowes, and birdes flee vpon them, yea and the cattes ranne ouer their heades.

22 By this ye may be sure that they are not gods therfore feare them not.

23 The golde that they haue is to make them beautifull: for all that, except some body digbt of their rust they wil geue no shine, and when they were cast into a fourme, they felt it not.

24 They are bought for money, and haue no breath of lyfe within them.

Wisd. 44. c. 25 They must be borne vpon mens shoulders as those that haue no feete, whereby they declare vnto men that they be nothing worth: confounded be they then that worship them. 26 For if they fal to the grounde, they can not ryse vp agayne of them selues: yea though one helpe them vp & set them vpright, yet are they not able to stande alone, but must haue proppes set vnder them like dead men. 27 As for the thing that is offred vnto them, their priestes sell it, and abuse it, yea the priestes wiues take thereof: but vnto the sicke and poore they geue nothyng of it. 28 The women with childe, and the menstruous lay handes of their offrings: By this ye may be sure that they are no gods, therefore be not ye afrayde of them. 29 From whence commeth it then that they be called gods? because women "sit before the gods of siluer, gold, & wood? 30 And the priestes sit in their temples, hauing "open clothes, whose heades & beardes are shauen, and haue nothyng vpon their heades, 31 Roaring and crying vpon their gods, as men do at the feast when one is dead. 32 The priestes also take away the garments of the images, and decke their wiues and children withall. 33 Whether it be good or euill that any man do vnto them, they are not able to recompence it: they can neither set vp a kyng, nor put hym downe. 34 In like maner, Eccle. 5. a. they may neither geue eyther, nor reuarde euyll: though a man make a bowe vnto them and kepe it not, they wil not require it. 35 They can saue no man from death, neither deliuer the weake from the mightie. 36 They can not restore a blynde man to his sight, nor helpe any man at his neede. 37 They can shewe no mercie to the widowe, nor do good to the fatherlesse. 38 Their gods of wood, stone, golde, and siluer, are but euen as other stones that be hewen of the mountayne: they that worship them, shalbe confounded. 39 Howe shoulde they then be taken for gods? yea how dare men cal them gods? "40 And though the Chaldees worshipped them not, hearing that they were but dumbe and coulde not speake: 41 yet they them selues offer vnto Bel, and woulde fayne haue hym to speake: as who say they coulde feele that may not moue. 42 But when these men come to vnderstandyng, they shall forsake them, for they gods haue no feeling. 43 A great sort of women girde with coardes, & sit in the streetes, & burne "olyue beries: Now if one of them be conueied away, and lie with such as come by, she casteth her neighbours in the teeth, because she was not worthyly reputed, nor her coarde broken. 44 What so euer is done for them, it is but in vayne and lost: How may it then be thought or sayde that they are gods? 45 Carpenters and goldesmithes make them: neither be they any other thyng but euen what the workmen wil make of them. 46 Yea the goldsmithes them selues that make them are of no long continuaunce: howe shoulde then the thynges that are made of them be gods? 47 Vayne therefore are the thinges, yea very shame is it that they leaue behynde them for their posteritie. 48 For alsoone as there commeth any warre or plague vpon them, then the priestes imagine where they may hyde them selues with them.

49 Howe

"or reade, 40 The Chaldees also dishonour them, the which, yf they shall see a dumbe one that can not speake, do present it to Bel, & do require that it may speake.

"or, brawe

"or, hyring lyters.

"or, rent.

49 Howe can men then thynke that they be gods, which neither may defende them selues from warre, nor deliuer them from misfortune?

50 For seeyng they be but of wood, (of stone) of siluer, and of gelde, all people and kynges shall knowe hereafter that they be but dayne thynges: yea it shalbe openly declared that they be no gods, but euen the very worckes of mens handes. and that God hath no thing to do with them. 51 It is manifest then that they are no gods, but the worckes of mens handes, and no worcke of God in them. 52 They can set no king in the lande, nor geue raine vnto men. 53 They can geue no sentence of a matter, neither defende the land from wrong: for they are not able to do so much as a crowe that fleeth betwixt heauen and earth. 54 When there happeneth a fire into the house of those gods of wood, and siluer, and of golde, the priestes will escape and saue them selues, but the gods burne as the balkes therin. 55 They can not withstande any kyng or battell: howe may it then be thought or graunted that they be gods? 56 Moreouer, these gods of wood, of stone, of golde and siluer, may neither defende them selues from theeues nor robbers:

57 Yea the very wycked are stronger then they: these stryp them out of their apparell that they be clothed withall, these take their golde and siluer from them, and so get them away, yet can they not helpe them selues.

58 Therefore it is muche better for a man to be a king, and so to shewe his power, or els a profitable vessell in a house, wherin he that owneth it might haue pleasure, yea or to be a doore in a house, to kepe such thynges safe as be therein: then to be suche a dayne god.

59 The sunne, the moone, and all the starres, seing they geue their shine and lyght, are obedient, and do men good.

60 When the lyghtning glitteeth, all is cleare. 61 The winde bloweth in euery countrey: & when God commaundeth the cloudes to go rounde about the whole worlde, they do as they are bidden. 62 When the fire is sent downe from aboue and commaunded, it burneth vp hilles and woodes: but as for those gods, they are not like one of these thynges, neither in beautie, neither in strength. 63 Wherefore men should not thinke nor say that they be gods, seyng they can neither geue sentence in iudgement, nor do men good.

64 For so muche nowe as ye are sure that they be no gods, then feare them not: 65 For they can neither speake euil nor good of kings. 66 They can shewe no tokens in heauens for the heathen, neither shyne as the sunne, nor geue light as the moone: 67 yea the vnreasonable beastes are better then they: for they can get them vnder the roofe, and do them selues good.

68 So can ye be certified by no maner of meanes that they be gods, therefore feare them not. 69 For lyke as a scarrow in a garden of hearbes keepeth nothing: euen so are their gods of wood, of siluer, and golde. 70 And like as a white thorne in an orchard that euery birde sitteth vpon, yea lyke as a dead body that is cast in the darke: euen so is it with those gods of wood, siluer, and golde. 71 By the purple & scarlet which they haue vpon them and soone fadeth away, ye may vnderstande that they be no gods: yea they them selues shalbe consumed at the last, which shalbe a great confusion of the land. 72 * Blessed is the godly man that hath no images (and vvorshyppeth none:) for he shalbe farre from reproofe.

2 The two gouernours are taken with the loue of Suſanna. 19 They take her alone in the garden. 20 They entice her to wickednes. 23 She choſeth rather to obey god, though it be to the daunger of her lyfe. 34 She is accuſed. 45 Daniel doth deliuer her. 62 The gouernours are put to death.

2 THere dwelt a man in Babylon, called Joacim, 2 That toke a wyfe whoſe name was Suſanna, the daughter of Helcia, a very fayre woman, and fuch one as feared God. 3 Her father & her mother alſo were good people, and taught theyr daughter accordyng to the lawe of Moyſes. 4 Nowe Joacim (her husband) was a great ryche man, and had a faire orchard ioynyng vnto his houſe: and to hym reſorted the Jewes commonly, becauſe he was a man of reputation among them.
5 The ſame yere were there made two two iudges, suche as the Lorde speaketh of. The wyckednes of Babylon commeth from the elders (that is) from the iudges which seeme to rule the people. 6 These came oft to Joacims house: and all suche as had any thing to doo in the lawe, came thither vnto them. 7 Nowe when the people departed away at noone, Susanna went into her husbandes orchard to walke. 8 The two elders seeyng this, that she went in dayly and walked, they burned for lust to her,

9 yea they were almost out of theyr wittes, and cast downe their eyes, that they shoulde not see heauen, nor remember that God is a ryghteous iudge. 10 For they were both wounded with the loue of her, neither durst one shewe an other his greefe:

11 And for shame they durst not tell her theyr inordinate lust, that they would fayne haue had to do with her: 12 Yet they layde wayte for her earnestly from day to day, that they might (at the least) haue a sight of her. 13 And the one sayde to the other, Vp, let vs go home, for it is dinnertime. So they went theyr way one from another.

14 When they returned agayne, they came together, enquiring out the matter betwixt them selues, yea the one tolde the other of his wicked lust: Then appoynted they a time when they myght take Susanna alone.

15 It happened also that they spyed out a conuenient time when she went foorth to walke, as her maner was, and no body with her but two maydens, and thought to wash her selfe in the garden: for it was an hot season.

Exod. 2. c. 16 And there was not one person there, except the two elders that had hid them selues to behold her. 17 So she sayde to her maydens, Go fet me oyle and sope, and shut the orcharde dooze, that I may washe me. 18 And they did as she bad them, and shut the orcharde dooze, and went out them selues at a backe dooze to fetche the thing that she had commaunded: * but Susanna knewe not that the elders lay there hid within. 19 Now when the maydens were gone foorth, the two elders gat them vp, and ran vpon her, saying, 20 Nowe the orcharde doores are shut that no man can see vs, we haue a lust vnto thee, therefore consent vnto vs, and lye with vs:

21 If thou wilt not, we shall byrng a testimoniall agaynst thee, that there was a young felowe with thee, & that thou hast sent away thy maydens from thee for the same cause. 22 Then Susanna sighed, and sayde, Alas, I am in trouble on euery side: though I followe your minde, it will be my death: and yf I consent not vnto you, I can not escape your handes. 23 Well, it is better for me to fall into your hand without the deede doing, then to sinne in the sight of the lord. 24 And with that she cryed out with a loude voyce: the elders also cryed out agaynst her.

25 Then ran there one to the orchard dooze, and smote it open. 26 Nowe when the seruauntes of the house heard the crie in the orchard, they rushed in at the backe dooze to see what the matter was. 27 So when the elders tolde them, the seruauntes were greatly ashamed: for why? there was neuer such a report made of Susanna.

28 On the morowe after came the people to Joacim her husbande, and the two elders came also full of mischeuous imaginations agaynst Susanna, to bring her vnto death,

29 And spake thus before the people: Sende for Susanna the daughter of Helchias, Joacims wyfe. And immediatly they sent for her. 30 So she came with her father and mother, her children and all her kindred.

31 Now Susanna was a tender person, and marueylous fayre of face.

32 Therefore the wycked men commaunded to take her clothes from her face (for she was couered) that at the least they might so be satisfied in her beautie. 33 Then her freendes, yea and all they that knewe her, began to weepe. 34 These two elders stoode vp in the middes of the people, & laide Leuit. 24. c. 14. theyr handes vpon the head of Susanna, 35 Which wept, and loked vp toward heauen: for her heart had a sure trust in the Lord. 36 And the elders sayde, As we were walking in the orchard alone, this woman came in with her two maydens, whom she sent away from her, and sparred the orchard doores: 37 With that a young felowe which there was hid, came vnto her, and lay with her. 38 As for vs, we stoode in a corner of the orcharde: and when we sawe this wyckednesse, we ranne to them, and we sawe them as they were together. 39 But we could not hold him, for he was stronger then we. Thus he opened the dooze, and gat him away. 40 Nowe when when we had taken this woman, we aſked her what young felowe this was, but ſhe woulde not tell vs. This is the matter, and we be wytneſſes of the ſame. 41 The common ſort beleued them, as thoſe that were the elders and iudges of the people, and ſo they condempned her to death.

Deu. 4. c.

42 Suſanna cryed out with a loude voyce, and ſayde, O euerlaſtyng God, thou ſearcher of ſecretes, thou that knoweſt all thinges before they come to paſſe: 43 Thou woteſt that they haue borne falſe witneſſe agaynſt me, and beholde I muſt dye, whereas I neuer did any ſuche thinges as theſe men haue maliciouſly inuented againſt me. 44 And the lord heard her voyce. 45 For when ſhe was led forth to death, the lord rayſed vp the ſpirite of a yong childe, whoſe name was Daniel, 46 Which cryed with a loude voyce, I am cleane from this blood. 47 Then al the people turned towarde him, and ſayde, What meane theſe wordes that thou haſt ſpoken?

2. Sam. 3. f.

48 Daniel ſtoode in the myddeſt of them, and ſayde, Are ye ſuch fooles O ye children of Iſrael, that ye can not diſcerne & knowe the trueth? Ye haue here condempned a daughter of Iſrael vnto death, and knowne not the trueth wherefore? 49 Go ſit in iudgement agayne: for they haue ſpoken falſe witnes agaynſt her. 50 Wherefore the people turned agayne in al the haſte: & the elders (that is the principall heades) ſaid vnto him, Come ſit downe here among vs, & ſhewe vs this matter, ſeeyng God hath geuen thee as great honour as an elder. 51 And Daniel ſayde vnto them, Put theſe two aſide one from an other, and then ſhall I examine them. 52 When they were put aſunder one from another, he called one of them, & ſaid vnto him, O thou olde rankarde carle that haſt vſed thy wickednes ſo long, thine vngracious deedes which thou haſt done afore, are now come to light, 53 For thou haſt geuen falſe iudgementes, thou haſt oppreſſed the innocent, and letten the giltie go free: where as yet the Lorde ſayth, The innocent and righteous ſee thou ſlay not. 54 Well then, if thou haſt ſeene her, tel me vnder what tree ſaweſt thou them companying together? He aunſwered, vnder a * Mulbery tree. 55 And Daniel ſayd, Very well, nowe thou lyeſt euen vpon thine head: lo, the meſſenger of the lord hath receaued the ſentence of hym, to cut thee in two. 56 Then put he him aſide, and called for the other, and ſaide vnto him, O thou ſeede of Chanaan, but not of Iuda, fayrenelle hath deceaued thee, and luſt hath ſubuerted thine heart. 57 Thus dealt ye afore with the daughters of Iſrael, & they for feare conſented vnto you: but the daughter of Iuda woulde not abide your wickednes. 58 Now tell me then vnder what tree diddeſt thou take them companying together? He aunſwered, Vnder a * Pomegranate tree. 59 Then ſaid Daniel vnto him, Very well, nowe thou lyeſt alſo euen vpon thine head: the meſſenger of the lord ſtandeth waytyng with the ſword to cut thee in two, and ſlay you both.

* or, a Lentiſke tree.

* or, a pyne tree, or a mittel tree.

60 With that all the whole multitude gaue a great ſhowte, and prayſed god which alway deliuereth them that put their truſt in him. 61 And they came vpon the two elders, whom Daniel had conuict with their owne mouth that they had geuen falſe witneſſe, 62 And dealt with them euen lykewyſe as they woulde haue done with their neyghbours, yea they dyd according to the lawe of Moyſes, and put them to death: Thus the innocent blood was ſaued the ſame day.

¶ The ſtory of Bel & of the Dragon, which is the fourteenth Chapter of Daniel after the Latine.

1 DAniel did eate at the kinges table, and was had in reuerence aboue all his freendes.

2 There was at Babylon an image called Bel, and there were ſpent vpon hym euery day twelue cakes, fourtie sheepe, and ſyx great pottes of wyne. 3 Him dyd the kyng worſhip hym ſelfe, and went dayly to honour him, but Daniel worſhipped worshipped his owne God: And the king saide vnto him, Why doest not thou worship Bel? 4 He answered and sayde, Because I may not worshyp thynges that be made with handes, but the liuing god which made heauen and earth, and hath power vpon all flesshe. 5 The kyng sayde vnto him, Thinkest thou not that Bel is a liuing God? or seest thou not howe muche he eateth and drynketh euery day?

6 Daniel smyled and sayde, O kyng deceaue not thy selfe: for this is but made of clay within, and of brasse without, neither eateth he euer any thyng. 7 Then the kyng was wroth, and called for his priestes, and sayde vnto them, If ye tell me not who is this that eateth vp these expences, ye shall dye: 8 But if ye can certifie me that Bel eateth them, then Daniel shall dye: for he hath spoken blasphemie against Bel. And Daniel said vnto the king, Let it so be, according as thou hast said. 9 The priestes of Bel were three score and ten, besides theyr wyues and chyldren: And the kyng went with Daniel into the temple of Bel. 10 So Bels priestes sayde, Lo, we wyll go out: & set thou the meate there O kyng, and powre in the wine, then shut the doore fast, and seale it with thine owne signet: 11 And to morowe when thou comest in, yf thou findest not that Bel hath eaten vp all, we will suffer death: or els Daniel, that hath lyed vpon vs. 12 The priestes thought them selues sure inough: for vnder the *auter they had made a priuy entraunce, and there went they in euer, & dyd eate vp what there was. 13 So when they were gone forth, the kyng set meates before Bel: Nowe Daniel had commaunded his seruauntes to bryng asshes, and these be *syfted throughout all the temple, that the king might see: then went they out & sparred the doore, sealing it with the kings signet, and so departed. 14 In the night came the priestes, with their wyues and chyldren as they were wont to do, and did eate and drinke vp all. 15 In the morning betymes at the breake of the day the kyng arose, and Daniel with him. 16 And the king said, Daniel are the seales whole yet? He answered, yea O kyng, they be whole. 17 Nowe assoone as he had opened the doore, the king looked vnto the *auter, & cryed with a loude voyce, Great art thou O Bel, and with thee is no deceipt. 18 Then laughed Daniel, and held the king that he shoulde not go in, and sayd, Behold the pauement, marke wel whose foot steppes are these? 19 The king said, I see the foatsteps of men, women, and children. 20 Therefore the king was angry, and tooke the priestes, with theyr wyues and chyldren: and they shewed hym the priuie doores where they came in, and dyd eate vp suche thynges as were vpon the auter:

21 For the which cause the kyng slue them, and deliuered Bel into Daniels power, whiche destroyed hym and his temple. 22 And in that same place there was a great Dragon, which they of Babylon worshypped. 23 And the kyng sayde vnto Daniel, Sayest thou that this is but a god of brasse also? Lo, he liueth, he eateth and drinketh, so that thou canst not say that he is no lyuyng God: therefore worship him. 24 Daniel sayde vnto the king, I will worshyp the Lorde my God, he is the true lyuyng God: as for this he is not the God of lyfe. 25 But gene me leaue O king, and I shall destroy this Dragon without swoorde or staffe. The king sayd, I gene thee leaue. 26 Then Daniel tooke pitche, fat, and heary woolle, and dyd seeth them together, & made lumpes thereof: this he put in the Dragons mouth, and so the Dragon burst in sunder. And Daniel sayde, Lo, there is he whom ye worshypped. 27 When they of Babylon heard that, they tooke great indignation, and gathered them together against the kyng, saying, The kyng is become a Jewe, and he hath destroyed Bel, he hath slayne the Dragon, and put the priestes to death. 28 So they came to the kyng, and sayde, Let vs haue Daniel, or els we wyll destroy thee and thyne house. 29 Nowe when the kyng sawe that they rushed in so sore vpon him, and that necessitie constrayned hym, he deliuered Daniel vnto them:

30 Whiche cast hym into the lions denne, where he was sixe dayes.

31 In the denne there were seuen lions, and they had geuen them euery day two bodyes and two sheepe: whiche then were not geuen them, to the intent that they myght deuoure Daniel. 32 There was in Jurie a prophete called Habacuc, whiche had made potage, and broken hand in a boule, and was going into the feelde for to bryng it to the reapers. 33 But the angel of the Lord sayd vnto Habacue, Go carry the meate that thou hast into Babylon vnto Daniel whiche is in the lions den. 34 And Habacue sayde, Lord, I neuer sawe Babylon, & as for the den I know it not. 35 Then the angel of the Lorde tooke him by the coppe, and bare him by the heere of the head, and through a mightie winde set hym in Babylon vpon the denne. 36 And Habacue cryed, saying, O Daniel thou seruaunt of God, haue, take the * breakfast that God hath sent thee. 37 And Daniel sayde, O God, hast thou thought vpon me? wel, than neuer fayleste them that loue thee. 38 So Daniel arose and did eate. And the angel of the Lorde set Habacue in his owne place agayne immediatly. 39 Vpon the seuenth day, the kyng went to bewepe Daniel: and when he came to the denne, he loked in, and beholde, Daniel sate (in the middest of the lions.) 40 Then cryed the kyng with a loude voyce, saying, Great art thou O lord God of Daniel, and there is none other besides thee. 41 And he drewe hym out of the lions den, and cast those that were the cause of his destruction into the den, & they were deuoured in a moment before his face. 42 After this, wrote the kyng vnto al people, kinredes and tongues, that dwelt in all countreys, 43 Saying, Peace be multiplied with you: My commaundement is in al the dominion of my realme, that men feare and stand in awe of Daniels God, for he is the lyuyng God, which endureth euer: 44 His kingdome abideth incorrupt, and his power is euerlasting. 45 It is he that can deliuer and saue, he doth wonders and marueylous workes in heauen and in earth: for he hath saued Daniel from the power of the lions.

The prayer of Manasses king of Iuda, when he was holden captiue in Babylon.

O Lorde almyghtie, God of our fathers, Abraham, Isahac, & Jacob, and of the rygheteous seede of them: which hast made heauen and earth, with all the ornament thereof, whiche hast * aideyned the sea by the worde of thy commaundement, which hast shut vp the deepe, and hast sealed it for thy fearefull and laudable name, which all men feare, and tremble before the face of thy power, and not for the anger of thy threatnyng, the which is importable to sinners, but the mercy of thy promise is great & vnsearchable: for thou art the Lorde God most high & of all the earth, long suffering, and exceeding mercifull, and repenteste vpon the malice of men: Thou Lorde after thy goodnes hast promised repentaunce of the remission of sinnes, and thou that art the God of the rygheteous, hast not put repentaunce to the righteous Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, vnto them that haue not sinned against thee: but because I haue sinned aboue the number of the sandes of the sea, and that mine iniquities are multiplied, I am * humbled with many bandes of iron, and there is in me no breathyng, I haue prouoked thyne anger, and haue done euyll before thee, in committyng abhominations, and multiplying offences: and nowe I bowe the knees of my heart, requiring goodnes of thee O Lorde. I haue sinned Lord, I haue sinned, and knowe myne iniquitie, I beseche thee by prayer O Lorde forgeue me, forgeue me, and destroy me not with myne iniquities, neither do thou alwayes remember myne euyls to punyshe them: but saue me (which am vnworthy) after thy great mercie, and I will praise thee euerlastyngly all the dayes of my lyfe: for all the powre of heauen praiseth thee, and vnto thee belongeth glory, worlde without ende, Amen.

28 There shall be no warre betwixt me and you, I wyll come with a fewe men, to see howe ye do with frendshyp.
29 Vpon this he came vnto Judas, and they saluted one another peaceably: but the enemies were appoynted to take Judas by violence. 30 Nevertheless it was told de Judas that he came vnto hym but vnder disceipt: wherefore he gate hym away from hym, and would see his face no more.
31 When Nicanor perceaued that his counsell was bewrayed, he went out to fight against Judas beside "Caphar salama: 32 Where there were slayne of Nicanors hoast fiue thousand men, and the residue fled vnto the castle of Dauid. 33 After this came Nicanor vp vnto mount Sion, and the priestes with the elders of the people went forth to salute hym peaceably, and to shew hym the whole burnt sacrifices that were offered for the kyng. 34 But he laughed them & the people to scorne, mocked them, defiled their offeringes, and spake disdaynefully: 35 Yea and swore in his wrath, saying. If Judas and his hoast be not deliuered now into my handes, assoone as euer I come agayne & fare well, I shall burne vp this house. With that went he out in a great anger. 36 Then the priestes came in, and stoode before the auter of the temple, weeping, and saying, 37 Forsomuch as thou O Lorde hast chosen this house, that thy name myght be called vpon therin, and that it shoulde be an house of prayer and petition for thy people: 38 Be auenged of this man and his hoast, and let them be slayne with the sworde: remember the blasphemies of them, and suffer not them to continue any longer.
39 When Nicanor was gone from Hierusalem, he pitched his tent at Bethoron, and there an hoast met him out of Syria. 40 And Judas came to Adarsa with three thousande men, and made his prayer vnto God, saying, 41 O Lorde, because the messengers of kyng Sennacherib blasphemed thee, the angell went forth and slue an hundred fourscore and fiue thousande of them: 42 Euen so destroy thou this hoast before vs to day, that other people may knowe howe that he hath blasphemed thy sanctuarie, and punishe hym accordyng to his malicious nes. 43 And so the hoastes stroke the feelde the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar: & Nicanors hoast was discomfited, and he him selfe was first slayne in the battayle. 44 When Nicanors men of warre sawe that he was kylled, they cast away their weapons and fled: 45 But the Jewes folowed vpon them a whole dayes iourney from Adazer vnto Gazara, blowing with the trumpets, and making tokens after them. 46 So the Jewes came forth of all the townes rounde about, and blewe out their hornes vpon them, & turned agaynst them: thus were they all slayne, and not one of them left. 47 Then they toke their substaunce for a pray, and smote of Nicanors head, & his ryght hande which he helde vp so proudely, and brought it with them, and hanged it vp afore Hierusalem. 48 Wherefore the people were exceedingly reioyced, & passed ouer that day in great gladnesse. 49 And Judas ordayned that the same day (namely) the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar, should be kept in myrth euery yere.
50 Thus the lande of Juda was in rest a litle whyle.

against them: 6 Howe they discomfited great Antiochus kyng of Asia that wolde needes fight with them, hauing an hundred and twentie Elephantes, with horsemen, charets, and a very great hoast: 7 Howe they toke hym selfe alyue, and ordayned hym, with such as should raigne after hym, to pay them a great tribute, yea and to finde them good sureties and pledges beside all this: 8 Howe they had taken from hym India, Media, and Lydia, his best landes, and geuen them to kyng Eumenus.

9 Agayne, howe they perceaued that the Grekes were comming to vexe them, 10 Sent against them a captayne of an hoast, whiche gaue them battayle, slue many of them, led away their wiues and children captiue, spoyled them, toke possession of their lande, & destroyed their strong holdes, and subdued them to be their bondmen vnto this day. 11 Moreouer, howe that as for other kyngdomes and Iles which sometime withstoode them, they destroyed them, & brought them vnder their dominion: 12 But kept amitie with their owne frendes, and those that were confederate with them, and conquered kingdomes both farre and nye: and that whosoeuer heard of their renowme was afraide of them. 13 For whom they woulde helpe to their kingdomes, those raigned: and whom it liked not them to raigne, they put them downe: And howe they were come to great preheminence, 14 Hauing no kyng among them, neither any man clothed in purple to be magnified therethrough:

15 But had ordayned them selues a " parliament, wherin there sate three hundred and twentie senatours dayly vpon the counsell, to dispatch euer the businesse of the people, & to kepe good order: 16 And howe that euery yere they chose a " Ruler to haue the gouernaunce of all their lande, to whom euery man was obedient, and there was neither cuyll wyll nor distention among them. 17 Then Judas chose Eupolemus the sonne of John the sonne of " Jacob, and Jason the sonne of Eleazar, and sent them to Rome for to make frendshyp and a bonde of loue with them, 18 That they might take from them the bondage of the Grekes: for the Jewes sawe that the Grekes would subdue the kyngdome of Israel. 19 So they went vnto Rome a very great iourney, and came vnto the " parliament, & sayd, 20 Judas Machabeus, with his brethren, and the people of the Jewes, hath sent vs vnto you, to make a bond of frendshyp and peace with you, and ye to note vs as your louers and frendes.

21 And that matter pleased the Romanes ryght well. 22 Wherfore it was written vp: of the which the Romanes made a writing in tables of brasse, and sent it to Hierusalem, that they might haue by them a memoriall of the same peace and bonde of frendshyp, after this maner: 23 God saue the Romanes and the people of the Jewes both by sea and by lande, and kepe the sworde & enemie from them for euermore: 24 If there come first any warre vpon the Romanes, or any of their frendes throughout all their dominion, 25 The people of the Jewes shall helpe them, as the tyme requireth, & that with al their hearts.

26 Also they shall neither gene nor sende vnto their enemies victayles, weapons, money, nor shippes: but fulfil their couenauntes at the Romanes pleasure, taking nothing of them therfore. 27 Agayne, if the people of the Jewes happen first to haue warre, the Romanes shall stande by them with a good wyll, according as the tyme will suffer: 28 Neither shall they gene vnto the Jewes enemies victayles, weapons, money, or shippes: Thus are the Romanes content to do, and shall fulfill their charge without any disceipt. 29 According to these articles the Romanes made the bonde with the Jewes. 30 Nowe after these articles (sayde they) if any of the parties wil put to them, or take any thing frō them, they shal do it with the consent of both: & whatsoeuer they adde vnto them, or take from them, it shall stande fast. 31 And as touching the cuyll that Demetrius hath done vnto the Jewes, we haue written vnto him, saying, Wherfore layest thou thy heauie yoke vpō the Jewes our frendes & louers? 32 If they make any complaint of thee againe vnto vs, we shall defende them, and fight with thee by sea and by lande, according to iustice.

The ix. Chapter.

1 After the death of Nicanor, Demetrius sendeth his armie against Iudas.
18 Iudas is slayne.

IN the meane season when Demetrius heard that Nicanor and his hoast

hoast was slayne in the feelde, he proceeded further to sende Bacchides and Alcimus agayne into Jurie, and the chiefe strength of his hoast with them. 2 So they went forth by the way that leadeth vnto Galgala, and pitched their tentes before Masaloth (whiche is in Arbellis) and wan the citie, and slue much people. 3 In the first moneth of the hundred fiftie and two yere, they brought their hoast and layde their siege against Hierusalem: 4 But rayling their campe, they came to Berea with twentie thousand footemen, and two thousand horsemen. 5 Nowe Judas had pitched his tent at *Laisa, with three thousande chosen men, 6 And when thei saw the multitude of the other armie that it was so great, they were sore afraide, & many conueyed them selues out of the hoast, insomuch that there abode no mo of them but eyght hundred men. 7 When Judas sawe that his hoast fayled him, and that he must needes fight, it brake his heart, that he had no tyme to gather them together: wherefore the man was in extreme trouble. 8 Nenertheleste he sayde vnto them that remayned with hym, Vp, let vs go against our enemies, peraduenture we shal be able to fight with them. 9 But they would haue stopped hym, saying, We shall not be able: therfore nowe let vs saue our lines, and turne agayne to our brethren: for shoulde we fight against them, beyng so fewe? 10 And Judas sayde, (a) God forbyd that we shoulde flee from them: wherfore if our tyme be come, let vs dye manfully for our brethren, and let vs not stayne our honour. 11 Then the hoast remoued out of the tentes, and stoode against them, and the horsemen were diuided in two partes: and sling casters and archers went before the hoast, and all the mightie men were formost in the feelde. 12 Bacchides him selfe was in the ryght wyng of the battayle, and the hoast drue nye in two partes, and blewe the trumpets. 13 They of Judas side blewe the trumpets also, and the earth shooke at the noyse of the hoastes: and they strake a feelde from the morowe tyll night. 14 And when Judas saw that Bacchides hoast was strongest of the right side, he toke with him al the hardie men, 15 And brake the right wyng of their order, and followed vpon them vnto mount Azot.

16 Nowe when they which were the left wyng, sawe that the right side was discomfited, they persecuted Judas and them that were with hym harde at the heeles. 17 Then was there a sore battayle: for many were slayne and wounded on both the partes.

18 Judas also him selfe was kylled, and the remnaunt fled. 19 So Jonathas & Simon toke Judas their brother, and buryed hym in his fathers sepulchre in the citie of Modin.

20 And all the people of Israel made great lamentation for him, and mourned long, saying, 21 Alas that this worthy should be slaine, which deliuered the people of Israel. 22 As for other thinges pertayning to the battayles of Judas, the noble actes that he did, and of his worthynes, they are not written, for they were very many.

23 Nowe after the death of Judas, wicked men came vp in all the coastes of Israel, and there arose all such as dyd worke vngodlinesse. 24 In those dayes was there a great dearth in the lande, and all the countrey gaue ouer them selues and theirs vnto Bacchides. 25 So Bacchides chose wicked men, & made them lordes in the lande. 26 These sought out and made search for Judas freendes, and brought them vnto Bacchides, whiche auenged him selfe vpon them with great dispite.

27 And there came so great trouble in Israel, as was not since the tyme that no prophete was seene there.

28 Then came all Judas freendes together, and sayde vnto Jonathas:

29 Forsomuch as thy brother Judas is dead, there is none like hym to go forth against our enemies, against Bacchides and suche as are aduersaries of our owne people: 30 Wherefore this day we choose thee for hym to be our prince and captayne to order our battayle. 31 And Jonathas toke the gouernance vpon hym at the same tyme, and ruled in steade of his brother Judas. 32 When Bacchides gat knowledge thereof, he sought for to slay him. 33 But Jonathas & Simon his brother perceauing that, fled into the wyldernesse of Thecua with all their company, & pitched their tentes by the water poole of Asphar. 34 Which when Bacchides vnderstoode, he came ouer Jordane with all his hoast vpon the Sabbath day. 35 Nowe had Jonathas sent his brother (Iohn) a captayne of the people, to pray his freendes the Nabathites, that they woulde lende them their ordinaunce, for they had much. 36 So the chyldren of " Jambri came out of Madaba, and toke John and all that he had, and went their way withal when they had taken it. 37 Then came worde vnto Jonathas and Simon his brother, that the children of Jambri made a great mariage, and brought the bride from Madaba with great pompe: for she was daughter to one of the noblest princes of Chanaan. 38 Wherfore they remembred the blood of John their brother, and went vp, and hyd them selues vnder the shadowe of the mountayne. 39 So they lift vp their eyes, and looked, and beholde there was much a do and great preparation: for the bridegrome came forth, and his freendes and his brethren met them with tympanies, instrumentes of musicke, and many weapons.

40 Then Jonathas and they that were with hym rose out of their lurking places against them, and slue many of them: and the remnaunt fled into the mountaines, and they toke al their substaunce. 41 Thus the mariage was turned to mourning, and the noyse of their melodie into lamentation. 42 And so when they had reuenged the (a) blood of their brother, they turned agayne vnto Jordane.

43 Bacchides hearing this, came vnto the very border of Jordane with a great power vpon the Sabbath day.

44 And Jonathas sayde to his company, Let vs get vp, and fight against our enemies: for it standeth not with vs to day, as in tyme past. 45 Beholde, our enemies are in our way, the water of Jordane vpon the one side of vs, with banckes, fennes, and woods on the other side, so that there is no place for vs to depart vnto.

45 Wherfore crye nowe vnto heauen, that ye may be deliuered from the power of your enemies: So they stroke the battayle. 47 And Jonathas stretched out his hande to smyte Bacchides, but he fled backwarde.

48 Then Jonathas and they that were with hym, leapt into Jordane, and swimmed ouer Jordane vnto the further banke: but the other wolde not passe ouer Jordane after hym.

49 And there were slayne of Bacchides syde that day a thousande men.

50 Therefore Bacchides with his hoast turned agayne to Hierusalem, and buylt vp the castles and strong holdes that were in Iurie, Jericho, Emaus, Bethoron, Bethel, Thamnata, " Phara, and " Thopo, with hye walles, with portes, and with lockes:

51 And set men to kepe them, that they might vse their malice vpon Israel. 52 He walled vp the citie Bethsura, Gazara, and the castle, and prouided them with men and vittayles.

53 He toke also the cheefest mens sonnes in the countrey for pledges, and put them in the castle at Hierusalem to be kept. 54 Afterwarde in the hundred fiftie and three yere, in the seconde moneth, Alcimus commaunded that they should destroy the walles of the inwarde court of the sanctuarie, and he pulled downe and began to destroy the monumentes of the prophetes. 55 But at the same tyme Alcimus was plagued and smitten with a palsie, and his enterprises were hindered, and his mouth was stopped (by God) so that he coulde no more speake nor commaunde any of his house concerning his businesse.

56 Thus dyed Alcimus in great misserie at the same time. 57 And when Bacchides sawe that Alcimus was dead, he turned agayne to the kyng: and so the land was in rest two yeres.

58 Then all the vngodly men helde a counsell, saying, Beholde, Jonathas and his company are at ease, and dwel without care, wherefore let vs bring Bacchides hyther, and he shall take them all in one night. 59 So they went and gaue Bacchides this counsell. 60 Whiche arose to come with a great hoast, and sent letters priuily to his adherentes which were in Jurie, to take Jonathas and those that were with hym: but they myght not, for the other had gotten knowledge of their deuice. 61 And Jonathas tolde fiftie men of the countrey, which were the ringleaders of them, & slue them.

62 Then Jonathas and Simon with their company departed vnto the citie " Bethbasin, whiche lyeth in the wildernesse, and repayred the decay thereof, and made it strong. 63 When Bacchides knewe this, he gathered al his hoast, and sent worde to them that were in Jurie. 64 Then came he and layde syege to Bethbasin, and fought against it a long season, & made instruments of warre. 65 Now Jonathas left his brother Simon in the citie, & went forth him self into the countrey, and came with a certayne number,

66 And slue * Odomeras and his brethren, and the chyldren of Phaseron in their tentes, so that he began to be strong, and to increase in power.

67 As for Simon and his company they went out of the citie, and brent vp the instrumentes of warre. 68 And fought against Bacchides, and discomfited hym: & Bacchides was sore vexed, because his counsell and trauayle was in vayne. 69 Wherfore he was wroth at the wicked men (a) that gaue hym counsell to come into their lande, and slue many of them: then purposed he with his company to go away into his owne countrey.

70 Whereof when Jonathas had knowledge, he sent ambassadours vnto hym for to make peace with hym, and that he shoulde deliuer hym his prisoners agayne. 71 To the which Bacchides consented gladly, and dyd according to his desire: yea and made an othe that he shoulde neuer do hym harme all the dayes of his lyfe.

72 So he restored vnto hym all the prisoners that he had taken out of the lande of Juda, and then turned and went his way into his owne lande, neither proceeded he any further to come vnto the borders of Juda.

73 Thus Israel had no more warre, and Jonathas dwelt at Machmas, and began there to gouerne the people, and destroyed the vngodly men out of Israel.

The. x. Chapter.

4 Demetrius desireth to haue peace with Ionathas. 48 Alexander moueth warre against Demetrius. 50 Demetrius is slayne. 51 The freendship of Ptolomeus and Alexander.

IN the hundred and threescore yere came Alexander the sonne of noble * Antiochus, and toke Ptolemais, whose citizins receaued hym, & there he raigned. 2 When Demetrius heard thereof, he gathered an exceeding great hoast, and went forth against hym to fight. 3 Wherefore Demetrius sent letters vnto Jonathas with louing wordes, & praysed hym greatly.

4 For he sayde, We will first make peace with hym, before he bynde hym selfe with Alexander against vs:

5 Els he shal remember the euil that we haue done against hym, his brother, & his people. 6 And so he gaue Jonathas leaue to gather an hoast, to make weapons, and to be confederate with hym, and commaunded the pledges that were in the castle to be deliuered vnto him. 7 Then came Jonathas to Jerusalem, and read the letters in the audience of all the people, and of them that were in the castle.

8 And therfore were they sore afraid, because they hearde that the kyng had geuen him licence to gather an hoast.

9 Thus were the pledges deliuered vnto Jonathas, whiche restored them to their parentes. 10 Jonathas also dwelt at Jerusalem, and began to buylde vp and to repayre the citie:

11 Commaunding the workemen to wall it and the mount Sion rounde about with free stone, to be a strong holde: and so they dyd. 12 As for the heathen that were in the castles whiche Bacchides had made vp, they fled: 13 So that euery man left the place, & went into his owne countrey.

14 Only at Bethsura remayned certayne of the Jewes, whiche had forsaken the lawe and commaundementes of God, for Bethsura was their refuge. 15 Nowe when kyng Alexander heard of the promises that Demetrius had made vnto Jonathas, and when it was told him of the battailes and noble actes which he and his brethren had done, and of the great trauayles that they had taken, 16 He said, Where shal we finde such a man? well, we will make hym our freende, and be confederat with him. 17 Vpon this he wrote a letter vnto hym, with these wordes: 18 Kyng Alexander saluteth his brother Jonathas.

19 We haue heard of thee that thou art a valiaunt man, and meete to be our freende: 20 Wherfore this day we ordayne thee to be the hye priest of thy people, and to be called the kinges freende (Vpon this he sent him a purple clothing, and a crowne of golde) that thou mayest consider what is for our profite, and kepe freendship towarde vs. 21 So in the seuenth moneth of the hundred & threescore yere, vpon the solempne feast day of the tabernacles, Jonathas put the holy rayment vpon hym: then gathered he an hoast, and prepared many weapons. 22 Whiche when Demetrius heard, he was maruelous sory, 23 And sayde, Alas what haue we done, that Alexander hath preuented vs, in getting the freendship of the Jewes for his owne defence? 24 Yet wyll I wryte louingly vnto them also, yea and promise them dignities and rewardes, that they may be of my ſide. 25 Wherypon he wrote vnto them theſe wordes, Kyng Demetrius ſendeth greeting vnto the people of the Jewes: 26 Whereas ye haue kept your couenaunt toward vs, and continued in our freendſhip, not inclining to our enemies, we were glad when we hearde thereof.

27 Wherefore remayne ſtyll and be faythfull to vs, and we ſhall well recompence you for the thinges that ye haue done on our partie: 28 We ſhall releaſſe you of many charges, and gene you rewardes. 29 And now I diſcharge you & all the Jewes from tributes, I forgeue you the cuſtomes of ſalt, and releaſſe you of the crowne taxes, of the thirde part of ſeede,

30 And halfe the fruite of trees, whiche is myne owne duetie, I do releaſſe them from this day forth, ſo that they ſhall not be taken of the lande of Juda, nor of the three cities whiche are added therunto out of Samaria and Galilee, from this day forth, for euermore. 31 Hieruſalem alſo, with all thinges belonging thereto ſhalbe holy and free, yea the tythes and tributes ſhall pertayne vnto it. 32 As for the power of the caſtle whiche is at Hieruſalem, I remit and gene it vnto the high prieſt, that he may ſet in it ſuche men as he ſhall chooſe to kepe it. 33 I freely deliuer all the Jewes that are priſoners throughout al my realme, ſo that euery one of them ſhalbe free from paying any tribute, yea euen of their cattell. 34 All the ſolemne feaſtes, Sabbathes, newe moones, the dayes appoynted, the three dayes before and after the feaſt, ſhalbe free for all the Jewes in my realme. 35 So that in them no man ſhall haue power to do any thing, or to vexe any of them in any maner of cauſe. 36 There ſhal thirtie thouſand alſo of the Jewes be written vp in the kynges hoaſt, and haue their wages payed as all other men of warre of the kynges ſhoulde haue: and of them ſhalbe ordayned certayne to kepe the kynges ſtrong holdes, 37 Yea and ſome of them ſhalbe ſet ouer the kynges ſecrete affaires: and their gouernours & princes ſhalbe of them ſelues, and liue after their owne lawes, as the kyng hath commaunded in the lande of Juda. 38 And the three cities that are fallen vnto Jurie from the countrey of Samaria, ſhalbe taken as Jurie, and be vnder one, neither be ſubiect to any ſtraunge lord, but to the hye prieſt.

39 As for Ptolemais and the lande pertayning thereto, I gene it vnto the ſanctuarie at Hieruſalem, for the neceſſarie expences of the holy thinges.

40 Moreouer, I will gene euery yere fyfteene thouſande ſicles of ſiluer of the kynges reuennes, out of the places appertayning vnto me. 41 And all the ouerplus which they haue not payde for thinges due, as they dyd in the former yeres, from henceforth they ſhall gene it to maede the workes of the temple. 42 And beſides this, the fiue thouſand ſicles of ſiluer which they receaued yerely of the accompe appoynted for the intertaynement of the ſanctuarie theſe yeres paſſed, euen theſe thinges ſhalbe releaſſed, becauſe they appertayne to the prieſtes that miniſter. 43 Item, whoſoeuer they be that flee vnto the temple at Hieruſalem, or within the liberties thereof, where as they are fallen into the kinges daunger for any maner of buſineſſe, they ſhalbe pardoned, and all the goodes that they haue in my realme ſhalbe free. 44 For the buylding alſo and repayring of the workes of the ſanctuarie, expences ſhalbe gonen out of the kynges reuennes:

45 Yea and for the making of the walles rounde about Hieruſalem, for the breakyng downe of the olde, and for the ſetting vp of the ſtrong holdes in Jurie, ſhall the coſtes and charges be geuen out of the kynges reuennes.

46 But when Jonathas and the people hearde theſe wordes, they gaue no credence vnto them, neither receaued them: for they remembred the great wickednes that he had done vnto Iſrael, and how ſore he had vexed them.

47 Wherefore they agreed vnto Alexander, for he was a prince that had deale freendly with them, and ſo they ſtoode by hym alway. 48 Then gathered kyng Alexander a great hoaſt, and brought his armie againſt Demetrius: 49 So the two kynges ſtroke battayle together, but Demetrius hoaſt fled, and Alexander folowed after and fell vpon them. 50 A mightie fore feelde was it, continuing tyll the ſunne went downe: and Demetrius was ſlayne the ſame day. 51 And Alexander ſent ambaſſadours vnto Ptolome the kyng of Egypt, with theſe wordes, ſaying, 52 Forſomuch

as I am come agayne to my realme, and am set in the throne of my progenitours, & haue gotten the dominion, ouercommed Demetrius, 53 Conquered our lande, and striken a feelde with hym, so that we haue discomfited both hym and his hoast, and sit in the throne of his kyngdome: 54 Let vs nowe make freendship together, geue me thy daughter to wyfe, so shall I be thy sonne in lawe, and both geue thee rewardes and her according to thy dignitie. 55 Ptolome the kyng gaue answere, saying, Happy be the day wherein thou art come agayne to the lande of thy progenitours, and set in the throne of their kingdome. 56 And nowe wyll I fulfill thy wryting: but meete me at Ptolemais, that we may see one another, and that I may mary my daughter vnto thee according to thy desire. 57 So Ptolome went out of Egypt with his daughter Cleopatra, and came vnto Ptolemais in the hundred threescore and two yere,

58 Where kyng Alexander met hym: and he gaue Alexander his daughter Cleopatra, and maryed them at Ptolemais with great worshyp, like as the maner of kinges is to be. 59 Then wrote king Alexander vnto Jonathas, that he shoulde come and meete hym. 60 So he went honorably vnto Ptolemais, & there he met the two kinges and gaue them & their freendes great presents of gold and siluer, and found fauour in their sight. 61 And there came together against Jonathas certayne wicked men & vngracious persons of Israel, makyng complaynes of hym: but the kyng regarded them not. 62 As for Jonathas, the kyng commaunded to take of his garmentes, and to clothe him in purple: and so they dyd. Then the kyng appoynted hym to sit by hym, 63 And sayd vnto his princes, Go with him into the middest of the citie, and make a proclamation, that no man complayne against hym of any matter, and that no man trouble hym for any maner of cause. 64 So it happened, that when his accusers sawe the worshyp whiche was proclaymed of hym, and that he was clothed in purple, they fled euery one. 65 And the kyng made muche of hym, wrote hym among his cheefe freendes, made him a duke, and partaker of his dominion. 66 Thus Jonathas went agayne to Hierusalem with peace and gladnesse. 67 In the hundred threescore and fift yere, came Demetrius, the sonne of Demetrius from Creta, into his fathers lande: 68 Wherof when Alexander heard tell, he was syght sory, and returned vnto Antioch. 69 And Demetrius chose Apollonius, which had the gouernaunce of Celosiria to be his captayne: so he gathered a great hoast, and came vnto Jamnia, and sent word vnto Jonathas the hygh priest, saying, 70 Darest thou withstand vs thy selfe alone? As for me, I am but laughed to scorne and shamed, because thou diddest daunte thy strength against vs in the mountaynes. 1. Mac. xiii. a 71 Nowe therfore if thou trustest in thyne owne strength, come downe to vs into the playne feelde, and there let vs trye the matter together, for thou shalt knowe that I haue the strength of many cities. 72 And shalt know who I am, and the other that stand by me, which say, That your foote is not able to stande before our face, for thy fathers haue ben twise chased in their owne lande. 73 And nowe howe wylt thou be able to abyde so great an hoast of horsemen and footemen in the feelde, where as is neither rocke, stone, nor place to flee vnto?

74 When Jonathas heard the words of Apollonius, he was moued in his mynde, wherefore he chose ten thousande men, and went out of Hierusalem: and Simon his brother met him for to helpe hym. 75 And they pitched their tentes at Joppa: but the citie kept hym fourth, for Apollonius garrison was in Joppa.

76 Then Jonathas layde syege to it, and they that were in the citie for very feare let hym in: and so Jonathas wanne Joppa. 77 Apollonius hearing of this, toke three thousande horsemen, with a great hoast on foote, and went to Azotus as though he woulde go further, and came immediatly into the playne feelde, because he had so many horsemen, and put his trust in them. 78 So Jonathas folowed vpon hym to Azotus, and the armye skirmished with his rereward, and there they stroke the battayle. 79 Nowe had Apollonius left a thousande horsemen behynde them priuily in the tentes. 80 And when Jonathas knewe that suche wayte was layde behynde them, they went rounde about the enemies hoast, and shot dartes at the peoand rewardes, that they may be of my syde. 25 Wherupon he wrote vnto them these wordes, kyng Demetrius sendeth greeting vnto the people of the Iewes: 26 Whereas ye haue kept your couenaunt toward vs, and continued in our freendship, not inclining to our enemies, we were glad when we hearde thereof.

27 Wherefore remayne styll and be faythfull to vs, and we shall well recompence you for the thinges that ye haue done on our partie: 28 We shall release you of many charges, and geue you rewardes. 29 And now I discharge you & all the Iewes from tributes, I forgeue you the customes of salt, and release you of the crowne taxes, of the thirde part of seede.

30 And halfe the fruite of trees, whiche is myne owne duetie, I do release them from this day forth, so that they shall not be taken of the lande of Iuda, nor of the three cities whiche are added therunto out of Samaria and Galilee, from this day forth, for euermore. 31 Hierusalem also, with all thinges belonging therto shalbe holy and free, yea the tythes and tributes shall pertayne vnto it. 32 As for the power of the castle whiche is at Hierusalem, I remit and geue it vnto the high priest, that he may set in it suche men as he shall choose to kepe it. 33 I freely deliuer all the Iewes that are prisoners throughout al my realme, so that euery one of them shalbe free from paying any tribute, yea euen of their cattell. 34 All the solemne feastes, Sabbathes, newe moones, the dayes appoynted, the three dayes before and after the feast, shalbe free for all the Iewes in my realme. 35 So that in them no man shall haue power to do any thing, or to vexe any of them in any maner of cause. 36 There shal thirtie thousand also of the Iewes be written vp in the kynges hoast, and haue their wages payed as all other men of warre of the kynges shoulde haue: and of them shalbe ordayned certayne to kepe the kynges strong holdes. 37 Yea and some of them shalbe set ouer the kynges secrete affaires: and their gouernours & princes shalbe of them selues, and liue after their owne lawes, as the kyng hath commaunded in the lande of Iuda. 38 And the three cities that are fallen vnto Iurie from the countrey of Samaria, shalbe taken as Iurie, and be vnder one, neither be subiect to any straunge lord, but to the hye priest.

39 As for Ptolemais and the lande pertayning therto, I geue it vnto the sanctuarie at Hierusalem, for the necessarie expences of the holy thinges.

40 Moreouer, I will geue euery yere fifteene thousande sicles of siluer of the kynges reuennes, out of the places appertayning vnto me. 41 And all the ouerplus which they haue not payde for thinges due, as they dyd in the former yeres, from henceforth they shall geue it towarde the workes of the temple. 42 And besides this, the fiue thousand sicles of siluer which they receaued yerely of the accompt appoynted for the intertaynement of the sanctuarie these yeres passed, euen these thinges shalbe released, because they appertayne to the priestes that minister. 43 Item, whosoeuer they be that flee vnto the temple at Hierusalem, or within the liberties therof, where as they are fallen into the kinges daunger for any maner of busnesse, they shalbe pardoned, and all the goodes that they haue in my realme shalbe free. 44 For the buylding also and repayring of the worke of the sanctuarie, expences shalbe geuen out of the kynges reuennes:

45 Yea and for the making of the walles rounde about Hierusalem, for the breaking downe of the olde, and for the setting vp of the strong holdes in Iurie, shall the costes and charges be geuen out of the kynges reuennes.

46 But when Ionathas and the people hearde these wordes, they gaue no credence vnto them, neither receaued them: for they remembred the great wickednesse that he had done vnto Israel, and how sore he had vexed them. 1. Mac. viii

47 Wherefore they agreed vnto Alexander, for he was a prince that had deale freendly with them, and so they stoode by hym alway. 48 Then gathered kyng Alexander a great hoast, and brought his armie against Demetrius: 49 So the two kynges stroke battayle together, but Demetrius hoast fled, and Alexander folowed after, and fell vpon them. 50 A mightie sore feelde was it, continuing till the sunne went downe: and Demetrius was slayne the same day. 51 And Alexander sent ambassadours vnto Ptolome the kyng of Egypt, with these wordes, saying, 52 Forsomuch Ioseph. ca. vi lib. xiii.

as I am come agayne to my realme, and am set in the throne of my progenitours, & haue gotten the dominion, ouercommed Demetrius. 53 Conquered our lande, and striken a feelde with hym, so that we haue discomfited both hym and his hoast, and sit in the throne of his kyngdome: 54 Let vs nowe make freendshyp together, geue me thy daughter to wyfe, so shall I be thy sonne in lawe, and both geue thee rewardes and her according to thy dignitie. 55 Ptolome the kyng gaue answere, saying, Happy be the day wherein thou art come agayne to the lande of thy progenitours, and set in the throne of their kingdome. 56 And nowe wyll I fulfill thy wryting: but meete me at Ptolemais, that we may see one another, and that I may mary my daughter vnto thee according to thy desire. 57 So Ptolome went out of Egypt with his daughter Cleopatra, and came vnto Ptolemais in the hundred threescore and two yere.

81 As for Jonathas people, they kept their order as he had commaunded them, and the enemies horses were weery. 82 Then brought Simon forth his hoast and set them against the footemen (for the horsemen were weery alredy:) so he discomfited them, and they fled. 83 And they that were scattered in the feelde, gat them to Azotus, and came into the temple of Dagon their idoll, that they myght there saue their liues. 84 But Jo-brent weinye eyght thousande men.

86 So Jonathas remoued the hoast from thence, and brought them to As-

The. xi. Chapter.

3 The discention betwixt Ptolome and Alexander his sonne in Lawe.
17 The death of Alexander.

A NOw the kyng of Egypt gathered an hoast like the sande that lyeth Iose. ca. vii. lib. xiii. vpon the sea shore, and many shippes, and went about therewe de-ceipt to obtayne the kyngdome of Alexander, & to ioyne it vnto his owne realme. 2 Wpon this he take his iourney into Syria, vsing gentle wordes, so that he was letten into the cities, and men came forth to meete hym: for kyng Alexander had commaunded them so to do, because he was his father in lawe. 3 Nowe when Ptolome entred into any citie, he left men of warre to kepe it: and this he did throughout all the cities.
11. Mac. x. c. 4 And when he came to Azotus, they shewed hym the temple of Dagon and Azotus that was brent vp, with the other thinges whiche were destroyed, the dead bodyes cast abrode, and the graues that they had made by the way side for suche as were slayne in the feelde. 5 And tolde the kyng that Jonathas had done all these thinges, to the intent they myght get hym euyl will: but the kyng sayde not one worde therto. 6 And Jonathas met the kyng with great honour at Joppa, where they saluted one another, and take their rest. 7 So when Jona-thas had gone with the king vnto the water that was called Eleutherus, he turned agayne to Hierusalem.
8 Nowe Ptolome had gotten the dominion of the cities vnto Seleucia vpon the sea coast, imagining wicked counsels against Alexander, 9 And sent ambassadours vnto Demetrius, saying, Come, let vs make a bonde betwixt vs, so shall I geue thee my daughter that Alexander hath, and thou shalt raigne in thy fathers kyngdome. 10 I repent that I gaue Alexander my daughter, for he goeth about to slay me. 11 And thus he slaundered Alexander, because he would haue had his realme. 12 Thus he take his daughter from hym, gaue her vnto Demetrius, and forsoke Alexander: so that his malice was openly knowen. 13 And Ptolome came to Antioch, where he set two crownes vpon his owne head, the crowne of Egypt, and of Asia. 14 In the meane season was kyng Alexander in Cilicia: for they that dwelt in those places had rebelled against him.
15 But when Alexander hearde of this, he came to warre against hym:
so kyng Ptolome brought forth his hoast, and met hym with a mightie power, and chased hym away.
16 Then fled Alexander into Arabia, there to be defended: and kyng Ptolomeus honour increased.
17 And Zabdiel the Arabian smote of Alexanders head, and sent it vnto Ptolome. 18 But the thirde day after dyed kyng Ptolome hymselfe, and they whom he had set in the strong holdes were slayne one of another. 19 And Demetrius raigned in the hundred threescore and seuenth yere. 20 At the same tyme gathered Jonathas them that were in Iurie, to lay siege vnto the castle whiche was at Hierusalem, and so they made many instruments of warre against it.
21 Then went there certaine vngodly persons which hated their owne people vnto kyng Demetrius, and tolde him that Jonathas besieged the castle,
22 So

41 So when he heard it, he was angry, and immediatly came vnto Ptolemais, & wrote vnto Jonathas that he shoulde not lay siege to the castle, but come and speake with hym at Ptolemais in al haste. 43 Neuertheless, when Jonathas hearde this, he commaunded to besiege it: he chose also certaine of the elders & priestes of Israel, and put him selfe in perill, 44 And toke with him golde, syluer, clothyng, and dyuers presentes, and went to Ptolemais vnto the king, and founde him gracious. 45 And though certayne vngodly men of his owne people made complaintes vpon him, 46 Yet the king intreated him like as his predecessours had done before, and promoted him in the syght of all his freendes, 47 Confirmed hym in the hye priesthood with al the worshyp that he had afore, and made him his cheefe freend. 48 Jonathas also desyred the kyng that he woulde make Jurie free, with the three head cities of Samaria, and the landes pertayning thereto: vpon this did Jonathas promise him three hundred talentes. 49 Wherunto the king consented, and gaue Jonathas wryting of the same, conteynyng these wordes, 50 King Demetrius sendeth greeting vnto his brother Jonathas, and to the people of the Jewes. 51 We sende you here a copie of the letter whiche we did wryte vnto our cosin Lasthenus concernyng you, that ye shoulde knowe it. 52 King Demetrius sendeth greeting vnto Lasthenus his father. 53 For the kyndhulnesse that our freendes the people of the Jewes kepe vnto vs, and for the louing kindnesse whiche they beare towarde vs, we are determined to do them good. 54 Wherfore we assigne vnto the coastes of Judea the three gouernments, Apherema, Lydda, & Ramatha, whiche are added vnto Jurie from Samaria, and all the landes pertayning therunto, to be freely separated for such as do sacrifice in Hierusalem, both concerning the payments which the king toke yerely afore time, & the fruite also of the earth and trees: 55 As for other tithes and tributes that belonged vnto vs, we discharge them therefrom this time forth. 56 In like maner we graunt vnto them all the customes of salt, and crowne rates which were brought vnto vs: & this freedome shall they haue stedfast from this time forth for euermore. 57 Therfore see that ye make a copy of these our letters, and deliuer it vnto Jonathas, that it may be set vpon the holy mount in a conuenient place. 58 After this, when Demetrius the king saw that his land was in rest, and that no resistaunce was made against him, he sent away all his hoast, euery man to his owne place, except certayne bandes of straungers whom he brought from the Iles of the heathen: wherfore al his fathers hoast hated hym. 59 Now was there one Tryphon that had ben of Alexanders part afore, whiche when he sawe that all the hoast murmured against Demetrius, he went to Simalcue the Arabian, that brought vp Antiochus the sonne of Alexander, 60 And lay fore vpon hym to delyuer hym this young Antiochus, that he might raigne in his fathers steade: he told him also what great euyl Demetrius had done, and how his men of warre loued him not: and so remained there a long season. 61 And Jonathas sent vnto king Demetrius to dryue them out which were in the castle at Hierusalem, and those that were in the fortresses, for they did Israel great harme. 62 So Demetrius sent worde vnto Jonathas, saying, I will not only do these things for thee and thy people: but at time conuenient I will do both thee & thy people great worshyp. 63 But nowe thou shalt do me a pleasure yf thou wylt sende me men to helpe me: for all myne armie is gone fro me. 64 So Jonathas sent him three thousand strong men vnto Antioch, & they came vnto the king, wherfore the king was very glad at their commyng.

65 But they that were of the citie, euen an hundred and twentie thousand men, gathered them together in the middest of the citie, & would haue slayne the kyng: 66 Which fled into his court, and the citizens kept the streetes of the citie, & began to fight.

67 Then the kyng called for the Jewes helpe, whiche came vnto hym altogether, and went abroade through the citie, 68 And slue the same day an hundred thousande men, set fire vpon the citie, and gat many spoiles in that day, and delyuered the kyng. 69 So when the citizens sawe that the Jewes had gotten their will of the citie, and they therin selues disapointed of their purpose, they made their supplication supplication vnto the kyng, saying,

50 Graunt vs peace, & let the Jewes ceasse from troubling vs and the citie.
51 And vpon this they cast away their weapons: thus they made peace, and the Jewes gat great worshyp in the sight of the king and in the sight of all that were in his realme, and were spoken of throughout the kyngdome: 52 so they came agayne to Hierusalem with great goodes.
52 So the king Demetrius sate in the throne of his kingdome, and had peace in his lande. 53 Neuertheleſſe he dissembled in al that euer he spake, and withdrewe him selfe from Jonathas, neither rewarded him according to the benefites whiche he had done for him, but troubled him very sore.
54 After this came Tryphon againe with yonng Antiochus, which raigned & was crowned kyng. 55 Then there gathered vnto him all the men of war whom Demetrius had put away, these fought agaynst Demetrius: whiche fled and turned his backe.
56 So Tryphon toke the Elephantes, & wan Antioche, 57 And young Antiochus wrote vnto Jonathas, saying, I confirme thee in thy priesthood, and make thee ruler of foure countreys, that thou mayest be a freend of the kynges. 58 Vppon this he sent hym golden vessels to be serued in, & gaue him leaue to drinke in golde, to be clothed in purple, and to were a coller of gold. 59 He made his brother Simon also captayne from the coastes of Tyrus vnto the borders of Egypt. 60 Then Jonathas toke his iourney, and went through the cities beyonde the water of Jordane, and all the men of warre of Syria gathered them vnto him for to helpe hym: so he came vnto Ascalon, and they of the citie receaued hym honourably.
61 And from thence went he to Gaza, but they would not let hym in: wherefore he layed siege vnto it, burnyng vp and spoylyng the places that were about the citie. 62 And the citizens of Gaza submitted them selues vnto Jonathas, whiche made peace with them: but toke of their sonnes to pledge, sent them to Hierusalem, and went through the countrey vnto Damascus. 63 Nowe when Jonathas heard that Demetrius princes were come into Cades whiche is in Galilee with a great hoast, purposyng to driue him out of the countrey:
64 He came agaynst them, and left Simon his brother in the lande.
65 And Simon came to Bethsura, and layed siege to it a long season, and discomfited them. 66 So they desired to haue peace with him: whiche he graunted them, and afterward put them out from thence, toke the citie, and set men to kepe it. 67 And Jonathas with his hoast came to the water of Genesar, and betimes in the morning gat them to the plaine feelde of Asor: 68 And behold, the hoastes of the heathen met them in the feeld, and laid watch for them in the mountaynes: 69 So that when Jonathas came agaynst them, the other whiche were layde to watche rose out of theyr places and fought. 70 And they that were of Jonathas side fled euery man, and there was not one of them left, except Mathathias the son of Absalomus, and Judas the sonne of Calphi the captayne of the hoaste.
71 Then Jonathas rent his clothes, layde earth vpon his head, (a) made his prayer, 72 And turned againe to them in the feeld, where they fought, togethet, and he put them to flyght.
73 Nowe when his owne men that were fled sawe this, they turned agayne vnto him, and helped him to follow vpon all their enemies vnto their tentes at Cades, and there they camped. 74 So there were slayne of the heathen the same day three thousande men, and Jonathas turned agayne to Hierusalem.

(a) Beholde the effect of prayer.

The, xii, Chapter.

1 Jonathas sendeth ambassadours to Rome, 2 and to the people of Sparta to renue theyr couenaunt of frendship. 20 Ionathas putteth to flight the princes of Demetrius. 40 Tryphon taketh Ionathas by deceipt.

IOnathas seeyng that the tyme was meete for hym, chose certayne men, and sent them to Rome for to stablyshe and to renue the frendshyp with them: 2 He sent letters also vnto Sparta, and to other places in lyke maner. 3 So they went vnto Rome, and entred into the "counsell, and sayde, Jonathas the hye priest and the people of the Jewes, sent vs vnto you for to renue the olde frendshyp and bonde of loue. 4 Vppon this the Romanes gaue them free pas-paſportes, that men ſhoulde leade them home into the lande of Juda peaceably. 5 And this is the copie of the letters that Jonathas wrote vnto the Spartians, 6 Jonathas the hye prieſt, with the elders, prieſtes, and the other people of the Jewes, ſende greetyng vnto the Spartians their brethren. 7 There were letters ſent

b or, Darius. long ago vnto Onias the hye prieſte from "Arius which raigned then among you, that ye are our brethren, as the copie here vnder wrytten doth ſpecifie. 8 And Onias entreated the Ambaſſadour that was ſent honourably, and receaued the letters, wherein there was mention made of the bonde of loue and freendſhip. 9 But as for vs, we neede no ſuche wrytynges, for why? we haue the holy bookes of ſcripture in our handes to our comfort. 10 Neuertheleſſe, we had rather ſende you for the renuyng of the brotherhood and freendſhip, leſt we ſhoulde be ſtraunge vnto you: for it is long ſince the time that ye ſent wo3de vnto vs. 11 Wherefore in the ſacrifices that we offer, and other ceremonies vpon the hie ſolemne dayes, and other, we alwap remember you without ceaſſyng, lyke as reaſon is, and as it becommeth vs to thynke vpon our brethren, 12 yea, and are
c ryght glad of your proſperous honour. 13 And though we haue had great troubles and warres, ſo that the kynges about vs haue fought agaynſt vs: 14 Yet woulde we not be greeuous vnto you, nor to other of our louers and freendes in theſe warres.
d 15 For we haue had helpe from heauen that hath ſuccoured vs, ſo that we are deliuered, and our enemies ſubdued. 16 Wherefore we choſe Numenius the ſonne of Antiochus, and Antipater the ſonne of Jaſon, and ſent

18 And nowe ye ſhall do ryght wel to geue vs an aunſwere therevnto.

19 And this is the copie of the wrytting which Arius the kyng of Sparta ſent vnto Onias. 20 Arius the kyng of the Spartians ſendeth greetyng vnto Onias the hye prieſte:
f 21 It is founde in wrytyng, that the Spartians and Jewes are brethren, and come out of the generation of Abraham: 22 And nowe forſomuche as this is come to our knowledge, ye ſhall do well to write vnto vs of your proſperitie. 23 As for vs we haue written our minde vnto you, our cattayle and goods are yours, and yours ours: theſe thinges haue we commaunded to be ſhewed vnto you.

24 When Jonathas hearde that Demetrius princes were come forth to fight againſt him with a greater hoaſt then afore, 25 He went from Hieruſalem, and met them in the lande of Hemath: for he gaue them not ſpace to come into his owne countrey.

26 And he ſent ſpies vnto their tentes, which came agayne and tolde him that they were appointed to come vpon him in the night ſeaſon.

27 Wherefore when the ſunne was gone downe, Jonathas commaunded his men to watch all the nyght, and to be readie with weapons for to fight, and ſet watchemen rounde about the g hoaſt. 28 But when the aduerſaries heard that Jonathas waſt redye with his men to the battayle, they feared, and were afrayde in their heartes, and kyndled fyres in their tentes, drake vp, and gat them away. 29 Neuertheleſſe Jonathas and his compaby knewe it not tyll the mornyng, for they ſawe the fires burnyng.

30 Then Jonathas followed vppon them, but he myght not ouertake them, for they were gone ouer the water Eleutherus. 31 So Jonathas departed vnto the Arabians, whiche were called Zabadei, ſlue them, and toke their goodes. 32 He proceeded further alſo, and came vnto Damaſcus, and went through all the countrey. 33 But Simon his brother toke his iourney, and came to Aſcalon, and to the next ſtrong holdes, departyng vnto Joppa, and wan it, h 34 (For he hearde that they woulde delyuer the holde to them that toke Demetrius parte) wherefore he ſet men of warre in the citie to kepe it.

35 After this came Jonathas home agayne, and called the elders of the people together, and deuyſed with them for to buylde vp the ſtrong holdes in Jurie, 36 And to make the walles of Hieruſalem hygher, to ſet vp an hye wal betwixt the caſtle and the citie, for to ſeparate it from the citie, that it might be alone, & that men ſhoulde neither bye nor ſell in it.

37 Where

37 Vpon this they came together for to build vp the citie, & for somuche as the wall vppon the brooke of the east side, called Cephetetah was fallen downe, they repayred it. 38 And Simon set vp Adiada in Sephela, & made it strong, setting gates and lockes vpon it. 39 Nowe when Tryphon purposed to raigne in Asia, to be crowned, and to slay the kyng Antiochus:

1. Mac. xi. c.

40 He was afrayde that Jonathas would not suffer him, but fight against him: wherfore he went about to take Jonathas and to kyll hym: so he departed, and came vnto Bethsan.

41 Then went Jonathas forth against him to the battaile with fourtie thousand chosen men, and came vnto Bethsan also: 42 But when Tryphon sawe that Jonathas came with so great an hoast to destroy hym, he was afrayde: 43 And therefore he receaued him honourably, commended him vnto all his freendes, and gaue hym rewardes, and commaunded his men of warre to be as obedient vnto hym, as to hym selfe: 44 And sayde vnto Jonathas, Why hast thou caused this people to take suche trauayle, seeyng there is no warre betwixt vs?

45 Therefore sende them home againe, & choose certaine men to wayte vpon thee, and come thou with me to Ptolemais: for I will geue it thee, with the other strong holdes, men of warre, and they officers: as for me, I must depart, this is only the cause of my commyng. 46 Jonathas beleued hym, and did as he sayde, puttyng away his hoast, whiche went into the lande of Juda. 47 He kept but three thousand by him, wherof he sent two thousand into Galilee, and one thousand went with hym selfe. 48 Nowe assoone as Jonathas entred into Ptolemais, the citizens sparred the gates of the citie, and toke him, & slue all them with the swoorde that came in with him. 49 Then sent Tryphon an hoast of footmen and horsmen into Galilee, & into the great plaine feelde, to destroy all Jonathas company:

50 But when they knewe that Jonathas was taken, & all they slaine that wayted vpon him, they tooke counsell together, and encouraged one another, and came forth against them redy to fight. 51 So when they which followed vpon them saw that it was a matter of lyfe, they turned backe againe. 52 As for the other, they went into the lande of Juda peaceably, and bewayled Jonathas and them that were with hym right sore: and Israel made great lamentation. 53 Then al the heathen that were rounde about them sought to destroy them: 54 For they sayde, Nowe haue they no captaine, nor any man to helpe them, therefore let vs ouercome them, and roote out they name from among men.

¶ The. xiii. Chapter.

1 After Ionathas was taken, Simon is chosen captayne, 17 Of whom Tryphon taking his children & money for the redemption of Ionathas, kylleth hym and his chyldren.

NOwe when Simon heard that A Tryphon gathered a great hoast to come into the lande of Juda, and to destroy it, 2 And sawe that the people was in great fearfulnesse and care: he came vp to Hierusalem, and gathered the people together,

3 And gaue them exhortation, saying, Ye know what great battayles I and my brethren and my fathers house haue fought for the law and the sanctuarie, and what maner of troubles we haue seene. 4 Through occasion wherof, all my brethren are slayne for Israels sake, and I am left alone.

1. Mac. 6. c.

5 And nowe let me not spare myne owne lyfe in any maner of trouble, for I am no better then my brethren:

6 But will auenge my people and the sanctuarie, our chyldren and our wyues: for all the heathen are gathered together to destroy vs of very malice. 7 At these wordes the heartes B of the people were kyndled together,

8 So that they cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Thou shalt be our captayne in steade of Judas and Jonathas thy brethren: 9 Order thou our battayle, and whatsoeuer thou commaundest vs we shal do it. 10 So he gathered al the men of warre, making haste to finishe al the walles of Hierusalem, which he made strong rounde about. 11 Then sent he Jonathas the sonne of Absolomus with a freshe hoast vnto Joppa, which drone them out that were in the castle, and remayned there hym selfe. 12 Tryphon also remoued from Ptolemais with a great armie, to come into the land of Juda, and Jonathas with hym in warde. 13 And Simon pitched his tentes at *Addus before the playne feelde. 14 But when Tryphon knew this,

that Simon stoode vp in steade of his brother Jonathas, and that he would warre agaynst hym, he sent messengers vnto him, saying, 15 Whereas we haue kept Jonathas thy brother, it is for money that he is owing in the kynges accompt, concernyng the busines that he had in hande.

19 Wherefore, sende now an hundred talentes of siluer, and his two sonnes for suretie (that when he is letten foorth, he shal not forsake vs) and we shall sende him agayne. 17 Neuertheles, Simon knew that he dissembled in his wordes: yet commaunded he the money and children to be deliuered vnto hym, lest the Israelites might haue hated hym, 18 And sayd, Because he sent hym not the money & the children, therefore is Jonathas dead. 19 So Simon sent hym the children and an hundred talentes: but he dissembled, and would not let Jonathas go. 20 Afterward came Tryphon into the lande to destroy it, and went rounde about by the way that leadeth vnto Ador: but whersoeuer they went, thyther went Simon and his hoast also. 21 Nowe they that were in the castle, sent messengers vnto Tryphon, that he should make haste to come by the wyldernesse, and to send them victuales. 22 And Tryphon made redye all his horsemen to come the same nyght: neuertheles it was a very great snowe, so that he came not because of the snowe, but he remoued and went into the countrey of Galaad. 23 And when he drue nie Bascama, he slue Jonathas and his sonnes there, 24 And then turned for to go home into his owne lande.

25 Then sent Simon for to fetch his brothers dead coarse, and buried it in Modin his fathers citie. 26 So all Israel bewayled him with great lamentation, and mourned for him very long. 27 And Simon made vpon the sepulchre of his father and his brethren a buyldyng, hye to looke vnto, of free stone behinde and before.

28 And set vp seuen pillers vpon it one agaynst another, for his father, his mother, and foure brethren,

29 And set great pillers rounde about them, with armes vpon them for a perpetuall memorie, and carued shyppes before the armes, that they myght be seene of men saylyng in the sea. 30 This sepulchre which he made at Modin, standeth yet vnto this day.

31 Nowe as Tryphon went forth to walke with the young kyng Antiochus, he slue hym traytorously, Joseph. cap. 1. lib. xiii.

32 And raigned in his steade, crowned him selfe king of Asia, & dyd much euyll in the lande. 33 Simon also buylt vp the castles in Jurie, makyng them strong with hye towres, great walles, portes and lockes, and layde vp victuales in the strong holdes.

34 And Simon chose certayne men, and sent them to kyng Demetrius, to desire him that he would discharge the lande from all bondage, for Tryphon had spoyled it very sore. 35 Wherevpon Demetrius the king aunswered hym, and wrote vnto hym after this maner, 36 Demetrius the kyng sendeth greetyng vnto Simon the hye priest his freende, with the elders and people of the Jewes: 37 The golden crowne and precious stone that ye sent vnto vs, haue we receaued, and are redy to make a stedfast peace with you, yea and to write vnto our officers for to release you concernyng the thynges wherein we made you free.

38 And the appoyntment that we make with you, shalbe sterne and stable: the strong holdes which ye haue buylded, shalbe your owne. 39 As for any ouersight or fault committed vnto this day, we forgeue it, and the crowne taxe that ye ought vs also: and where as was any other tribute in Hierusalem, it shall now be no tribute: 40 And loke who are meete among you to be in our court, let them be written vp, that there may be peace betwixt vs. 41 Thus the yoke of the heathen was taken from Israel, in the hundred & seuentith yere. 42 And the people of the Jewes began to wryte in their letters & acres on this maner, In the first yere of Simon the hye priest, a gouernour and prince of the Jewes. 43 In those dayes went Simon vnto Gaza, and besieged it rounde about, where he set vp ordinaunce of warre, and wan a towre, which he toke. 44 So they that gat into the towre, lept into the citie, which was in a great feare: 45 Insomuche that the people of the citie rent their clothes, and climed vp vppon the walles, with their wiues and children, beseechyng Simon to be at one with them, saying, 46 O rewarde vs not after our wyckednesse, but be gracious vnto vs, (and we shall do thee seruice,) 47 Then Simon for very pitie pitie wouldē fight no more agaynst them, but put them out of the citie, and caused the houses wherein the images were to be clensed, and so entred the citie with psalmes of prayse, geuyng thankes vnto the Lorde.

48 So when he had cast all abhominations out of the citie, he set suche men in it as kept the law (of God) and made the citie strong, and buylded a dwelling place for him selfe.

49 Nowe when they in the castle at Hierusalem were kept so straytghtly that they could not come forth nor go into the countrey, and myght neither bye nor sell, they were very hungry, and many of them famished to death:

50 Insomuche that they besought Simon to be at one with them, which he graunted them: so he put them out from thence, and clensed the castle from filthinesse. 51 And vppon the twentie and thyrd day of the seconde moneth, in the hundred thyrtie score and eleuenth yere, they entred into it with thankesgeuyng, and braunches of pawme trees, with harpes, crowdes, cymbales, and lutes, synging psalmes and songes of prayse vnto God, for that the great enemie of Israel was ouercome. 52 And Simon ordeyned that the same day should be kept euery yere with gladnesse, 53 And made strong the hyll of the temple that was beside the castle, where he dwelt hym selfe with his company. 54 Simon also perceauyng that John his sonne was a myghtie man of armes, made hym captaine of all the hoastes, and caused hym to dwell at "Gaza.

" or, Gazara.

The. xiiii. Chapter.

1 Demetrius is ouercome of Arsaces. 11 Simon beyng captaine, there is great quietnesse in Israel. 18 The couenaunt of frendshyp with the Romanes and with the people of Sparta is renued.

IN the hundred thyrtie score and twelfth yere gathered hyng Demetrius his hoast, and departed vnto Media to get hym helpe for to fyght agaynst Tryphon. 2 Nowe when Arsaces the kyng of Persia and Media heard that Demetrius was entred within his borders, he sent one of his princes to take hym alyue, (and to bring him vnto him.) 3 So he went and slue Demetrius hoast, toke hym selfe, brought hym to Arsaces, whiche kept him in ward. 4 And all the land of Iuda was in rest so long as Simon lyued, for he sought the wealth of his people, therfore were they glad to haue hym for theyr ruler, and to da hym worshyp alway. 5 Simon wan the citie of Joppa also for an hauen towne, and made it an entraunce into the Iles of the sea: 6 He enlarged the borders of his people, and conquered them more lande: 7 He gathered vp many of theyr people that were prisoners, he had the dominion of Gaza, Bethsura, and the castle which he clensed from filthinesse, and there was no man that resisted hym.

8 So that euery man tylled his grounde in peace, the lande of Iuda and the trees gaue their fruite and increase. 9 The elders sate al in iudgement, and tooke theyr deuice for the wealth of the lande, the young men put on worshippe and harnesse vppon them. 10 He prouided victuales for the cities, and made goodly strong holdes of them, so that the fame of his worshyp was spoken of vnto the ende of the worlde. 11 For he made peace throughout the lande, and Israel was ful of mirth and ioy. 12 Euery man sate vnder his vyne and figge trees, and there was no man to fraye them away. 13 There was none in the lande to fyght agaynst them, for then the kynges were ouercome.

14 He helped those that were in aduersitie among his people, he was diligent to see the law kept: as for such as were vngodly and wicked he tooke them away: 15 He set vp the sanctuarie, and increased the holy vessels of the temple. 16 When the Romanes and Spartians had gotten worde that Jonathas was dead, they were ryght sory: 17 But when they heard that Simon his brother was made hye priest in his steade, and how he had wonne the lande agayne with the cities in it: 18 They wrote vnto hym in tables of brasse, to renue the frendshyp and bonde of loue whiche they had made afore with Judas and Jonathas his brethren. 19 Whiche writinges were read before the congregation at Hierusalem. And this is the copy of the letters that the Spartians sent. 20 The Senatours and citizens of Sparta sende greeting vnto Simon the great priest, with the elders, priestes, and the other people of the Iewes theyr brethren:

21 When your Ambassadours that were sent vnto our people certified vs of your worshyp, honour, and prosperous

perons wealth, we were glad of theyr comming. 22 And haue written the ambassage in the publique recordes in this maner: (namely) that Numenius the sonne of Antiochus, and Antipater the sonne of Jason the Jewes ambassadours, are come vnto vs for to renue the olde frendshyp with vs.

23 Vpon this the people consented that the men shoulde be honorably intreated, and that the copie of theyr ambassage shoulde be written in the special bookes of the people for a perpetual memorie vnto the Spartians: yea and that we should sende a copie of the same vnto Simon the great priest. 24 After this did Simon send Numenius vnto Rome with a golden shielde of a thousande pounde wayght to confirme the frendshyppe E with them. 25 Which when the Romanes vnderstoode, they sayde, What thankes shall we recompence agayne vnto Simon and his children?

26 For he and his brethren and the house of his father hath stablished Israel, & ouercommed theyr enemies, wherefore they graunted him to be free, and confirmed the libertie therefor: therfore they wrote this in tables of brasse, and set it vppon pillers in mount Sion. 27 The copie of the writing is this, The eighteenth day of the moneth Elul, in the hundred three score and twelfth yere, in the thyrde yere of Simon the hye priest, 28 In the great congregation of the priestes, rulers of the people, and elders of the countrey at * Saramel, were these wordes openly declared: 29 Forsomuch as there was muche warre in our lande, therefore Simon the sonne of Mathathias come of the children of Jarib, and his brethren put themselues in perill, & resisted the enemies of theyr people, that theyr sanctuarie and law might be maintained, and did their people great worshyp. 30 Jonathas in like maner, after that he had gouerned his people and ben their hie priest, dyed, and lieth buryed beside his elders. 31 After that F would the their enemies haue troden their holy things vnder foote, destroyed their land, and vtterly wasted their sanctuarie. 32 Then Simon withstoode them, and fought for his people, spent muche of his owne money, weaponed the valiaunt men of his people, gaue them wages, 33 Made strong the cities of Juda, with Bethsura that lyeth vpon the borders of Jurie, where the ordinaunce of theyr enemies lay sometime, and set Jewes there for to kepe it. 34 He made fast Joppa also which lyeth vpon the sea, and * Gaza that bordereth vpon Azotus, where the enemies dwelt afore, and there he set Jewes to kepe it: and whatsoeuer was meete for the subduyng of the aduersaries, that layde he therin. 35 Nowe when the people sawe the noble actes of Simon, and what worshyp he purposed to do for them, his godly behauour and faythfulnes which he kept vnto them, and how he sought by alwayes the wealth of his people: because he dyd al this, therefore they chose hym to be theyr prince and hye priest. 36 And in his tyme they prospered well by hym, so that the heathen were taken out of theyr lande, and they also which were in the citie of Dauid at Hierusalem in the castle, where they went out and defiled al thynges that were about the sanctuarie, and did great harme vnto cleanlinesse: 37 And Simon put men of the Jewes in it for the defence S of the lande and citie, and set vp the walles of Hierusalem. 38 And kyng Demetrius confirmed him in his hye priesthood 39 For these causes: made him his freende, & did him great worshyp: 40 For he hearde that the Romanes called the Jewes theyr freendes, louers, and brethren: howe honourably they receaued Simons ambassadours: 41 Howe the Jewes and priestes consented that he shoulde be their prince and hye priest perpetually, tyll God rayse vp the true prophete: 42 And that he should be their captaine, to care for the sanctuarie, and to set officers vpon the workes thereof, ouer the lande, ouer the weapons, ouer the houses of defence, to make prouision for the holy thynges:

43 And to be obeyed of euery man, and all the writynges of the lande to be made in his name, that he shoulde be clothed in purple and golde:

44 And that it shoulde be lawfull for none of the people nor priestes to breake any of these thynges, to withstande his wordes, nor to call any congregation in the lande without hym: that he shoulde be clothed in purple, and were a coller of golde.

45 And yf there were any whiche disobeyed or brake this ordinaunce, that he shoulde be punyshed.

46 So

46 So all the people consented to allowe Simon, and to do accordyng to these wordes: 47 Simon also hym selfe toke it vpon hym, and was content to be the hie priestе, the captaine and prince of the Jewes and priestes, and to gouerne them all. 48 And they commaunded to make this wrytyng in tables of brasse, and fasten it vnto the wal that compasseth the sanctuarie in an open place: 40 And to lay vp a copie of the same in the treasurie, that Simon and his posteritie myght haue it.

¶ The.xv. Chapter.

15 The Romanes wryte letters vnto kynges and nations in the defence of the Iewes.

A MOreouer kyng Antiochus the sonne of Demetrius sent letters from the Iles of the sea, vnto Simon the hye priestе and prynce of the Jewes, and to all the people,

2 Concernyng these wordes, Antiochus the kyng sendeth greetyng vnto Simon the hye priest, and to the people of the Jewes. 3 Forsomuche as certayne wycked men haue gotten the kyngdome of our progenitours, I haue purposed to chalenge the realme agayne, and to restore it to the olde estate: Wherefore I haue gathered a great hoast, and made shyppes of warre: 4 That I may go thyough the countrey, & be auenged of them which haue destroyed our lande, and wasted many cities in my realme. 5 And therefore nowe I make thee free also from al the tributes wherof al kings my progenitours haue discharged thee, and from other customes wherefrom they haue released thee, whatsoeuer they be: 6 Yea, I geue thee leaue to smyte money of thine owne withyn B thy lande. 7 As for Hierusalem I wyl that it be holy and free, and al the weapons & houses of defence whiche thou hast buylded and kepest in thyne handes (halbe thyne. 8 Whereas any thyng is or (halbe owyng vnto the king, I forgeue it thee, from this time forth for euermore. 9 And when we haue obteyned our kyngdome, we shall do thee, thy people, and the temple great worshyp: so that your honour shalbe knowen throughout the whole worlde. 10 In the hundred threescore and fourteenth yere went Antiochus into his fathers land, and all the men of warre came together vnto him, so that fewe were left with Tryphon. 11 So the king Antiochus folowed vpon hym: but he fled vnto Doza, whiche lyeth by the sea syde:

12 For he sawe that there was mischiefe comming vnto him, and that his hoast had forsaken him. 13 Then came Antiochus vnto Doza with an hundred and twentie thousande men of armes on foote, and eight thousand horsemen: so he compassed the citie round about, and the shippes came by C the sea. 14 Thus they vexed the citie by lande and by water, insomuch that they suffered no man to go in nor out.

15 In the meane season came Numenius, and they that had ben with him, from the citie of Rome, hauing letters wrytten vnto the kinges and prouinces, wherein were conteyned these wordes, 16 Lucius the consull of Rome, sendeth greeting vnto Ptolome the king, 17 The Ambassadours of the Jewes our freendes being sent from Simon the hye priest, and from the people of the Jewes, came vnto vs for to renue the olde freendship and bonde of loue, 18 Brought a shielde of golde weying a thousande pounde. 1 Mac. 14. d.

19 Wherfore we thought it good to write vnto the kinges and prouinces to do them no harme, nor to take part agaynst them, their cities, nor countreys, neither to maintaine their enemies agaynst them. 20 And we were content to receaue of them the shield.

21 If there be any wycked persons D therfore fled from their countrey vnto you, deliuer them vnto Simon the hye priest, that he may punyshe them accordyng to their owne law. 22 The same wordes wrote the Romanes also vnto Demetrius the kyng, to Attalus, Araba, Arsaces, 23 And to al regions: as Samsames, to them of Spartia, "Delo, "Mydo, Sicyon, Caria, Samos, Pamphilia, Lycia, Alicarnassem, and to the Rhodes, to Faselidis, Coo, Side, Arado, Cozyna, Gnidum, to Cypres, and Cyren.

" or, Delus
" or, Mydus.

24 And of euery letter they sent a copye to Simon the hye priestе.

25 So Antiochus the kyng brought his hoast vnto Doza the seconde tyme to take it, where he made dyuers ordinaunce of warre, and kept Tryphon in that he shoulde not get either in or out. 26 Then sent Simon vnto Antiochus two thousande chosen men to helpe him, with golde, syluer, and other plenteous thynges.

27 Neuer-

27 Neuertheleſſe he wouldē not rewhiche he made with Simon afore, and withdrewe him ſelfe from him.

28 He ſent Athenobius alſo a friende of his vnto Simon for to reaſon with him, ſaying, Ye withholde from me Joppa and Gaza, with the caſtle that is at Hieruſalem, whiche are cities of my realme: 29 Whoſe borders ye haue deſtroyed, and done great euyll in the lande, hauing the dominion in many other places of my kingdome. 30 Wherefore deliuer now the cities whiche ye haue taken, with the tributes of the places that ye haue rule vpon without the borders of Ju-rie: 31 Or elſe geue me fiue hundred talentes of ſiluer, yea & for the harme that ye haue done in the cities, and for the tributes of the ſame other fiue and fyght againſt you. 32 So Athenobius the kinges friende came to Hieruſalem, and when he ſawe the great worſhip and honour of Simon in golde, ſiluer, and ſo great plentie of ornamentes, he marueiled: and tolde Jud.11.d. Simon as the king cōmaunded him.

33 Then anſwered Simon and ſaide vnto him, As for vs, we haue neither taken other mens landes, nor with-holden them: but only our fathers heritage, which our enemies had vnrighteouſly in poſſeſſion a certayne tyme.
34 This heritage of our fathers haue we chalenged in proceſſe of tyme.
35 And where as thou complayneſt concernyng Joppa and Gaza, they dyd great harme to our people and in our lande, yet wyll we geue an hundred ta-lentes for them. Neuertheleſſe Athenobius anſwered him not one worde:
36 But turned agayne wrothfully vnto the king, and tolde him all theſe wordes, and the great dignitie of Simon, with all that he had ſeene: and F the kyng was very angry. 37 And in the meane time fled Tryphon by ſhip vnto Orthoſias. 38 Then the kyng made Cendebeus captayne of the ſea coaſt, and gaue him an hoaſt of footemen and horſemen, 39 Com-maundyng him to remoue the hoaſt towarde Jurie, and to builde vp the citie of Cedron, to make vp the portes, and to warre agaynſt the people of the Jewes: as for the king him ſelfe he folowed vpon Tryphon.
20 So Cendebeus came vnto Jamnia, and began to vexe the people, to treade downe Jurie, to take the people priſoners, to ſlay them, 41 And to builde vp Cedron: where he ſet horſe- 1.Mac.16.b

kyng had commaunded him.

THen came John vp from Gaza, A and tolde Simon his father what 1.Mac.13.f Cendebeus had done (among their people.) 2 Vpon this called Simon two of his eldeſt ſonnes Judas and John, and ſaide vnto them, I and my deliuer Iſrael oftentimes. 3 And nowe foraſmuch as I am olde, and ye by gods goodneſſe are of a ſufficient age, be ye in ſteade of me and my bro-people: and the helpe of God be with you. 4 So he choſe twentie thouſand fighting men of the countrey, with horſemen alſo, whiche went forth agaynſt Cendebeus, and reſted at Mo-din. 5 In the morning they aroſe and went into the playne feelde, and beholde a mightie great hoaſt came agaynſt them, both of footemen and horſemen: nowe was there a water broke betwixt them, 6 And John remoued the hoaſt toward them: and when he ſawe that the people was afraide to go ouer the water broke, he went ouer firſt him ſelfe: and the men ſeeyng this, folowed him. 7 Then B John ſet his horſemen and footemen in order the one by the other: for their enemies horſemen were very many.

8 But when they blewe vp the * prie- * Or, holy-

Mm iij Ptolome

Ptolome the sonne of Abobus made captayne: which, because he had aboũdaunce of siluer and golde, 12 (For he had married the daughter of Simon the hie priest) 13 Waxed proude in his minde, and thought to conquere the lande, imagining falshood agaynst Simon and his sonnes, to destroye them. 14 Now as Simon was going about throughe the cities that were in the countrey of Iurie, & caring for them, he came downe to Iericho with Mathathias and Judas his sonnes, in the hundred threescore and seuentenerth yere, in the eleuenth moneth, called Sabat. 15 Then (Ptolome) the sonne of Abobus receaued them, but with decepte, into a strong house of his, called Dochus, which he had builded, where he made them a banket, & had hyd men there. 16 So when Simon and his sonnes were merry, and had dronken well, Ptolome stoode vp with his men (whom he had hid there) and toke their weapons, entred into the banket house, and slue Simon with his two sonnes, and certayne of his seruauntes. 17 Such great vnfaythfulnesse dyd Ptolome in Israel, and recompenced euyll for good.

18 Then wrote Ptolome these thinges, and sent vnto kyng (Antiochus) requiring him that he should send him an hoast to helpe him: and so shoulde he deliuer him the lande, with the cities and tributes of the same. 19 He sent other men also vnto Gaza for to take John, and wrote vnto the captaynes to come to him, and he shoulde geue them siluer, golde, and rewardes. 20 And to Hierusalem he sent other to take it, and the sanctuarie. 21 Then ran there one before, and tolde John in Gaza, that his father and his brethren were slayne, and how that Ptolome had sent to slay him also.

22 When John hearde this, he was sore abashed, and layd handes of them that were come to destroy him, & slue them: for he knewe that they went about to kyll him. 23 As for other thinges concerning John, of his warres, of his noble actes wherein he behaued him selfe manfully, of the buyldyng of walles whiche he made, and other of his deedes, 24 They are written in the chronicles of his priesthood, from the time forth that he was made hye priest after his father.

The second booke of the Machabees.

The first Chapter.

1 An epistle of the Iewes that dwelt at Hierusalem, sent vnto them that dwelt in Egypt, wherein they exhort them to geue thankes for the death of Antiochus. 19 Of the fyre that was hyd in the pit. 24 The prayer of Nehemias.

THe brethren of the Iewes which be at Hierusalẽ, & in the land of Iuri, wishe vnto these brethren of the Iewes that are throughout Egypt health & peace.

Deut. 30. b. 2 God be gracious vnto you, & thinke vpon his couenant that he made with Abraham, Isahac, & Jacob, his faithfull seruauntes: 3 And geue you all such an heart that ye may loue & serue him, yea and performe his wyl with an whole heart and a willyng minde: 4 He open your heartes vnto his lawe, and in his commaundementes, and send you peace, 5 Heare your prayers, be at one with you, and neuer forsake you in tyme of trouble.

6 Forsomuch as nowe we here be praying for you. 7 What time as Demetrius raigned in the hundred threescore and nine yere, we Iewes wrote vnto you in the trouble and violence that came vnto vs in those yeres, after that Jason departed out of the holy lande and kingdome,

8 They brent vp the portes, and shed innocent blood: then made we our Leu. 23. f. prayer vnto the Lord, and were heard, we offered vp sacrifices & fine floure, & lighted the lampes, & set forth the Nouembre bread. 9 And nowe come ye vnto the feast of tabernacles in the moneth Callen. 10 In the hundred fourescore & eyghteene yere, the people that was at Hierusalem & in Iurie, the counsel, and Judas him selfe, sent this wholsome salutation vnto Aristobulus kyng Ptolomes maister whiche came of the generation of the annoynted priestes, and to the Iewes that were in Egypt: 11 Insomuch as god hath deliuered delyuered vs from great perils, we thanke him highly, no lesse as all then if we had banquished the kyng in battell. 12 For when he with those that had fought agaynst the holy citie dyd set vpon Persia: 13 For as he was in Persia (namely) the captayne with the great hoast, he perished in the temple of Nanea, beyng deceaued thorowe the deuice of Nanea priestes.

14 For when Antiochus, as he that shoulde marry with her, came, and his frendes with him, into the place to receaue by name of dowrie the money which the priestes of Nanea had set foorth: 15 He entred with a small companie into the compasse of the temple, and so they shut the temple.

16 Nowe when Antiochus entred by openyng the priuie entraunce of the temple, the priestes stoned the captayne to death, hewed them in peeces that were with him, smote of their heades, and threwe them out. 17 In all thinges God be prayesd whiche hath delyuered the wicked into our handes (to be punished.) 18 Where as we are nowe purposed to kepe the purification of the temple vpon the twentie and fyue day of the moneth Casleu, we thought necessarie to certifye you thereof: that ye also myght kepe the tabernacles feast day, and the day of the fyre whiche was geuen vs when Nehemias offered, after that he had set vp the temple and the aulter.

19 For what time as our fathers were led away vnto Persia, the priestes which then fought the honour of god, toke the fyre priuilie from the aulter, and hyd it in a valley; where as was a deepe dyre pit: and therein they kept it, so that the place was vnknowe to euery man. 20 Now after many yeres, when it pleased God that Nehemias should be sent from the kyng of Persia, he sent the chyldren chyldren of those priestes which had hyd the fyre, to seeke it: and as they tolde vs they founde no fyre, but thicke water.

21 Then cõmaunded he them to drawe it vp, and to bryng it him, and the offerynges withall: Nowe when the sacrifices were layed on and ordred, Nehemias commaunded the priestes to sprinckle them and the wood with water. 22 When this was done, and the time come that the sunne shone which afore was hid in the cloude, there was a great fyre kindled, insomuch that euery man maruayled. 23 Nowe all the priestes prayed whyle the sacrifice was a making: Jonathas prayed fyrst, and the other gaue aunswere. 24 And Nehemias prayer was after this maner, O Lorde God, maker of all thinges, thou fearefull and strong, thou righteous and mercifull, thou that art only a gracious kyng, only liberal, only iust, almightie and euerlasting, thou that deliuerest Israel from all trouble, thou that hast chosen the fathers and halowed them fauorably: 26 Receaue the offering for thy whole people of Israel, preserue thyne owne portion, and halowe it, 27 Gather those together that are scattered abrode from vs, deliuer them that are vnder the heathens bondage, loke vpon them whiche are despised and abhorred: that the heathen may knowe and see howe that thou only art God, which art our God. 28 Punish them that oppresse and proudly put vs to dishonour. 29 Set thy people agayne in thyne holy place, lyke as Moyses hath spoken. 30 And the priestes song Psalmes of thankesgeuing so long as the sacrifice endured. 31 Now when the sacrifice was brent, Nehemias cõmaũded the great stones to be sprinckled with the residue of the water. 32 Which when it was done, there was kindled a flame of them also: but it was consumed through the lyght that shined from the aulter.

33 So when this matter was knowen, it was tolde the kyng of Persia that in the place where the priestes whiche were led away had hyd fyre, there appeared water, and that Nehemias and his companie had purified the sacrifices withall. 34 Then the kyng considering and ponderyng the matter diligently, inclosed the place, and consecrated a temple, to proue the thing that was done: 35 And when he founde it so in deede, he gaue the priestes many giftes and diuers rewardes, yea he toke them with his owne hande, and gaue them. 36 And Nehemias called the same place (a) Nephthar, whiche is as much to say as a clensing: but many men call it Nephi.

(a) Ephthar, which is to say, a shining: it is also called Nephi or Nephthar, whiche is a clensing.

The .ii. Chapter.

4 Howe Ieremie hyd the tabernacle, the arke, and the aulter in the hill. 21 Of the fyue bookes of Iason conteyned in one.

IT is found also in the wrytynges of Ieremie the prophete, that he commaunded them whiche were carryed away to take fyre, as it is sayde afore. 2 He commaunded them also that they shoulde not forget the lawe and commaundementes of the Lord, and that they should not erre in their myndes, when they see images of syluer and golde, with their ornamentes.

3 These and such other thinges commaunded he them, and exhorted them that they shoulde not let the lawe of God go out of their heartes. 4 It is written also, howe the prophete at the commaundement of god charged them to take the tabernacle & the arke with them: and he went forth vnto the mountayne where Moyses clymed vp, and sawe the heritage of God.

5 And when Jeremi came there, he founde an open caue, wherein he layd the tabernacle, the arke, and the aulter of incense, and so stopped the doore.

6 There came certayne men together also, folowing him to marke the place, but they coulde not finde it.

7 Whiche when Jeremie perceaued, he reproued them, saying, As for that place it shalbe vnknowen, vntyll the tyme that God gather his people together againe, and receaue them vnto mercie. 8 Then shall God shew them these thinges, and the maiestie of the Lorde shal appeare, and the cloude also lyke as it was shewed vnto Moyses: and lyke as when Solomon desired that the place might be honorably sanctified, and it was shewed him.

9 For he beyng a wyse man, handled honorably and wyttily, offering vnto God in the halowyng of the temple when it was finished. 10 And like as when Moyses prayed vnto the Lord, the fyre came downe from heauen, and consumed the burnt offering: euen so prayed Solomon also, & the fyre came downe from heauen, & consumed the whole burnt offering. 11 And Moyses sayde, Because the sinne offering was not eaten, therefore it is consumed. 12 In like maner Solomon kept the dedication (or halowyng) eyght dayes. 13 In the annotations and writings of Jeremi were these thinges put also: and howe he made a librarie, and how he gathered out of all countreys the bookes of the kinges, and of the prophetes, and of Dauid, and the epistles of the kinges concernyng the holy gyftes. 14 Euen so Judas also, like what he learned by experience of warre, and such thinges as hath happened vnto vs, he gathered them altogether, and so we haue them by vs. 15 If ye nowe desire to haue the same, sende some body to fetche them vnto you. 16 Where as we then are about to celebrate the purification, we haue written vnto you: therfore ye shall do wel yf ye kepe the same dayes. 17 We hope also that the God whiche delyuered his people, and gaue them all the heritage, kyngdom, priesthod, & sanctuarie, 18 That he promised them in the lawe, shall shortly haue mercie vpon vs, and gather vs together from vnder the heauen into his holie place: for he hath saued vs from great perils, and hath clensed the place. 19 As concernyng Judas Machabeus and his brethren, the purification of the great temple, the dedication of the aulter:

20 Yea and of the warres that concerne noble Antiochus and Eupator his sonne: 21 And the miracles shewed from heauen by the valiaunt actes of those whiche defended the Jewes religion, so that a fewe ranne through the whole countrey, and draue away the barbarous armies: 22 Repaired agayne the temple that was spoken of throughout all the worlde, delyuered the citie, doyng their best that the lawe of the Lorde which was put downe, might with all tranquillitie be restored agayne vnto the Lord that was so mercifull vnto them: 23 As touchyng Jason also of Cyren, we haue vndertaken compendiously to bryng into one booke the thinges that were comprehended of him in fyue.

24 For we considering the multitude of the bookes, and how hard it should be for them that woulde meddle with storyes and actes, and that because of so diuers matters: 25 Haue vndertaken so to comprehende the storyes, that suche as are disposed to reade, might haue pleasure & passtime therein, and that they which are diligent in such thinges, myght the better thinke vpon them: yea and that wholesome reade them, myght haue profite thereby. 26 Neuertheleſſe we our selues that haue medled with this matter for the shortenyng of it, haue taken no small labour, but great diligence, watchinges, and trauayle. 27 Lyke as they that make a feast, would fayne do other men pleasure: euen so we also for many mens sakes, are very well content to take the labour:

30 Euen so do we also in lyke maner: and why? He that beginneth first to wryte a storie, must with his vnderstandyng gather the matter together, set his wordes in order, and diligently seeke out euery part. 31 But he that afterwarde wyll shorten it, vseth fewe wordes, and toucheth not the matter at the largest: let this be sufficient for a prologue. 32 Nowe wyll we begyn to shewe the matter: for it is but a foolishe thing to make a long prologue, and to be short in the storie it selfe.

The .iii. Chapter.

1 Of the honour done vnto the temple by the kynges of the gentiles. 6 Simon vttereth what treasure is in the temple.

A WHat tyme as the holy citie was inhabited in all peace & wealth, and when the lawes were yet very well kept: for so was it ordeyned through the godlynesse of Onias the hye priest, and other godly men that were enemies to wickednesse, 2 It
1.Mac.1.b. came thereto, that euen the kynges and princes them selues dyd the place great worship, and garnished the temple with great giftes: 3 Insomuch that Seleucus kyng of Asia, of his owne rentes bare all the costes be-
2.Mac.3.a. longing to the seruice of the offrings. 4 Then Simon of the tribe of Beniamin being ruler of the temple, vpon a bargaunce risen betweene him and the high priest for wickednesse that was
2.Mac.3.b. done in the citie, 5 For that he could not ouercome Onias, he gat him to Apollonius the sonne of Tharsia, which then was chiefe lorde in Celosyria and Phenices, 6 And tolde him that the treasurie in Hierusalem was full of innumerable money, and how that the common goodes whiche belonged not vnto the offeringes, were exceedyng great also: yea and howe it were possible that all these
B might come vnder the kynges power. 7 Now when Apollonius had shewed the kyng of the money, as it was tolde him: the kyng called for Heliodorus his treasurer, and sent him with a commaundement to bryng him the same money. 8 Immediatly Heliodorus toke his iourney, but vnder a colour as though he would go through Celosyria and Phenices to visite the cities, but his purpose was to fulfyll the kinges pleasure. 9 So when he came to Hierusalem, and was louingly receaued of the hye priest into the citie, he tolde what was determined concernyng the money, and shewed the cause of his comming: he asked also if it were so in deede. 10 Then the hie priest tolde him, that there was such money layed vp for the vpholdyng of wydowes and fatherlesse children, 11 And howe that a certayne of it belonged vnto Hircanus the sonne of Tobias a noble man, and that of al the money (and not as that wicked C Simon had reported) there were foure hundred talentes of siluer, and two hundred of golde: 12 Yea and that it were vnpossible for those mens meanyng to be deceaued that had put assured confidence in the holynesse of the place, and in the maiestie and vndoubted safetie of the temple, which is had in worship through the whole world, for the mayntenaunce and honour of the same. 13 Whervnto Heliodorus aunswered, that the kyng had commaunded him in any wyse to bryng him the money. 14 So at the day appoynted Heliodorus entred into the temple to order this matter: wherfore there was no small feare throughout Exod.22.b. the whole citie. 15 The priestes fell downe before the aulter in their vestmentes, and called vnto heauen vpon him whiche had made a lawe concernyng stuffe geuen to kepe, that they D should be safely preserued for such as committed them vnto keping.

16 Then who so had loked the hye priest in the face, it would haue greeued his heart: for his countenaunce and the chaunging of his colour, declared the inwarde sorowe of his mynde. 17 The man was all in heauinesse, and his body in feare: whereby they that loked vpon him myght perceaue the griefe of his heart.

18 The other people also came out of their houses by heapes vnto the common prayer, because the place was lyke to come into confusion. 19 The women came together through the streetes with heery clothes about their breastes: the virgins also that were kept in ran to Onias, some of them ran to the gates, some vp vpon the walles, other some loked out at the windowes. 20 Yea they all held vp their handes towarde heauen, and prayed. 21 A miserable thing was it to loke vpon the common people, and the hye priest beyng in such trouble.

22 But they besought almightie god, that the goodes whiche were committed vnto them, myght be kept whole for those that had deliuered them vnto their keping. 23 Neuertheleſſe the thing that Heliodorus was determined to do, that perfourmed he in the same place, he him selfe personally beyng about the treasurie with his men of warre. 24 But the spirite of almightie god shewed him selfe openly, so that all they which presumed to obey Heliodorus, fell through the power of God into a great fearefulnesse and dread. 25 For there appeared vnto the an horse with a terrible man sitting vpon him, decked in goodly array, and the horse smote at Heliodorus with his forefeete: nowe he that sate vpon the horse, had harneſſe of golde vppon him. 26 Moreouer there appeared two fayre and beautifull young men of notable strength in goodly array, whiche stoode by him, scourged him of both the sides, and gaue him many stripes without ceasing. 27 With that fell Heliodorus sodenly vnto the ground, so they toke him vp beyng compaſſed about with great darkneſſe, and bare him out vpon a beere. 28 Thus he that came with so many runners and men of warre into the sayde treasurie, was borne out, where as no man myght helpe him, beyng destitute of harneſſe and weapons: and so the power of God was manifest and knowen.

29 He lay still dumbe also by the power of god, destitute of all hope and lyfe. 30 And they prayſed the Lord, that he had shewed his power vppon his place, and temple which a litle afore was full of feare and trouble, and that through the reuelation of the almightie Lorde it was fylled with ioy and gladneſſe. 31 Then certayne of Heliodorus freendes prayed Onias that in all haſte he would call vppon God, to graunt him his lyfe whiche was gesting vp the ghoſt. 42 So the hye priest fearing lest the kyng should suſpect that the Iewes had done Heliodorus some (a) euyll, he offered an offering for his health. 33 Nowe when the hie priest had obtayned his petition, the same young men in the same clothing appeared, and stoode beſide Heliodorus, saying, Thanke Onias the hie priest: for, for his sake hath the Lorde graunted thee thy lyfe. Act. 27. c.

34 Therefore seeyng that God hath scourged thee, geue him prayſe and thankes, and shewe euery man his might & power. And when they had spoken theſe wordes, they appeared no more. 35 So Heliodorus offered vnto God, made great vowes vnto him which had graunted him his life, thanked Onias, toke his hoaſt, and went agayne to the kyng. 36 Then testified he vnto euery man of the great workes of god that he had seene with his eyes. 37 And when the kyng asked Heliodorus who were meete to be sent yet once agayne to Hierusalem, he saide, 38 If thou hast any enemie or aduerſarie vnto thy realme, send him thyther, and thou shalt haue him punished, yf he escape with his lyfe: for in that place (no doubt) there is a speciall power and working of God. 39 For he that dwelleth in heauen, visiteth and defendeth that place, and all that come to do it harme he punisheth and plagueth them. 40 This is nowe the matter concernyng Heliodorus, & the keping of the treasurie (at Hierusalem)

The .iiii. Chapter.

1 simon reporteth euill of Onias. 7 Iason desiring the office of the hie priest, corrupted the kyng with rewardes.

THis Simon nowe (of whom we spake afore) being a bewrayer of the money, and of his owne naturall countrey, reported the worſt of Onias, as though he had moued Heliodorus vnto this, & as though he had ben a bringer vp of euyll. 2 Thus was he not ashamed to call him an enemie of the realme, that was so faythfull an ouerseer and defender of the citie and of his people, yea and so feruent in the lawe of God. 3 But when the malice of Simon increased so farre, that through his freendes there were certayne manslaughters committed: 4 Onias conſydered the perill that myght come through this stryfe, and howe that Apollonius the chiefe Lorde in Celosyria and Phenices was all set vppon tyrannie, and Simons malice increased the same,

5 He gat him to the kyng, not as an accuſer of the citezins, but as one that by him ſelfe intended the common wealth of the whole multitude.

6 For he sawe it was not possible to lyue in peace, neither Simon to leaue of from his foolishnesse, except the kyng dyd loke thereto. 7 But after the dearth of Seleucus, when Antiochus whiche is called the noble toke the kyngdome, Jason the brother of Onias laboured to be hye priest:

8 For he came vnto the kyng, & promised him three hundred and three score talentes of siluer, and of the other rentes foure score talentes.

9 Besides this, he promised him yet an hundred & fifte more, yf he might haue licence to set vp a scoole and an exercise of weapons, & that he might call them of Hierusalem Antiochians. 10 Whiche when the kyng had graunted, and he had gotten the superiorite, he began immediatly to draw his kinsmen to the custome of the heathen, 11 Put downe the thinges that the Jewes had set vp of loue by John the father of Eupolonius, whiche was sent ambassadour vnto Rome for to make the bonde of frendship and loue, he put downe all the lawes and liberties of the Jewes, and set vp the wicked statutes. 12 For when he had made a scoole of fence vnder the castle, he drewe all the cheefest young men on his side, and trayned them to were (a) hattes. 13 And there was such a feruent desire to come to the maners of the heathen, and to take vp newe straunge fashions brought in through the vngratious and vnheard wickednes of Jason, which shouldnot be called a priest, but an vngodly person: 14 Insomuch that the priestes were now no more occupied about the seruice of the aulter: but despised the temple, regarded not the offeringes, yea gaue their diligence to learne to fyght, to wrastle, to leape, to daunce, and to cast the stone: 15 Not setting by the honour of the fathers, but lyked the glorie of the Grekes best of all: 16 For the which they strone perylously, and were greedy to folowe their statutes, yea their lust was in all thinges to be lyke them, which afore were their enemies and destroyers.

17 Howbeit to do wickedly agaynst the lawe of God, shall not escape vnpunished, but of this we shall speake hereafter. 18 What time as the * Olimpians sportes were played at Tyrus, the kyng him selfe beyng present, 19 This vngratious Jason sent wicked men, bearing from them of Hierusalem (which nowe were called Antiochians) three hundred drachmes of siluer for an offering to Hercules: these had they that caryed them desired vnder such a fashion as though they should not haue ben offered, but bestowed to other vses. 20 Neuertheles he that sent them, sent them to the intent that they should be offered vnto Hercules: but because of those that were present, they were geuen as to the making of shippes.

21 And Apollonius the sonne of Menestheus was sent into Egypt, because of the noble men of king Ptolome Philometor. Now when Antiochus perceaued that he was put out from (b) medling in the realme, he sought his owne profite, departed from thence, came to Joppa, and then to Hierusalem, 22 Where he was honorably receaued of Jason, & of the citie, and was brought in with torche lyght and with great prayse: and so he turned his hoast vnto Phenices.

23 After three yeres Jason sent Menelaus (the foresaid Simons brother) to beare the money vnto the king, and to bring him aunswere of other necessarie matters. 24 But he when he was commended to the king for magnifying of his power, turned the priesthood vnto him selfe, laying vp three hundred talentes of siluer for Jason.

25 So when he had gotten commaundementes from the kyng, he came, hauing nothing that becommeth a priest, but bearing the stomache of a cruell tyraunt, and the wrath of a wylde bruite beast.

26 Then Jason which had deceaued his owne brother, seeing that he him selfe was begiled also, was fayne to flee into the land of the Ammonites, 27 And Menelaus gat the dominion: but as for the money that he had promised vnto the kyng, he dyd nothyng therin, albeit Sostratus the ruler of the castle required it of him. 28 For Sostratus was the man that gathered the customes: wherfore they were both called before the king. 29 Thus was Menelaus put out of the priesthood, and Lysimachus his brother came in his steade, and Sostratus left Crates ouerseer of the (c) Cyprians.

30 It happened in the meane season that the Tharsians and Mallotians made insurrection, because they were geuen for a present vnto Antiochis the kynges concubine.

(a) These hattes were tokens of wantonnes that the gentiles vsed.

(c) That is, of them that meatured the corne.

31 Then came the kyng in all haſt to ſtill them agayne, and to pacifie the matter, leauing Andronicus there to be his deputie, as one meete therfore.
32 Nowe Menelaus ſuppoſing that he had gotten aright conuenient time, ſtole certayne veſſels of golde out of the temple, and gaue them to Andronicus for a preſent: and ſome he ſolde at Tyrus, and in the cities thereby.
33 Whiche when Onias knewe of a ſurete, he reproued him: but he kept him in a ſanctuarie beſide Daphnis, that lyeth by Antioche. 34 Wherfore Menelaus gat him to Andronicus, and prayed him that he would ſlay Onias. So when he came to Onias, he counſeled him craftely to come out of the ſanctuarie, geuing him his hande with an oth, (how be it he ſuſpected him) and then he ſlue Onias, without any regarde of righteouſnes. 35 For the which cauſe not only the Iewes, but other nations alſo, toke indignation, and were diſpleaſed for the vnrighteous death of ſo godly a man.
36 And when the kyng was come agayne from Cilicia, the Iewes and certayne of the Grekes went vnto him, complayning for the vnrighteous death of Onias. 37 Yea Antiochus him ſelfe was ſory in his minde for Onias, ſo that it pitied him: and he wept, remembryng his ſoberneſſe and manerly behauiour. 38 Wherefore he was ſo kindled in his minde, that he commaunded Andronicus to be ſtripped out of his purple clothing, and ſo to be led throughout the citie, yea and the vngratious man to be ſlayne in the ſame place where he committed his wickedneſſe vpon Onias: thus the Lorde rewarded him his puniſhment, as he had deſerued. 39 Nowe when Lyſimachus had done many wicked deedes in the temple through the counſell of Menelaus, and the noyce came abrode: the multitude gathered them together againſt Lyſimachus, for he had caryed out now much gold. 40 So when the people aroſe, and were full of diſpleaſure, Lyſimachus armed three thouſand vnthryfte to defende him, a certayne tyraunt beyng their captayne, which was grown both in age and woodnes. 41 They therfore ſeeing the enterpriſe of Lyſimachus, caught vp ſome ſtones, ſome blockes endes, and ſome handfulles of duſt that was nere at hande, and threwe them vpon the rebels of Lyſimachus bande that had ſet vpon them. 42 Thus there were many of them wounded, ſome beyng ſlaine, and all the other chaſed away: but as for the wicked churche robber him ſelfe they kylled him beſide the treaſurie.
43 Of theſe matters therefore there was kept a court againſt Menelaus.
44 Now when the kyng came to Tyrus, three men that were ſent from the ſenate pleaded his cauſe before the kyng. 45 But Menelaus beyng nowe conuict, went and promyſed Ptolome the ſonne of Dorymenes to geue him much money, yf he would pacifie the kyng toward him. 46 So Ptolome went to the kyng into a coort, where as he was ſet to coole him, & brought him out of that minde: 47 Inſomuch that he diſcharged Menelaus from the accuſations, that notwithſtandyng was cauſe of al miſchiefe: and thoſe poore men which yf they had tolde their cauſe, yea before the Scythians, they ſhould haue ben iudged innocent, them he condempned to death. 48 Thus were they ſoone puniſhed whiche ſolowed vpon the matter for the citie, for the people, and for the holy veſſels. 49 Wherefore they alſo of Tyrus, moued with hatred of that wicked deede, cauſed them to be very honorably buried. 50 And ſo through the couetouſneſſe of them that were in power, Menelaus remained ſtill in auctoritie, encreaſyng in malice, to the hurt of the citezins.

The .v. Chapter.

1 Of the ſignes and tokens ſeene in Hieruſalem, 6 Of the ende and office of Iaſon. 11 The purſute of Antiochus againſt the Iewes.

ABout the ſame tyme Antiochus vndertooke his ſeconde viage into Egypt. 2 And then were there ſeene throughout all the citie (of Hieruſalem) fourtie dayes long horſemen runnyng in the ayre, with robes of golde, and as bandes of ſpeare men,
3 And as troupes of horſemen ſet in aray, incounteryng and courſing one againſt another, with ſhakyng of ſhieldes and multitude of dartes, and drawyng of ſwordes, and ſhooting of arrowes, and the glitteryng of the golden armour ſeene, and harneſſe of all ſortes. 4 Wherefore euery man prayed that thoſe tokens myght turne to good. 5 Nowe when there was gone forth a falſe rumour, as though Antiochus had ben ben dead, Jason toke a thousande men, and came sodenly vpon the cittie: the citezins ranne vnto the walles, at the last was the cittie taken, and Menelaus fled into the castle. 6 As for Jason he sparednot his owne citezins in the slaughter, neither consydered he what great evyl it were to destroy the prosperitie of his owne kinsmen: but did as one that had gotten the victory of his enemies, & not of his freendes.

B 7 For all this gat he not the superioritie, but at the last receaued confusion for his malice, and fled agayne lyke a bacabounde into the lande of the Ammonites. 8 Finally, for a rewarde of his wickednesse he was accused before Aretha the king of the Arabians, insomuch that he was fayne to flee from citie to citie, beyng despised of euery man as a forsaker of the lawes, and an abominable person: and at the last as an open enemie of his owne naturall countrey & of the citezins he was driuen into Egypt. 9 Thus he that afore put many out of their owne native lande, perished from home him selfe: he went to Lacedemon, thinkyng there to haue gotten succour by reason of kinrede. 10 And he that afore had cast many one out vnburyed, was thrown out him selfe, no man mournyng for him, nor puttyng him in his graue: so that he neither enioyed the buryall of a straunger, neither was he partaker of his fathers sepulchre. 11 Nowe when this was done, the king suspected that the Jewes wolde haue fallen from him, wherefore he came in a great displeasure out of Egypt, and toke the cittie by violence. 12 He commaunded his men of warre also, that they shoulde kyll & not spare: but slay downe such as withstoode them, or clymed vp vpon the houses. 13 Thus was ther a great slaughter of young men, olde men, women, children, and virgins.

C 14 In three dayes were there slayne fourscore thousande, fourtie thousand put in prison: and there were as many solde as were slayne. 15 Yet was he not content with this, but durst go into the most holy temple of all the worlde, Menelaus that traytour to the lawes and to his owne naturall countrey beyng his guide. 16 And with his wicked handes toke the holye vessels, which other kinges & cities had geuen thyther for the garnishing & honour of the place, them toke he in his handes vnworthyly, and defiled them. 17 So mad was Antiochus, that he consydered not how that God was not a litle wroth for the sinnes of them that dwelt in the cittie, for the which such confusion came vpon that place. 18 And why? yf it had not happened them to haue ben lapped in many sinnes, this Antiochus alloone as he had come, had sodenly ben punished and shut out of his presumption, lyke as Heliodorus was, whom Seleucus the king sent to rob the treasurie. 19 Neuertheleese God hath not chosen the people for the places sake: but the place for the peoples sake. 20 And therefore is the place become partaker of the peoples trouble, but afterwarde shall it enioy the wealth of them: and lyke as it was nowe forsaken in the wrath of Almightie God: so when the great God is reconciled, it shalbe set vp in hye worship agayne. 21 So when D Antiochus had taken a thousande and eyght hundred talentes out of the temple, he gat him to Antioche in all the haste, thinkyng in his pride that he myght make men sayle vpon the drye lande, and to go vpon the sea, such an hye mynde had he. 22 He left deputies there to vexe the people: at Hierusalem left he Philip a Phrygian, in maners more cruel then him selfe that set him there: 23 At Garizim he left Andronicus & Menelaus, which were more greeuous to the citezins then other. 24 Nowe as he was thus set in malice agaynst the Jewes, he sent Apollonius a cruell prince with an armie of twentie and two thousande, commaundyng him to slay those that were of perfect age, and to sel the women, and the younger sort. 25 When he came nowe to Hierusalem, he fayned peace, and kept him still vntyll the sabbath day: and then he commaunded his men to take them to their weapons, for the Jewes kept holy day: 26 And so he slue all them that were gone foorth to the open play, runnyng (here and there) through the citie with his men weaponed, & murthered a great number.

27 But Judas Machabeus which was the tenth, fled into the wildernesse, led his life there with his companie among wylde beastes and vpon the mountaynes, dwellyng there, and eatyng hearbes, lest they shoulde be partakers of the filthynesse.

¶ The.vi. apter.

1 The Iewes are compelled to leaue the lawe of God, 4 The temple is defiled. 12 The readers are admonished that they shall not abhorre the aduersitie wherwith the Lorde afflicteth them. 28 The greeuous payne of Eleazarus.

NOt long after this sent the king an olde man of Antioche for to compel the Iewes to transgresse the ordinaunces of the fathers, and of the lawe of God, 2 To defile the temple that was at Hierusalem, and to call it the temple of Iupiter Olympius: and that they shoulde be in Garizim, as those which dwell at the place of Iupiter the harberous.

3 This wicked sedition of the vngodlye was heauie vpon all the people:

4 For the temple was full of voluptuousnesse, bybbyng and bollyng of the heathen, of rybaudes and harlottes together: the women went into the holy place, and bare in that was not lawfull. 5 The aulter also was full of vnlawfull thynges, which the lawe forbiddeth to lay vpon it,

6 The sabbathes were not kept, the other solempne feastes of the lande were not regarded: to be playne, there durst no man be knowen that he was a Iewe. 7 In the day of the kinges birth they were compelled perforce to offer, and when the feast of Bacchus was kept, they were constrayned to were garlandes of yuie, and so to go about to the honour of Bacchus.

8 Moreouer through the counsell of Ptolomeus, there went out a commaundement vnto the next cities of the heathen agaynst the Iewes, that the lyke custome and "banketting shoulde be kept. 9 And who so would not conforme them selues to the maners of the Gentiles, shoulde be put to death: then mygbt a man haue seene the present miserie. 10 For there were two women accused to haue circumcized their sonnes: whom when they had led rounde about the citie the babes hangyng at their brestes, they cast them downe headlonges ouer the walles. 11 Some that were crept in dennes, and had kept the sabbath, were accused vnto Philip, and brent in the fire, because that for the feare of God they kept the commaundement so stylly, and would not defende them selues.

12 Nowe I beseche all those which reade this booke, that they refuse it not for these falles of aduersitie, and iudge the thinges that are happened for no destruction, but for a chastenyng of our people. 13 And why? When God suffereth not sinners long to folowe their owne mynde, but shortly punisheth them, it is a token of his great louyng kindnesse. 14 For this grace haue we of God more then other people, that he suffereth not vs long to sinne vnpunished, lyke as other nations: 15 That when the day of iudgement commeth, he may punishe them in the fulnesse of their sinnes. 16 If we sinne, he correcteth vs, but he neuer withdraweth his mercie from vs: and though he punishe with aduersitie, yet doth he neuer forsake his people. 17 But let this that we haue spoken nowe with fewe wordes, be for a warnyng and exhortation "of the heathen: nowe wyll we come to the declaryng of the matter. 18 Eleazar one of the principall scribes, an aged man, and of a well fauoured countenaunce, was constrayned to gape with open mouth, & to eate swynes flesche. 19 But he dessyryng rather to dye gloriously then to lyue with shame, offered him selfe wyllyngly to the warfarebome.

20 Nowe when he sawe that he must needes go to it, he toke it patiently: for he was at a poynt with him selfe, that he woulde not consent to any vnlawfull thyng for any pleasure of life.

21 They that (a) shoode by, beyng moued with pitie (but not a ryght) for the olde freendshyp of the man, toke him aside priuilie, and prayed him that he woulde let such flesche be brought him as were lawfull to eate, and then to make a countenaunce as though he had eaten of the flesche of the sacrifice, like as the king commaunded.

22 For so he might be deliuered from death: and so for the olde freendshyp of the man, they shewed him this kindnesse. 23 But he began to consyder discretly, and as became his age and the excellencie of his auncient yeres, and the honour of his gray heeres wherunto he was come, and his most honest conuersation from his childhood, but cheefely the holy lawe made and geuen by God, therefore he aunswered consequently, and wylled them strayghtwayes to sende him to the graue: 24 For it becommeth not myne age, sayde he, in any wyse to dissemble, whereby many young young persons myght thynke that Eleazar beyng fourescore yeres olde and ten, were nowe gone to a straunge religion: 25 And so through myne hypocrisie for a litle tyme of a transitorie lyfe, they myght be deceaued: by this meanes also shoulde I defile myne age and make it abominable.

26 For though I were nowe deliuered from the tormentes of men, yet shoulde I not escape the hande of Almightie God neither aliue nor dead.

27 Wherefore I will dye manfully, and do as it becommeth myne age:

Amos. 1.8 28 Whereby I may peraduenture leaue an example of stedfastnesse for such as be young, yf I with a redye mynde and manfully dye an honest death for the most worthy and holy lawes. When he had sayde these wordes, immediatly he was drawen to the torment. 29 Nowe they that led him, and were mylde a litle afore, began to take displeasure because of the wordes that he sayde: for they thought he had spoken them of an hye mynde. 30 But when he was in his martirdome, he mourned, and sayde, Thou O Lorde which hast the holy knowledge, knowest openly that where as I myght be deliuered from death, I suffer these sore paynes of my body: but in my mynde I am well content to suffer them because I feare thee. 31 Thus this man dyed, leauyng the memoriall of his death for an example, not only vnto young men, but vnto all the people, to be stedfast and manly.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

The punishment of the seuen brethren and of their mother.

A IT happened also that there were seuen brethren with their mother taken, and compelled by the king agaynst the lawe to eate swynes flesshe (namely) with scourges and letherne whippes. Leuit. 11.8

2 And one of them which was the cheefe, sayde, What seekest thou, and what requirest thou of vs? As for vs we are redy rather to suffer death, then to offende the lawes of God and the fathers.

3 Then was the king angry, and bad heate caudrons and brasen pottes: which when they were made hot,

4 Immediatlye he commaunded the tongue of him that spake first to be cut out, to pull the skinne ouer his head, to pare the edges of his handes and feete, yea and that in the syght of his mother and the other of his brethren. 5 Nowe when he was cleane mangled, he commannded a fire to be made, and so (whyle there was any breath in him) to be fryed in the caudron: In the which when he had ben long payned, the other brethren with their mother exhorted him to dye manfully, saying, 6 The Lorde God shall regarde the truethe, and comfort vs, lyke as Moyses testifieth and declareth in his song (saying) And he Deut. 32.6 wyll haue compassion on his seruauntes. 7 So when the first was B dead after this maner, they brought the seconde to haue him in derision, pulled the skinne with the heere ouer his head, and asked him yf he would eate swines flesshe or he were payned in the other members also throughout his body. 8 But he answered in his owne language, and sayde, I wyll not do it: and so he was tormented lyke as the first. 9 And when he was euen at the geuyng vp of the ghost, he sayd, Thou most vngratious person puttest vs nowe to death: but the king of the worlde shall rayse vs vp which dye for his lawes, in the resurrection of euerlastyng lyfe.

10 After him was the thirde had in derision, and when he was required he put out his tongue, and that ryght soone, holdyng forth his handes manfully: 11 And spake with a stedfast fayth, These haue I of heauen, but nowe for the lawes of God I despise them: for my truste is that I shall receaue them of him agayne. 12 In somuch that the king and they which were with him marueyled at the young mans boldnesse, that he no- C thyng regarded the paynes. 13 Now when he was dead also, they vexed the fourth with tormentes in like maner.

14 So whe he was now at his death, he sayd, It is better that we being put to death of men haue our hope & truste in God, for he shal raise vs vp againe: Joh. 5.c. as for thee thou shalt haue no resurrection to lyfe. 15 And when they had spoken to the fifth, they tormented him. 16 Then loked he vnto the king, and sayde, Thou hast power among men, for thou art a mortal man also thy selfe to do what thou wylt: but thynke not that God hath forsaken our generation. 17 Abyde thee, tary styll a whyle, and thou shalt see the great power of God, howe he he wyll punisshe thee and thy seede.

18 After him they brought the first, which beyng at the poynt of death, sayde, Be not deceaued O king: for this we suffer for our owne sakes, because we haue offended our God, and therefore marueylous thynges are shewed vpon vs. 19 But thinke not thou which takest in hande to strue agaynst God, that thou shalt escape vnpunished. 20 This excellent mother worthy to be well reported of & had in remembraunce, sawe her seuen sonnes dye in one day, and suffered it patiently because of the hope that she had in god. 21 Yea she exhorted eueryS one of them in her countrey language, and that boldly and stedfastly with perfect wisdome, wakyng vp her wimishe thought with a manlye stomache, and said vnto them, 22 I can not tel howe ye spyang in my wombe: for I neither gaue you breath, nor soule, nor life, it is not I that ioyned the members of your bodyes together, 23 But the maker of the world which fashioned the birth of man, and began all thynges: euen he also of his owne mercie shal geue you breath and life agayne, like as ye now regard not your owne selues for his lawes sake. 24 Now thought Antiochus that she had despised him, therefore he let her go with her reproches, and began to exhort the youngest sonne which was yet left, not only with wordes, but swore vnto him with an othe, that he should make him a riche and wealthy man, if he would forsake the lawes of his fathers: yea and that he shoulde geue him whatsoeuer were necessarie for him. 25 But when the young man wouldе not be moued for all these thynges, he called his mother and counselled her to sane her sonnes life. 26 And when he had exhorted her with many wordes, she promised him that she wouldе speake to her sonne.
27 So she turned her vnto him, laughyng the cruel tyraunt to scorne, and spake in her countrey language, O my sonne, haue pitie vpon me, that bare thee nine monethes in my wombe, that gaue thee sucke, nourtshed thee, and brought thee vp vnto this age: 28 I beseche thee my sonne loke vpon heauen and earth, and all that is therin, and consider that God made them and mans generation of naught: 29 So shalt thou not feare this hangman, but suffer death thoughtfully, like as thy brethren haue done: that I may receaue thee agayne in the same mercie with thy brethren.
30 While she was yet speakyng these wordes, the young man sayde, Whom loke ye for? (wherfore do ye tary?) I wyll not obey the kinges commaundement, but the lawe that God gaue vs by Moyses. 31 As for thou that imaginest all mischeefe agaynst the "Iewes, thou shalt not escape the hande of God. 32 For we suffer these thynges because of our sinnes.
33 And though the lyuyng Lorde be angry with vs a litle whyle for our chastenyng and reformation, yet shall he be at one agayne with his seruauntes. 34 But thou O godlesse man, & of all other the most wicked, pride not thy selfe through vayne hope, in being so malicious vpon the seruauntes of God: 35 For thou hast not yet escaped the iudgementes of God, which is Almightie, and seeth all thynges.
36 My brethre that haue suffred a litle payne, are nowe vnder the couenaunt of euerlastyng lyfe: but through the iudgement of God, thou shalt be punished ryghteously for thy pryde.
37 As for me, lyke as my brethren haue done I offer my "soule and my bodye for the lawes of our fathers, callyng vpon God that he wyll soone be mercifull vnto our people, yea and with payne and punishment to make thee graunt that he only is God.
38 In me nowe and in my brethren the wrath of Almightie God is at an ende, which ryghteously is fallen vpon all our people. 39 Then the kyng beyng kindled in anger, was more cruell vpon him then vpon all the other, and toke indignation that he was so lightly regarded. 40 So this young man dyed vndefiled, and put his trust stylle in the Lorde. 41 Last of all, after the sonnes was the mother put to death also. 42 Let this nowe be inough spoken concernyng the offerynges and extreme cruelnesse.

folkes and freendes together, toke vnto them all such as continued yet in the layth & lawe of the Jewes, and brought foorth sixe thousande men.

2 So they called vpon the Lord, that he wolde haue an eye vnto his people which was troden downe of euery man, to be gracious vnto the temple that was defiled of the vngodly.

3 To haue compassion vpon the destruction of the citie which was shortlye like to be layde waste, to heare the voyce of the blood that cryed vnto him: 4 To remember the most vnryghteous deathes of young innocent children, the blasphemies also done vnto his name, and to punishe them.

5 Nowe when Machabeus had gathered this multitude together, he was to mightie for the heathen: for the wrath of the Lord was turned into mercie. 6 He fel vpon the townes & cities vnwares, brent them, toke the most commodious places, and slue many of the enemies. 7 But specially he made such chases by nyght, insomuch that his manlines was spoken of euery where. 8 So when Philip sawe that the man encreased by litle & litle, and that the matter prospered with him for the most part: he wrote vnto Ptolome which was a captayne in Celosyria and Phenices, to helpe him in the kinges businesse. 9 Then sent he Nicanor the sonne of Patroclus a special freende of his in all the haste, and gaue him of the common sort of the heathen no lesse then twentie thousande harnelled men, to roote out the whole generation of the Jewes, hauyng to helpe him one Gorgias a man of warre, which in matters concernyng battels had great experience. 10 Nicanor ordayned also the tribute which the Romanes shoulde haue had, to be geuen vnto the king out of the captiue of the Jewes (namelye) two thousande talentes. 11 And immediatly he sent to the cities of the sea coast, requiryng them for to bye Jewes to be their seruauntes & bondmen, promisyng to sell them fourscore and ten for one talent: but he considered not the wrath of Almightie God that was to come vpon him.

12 When Judas knewe of this, he tolde the Jewes that were with him of Nicanors commyng. 13 Nowe were there some of them fearfull, not trustyng vnto the vprighteousnesse of God, and fled their way, and abode not in that place: 14 But the other solde all that they had left, and besought the Lord to deliuer them from that wicked Nicanor, which had solde them or euer he came nye them:

15 And though he wolde not do it for their sakes, yet for the couenaunt that he made with their fathers, and because they called vpon his holy and glorious name. 16 And so Machabeus called his men together (namely) about sixe thousande, exhortyng them not to agree vnto their enemies, neither to be afrayde for the multitude of their aduersaries comming agaynst them vnryghteously, but to fyght manly, 17 Considering the reproofe that they had done to the holy place without cause, howe they had despised & oppressed the citie, yea and destroyed the lawes of the fathers. 18 For they, sayde he, trust in their weapons, and boldnes: but our confidence is in the Almightie Lorde, which in the twinklyng of an eye may both destroy them that come agaynst vs, and all the worlde. 19 He exhorted them also to call to remembraunce the helpe that God shewed vnto their fathers, as when there perished an hundred fourscore and fiue thousande of Sennacheribs people: 20 And of the battel that they had in Babylon agaynst the Galathians: howe all the Macedonians that came to helpe them, beyng foure thousande, soode in feare: and howe they beyng only but " sixe thousande, slue an hundred & twentie thousande through the helpe that was geuen them from heauen, whereby they also had receaued many benefites.

21 Through these wordes the men toke good heartes vnto them, redie to dye for the lawe and the countrey.

22 So he set vpon euery companie a captayne, one of his owne brethren, Simon, Joseph, and Jonathas, geuyng eche one fifteene hundred men.

23 He caused " Esdras also to reade the holy booke vnto them, and to geue them a token of the helpe of God: then he him selfe beyng captaine in the forefront of the battell, buckled with Nicanor. 24 And God was their helpe, insomuch that they slue aboue nine thousand men, & compelled the more part of Nicanors hoast to flee, they were so wounded & feeble.

25 Thus they toke the money from those that came to bye them, and followed vpon them on euery syde.

27 So they toke their weapons, and spoyles, and kept the sabbath, geuyng thankes vnto the Lorde which had deliuered them that day, and shewed them the begynnyng of his mercie.
Num.31.d 28 After the sabbath, they distributed the spoyles to the sicke, to the fatherlesse, and to widowes, and the residue had they them selues, with theirs.
29 When this was done, and they all had made a generall prayer, they besought the mercifull Lorde to be at one with his seruauntes. 30 Of those also that were with Timotheus and Bacchides, whiche fought agaynst them, they slue twentie thousande, wan hygh and strong holdes, and de-uided mo spoyles, euer geuyng an equal portion vnto the sicke, to the fatherlesse, to widowes, and to aged persons. 31 And when they had diligently gathered their weapons together, they laide them all in conuenient places, & the remnaunt of the spoyles brought they to Hierusalem: 32 They slue also Philarches that wicked person, which was with Ti-motheus, and had vexed many Jewes.
33 And when they helde the thanke-geuyng at Hierusalem for the victory, they brent those that had set fire on the portes of the temple (namely) Calisthenes, which was fled into an house, and so they gat a worthy re-warde for their wickednesse. 34 As for that most vngratious Nicanor, which had brought a thousande mar-chauntes to bye the Jewes, 35 He was through the helpe of the Lorde brought downe, euen of them whom he regarded not: insomuch that he put of his glorious rayment, fled by sea, and came alone to Antioche with great shame and dishonour, which he gat through the destruction of his hoast. 36 Thus he that promised the Romanes to pay them their tribute when he toke Hierusalem, began now to say playnly, that God was the defender of the Jewes, and therfore not possible to wounde them, because they folowed the lawes which God had made.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

1 Antiochus wyllyng to spoyle Perse-polis is driuen to flyght. 9 As he persecuted the Iewes, he is striken of the Lorde. 13 The fayned repentaunce of Antiochus. 28 He dyeth.

AT the same time came Antiochus agayne with dishonour out of Persia. 2 For when he came to Perse polis, and vndertoke to rob the temple, & to subdue the citie, the people ran together and defended them selues, insomuch that he and his were fayne to flee with shame: and so after that flyght it happened that Antiochus came agayne with dishonour.
3 But when he came to Egbatana, he gat knowledge what was happened vnto Nicanor and Timotheus.
4 Nowe as he was auaunsyng him selfe in his wrath, he thought he was able to auenge the iniurie that was done to them vpon the Jewes: and therefore commaunded to make redy his charret, hastyng on his iourney without ceassyng, the iudgement of God prouokyng him, because he had spoken so proudly, that he woulde come to Hierusalem, and make it a graue of the Jewes. 5 But the Lorde God of Israel that seeth all thynges, smote him with an vncurable and inuisible plague (which no man coulde heale:) For assoone as he had spoken these wordes, there came vp-on him an horrible payne of his bowels, and a sore greefe of the inner partes, 6 And that was but ryght:
for he had martired other mens bowels with diuers and straunge tormentes. 7 Howbeit he woulde in no wyse ceasse from his malice: yea he was yet the prouder and more ma-litious agaynst the Jewes: but whyle he was commaundyng to make haste in the matter, it happened that he fell downe violently from the charret that ran swiftly, so that it bruised his body, and dyd him great payne.
8 And so he that thought a litle before he myght commaunde the floods of the sea (so proude was he beyonde the condition of man) and to weye the hye mountaynes in a payre of balaunce, was nowe brought downe to the grounde, and caryed vpon a horselyter, knowledgyng the manifest power of God vppon him: 9 So that the wormes came out of the bo-dye of this wicked man in aboun-daunce: and whyles he was alyue, his flesche fell of for payne and tor-vehemencie of stincke. 11 Therefore he beyng brought from his great pryde, began for to come to the knowledge of him selfe: for the punishment of God warned him, and his payne encreased euer more and more.

12 And when he him selfe myght not abyde his owne stincke, he sayde these wordes, It is reason to be obedient vnto God, and that a man which is mortall, thinke not through pryde him selfe to be equall vnto God.

13 This wicked person prayed also vnto the Lorde, who nowe woulde C haue no mercie vpon him: 14 And as for the citie that he came vnto so hastily to bryng it downe to the grounde, and to make it a graue for dead men, nowe he decreeth to deliuer it free:

15 And as touchyng the Iewes, whom he had iudged not worthy to be buryed, but woulde haue cast them out with their children for to be deuoured of the fowles & wylde beastes, (saying that he woulde haue destroyed both olde and young:) nowe he promised to make them lyke the citezins of Athens: 16 And where as he had spoyled the holy temple afore, nowe he maketh promise to garnische it with great gyftes, to encrease the holye ornamentes, and of his owne rentes to beare the costes and charges belongyng to the offerynges:

17 Yea and that he woulde also become a Iewe him selfe, to go through euery place of the worlde that was inhabited, and to preache the power of God. 18 But when his paynes woulde not ceasse, (for the righteous iudgement of God was come vpon him) out of a very dispaire he wrote vnto the Iewes a letter of intercession, containyng these wordes, 19 The king and prince Antiochus, witherto vnto the vertuous citezins of the Iewes much healthe and good prosperitie. 20 If ye and your children fare well, and yt all thynges go after your mynde, we geue great D thankes. 21 In my sickneſſe also do I remember you louyngly: for as I came out of Persia, and was taken with sore disease, I thought it necessarye to care for the common wealthy: 22 Neither dispaire I in my selfe, but haue a good hope to escape this sickneſſe. 23 But consyderyng that my father led an hoast sometyme in the hygher places, and shewed who shoulde raigne after him, 24 That yf there happened any controuersie, or any harde thyng were declared, they in the lande myght knowe their cheefe Lorde, that there shoulde be no insurrection. 25 Agayne, when I ponder with my selfe howe that all the mightie men and neyghbours rounde about are layng wayte, and loke but for opportunitie to do harme: I haue ordeyned that my sonne Antiochus shall raigne after me, whom I oft commended to many of you when I was in the hyghest kingdomes, and haue written vnto him as it followeth hereafter. 26 Therfore I pray you, E and require you to remember the benefites that I haue done vnto you generally and in especiall, and that euery man wyll be faythfull to me and my sonne. 27 For I hope that he shalbe of sober and louyng behauiour, and yf he folowe my deuice, he shalbe indifferent vnto you.

phemer of God was sore smitten: and lyke as he had intreated other men, so he dyed a miserable death in a straunge countrey vpon a mountayne. 29 And his body dyd Philip that went with him carry away, whiche fearyng the sonne of Antiochus, went into Egypt to Ptolome Philometor.

4 When that was done, they fell downe flat vpon the grounde, and besought the Lorde that they myght come no more into such trouble: but if they sinned any more agaynst him, he him selfe to chasten them with mercy, & not to come into the handes of those aliaunces and blasphemous men.

5 Nowe

5 Nowe vpon the same day that the straungers polluted the temple, it happened that on the very same day it
1. Mach. 4. f was clensed agayne: (namely) the twentie and fifth day of the moneth called November Casleu. 6 They kept eyght dayes in gladnesse, like as in the feast of the tabernacles, remembryng that not long afore they helde the feast of the tabernacles vpon the mountaynes and in

8 They agreed also together, & made a statute that euery yere those dayes should be solemply kept of al the people of the Iewes. 9 Now Antiochus then that was called the noble dyed, it is sufficiently tolde. 10 Nowe wyll we speake of Eupator the sonne of that wicked Antiochus howe it happened with him, and so with fewe wordes to comprehende the aduersitie that chaunced in the warres. 11 Whē he had taken in the kingdome, he made one Lysias which had ben cap-

C 14 Nowe when Gorgias was gouernour of the same places, he toke straungers, and vndertoke oft tymes to warre with the Iewes. 15 Moreouer, the Idumeans that helde the strong holdes, receaued those that were dryuen from Hierusalem, and 18 Neuertheles some, no lesse then nine thousande, were fled into two strong towres hauyng all maner of ordinaunce to withstand them. 19 Then Machabeus leauyng Simon, Iosephus, Zacheus, and those that were with them, which were very many, went to besege them, & to fight where most neede was. 20 Nowe they that were with Simon beyng led with couetousnesse, were intreated for money through certayne of those that lay in the castles: and toke threescore and ten thousande (a) dragmas, and let some of them escape. 21 But when it was tolde Machabeus what had happned, he called the captaynes of the people together, accusyng those persons that they had sold the brethren for money, and let their enemies go. 22 So he slue those traytours, and immediatly went in hande with the two castles.

so sore afrayde that they fell downe.
31 There were slayne of footemen twentie thousande and fiue hundzeth, and sixe hundzeth hozsemen. 32 As foz Timotheus hym selfe, he fled vnto Gazara, a very strong holde, wherin Chereas was captayne. 33 But Machabeus and his companie layde siege to it chearefully foure dayes.

34 Now they that were within, trusting to the strength of the place, cursed and banned exceedingly, and made great craking with wicked wozdes.

35 Neuertheleße, vpon the fift day in the mozning, twentie young men of Machabeus company, beyng set on fire in their myndes because of the blasphemie, came manfully vnto the wall, and with bolde stomackes smote downe those that they met.

36 Others also clymed vp vpon the towzes, vndertaking to set fire vpon the poztes, and to burne those blasphemous persons quicke with the fires that they had made, others brake open the gates, and receaued the rest of the armie, and tohe the citie.

37 Two dayes were they destroying the castle, whiche when they founde Timotheus that was crept in a cozner, they kylled him, and slue Chereas his brother in like maner, with Apollophanes. 38 When this was done, they song psalmes with prayses and thankesgeuing vnto the Lozde, which had done so great thinges foz Israel, and geuen them the victozie.

The xi. Chapter.

1 Lysias goeth about to ouercome the Iewes. 8 Succour is sent from heauen vnto the Iewes.

NOt long after this, Lysias the kynges stewarde and a kinsman of his, whiche had the gouernaunce of his matters, toke soze displeasure foz the thinges that had happened, 2 And when he had gathered fourescoze thousande men of foote, with all the hoast of the hozsemen, he came against the Jewes, thinking to winne the citie, to make it an habitation foz the heathen: 3 And the temple woulde he haue to be an house of lucre, like as the other gods houses of the heathen are, and to sel the priestes office euery yere, 4 Not consydering the power of God, but was wylde in his mynde, trusting in the multitude of footemen, in thousandes of hozsemen, and in his fourescoze Elephants.

5 So he came into Jurie, and then to Bethsura, a castle of defence, lying in a narowe place fiue furlonges from Hierusalem, and layde soze siege vnto it. 6 Nowe when Machabeus and his company knewe that the strong holdes were besieged, they fell to their prayers with weeping and teares before the Lozde: and all the people in like maner besought hym that he woulde sende a good angell to deliuer Israel. 7 Machabeus hym selfe was the first that made hym redy to the battayle, exhozting the other that were with hym to ieoparde themselues, and to helpe their brethren.

8 And when they were goyng foozth of Hierusalem together with a redy and willing minde, there appeared before them vpon hozsbacke a man in white clothing, with harneße of gold, shaking his speare. 9 Then they praysed the Lozde all together whiche had shewed them mercy, & were comfozted in their mindes, insomuch that they were redy not only to fight with men, but with the most cruel beastes, yea and run thozowe walles of iron.

10 Thus they went on willingly, hauing an helper from heauen, and the Lozde mercifull vnto them. 11 They fell mightely vpon their enemies like lions, slue eleuen thousand footemen, sixteene hundzed hozsemen, and put all the other to flight, 12 Many of them beyng wounded, and some gat away naked: yea Lysias him selfe was fayne to flee shamefully, and so to escape.

13 Neuertheleße that man was not without vnderstanding, but consydered by hym selfe that his power was minished, & pondzed howe the Jewes beyng defended by the helpe of almightie god, were not able to be ouercome: wherfoze he sent them wozde, 14 And promised that he would consent to all thinges whiche were reasonable, and to make the kyng their freende. 15 To the which prayer of Lysias Machabeus agreed, seeking in all thinges the common wealth: and whatsoeuer Machabeus wrote vnto Lysias concerning the Jewes, the kyng graunted it. 16 Foz there were letters written vnto the Jewes from Lysias, conteyning these wozdes, Lysias sendeth greeting to the people of the Jewes. 17 John and "Absalon which were sent from you, deliuered me writinges, and required me to fulfill the thinges concerning their errande. 18 Therefoze looke

30 Wherefore, those that wyll come, we geue them free libertie vnto the thirtie day of the moneth of * Apzil, 31 That they may vse the meates of the Iewes and their owne lawes lyke as afore: and none of them by any maner of wayes to haue harme for thinges done in ignorance. 32 I haue sent also Menelaus, that he may comfort you. 33 Fare ye well. In the hundred fourtie and eyght yere, the fifteenth day of the moneth of Apzil.

34 The Romanes also sent a letter, conteyning these wordes, Quintus Memmius, and Titus Manilius ambassadors of the Romanes, sende greeting vnto the people of the Iewes. 35 Looke what Lysias the kynges kynsman hath graunted you, we graunt you the same also. 36 But as concerning the thinges whiche he referred vnto the kyng, sende hyther some with speede, and ponder the matter diligently among your selues, that we may * cal the best to your profite: for we must depart nowe vnto Antioche. 37 And therfore wryte shortly againe, that we may know your mind.

38 Fare well. In the hundreth fourtie and eyght yere, the fifteenth day of the moneth of Apzil.

The. xii. Chapter.

1 Timotheus troubleth the Iewes.
3 The wicked deede of them of Ioppa against the Iewes.

When these couenauntes were made, Lysias went vnto the kyng: and the Iewes tilled their grounde. 2 But Timotheus and Apollonius the sonne of Gennei, Ierome, and Demophon (the proude) Nicanor the captayne of Cypers, and they that lay in those places, wouldе not let them liue in rest and peace.

3 They of Ioppa also dyd euen such a shamefull deede: they prayed the Iewes that dwelt among them to go with their wyues and chyldren into the shippes which they had prepared, and did with them as though they had ought them no enyll wyll: 4 Forsomuch then as there was gone foorth a generall proclamation throwe the citie because of peace, they consented therto, and suspect nothing: but when they were gone foorth into the deepe, they drowned no lesse then two hundred of them. 5 When Judas knewe of this cruelte shewed vnto his people, he commaunded those that were with him to make them redy, 6 Exhorting them to call vpon God the righteous iudge, went foorth against those murtherers of his brethren, set fire in the hauen by night, brent vp the shippes: and those that escaped from the fire, he slue (with the sworde.)

in the maner vnto the Iewes whiche dwelt among them, 9 He came vpon the Iamnites by night, and set fire on the hauen with the whyppes: so that the light of the fire was seene at Hierusalem vpon a two hundred and fourtie furlonges. 10 Nowe when they were gone from thence nine furlonges in their iourney towarde Timotheus, fiue thousand men of foote, and fiue hundreth horsemen of the Arabians fought with hym. 11 So when the battayle was earnest, and prospered with Iudas thorowe the helpe of God, the residue of the (a) Arabians beyng ouercome, besought Iudas to be at one with them, and promised to geue hym certayne * pastures, and to do hym good in other thinges. 12 Iudas thinking that they should in deede be profitable concerning many thinges, promised them peace: whervpon they shoke handes, and so they departed to their tentes.

13 Iudas went also vnto a citie, whiche was very fast kept with bydges, fensed rounde about with walles, and diuers kindes of people dwelling therein, called Calpin. 14 They that were within it put such trust in the strength of the walles and in their store of battayles, that they were the slacker in their doynges, cursing and reuiling Iudas with blasphemies, and speaking suche wordes as it becommeth not. 15 But Machabeus callyng vpon the great prince of the worlde, (whiche without any battayle rammes or ordinaunces of warre did cast downe the walles of Iericho in time of Iosuah) fel manfully vpon the walles, 16 Toke the citie, & thorowe the helpe of the Lorde made an exceeding great slaughter: insomuch that a lake of two furlongs byde which lay therby, seemed to flow with the blood of the slaine. 17 Then departed they from thence seuen hundred and fiftie furlonges, and came to * Taraca vnto the Iewes that are called Tubianei.

18 But as for Timotheus they could not get hym there: for (not one matter dispatched) he was departed from thence, and had left certayne men in a very strong holde. 19 But Dositheus and Sosipater, whiche were captaynes with Machabeus, slue those that Timotheus had left in the house of defence, more then ten thousande men. 20 And Machabeus prepared him with the fire thousande men that were about hym, set them in order by companies, and went forth agaynst Timotheus, whiche had with him an hundred and twentie thousand men of foote, two thousand and fiue hundred horsemen. 21 When Timotheus had knowledge of Iudas comming, he sent the women, children, and the other baggage vnto a castle called Carnion: for it coulde not be wonne, and was hard to come vnto, the wayes of the same places were so narrowe.

22 And when Iudas his first bande came in sight, the enemies were smytten with feare through the presence of God which seeth all thynges: insomuche that they fleeyng one here, another there, were rather discomfited of their owne people, and wounded with the strokes of their owne swordes. 23 Iudas also was verye earnest in folowyng vpon them, punishing those vngodly, and slue thirtie thousand men of them. 24 Timotheus also him selfe fell into the handes of Dositheus and Sosipater, whom he besought with much craft to let hym go with his lyfe, because he had many of the Iewes fathers and brethren in prison, which if they put him to death should be despised. 25 So when he had promised faythfully to deliuer them agayne according to the condition made, they let hym go without harme, for the health of the brethren.

26 Then Machabeus marched forth to Carnion and Atargation, and there slue twentie and fiue thousande men. 27 Nowe after that he had chased away and slayne his enemies, he remoued the hoast towarde Ephron a strong citie, wherein was Lysias and a great multitude of diuers nations: and the strong young men kept the walles, defending them mightyly: In this citie was much ordinaunce and prouision of darres.

28 But when Iudas and his company had called vpon almightie God, whiche with his power breaketh the strength of the enemies, they wanne the citie, and slue twentie and fiue thousande of them that were within.

29 From thence went they to the citie of the * Scythians, whiche lyeth fiue hundred furlonges from Hierusalem. 30 But when the Iewes whiche were in the citie, testified that the citizens deale louingly with them, yea and intreated them kyndly in the tyme of their aduersitie, 31 Iudas and his company gaue thankes, thankes, desiring them to be frendly styll vnto them: and so they came to Hierusalem, the hie feast of the weekes beyng at hande. 32 And after the feast of Pentecost they went forth against Gorgias the gouernour of Idumea, 33 Who came out with three thousande men of foote, and foure hundred horsemen. 34 Which when they met together, it chaunced a fewe of the Iewes to be slayne. 35 And Dositheus one of the Bacenors, a mightie horseman, toke holde of Gorgias, and woulde haue taken hym quicke: but an horseman of Thracia fell vpon him and smote of his arme, so that Gorgias escaped and fled into * Mozesa. 36 When they now that were of * Gorgias side had foughten long and were weerie, Iudas called vpon the Lord that he would be their helper, and captayne of the feelde:

* Or, Marcsa.
* Or. Esdrin.

37 And with that he began in his owne language, and song Psalmes with a lowde voyce, insomuch that he made the enemies afrayde, and Gorgias men of warre take their flight.

38 So Iudas gathered his hoast, and came into the citie of Odolla: & when the seuenth day came vpon them, they cleansed them selues as the custome was, and kept the Sabbath in the same place. 39 And vpon the day following, as necessitie required, Iudas and his company came to take vp the bodyes of them that were slayne, and to burie them in the fathers graues.

Deu. xxi. d. Iosu. viii. a.

40 Nowe vnder the coates of certayne Iewes whiche were slayne, they founde iewels that they had taken (out of the temple and) from the idoles of the Iamnites, whiche thing is forbidden the Iewes by the lawe: then euery man sawe that this was the cause wherefore they were slayne.

41 And so euery man gaue thankes vnto the Lorde for his righteous iudgement, whiche had opened the thing that was hyd. 42 They fell downe also vnto their prayers, and besought God that the fault which was made myght be put out of remembraunce: Beside that, Iudas exhorted the people earnestly to kepe them selues from such sinne, forsomuch as they sawe before their eyes that these men were slayne for the same offence.

43 So he gathered of euery one a certayne, and sent two thousande drachmes of siluer vnto Hierusalem, that there myght a sacrifice be offered for the misdeede: in the whiche he dyd well and right, for he had some consyderation and pondring of the lyfe that is after this tyme. 44 For if he had not thought that they which were slayne shoulde rise agayne, it had ben superfluous and vayne to make any powe or sacrifice for them that were dead. 45 But forsomuch as he sawe that they which die in the fauour and beleefe of God, are in good rest and ioy, he thought it to be good and honorable for a reconsiling, to do the same for those whiche were slayne, that the offence might be forgeuen.

The. xii. Chapter.

1 The comming of Eupator into Iurie.
4 The death of Menelaus.

IN the hundred fourtie and nine yere gat Iudas knowledge that Antiochus Eupator was comming with a great power into Iurie, 2 And Lysias the stewarde and ruler of his matters with hym, hauing an hundred and ten thousand men of foote of the Grettans, fiue thousande horsemen, twentie & two Elephantes, and three hundred charets set with hookes. A

3 Menelaus also ioyned hym selfe with them, but with great diseipt spake fayre to the kyng, not for any good to the countrey, but because he thought to haue ben made some great man of authoritie. 4 But the kyng of kinges moued Antiochus minde against this vngodly person, and Lysias enformed the kyng that this Menelaus was the cause of all mischiefe: so that the king commaunded to bring hym vnto Berea, and as the maner of them is, to put hym vnto death in the same place. 5 There was also in the same place a towre of fiftie cubites hye, heaped with asshes: and it had an instrument that turned rounde, and on euery side it rouled downe into the asshes, and there whosoeuer was condempned of sacriledge, or of any other greeuous crime, was cast of all men vnto the death. 6 Whereinto the kyng commaunded that shameful person to be cast among the asshes, as one that was cause of all vngratiousnesse. 7 And reason it was that the vnthrift shoulde dye such a death, and not to be buried: 8 For he had done muche mischiefe vnto the aulter of God, whose fire and asshes were holy: therefore was it ryght that he hym selfe also should be destroyed with asshes. 9 But the kyng was wood

in his mynde, and came to shewe hym selfe moze cruel vnto the Iewes, then his father was. 10 Whiche when
1. Mac. 19. Iudas perceaued, he commaunded the people to call vpon the Lozde nyght and day, that he woulde nowe helpe them also like as he had done alway: foz they were afraide to be put from their lawe, from their naturall countrey, and from the holy temple:

11 And not to suffer the people which a litle whyle afoze began to recouer, to be subdued agayne of the blasphemous nations. 12 So when they had done this together, and besought the Lozde foz mercy, with weeping and fasting three dayes long flat vpon the ground, Iudas exhozted them to make them selues redy. 13 But he and the eldest together deuised to go foozth (first with the people) afoze the kyng brought his hoast into Iurie, and afoze he besieged the citie, and so to commit the matter vnto God.

C 14 Wherfoze he committed the charge of all thinges vnto God the maker of all the wozlde, exhozting his people to fight manfully, yea euen vnto death, foz the lawes, the temple, the citie, their owne native countrey, and to defende the citezins: and he set his hoast before Modin. 15 He gaue them also that were with hym a token of the victozy of God, choosing out the manlyest young men, went by
1. Mac. vi. k. nyght into the kynges pauilion, slue of the hoast fourteene thousand men, and the greatest of the Elephantes, with those that sate vpon them.

16 Thus when they had brought a great feare and rumour among the tentes of their enemies, and all thinges went prosperously with them,

17 They departed in the breake of the day, God beyng their helper and defender. 18 Nowe when the kyng perceaued the manlynesse of the Iewes, he went about to take the strong places by craft, 19 And remo-
2. Mac. xi. a ued his hoast vnto Bethsura, whiche was a well kept house of defence of D the Iewes: but they were chased away, hurt, and discomfited. 20 And Iudas sent vnto them that were in it, such thinges as were necessary.

21 In the Iewes hoast also there was one Rhodochus, which tolde the enemies their secretes: but they sought hym out, and when they had gotten hym, they put hym in pryson.

22 After this did the kyng commune with them that were in Bethsura, toke truice with them, departed, and stroke a battayle with Iudas, whiche ouercame hym. 23 But when he E vnderstoode that Philip whom he had left to be ouerseer of this businesse at Antioch began to rebell against hym, he was astonied in his minde, so that he yeelded himselfe to the Iewes, and made them an othe to do whatsoeuer they thought ryght.

24 Nowe when he was reconciled with them, he offered, made muche of the temple, gaue great gyftes vnto it,

25 Embzaced Machabeus, makyng hym captayne and gouernour from Ptolemais vnto the Gerrhenes.

26 Neuertheleste when he came to Ptolemais, the people of the citie were not content with the bonde of frendship: foz they were afraide that he woulde breake the couenaunt.

27 Then went Lysias vp into the iudgement seate, and excused the fact as well as he could, and enfozmed the people, shewed them the cause why, and pacified them: so he came agayne to Antioch. This is nowe the matter concerning the kynges iourney, and his returne.

The. xiiii. Chapter.

1 By the motion of the Lorde, Demetrius sendeth Nicanor to kil the Iewes.

AFter three yeres was Iudas in-
A fourmed howe that Demetrius the sonne of Seleucus was come vp with a great power and shippes, through the hauen of Tripolis, 2 To take certayne commodious places and countreys against Antiochus and his captayne Lysias. 3 Nowe Alcimus whiche had ben hye priest, and wylfully defiled hym selfe in the tyme of the mixting, seeyng that by no meanes he coulde be helped, noz haue any moze entraunce to the aulter.

4 He came to kyng Demetrius in the hundzed fiftie and one yere, presenting vnto him a crowne of golde, a paulme, and an oliue tree, whiche as men thought belonged to the temple: and that day helde his tongue. 5 But when he had gotten opoztunitie foz his madnesse, Demetrius called hym to counsell, & asked hym what thinges oz counsels the Iewes leaned vnto?

6 He aunswered, The Iewes that be called Assidei (whose captayne is Iudas Machabeus) maintayne warres, make insurrections, and wyll not let the realme be in peace. 7 Foz I be-

B yng deprined of my fathers honour (I meane the hye prieſthood) am come hyther: 8 Partly because I was faythfull vnto the king, and partly because I sought the profite of myne owne cuntrey: And why? all our people thyrough the wickednesse of them are not a litle troubled. 9 Wherefore I beseche thee O kyng, consyder all these thinges diligently, and then make some prouision for the land and the people accordyng to the kindnesse that thou hast offered vnto them.

10 For as long as Judas liueth, it is not possible that men can liue in peace. 11 When he had spoken these wordes, other freendes also hauing euyll will at Judas, set the kyng Demetrius on fire (against hym.)

1. Mac. viii. c 12 Which immediatly sent Nicanor ruler of the Elephantes a captayne into Jurie, 13 Commaunding hym to slay Judas, and to scatter them that were with hym, and to make Alcimus hye priest of the great temple.

C 14 Then the heathen whiche fled out of Jurie from Judas came to Nicanor by flockes, thinking the harme and decay of the Jewes to be their welfare. 15 Nowe when the Jewes heard of Nicanors comming, and the gathering together of the heathen, they sprinckled them selues with

11. Mac. x. c. earth, and besought hym which made them his people, and euer defended his owne portion with euident tokens, that he would preserue thē styll.

16 So at the commaundement of the captayne they remoued straight wayes from thence, and came to a towne called Wellan. 17 And Simon Judas brother fell in hande with Nicanor: but thyrough the sodayne "comming of the enemies he was afraide.

" Or, Iealence.

18 Neuertheleſſe Nicanor hearing the manlinesse of them that were with Judas, and the bolde stomackes that they had to fight for their naturall countrey, durst not prone the matter with bloodshedding. 19 Wherfore he sent Posidonius, "Theodotus, & Matthathias before, to geue and to take peace. 20 So when they had taken long aduisement therupon, and the captayne shewed it vnto the multitude, they were agreed in one mynde to haue peace. 21 And they appointed a day to sit vpon these matters quietly among them selues, and for euery one stooles also were brought and set forth. 22 Neuertheleſſe Judas commaunded certayne men of armes to wayte in conuenient places, lest there shoulde sodenly aryse any euil thyrough the enemies: and so they communed reasonably together.

" Or, Theodotus, Matthias.

23 Nicanor whyle he abode at Hierusalem ordered hym selfe not vnreasonably, but sent away the people that were gathered together. 24 He loued Judas euer with his heart, and fauoured hym. 25 He prayed hym also to take a wyfe, and to bryng forth chyldren. So he maryed, lined in rest, and they led a common lyfe. 26 But Alcimus perceauing the loue that was betwixt them, and how they were agreed together, came to Demetrius, and tolde hym that Nicanor had taken straunge matters in hande, and ordayned Judas an enemie of the realme to be the kinges successour.

27 Then the kyng was sore displeased, & thyrough the wicked accusations which Alcimus made of Nicanor he was so prouoked, that he wrote vnto Nicanor, saying that he was very angrye for the frendship and agreements whiche he had made with Machabeus, neuertheleſſe he commaunded hym in all the haste that he shoulde take Machabeus prysoner, and sende hym to Antioch. 28 Whiche (letters) when Nicanor had seene, he was at his wittes ende and sore greeued, that he shoulde breake the thinges wherin they had agreed, specially seeyng Machabeus was that man that neuer did hym harme. 29 But because he myght not withstande the kyng, he sought opportunitie to fulfill his commaundement. 30 Notwithstanding when Machabeus sawe that Nicanor began to be churlishe vnto hym, and that he entreated hym more roughly then he was wont, he perceaued that suche vnkyndnesse came not of good, and therefore he gathered a fewe of his men, and withdrewe hym selfe from Nicanor. 31 Whiche when he knewe that Machabeus had manfully preuented hym, he came into the great and most holy temple, and commaunded the priestes whiche were doyng their vsuall offeringes to deliuer hym the man. 32 And when they sware that they coulde not tell

1. Mac. viii. c where the man was whom he sought, 33 He stretched out his right hande towarde the temple, and made an oth, saying, If ye will not deliuer me

Judas captiue, I shall remoue this temple of God into the playne feelde, I shall breake downe the aulter, and consecrate this temple vnto Bacchus.

34 After these wordes he departed. Then the priestes lift vp their handes towarde heauen, and besought hym that was euer the defender of theyr people, saying, 35 Thou O Lorde of all, which hast nede of nothing, wouldest that the temple of thy habitation shoulde be among vs: 36 Therefore
1.Mac.4.6. nowe O most holy Lorde kepe this house euer vndefiled, whiche lately was cleansed, and stop all the mouthes of the vnryghteous. 37 Nowe was there accused vnto Nicanor one Razis an alderman of Hierusalem, a louer of the whole citie, and a man of good reporte, which for his kinde heart that he bare vnto the people, was called a father of the Jewes. 38 This man oft times when the Jewes were minded to kepe them selues vndefiled, defended and deliuered them, being content stedfastly to spend his body and his life for his people. 39 So Nicanor wyllyng to declare the hate that he bare to the Jewes, sent fyue hundred men of warre to take hym:

40 For he thought if he gat hym, he shoulde bryng the Jewes in great decay. 41 Nowe when the people began to rushe in at his house, to breake the doores, & to set fyre on it, he beyng nowe taken, (c) fell vpon his sworde,

(c) This facte is not to be approued, for that it is contrary to gods commaundement, thou shalt not kyll. Exod. 20. Deut. 5.

42 Choosing rather to dye manfully, then to yeelde hym selfe to those wicked doers: and because of his noble stocke, he had rather haue ben put to extreme cruelties. 43 Notwithstanding, what time he myssed of his stroke for haste, and the multitude rushed in violently betwixt the doores, he ranne boldely to the wall, and cast him selfe downe manfully among the heape of them: 44 Which gaue soone place to his fall, so that he fell vpon his belly. 45 Neuertheleste whyle ther was yet breath within him, being kindled in his mind he rose vp, & while his blood gushed out exceedingly (for he was very sore wounded) he ranne through the middest of the people, and gat hym to the top of a rocke.

46 So when his blood was nowe gone, he tooke out his owne bowels, and with both his handes threwe them vpon the people, callyng vppon the Lorde of lyfe and spirite to reward hym this againe: and so he died.

2 Nicanor goeth about to come vpon Iudas on the sabbath day. 5 The blasphemie of Nicanor.

NOwe when Nicanor knewe that A Judas and his company were in 1.Mac. 7.b
the countrey of Samaria, he thought with all his power to stryke a feelde with him vppon a Sabbath day. 2 Neuertheleste the Jewes that were compelled to go with him, sayd, O do not so cruelly and vnkyndly, but halowe the Sabbath day, and worshyppe hym that seeth all thynges:
3 (For all this) yet sayde the vngratious person, Is there a mightie one in 1.king.20.c
heauen that commaunded the Sabbath day to be kept? 4 And when they sayd, Yea the lyuyng God, the mightie Lorde in heauen commaunded the seuenth day to be kept: 5 He said, And Exod.20.b.
I am mightie vppon earth to commaund them for to arme them selues, and to performe the kinges busines. Notwithstandyng he myght not haue his purpose. 6 Nicanor had deuised with great pride to ouercome Judas, B and to bring away the victory: 7 But Machabeus had euer a fast confidence and a perfect hope in God that he woulde helpe him: 8 And exhorted his people not to be afrayde at the comming of the heathen: but alway to remember the helpe that had ben shewed vnto them from heauen, yea and to be sure nowe also that almyghtie God woulde geue them the victorie. 9 He spake vnto them out of the lawe and prophetes, puttyng them in remembraunce of the battayles that they had stryken afore, and made them to be of good courage. 10 So when theyr hearties were pluckt vp, he shewed them also the deceitfulnesse of the heathen, and howe they woulde kepe no couenaunt nor othe.
11 Thus he weaponed them not with the armoure of shielde and speare, but with wholsome wordes and exhortations, he shewed them a dreame also worthy to be beleued, whereby through he made them all glad,

12 Which was this; He thought that he sawe Onias whiche had ben hye priest, a vertuous and louing man, sad and of honest conuersation, well spoken, and one that had ben exercised in goodlines from a chyld, holding vp his handes towarde heauen, and praying for his people. 13 After this there appeared vnto hym another man, whiche

whiche was aged, honourable, and glorious. 14 And Onias sayde, This is a louer of the brethren, and of the people of Israel: this is he that prayeth much for the people and for al the holy citie, Jeremie the prophete of God. 15 He thought also that Jeremie held out his right hand, and gaue vnto Judas a swoorde of golde, saying, 16 Take this holy swoorde a gyft from God, wherwith thou shalt smite downe the enemies of the people of Israel. 17 And so they were well comforted through the wordes of Judas, which were very sweete and able to stirre vp their courage, and tooke courage vnto them, so that the young men were determined in their mindes to fight, and to abide stifly at it: insomuche that in the thinges which they toke in hande, their boldnesse shewed the same, because the holy citie, the sanctuarie, and the temple were in perill: 18 For the whiche they tooke more care, then for their wyues, children, brethren, and kinsfolkes. 19 Againe, they that were in the citie, were most carefull for those which were to fight. 20 Nowe when they were al in a hope that the iudgement of the matter was at hand, and the enemies drue nye, the hoast beyng set in aray, the Elephantes and horsemen euery one standyng in his place: 21 Machabeus consydering the comming of the multitude, the ordinaunce of dyuers weapons, the crueltie of the beastes, helde vp his handes towarde heauen, callyng vpon the Lorde that doth wonders, whiche geueth not the victorie after the multitude of weapons and power of the hoaste, but to them that please him, accordyng to his owne wyll. 22 Therefore in his prayer he said these wordes, O Lorde, thou that diddest sende thine angel in the time of Ezechias kyng of Juda, and in the hoast of Sennacherib slewest an hundred fourescore and fyue thousande: 23 Send nowe also thy good angel before vs O Lorde of heauens in the fearfulnesse and dreade of thy mightie arme, 24 That they whiche come against thy holy people to blaspheme them, may be afrayde. And so he made an ende of his wordes.

25 Then Nicanor and they that were with him drue nie, with trumpets and showtynges for ioy: 26 But Judas and his companye, with prayer and callyng vpon God, encountred with the enemies. 27 With their handes they smote, but with their hearties they prayed vnto the Lord, and slue no lesse then thirtie and fyue thousande men: for through the present helpe of God they were gloriously comforted.

28 Now when they left of, and were turning againe with ioy, they vnderstoode that Nicanor hym selfe was slayne with the other for all his armour. 29 Then they gaue a great shout and a crye, prayesyng the almightie Lorde in their owne language.

30 And Judas which was euer redy to spend his body and life for his citizens, commaunded to smyte of Nicanors head, with his arme and hande, and to be brought to Hierusalem.

31 When he came there, he called all the people and the priestes to the aulter, with those that were in the castle, 32 And shewed them Nicanors head, and his wycked hande whiche he had presumptuously holden vp againste the temple of God. 33 He caused the tongue also of that vngodly Nicanor to be cut in litle peeces, and to be cast to the foules, and that cruell mans hand to be hanged vp before the temple. 34 So euery man gaue thankes vnto the Lorde, saying, Blessed be he that hath kept his place vndefiled.

35 As for Nicanors head he hanged it vp vpon the hie castle, for an euident and plaine token of the helpe of God.

36 And so they agreed altogether to kepe that day holy, (namely) the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar, "Febru-arie.

37 Whiche in the Syrians language is called the next day before Mardocheus day. 38 Thus was Nicanor slayne, and from that time foorth the Jewes had the citie in possession: and here will I nowe make an ende.

39 If I haue done well, and as the storie required, it is the thyng that I desired: but if I haue spoken slenderly and barely, I haue done that I coulde. 40 For as it is hurtfull to drynke wine alone, and then agayne water, and as wine tempred with water is pleasant and delyteth the taste: so the setting out of the matter delighteth the eare of them that reade the storie: And here shalbe the ende.

For better vnderstandyng of the contentes of this Table, ye shal note that the Euangelistes S. Matthew and S. Luke haue diuersly recited the generation of our sauioure Christe according to the flesshe, and yet tend both to one end: that is, to proue, that (according to that which is written of him in the prophecies) he is descended of the royall blood of Dauid, and ryghtly succeeded hym in the kyngdome. So the diuersitie of the sayde recitall consisteth in this: that S. Matthewe setteth forth the sayd generation descending from father to sonne, and S. Luke ascendeth from sonne to father, whiche comes all to one ende. But to shewe the agreement of S. Luke with S. Matthewe, we haue here set forth the generation by hym described, descendyng after the order of S. Matthewe, to thende that the one may be conferred with the other. Furthermore, S. Matthewe describeth the generation of Joseph, though it belong nothyng to Jesus Christe after the flesshe, and S. Luke that of the virgin Marie: for it was here necessarie to recite both, forasmuche as women were commonly reputed of the ligne or kinred of theyr husbandes: And so aswell on her husbandes syde, as on her owne of spryng, it is manifest that she was of the royall ligne of Dauid.

* Juda of the ligne of Nathan engendred Simeon called Joas, which came to the royall seate because the posteritie of Solomon fayled in Ochosias: and therefore the kyngdome belonged to Nathans posteritie, according to the ordinaunce of Dauid, as Philo recyteth, that is, the youngest of the children of Bersabe (which was Solomon) shoulde raigne after hym, and that, if the posteritie fayled, the kyngdome shoulde come to the posteritie of the next younger, which was Nathan: and therefore Nathan was called Ahiscar, that is to say, Brother of the prince, and they of his posteritie Ahiscarim, that is to say, Brothers of the prince, and Mathitim, whiche signifieth, gyuen to succeede. The sayde Philo recyteth that the posteritie of the sayde Nathan was so honoured of the kyng Josaphat, that he called his children the brothers of Joram his sonne, and their children the brothers of Ochosias his nephewe: and this is the cause why the scripture sayth that Joas was the sonne of Ochosias, though he were not his naturall sonne, but the sonne of Juda descended from Nathan.

Note that S. Matthewe goyng about to describe the generation by fourteenes, dyd fayle out Joas, Amasias, and Azarias, whiche are set in betweene Ochosias the last of the race of Solomon and Joathan. Further, he hath left out Jehoas, and Joacim, placed betweene Josias and Jechonias. All whiche we haue here set in theyr order, to make the same description more perfect and playne.

thence descended the virgin Marie, as is declared in the generation described by S. Luke, and Ioseph her husband descended frō the sayd Zorobabel by Abiud brother to Resa, as S. Matthewe declareth in the generation by him described.

* Forasmuche as it seemeth that S. Luke maketh no mencion of the generacion of Marie, but rather of Joseph: for he wseth these wordes, that Jesus was counted the sonne of Joseph, whiche was of Heli, that is to say, the sonne of Heli: we must vnderstande that in this place, the name of sonne is taken for the name of sonne in lawe, and that S. Luke meaneth that Joseph was the sonne in lawe to Heli, for that he toke to wyfe the virgin Marie daughter to the sayde Heli, whiche maner of speache is common in the scripture: for we fynde that Noemi calleth Ruth her daughter, whiche was but her stepdaughter, her sonnes wyfe.

¶ The first Chapter.

¶ 1 The genealogie of Christ from Abraham. 18 The mariage of his mother Marie. 20 The angel satisfieth Iosephes mynde. 21 The interpretation of Christes names.

This (b) is the boke of the generatiõ of Jesus Christe, the sonne of Dauid, the sonne of Abrahã.

2 Abraham begat Isahac, Isahac begat Jacob, Jacob begat Judas and his brethren. 3 Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar, Phares begat Estrom, Estrom begat Aram. 4 Aram begat Aminadab, Aminadab begat Naasson, Naasson begat Salmon. 5 Salmon begat Boos of Rachab, Boos begat Obed of Ruth, Obed begat Jesse. 6 Jesse begat Dauid the kyng, Dauid the kyng begat Solomon of her that was (the wyfe) of Vrie. 7 Solomon begat Roboam, Roboam begat Abia, Abia begat Asa. 8 Asa begat Josaphat, Josaphat begat Joram, Joram begat Ozias. 9 Ozias begat Joatham, Joatham begat Achas, Achas begat Ezechias. 10 Ezechias begat Manasses, Manasses begat Amon, Amon begat Josias. 11 Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the tyme they were caryed away to Babylon. 12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel, Salathiel begat Zorobabel.

13 Zorobabel begat Abiud, Abiud begat Eliacim, Eliacim begat Azor. 14 Azor begat Sadoc, Sadoc begat Achim, Achim begat Eliud. 15 Eliud begat Eleazar, Eleazar begat Matthan, Matthan begat Jacob. 16 Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Marie, of whom was borne Jesus, that is called Christ. 17 And so all the generations from Abraham to Dauid, are fourteene generations: and from Dauid vntill the caryng away into Babylon, are fourteene generations: and from the caryng away into Babylon vnto Christ, are fourteene generations. 18 The birth of Jesus Christ was on this wyse. When as his mother Marie was betrothed to Joseph (before they came together) she was founde with chylde of the holy ghost. 19 Then Joseph her husband beyng a righteous man, and not wyllyng to make her a publique example, was minded priuily to put her away.

20 But whyle he thought these thinges, behold the angel of the Lord appeared vnto him in a dreame, saying, Joseph thou sonne of Dauid, feare not to take (vnto thee) Marie thy wife: for that wheth is conceaued in her, is of the holy ghost. 21 Shee shal bring foorth a sonne, and thou shalt call his name Jesus: for he shall saue his people from theyr sinnes. 22 (All this was done that it myght be fulfylled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophete, saying. 23 Beholde a virgin shalbe with chylde, and shall bryng foorth a sonne, and they shall cal his name Emmanuel, which is by interpretation, God with vs.)

24 Then Joseph, beyng rayſed from sleepe, did as the angel of the Lorde had bydden hym, and hoe tooke his wyfe: 25 And (c) knewe her not tyll she had brought foorth her first borne sonne, and called his name Jesus.

The .ii. Chapter.

1 The time and place of Christes birth. 14 Christ fleeth into Egypt.

When Jesus was borne in Bethlehem (a citie) of Jurie, in the dayes of Herode the kyng, behold there came wyse men from the east to Hierusalem, 2 Saying, Where is he that is borne king of the Jewes? For we haue seene his starre in the east, and are come to worshyp hym. 3 When Herode the kyng had heard (these thynges) he was troubled and all (the citie of) Hierusalem with hym.

4 And when he had gathered all the cheefe priestes and Scribes of the people

7 Then Herode when he had priuily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the starre appeared. 8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and sayde, Go, and searche diligently for the young childe: and when ye haue founde hym, bring me worde agayne, that I may come and worship him also. 9 When they had heard the kyng, they departed: and loe, the star which they sawe in the east, went before them, tyll it came and stoode ouer (the place) wherin the young child was. 10 When they sawe the starre, they reioyced exceedingly with great ioy. 11 And went into the house, and Psal.62.d. founde the young childe with Marie Esai.60.b. his mother, and fell downe, and worshipped hym: and opened their treasures, and presented vnto him gyftes, golde, and frankensence, and myrrhe. 12 And after they were warned of God in a dreame that they shoulde not go agayne to Herode, they returned into their owne countrey another way. 13 When they were departed, beholde the angel of the Lorde appeared to Ioseph in a dreame, saying, Aryse, and take the young childe and (a) his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there tyll I bring thee worde: for it will come to passe that Herode shall seeke the young childe to destroy hym. 14 When he arose, he toke the young childe and his mother by nyght, and departed into Egypt, 15 And was there vnto the death of Herode: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lorde by the prophete, saying, Out of Egypt haue I called my sonne. 16 Then Herode, when he sawe that he was mocked of the wyse men, was exceedyng wroth, and sent foorth, and slue all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coastes thereof, as many as were two yere olde & vnder, according to the tyme whiche he had diligently searched out of the wise men. 17 Then was fulfilled that whiche was spoken by Ieremie the prophet, saying, Ierem.31.c. 18 In Rama was there a voyce hearde, lamentation, weepyng, and great mournyng, Rachel weeping (for) her children, and would not be comforted, because they were not.

19 But when Herode was dead, beholde, an angel of the Lorde appeared to Ioseph in a dreame in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise and take the young childe and his mother, and go into the lande of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young childes lyfe. 21 And he rose, and toke the young childe and his mother, and came into the lande of Israel. 22 But when he heard that Archelaus did raigne in Iurie in the roome of his father Herode, he was afrayde to go thyther: notwithstanding, after he was warned of god in a dreame, he turned aside into the parties of Galilee, 23 And went (and) dwelt in a citie whiche is called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophetes, He shalbe called a Nazarite.

The. iii. Chapter.

1 Iohns preaching, office, lyfe and baptisme. 13 Baptizing of Christ in Iordan.

IN those daies came John the Baptist, preaching in the wildernesse of Iurie, 2 And saying, Repent: (a) for the kyngdome of heauen is at hande. 3 For this is he of whom it is spoken by the prophete Esaias, saying, The voyce of one crying in the wildernes, Prepare ye the way of the Lorde, make his pathes straight.

4 This John had his rayment of Camels heere, and a girdle of a skin about his loynes: his meate was locustes and wylde hony. 5 Then went out to him Hierusalem, and al Iurie, and all the region rounde about Iordane, 6 And were baptized of him in Iordane, confessyng their sinnes.

7 But when he sawe many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptisme, he sayde vnto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the anger to come? 8 Bring foorth therefore fruites meete for repentaunce. 9 And be not of such minde that ye would say within your selues, We haue Abraham to (our) father: For I say vnto you, that God is able of these stones to rayse vp children vnto Abraham. 10 Euen now is the axe also put vnto the roote of the trees: Therefore euery tree which bringeth not foorth good fruite, is hewen downe, and cast into the fyre. 11 I baptize you in water vnto repentaunce;

2 Therefore when thou geuest thine almes, thou shalt not make a trumpet to be blowen before thee, as hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streetes, that they myght be esteemed of men: Verily I say vnto you they haue their reward. 3 But when thou doest almes, let not thy left hand knowe what thy right hande doeth,

4 That thyne almes may be in secrete: and thy father whiche seeth in secrete shall rewarde thee openlye.

5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they loue to stand praying in the synagogues and in the corners of the streetes, that they may be seene of men: Verily I say vnto you, they haue their reward. 6 But when thou prayest, enter into thy chamber: and when thou hast shut thy doore, pray to thy father which is in secrete: and thy father which seeth in secrete, shall rewarde thee openly. 7 But when ye pray, babble not much as the heathen do: for they thinke that they shall be heard for their much babblinges sake. 8 Be not ye therefore lyke vnto them: for your father knoweth what thinges ye haue neede of, before ye aske of hym. 9 After this maner therefore pray ye, O our father which art in heauen, halowed be thy name. 10 Let thy kingdome come. Thy wyll be done aswell in earth, as it is in heauen. 11 Geue vs this day our dayly bread. 12 And forgeue vs our debtes, as we forgeue our debters. 13 And leade vs not into temptation, but deliuer vs from euyll. For thyne is the kyngdome, and the power, and the glorie for euer. Amen. 14 For if ye forgeue men their trespalles: your heauenly father shall also forgeue you. 15 But if ye forgeue not men their trespalles: no more shall your father forgeue (you) your trespalles. 16 Moreouer, when ye fast, be not of an heauy countenaunce as hypocrites are: for they disfigure their faces, that they might apeare vnto men to fast: Verily I say vnto you they haue their rewarde.

17 But thou when thou fastest, annoynt thyne head, and washe thy face: 18 That thou appeare not vnto men to fast, but vnto thy father which is in secrete: and thy father whiche seeth in secrete, shall rewarde thee openly. 19 Heaype not vp for your selues treasures vppon earth, where the moth and rust doth corrupt, and where theeues breake through & steale. 20 But lay vp for you treasures in heauē, where neither

But the dayes will come when the bridegrome shalbe taken from them, and then shall they fast. 16 No man putteth a piece of [a] newe cloth in an olde garment: for then the piece taketh away (somethyng) from the garment, and the rent is made worse. 17 Neither do men put newe wine into olde vessels: els the vessels breake, and the wine runneth out, and the vessels perishe: but they put newe wine into newe vessels, and both are preserued together.

AND it came to passe, that when Iesus had made an ende of commaundyng his twelue disciples, he departed thence to teache and to preach in their cities. 2 When Iohn beyng in prison hearde the workes of Christe, he sent two of his disciples, 3 And sayde vnto him, Art thou he that shoulde come? or do we looke for another? 4 Iesus answered and sayde vnto them, Go and shewe Iohn agayne what ye haue heard and seene. 5 The blynde receaue their syght, the hault do walke, the lepers are cleansed, and the deafe heare, the dead are raysed vp, and the poore receaue the Gospell. 6 And happy is he that is not offended in me. 7 And as they departed, Iesus began to say vnto the people concernyng Iohn, What went ye out into the wildernesse for to see? A reede shaken with the wynde? 8 Or what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft rayment? Behold, they that were soft (clothyng) are in kinges houses. 9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophete? yea I say vnto you, & more then a prophete. 10 For this is he of whom it is written, Beholde I sende my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee. 11 Verily I say vnto you, Among them that are borne of women arose not a greater then Iohn the Baptist: notwithstandyng, he that is lesse in the kingdome of heauen, is greater then he. 12 From the dayes of Iohn the Baptist vntill nowe, the kingdome of heauen suffereth violence, & the violent pluche it. 13 For all the prophetes & the law it selfe prophecied vnto Iohn. 14 And if ye wyl receaue it, this is Elias which was for to come. 15 He that hath eares to heare, let him heare. 16 But wherunto shall I liken this gene-

3 Christ excuseth his disciples whiche plucke the eares of corne,

Mar. 2. d.

Deut. 23. d.

AT that tyme Jesus went on the sabbath dayes through the corne:
& his disciples were an hungred, and began to plucke the eares of corne, and to eate. 2 But when the Pharisees sawe (them) they sayd vnto him, Beholde thy disciples do that whiche is not lawfull to do vpon the sabbath day. 3 But he sayd vnto them, Haue ye not read what Dauid did when he was an hungred, and they that were with hym: 4 Howe he entred into the house of god, and did eate the shew bread, which was not lawfull for hym to eate, neither for them whiche were with hym, but only for the priestes?
5 Or haue ye not read in the lawe, howe that on the sabbath dayes the priestes in the temple (a) prophane the sabbath, and are blameles? 6 But I say vnto you, that in this place is
(one) greater then the temple.
7 Wherefore yf ye wist what this meaneth, I wyll mercy, & not sacrifice:
ye would not haue condempned the giltles. 8 For the sonne of man also is Lorde euen of the sabbath daye.
9 And he departed thence, and went into their synagogue. 10 And be-holde there was a man whiche had his hande dryed vp, and they asked hym, saying, Is it lawfull to heale vp-on the sabbath dayes? that they might accuse him. 11 And he said vnto them, What man of you wyll there be that shall haue a sheepe: and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not take holde of it, and lift it out?
12 Howe much more then is a man better then a sheepe? Wherefore it is lawfull to do a good deede on the sabbath dayes. 13 Then saith he to the man, Stretche forth thy hande.
And he stretched it forth: and it was made whole lyke as the other.
14 Then the Pharisees went out, and helde a counsayle agaynst hym, howe they might destroy him. 15 But when Jesus knewe (it,) he departed thence:
and great multitudes followed hym, & he healed them all, 16 And charged them that they shoulde not make him knowen: 17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, 18 Behold my childe whom I haue chosen, my beloued in whom my soule well delighteth: I wyll put my spirite vpon hym, and he shall shew iudgement to the gentiles.
19 He shall not stryue, nor cry, neither shall any man heare his voyce in 25 But when Jesus knewe theyr thoughtes, he said vnto them, Euery kyngdome diuided agaynst it selfe, shalbe brought to naught: and euery citie or house diuided agaynst it selfe, shall not stand. 26 And if Satan cast out Satan, then is he diuided agaynst hymselfe: howe shall then his kyngdome endure? 27 Also if I by Beelzebub cast out deuils, by whom do your children cast them out? The. xiii. Chapter.

3 The parable of the seede. 24 and of the tares.

THe same day went Jesus out of the house, and sate by the sea side. A 2 And great multitudes were ga- Mar.3.a. thered together vnto hym, (insomuche) that he went and sate in a ship, and the whole multitude stoode on the shore.
3 And he spake many thynges to them in parables, saying, Beholde the sower went forth to sowe. 4 And when when he sowed, some seedes fell by the wayes syde: and the fowles came and deuoured them vp. 5 Some fell vpon stony places, where they had not much earth: and anone they sprong vp, because they had no deepenesse of earth.

6 And when the sonne was vp, they caught heate: and because they had not roote, they withered away.

7 Agayne, some fell among thornes: and the thornes sprong vp, and choked them. 8 But some fell into good grounde: and brought foorth fruite, some an hundred fold, some sixtie fold, some thirtie fold. 9 Who hath eares to heare, let hym heare. 10 And the disciples came, and sayde vnto hym, B Why speakest thou to them by parables? 11 He aunswered, and said vnto them, Because it is geuen vnto you to know the secretes of the kingdome of heauen, but to them it is not geuen.

Mar.4.a. Luk.7.b.

12 For whosoeuer hath, to him shalbe geuen, and he shall haue more aboundaunce: but whosoeuer hath not, from him shalbe taken away euen that he hath. 13 Therfore speake I to them in parables: because they seeyng see not, and hearing, they heare not, neither do they vnderstande. 14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecie of Esaias, saying, By hearingye shal heare, and shall not vnderstande, and seeyng ye shall see, and shall not perceaue.

Mat.25.c. Mar.4.c. Luk.8.b.

15 For this peoples heart is waxed grosse, and their eares are dull of hearing, & their eyes haue they closed: lest at any tyme they shoulde see with their eyes, & heare with their eares, and shoulde vnderstande with their heart, and shoulde conuert, that I might heale them. 16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your eares, for they heare. 17 Verily I say vnto you, that many prophetes & righteous men haue desired to see those thinges which ye se, & haue not sene: & to heare those thinges which ye heare, and haue not heard. 18 Heare ye therfore the similitude of the sower. 19 When one heareth the worde of the kyngdome, & vnderstandeth it not, then commeth that euyll, and catcheth away that whiche was sowen in his heart: this is he which receaued seede by the way side. 20 But he that receaued the seede into stony places, the same is he that heareth the worde, and anone with ioy receaueth it: 21 Yet hath he not roote in him selfe, but dureth for a season: for when tribulation or persecution aryseth because of the worde, by and by he is offended. 22 He also that receaued seede into the thornes, is he that heareth the worde, and the care of this worlde, and the deceitfulnes of riches choke vp the worde, and so is he made vnfruitefull.

23 But he that receaued seede into the good grounde, is he that heareth the worde, and vnderstandeth it, which also beareth fruite: and bringeth forth some an hundred fold, some sixtie fold, some thirtie folde. 24 Another parable put he forth vnto them, saying, The kingdome of heauen is likened vnto a man which sowed good seede in his feeld. 25 But while men slept, his enemie came and sowed tares among the wheate, and went his way.

D Mar.4.c.

26 But when the blade was sprong vp, and had brought forth fruite, then appeared the tares also. 27 So the seruauntes of the houholder came, and sayde vnto hym, Sir, diddest not thou sowe good seede in thy feelde? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He sayde vnto them, The malicious man hath done this. The seruauntes sayde vnto hym, Wylt thou then that we go, and gather them vp? 29 But he sayde, Nay: lest whyle ye gather vp the tares, ye roote vp also the wheate with them. 30 Let both growe together vntyll the harueste: and in tyme of harueste I wil say to the reapers, Gather ye together firste the tares, and bynde them in bundels, to burne them: but cary the wheate into my barne. 31 Another parable put he forth vnto them, saying, The kyngdome of heauen is like to a grayne of mustarde seede, which a man tooke and sowed in his feelde: 32 Whiche in deede is the leaste of all seedes: but when it is growen, it is the greatest among herbes, and is a tree, (so) that the birdes of the ayre come, and make their nestes in the braunches thereof.

Mat.4.c. Luk.13.d.

33 Another parable spake he vnto them, (saying,) The kingdome of heauen is like vnto leuen, which a woman taketh and hideth in three peckes of meale, tyll all be leauened.

E Luk.13.d.

34 All these thynges spake Jesus vnto the people in parables: and without a parable spake he not vnto them: 35 That it might be fulfylled whiche was spoken by the prophete, that sayth, I wyll open my mouth in parables, I wyll speake forth

Mar. 4.c. 36 Then Jesus sent the people away, and went into the house: And his disciples came vnto him, saying, Declare vnto vs the parable of the tares of the feelde. 37 He aunswered and sayde vnto them, He that soweth the good seede, is the sonne of man.

38 The feelde, is the worlde. The good seede, they are the chyldren of the kyngdome. The tares, are the chyldren of the wicked. 39 The enemie that soweth thē, is the deuil. The harueste, is the end of the worlde. The reapers, be the angels. 40 Euen as the tares therefore are gathered and brent in the fyre: so shall it be in the ende of this worlde. 41 The sonne of man shal sende foorth his angels, and (they) shall gather out of his kyngdome all thinges that offende, and them which do iniquitie: 42 And shal cast them into a furnelle of fyre: there shalbe waylyng and gnaslyng of teeth.

Apoc. 14.d.

43 Then shall the righteous shine as the sonne in the kyngdome of their father. Who hath eares to heare, let him heare. 44 Agayne, the kyngdome of heauen is lyke vnto treasure hid in the feeld: the which when a man hath founde, hideth, and for ioy therof goeth and selleth al that he hath, and byeth the feelde. 45 Agayne, the kyngdome of heauen is lyke vnto a marchaunt man seekyng goodly pearles.

53 And it came to passe, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence. 54 And when he came into his owne countrey, he taught them in their synagogues (insomuche) that they were astonied, and sayd, Whence commeth this wisdome and powers vnto him? 55 Is not this the carpenters sonne? Is not his mother called Marie? and his brethren, James, and Joses, & Simon, and Judas? 56 And are not all his sisters with vs? whence hath he then al these thinges? 57 And they were offended in him. hartes are farre from me. 9 But in vayne do they worship me, teachyng doctrines, preceptes of men. 10 And he called the people to him, and sayde vnto them, Heare and vnderstande. 11 That which goeth into the mouth, defileth not the man: but that which commeth out of the mouth, defileth the man. 12 Then came his disciples, and sayd vnto him, Knowest thou not that the Pharisees were offended after they heard this saying? 13 But he answered and sayde, All maner planteyng which my heauenly father hath not planted, shalbe rooted vp. 14 Let them alone: they be the blinde leaders of the blynde. If the blynde leade the blynde, both shall fall into the diche.

15 Then aunswered Peter, and sayde vnto him, Declare vnto vs this parable. 16 Jesus sayde, Are ye also without vnderstandyng? 17 Do not ye yet vnderstande that whatsoeuer entreth in at the mouth, goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught? 18 But those thynges which proceede out of the mouth, come foorth from the heart, and they defile the man. 19 For out of the heart proceede euyll thoughtes, murders, adulteries, whordomes, thefte, false witnesse, blasphemies. 20 These are the thynges which defile a man: But to eate with vnwasshen handes, C defileth not a man. 21 And Jesus went thence, and departed into the coastes of Tyre and Sidon. 22 And beholde, a woman of the Chananites, which came out of the same coastes, cryed vnto him, saying, Haue mercie on me O Lorde thou sonne of Dauid, my daughter is greeuously vexed with a deuyll. 23 But he aunswered her not a worde. And his disciples came, and besought him, saying, Sende her away, for she cryeth after vs. Luk. 19.b 24 But he aunswered, and sayde, I am not sent but vnto the lost sheepe of the house of Israel. 25 Then came she, and worshipped him, saying, Lorde, helpe me. 26 He aunswered, and sayde, It is not meete to take the childrens bread, and to cast it to litle dogges. 27 She aunswered, and sayde, Trueth Lorde: and yet litle dogges eate of the crummes which fall from their maisters table.

28 Then Jesus aunswered, and sayde vnto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it vnto thee euen as thou wylt. And her daughter was made whole euen from that same tyme. D 29 And Jesus went from thence, and came nye vnto the sea of Galilee, and went vp into a mountayne, and sate downe there. 30 Then great multitudes came vnto him, hauyng with them those that were lame, blynde, dumbe, maymed, and other many, and cast them downe at Jesus feete, and he healed them: Esai. 35.b 31 Insomuch that the people wondred when they sawe the dumbe speake, the maymed to be whole, the lame to walke, and the blynde to see: and they glorified the Mar. 8.a. God of Israel. 32 Then Jesus called his disciples vnto him, & sayd, I haue compassion on the people, because they continue with me nowe three dayes, and haue nothyng to eate: and I wyll not let them depart fastyng, lest they faynt in the way. 33 And his disciples say vnto him, Whence (shoulde we get) so much bread in the wildernesse, as to suffise so great a multitude? 34 And Jesus sayth vnto them, Mat. 15.b Howe many loaues haue ye? And they say, Seuen, and a fewe litle fishes. 35 And he commaunded the people to sit downe on the grounde. 36 And toke the seuen loaues and the fishes, and after that he had geuen thankes, he brake (them) and gaue to his disciples: and the disciples gaue them to the people. 37 And they did all eate, and were satisfied: and they toke vp of the broken meate that was left, seuen baskets full. 38 And yet they that did eate, were foure thousand men, beside women and children. 39 And he sent away the people, and toke ship, and came into the parties of Magdala.

¶ The. xvi. Chapter.

1 The Pharisees require a token, 6 Jesus warneth his disciples of the Pharisees doctrine.

THe Pharisees also, with the Sadducees, came, and tempting, desired him that he would shewe them a A Mark. 8.b John. 6.d. Luk. 11.d. Luk. 12.g. signe from heauen. 2 He aunswered and sayde vnto them, When it is euenyng, ye say (it wyll be) faire weather: for the sky is red. 3 And in the mornyng (it wyll be) foule weather to day: for the sky is lowryng redde. O ye hypocrites, ye can discerne the outwarde appearaunce of the sky: but can ye not discerne the signes of the tymes?

4 The frowarde and adulterous nation requireth a signe: and there shall Mark. 12.c Mark. 8.b Luk. 11.d. John. 6.d. Jonag. 2.a no signe be geuen vnto it, but the signe of the prophete Jonas. And he left them, and departed. 5 And when his disciples were come to the other side of the water, they had forgotten to B take bread (with them.) 6 Then Jesus Luk. 12.a. sayde vnto them, Take heede and beware of the leuen of the Pharisees and of the Saducees. 7 And they thought in themselues, saying, For we haue take no bread (with vs.) 8 (Which) when Jesus vnderstoode, he sayd vnto them, O ye of litle fayth, why thinke you within your selues, because ye haue brought no bread? 9 Do not ye perceaue, neither remember those fiue loaues, when there were fiue thousand (men,) and howe many baskets toke ye vp? 10 Neither the seuen loaues, Mat. 14.c. when there were foure thousand (men) Mark. 15.d. and and howe many baskets toke ye vp?

11 Howe is it that ye do not vnderstande that I speake it not vnto you concerning bread, that ye shoulde beware of the leuen of the Pharisees & of the Saduces? 12 Then vnderstoode they howe that he bade not them beware of the leuen of bread: but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the C Saduces. 13 When Jesus came into Mark.8.c. Luk.9.c. the coastes of Cesarea (which is called) Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the sonne of man am? 14 They sayde, Some say (that thou art) John Baptist, some Elias, some Jeremias, or one of the prophetes. 15 He saith vnto them, But whom say ye that I am? 16 Simon

Mat.18.c vnto thee the keyes of the kingdome of heauen: and whatsoeuer thou bindest in earth, shalbe bounde in heauen: and whatsoeuer thou lowsest in earth, shalbe loosed in heauen. 20 Then charged he his disciples that they
Mark.8.d Luk.9.c. should tell no man that he was Jesus Christ. 21 From that tyme forth began Jesus to shewe vnto his disciples howe that he must go vnto Hierusalem, and suffer many thinges of the elders and hie priestes and scribes, and (must) be killed, and be raysed agayne the thirde day. 22 And when Peter had taken him aside, he began to rebuke him, saying, Lorde, fauour thy selfe, this shall not be vnto thee.
23 But he turned him about, & sayde vnto Peter, Go after me Satan, thou art an offence vnto me: for thou sauerest not the thinges that (be) of God, but those that (be) of men. 24 Then sayde Jesus vnto his disciples, If any man wyll folowe me, let him forsake
Mark.10.d Luk.9.c. him selfe, and take vp his crosse, and folowe me. 25 For, who so wyll saue his lyfe, shall loose it: agayne, who so doth lose his lyfe for my sake, shall Mar.8.d. John.6.d finde it. 26 For what doth it profite a man yf he wynne all the whole worlde, and lose his owne soule? Or what shall a man geue for a raunsome of his soule? 27 For the sonne of man shall come in the glorie of his father with his angels: and then shall he rewarde euery man accordyng to his workes.
28 Verily I say vnto you, there be Rom.2.b some standyng here, which shall not Mar.8.d. taste of death, tyll they see the sonne Luk.9.c. of man come in his kingdome.

¶ The.xvii. Chapter.

2 The transfiguration of Christe, 15 he healeth the lunaticke.

A And after sixe dayes Jesus taketh A Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them vp into Mark.9.a Luk.9.c. an hie mountayne out of the waye,
2 And was transfigured before them, Apoc.1.d. and his face dyd shine as the sunne, and his clothes were as whyte as the light. 3 And beholde there appeared vnto them Moyses & Elias, talkyng with him. 4 Then answered Peter and sayd vnto Jesus, Lorde, it is good for vs to be here: If thou wylt, let vs make here three tabernacles: one for thee, and one for Moyses, and one for Elias. 5 Whyle he yet spake, behold B a bryght cloude shadowed them: and Mat.3.d. and.12.b. beholde (there came) a voyce out of the Esai.62.a. cloude, which sayde, This is my be- Deut.18.c. loued sonne in whom I am well pleased, heare him. 6 And when the disciples heard (these thinges) they fell on their face, and were sore afrayde.
7 And Jesus came and touched them, and sayde, Aryse, and be not afrayde.
8 And when they had lyft vp their eyes, they sawe no man, saue Jesus Mark.9.a only. 9 And when they came downe from the mountayne, Jesus charged them, saying, Shewe the vision to no man, vntyll the sonne of man be risen agayne from the dead. 10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the Scribes that Elias must first come? 11 Jesus answered and sayd Mala.3.d. vnto them, Elias truely shall first come, and restore all thynges:
12 But I say vnto you that Elias is Mat.11.b. come already, and they knewe him not, but haue done vnto him whatsoeuer they listed: Lykewise shall also the sonne of man suffer of them. 13 Then the disciples vnderstoode that he spake vnto them of John Baptist.
14 And when they were come to the people, there came to him a certayne man kneelyng downe to him, and sayng, 15 Lorde, haue mercie on my sonne, for he is lunaticke, & sore vexed: for oft tymes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water. 16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they coulde not heale him. 17 Jesus answered and sayde, O faithlesse and croked nation, howe long shall I be with you? howe long shall I suffer you? bryng him hyther to me. 18 And Jesus rebuked the deuyll, and he departed out of him: and the childe was healed euen that same tyme. 19 Then came the disciples to Jesus secretly, & sayde, Why coulde not we cast him out? 20 Jesus sayde vnto them, Because of your vnbeleefe: For verily I say vnto you, if ye haue fayth * as a grayne of mustarde seede, ye shall say vnto this mountayne, Remoue hence to yonder place: and it shall remoue, neither shall any thyng be vnpossible vnto you. 21 Howbeit, this kynde * goeth not out but by prayer and fastyng. 22 Whyle they were occupyed in Galilee, Jesus sayde vnto them, It wyll come to passe that the sonne of man shalbe betrayed into the handes of men: 23 And they shall kyll him, and the thirde day shall he rise agayne. And they were exceedyng sory. 24 And when they were come to Capernaum, they that receaued tribute money, came to Peter, and sayde, Doth not your maister paye tribute? 25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus preuented him, saying, What thynkest thou Simon? of whom do the kinges of the earth take tribute or tolle? of the children, or of straungers? 26 Peter saith vnto him, Of straungers. Jesus saith vnto him, Then are the children free. 27 Notwithstandyng, lest we shoulde offende them, go thou to the sea, and cast an angle, and take the fishe that first commeth vp: & when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt fynde a peece of twentie pence: that take, and geue it vnto them for me and thee.

AT the same tyme came the disciples vnto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdome of heauen? 2 Jesus called a litle childe vnto him, and set him in the middes of them, 3 And sayde, Verily I say vnto you, except ye turne, and become as litle children, ye shall not enter into the kingdome of heauen. 4 Whosoeuer therfore shall humble him selfe as this litle childe, the same is the greatest in the kingdome of heauen.

3 Christe geueth aunswere concernyng mariage, 21 and teacheth, not to be careful, 22 nor to loue worldly riches.

AND it came to passe, that when Jesus had finished these sayinges, he gate him from Galilee, and came into the coastes of Jurie beyonde Jordane: 2 And great multitudes folowed him, and he healed them there. 3 The pharisees also came vnto him, temptyng him, and saying vnto him, Is it lawfull for a man to put away his wyfe for euery cause? 4 He aunswered and sayd vnto them, Haue ye not read that he which created at the begynnyng, made them male and female? 5 And sayde, For this cause shal a man leaue father and mother, and shalbe knit to his wyfe: and they twayne shalbe one flesshe. 6 Wherfore they are no more twaine, but one flesshe. Let not man therfore put a sunder, that which God hath coupled together. 7 They say vnto him, Why dyd Moyses then commaunde to geue a writyng of diuorcement, and to put her away? 8 He sayde vnto them, Moyses because of the beardnesse of your heartes suffred you to put away your wiues: but from the beginnyng it was not so. 9 I say vnto you, whosoeuer putteth away his wyfe, except it be for fornication, and marryeth another, committeth adulterie: and who so marryeth her which is diuorced, doth commit adulterie. 10 His disciples say vnto him, If the matter be so betweene man and wife, (then) is it not good to marry. 11 He sayde vnto them, All men can not receaue this saying, saue they to whom it is geuen. 12 For there are some chaste, which are so borne out of their mothers wombe: and there are some chaste, which be made chaste of men: and there be chaste, which haue made them selues chaste for the kingdome of heauens sake. He that is able to receaue(it,)let him receaue(it.) 13 Then were there brought vnto him young children, that he should put his handes on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. 14 But Jesus sayd vnto them, Suffer the young children, and forbyd them not to come vnto me: for of such is the kingdome of heauen. 15 And when he had put his handes on them, he departed thence. 16 And beholde, one came, and sayde vnto him, Good master, what good thyng shall I do, that I may haue eternall lyfe? 17 He sayde vnto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one,

(and that is) God: But yf thou wylt enter into life, kepe the commaundementes. 18 Ye saith vnto him, Which? Jesus sayde, Thou shalt do no murther, Thou shalt not commit adulterie, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witnesse, 19 Honour father and mother: and, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe. 20 The young man saith vnto him, All these (thinges) haue I kept from my youth vp: what lacke I yet? 21 Jesus sayde vnto him, If thou wylt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and geue to the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen: and come and folowe me. 22 But when the young man hearde that saying, he went away sory: for he had great possessions. 23 Then Jesus sayd vnto his disciples, Verely I say vnto you, that a riche (man) shal hardly enter into the kingdome of heauen. 24 And agayne I say vnto you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, then for the riche to enter into the kingdome of God. 25 When the disciples hearde (this) they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saued? 26 But Jesus beheilde (them) and sayd vnto them, With men this is vnpossible, but with God all thynges are possible. 27 Then answered Peter, and sayde vnto him, Beholde, we haue forsaken all, and folowed thee, what shall we haue therfore? 28 Jesus sayde vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, that when the sonne of man shall sit in the throne of his maiestie, ye that haue folowed me in the regeneration, shall sit also vpon xweine seates, and iudge the xweine tribes of Israel. 29 And euery one that forsaketh house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wyfe, or children, or landes, for my names sake, shall receaue an hundred folde, and shall inherite euerlastyng lyfe. 30 But many that are first, shalbe last, and the last (shalbe) first.

1 Christe teacheth by a similitude that God is better vnto no man, 20 He teacheth his disciples to be lowly, 30 and geueth two blynde men their sight.

FOr the kingdome of heauen is like vnto a man that is an housholder, which went out early in the morowyng to hire labourers into his vineyarde. 2 And he agreed with the labourers for a peny a day, & sent them into his vineyarde. 3 And he went out about the thirde houre, and sawe other standyng idle in the market place, 4 And sayde vnto them, Go ye also into the vineyarde, and what soeuer is right, I wyll geue you. And they went their way. 5 Agayne, he went out about the sixth and ninth houre, and did likewise. 6 And about the eleuenth houre he went out, and founde other standyng idle, and sayde vnto them, Why stande ye here all the day idle? 7 They say vnto him, Because no man hath hired vs. He saith vnto them, Go ye also into the vineyarde: and what soeuer is right, that shal ye receaue. 8 So when euen was come, the lorde of the vineyarde saith vnto his steward, Call the labourers, and geue them their hire, begynnyng at the last, vntyll the first. 9 And when they came that (were hired) about the eleuenth houre, they receaued euery man a peny. 10 But when the first came also, they supposed that they shoulde haue receaued more: and they likewise receaued euery man a peny. 11 And when they had receaued it, they murmured agaynst the good man of the house, 12 Saying, These last haue wrought but one houre, and thou hast made them equall vnto vs, which haue borne the burthen & heate of the day. 13 But he answered to one of them, and sayde, Frende, I do thee no wrong: diddest thou not agree with me for a peny? 14 Take that thine is, & go thy way: I wyll geue vnto this last euen as vnto thee. 15 Is it not lawfull for me to do that I wyll with myne owne? Is thyne eye euyl, because I am good? 16 So the last shalbe first, and the first (shalbe) last: for many be called, but fewe (be) chosen. 17 And Jesus goyng vp to Hierusalem, toke the twelue disciples aside in the way, and sayde vnto them, 18 Beholde, we go vp to Hierusalem, and the sonne of man shalbe betrayed vnto the cheefe priestes, and vnto the scribes, and they shall condempne him to death: 19 And shall deliuer him to the gentiles to be mocked, and to be scourged, and to be crucified: and the third day he shal rise againe. 20 Then came to him the mother of Zebedees children with her sonnes, worshippyng (him) and desiryng a certayne thyng of him. 21 And he saith vnto her, What wylt thou? She saith vnto him, Graunt that these my two sonnes may sit, the one on thy ryght hande, and that came after, cryed, ſaying, Hoſanna to the ſonne of Dauid: bleſſed is he that commeth in the name of the Lorde: Hoſanna in the hyeſt.

10 And when he was come into Hieruſalem, all the citie was moued, ſaying, Who is this? 11 And the multitude ſayde, This is Jeſus that pro-phete of Nazareth (a citie) in Galilee.

of God, and caſt out all them that ſolde and bought in the temple, and them, It is written, My houſe ſhalbe called the houſe of prayer: but ye haue made it a den of theeues. 14 And the blinde and the halt came to him in the temple: and he healed them. 15 When the cheefe prieſtes and ſcribes ſawe the wonders that he dyd, and the children crying in the temple, and ſaying,

Jeſus ſaith vnto them, Yea: haue ye went out of the citie vnto Bethanie:

and he lodged there. 18 In the morhungred. 19 And when he ſawe one figge tree in the way, he came to it, and

The maryage in deede is prepared: but

3 Christe cryeth wo to the Pharisees, Scribes and hypocrites, 37 and prophesieth the destruction of Hierusalē.

A Deut.17.b. Then spake Jesus to the multitudes and to his disciples,
2 Saying, The Scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moyses seate:
3 All therefore whatsoeuer they byd you obserue, that obserue and do: but do not ye after their workes, for they say, and do not. 4 Yea, they bynde together heauy burdens, and greeuous to be borne, and lay them on mens shoulders: but they them selues wyll not moue them with (one) of their fingers. 5 All their workes they do for to be seene of men: they make brode their phylacteries, and enlarge the hemmes of their garmentes.
6 And loue the vppermost seates at Mat.23.a. feastes, and to sitte in the chiefe place in counsels: 7 And greetinges in the Jacob.2.a. markets, & to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi. 8 But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your maister (euen) Christe, and all ye are brethen. 9 And call no man your father vppon the earth: for one is your father, which is in heauen. 10 Neither be ye called Luke.14.e. maisters: for one is your maister (euē) Christ. 11 He that is greatest among you, shalbe your seruaunt. 12 But whosoeuer exalteth hym selfe, shalbe brought lowe: and he that humbleth him selfe, shalbe exalted. 13 Wo vnto Luke.11.g. you Scribes and Pharisees hypocrites, for ye shut vp the kyngdome of heauen before men: ye neither go in your selues, neither suffer ye them that come to enter in. 14 Wo vnto C you Scribes and Pharisees hypocrites, for ye deuoure wydowes houses, and that vnder a pretence of long prayer: therefore ye shall receaue the greater dampnation. 15 Wo vnto you Scribes and Pharisees hypocrites, for ye compasse sea and lande, to make one (a) proselyte: and when he is become one, ye make him two folde more the childe of hell then ye your selues (are.) 16 Wo be vnto you ye blynde guides, for ye say, Whosoeuer doth swcare by the temple, it is nothyng: but whosoeuer sweareth by the golde of the temple, he is a (b) debter.
17 Ye fooles and blynde, for whether is greater, the golde, or the temple that sanctifieth the golde? 18 And, Whosoeuer sweareth by the aulter, it is nothyng: but whosoeuer sweareth by the gyft that is vpon it, he is a debter. 19 Ye fooles and blynde, for whether is greater, the gift, or the aulter that sanctifieth the gyft? 20 Who so therefore sweareth by the aulter, sweareth by it, and by al thinges theron. 21 And who so sweareth by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein. 22 And he that sweareth by heauen, sweareth by the seate of God, and by him that sitteth thereon. 23 Wo vnto you Scribes and Pharisees hypocrites, for ye tithe mynt, and annise, and cummin: & haue left the waygthier matters of the law, iudgement, mercie, and fayth: These ought ye to haue done, & not to leaue the other vndone. 24 Ye blinde guides, whiche strayne out a gnat, and swalowe a Camel. 25 Wo vnto you Scribes and Pharisees hypocrites, for ye make cleane the vtter side of the cup and of the platter: but within (they) are full of bryberie and excesse.
26 Thou blynde Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be cleane also. 27 Wo vnto you Luke.11.f. Scribes and Pharisees hypocrites, for ye are lyke vnto painted sepulchres, which in deede appeare beautiful outward: but are within full of dead (mens) bones, and of all filthynesse.
28 Euen so, ye also outwardly appeare righteous vnto men: but within ye are full of hypocrisie and iniquitie. 29 Wo vnto you Scribes and Pharisees hypocrites, for ye build the tombes of the prophetes, and garnishe the sepulchres of the righteous:
30 And say, If we had ben in the dayes of our fathers, we woulde not haue ben parteners with them in the 1.Thes.2.c. blood of the prophetes. 31 And so ye be witnesses vnto your selues, that ye are the children of them whiche killed the prophetes. 32 Fulfill ye likewise the measure of your fathers. 33 Ye serpentes, ye generation of vipers, how wyl ye escape the dampnation of hell? 34 Wherefore beholde I sende Mat.10.b. vnto you prophetes, & wyse men, and Luke.11.g. Scribes, and some of them ye shal kil John.16.a. and crucifie: and some of them shal ye Actes.5.c. scourge in your synagogues, & persecute them from citie to citie: 35 That vpon you may come all the righteous blood which hath ben shed vppon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel,

A The ten virgins, 14 the talentes deliuered to the seruauntes, 32 and of the generall iudgement.

THen shall the kyngdome of heauen be likened vnto ten virgins, whiche toke their lampes, & went to meete the bridegrome. 2 But fiue of them were foolishe, and fiue were wyse. 3 They that were foolishe, toke their lampes, but toke none oyle with them: 4 But the wyse toke oyle in their vesselles with their lampes also. 5 Whyle the bydegrome tarryed, they all slumbred and slept. 6 And euen at mydnyght there was a crye made, Beholde the bydegrome commeth, go out to meete him. 7 Then all those virgins arose, and prepared their lampes. 8 So the foolishe saide vnto the wyse, Gene vs of your oyle: for our lampes are gone out. 9 But the wyse aunswered, saying, (Not so) lest there be not inough for vs & you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and bye for your selues. 10 And whyle

B they went to bye, the bridegrome came: and they that were redy, went in with him to the marriage, & the gate was shut vp. 11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs. 12 But he aunswered and Mat.7.c. saide, Verily I say vnto you, I knowe Mar.24.d. you not. 13 Watch therefore, for ye Mar.13.d. knowe neither the day nor yet the Luke.12.e. houre wherein the sonne of man shall Mark.13.d come. 14 Lykewyse as (when) a (certayne) man redy to take his iourney into a straunge countrey, called his owne Luke.19.b. seruauntes, and deliuered vnto them his goodes. 15 And vnto one he gaue fiue talentes, to another two, and to another one: to euery man after his habilitie, and straightway departed.

16 Then he that had receaued the fiue talentes, went and occupied with the same, and made (them) other fiue talentes. 17 And lykewyse he that receaued two, he also gayned other two.

C 18 But he that receaued one, went & digged in the earth, and hyd his lordes money. 19 After a long season the Lorde of those seruauntes commeth, and reckeneth with them 20 And so he that had receaued fiue talentes, came and brought other fiue talentes, saying, Lorde, thou deliueredst vnto me fiue talentes, beholde, I haue gayned with them fiue talentes mo.

21 His Lorde sayde vnto hym, Well (done) thou good and faythfull seruaunt, thou hast ben faithfull ouer fewe thinges, I wyll make thee ruler ouer many thinges: enter thou thou into the ioy of thy Lorde.

22 He also that had receaued two talentes, came and sayde, Lorde thou deliueredst vnto me two talentes: beholde, I haue wonne two other talentes with them. 23 His Lord said vnto him, Well (done) good and faithfull seruaunt, thou hast ben faithfull ouer fewe thinges, I wyll make thee ruler ouer many thinges: enter thou into the ioy of thy Lorde. 24 Then he which had receaued the one talent, came and sayde, Lorde I knewe thee that thou art an hard man, reapyng where thou hast not sowen, and gatherynge where thou hast not strowed:
E 25 And therefore was I afrayde, and went and hyd thy talent in the earth: loe, there thou hast that thyne is.
26 His Lorde aunswered, and sayde vnto hym, Thou euyll and slothfull seruaunt, thou knewest that I reape where I sowed not, and gather where I haue not strowed: 27 Thou oughtest therefore to haue deliuered my money to the exchaungers, and then at my commyng shoulde I haue receaued myne owne with vauntage.
28 Take therefore the talent from him, and geue it vnto him which hath ten talentes. 29 (For vnto euery one that hath shalbe geuen, and he shall haue aboundaunce: but he that hath not, from him shalbe take away: euen that which he hath.) 30 And cast the vnprofitable seruaunt into vtter darknesse: ther shalbe weeping & gnashing of teeth. 31 When the sonne of man shall come in his glorye, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sitte vpon the throne of his glorye. 32 And before him shalbe gathered all nations, and he shall separate them one
F from another, as a shepheardе diuideth his sheepe from the goates.
33 And he shall set the sheepe on his right hande, but the goates on the left. 34 Then shall the king say vnto them (which shalbe) on his right hande, Come ye blessed of my father, inherite the kingdome prepared for you from the foundatiō of the world.
35 For I was an hungred, and ye gaue me meate: I was thirstie, and ye gaue me drynke: I was harbourles, and ye toke me in: 36 Naked, and ye clothed me: sicke, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came vnto me. 37 Then shal the righteous aunswere him, saying, Lorde, when sawe we thee an hungred, and fedde thee? or thirstie, and gaue thee drinke? 38 When sawe we thee harbourles, and toke thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? 39 Or when sawe we thee sicke, or in prison, & came vnto thee?
40 And the king shall aunswere and say vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, inasmuch as ye haue done it vnto one of the least of these my brethren, ye haue done (it) vnto me. 41 Then shall he say vnto them (whiche shalbe) on the left hande, Depart from me ye cursed into euerlasting fyre, which is prepared for the deuill & his angels.
42 For I was an hungred, & ye gaue me no meate: I was thirstie, and ye gaue me no drynke: 43 I was harbourlesse, and ye toke me not in: I was naked, and ye clothed me not: I was sicke and in prison, and ye visited me not. 44 Then shall they also aunswere him, saying, Lorde, when sawe we thee an hungred, or a thirste, or harbourlesse, or naked, or sicke, or in prison, & dyd not minister vnto thee?
45 Then shal he aunswere them, saying, Verily I say vnto you, inasmuch as ye dyd it not to one of the leaste of these, ye dyd it not to me. 46 And these shall go into euerlasting payne: but the righteous into lyfe eternall.

We haue in this deſcription conferred the vſe and maner of the celebratiō of Eaſter that the Jewes held, with that which we vſe to recken and begin at, and alſo to name the dayes of the weeke, and haue added thereto certayne dayes of the moneth of Marche in the yere that Jeſus Chriſte ſuffered, to declare the vnderſtandyng of the ſaid difficultie. Wherin there is to be noted, that the Lord Ieſus celebrated not the Paſſouer the ſame day that the Jewes dyd: but that he which came not to breake the lawe, but to fulfill the lawe in euery poynt, ate the lamme with his diſciples at the time ordayned by the lawe. Exod. 12. which is the fourteenth day of the firſt moneth (that is to ſay Marche) in the after noone, on the which began the ſaide feaſt: whiche fell this yere on the fryday, the euen of the Sabbath or day of reſt. On the whiche day he whiche was the true lamme was offered, to the ende that the truth might agree with the figure: but the Jewes celebrated the ſaide Paſſouer the day folowyng at euen after ſunne ſet, Jeſus Chriſte being in the graue: for that by tradition of their predeceſſors, the ſaide feaſt whiche fell on the fryday accordyng to the lawe, was deferred to the next day, which was the day of their weekly Sabbath, becauſe they wolde not kepe two feaſtes together: for this feaſt day they called the great Sabbath. John. 19. and alſo becauſe (as enemies of the truth) they would ſeeke al meanes poſſible to kepe him from being knowen for the Meſſias.

				The diſciples prepare the lamme which Ieſus Chriſt ate with them after euen the ſame day, on which euē began the feaſt.	Ieſus hauing eaten the lamme with his diſciples, inſtituteth the ſacrament of the ſupper: is kiſſed by Iudas: is crucified, dead, and buryed.	Ieſus Chriſt reſteth in the graue all this day.	The women carry oyntmēts very early in the mornyng to the graue.

Here is alſo to be noted, that where the eatyng of the lamme, the inſtitution of the ſacrament, with the reſidue before mentioned, is referred to Thurſday and Fryday: If ye recken accordyng to the Jewes accompt, who begyn their Fryday night on Thurſday after ſunne ſet, & continueth that night & day vntil the next day after ſunne ſet, ye ſhall finde that Chriſt dyd eate the Paſcall lamme, inſtituted the ſacrament of his body and blood, was kiſſed by Iudas, and was crucified, dead and buryed on Fryday. But if ye recken after our vſe, then Chriſte dyd eate the paſcall lamme, inſtituted the ſacrament of his body and blood, and was kiſſed of Judas on Thurſday, but was crucified, dead, and buryed on Fryday.

6 And the chiefe priestes toke the syluer (peeces) and sayde, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasurie: because it is the price of blood.

7 And

7 And they toke counsell, and bought with them a potters feelde, to burie straungers in. 8 Wherefore that feeld is called, The feeld of blood, vntil this day. 9 (Then was fulfilled that whiche was spoken by Jeremie the prophete, saying. And they toke thirtie siluer (peeces,) the price of him that was valued, whom they bought of the chyldren of Israel: 10 And gaue them for the potters feelde, as the Lorde appointed me.) 11 Jesus stood before the deputie, and the deputie asked hym, saying, Art thou the king of the Jewes? Jesus sayth vnto hym, Thou sayest. 12 And when he was accused of the cheefe priestes and elders, he aunswered nothing. 13 Then sayth Pilate vnto him, Hearest thou not how many witnesses they lay agaynst thee? 14 And he aunswered hym to neuer a worde: insomuch that the deputie maruayled greatly. 15 At that feast the deputie was wont to deliuer vnto the people a prisoner whom they would. 16 He had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. 17 Therfore when they were gathered together, Pilate sayde vnto them, Whether will ye that I geue loose vnto you Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ? 18 For he knewe that for enuie they had delyuered hym. 19 When he was set downe to gene iudgement, his wife sent vnto him, saying, Haue thou nothyng (to do) with that iust man: For I haue suffered many thynges this day in a dreame because of hym. 20 But the cheefe priestes and elders perswaded the people that they shoulde aske Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The deputie aunswered and sayde vnto them, Whether of the twayne will ye that I let loose vnto you? They sayde, Barabbas. 22 Pilate sayd vnto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christe? They all sayde vnto hym, Let him be crucified. 23 The deputie sayd, What euyll hath he done? But they cryed the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 When Pilate sawe that he coulde preuayle nothyng, but that more busines was made, he tooke water, and washed his handes before the people, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this iust person: see ye to it. 25 Then aunswered all the people and sayde, His blood be on vs, and on our chyldren. 26 Then let he Barabbas loose vnto them, and scourged Jesus, and deliuered hym to be crucified. 27 Then the souldiers of the deputie toke Jesus in the common hall, and gathered vnto him all the bande (of souldiers,) 28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe: 29 And platted a crowne of thornes, and put vpon his head, and a reede in his right hande: and bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hayle kyng of the Jewes. 30 And when they had spit vpon him, they toke the reede, and smote hym on the head. 31 And after that they had mocked hym, they tooke the robe of hym agayne, and put his owne rayment on hym: and led hym away to crucifie hym. 32 And as they came out, they founde a man of Cyrene, named Simon: hym they compelled to beare his crosse. 33 And they came vnto the place whiche is called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of (dead mens) skulles, 34 And gaue hym vineger to drynke myngled with gall: and when he had tasted therof, he woulde not drynke. 35 When they had crucified hym, they parted his garmentes, and dyd cast lottes: that it myght be fulfilled whiche was spoken by the prophete, They parted my garmentes among them, and vpon my vesture dyd they cast lottes. 36 And they sate, and watched hym there. 37 And set vp ouer his head the cause (of his death) written, This is Jesus, the king of the Jewes. 38 Then were there two theeues crucified with him: one on the right hande, and another on the left. 39 They that passed by reuyled hym, waggyng their heades, 40 And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buyldest it in three dayes, saue thy selfe: If thou be the sonne of God, come downe from the crosse. 41 Lykewise also the hye priestes mockyng hym, with the scribes, and elders, (and pharisees) sayde, 42 He saued other, hym selfe can he not saue: If he be the kyng of Israel, let hym nowe come downe from the crosse, and we wyll beleue hym. 43 He trusted in God, let him deliuer hym nowe, if he wyll haue hym: for he sayde, I am the sonne of God. 44 The theeues also which were crucified with him, caste the same in his teeth. 45 From the fyft houre was there darknesse ouer all the lande, vnto the nynth houre. 46 And about the nynth houre Jesus cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani, that is to say, Mar.xv.c. Psal.22.a. Mar.xv.d. Luk.23.f. 51 And beholde the vayle of the temple dyd rent in two partes, from the toppe to the bottome, and the earth dyd quake, and the stones rent, 52 And graues dyd open, and many bodyes of saintes which slept, arose: 53 And went out of the graues after his resurrection, and came into the holy citie, and appeared vnto many.

(a) a captaine of one hundred men. 54 When the (a) Centurion, and they that were with him watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those thinges that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truely this was the sonne of Mar.xv.d. Luk.23.g. God. 55 And many women were there beholding him a farre of, which folowed Jesus from Galilee, ministryng vnto hym: 56 Among which was Marie Magdalene, and Marie the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedees chyldren.

57 When the euen was come, there came a riche man from (the citie of) Arimathea, named Joseph, which also him selfe was Jesus disciple. 58 He went to Pilate, and begged the bodye of Jesus: then Pilate commaunded the body to be deliuered. 59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a cleane lynnen cloth: 60 And layde it in his newe tombe whiche he had hewen out in the rocke: and rolled a great stone to the dooze of the sepulchre, and departed.

Mar.xv.d. 61 And there was Marie Magdalene, and the other Marie, sittyng ouer against the sepulchre. 62 The next day that folowed the day of preparing, the hye priestes and pharisees came together vnto Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that this deceauer sayde whyle he was yet alyue, After three dayes I wyll ryse agayne.

Mat.xvi.c. Mar.9.a. Luk.18.f. 64 Commaunde therfore that the sepulchre be made sure vntyll the thirde day: lest his disciples come by nyght, and steale hym away, and say vnto the people, He is risen from the dead: and the last errour shalbe worse then the first. 65 Pilate sayde vnto them, Ye haue the watche, go your waye, make it as sure as ye know. 66 So they went, & made the sepulchre sure with the watch, and sealed the stone.

The.xxviii. Chapter.

6 The resurrection of Christ. 12 The hye priestes geue the souldiers money to say that Christ was stollen out of his graue.

A Mar.xv.a. Luk.24.a. Johñ.xx.a. IN the latter ende of the Sabbath day, which dawneth the first (day) of the weeke, came Marie Magdalen and the other Marie to see the sepulchre. 2 And behold there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heauen, and came and rolled backe the stone from the dooze, and sate vpon it. 3 His countenaunce was like lyghtnyng, and his rayment whyte as snowe. 4 And for feare of him the keepers were astonied, and became as dead men. 5 The angel answered and sayde vnto the women, Feare ye not: for I knowe that ye seeke Jesus whiche was crucified. Mar.16.b. Luk.24.a.

6 He is not here, he is risen as he sayde: come, see the place where that the Lord was laide: 7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen againe from the dead: And behold he goeth before you into Galilee, there shall ye see hym: loe, I haue told you. 8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with feare and great ioy, and did runne to bryng his disciples worde. 9 And as they went to tel his disciples, behold Jesus met them, saying, Al hayle. And they came, and helde hym by the feete, and worshypped hym. 10 Then sayde Jesus vnto them, Be not afrayde: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shal they see me. 11 When they were gone, beholde some of the watch came into the citie, and shewed vnto the hye priestes all the thynges that were done. 12 And they gathered them together with the elders, and tooke counsel, and gaue large money vnto the souldiers, 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by nyght, and stole hym away whyle we slept. 14 And yf this come to the deputies (eares) we wyll persuade hym, and saue you harmelesse. 15 So they tooke the money, and did as they were taught. And this saying is noysed among the Jewes vntyll this day. B Mar.16.b. Luk.24.b. C

The Goſpell by Saint Marke.

The firſt Chapter.

2 The preaching of Iohn Baptiſt, 9 The baptiſme of Chriſte, 13 His faſtyng and preachyng.

THe begynnyng of the goſpel of Jeſu Chriſt the ſon of god. 2 As it hath ben written in the prophetes, Beholde, I ſende my meſſenger before thy face, which ſhall prepare thy waye before thee. 3 A voyce of hym that cryeth in the wilderneſſe, Prepare ye the way of the lord, & make his pathes ſtrayght. 4 Iohn did baptize in the wildernes, and preached the baptiſme of repentaunce for the remiſſion of ſinnes. 5 And all the lande of Iurie, and they of Hieruſalem, went out vnto him, and were all baptized of hym in the ryuer of Jordane, confeſſyng their ſinnes. 6 Iohn was clothed with Camels heere, and with a gyrdle of a ſkynne about his loynes: and he dyd eate locuſtes and wylde hony.
7 And preached, ſaying, There that is ſtronger then I, commeth after me, whoſe ſhoe latchet I am not worthy to ſtowpe downe and vnlooſe. 8 I haue baptized you with water: but he ſhall baptize you with the holy ghoſt.
9 And it came to paſſe in thoſe daies, that Jeſus came from Nazareth (a citie) of Galilee, and was baptized of Iohn in Jordane. 10 And aſſoone as he was come vp out of the water, he ſawe heauen open, and the ſpirite deſcendyng vpon hym lyke a doue.
11 And there came a voyce from heauen, Thou art my deare ſonne, in whō I am well pleaſed. 12 And immediatly the ſpirite draweth him into wildernes. 13 And he was there in the wyldernes .xl. dayes, and was tempted of Satan, and was with wylde beaſtes, & the angels miniſtred vnto hym.

14 After that Iohn was deliuered (to priſon) Jeſus came into Galilee, preaching the goſpell of the kyngdome of god, 15 And ſaying, The time is come, & the kingdome of god is at hande: repent, and beleue the goſpel. 16 As he walked by the ſea of Galilee, he ſawe Simon, and Andrewe his brother, caſting nets into the ſea: (for they were fiſhers.) 17 And Jeſus ſaid vnto thē, Folowe me, and I will make you become fiſhers of men. 18 And ſtraightway they forſoke their nets, and folowed him. 19 And when he had gone a litle further thence, he ſaw James (the ſonne) of Zebedee, and John his brother, which alſo were in the ſhip mending their nettes. 20 And anone he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ſhip with the hired ſeruauntes, and folowed hym. 21 And they came into Capernaum, & ſtraightway on the ſabbath daies he entred into the ſynagogue and taught. 22 And they were aſtonyed at his learnyng: for he taught them as one that had auctoritie, and not as the Scribes.
23 And there was in their ſynagogue a man vexed with an vncleane ſpirite: and he cryed, 24 Saying, Alas, what haue we (to do) with thee thou Jeſus of Nazareth? Art thou come to deſtroy vs? I knowe thee what thou art (euen) that holy one of God. 25 And Jeſus rebuked hym, ſaying, Holde thy peace, and come out of hym. 26 And when the vncleane ſpirite had torne hym, and cryed with a loude voyce, he came out of him. 27 And they were all amaſed, inſomuch that they demaunded one of another among them ſelues, ſaying, What thyng is this? What newe doctrine is this? For with auctoritie

6 But there were certayne of the Scribes sitting there, & reasoning in their heartes, 7 Why doth he thus speake blasphemies? Who can forgeue sinnes, but God only? 8 And immediatly when Jesus perceaued in his spirite that they so reasoned within them selues, he sayth vnto them, Why reason ye such thynges in your heartes? 9 Whether is it easier to say to the sicke of the paulsie, Thy sinnes be forgeuen thee: or to say, Aryse take vp thy bed, and walke? 10 But that ye may knowe that the sonne of man hath power in earth to forgeue sinnes, (He spake vnto the sicke of the paulsie) 11 I say vnto thee, Aryse, & take vp thy bed, and get thee hence into thyne house. 12 And immediatly he arose, tooke vp the bed, and went forth before them all, insomuche that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We neuer sawe it on this fashion. 13 And he went agayne vnto the sea: & all the people resorted vnto him, & he taught them. 14 And as Jesus passed by he sawe Leui (the sonne) of Alphee sitting at the receipt of custome, and said vnto him, Folowe me. the countrey. 11 But there was there Luk.8.d.
nye vnto the mountaynes a great heard of swyne feedyng. 12 And all the deuils besought him, saying, Send vs into the swyne, that we may enter into them. 13 And anone Jesus gaue them leaue. And the vncleane spirites went out, and entred into the swyne: and the heard ran headlong into the sea, (they were about two thousand,) & were drowned in the sea. 14 And the swineheardes fled, & tolde it in the citie, and in the countrey. And they went out for to see what was done: 15 And came to Jesus, and saw hym that was vexed with the feende and had the legion, sit, both clothed, and in his right mynde: & they were afrayde. 16 And they that sawe (it,) tolde them how it came to passe to hym that was possessed with the deuyll, and also of the swyne. 17 And they began to praye Luk.8.e. him that he would depart out of theyr coastes. 18 And when he was come Mat.8.d. into the ship, he that had ben possessed with the deuyll, prayed hym that he myght be with hym. 19 Howbe it, Jesus wolde not suffer hym: but said

vnto hym, Go home to thy freendes, and shewe them howe great thynges the Lorde hath done for thee, (& how) he had compassion on thee. 20 And he departed, and began to publishe in the ten cities howe great thynges
Jesus had done for hym: and all men
C hyd marvayle. 21 And when Jesus was come ouer agayne by shippe vnto the other (side,) muche people gathered vnto hym, and he was nye vnto the Mat.9.e. sea. 22 And beholde there came one Luk.8.f. of the rulers of the synagogue, whose name was Jairus: and when he sawe hym, he fell downe at his feete, 23 And besought hym greatly, saying, My young daughter lieth at point of death, (I pray thee) come and laye thy hande on her, that she may be safe, and liue. 24 And (Jesus) went with him, and much people folowed hym, Mat.9.e. and thronged hym. 25 And there Luk.8.f. was a certaine woman whiche had ben diseased of an issue of blood twelue yeres, 26 And had suffered many thynges of many physitions, and had spent al that she had, and felt none amendement at all, but rather the worse. 27 When she had hearde of Jesus, she came in the preasse behynde hym, and touched his garment.
28 For she sayd, If I may but touche his clothes, I shalbe whole. 29 And straightway the fountayne of her blood was dried vp: and she felt in her body that she was healed of the plague. 30 And Jesus immediatly knowing in him selfe that vertue proceeded from him, turned him about in the preasse, and sayd, Who touched my clothes? 31 And his disciples sayde vnto him, Thou seest the people thrust thee, and askest thou, Who dyd touche me? 32 And he looked rounde about for to se her that had done this thing.
33 But the woman fearyng and trembling, knowing what was done within her, came, and fell downe before hym, and tolde him all the trueth.
34 And he sayde vnto her, Daughter, D thy fayth hath saued thee: go in peace, Luk.4.g. and be whole of thy plague. 35 While he yet spake, there came from the ru- Mat.9.c, ler of the synagogues (house) certayne, Luk.8.b, whiche sayde, Thy daughter is dead, why diseasest thou the maister any further? 36 Assoone as Jesus heard the worde that was spoken, he sayde vnto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afrayde, only beleue. 37 And he suffered no man to folowe hym, saue Peter and James, and John the brother of James. 38 And he came to the Mat.9.c, house of the ruler of the synagogue, Luk.8.g.
and sawe the tumult, and them that wept and wayled greatly. 39 And went in, and sayde vnto them, Why make ye this a do and weepe? the damsell is not dead, but sleepeth.
40 And they laught hym to scorne:
but he put them all out, and taketh the father and the mother of the dam-sell, and them that were with hym, and entreth in where the damsell lay, 41 And taketh the damsell by the hande, and saith vnto her, Talitha cumi, which is, yf one do interprete it, dam-sell (I say vnto thee) aryse. 42 And straightway the damsell arose, and walked: for she was of the age of twelue yeres: And they were astonyed out of measure. 43 And he charged them straightly that no man shoulde knowe of it: and commaunded to geue her meate.

The .vi. Chapter.

4 Of Christes doynges and estimation in his owne countrey.

AND he departed thence, and came A into his owne countrey, and his Mat.13.g. disciples folowed hym. 2 And Luk.4.c.
when the sabbath day was come, he began to teache in the synagogue: and many that heard hym were astonyed, and sayde, From whence hath he these thynges? And what wisdome is this that is geuen vnto hym, and such mightie workes that are wrought by his handes? 3 Is not this the Mat.13.g. carpenter Maries sonne, the brother of James and Joses, and of Juda and Simon? and are not his sisters here Mat.13.g.
with vs? And they were offended at Luk.4.d.
hym. 4 Jesus sayde vnto them, John.4.f.
A prophete is not without honour, but in his owne countrey, and among his owne kinne, and in his owne house. 5 And he coulde there shewe no

no mightie worke: but layde his handes vpon a fewe sicke folke, and healed (them.) 6 And he maruepled because of theyr vnbeliefe: and he went about by the townes that lay on euery side, teaching. 7 And he called the twelue, and began to sende them foorth two and two, and gaue them power agaynst vncleane spirites.

8 And commaunded them that they shoulde take nothing in their iourney, saue a staffe(a) only: no scrippe, no bread, no money in theyr purse:

9 But shoulde be shoed with sandales: and that they should not put on two coates. 10 And he sayde vnto them, Whersoeuer ye enter into an house, there abyde tyll ye depart thence. 11 And whosoeuer shall not receaue you, nor heare you, when ye depart thence, shake of the dust that is vnder your feete, for a witnes agaynst them: I say verely vnto you, it shalbe easier for the Sodomites and the Gomorrehans in the day of iudgement, then for that citie. 12 And they went out and preached that (men) should repent. 13 And they cast out many deuyls, and annoynted many that were sicke with oyle, and healed (them.)

14 And kyng Herode hearde (of hym), (for his name was spread abrode:) and he sayd, John Baptist is rysen agayne from the dead, and therefore myghtie workes do shewe foorth them selues in hym. 15 Other sayde, It is Elias. Some said, It is a prophet, or as one of the prophetes. 16 But when Herode hearde of hym, he sayde, It is John whom I beheaded: he is rysen from death agayne. 17 For Herode hym selfe had sent foorth * and layde handes vpon John, and bounde hym in prysson for Herodias sake his brother Philippes wyfe, because he had maryed her. 18 For John sayde vnto Herode, It is not lawfull for thee to haue thy brothers wyfe.

19 Therefore Herodias layde wayte for hym, and would haue killed hym, but she coulde not. 20 For Herode feared John, knowyng that he was a iust man and an holy, and gaue hym reuerence: and when he hearde hym, he dyd many thynges, and heard hym gladly. 21 And when a conuenient day was come, that Herode on his byrth day made a supper to the lordes, hye captaynes, and cheefe estates of Galelee: 22 And when the daughter of the same Herodias came in, and daunced, and pleased Herode, and them that sate at boorde also, the kyng sayde vnto the damsell, Aske of me what thou wylt, and I wyll geue it thee. 23 And he sware vnto her, What soeuer thou shalt aske of me I wyll geue it thee, euen vnto the one halfe of my kyngdome.

24 And she went foorth, and sayd vnto her mother, What shal I aske? She saide, John Baptistes head. 25 And she came in straightway with haste vnto the kyng, and asked, saying, I wyll that thou gene me by and by in a charger the head of John Baptist. 26 And the kyng was sory, (howe be it) for his othes sake, and for theyr sakes which sate at supper also, he wouldе not cast her of. 27 And immediatly the kyng sent the hangman, and commaunded his head to be brought in: and he went and beheaded him in the prysson: 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gaue it to the damsell, and the damsell gaue it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples hearde (of it) they came and tooke vp his body, and layde it in a tombe. 30 And the Apostles gathered them selues together vnto Jesus, and tolde hym all thinges, both what they had done, and what they had taught. 31 And he sayde vnto them, Come alone out of the way into the wildernesse, and rest a whyle. For there were many commers and goers: and they had no leasure so much as to eate. 32 And he went by ship out of the way into a desart place. 33 And the people spyed them when they departed, and many knewe hym: and ranne a foote thither out of all cities, and came thyther before them, & came together vnto hym.

34 And Jesus went out & saw muche people, and had compassion on them: because they were lyke sheepe not hauing a shepheard: and he began to teache them many thynges. 35 And when the day was nowe farre spent, his disciples came vnto hym, saying, This is a desart place, and nowe the tyme is farre passed: 36 Let them depart, that they may go into the countrey rounde about, and into the townes, and bye them bread: for they haue nothyng to eate. 37 He answered and sayde vnto them, Geue ye them to eate. And they sayde vnto hym, (Shall we) go and bye two hundreth penyworth of bread, and geue them to eate? 38 He sayde vn-

41 And when he had taken the fiue loaues and the two fisshes, and looked vp to heauen, he blessed, and brake the loaues, and gaue them to his disciples to set before them: & the two fisshes diuided he among them all. 42 And they all dyd eate, and were satisfied.

The .vii. Chapter.

2 The Pharisees finde fault at the disciples eating of meate with vnwasshen handes. 32 The healing of the deafe and dumbe.

A Mat. 15.a. AND the Pharisees came together vnto him, & certaine of the scribes whiche came from Hierusalem. 2 And when they saw some of his disciples eate bread with common (that is to say, with vnwashen) handes, they founde fault. 3 For the Pharisees & all the Iewes, except they washe their handes oft, eate not, obseruing the traditions of the elders. 4 And (when they come) from the market, except they washe, they eate not. And many other thynges there be, which they haue taken vpon them to obserue, (as) the washyng of cuppes, and pottes, & brasen vessels, & of tables. 5 Then asked him the Pharisees and Scribes, Why walke not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eate bread with vnwashen handes? 6 He aunswered & sayd vnto them, Surely Esaias hath prophesied wel of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoreth me with their lippes, but their heart is far from me. Esai. 29.b. Mat. 15.a. 7 Howbeit, in vaine they do worship me, teaching doctrines, the commaundements of men. 8 For ye lay the commaundement of god aparte, & obserue the tradition of men, as the washing of pottes and cuppes: and many other such like thynges ye do. 9 And he sayd vnto them, Well, ye cast aside the commaundement of God, to mayntaine your owne tradition. 10 For Moyses sayde, Honour thy father and mother: and who so curseth father or mother, let hym dye the death. Exod. 21.B Deut. 5.b. Exod. 20.a. Exod. 21.b. Leuit. 20.b. Deut. 27.c. 11 But ye say, If a man shall say to father or mother Corban (that is, by the gyft) that (is offered) of me, thou shalt be holped. 12 And so ye suffer hym no more to do ought for his father or his mother: 13 And make the worde of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye haue ordeyned: and many such like thynges do ye. 14 And when he had called all the people vnto hym, he sayde vnto them, Heathen vnto me euery one of you, and vnderstande. C 15 There is nothyng without a man that can can defile him, when it entreth into him: but the thinges which proceede out of a man, thoſe are they that defile a man. 16 If any man haue eares to heare, let him heare.

C 17 And when he came into the houſe away from the people, his diſciples aſked hym of the ſimilitude. 18 And, he ſayde vnto them, Are ye alſo ſo without vnderſtanding? Do ye not yet perceaue, that whatſoeuer thyng from without entreth into a man, it can not defile hym? 19 Becauſe it entreth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meates. 20 And he ſaid, That which cõmeth out of a man, defileth the man. 21 For from within, euen out of the heart of men, proceede euyl thoughtes, adulteries, fornications, murther, 22 Theftes, couetouſnes, wickednes, deceipt, wantonnes, a wicked eye, blaſphemie, pride, foolyſhneſſe. 23 All theſe euil thinges come from within, and defile a man.

Mat.15.b. 24 And from thence he roſe, & went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon: and entred into an houſe, and would that no man ſhould haue knowen, but he could not be hid. 25 For a certaine woman, whoſe young daughter had an vncleane ſpirite, aſſoone as ſhe hearde of hym, came, and fell at his feete: 26 (The woman was a Greke, out of the nation of Syrophenifſa:) and ſhe beſought hym that he would caſt out the deuil from her daughter. 27 But Jeſus ſayde vnto her, Let the chyldren firſt be fed: for it is not meete to take the childrens breade, and to caſt it vnto litle dogges. 28 She anſwered and 33 And when he had taken him aſide from the people, he put his fingers into his eares, and did ſpit, and touched his tongue. 34 And loked vp to heauen, and ſyghed, & ſaid vnto him, Ephphatha, that is to ſay, Be opened.

The .viii. Chapter.

2 The miracle of the ſeuen loaues.
34 Howe we ſhould folowe Chriſte.

IN thoſe dayes when there was a A very great company, and had no- Mat.15.b thing to eate, Jeſus called his diſciples to hym, and ſayde vnto them, 2 I haue compaſſion on the people, becauſe they haue nowe ben with me three dayes, & haue nothyng to eate: 3 And if I ſende them away faſting to Eſai. 9.a their owne houſes, they ſhall faynt by Tob.13.b the way: for diuers of them came from far. 4 And his diſciples aunſwered hym, From whence can a man ſatiſfie theſe men with bread here in the wyldernes? 5 And he aſked them, How many loaues haue ye? They ſayd, Seuen. 6 And he commaunded the people to ſit downe on the grounde: and he toke the ſeuen loaues, and when he had geuen thankes, he brake, and gaue to his diſciples to ſet before them: and they did ſet them before the people. 7 And they had a fewe ſmall fiſhes: and when he had bleſſed, he commaunded them alſo to be ſet before them. 8 So they did eate, and were ſuffiſed: and they tooke vp of the broken meate that was left, ſeuen baskets full. 9 And they that had eaten, were about foure thouſande: And he ſent them away. 10 And anone he entred into a ſhippe with his diſciples, B and came into the parties of Dalmanutha. 11 And the Phariſees came Mat.16.a. forth, & began to diſpute with hym, Luk.11.d. ſeekyng of hym a ſigne from heauen, John.6.d. tempting him. 12 And when he had (a) It is in ſighed deepely in his ſpirite, he ſayth, the Greke Why doth this generation ſeeke a text, of a ſigne? ther had they in the shippe with them more then one loafe. 15 And he charged them, saying, Take heede, beware of the leuen of the Pharisees, & of the leuen of Herode. 16 And they reasoned among them selues, saying, We haue no bread. 17 And Iesus knewe (it) and saith vnto them, Why reason ye because ye haue no bread? Perceaue ye not yet, neither vnderstande? Haue ye your heart yet hardened? 18 Haue ye eyes and see not? and haue ye eares and heare not? Do ye not remember?

19 When I brake fiue loaues among fiue thousande (men,) howe many baskets full of broken meate toke ye vp? They say vnto him, Twelue. 20 When I brake seuen among foure thousand, how many basketes of the leauinges of the broken meate toke ye vp? They said, Seuen. 21 And he said vnto them, Howe happeneth it that ye do not vnderstande?

22 And he came to Bethsaida: and they brought a blynde man vnto him, & desired him to touch him.

23 And he caught (the blynde by the hande, & led him out of the towne: and when he had spit in his eyes, and put his handes vpon him, he asked hym if he saw ought. 24 And he loked vp, and sayde, I see men: for I perceaue them walke as (they were) trees.

25 After that he put his handes agayne vpon his eyes, and made hym see: and he was restored, and sawe euery man clearly. 26 And he sent hym home to his house, saying, Neither go into the towne, nor tell it to any in the towne.

27 And Iesus went out and his disciples into the townes that long to Ceasarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying vnto them, Whom do men say that I am? 28 And they answered, (Some say that thou art) Iohn Baptist, and some saye Elias: agayne, some (say) that thou art one of the prophetes. 29 And he sayde vnto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answereth and saith vnto him, Thou art very Christ. 30 And he charged them that they shoulde tell no man of hym. 31 And he began to teache them how that the sonne of man must suffer many thynges, and be reproued of the elders, and of the hye priestes, & scribes, and be killed, and after three dayes ryse agayne. 32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter toke him aside, and began to rebuke hym.

33 But he turned about, & looked on his disciples, & rebuked Peter, saying, Go after me Satan: for thou sauerest not the things that (be) of god, but the things that be of men. 34 And when he had called the people vnto him with his disciples also, he sayde vnto them, Whosoeuer will folowe me, let hym forsake him selfe, & take vp his crosse, and folow me. 35 For whosoeuer wil saue his lyfe, shal lose it: but whosoeuer shall lose his lyfe for my sake & the gospels, the same shall saue it. 36 For what shall it profite a man, if he winne al the worlde, and lose his owne soule? 37 Or what shall a man geue for a raunsome of his soule?

38 Whosoeuer therefore shalbe ashamed of me and of my wordes in this adulterous & sinful generation, of him also shall the sonne of man be ashamed, when he commeth in the glorie of his father with the holy angels.

The .ix. Chapter.

2 The transfiguration of Christ. 49 Of seasoning with salt.

AND he sayde vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, there be some of them that stande here, which shall not taste of death, till they haue seene the kingdome of God come with power. 2 And after sixe dayes Iesus taketh Peter and James and John, and leadeth them vp into a hye mountaine out of the way alone: & he was transfigured before them. 3 And his raiments did shine, (and became) very white euen as snowe: so white as no fuller can make vpon the earth. 4 And there appeared vnto them Elias with Moyses: and they talked with Iesus.

5 And Peter answered, and sayth to Iesus, Master, here is good being for vs: let vs make also three tabernacles, one for thee, & one for Moyses, and one for Elias. 6 For he wist not what he sayde: for they were afrayde.

7 And there was a cloude that shadowed them: and a voyce came out of the cloude, saying, This is my beloued sonne: heare hym. 8 And sodenly when they had looked rounde about, they sawe no man, more then Iesus only with them. 9 And as they came downe from the hyll, he charged them that they shoulde tell no man those thynges that they had seene, tyll the sonne of man were ryssen from the dead agayne. 10 And they kept that saying with them, and demaunded one of another, what the rysyng from the dead

Bring him vnto me. 20 And they brought hym vnto hym: and when he sawe hym, straightway the spirite tare hym, and he fel downe on the grounde, wallowyng and fo-ming. 21 And he asketh his father, How long is it ago sence this came vnto hym? And he sayde, Of a chylde. 22 And oft tymes it hath caste hym into the fyre, and into the water, to destroye hym: but yf thou canst do any thing, haue mercy on vs, & helpe vs. 23 Jesus sayde vnto hym, This thing if thou canst beleue, all thynges are possible to hym that beleueth. 24 And straightway the father of the childe cryed with teares, saying, Lorde I beleue, helpe thou myne vnbeliefe. 25 When Jesus sawe that the people came runnyng together, he rebuked the foule spirite, saying vnto hym, Thou dumbe and deafe spirite, I charge thee come out of hym, & enter no more into hym. 26 And (the spirite) when he had cryed and rent hym sore, came out of hym: and he was as one that had ben dead, insomuche that many sayde, he is dead. 27 But Jesus caught hym by the hande, and lift hym vp: and he arose. 28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked hym secretly, Why coulde not we cast hym out? 29 And he sayd vnto them, This kynde* can come foorth by nothyng, but by prayer and fasting. 30 And they departed thence, and tooke theyr iourney through Galilee: and he woulde not that any man shoulde knowe (it.) 31 For he taught his disciples, and sayde vnto them, The sonne of man shalbe deliuered into the handes of men, and they shall kyll hym, and after that he is kylled, he shall ryse agayne the thyrde daye. 32 But they vnderstoode not that saying, and were afrayde to aske hym.

33 And he came to Capernaum: and when he was come into the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among your selues by the way? 34 And they helde theyr peace: For by the waye they had reasoned among them selues who (should be) the chefest. 35 And when he was set downe, he called the twelue, and sayde vnto them, If any man desire to be firste, the same shalbe last of all, and seruaunt vnto all. 36 And he tooke a young chylde, and set hym in the myddst of them: and when he had taken hym in his armes, he sayde vnto them, 37 Whosoeuer receaueth any suche a young chylde in my name, receaueth me: and whosoeuer receaueth me, receaueth not me, but hym that sent me. 38 John aunswered him, saying, Maister, we sawe one caste out deuyls in thy name, and he followeth not vs: and we forbad hym, because he followeth vs not. 39 But Jesus sayde, Forbid him not: for there is no man which yf he do a miracle in my name, can lyghtly speake euyll of me. 40 For he that is not agaynst vs, is on our part. 41 Whosoeuer shall in my name geue you a cuppe of colde water to drynke, because ye belong to Christe: verely I say vnto you, he shall not lose his rewarde. 42 And whosoeuer shall offende one of these litle ones that beleue in me, it were better for hym yf a mylstone were hanged about his necke, and he were cast into the sea. 43 And yf thy hande offende thee, cut it of: It is better for thee to enter into life maymed, then hauyng two handes to go into hell, into fyre that neuer shalbe quenched: 44 Where their worme dyeth not, and the fyre goeth not out. 45 And yf thy foote offende thee, cut

The .x. Chapter.

2 Of diuorcement. 17 A riche man questioneth howe he shoulde inherite eternall lyfe.

AND when he rose from thence, he went into the coastes of Iurie, thyough (the region that is) beyond Iordane: and the people resorted vnto hym a freshe, and as he was wont, he taught them agayne. 2 And the Pharisees came, and asked hym, Is it lawfull for a man to put away his wyfe? tempting him. 3 And he aunswered, and sayde vnto them, What dyd Moyses commaunde you to do? 4 And they sayd, Moyses suffered to write a booke of diuorcement, and to put her away. 5 And Iesus aunswered, and sayde vnto them, For the hardenesse of your heart, he wrote this precept vnto you. 6 But from the beginning of the creation, God made them male and female. 7 (And sayde) For this cause shall a man leaue his father and mother, and byde by his wyfe: 8 And they twayne shalbe one flesche: so then are they no more twayne, but one flesche. 9 Therefore what God hath coupled together, let not man separate. 10 And in the house his disciples asked hym agayne of the same matter. 11 And he sayth vnto them, Whosoeuer putteth away his wyfe, and marryeth another, committeth adultrie agaynst her. 12 And yf a woman put away her husbande, and be marryed to another, she committeth adultrie.

13 And they brought young children to him that he shoulde touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. 14 But when Iesus sawe it, he was sore displeased, and sayde vnto them, Suffer the young children to come vnto me, and forbid them not: for of suche is the kyngdome of God. 15 Verily I say vnto you, whosoeuer doth not receaue the kingdome of God as a young chylde, he shall not enter therein.
16 And when he had taken them vp in his armes, he put his handes vpon them, and blessed them. 17 And when he was gone foorth into the waye, there came one runnyng, and kneeled to him, and asked hym, Good master, what shall I do that I may inherite eternal life? 18 Iesus said vnto him, Why callest thou me good? There is no man good but one, (whiche is) God.
Mat. 19.d. Luk.18.b. C

19 Thou knowest the commaundementes, Thou shalt not commit adulterie, Thou shalt not kyll, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witnesse, Thou shalt defraud (no man,) Honour thy father and thy mother.
20 He aunswered, and sayde vnto hym, Maister, all these haue I obserued from my youth. 21 Iesus beheld hym, and loued hym, and sayde vnto hym, One thyng thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoeuer thou haste, and geue to the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, folowe me, and take vp the crosse.
Mat.19.b. Luk.18.d.

22 But he was discomforted because of that saying, and went away mourning: for he had great possessions.
23 And when Iesus had loked round about, he sayde vnto his disciples, Howe hardly shall they that haue ryches, enter into the kyngdome of God? 24 And the disciples were astonyed at his wordes. But Iesus aunswered agayne, and sayth vnto them, Chyldren, howe harde is it for them that trust in ryches, to enter into the kyngdome of God? 25 It is easier for a camell to go thyough the eye of a needle, then for the ryche to enter into the kyngdome of God.

28 And Peter began to say vnto hym, Loe, we haue forsaken all, and haue folowed thee. 29 Iesus aunswered and sayde, Verily I say vnto you, there is no man that hath forsaken house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wyfe, or chyldren, or landes,

9 But take ye heede to your selues: for they shall deliuer you vp to counsayles, and to synagogues, and ye shalbe beaten, yea and shalbe brought before rulers and kynges for my sake, (that this might be) for a witnesse agaynst them. 10 And the Gospell must first be published among all nations. 11 But when they leade you, and present you, be not carefull afore-hande, neither take thought what ye shall speake: but whatsoeuer is geuen you in the same houre, that speake ye: for it is not ye that speake, but the holy ghost. 12 The brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the sonne: and the children shall rise agaynst their fathers and mothers, and shall put them to death. 13 And ye shalbe hated of all men for my names sake: but who so endureth vnto the ende, the same shalbe safe. 15 And let him that is on the house toppe, not go downe into the house, neither enter therein to fetche any thyng out of his house. 16 And let him that is in the feelde, not turne backe agayne vnto the thynges which he left behynde him, for to take his garment with him. 17 Wo (shalbe) then to them that are with chylde, and to them that geue sucke in those dayes. 18 But pray ye that your flight be not in the wynter:

19 For there shalbe in those dayes (such) tribulation as was not from the begynnyng of creatures which God created, vnto this tyme, neither shalbe. 20 And except that the Lorde shoulde shorten those dayes, no flesche shoulde be saued: but for the electes sake whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened those dayes.

21 And then, if any man say to you, lo here is Christe, lo he is there: beleue not. 22 For false christes and false prophetes shall rise, and shall shewe signes and wonders to deceaue, yf it were possible, euen the elect. 23 But take ye heede: beholde I haue shewed you all thynges before. A Mat. 26.a Luk. 22.a

After two dayes was (the feast of) the Passouer, and of vnleauened bread: and the hye priestes and the scribes sought howe they myght take him by craft, and put him to death. 2 But they sayde, Not in the feast day, lest any busines arise among the people. 3 And when he was at Bethanie in the house of Simon the leper, euen as he sate at meate, there came a woman hauyng an alabaster bore of very precious oyntment (called) Narde pistike: and she brake the bore, and powred it on his head. 4 And there were some that had indignation within them selues, and sayde, What needed this waste of oyntment? 5 For (it) myght haue ben solde for more then three hundred pence, and haue ben geuen to the poore. And they grudged agaynst her. 6 And Jesus sayde, Let her alone, why trouble ye her? She hath done a good worke on me. 7 For ye haue poore with you alwayes, and whensoeuer ye wyl, ye may do them good: but me haue ye not alwayes. 8 She hath done that she coulde: she came aforehand to annoynt my body to the burying. 9 Verily I say vnto you, wheresoeuer this Gospell shalbe preached throughout the whole worlde, this also that she hath done, shalbe rehearsed in remembraunce of her. 10 And Judas Iscariot one of the twelue, went away vnto the hye priestes, to betray him vnto them. 11 When they heard (that) they were glad, and promised that they would geue him money. And he sought howe he myght conueniently betray him. 12 And the first day of vnleauened bread, when they dyd sacrifice the Passouer, his disciples sayde vnto him, Where wylt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eate the Passouer?

And another (sayde,) Is it I? 20 He answered and sayde vnto them, It is one of the twelue, euen he that dippeth with me in the platter*. 21 The sonne of man truely goeth as it is written of him: but wo to that man by whom the sonne of man is betrayed: Good were it for that man yf he had neuer ben borne. 22 And as they dyd eate, Jesus take bread: and when he had blessed, he brake (it) and gaue to them, and sayde, Take, eate: this is my body.

And they that were crucified with him, checked him also. 33 And when the sixth houre was come, darknesse arose ouer all the earth vntyll the nynth houre. 34 And at the nynth houre Jesus cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is yf one interprete it, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? 35 And some of them that stoode by when they hearde that, sayd, Beholde, he calleth for Elias. 36 And one ranne, and fylled a sponge full of vineger, and put it on a reede, and gaue him to drynke, saying, Let him alone, let vs see whether Elias will come and take him downe. 37 But Jesus cryed with a loude voyce, and gaue vp the ghost. 38 And the vayle of the temple did rent in two peeces, from the top to the bottome. 39 And when the Centurion which stoode before him sawe that he so cryed and gaue vp the ghost, he sayde, Truely this man was the sonne of God. 40 There were also women a good way of beholding him: among whom was Marie Magdalen, and Marie the mother of James the litle, and of Joses, and Salome. 41 Which also when he was in Galilee, had folowed him, and ministred vnto him: & many other women which came vp with him vnto Hierusalem. 42 And nowe when the euen was come, (because it was the day of prepayring, that goeth before the sabbath) 43 And Joseph (of the citie) of Arimathea, a noble counsellour, which also loked for the kingdome of God, came, and went in boldely vnto Pilate, and begged of him the body of Jesus. 44 And Pilate marueyled that he was alredy dead: and called vnto him the Centurion, and asked of him whether he had ben any whyle dead. 45 And when he knewe (the trueth) of the Centurion, he gaue the body to Joseph. 46 And he bought a lynnen cloth, and tooke him downe, and wrapped him in the lynnen cloth, and layde him in a sepulchre that was hewen out of the rocke, and roulled a stone vnto the doore of the sepulchre. 47 And Marie Magdalene, and Marie * Joses beheld where he was layde.

¶ The Gospell by Saint Luke.

¶ The first Chapter.

1 The Preface of Luke. 5 Of Zacharias and Elizabeth. 40 Marie visiteth Elizabeth.

FOrasmuch as manye haue taken in hand to set forth in order the declaration of those thynges whiche are moste surely to be beleued among vs, 2 Euen as they deliuered them vnto vs which from the begynnyng sawe them them selues with their eyes, and were ministers of the (a) worde: 3 I determined also also one as I had (searched out) diligently all thynges from the begynnyng, that then I wonlde write vnto thee, most excellent Theophilus: 4 That thou mightest knowe the certaintie of those thynges whereof thou hast ben informed.

5 There was in the dayes of Herode the kyng of Iurie a certayne priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia, and his wyfe (was) of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. 6 They were both ryghteous before God, and walked in all the lawes and ordinances of the Lorde, that no man coulde finde fault with them. 7 And they had no child, because that Elizabeth was baren: and they both were nowe wel stricken in age. 8 And it came to passe, that when Zacharie executed the priestes office before God as his course came, Exod. 30.b Hebr. 9.b 9 Accordyng to the custome of the priestes office his (lot) was to burne incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. 10 And the whole multitude of the people were without in prayer while the incense was burning. 11 And there appeared vnto him an angell of the Lorde, standyng on the ryght syde of the aulter of incense. 12 And when Zacharias sawe (him) he was troubled, and feare came vpon him. 13 But the angell sayde vnto him, Feare not Zacharie, for thy prayer is hearde: and thy wyfe Elizabeth shall beare thee a sonne, and thou shalt call his name John. 14 And thou shalt haue ioy and gladnesse, and many shall reioyce at his birth. 15 For he shalbe great in the sight of the Lorde, and shall neither dryncke wine nor strong dryncke: and he shalbe fylled with the holy ghost, euen from his mothers woombe: 16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turne to their Lorde God. 17 And he shall go before him with the spirite and power of Elias, to turne the heartes of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdome of the iust men: to make redy a perfect people for the Lorde. Mat. 11.b 18 And Zacharias said vnto the angel, By what (token) shall I knowe this? for I am olde, and my wyfe well stricken in yeres. 19 And the angell aunswered & sayd vnto him, I am Gabriel that stand in the presence of god, and am sent to speake vnto thee, and to shewe thee these glad tydynges. Gen. 17.c and. 18.b.

20 And beholde thou shalt be dumbe, and not be able to speake vntyll the day that these thinges be perfourmed: because thou beleuedst not my wordes, which shalbe fulfylled in their season. 21 And the people wayted for Zacharias, and marueyled that he tarryed so long in the temple. 22 And when he came out, he coulde not speake vnto them: and they perceaued that he had seene a vision in the temple. For he beckened vnto them: and remayned speacheles. 23 And it came to passe, that assoone as the dayes of his office were out, he departed into his owne house.

24 And after those dayes his wyfe Elizabeth conceaued: and hid her selfe fiue monethes, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lorde dealt with me in the dayes wherin he loked (on me) to take from me my rebuke (b) among men.

26 And in the sixth moneth the angel Gabriel was sent from God vnto a citie of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin spouled to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of Dauid: and the virgins name (was) Marie. 28 And the angell went in vnto her, and sayde, Hayle (thou that art) freely beloued, the Lorde (is) with thee, blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she sawe him, she was troubled at his saying: and cast in her mynde what maner of salutation that shoulde be. 30 And the angell sayde vnto her, Feare not Marie: for thou hast founde grace with God. 31 For beholde thou shalt conceaue in thy wombe, and beare a sonne: and shalt call his name Jesus. 32 He shalbe great, and shalbe called the sonne of the hyest, and the Lorde God shall geue vnto him the seate of his father Dauid: 33 And he shall raigne ouer the house of Jacob for euer, and of his kingdome there shalbe none ende.

34 Then sayd Marie vnto the angell, Howe shall this be, seyng I knowe not a man? 35 And the angell answerd and sayde vnto her, The holy ghost shall come vpon thee, and the power of the highest shall ouershadow (c) thee. Therfore also (that) holy thyng which shalbe borne, shalbe called the sonne of God. 36 And beholde thy cosin Elizabeth, she hath also conceaued a sonne in her olde age: and this is her sixth moneth, which was called barren: 37 For with God shall nothyng be impossible. 38 And Marie sayd, Beholde the handmayden of the Lorde, be it vnto me accordyng to thy worde. And the angell departed from her. 39 And Marie arose in those dayes, and went into the hyl (countrey) with haste, into a citie of Juda,

NOwe in the fifteenth yere of the raigne of Tiberius Ceasar, Pontius Pilate beyng lieftenaunt of Jurie,

A Luke.23.a.

Iurie, and Herode beyng tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and of the region of the Trachonites, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene, 2 When Annas & Caiaphas were the hye (a)priestes, the worde of the Lorde came vnto John the sonne of Zacharias in the wyldernesse. 3 And he came into all the coastes about Iordane, preachyng the baptisme of repentaunce for the remission of sinnes: 4 As it is written in the booke of the wordes of Esaias the prophete, saying, The voyce of a cryer in wyldernesse, Prepare ye the way of the Lorde, make his pathes strayght. 5 Euery valley shalbe filled, and euery mountayne and hyl shalbe brought lowe: and thinges that be croked, shalbe made (b)straight, and the rough wayes (shalbe) made playne. 6 And all flesche shall see the saluation of God. 7 Then sayde he to the people that were come forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath forwarned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bryng forth therfore due frutes of repentaunce: and begin not to say within your selues, we haue Abraham to our father: For I say vnto you, that God is able of these stones to rayse vp children vnto Abraham.

9 Nowe also is the (c) axe layde vnto the roote of the trees: euery tree therefore whiche bringeth not forth good fruite, is hewen downe, and cast into the fire. 10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then? 11 He aunswereth and sayth vnto them, He that hath two (d) coates, let him part with him that hath none: & he that hath meate, let him do lykewyse. 12 Then came publicanes (e) also to be baptized, & sayde vnto him, Master, what shal we do? 13 And he sayde vnto them, Require no more then that whiche is appointed vnto you. 14 The souldiers lykewyse demaunded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he sayde vnto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely, and be content with your wages. 15 As the people wayted, and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were very Christe: 16 John aunswered & saide vnto them all, In deede I baptize you with water: but one stronger then I commeth, whose shoes latchet I am not worthy to vnlose, he shal baptize you with the holy ghost, & with fire. 17 Whose hath his fanne in his hande, and will purge his floore, and will gather the wheate into his barne: but the chaffe will he burne vp with fire that neuer shalbe quenched. 18 And many other thinges in his exhortation preached he vnto the people. 19 Then Herode the tetrarch when he was rebuked of him for Herodias his brother Philips wyfe, & for all the euyls which Herode dyd, 20 Added this aboue all, and shut vp John in prysom.

21 Nowe it came to passe, as al the people were baptized, & when Iesus was baptized, & did pray, that the heauen was opened. 22 And the holy ghost came downe in a bodyly shape lyke a Doue vpon him: and a voyce came from heauen, which saide, Thou art my beloued sonne, in thee I am well pleased. 23 And Iesus him selfe began to be about thirtie yeres of age, beyng (as he was supposed) the sonne of Ioseph: whiche was (the sonne) of Heli, 24 Which was the sonne Matthat, which was the sonne of Leui, which was the sonne of Melchi, whiche was the sonne of Janna, whiche was the sonne of Joseph, 25 Which was the sonne of Matthathias, whiche was the sonne of Amos, whiche was the sonne of Naum, whiche was the sonne of Hesly, whiche was the sonne of Magge, 26 Which was the sonne of Maath, which was the sonne of Matthathias, which was the sonne of Semei, which was the sonne of Joseph, which was the sonne of Juda, IEsus beyng full of the holy ghost, returned from Jordane, & was led by the (same) spirite into wyldernesse, 2 And was fourtie dayes tempted of the deuill, & in those dayes dyd he eate nothyng: and when they were ended, he afterward hungred.

3 And the deuyll sayde vnto him, If thou be the sonne of God, commaund this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, that man shall not lyue by bread onlye, but by euery woyde of God. 5 And the deuyll toke him into an hye mountayne, and shewed him all the kingdomes of the woylde in a moment of tyme. 6 And the deuyll sayd vnto him, All this (a) power will I geue thee euery whit, & the glory of them: for that is deliuered vnto me, and to whomsoeuer I will, I geue (b) it. 7 If thou therefore wylt worship me, they shalbe all thyne. 8 Jesus answered & sayde vnto him, Hence from me Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy god, & him only shalt thou serue. 9 And he caryed him to Hierusalem, & set him on a pinacle of the temple, & sayd vnto him, If thou be the sonne of God, cast thy selfe downe from hence.

10 For it is written, that he shal gene his angels charge ouer thee, to keepe thee. 11 And in their handes they shal beare thee vp, that thou dashe not thy foote at any time against a stone.

12 And Jesus answered & said vnto him, It is saide, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. 13 And assoone as all the temptation was ended, the deuyll departed from him for a season.

14 And Jesus returned by the power of the spirite, into Galilee: and there went a fame of him throughout al the region round about. 15 And he taught in their synagogues, & was commended of al men. 16 And he came to Nazareth where he was nursed: and as his custome was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, & stoode vp for to reade. 17 And there was deliuered vnto him the booke of the prophete Esaias: and when he had opened the booke, he founde the place where it was written, 18 The spirite of the Lord vpon me, because he hath annointed me, to preache the gospel to the poore he hath sent me, to heale the broken hearted, to preach deliueraūce to the captiue, & recouering of sight to the blinde, freely to set at liberte thē that are bruised: 19 And to preache the acceptable yere of the Lorde.

20 And he closed the booke, & gaue it againe to the minister, & sate downe: and the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

sought him, saying. Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane. 13 And he stretched foorth his hand, and touched him, saying. I will: be thou cleane. And immediatly the leprose departed from him. 14 And he charged him that he shoulde tell no man: but, Go, (sayth he) and shewe thy selfe to the priest, and offer for thy clensing, accordyng as Moyses commaunded, for a witnes vnto them. 15 But so muche the more went there a fame abrode of him, and much people came together to heare, and to be healed of him from their infirmities. 16 And he kept him selfe a part in the wylderne, and prayed. 17 And it came to passe on a certayne day as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees & doctours of the lawe sitting by, whiche were come out of all the townes of Galilee and Iurie, and Hierusalem: and the power of the Lorde was present to heale them. 18 And beholde, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a paulsie: and they sought meanes to bryng him in, and to lay him before him. 19 And when they coulde not finde on what side they might bryng him in because of the preasse, they went vppon the top of the house, and let him downe through the tylyng bed and all, euen in the middes before Jesus. 20 When he sawe their fayth, he sayde vnto him, Man, thy sinnes are forgeuen thee. 21 And the Scribes and the Pharisees began to * thinke, saying, What felowe is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgeue sinnes, but God only? 22 But when Jesus perceaued their thoughtes, he aunswered and sayde vnto them. What thinke ye in your hearts? 23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sinnes be forgeuen thee: or to say, Ryse vp, and walke? 24 But that ye may know that the sonne of man hath power to forgeue sinnes on earth (he sayde vnto the sicke of the paulsie) I say vnto thee, aryse, take vp thy bed, and go vnto thy house. 25 And immediatly he rose vp before them, and toke vp his bed wheron he lay, and departed to his owne house, praysing God. 26 And they were all amased, and they gaue the glory vnto God, and were filled with feare, saying. Doubtlesse we haue seene straunge thinges to day. 27 After these thinges he went foorth, and sawe a Publicane named Leui, sitting at the receipte of custome: and he sayde vnto him, Followe me. 28 And he left all, rose vp, and folowed him. 29 And Leui made him a great feast in his owne house: and there was a great companye of Publicanes, and of other that sate (at meate) with them. 30 But they that were Scribes and Pharisees among them, murmured agaynst his disciples, saying, Why do ye eate & drynke with Publicanes & sinners? 31 And Jesus aunswered and sayd vnto them, They that are whole neede not the phisition: but they that are sicke.

32 I came not to call the (b) righteous, but sinners to repentaunce.

33 And they sayde vnto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and pray, and the disciples of the Pharisees also: but thyne eate and drinke?

34 He saide vnto them, Can ye make the children of the weddyng chamber fast, whyle the bridegrome is with them? 35 But the dayes will come when the bridegrome also shalbe taken away from them, then shall they fast in those dayes. 36 He spake also vnto them a similitude, No man putteth a peece of a newe garment into an olde vesture: for then the newe renteth (the olde,) and the peece that was (taken) out of the newe, agreeth not with the olde. 37 And no man powreth newe wine into olde vessels: for if he do, the newe wine will burst the vessels, and runne out it selfe, and the vessels shall perishe. 38 But new wine must be put into newe vessels, and both are preserued. 39 No man also that drinketh olde wine, straightway can away with newe: for he sayth, The olde is better.

1 The disciples plucke eares of corne on the Sabbath, 4 with what fraute the worde of god is to be heard.

AND it came to passe on the second Sabbath after the first, that he went through the corne feeldes: and his disciples pincked the eares of corne, and dyd eate, and rubbed them in their handes. 2 And certayne of the Pharisees sayde vnto them, Why do ye that which is not lawfull to do on the Sabbath dayes? 3 And Jesus aunswered them, and sayde, Haue ye not read what Dauid did, when he him selfe was an hungred and they whiche were with him: 4 Howe he went into the house of God, and dyd take and eate

eate the shewe bread, and gaue also to them that were with him: which was not lawfull to eate but for the priestes only? 5 And he saide vnto them, The sonne of man is Lorde also of the (a) Sabbath day. 6 And it came to passe also in another Sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue, and taught: and there was a man whose ryght hande was dryed vp. 7 And the Scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heale on the Sabbath day: that they might finde howe to accuse him.

8 But he knewe their thoughtes, and sayde to the man which had the withered hande, Ryse vp, and stande foorth in the middes. And he arose, & stoode foorth. 9 Then saide Jesus vnto them, I will aske you a question, Whether is it lawful on the Sabbath dayes to do good, or to do euyl? to saue ones lyfe, or to destroy it? 10 And he beheld them all in compasse, and sayde vnto the man, Stretche foorth thy hande. And he dyd so: and his hande was restored agayne as whole as the other. 11 And they were filled with madnes, and communed together among them selues what they might do to Jesus. 12 And it came to passe in those dayes, that he went out into a mountayne to pray, & continued all night (there) in prayer to god.

13 And assoone as it was day, he called his disciples: and of them he chose twelue, whom he called Apostles:

14 (Simon, whom he also named Peter, and Andrewe his brother: James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, 15 Matthewe and Thomas, James (the sonne) of Alpheus, and Simon which is called Zelotes: 16 And Judas James (brother) and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traytour.)

17 And he came downe with them, and stoode in the playne feelde, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Jurie and Hierusalem, and from the sea (coast) of Tyre and Sidon, whiche came to heare him, and to be healed of their diseases: 18 And they that were vexed with foule spirites: and they were healed. 19 And all the people preassed to touche him: for there went vertue out of him, and healed them all. 20 And he lyft vp his eyes vpon his disciples, and sayde, Blessed be ye poore: for yours is the kingdome of God. 21 Blessed are ye that hunger nowe: for ye shalbe satisfied. Blessed are ye that weepe nowe: for ye shall laugh. 22 Blessed shall ye be when men hate you, and separate you (from their companye) and rayle on you, and put out your names as an euyll thing, for the sonne of mans sake. 23 Reioyce ye in that day, and be glad: for beholde, your rewarde is great in heauen: for thus dyd their fathers vnto the prophetes.

24 But wo vnto you that are riche: for ye haue your consolation.

25 Wo vnto you that are full: for ye shall hunger. Wo vnto you that now laugh: for ye shall wayle and weepe.

26 Wo vnto you when al men praise you: for so dyd their fathers to the false prophetes. 27 But I say vnto you which heare, Loue your enemies: do good to them whiche hate you. 28 Blesse them that curse you: and pray for them whiche wrongfully trouble you. 29 And vnto him that smyteth thee on the one cheeke, offer also the other: and hym that taketh away thy cloke, forbyd not to take thy coate also. 30 Geue to euery man that asketh of thee: and of him that taketh away thy goodes, aske them not agayne. 31 And as ye would that men shoulde do to you, do ye also to them lykewyse.

32 For yf ye loue them whiche loue you, what thanke haue ye? for sinners also loue their louers. 33 And yf ye do good for them which do good for you, what thanke haue ye? for sinners also do euen the same.

34 And yf ye lende (to them) of whom ye hope to receaue, what thanke haue ye? for sinners also lende to sinners, to receaue such lyke agayne.

35 But loue ye your enemies, and do good, and lende, lokyng for nothing agayne: and your rewarde shalbe great, and ye shalbe the chyldren of the hyest: for he is kynde vnto the vnkynde, and to the euyll. 36 Be ye therefore mercyfull, as your father also is mercifull. 37 Judge not, and ye shall not be iudged: condempne not, and ye shall not be condempned: forgeue, and ye shalbe forgeuen. 38 Geue, and it shalbe geuen vnto you, good measure, preassed downe, shaken together, and runnyng ouer, shal men geue into your bosomes: for with the same measure that ye meate withall, shall (other) men meate to you agayne.

The .vii. Chapter.

2 And a certayne Centurions seruaũt, which was deare vnto him, lay sicke, and was in perill of death. 3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent vnto him the elders of the Jewes, desechyng him that he would come & heale his seruaunt. 4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, he is worthy that thou shouldest do this for him. 5 For he loueth our nation, and hath buylt vs a synagogue. 6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was nowe not farre from the house, the Centurion sent freendes to him, saying vnto him, Lord, trouble not thy selfe: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter vnder my roofe. 7 Wherefore I thought not my selfe worthy to Mat.8.a. come vnto thee: but say thou the B worde, and my seruaunt shalbe whole.
8 For I also am a man sette vnder power, and haue vnder me souldiers: and I say vnto one, Go, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he commeth: and to my seruaunt, Do this, and he doth it. 9 When Jesus heard these thinges, he marueyled at hym, and turned him about, and sayde to the people that folowed hym, I say vnto you, I haue not founde so great fayth, no, not in Israel. 10 And they that were sent, turned backe home agayne, and founde the seruaunt whole that had ben sicke. 11 And it came to passe (the day) after, that he went into a citie which is called Naim: and many of his disciples went with him, and much people. 12 When he came nye to the gate of the citie, beholde there was a dead man caryed out, (whiche C was) the onlye sonne of his mother, & she was a wydowe: and much people of the citie was with her. 13 And whē the Lord sawe her, he had compassion on her, and saide vnto her, Weepe not.
14 And he came nye, and touched the beere, (and they that bare him stoode still) and he sayde, Young man, I say 3.Reg.17.d vnto thee, arise. 15 And he that 4.Reg.4.f. was dead, sate vp, & began to speake: Actes.9.c. and (he) deliuered him to his mother.
16 And there came a feare on them all: and they gaue the glory vnto god, John.viii.e. saying, A great prophete is rysen vp among vs, and verely God hath visited his people. 17 And this rumour of hym went foorth throughout all Jurie, and throughout all the regions which lye rounde about.
18 And the disciples of John shewed him of all these thinges. 19 And Mat.11.a. John called vnto him two of his disciples, & sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that shoulde come, or shal we loke for another? 20 When the men were come vnto him, they

A reede shaken with the wynde? 25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft rayment? Beholde, they whiche are gorgeously apparelled and lyue delycately, are in kinges courtes. 26 But what went ye for to see? A prophete? Yea, I say to you, and more then a prophete.

27 This is he of whom it is written, Beholde I sende my messenger before thy face, whiche shall prepare thy way before thee. 28 For I say vnto you, among womens children, is there not a greater prophete then Iohn Baptist: neuertheles, he that is lesse in the kingdome of God, is greater then he. 29 And all the people and the Publicanes that heard (him) (a) iustified God, and were baptized with the baptisme of Iohn.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers despised the counsell of God agaynst themselues, and were not baptized of hym. 31 And the Lorde sayde, Wherevnto shall I lyken the men of this generation? and what (thing) are they lyke? 32 They are lyke vnto children sitting in the market place, and crying one to another, and saying, We haue pyped vnto you, and ye haue not daunced: We haue mourned to you, and ye haue not wept. 33 For Iohn Baptist came neither eatyng bread, nor drynking wine, and ye say, He hath the deuil. 34 The sonne of man is come, and eateth and drinketh, and ye say, beholde a gluttonous man, and an (vnmeasurable) drynker of wine, a freende of Publicanes and sinners. 35 And wysdome is iustified of (b) all her children. 36 And one of the Pharisees desyred him that he would eate with him: and he went into the Pharisees house, and sate downe to meate. 37 And beholde, a woman in that citie which was a sinner, assoone as she knewe that Iesus sate at meate in the Pharisees house, she brought an Alabaster box of oynt-ment: 38 And stoode at his feete behynde him, weeping, and began to washe his feete with teares, and dyd wype them with the heeres of her head, and kissed his feete, & annoynted them with the oyntment. 39 When the Pharisee which had bidden him sawe (it,) he spake within him selfe, saying. If this man were a prophete, he would surely know who and what maner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner. 40 And Iesus aunswered, and saide vnto him, Simon, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. And he saide, Master say on.

41 There was a certayne lender which had two debters: the one ought fiue hundred pence, and the other fiftie.

42 When they had nothing to pay, he forgaue them both. Tell me therefore which of them wyll loue him most?

43 Simon aunswered and sayde, I suppose, that he to whom he forgaue most. And he sayde vnto him, Thou hast truely iudged. 44 And he turned to the woman, and said vnto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entred into thyne house, thou gauest me no water for my feete: but she hath washed my feete with teares, and wiped them with the heeres of her head. 45 Thou gauest me no kisse: but she sence the tyme I came in, hath not ceassed to kisse my feete. 46 Myne head with oyle thou dyddest not anoynt: but she hath annoynted my feete with oyntment. 47 Wherfore I say vnto thee, many sinnes are forgeuen her, for she loued much: to whom lesse is forgeuen, the same doth lesse loue. 48 And he sayd vnto her, Thy sinnes are forgeuen thee. 49 And they that sate at meate with him, began to say within themselues, Who is this that forgeueth sinnes also? 50 And he sayd to the woman, Thy fayth hath saued thee: go in peace.

beware of couetousnesse: for no mans lyfe standeth in the aboundaunce of the thynges which he possesseth.
16 And he put forth a similitude vnto them, saying. The grounde of a certayne riche man brought forth plentifull fruites. 17 And he thought within him selfe, saying. What shall I do, because I haue no roome where to bestowe my fruites? 18 And he sayde, This will I do, I will destroy my barnes, and builde greater, and therin will I gather all my fruites and my goodes. 19 And I will say to my soule, Soule, thou hast much goodes layde vp (in store) for many yeres, take thine ease, eate, drinke, and be mery. 20 But God sayde vnto him, Thou foole, this night will they fetch away thy soule agayne from thee: then whose shall those thynges be, which thou hast prouided? 21 So (is he) that gathereth riches to him selfe, and is not riche towardes God.
22 And he spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, take no thought for your lyfe what ye shall eate, neither for the body what ye shall put on. 23 The lyfe is more then meate, and the body is more then rayment. 24 Consider the Rauens, for they neither sowe nor reape, which neither haue storehouse nor barne, and (notwithstandyng) God feedeth them: Howe much more are ye better then (fethered) fowles? 25 Which of you with takyng thought can adde to his stature one cubite? 26 If ye then be not able to do that thyng which is least: why take ye thought for the remnaunt? 27 Consider the lylies howe they growe, they labour not, they spinne not: and yet I say vnto you, that Solomon in all his royaltie was not clothed lyke one of these. 28 If God so clothe the grasse which is to day in the feelde, and to morowe is cast into the furnace: howe much more (wyll he clothe) you (O) ye of litle fayth? 29 And aske not ye what ye shall eate, or what ye shall drynke, neither be ye of doubtfull minde: 30 For all such thynges do the people of the worlde seke for: and your father knoweth that ye haue neede of these thynges. 31 But rather seeke ye after the kingdome of God, and all these thynges shalbe ministred vnto you.
32 Feare not (O) litle flocke: for it is your fathers pleasure to geue you a kingdome. 33 Sell that ye haue, and gene almes: and prepare you bagges which waxe not olde, (euen) a treasure that fayleth not in heauen, where no theefe commeth, neither moth corrupteth: 34 For where your treasure is, there wyll your hearte be also.

35 Let your loynes be girde about, and (your) lyghtes burnyng: 36 And ye your selues (be) lyke vnto men that wayte for their Lorde when he wyll returne from the weddyng, that when he commeth, and knocketh, they may open vnto him immediatly. 37 Happye are those seruauntes, whom the Lorde when he commeth, shall fynde wakyng: Verely I say vnto you, that he shall girde him selfe, and make them to sit downe to meate, and wyll come forth, and minister vnto them.
38 And yf he come in the seconde watche, yea yf he come in the thirde watche, and fynde them so, happye are those seruauntes. 39 This vnderstande, that yf the good man of the house knewe what houre the theefe woulde come, he woulde surely watch, and not suffer his house to be digged through. 40 Be ye therfore redy also: for the sonne of man wyll come at an houre when ye thynke not.
41 Then Peter sayde vnto him, Master, tellest thou this similitude to vs, or to all? 42 And the Lorde sayde, Who is a faythfull and wise stewarde, whom his lorde shall make ruler ouer his housholde, to geue them their portion of meate in due season? 43 Happye is that seruaunt, whom his lorde when he commeth, shall fynde so doyng. 44 Of a trueth I say vnto you, that he wyll make him ruler ouer all that he hath. 45 But and yf that seruaunt say in his heart, My Lorde wyll deferre his commyng: and shall begyn to smite the seruauntes and maydens, and to eate and drynke, and to be drunken: 46 The Lorde of that seruaunt wyll come in a day when he thynketh not, and at an houre when he is not ware, and wyll hew him in peeces, and gene him his portion with the vnbeleuers. 47 And the seruaunt that knewe his masters wyll, and prepared not him selfe, neither dyd according to his wyll, shalbe beaten with many (stripes.) 48 But he that knewe not, (c) and dyd commit thynges worthy of stripes, shalbe beaten with fewe (stripes.) 6 Of the figge tree that bare no fruite.
24 Fewe enter into the kingdome of Christe.

There were present at the same season certayne men, that shewed him of the Galileans, whose blood (a) Pilate had mingled with their owne sacrifice. 2 And Jesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they suffred such punishment? 3 I tell you nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perishe. 4 Or those eyghteene vpon which the towre (b) in Siloe fell and slue them: thinke ye that they were sinners aboue all men that dwelt in Hierusalem? 5 I tell you nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all lykewyse perishe. 6 He tolde also this similitude, A certayne man had a figge tree planted in his vineyarde, and he came and sought fruite theron, and founde none. 7 Then sayde he to the dresser of his vineyarde, Beholde, this three yeres haue I come & sought fruite in this figge tree, and fynde none: cut it downe, why cumbreth it the grounde? 8 And he answered, and sayde vnto him, Lorde, let it alone this yere also, tyll I digge rounde about it, & dongue it: 9 And yf it beare fruite (thou mayest let it alone:) and yf it beare not, then after that shalt thou cut it downe. 10 And he taught in one of their synagogues on the sabbath dayes. 11 And beholde, there was a woman which had a spirite of infirmitie eyghteene yeres, and was bowed together, and coulde in no wyse lift vp (her selfe.) 12 When Jesus sawe her, he called her to him, and sayde vnto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thy disease: 13 And he layde his handes on her, and immediatly she was made straight, and glorified God. 14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and sayde vnto the people, There are sixe dayes in which men ought to worke: in them therfore come, that ye may be healed, and not on the sabbath day. Mat. 12.a 15 But the Lorde answered him, and sayde, Thou hypocrite, doth not eche one of you on the sabbath day loose his oxe or his asse from the stalle, and leade him to the water? Luk. 14.a 16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bounde lo eyghteene yeres, be loosed from this bonde on the sabbath day? 17 And when he sayde these thynges, all his aduersaries were ashamed: and all the people reioyced on all the excellent deedes that were done by him. 18 Then sayde (Jesus,) What is the kingdome of God lyke? or whereto shall I compare it? 19 It is lyke a graine of mustarde seede, which a man toke and sowed in his garden, and it grewe, and waxed a great tree: and the foules of the ayre made nestes in the braunches of it. 20 And agayne he sayde, Wherunto shall I lyken the kingdome of God? 21 It is lyke leauen, which a woman toke & hyd in three peckes of meale, tyll all was leauened. 22 And he went through all

And he sayde vnto them, 24 Striue(c) to enter in at the strayte gate: for many I say vnto you wyll seeke to enter in, and shall not be able. 25 When the good man of the house is risen vp, and hath shut to the doore, and ye begyn to stande without, and to knocke at the doore, saying, Lorde, Lorde, open vnto vs: and he shall answere and say vnto you, I knowe you not whence ye are: 26 Then shall ye begyn to say, We haue eaten and dronken in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streetes. 27 And he shall say, I tell you, I knowe you not whence ye are: depart from me all ye that worke iniquitie. 28 There shalbe weepyng and gnashyng of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isahac, and Jacob, and all the prophetes in the kingdome of God, and ye your selues thrust out.

A AND it came to passe, that he went into the house of one of the cheefe Pharisees to eate bread on the sabbath day, and they watched him. 2 And beholde, there was a certayne man before him which had the dropsie. 3 And Jesus answered and spake vnto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawfull to heale on the sabbath day? 4 And they helde their peace. Then was the good man of the house displeased, and sayde to his seruaunt, Go out quickly into the brode streetes & lanes of the citie: and bryng in hyther the poore, and the feeble, and the halt, and the blynde. 22 And the seruaunt sayde, Lorde, it is done as thou hast commaunded, and yet there is roome.

4 The great mercie of God is set foorth in the parable of the lost sheepe.

Then resorted vnto him all the Publicanes and sinners, for to heare him. 2 And the Pharisees and Scribes murmured, saying, We receaueth sinners, and eateth with them. 3 But he put foorth this parable vnto them, saying, 4 What man of you hauyng an hundred sheepe, yf he loose one of them, doth not leaue ninetie and nine in the wildernesse, and go after that which is lost, vntyll he fynde it? 5 And when he hath founde it, he layeth it on his shoulders with ioy: 6 And alloone as he commeth home, he calleth together his louers and neighbours, saying vnto them, Reioyce with me: for I haue founde my sheepe which was lost.

And they began to be mery. 25 The elder brother was in the fielde: and when he came and drue nye to the house, he hearde minstrelsie and daunsyng. 26 And called one of his seruauntes, and asked what those thynges meant. 27 And he sayde vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath kylled the fat calfe, because he hath receaued him safe and sounde. 28 And (he) was angry, and would not go in: therfore came his father out, and entreated him. 29 He aunswered and sayde to his father, Lo, these many yeres haue I done thee seruice, neither brake I at any tyme thy commaundement, and yet thou neuer gauest me a kid to make mery with my freendes: 30 But assoone as this thy sonne was come, which hath deuoured thy goodes with harlots, thou hast for his pleasure kylled that fat calfe. 31 And he sayde vnto him, Sonne, thou art euer with me, and all that I haue is thine. 32 It was meete that we should make mery and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliue agayne: and was lost, and is founde.

Geue accomptes of thy stewardshyp: for thou mayest be no longer stewarde. 3 The stewarde sayde within him selfe, What shall I do, for my maister taketh away from me the stewardshyp? I can not digge, & to begge I am ashamed. 4 I wote what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardshyp, they may receaue me into their houses. 5 So when he had called all his maisters detters together, he sayd vnto the first, Howe much owest thou vnto my maister? 6 And he sayde, An hundred measures of oyle. And he sayde vnto him, Take thy byll, and sit downe quickly, and write fifty. 7 Then sayde he to another, Howe much owest thou? And he sayde, An hundred measures of wheate. He sayd vnto him, Take thy bill, and write fourescore. 8 And the Lorde commended (a) the vniust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this worlde are in their nation wyser then the children of lyght. 9 And I say vnto you, make you (b) freendes of the vnrighteous Mammon, that when ye shall haue neede, they may receaue you into euerlastyng (c) habitations. 10 He that is faythfull in that which is least, is faythfull also in much: and he that is vnrighteous in the least, is vnrighteous also in much. 11 So then, yf ye haue not ben faythfull in the vnrighteous Mammon, who shall trust you in the true (treasure?) 12 And yf ye haue not ben faythfull in another mans busshelle, who shall geue you that which is your owne? 13 No man can serue two maisters: for either he shall hate the one, and loue the other: or els he shall leane to the one, and despise the other: Ye can not serue God and Mammon. 14 All these thynges hearde the Pharisees also which were couetous: and they mocked him. 15 And he sayde vnto them, Ye are they which iustifie your selues before men, but God knoweth your hearte: for that which is hyghly esteemed among men, is abhominable in the sight of God. 16 The lawe and the prophetes (raigned) vntyll Iohn, and since that tyme the kingdome of God is preached, and euery man stryueth to go in. 17 Easier it is for heauen and earth to perishe, then one title of the lawe to fayle. 18 Whosoeuer for-

2 Chiste teacheth to auoyde offences.
30 The maner of Christes commyng.

HE sayde vnto the disciples, It can not be but offences wyll come, neuertheless wo vnto him through whom they come. 2 It were better for him that a mylstone were hanged about his necke, and he cast into the sea, then that he shoulde (a) offende one of these litle ones. 3 Take heede to your selues: If thy brother trespasse agaynst thee, rebuke him: and yf he repent, forgeue him. 4 And though he sinne agaynst thee seuen tymes in a day, and seuen (b) tymes in a day turne agayne to thee, saying, It repenteth me: thou shalt forgeue him. 5 And the Apostles sayde vnto the Lorde, Increase our fayeth. 6 And the Lorde sayde, If ye had fayeth (as much) as a graine of mustarde seede, and shoulde say vnto this Sycamine tree, Plucke vp thy selfe by the rootes, and plant thy selfe in the sea: it shoulde obey you. 7 But which of you hauyng a seruaunt plowyng or feedyng cattell, woulde say vnto him by and by when he were come from the feelde, Go and sit downe at the table: 8 And woulde not rather say vnto him, Dresse wherwith I may suppe, and girde vp thy selfe, and serue me tyll I haue eaten and dronken: and afterward eate thou, and dryncke thou? 9 Doth he thanke that seruaunt because he dyd the thynges that were commanded vnto him? I trowe not. 10 So likewise ye when ye haue done all those thynges which are commaunded you, say, We are vnprofitable seruauntes: we haue done that which was our dutie to do. 11 And so it was as he went to Hierusalem, that he passed thrugh the middes of Samaria and Galilee. 12 And as he entred into a certayne towne, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stoode a farre of, 13 And put foorth their voyces, and sayde, Iesu maister haue mercie on vs. 14 When he sawe (them) he sayde vnto them, Go shewe your selues vnto the (c) priestes. And it came to passe, that as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them when he sawe that he was healed, turned backe (agayne) and with a loude voyce prayssed God: 16 And fell downe on his face at his feete, and gaue him thankes: and the same was a Samaritane. 17 And Iesus answered and sayde, Are there not ten cleansed? but where are those nine? 18 There are not founde that returned agayne to geue God prayse, saue (only) this straunger. 19 And he sayde vnto him, Aryse, go thy way, thy fayeth hath made thee whole.

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here, or lo there: for beholde the kingdome of God is (d) within you. 22 And he sayde vnto the disciples, The dayes wyll come when ye shall desire to see one(e)day of the sonne of man, and ye shall not see it. 23 And they shall say to you, See here, see there: go not after them, nor folowe them. 24 For as the lyghtnyng that lyghteth out of the (one) part that is vnder heauen, and shyneth vnto the (other) part which is vnder heauen: so shall the sonne of man be in his(f)day. 25 But first must he suffer many thynges, and be refused of this nation. 26 And as it was in the dayes of Noe: so shall it be also in the dayes of the sonne of man. 27 They dyd eate and dryncke, they married wyues, and were married, euen vnto the same day that Noe went into the arke: and the flud came and destroyed them all. 28 Likewise also as it was in the dayes of Lot: they dyd eate, they dranke, they bought, they solde, they planted, they builded: 29 But euen the same day that Lot went out of Sodome, it rayned fire and brimstone from heauen, and destroyed them all: 30 Euen thus shall it be in the day when the sonne of man shalbe reuealed. 31 At that day * he which is on the house (top) and his stuffe in the house, let him not come downe to take it out: and let not him that is in the feelde, turne backe agayne lykewise to the thinges that he left behynde. 32 Remember lottes wyfe. 33 Whosoeuer wyll go about to saue his lyfe, shall loose it: and whosoeuer shall loose his lyfe, shall quicken it. 34 I tell you, in that nyght there shalbe two in one bed, the one shalbe receaued, the other shalbe forsaken.

35 Two (women) shalbe grindyng together: the one shalbe receaued, and the other forsaken. 36 Two (men) shalbe in the feelde: the one shalbe receaued, and the other forsaken.

37 And they aunswered and sayde vnto him, Where Lorde? He sayde vnto them, Wheresoeuer the body shalbe, thyther wyll also the Egles (g) be gathered together.

¶ The.xviii. Chapter.

2 Christe teacheth to continue in prayer. 31 He foresheweth his death.

AND he put foorth a parable vnto them, (to this ende) that men ought alwayes to pray, and not to be (a) weerie: 2 Saying, There was in a certayne citie a certayne iudge which feared not God, neither regarded man. 3 And there was a certayne widowe in the same citie, and she came vnto him, saying, Auenge * me of mine aduersarie. 4 And he woulde not for a whyle. But afterwarde he sayde within him selfe, Though I feare not god, nor care for man, 5 yet because this widowe (much) troubleth me, I wyll auenge * her, lest she come at the last and make me weerie.

6 And the Lorde sayde, Heare what the vnrygh teous iudge saith. 7 And shall not God auenge his elect, which crye day and nyght vnto him, yea though (b) he defeere them? 8 I tell you that he wyll auenge them, and that quickly. Neuertheleſſe when the sonne of man commeth, shall he fynde fayth on the earth? 9 And he tolde this parable vnto certayne which trusted in them selues that they were perfect, and despised other:

10 Two men went vp into the temple to pray: the one a Pharisee, and the other a Publicane. 11 The Pharisee stoode and prayed thus with him selfe, God, I thanke thee that I am not as other men are, extortioners, vniuſt, adulterers, or as this publicane: 12 I fast twise in the weeke, I gene tithe of all that I possesse. 13 And the Publicane standing a farre of, woulde not lyft vp his eyes to heauen: but smote vpon his brest, saying, God, be mercifull to me a sinner. 14 I tell you, this man departed (home) to his house iuſtified rather then the other: For euery one that exalteth him selfe, shalbe brought lowe: and he that humbleth him selfe, shalbe exalted. 15 They brought vnto him also (c) infantes, that he shoulde touche them: which when his disciples sawe, they rebuked them. 16 But Jesus when he had called them (d) vnto him, sayd, Suffer children * to come vnto me, and forbyd them not: for of such (e) is the kingdome of god. 17 Verily I say vnto you, whosoeuer receaueth not the kingdome of God as a (f) chylde, shall not enter therin. 18 And a certayne ruler asked him, saying, Good maister, what ought

ought I to do to possesse eternall lyfe? 19 Jesus sayde vnto him, Why callest thou me good? None is good, saue God only. 20 Thou knowest the commmaundementes, Thou shalt not commit adulterie, Thou shalt not kyl, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witnesse, Honour thy father & thy mother. 21 And he sayde, All these haue I kept from my youth vp. 22 When Jesus hearde that, he sayde vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thyng, Sell all that thou hast, and distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, folowe me. 23 When he hearde this, he was very sory: for he was very riche. 24 When Jesus sawe that he was sory, he sayde, With what difficultie shal they that haue money enter into the kingdome of God? 25 For it is easier for a camell to go through a needles eye, then for a riche man to enter into the kingdome of God.

26 And they that hearde (it) sayde, And who then can be saued? 27 And he sayde, The thynges which are vnpossible with men, are possible with God. 28 Then Peter sayde, Lo, we haue forsaken all, and folowed thee.

29 He sayde vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, there is no man that hath forsaken house, either father, or mother, either brethren, or wyfe, or children, for the kingdome of Gods sake, 30 Which shall not receaue much more in this worlde, and in the worlde to come lyfe euerlastyng. 31 Jesus toke vnto him the twelue, and sayde vnto them, Beholde we go vp to Hierusalem, and all thynges shalbe fulfylled to the sonne of man that are written by the prophetes. 32 For he shalbe delinered vnto the gentiles, and shalbe mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spytted on: 33 And when they haue scourged him, they wyll put him to death: and the thirde day he shall ryse agayne. 34 And they vnderstoode none of all these thynges: and this saying was hyd from them, so that they perceaued not the thynges which were spoken.

35 And it came to passe, that as he was come nye vnto Hierico, a certayne blynde man sate by the wayes syde, beggyng. 36 And when he hearde the people passe by, he asked what it meant. 37 And they sayde vnto him that Jesus of Nazareth passed by. 38 And he cryed, saying, Jesu thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me. 39 And they which went before, rebuked him that he shoulde holde his peace: but he cryed so much the more, Thou sonne of Dauid haue mercie on me. 40 And Jesus stoode styll, & commaunded him to be brought vnto him: and when he was come neare, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wylt thou that I do vnto thee? And he sayde, Lorde, that I may receaue my sight. 42 Jesus sayde vnto him, Receaue thy syght: thy faith hath saued thee? 43 And immediatly he receaued his sight, and folowed him, prayesyng God: and all the people when they sawe (it,) gaue prayse vnto God.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he loked vp and sawe him, and sayde vnto him, Zache, come downe & once: for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he came downe hastyly, and receaued him ioyfully. 7 And when they all sawe it, they murmured, saying that he was gone in to tary with a man that is a sinner. 8 And Zache stoode forth, and sayd vnto the Lord, Beholde Lord, the halfe of my goodes I gene to the poore, and yf I haue taken from any man by forged * cauillation, I restore him foure folde.

9 Jesus sayde vnto him, This day is saluation come to this (a) house: because that he is also the chylde of (b) Abraham. 10 For the sonne of man is come to seke, and to saue that which was lost. 11 And as they heard these thynges, he added and spake a parable, because he was nye to Hierusalem, and because they thought that the kingdome of God shoulde shortly appeare. 12 He sayde therfore, A certayne noble man went into a farre countrey to receaue for him selfe a kingdome, and to come agayne.

But the hye priestes and the Scribes, and the cheefe of the people, went about to destroy hym: 48 And coulde not finde what to do: for all the people stacke by him, when they hearde hym.

Th. xx. Chapter.

17 Christ the stone reproued, 41 Christ the sonne of Dauid,

A ND it came to passe, that on one of those dayes as he taught the people in the temple and preached the gospell, the hye priestes and the Scribes came vpon him with the elders, 2 And spake vnto him, saying, Tel vs by what auctoritie doest thou these thynges? Either who is he that gaue thee this auctoritie? 3 Jesus aunswered, and sayde vnto them, I also will aske you one thyng, and aunswere me: 4 The baptisme of (a) John, was it from heauen, or of men?

5 And they reasoned within them selues, saying, If we say from heauen, he will say, Why then beleued ye hym not? 6 But and yf we say of men, all the people will stone vs: For they be persuaded that John is a prophete.

7 And they aunswered that they coulde not tell whence (it was.)

8 And Jesus sayde vnto them, Neither tell I you by what auctoritie I do these thynges. 9 Then began he to put forth to the people this parable, A certayne man planted a vineyarde, and let it forth to husbandemen, & went him selfe into a straunge countrey for a great season. 10 And when the tyme was come, he sent a seruaunt to the husbandemen, that they shoulde geue hym of the fruite of the vineyarde. And they beat hym, and sent hym away emptie. 11 And agayne, (he) sent yet another seruaunt: and him they did beate, and entreated him shamefully, and sent hym awaye emptie. 12 Agayne, he sent the thirde also: and hym they wounded, and cast hym out. 13 Then said the Lorde of the vineyarde, What shall I do? I will sende my deare sonne: it may be they will reuerence him when they see hym. 14 But when the husbandmen sawe hym, they reasoned within them selues, saying, This is the heire, come, let vs kyll hym, that the inheritaunce may be ours. 15 And they cast hym out of the vineyarde, and kylled hym. What shall the Lorde of the vineyarde therefore do vnto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall let out his vineyarde to other. When they heard (this,) they sayde, God forbyd.

17 And he beheld them, and sayde, What is this then that is written, The stone that (b) the buylders refused, the same is become the head of the corner. 18 Whosoeuer doth stumble vpon that stone, shalbe broken: but on whomsoeuer it falleth, it will grynde hym to powder. 19 And the hye priestes & the Scribes the same houre went about to lay handes on him, and they feared the people: for they perceaued that he had spoken this similitude against them. 20 And they watched hym, and sent foorth spyes which shoulde fayne them selues ryghteous men, to take hym in his wordes, and to delyuer hym vnto the power and auctoritie of the deputie.

21 And they asked hym, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest right, neither considerest thou the outwarde appearaunce of any man, but teachest the way of God truely: 22 Is it lawful for vs to geue tribute vnto Ceasar, or not? 23 He perceaued their craftinesse, and sayde vnto them, Why tempt ye me? 24 Shewe me a peny: whose image and superscription hath it? They aunswered and sayde, Ceasars. 25 And he sayde vnto them, Geue then vnto Ceasar the thynges which (belong) vnto Ceasar: and to God the thinges that pertaine vnto god. 26 And they could not reproue his sayinges before the people: and they maruayled at his aunswere, and held their peace. 27 Then came to him certaine of the Sadducees (which denye that there is any resurrection) and they asked him, 28 Saying, Master, Moyses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother dye, hauyng a wife, and he dye without children: that then his brother should take his wife, and rayse vp seede vnto his brother.

29 There were therefore seuen brethen, and the first tooke a wyfe, and dyed without chyldren. 30 And the seconde tooke her, and he dyed childlesse. 31 And the third tooke her: and in lykewyse the residue of the seuen, & left no children behynde them, and dyed. 32 Last of all, the woman dyed also. 33 Nowe in the resurrection, whose wife of them shall she be? For seuen had her to wife. 34 Jesus aunswered and said vnto them, The chyldren of this (c) worlde marry wiues, and are marryed: 35 But they which shal be counted worthy to enioy that worlde, and the resurrection from the dead, do not marry wyues, neither are married: 36 Nor yet can dye any more: For they are equall vnto the angeles.

1 The liberalitie of the poore wydowe. 27 Of the ende of the worlde.

AS he beheld, he saw the rich men which cast theyr gyftes into the treasurie. 2 He sawe also a certayne poore wydowe which cast in thither two mites. 3 And he sayde, Of a trueth I say vnto you, that this poore wydow hath put in more then they all. 4 For they all haue of their superfluitie added vnto the offerynges of God: but she of her penurie hath cast in all the substaunce that she had. 5 And vnto some that spake of the temple how it was garnyshed with goodly stones and gyftes, he sayde, 6 Are these the thynges which ye looke vpon? The dayes wyll come in the whiche there shal not be left one stone vpon another that shall not be throwen downe.

7 And they asked him, saying, Maister, when shall these thynges be? and what signe wyll there be when these thinges shal come to passe? 8 And he sayd, Take heede that ye be not deceaued: For many shal come in my name, saying, I am (Christe,) and the tyme draweth neare; Folowe ye them not therefore. 9 But when ye heare of warres and seditions, be not afrayde: For these thynges must fyrst come to passe, but the end soloweth not by and by. 10 Then sayde he vnto them, Nation shal rise agaynst nation, and kingdome agaynst kyngdome: 11 And great earthquakes shalbe in diuers places, and hunger, and pestilence, and fearfull thynges, and great signes shall there be from heauen. 12 But before all these, they shall laye theyr handes on you, and persecute you, deliuerynge you vp to the synagogues, and into pryssons, and shall bryng you vnto kinges and rulers for my names sake.

13 And it shal turne to you for a testimoniall. 14 Be at a sure poynt therefore in your heartes, not to studie before what ye shall answere: 15 For I wyll geue you a mouth and wysdome, whereagaynst all your aduersaries shall not be able to speake nor resist. 16 Yea ye shalbe betrayed also of your parentes, and brethren, and kinsfolke, and freendes, and (some) of you shall they put to death: 17 And hated shall ye be of all men for my names sake. 18 And there shal not one heere of your head perishe. 19 Possesse ye your soules by your (a) patience.

20 And when ye see Hierusalem besieged with an hoast, then be sure that the desolation of the same is nye. 21 Then let them whiche are in Iurie, flee to the mountaynes, and let them which are in the myddes of it, depart out: and let not them that are in other countreys enter therein. 22 For these be the dayes of vengeaunce, that all thinges which are written may be fulfylled. 23 But wo vnto them that are with chylde, and to them that geue sucke in those dayes: for there shalbe great distresse in the lande, and wrath ouer this people.

24 And they shall fall through the edge of the swoord, and shalbe led away captiue into all nations: and Hierusalem shalbe troden downe of the gentiles, vntyl the tyme of the gentiles be fulfilled. 25 And there shalbe signes in the sunne and in the moone and in the starres: and vpon the earth trouble among the nations, with perplexitie: the sea and the water shall roze. 26 And mens hearetes shall faile them for feare, and for lookyng after those thinges which shall come on the worlde: For the powers of heauen shalbe shaken.

Mat.26.a. Mar.14.a. John.7.d. John.13.c. THe feaste of sweete bread drewe nye, which is called the Passouer: 2 And the hye priestes & scribes sought howe they myght kyll him: for they feared the people. 3 Then entred Satan into Iudas, whose surname was Iscariot, which was of the number of the twelue. 4 And he went his waye, and communed with the hye priestes and officers howe he myght betraye him vnto them. 5 And they were glad, and promised to gene hym money. 6 And (he) consented: and sought opportunitie to betray him vnto them when the people were awaye.

Mat.26.c. Mar.14.b. 7 Then came the day of sweete bread, when (of necessitie) the Passouer must be offered. 8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare vs the Passouer, that we may eate. 9 They sayde vnto hym, Where wylt thou that we prepare(it?) 10 And he sayde vnto them, Beholde, when ye enter into the citie, there shall a man meete you bearyng a pitcher of water: hym folowe into the same house that he entreth in. 11 And ye shall saye vnto the good man of the house, The master sayth vnto thee, where is the ghest chaumber, where I shall eate the passouer with my disciples? 12 And he shall shew you an vpper chaumber prepared, there make redy. 13 And they went and founde as he had sayde vnto them: and they made redy the Passouer. 14 And when the houre was come, he sate downe, and the twelue apostles with hym. 15 And he sayde vnto them, I haue earnestly desyred to eate this Passouer with you before that I suffer. 16 For I say vnto you hencefoorth I wyll not eate of it any more, vntill it be fulfylled in the kingdome of god. 17 And he toke the cup, and gaue thankes, and sayde, Take this, and diuide it among you.

Mat.26.d. Mar.14.d.

18 For I say vnto you, I wyll not drynke of the fruite of the vine, vntyll the kingdome of God come. 19 And he toke bread, and when he had geuen thankes, he brake (it) and gaue vnto them, saying, This is my body which is geuen for you: this do in the remembraunce of me. 20 Lykewyse also when he had supped, he tooke the cuppe, saying, This cuppe is the newe testament in my blood, whiche is shed for you. 21 Yet beholde, the hande of hym that betrayeth me, is with me on the table. 22 And truely the sonne of man goeth as it is appoynted: but wo vnto that man by whom he is betrayed. 23 And they began to enquire among them selues whiche of them it was that shoulde do it.

Mat.26.e. 1.Cor.11.c.

24 And there was a stryfe among them, whiche of them shoulde seeme to be the greatest. 25 And he sayde vnto them, The kynges of nations raigne ouer them, and they that haue auctoritie vppon them, are called gracious Lordes.

Mat.20.b. 26 But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, shalbe as the younger, and he that is cheefe, shalbe as he that doth minister.

27 For whether is greater he that sitteth at meate, or he that serueth? Is not he that sitteth at meate? But I am among you as he that ministreth.

28 Ye are they which haue bidden with me in my temptations. 29 And I appoynt vnto you a kyngdome, as my father hath appoynted vnto me.

Mat.10.c. Mar.6.d. Luk.22.a. 35 And he sayde vnto them, When I sent you without wallet, and scrippe, and shoes, lacked ye any thyng? And they sayde, No.

38 And they sayde, Lorde, beholde here are two swordes. And he sayde Mat.26.c. vnto them, It is enough. 39 And he Mar.14.c. came out, and went as he was wont to mount Oliuete: and the disciples Mat.6.b. followed hym. 40 And when he came Luk.22.a. to the place, he sayde vnto them, Pray, lest ye fall into temptation.

Mat.26.c. Mar.14.f. John.18.b. 51 Jesus aunswered and sayde, Suffer ye thus farre forth. And when he touched his eare, he healed hym.

52 Then Jesus sayde vnto the hye priestes and rulers of the temple, and the elders whiche were come to him, Be ye come out as vnto a theefe, with swordes and staues? 53 When I was daply with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no handes agaynst me: but this is euen your very houre, and the power of darknesse.

54 Then toke they hym, and led hym, and brought hym to the hye priestes house: and Peter folowed a farre of.

55 And when they had kindled a fyre in the middes of the hall, and were set downe together, Peter also sate Mat.26.c. downe among them. 56 But when Mar.14.f. a certayne wenche beheld hym as he John.18.c. sate by the fyre, and earnestly looked vpon him, she sayd, This same felowe was also with hym. 57 And he denyed hym, saying, Woman, I knowe hym not. 58 And after a litle whyle Mat.26.c. another sawe hym, and sayde, Thou Mar.14.c. art also of them. I fynde no cause of death in hym: I will therfore chasten him, and let hym go. 23 And they were instant with loude voyces, requiryng that he myght be crucified: and the voyces of them & of the hye priestes preuayled. 24 And Pilate gaue sentence that it shoulde be as they required.

The first Chapter.
¶ The diuinitie, humanitie, and office of Christe.

IN the beginning was the worde, and the worde was with God, * and God was that worde. 2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All thinges were made by it: and without (a) it was made nothing that was made. 4 In it was lyfe, and the lyfe was the lyght of men:

5 And the light shyneth in darkneſſe, and the darkneſſe comprehended it not. 6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John: 7 The same came for a witneſſe, to (beare) witneſſe of the (b) light, that all men thrOugh hym myght beleue. 8 He was not that light: but (was sent) to beare witneſſe of the light. 9 That (light) was the true light which lighteth euery man that commeth into the worlde. 10 He was in the worlde, and the worlde was made by him, and the worlde knewe hym not. 11 He came among his owne, and his owne receaued him not. 12 But as many as receaued hym, to them gaue he (c) power to be the sonnes of God, (euen) them that beleued on his name.

13 Whiche were borne not of blood, nor of the will of the flesshe, nor yet of the will of man, but of God. 14 And the same worde * became (d) flesshe, and dwelt among vs (and we sawe the glory of it, as the glory of the only begotten sonne of the father) full of grace and trueth. 15 John beareth witneſſe of hym, and cryeth, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that commeth after me, is preferred before me: for he was * before me.

16 And of his fulneſſe haue all we receaued, and grace (e) for grace.

17 For the law was geuen by Moyſes, but grace and trueth came by Jesus Christe. 18 No man hath seene God at any tyme: the only begotten sonne which is in the bosome of the father, he hath declared hym.

19 And this is the recorde of John, when the Jewes sent Priestes and Leuites from Hierusalem to aske hym, What art thou? 20 And he confeſſed and denyed not, and sayde playnely, I am not that Christe.

21 And they asked hym, What then? art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophete? And he aunswered, No. 22 Then sayd they vnto hym, What art thou, that we may geue an aunswere to them that sent vs: What sayest thou of thy selfe? 23 He sayd, I (am) the voyce of a cryer in the wyldernesſe, Make straight the way of the Lorde, as sayd the prophete Esaias. 24 And they whiche were sent, were of the Phariſees. 25 And they asked hym, and sayde vnto hym, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not Christe, nor Elias, neither * a Prophete? 26 John aunswered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye knowe not:

27 He it is which though he came after me, was before me, whose shoes latchet I am not worthy to vnloose.

28 These thinges were done in Bethabara beyond Jordane, where John did baptize. 29 The next day John seeth Jesus comming vnto hym, and saith, Beholde the Lamme of God whiche taketh away the sinne of the worlde. 30 This is he of whom I said, After me commeth a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me. 31 And I knewe hym not: but that he shoulde be declared to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water. 32 And John bare recorde, saying, I saw the spirite descend from heauen lyke vnto a doue, and abode vpon him. 33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same sayde vnto me, Vpon whom thou shalt see the spirite descend and tary still on him, the same is he whiche baptizeth with the holy ghost. 34 And I sawe, and bare recorde that he is the sonne of God.

35 The next day after John stoode agayne, and two of his disciples.

36 And he beholde Jesus as he walked by, and saith, Behold the Lamme of God. 37 And the two disciples heard hym speake, and they folowed Jesus. 38 And Jesus turned about, and saw them folowe (him,) and saith vnto

¶ The. ii. Chapter.

6 Christe turneth water into wine.

AND the thirde day was there a marriage in Cana " (a citie) of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. 2 And Jesus was called, and his disciples vnto the marriage.

3 And when the wine fayled, the mother of Jesus saith vnto hym, They haue no wine. 4 Jesus saith vnto her, Woman, what haue I to do with thee, mine houre is not yet come?

5 His mother saith vnto the " ministers, Whatsoeuer he saith vnto you, do it. 6 And there were set there sixe water pottes of stone, after the maner of the purifyng of the Jewes, containyng two or three " firkins a peece. 7 Jesus saith vnto them, Fill the water pottes with water. And they filled them vp to the brim.

8 And he saith vnto them, Drawe out nowe, and beare vnto the gouernour of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine (and knew not whence it was, but the ministers whiche drue the water knew) the gouernour of the feast called the bridegrome: 10 And saith vnto him, Euery man at the beginning doth set foorth good wine, and when the ghestes haue well dronke, then that whiche is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine vntyll nowe.

11 This beginning of miracles dyd Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and shewed his glory: and his disciples beleued on him. 12 After this he went downe to Capernaum, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples, and there continued not many dayes.

13 And the Jewes Passouer was at hande, and Jesus went vp to Hierusalem, 14 And founde sitting in the temple those that solde oxen, & sheepe, and doues, and chaungers of money.

15 And when he had made (as it were) a scourge of small cordes, he drone them all out of the temple, with the sheepe and oxen, and powred out the chaungers money, and ouerthrew the tables: 16 And said vnto them that solde doues, Haue these thinges hence, and make not my fathers house an house of marchaundize. 17 And his disciples remembred that it was writted, The zeale of thyne house hath euen eaten me. 18 Then answered the Jewes, and said vnto him, What token shewest thou vnto vs, seeing that thou doest these thinges?

19 Jesus answered and sayde vnto them, Destroy this temple, and in three dayes I wyll reare it vp.

20 Then sayde the Jewes, Fourtie and sixe yeres was this temple a building, and wilt thou reare it vp in three dayes? 21 But he spake of the temple of his body. 22 Assone therfore

3 Chriſte teacheth Nicodemus.
16 The loue of god toward the world.

A There was a man of the Phariſees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Iewes: 2 The ſame came to Ieſus by nyght, and ſaid vnto him, Rabbi, we knowe that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man coulde do theſe miracles that thou doeſt, except God were with hym.

John.viij.g.

3 Ieſus aunſwered and ſayde vnto hym, Verily verily I ſay vnto thee, except a man be borne agayne, he can not ſee the kyngdome of God. 4 Nicodemus ſaith vnto hym, Howe can a man be borne when he is olde? can he enter into his mothers wombe and be borne agayne? 5 Ieſus aunſwered, Verily verily I ſay vnto thee, except a man be borne of water and of the ſpirite, he can not enter into the kyngdome of God. 6 That which is borne of the fleſche, is fleſh: and that which is borne of the ſpirite, is ſpirite. 7 Marnayle not thou that I ſayde to thee, Ye muſt be borne againe. 8 The winde bloweth where it lufteth, and thou heareſt the ſounde thereof: but canſt not tell whence it commeth, & whyther it goeth: So is euery one that is borne of the ſpirite.

John.iiij.b Titus.iij.a Rom.viij.a B Eccle.xi.a.

9 Nicodemus aunſwered and ſayde vnto hym, Howe can theſe thinges be? 10 Ieſus aunſwered and ſayde vnto hym, Art thou a maiſter in Iſrael, and knoweſt not theſe thinges?

11 Verily verily I ſay vnto thee, we ſpeake that we do knowe, and teſtifie that we haue ſeene: and ye receaue not our witneſſe. 12 If I haue tolde you earthly thinges, and ye beleue not: how ſhall ye beleue if I tell you of heauenly thinges? 13 And no man aſcendeth vp to (a) heauen, but he that came downe from heauen, (euen) the ſonne of man whiche is in (b) heauen. 14 And as Moyſes lyft vp the ſerpent in the wildernes: euen ſo muſt the ſonne of man be lift vp: 15 That whoſoeuer beleueth in hym perifhe not, but haue eternall life. 16 For God ſo loued the worlde, that he gaue his only begotten ſonne: that whoſoeuer beleueth in hym, ſhoulde not perifhe, but haue euerlaſting lyfe. 17 For God ſent not his ſonne into the worlde to condemne the worlde: but that the (c) worlde thrugh hym myght be ſaued.

(a) No man by his owne wit can knowe the myſteries of Chriſtes kyngdome, but by Chriſte him ſelfe.

(b) heauen. (b) This is ſpoken for the vnitie of perſon, and that which is proper to one nature, is tranſferred to the other, as Act. 20. and 28. and ſo Chriſte was in heauen, accordyng to his deuine nature.

(c) That is, all ſortes of people that beleue, whether they be Iewes or Gentils.

18 He that beleueth on hym, is not condemned: but he that beleueth not, is condemned alredy, because he hath not beleued in the name of the only begotten ſonne of God. 19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the worlde, and men loued darknes rather then light: becauſe their deedes were euyll. 20 For euery one that euyll doth, hateth the light: neither commeth to the light, leſt his deedes ſhoulde be reproued.

John.i.a. Ephe.v.b.

21 But he that doth truely, commeth to the light, that his deedes may be knowen, howe that they are wrought in God. 22 After theſe thinges came Ieſus and his diſciples into the lande of Iurie, and there he tarryed with them and (d) baptized.

(d) Chriſte hym ſelfe baptized not, but his diſciples. Iohn. iiii.

23 And John alſo baptized in Aenon beſide Salim, becauſe there was muche water there: and they came, and were baptized. 24 For John was not yet caſt into priſon. 25 And there aroſe a queſtion betwene Johns diſciples and the Iewes about purifying. 26 And they came vnto John, and ſayde vnto hym, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyonde Iordane, to whom thou bareſt witneſſe, beholde, the ſame baptizeth, and all men come to hym. 27 John aunſwered, and ſayde, A man can receaue nothing, except it be geuen hym from heauen.

Mar.viii.b. Joh. viij.a. D John.i.b.

28 Ye your ſelues are witneſſes how that I ſayde, I am not Chriſte, but am ſent before hym. 29 He that hath the bryde, is the brydegrome: but the freende of the brydegrome which ſtandeth and heareth him, reioyceth greatly because of the brydegromes voyce: This my ioy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He muſt increaſe, but I muſt decreaſe. 31 He that commeth from an hye, is above all: he that is of the earth, is earthly, and ſpeaketh of the earth: he that commeth from heauen, is above all: 32 And what he hath ſeene

7 Christe weryed at keth water of the woman of Samaria. 10 The liuely water.

A Soone as the Lorde knew howe the Pharises had heard that Jesus made and baptized mo disciples then John: (2 Though that Jesus hym selfe baptized not, but his disciples:) 3 He left Jurie, and departed agayne into Galilee. 4 For (it was so that) he must needes go thorowe Samaria. 5 Then came he to a citie of Samaria, whiche is called Sichar, beside the possession that Jacob gaue to his sonne Joseph. 6 And there was Jacobs well. Jesus then beyng weery of his iourney, sate thus on the well: and it was about the (a) sixth houre. 7 And there came a woman of Samaria to drawe water: Jesus saith vnto her, Geue me drinke.

Mat.xiii.b. Gen.48.d. (a) Tharis, twelue of the clocke.

8 For his disciples were gone away vnto the towne to bye meate.

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria vnto hym, Howe is it that thou beyng a Jewe, askest drinke of me, whiche am a Samaritane? For the Jewes meddle not with the Samaritanes. 10 Jesus answered & sayd vnto her, If thou knewest the gyft of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Geue me drinke: thou wouldest haue asked of hym, and he would haue geuen thee water of lyfe. 11 The woman saith vnto hym, Syr, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of life. 12 Art thou greater then our father Jacob, which gaue vs the well, and he hym selfe dranke thereof, and his children, and his cattell? 13 Jesus answered and sayd vnto her, Whosoeuer drinketh of this water, shall thyrst agayne: 14 But whosoeuer drinketh of the water that I shall geue hym, shall neuer be more a thyrst: but the water that I shall geue him, shalbe in hym a well of water springing vp into euerlasting life. 15 The woman saith vnto him, Syr, geue me of that water, that I thyrst not, neither come hyther to drawe. 16 Jesus saith vnto her, Go, call thy husbande, and come hyther.

4.Reg.17.f. John.vij.b. Jere.ij.d. Jehu.viii.b.

17 The woman answered and sayd vnto hym, I haue no husbande. Jesus sayde vnto her, Thou hast well sayd, I haue no husbande. 18 For thou hast had fiue husbandes: and he whom thou nowe hast is not thy husbande: In that saydest thou truely. 19 The woman saith vnto hym, Syr, I perceaue that thou art a prophete.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountayne: and ye say that in Hierusalem is the place where men ought to worship. 21 Jesus saith vnto her, Woman, beleue me, the houre commeth when ye shall neither in this mountayne, nor yet at Hierusalem worship the father. 22 Ye worship ye wote not what, we knowe what we worship: for saluation commeth of the Jewes. 23 But the houre commeth, and nowe is, when the true worshippers shall worship the father in spirite and in the trueth: for suche the father also requireth to worship him. 24 God is a spirite: and they that worship hym, must worship hym in spirite and in trueth. 25 The woman saith vnto hym, I wote that Messias shall come, whiche is called Christe: when he is come, he will tell vs all thinges. 26 Jesus saith vnto her, I that speake vnto thee (am he.)

27 And immediatly came his disciples, and marueyled that he talked with the woman: Yet no man sayde, What seekest thou, or, why talkest thou with her? 28 The woman then left her water pot, and went her way into the citie, and saith to the men,

29 Come, see a man which tolde me all thinges that euer I dyd: is not he Christe? 30 Then they went out of the citie, & came vnto him. 31 In the meane whyle his disciples prayed him, saying, Maister eate. 32 He said vnto them, I haue meate to eate that ye wote not of. 33 Therfore said the disciples among them selues, Hath any man brought hym ought to eate?

34 Jesus saith vnto them, My meate is to do the will of hym that sent me, and to finishe his worke. 35 Say not ye, There are yet foure

foure monethes, and then commeth harueſt? Beholde, I ſay vnto you, lyft vp your eyes, and loke on the regions: for they are whyte alredy vnto harueſt. 36 And he that reapeth, receaueth wages, and gathereth fruite vnto lyfe eternall: that both he that ſoweth, and he that reapeth, myght reioyce together. 37 And herein is the ſaying true, That one ſoweth, and another reapeth. 38 I ſent you to reape that wheron ye beſtowed no labour: other men (a) laboured, and ye are entred into theyr labours. 39 Many of the Samaritanes of that citie beleued on hym for the ſaying of the woman, which teſtified that he tolde her al that euer ſhe did. 40 So when the Samaritanes were come vnto him, they beſought hym that he would tary with them: and he abode there two dayes. 41 And many mo beleued becauſe of his owne word: 42 And ſaid vnto the woman, Nowe we beleue, not becauſe of thy ſaying: for we haue hearde him our ſelues, and know that this is euen Chriſt the ſautour of the worlde. 43 After two dayes he departed thence, & went (away) into Galilee.

44 For Jeſus him ſelfe teſtified that a prophete hath none honour in his owne countrey. 45 Then aſſoone as he was come into Galilee, the Galileans receaued him, when they had ſeene all the thynges that he did at Hieruſalem at the day of the feaſt: for they went alſo vnto the feaſt day. 46 So Jeſus came agayne into Cana of Galilee, where he turned the water into wine. And there was a certayne ruler, whoſe ſonne was ſicke at Capernaum. 47 Aſſoone as the ſame hearde that Jeſus was come out of Jurie into Galilee, he went vnto hym, and beſought hym that he would come downe and heale his ſonne: for he was euen at the poynt of death.

48 Then ſayde Jeſus vnto hym, Except ye ſee ſignes and wonders, ye will not beleue. 49 The ruler ſayth vnto hym, Syr, come downe or euer that my ſonne dye. 50 Jeſus ſayth vnto hym, Go thy way, thy ſonne lyueth. The man beleued the worde that Jeſus had ſpoken vnto hym, and he went his waye. 51 And as he was nowe goyng downe, the ſeruauntes met hym, and tolde hym, ſaying, Thy ſonne lyueth. 52 Then enquired he of them the houre when he began to amende: and they ſayde vnto hym, Yeſterday at the ſeuenth houre the feuer left hym. 53 So the father knew that it was (done) the ſame houre in the whiche Jeſus ſayde vnto hym, Thy ſonne lyueth: And he beleued, and all his houſholde. 54 This is agayne the ſeconde miracle that Jeſus did, when he was come out of Jurie into Galilee.

5 Chriſt healed on the ſabbath the man that was ſicke thirtie & eyght yeres.

A Fter this was there a feaſt daye of the Jewes, and Jeſus went vp to Hieruſalem. 2 And there is at Hieruſalem by the ſheepe (a) (market,) a poole which is called in the Hebrewe toung Bethesda, hauyng fyue porches. 4 In which lay a great multitude of ſicke folke, of blynde, halt, and wythered, waytyng for the mouyng of the water. 4 For an angel went downe at a certayne ſeaſon into the poole, and ſtirred the water: Whoſoeuer then firſte after the ſtirryng of the water ſtepped in, was made whole of whatſoeuer diſeaſe he had.

5 And a certayne man was there, which had ben diſeaſed thirtie & eyght yeres. 6 When Jeſus ſawe hym lye, and knewe that he nowe long tyme had ben diſeaſed, he ſayth vnto hym, Wylt thou be made whole?

7 The ſicke man aunſwered hym, Sir, I haue no man when the water is troubled to put me into the poole: but in the meane tyme whyle I am about to come, another ſteppeth downe before me. 8 Jeſus ſaith vnto hym, Ryſe, take vp thy bed, and walke. 9 And immediatly the man was made whole, and tooke vp his bed, and walked: And the ſame day was the ſabbath. 10 The Jewes therfore ſayd vnto hym that was made whole, It is the ſabbath day, it is not lawfull for thee to cary thy bed. 11 He aunſwered them, He that made me whole, ſaid vnto me, Take vp thy bed, & walke. 12 Then aſked they hym, What man is that whiche ſaide vnto thee, Take vp thy bed and walke? 13 And he that was healed, wiſte not who it was: for Jeſus had gotten him ſelfe away, becauſe there was preaſe of people in that place. 14 Afterwarde Jeſus found him in the temple, and ſayd vnto him, Behold, thou art made whole: ſinne

sinne no more, lest a worse thyng come vnto thee. 15 The man departed, and tolde the Iewes that it was Iesus whiche had made him whole. 16 And therefore did the Iewes persecute Iesus, & sought (the meanes) to slea him, because he had done these thynges on the sabbath daye. 17 And Iesus answered them, My father worketh hitherto, and I worke. 18 Therfore the Iewes sought the more to kyll hym, not onely because he had broken the sabbath, but sayde also that God was his father, and made him selfe equall with God. 19 Then answered Iesus and sayde vnto them. Verely verely I say vnto you, the sonne can do nothing of hym selfe, but that he seeth the father do: for whatsoeuer he doeth, that doeth the sonne also. 20 For the father loueth the sonne, and sheweth hym all thynges that he hym selfe doeth: and he will shewe hym greater workes then these, because ye should maruayle. 21 For likewise as the father rayseth vp the dead, and quickeneth them: euen so, the sonne quickeneth whom he will. 22 Neither iudgeth the father any man: but hath committed all iudgement vnto the sonne, 23 Because that al men should honour the sonne, euen as they honour the father: He that honoureth not the sonne (the same) honoureth not the father which hath sent hym.

24 Verely verely I say vnto you, he that heareth my worde, and beleueth on hym that sent me, hath euerlasting lyfe, and shall not come into dampnation: but is escaped from death vnto lyfe. 25 Verely verely I saye vnto you, the houre shal come, and nowe is, when the dead (b) shall heare the voyce of the sonne of God: and they that heare (c) shall liue. 26 For as the father hath lyfe in hym selfe: so lykewyse hath he geuen to the sonne to haue lyfe in hym selfe. 27 And hath geuen hym power also to iudge, because he is the sonne of man.

28 Maruayle not at this: for the houre shall come in the whiche al that are in the graues, shal heare his voice. 29 And shall come forth, they that haue done good, vnto the resurrection of lyfe, and they that haue done euyll, vnto the resurrection of dampnation.

30 I can of myne owne selfe do nothing: as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement is iust, because I seeke not myne owne will, but the will of the father whiche hath sent me. 31 If I shoulde beare witnesse of my selfe, my witnesse were not true. 32 There is another that beareth witnesse of me, and I am sure that the witnesse whiche he beareth of me is true.

33 Ye sent vnto Iohn, & he bare witnesse vnto the trueth. 34 But I receaue not the recorde of man: neuertheles, these thinges I saye that ye might be safe. 35 He was a burning and a shining light: and ye would for a season haue reioyced in his light.

36 But I haue greater witnesse then (the witnesse) of Iohn: for the workes whiche the father hath geuen me to finish, the same workes that I do, beare witnesse of me that the father hath sent me. 37 And the father him selfe which hath sent me, hath borne witnesse of me. Ye haue not heard his voyce at any time, nor seene his shape, 38 His worde haue ye not abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, hym ye beleue not. 39 Searche the scriptures, for in them ye thinke ye haue eternall lyfe: and they are they which testifie of me: 40 And yet wil ye not come to me, that ye myght haue lyfe.

41 I receaue not prayse of men.

42 But I knowe you that ye haue not the loue of god in you. 43 I am come in my fathers name, and ye receaue me not: if another come in his owne name, hym will ye receaue.

44 Howe can ye beleue, which receaue honour one of another, and seeke not the honour that commeth of god only.

45 Do not thinke that I will accuse you to my father: there is one that accuseth you, euen Moyses, in whom ye trust. 46 For had ye beleued Moyses, ye would haue beleued me: for he wrote of me. 47 But if ye beleue not his writinges, howe shal ye beleue my wordes?

Mat. 14.b. Mar. 6.b. Luk. 9.b.

7 Philip aunswered him, Two hundred (a) penyworth of bread are not sufficient for them, that euery man may take a litle. 8 One of his disciples, Andrewe, Simon Peters brother, sayth vnto hym, 9 There is a litle lad here whiche hath fiue barley loaues and two fisshes: but what are they among so many? 10 And Jesus sayde, Make the people sit downe. There was muche grasse in the place: So the men sate downe in number about fiue thousande. 11 And Jesus toke the bread, and when he had geuen thankes, he gaue to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set downe: and lykewyse of the fisshes as muche as they wolde. 12 When they had eaten enough, he sayde vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meate that remayneth, that nothyng be lost. 13 And they gathered it together, and fylled twelue basketes with the broken meate of the fyue barley loaues, whiche (broken meate) remayned vnto them that had eaten.

3. Reg. 4.g. (a) This sum amounteth to about fiue pounde sterlyng.

14 Then those men when they had seene the miracle that Jesus dyd, sayde, This is of a trueth the same prophete that shoulde come into the worlde. 15 When Jesus therefore perceaued that they woulde come and take hym, to make him kyng, he departed agayne into a mountayne hym selfe alone. 16 And when euen was nowe come, his disciples went downe vnto the sea. 17 And gate vp into a shippe, and went ouer the sea towardes Capernaum: And it was nowe darke, and Jesus was not come to them. 18 And the sea arose with a great wynde that blewe. 19 So, when they had rowed about .xxv. or xxx. furlonges, they sawe Jesus walkyng on the sea, and drawyng nye vnto the shippe: and they were afrayde.

20 But he sayth vnto them, It is I, be not afrayde. 21 And they willingly receaued him into the ship: and immediatly the shippe was at the lande whither they went. 22 The day folowyng, when the people which stoode on the other syde of the sea, sawe that there was none other ship there, saue that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not in with his disciples into the shippe, but that his disciples were gone (awaye) alone: 23 Howbeit there came other shippes from Tiberias nye vnto the place where they did eate bread, after that the Lorde had geuen thankes.

24 When the people therefore sawe that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also tooke shyppyng, and came to Capernaum, seekyng for Jesus. 25 And when they had found hym on the other syde of the sea, they sayde vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hyther? 26 Jesus aunswered them, and sayde, Verily verily I say vnto you, ye seeke me, not because ye sawe the miracles, but because ye dyd eate of the loaues, and were fylled. 27 Labour not for the meate which perisheth, but for that whiche endureth vnto euerlastyng lyfe, which (meate) the sonne of man shall geue vnto you: for hym hath God the father sealed. 28 Then saide they vnto hym, What shall we do that we myght worke the workes of God?

29 Jesus aunswered and sayde vnto them, This is the worke of God, that ye beleue on hym whom he hath sent.

30 They sayde therefore vnto hym, What signe shewest thou then, that we may see and beleue thee? What doest thou worke? 31 Our fathers did eate Manna in the desart, as it is written, He gaue them bread from heauen to eate. 32 Then Jesus sayde vnto them, Verily verily I say vnto you, Moyses gaue you not that bread from heauen: but my father geueth you the true bread from heauen. 33 For the bread of God, is he whiche commeth downe from heauen, and geueth lyfe vnto the worlde. 34 Then sayde they vnto hym, Lorde, euermore geue vs this bread. 35 And Jesus sayde vnto them, I am the bread of lyfe: he that commeth to me, shall not hunger: and he that beleueth on me, shall neuer thyrste.

40 And this is the wyll of hym that sent me, that euery one whiche seeth the sonne, and beleueth on hym hath euerlasting lyfe: and I wyll rayse him vp at the last daye. 41 The Iewes then murmured at hym, because he sayde, I am the bread (of lyfe) whiche came downe from heauen. 42 And they sayde, Is not this Iesus, the sonne of Ioseph, whose father & mother we knowe? howe is it then that he saith, I came downe from heauen?
43 Iesus aunswered and sayde vnto them, Murmure not among your selues. 44 No man can come to me, excepte the father whiche hath sent me, drawe hym: and I wyll rayse hym vp at the last daye. 45 It is written in the prophetes, And they shalbe all taught of God. Euery man therefore that hath hearde & hath learned of the father, commeth vnto me. 46 Not that any man hath seene the father, saue he which is of god, the same hath seene the father. 47 Verily verily I say vnto you, he that putteth his trust in me, hath euerlasting lyfe. 48 I am that bread of lyfe. 49 Your fathers did eate Manna in the wylderneſſe, & are dead. 50 This is that bread which commeth downe from heauen, that yf any man eate thereof, (he) should not dye. 51 I am that liuing bread which came downe from heauen: If any man eate of this bread, he shal liue for euer: and the bread that I wyll geue, is my flesche, which I wyll geue for the lyfe of the worlde. 52 The Iewes therfore stroue among them selues, saying, Howe can this (felowe) geue vs that flesche (of his) to eate? 53 Then Iesus sayde vnto them, Verily verily I say vnto you, except ye eate the flesh of the sonne of man, and drinke his blood, ye haue no life in you. 54 Who so eateth my flesche, and drinketh my blood, hath eternall lyfe, and I wyll rayse hym vp at the last day. 55 For my flesche is meate in deede, & my blood is drinke in deede. 56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in hym. 57 And the liuing father hath sent me, and I lyue by the father: euen so he that eateth me, shal liue by (the meanes of) me. 58 This is that bread whiche came downe from heauen: not as your fathers dyd eate Manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread, shall lyue euer.
59 These thinges sayd he in the synagogue as he taught, in Capernaum.
60 Many therefore of his disciples when they had heard (this,) sayd, This is an hard saying: who can abyde the hearing of it? 61 Iesus knew in hym selfe that his disciples murmured at it, & he said vnto them, Doth this offend you? 62 (what) and if ye shall see the sonne of man ascend vp thither where he was before? 63 It is the spirite that quickeneth, the flesche profiteth (a) nothing: The wordes that I speake vnto you, are spirite, and lyfe. 64 But there are some of you that beleue not. For Iesus knewe from the beginning which they were that beleued not, and who should betray hym. 65 And he sayde, Therefore sayde I vnto you that no man can come vnto me, except it were geuen vnto hym of my father.
66 From that time many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with hym. 67 Then sayde Iesus vnto the twelue, Wil ye also go away?
68 Then Simon Peter aunswered hym, Lorde, to whom shall we go? thou hast the wordes of eternall lyfe:
69 And we beleue and are sure that thou art Christ, the sonne of the liuing God. 70 Iesus aunswereth them, Haue not I chosen you twelue, & one of you is a deuill? 71 He spake of Iudas Iscariot (the sonne) of Simon: for he it was that shoulde betray him, beyng one of the twelue.

AFter these thinges Iesus went about in Galilee: for he woulde not go about in Iurie, because that the Iewes sought to kyll hym. 2 The Iewes feast of tabernacles (a) was at hande. 3 His brethren therfore said vnto hym, Get thee hence, and go into Iurie, that thy disciples also may see thy workes that thou doest. 4 For there is no man that doth any thing in secrete, and he hym selfe seeketh to be knowen openly: yf thou do suche thinges, shewe thy selfe to the worlde.
5 For his brethre beleued not in him.

IEsus went vnto mount Oliuete: 2 And early in the morynng he came agayne into the temple, and all the people came vnto him: and he sate downe and taught them. 3 And the Scribes and Pharisees brought vnto him a woman taken in adulterie, and when they had set her in the middes, 4 They sayde vnto him, Maister, this woman was taken in adulterie, euen as the deede was a doyng. 5 Moyses in the lawe commaunded vs that such shoulde be stoned: But what sayest thou? 6 This they sayde to tempt him, that they myght accuse him. But Jesus stowped downe, and with his finger he wrote on the grounde. 7 So when they continued asking him, he lyft vp him selfe, and sayde vnto them, Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her. 8 And agayne he stowped downe, and wrote on the grounde. 9 And when they heard this, (beyng accused of their owne consciences,) they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, euen vnto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standyng in the middes. 10 When Jesus had lyft vp hym selfe, and sawe no man but the woman, he sayde vnto her, Woman, where are those thyne accusers? Jesus aunswered, Ye neither knowe me, nor yet my father: if ye had knowen me, ye shoulde haue knowen my father also. 20 These wordes spake Jesus in the treasurie, as he taught in the temple: and no man layde handes on him, for his houre was not yet come. 21 Then sayde Jesus agayne vnto them, I go my way, and ye shall seeke me, and shal dye in your sinnes: Whyther I go, (thyther) can ye not come. 22 Then sayde the Jewes, Will he kyll him selfe because he sayth, Whyther I go, (thyther) can ye not come? 23 And he said vnto them, Ye are from beneath, I am from aboue: ye are of this worlde, I am not of this worlde. 24 I sayde therefore vnto you that you shall dye in your sinnes. And when I went and waſhed, I receaued (my) ſight. 12 Then ſayde they vnto him, Where is he? He ſayde, I can not tel. 13 They brought to the Phariſees him that a litle before was blinde.

Mat.12.a. Mar.ii.b. Luke.6.a. John.5.b. 14 And it was the ſabbath day when Jeſus made the claye, and opened his eyes. 15 Then agayne the Phariſees alſo aſked him how he had receaued his ſight: He ſayd vnto them, He put claye vpon myne eyes, and I waſhed, and do ſee. 16 Therefore ſayde ſome of the Phariſees, This man is not of God, becauſe he kepeth not the ſabbath day. Other ſayde, How can a man that is a ſinner do ſuch miracles? And there was a ſtryfe among them. 17 They ſpake vnto the blinde man againe, What ſayeſt thou of him, becauſe he hath opened thyne eyes? He ſayd, He is a prophete. 18 But the Jewes dyd not beleue the man how that he had ben blinde, and receaued his ſight, vntyll they called the father and mother of him that had receaued his ſight. 19 And they aſked them, ſaying, Is this your ſonne, whom ye ſay was borne blynde? how doth he nowe ſee then? 20 His father and mother aunſwered them, and ſayde, We knowe that this is our ſonne, and that he was borne blynde: 21 But by what meanes he nowe ſeeth, we can not tell: or who hath opened his eyes, can not we tel: he is olde inough, aſke hym, let him aunſwere for hym ſelfe. 22 Such wordes ſpake his father and mother, becauſe they feared the Jewes: for the Jewes had decreed alredy, that yf any man dyd confeſſe that he was Chriſt, he ſhould be excommunicate out of the ſynagogue. 23 Therefore ſayde his father and mother, He is olde inough, aſke him. 24 Then agayne called they the man that was blinde, and ſayde vnto him, Geue god the prayſe: we knowe that this man is a ſinner. 25 He aunſwered and ſayde, Whether he be a ſinner or no, I can not tell: one thing I am ſure of, that where as I was blynde, nowe I ſee. 26 Then ſayde they to him agayne, What dyd he to thee? how opened he thyne eyes? 27 He aunſwered them, I tolde you yer whyle, and ye dyd not heare: wherefore woulde ye heare it agayne? Wyll ye alſo be his diſciples? 28 Then rated they him, and ſayde, Be thou his diſciple: we are Moyſes diſciples.

29 We are ſure that God ſpake vnto Moyſes: as for this felowe, we knowe not from whence he is. 30 The man aunſwered, & ſayd vnto them, This is a marueylous thing that ye wote not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened myne eyes. 31 For we be ſure that God heareth not ſinners: but if any man be a worſhipper of God, and obedient vnto his wyll, him heareth he.

32 Sence the worlde began was it not hearde that any man opened the eyes of one that was borne blynde. 33 If this man were not of God, he coulde haue done nothing. 34 They aunſwered and ſaide vnto him, Thou art altogether borne in ſinne, and doeſt thou reache vs? And they caſt him out. 35 Jeſus heard that they had excommunicate him: and when he had founde hym, he ſayde vnto him, Doeſt thou beleue on the ſonne of God? 36 He aunſwered and ſaid, Who is he Lorde, that I might beleue on him? 37 And Jeſus ſayde vnto him, Thou haſt both ſeene him, and it is he that talketh with thee. 38 And he ſayde, Lorde, I beleue, and (b) he worſhipped him. 39 And Jeſus ſayde vnto him, I am come to iudgement in this worlde, that they which ſee not, might ſee: & that they whiche ſee, might be made blynde. 40 And ſome of the Phariſees whiche were with him heard theſe wordes, & ſaide vnto him, Are we blinde alſo? 41 Jeſus ſayde vnto them, yf ye were blynde, ye ſhoulde haue no ſinne: but nowe ye ſay, We ſee: therefore your ſinne remayneth.

1 Chriſte the true ſhepheарde and the doore. 34 Prynces called gods.

VEryly verily I ſay vnto you, he that entreth not in by the dooze into the ſheepefolde, but clymeth by ſome other way, the ſame is a theefe and a robber. 2 But he that entreth in by the dooze, is the ſhepheарde of the ſheepe. 3 To him the porter openeth, and the ſheepe heare his voyce, and he calleth his owne ſheepe by name, & leadeth them out. 4 And when he hath ſent forth his owne owne sheepe, he goeth before them, and the sheepe folowe him: for they knowe his voyce. 5 A straunger wyl they not folowe, but wyll flee from hym: for they knowe not the voyce of straungers. 6 This prouerbe spake Jesus vnto them: but they vnderstoode not what thinges they were which he spake vnto them. 7 Then sayde Jesus vnto them agayne, Verily verily I say vnto you, I am the dooze of the sheepe. 8 All (a) euen as many as came before me, are theeues and robbers: but the sheepe dyd not heare them. 9 I am the dooze: by me if any man enter in, he shalbe safe, & shal go in and out, and finde pasture.

10 A theefe commeth not but for to steale, kil, and to destroy: I am come that they might haue lyfe, and that they might haue it moze aboundauntly. 11 I am the good shepheard: A good shepheard geueth his lyfe for the sheepe. 12 An hyzelyng, and he whiche is not the shepheard, neither the sheepe are his owne, seeth the wolfe comming, & leaueth the sheepe, and fleeth: and the wolfe catcheth and scattereth the sheepe. 13 The hyzeling fleeth, because he is an hyzelyng, and carcth not for the sheepe. 14 I am the good shepheard, and know my sheepe, & am knowen of mine. 15 As the father knoweth me, euen so know I also the father: and I geue my lyfe for the sheepe. 16 And other (b) sheepe I haue, whiche are not of this folde: them also must I bzyng, and they shal heare my voyce, and there shalbe one folde, and one shepheard. 17 Therefore doth my father loue me, because I put my lyfe (from me,) that I might take it agayne. 18 No man taketh it from me, but I put it away of my selfe: I haue power to put it from me, and I haue power to take it agayne: This commaundement haue I receaued of my father. 19 There was a dissention therefore agayne among the Iewes for these sayinges.

20 And many of them saide, He hath the deuyll and is mad, why heare ye him? 21 Other saide, These are not the wordes of him that hath the deuill: Can the deuil open the eyes of the blynde? 22 And it was at Hierusalem the feast of the dedication, & it was winter: 23 And Jesus walked in the temple, euen in Solomons porche. 24 Then came the Iewes rounde about him, & saide vnto him, 29 Assoone as she heard that, she arose quickely, and came vnto him.

30 (Iesus was not yet come into the towne: but was in that place where Martha met him.) 31 The Iewes then whiche were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they sawe Marie that she rose vp hastyly and went out, folowed her, saying, E She goeth vnto the graue, to weepe there. 32 Then when Marie was come where Iesus was, & sawe him, she fell downe at his feete, and sayd vnto him, Lorde, yf thou haddest ben here, my brother had not ben dead.

And Iesus John.xii.d lyft vp his eyes, and sayde, Father I thanke thee that thou hast heard me. 42 Howebeit, I knowe that thou hearest me alwayes: but because of the people which stande by I sayde it, that they may beleue that thou John.v.b hast sent me. 43 And when he thus had spoken, he cryed with a loude voyce, Lazarus, come forth. 44 And he that was dead, came forth, bounde hande and foote with graue clothes,

48 If we let him scape thus, all men wyl beleue on him, and the Romanes (c) shall come, and take away both our roome and the people. 49 And one of them named Caiaphas, beyng the hye priest that same yere, sayde vnto them, Ye perceaue nothyng at all,

50 Nor consider that it is expedient for vs that one man dye for the people, and not that all the people perishe.

51 This spake he not of him selfe: but beyng hye priest that same yere, he prophesied that Jesus should dye for the people: 52 And not for the people only, but that he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abrode.

53 Then from that day forth, they toke counsell together for to put him to death. 54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jewes: but went his way thence vnto a countrey nye to a wyldernes, into a citie whiche is called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples. 55 And the Jewes Easter was nye at hande, and many went out of the countrey vp to Hierusalem before the Easter, to purifie them selues. 56 Then sought they for Jesus, & spake among them selues as they stoode in the temple, What thinke ye, seeyng he commeth not to the feast (day?)

57 The hye priestes and Pharisees had geuen a commaundement, that yf any man knewe where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

The .xii. Chapter.

1 Marie annointeth Iesus feete. 37 Wherfore the Iewes beleue not.

THen Jesus sixe dayes before the Passouer came to Bethanie, where Lazarus had ben dead, whō he raysed from death. 2 There they made him a supper, and Martha serued: but Lazarus was one of them that sate at the table with him.

3 Then toke Marie a pound of ointment of Spike narde very costly, and annoynted Jesus feete, & wyped his feete with her heere: and the house was fylled with the odour of the ointment. 4 Then sayde one of his disciples (euen) Judas Iscariot Simons (sonne) whiche should betraye him, 5 Why was not this ointment solde for three hundred pence, and geuen to the poore? 6 This he sayde, not that he cared for the poore: but because he was a theefe, and had the (a) bagge, and bare that which was geuen. 7 Then sayde Jesus, Let her alone, agaynst the day of my burying hath she kept this. 8 For the poore alwayes shall ye haue with you: but me haue ye not alwayes. 9 Much people of the Jewes therefore had knowledge that he was there: & they came not for Jesus sake onlye, but that they myght see Lazarus also, whom he raysed from death. 10 But the hye priestes helde a counsell that they might put Lazarus to death also. 11 Because that for his sake many of the Jewes went away, and beleued on Jesus. 12 On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus should come to Hierusalem,

13 Toke braunches of Palme trees, and went forth to meete him, and cryed, (b) Hosanna, Blessed is he that in the name of the Lorde commeth, kyng of Israel. 14 And Jesus gate a yong Asse, and sate thereon, as it is written, 15 Feare not daughter of Sion: beholde, Thy king commeth, sitting on an Asses coult. 16 These thinges vnderstoode not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembred they that such thinges were written of him, and that such thinges they had done vnto him.

17 The people that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his graue, and raysed him from death, bare recorde. 18 Therefore met him the people also, because they hearde that he had done such a miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore sayd among them selues, Perceaue ye how ye preuayle nothyng? Beholde (all the whole) worlde goeth after him.

20 There were certayne Grekes among the that came to worship at the feast: 21 The same came therefore to Philip, which (was) of Bethsaida (a citie) of Galilee, & desired him, saying, Sir, we would (fayne) see Jesus.

22 Philip came and tolde Andrewe: and agayne Andrewe & Philip tolde Jesus. 23 And Jesus aunswered them, saying, The houre is come that the sonne of man must be glorified.

24 Verily verily I say vnto you, except the wheate corne fall into the grounde, and dye, it abydeth alone: yf it dye, it bringeth forth much fruite.

25 He that loueth his lyfe, shall destroy it: and he that hateth his lyfe in this worlde, shall kepe it vnto lyfe eternall. 26 If any man minister vnto me, let him folowe me: and where I am, there shall also my minister be: If any man minister vnto me, him wyl my father honour. 27 Now is my soule troubled, and what shall I say? Father, saue me from this houre: but therefore came I into this houre.

28 Father, glorifie thy name. Then came there a voyce from heauen (saying,) I haue both glorified it, and wyll glorifie it agayne. 29 The people therefore that stoode by and heard it, sayde that it thundred: other sayde, An angell spake to him. 30 Jesus aunswered & sayde, This voyce came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Nowe is the iudgement of this worlde: nowe shall the prince of this worlde be cast out. 32 And I yf I were lyft vp from the earth, wyl draw all men vnto me. 33 (This he sayde, signifying what death he should dye.)

34 The people aunswered him, We haue heard out of the law that Christ abydeth euer: and how sayest thou, The sonne of man must be lift vp? Who is that sonne of man? 35 Then Jesus sayd vnto them, Yet a litle whyle is the light with you: walke whyle ye haue light, lest the darknesse come on you: For he that walketh in the darke, wotteth not whyther he goeth.

36 Whyle ye haue lyght, beleue on the lyght, that ye may be the children of the lyght. These thinges spake Jesus, and departed, and hyd him selfe from them. 37 But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet beleued not they on him: 38 That the saying of Esaias the prophete might be fulfilled, whiche he spake, Lorde, who shall beleue our saying? and to whom is the arme of the Lord declared? 39 Therefore could they not beleue, because that Esaias saith agayne, 40 He hath blynded their eyes, and hardened their heart, that they shoulde not see with their eyes, and lest they should vnderstande with their heart, and shoulde be conuerted, and I should heale them.

41 Such thinges said Esaias, when he sawe his glory, and spake of him.

42 Neuertheles, among the chiefe rulers also many beleued on him: but because of the Pharisees they dyd not confesse him, lest they shoulde be excommunicate. 43 For they loued the prayse of men more then the prayse of God. 44 Jesus cryed, and sayde, He that beleueth on me, beleueth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me. 46 I am come a lyght into the worlde, that whosoeuer beleueth on me, shoulde not bide in darknesse. 47 And yf any man heare my wordes, and beleue not, I iudge him not: For I came not to iudge the worlde, but to saue the worlde. 48 He that refuseth me, and receaueth not my wordes, hath one that iudgeth him: the worde that I haue spoken, the same shall iudge him in the last day. 49 For I haue not spoken of my selfe: but the father whiche sent me, he gaue me a commaundement what I should say, and what I should speake. 50 And I knowe that his commaundement is lyfe euerlasting: Whatsoeuer I speake therefore, euen as the father bad me, so I speake.

D on Jesus brest, sayde vnto him, Lorde, who is it? 26 Jesus aunswered, He it is to whom I geue a sop when I haue dipped it. And he wet the sop, and gaue it to Judas Iscariot, (the sonne) of Simon. 27 And after the sop, Satan entred into him: Then sayde Jesus vnto him, That thou doest, do quickly. 28 That wiste no man at the table for what intent he spake vnto him. 29 Some of them thought, because Judas had the bagge, that Jesus had sayde vnto him, Bye those thynges that we haue neede of agaynst the feast: or that he shoulde geue somethyng to the poore.

30 Assoone then as he had receaued the sop, he went immediatly out: and it was nyght. 31 Therfore when he was gone out, Jesus sayde, Nowe is the sonne of man glorified: and God is glorified in him. 32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in him selfe, and shall strayghtway glorifie him. 33 Litle children, yet a litle whyle am I with you. Ye shall seke me: and as I sayde vnto the Iewes, whyther I go (thyther) can ye not come: also to you say I nowe. 34 A newe commaundement geue I vnto you, That ye loue together, as I haue loued you, that euen so ye loue one another. 35 By this shall all men knowe that ye are my disciples, yf ye haue loue one to another. 36 Simon Peter sayde vnto him, Lorde, whyther goest thou? Jesus aunswered him, Whyther I go, thou canst not folowe me nowe: but thou shalt folowe me afterwardes.

37 Peter sayde vnto him, Lorde, why can not I folowe thee nowe? I wyll ieoparde my lyfe for thy sake. 38 Jesus aunswered him, Wylt thou ieoparde thy lyfe for my sake? Verily verily I say vnto thee, the Cocke shall not crowe, tyll thou haue denyed me thryse.

24 He that loueth me not, kepeth not my ſayinges: and the worde which ye heare, is not myne, but the fathers which ſent me. 25 Theſe thynges haue I ſpoken vnto you, beyng yet preſent with you. 26 But the comforter (which is) the holy ghoſt, whom the father will ſende in my name, he ſhall teache you all thinges, and bryng all thinges to your remembraunce whatſoeuer I haue ſayde vnto you. 27 Peace I leaue with you, my peace I geue vnto you: not as the worlde geueth, geue I vnto you: let not your heartes be greeued, neither feare. 28 Ye haue hearde howe I ſayde vnto you, I go away, and come agayne vnto you. If ye loued me, ye would verely reioyce becauſe I ſayde, I go vnto the father: for the father is greater then I. 29 And nowe haue I ſhewed you before it come: that when it is come to paſſe, ye myght beleue. 30 Hereafter will I not talke many wordes vnto you: for the (a) prince of this worlde commeth, and hath naught in (b) me. 31 But that the worlde may knowe that I loue the father: and as the father gaue me commaundement, euen ſo do I: Ryſe, let vs go hence.

10 If ye kepe my commaundementes, ye shall abyde in my loue: euen as I haue kept my fathers commaundementes, and abyde in his loue.
11 These thynges haue I spoken vnto you, that my ioy myght remayne in you, and that your ioy myght be full. 12 This is my commaundement, that ye loue together, as I haue loued you. 13 Greater loue hath no man then this: that a man bestowe his lyfe for his freendes. 14 Ye are my freendes, yf ye do whatsoeuer I commaunde you.
15 Henceforth call I not you seruauntes, for the seruaunt knoweth not what his lorde doth: but you haue I called freendes, for all (c) thynges that I haue hearde of my father, haue I made knowen to you. 16 Ye haue not chosen me, but I haue chosen you, and ordayned you to go and bryng forth fruite, and that your fruite shoulde remayne: that whatsoeuer ye aske of the father in my name, he may gene it you. 17 This commaunde I you, that ye loue together. 18 If the worlde hate you, ye knowe that it hated me before it hated you. 19 If ye were of the worlde, the worlde would loue his owne: howbeit, because ye are not of the worlde, but I haue chosen you out of the worlde, therefore the worlde hateth you. 20 Remember the worde that I sayde vnto you, The seruaunt is not greater then the Lorde: If they haue persecuted me, they will also persecute you: yf they haue kept my saying, they will kepe (d) yours also. 21 But all these thynges will they do vnto you for my names sake, because they haue not knowen him that sent me. 22 If I had not come, and spoken vnto them, they shoulde haue had no sinne: but nowe haue they nothyng to cloke their sinne withal. 23 He that hateth me, hateth my father also. 24 If I had not done among them the workes which none other man did, they shoulde haue had no (e) sinne: but nowe haue they both seene, and hated not only me, but also my father. 25 But (this commeth to passe, that the worde might be fulfylled that is written in their lawe, They hated me without a cause.

7 Of the holy ghost and his office. 17 Of Christes assention. 23 To aske in the name of Christe.

THese thynges haue I sayde vnto you, because ye shoulde not be offended. 2 They shall excommunicate you: yea the tyme shall come that whosoeuer killeth you, will thinke that he doth God seruice. 3 And such thynges will they do vnto you: because they haue not knowen the father neither yet me. 4 But these thynges haue I tolde you, that when the tyme is come, ye may remember then that I tolde you: These thynges sayd I not vnto you at the beginnyng, because I was present with you.

The. xvii. Chapter.

1 Christe prayeth to his father that their glorie might be made manifest.

THese wordes spake Jesus, and lift vp his eyes to heauen, and sayde, Father, the houre is come, glorifie thy sonne, that thy sonne also may glorifie thee: 2 As thou hast geuen him power ouer all fleshe, that he should geue eternal life to as many as thou hast geuen him. 3 This is lyfe eternall, that they myght knowe thee the only true God, & Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent. 4 I haue glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gauest me to do. 5 And nowe glorifie thou me O father with thyne owne selfe with the glorie which I had with thee yer the worlde was. 6 I haue declared thy name vnto the men(a) which thou gauest me out of the worlde: thyne they were, and thou gauest them me, and they haue kept thy worde.

7 Nowe they haue knowen that all thynges whatsoeuer thou hast geuen me, are of thee: 8 For I haue geuen vnto them the wordes which thou gauest me, and they haue receaued them, and haue knowen surely that I came out from thee, and they haue beleued that thou diddest sende me. 9 I pray for them, I pray not for the(b) worlde: but for them which thou hast geuen me, for they are thyne. 10 And all myne, are thyne, and thyne, are myne: and I am glorified in them.

11 And nowe am I not in the worlde, and they are in the worlde, and I come to thee. Holy father, kepe through thyne owne name them, which thou hast geuen me, that they may also be (c) one, as we are. 12 Whyle I was with them in the worlde, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gauest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but that (d) lost childe: that the scripture myght be fulfylled.

13 Nowe come I to thee, and these wordes speake I in the worlde, that they myght haue my ioy fulfylled in them selues. 14 I haue geuen them thy worde, and the worlde hath hated them, because they are not of the worlde, euen as I also am not of the worlde. 15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the worlde, but that thou kepe them from euyll.

Iesus saith vnto them, I am (he.) Then Pilate toke Jesus therefore and scourged him. 2 And the soulditers wound a crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, and they did on him a purple garment, 3 And sayd, Hayle kyng of the Jewes. And they stroke him with rodes. 4 Pilate went forth agayne, and sayde vnto them, Beholde I bryng him forth to you, that ye may knowe that I fynde no fault in him. 5 Then came Jesus forth, wearyng a crowne of thorne and a robe of purple: and (Pilate) saith vnto them, Beholde the man. 6 When the hye priestes therefore and officers sawe him, they cryed, saying, Crucifie him, crucifie him. Pilate saith vnto them, Take ye him and crucifie him: for I fynde no cause in him. 7 The Jewes aunswered him, We haue a lawe, and by our lawe he ought to dye: because he made him selfe the sonne of God. 8 When Pilate hearde that saying, he was the more afrayde. 9 And went agayne into the iudgement hall, and saith vnto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gaue him none aunswere. 10 Then sayde Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to loose thee? 11 Jesus aunswered, Thou couldest haue no power at all agaynst me, except it were genen thee from aboue: therefore he that deliuered me vnto thee, hath the more sinne. 12 And from thencefoorth sought Pilate (meanes) to loose him: but the Jewes cryed, saying, If thou let him go, thou art not Caesars freende: For whosoeuer maketh him selfe a kyng, speaketh agaynst Caesar. 13 When Pilate hearde that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and he sate downe in the iudgement seate, in a place that is called the pauement, but in the hebrue tongue Gabbatha. 14 It was the preparyng of the Passouer, and about the the sixth houre: and he saith vnto the Iewes, Beholde your kyng.

15 They cryed, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate saith vnto them, Shall I crucifie your kyng? The hie priestes answered, We haue no kyng but Caesar. 16 Then deliuered he him vnto them to be crucified: and they toke Iesus and led him away. 17 And (he) bare his crosse, and went forth into a place which is called the place of dead mens shulles, but in the hebrue Golgotha: 18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either syde one, and Iesus in the middes.
19 And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the crosse. The writyng was, Iesus of Nazareth, kyng of the Iewes. 20 This title read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified was nye to the citie. And it was written in Hebrue, and Greke, and Latine. 21 Then sayde the hye priestes of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not kyng of the Iewes: but that he sayde, I am kyng of the Iewes. 22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, that haue I written. 23 Then the souldiers when they had crucified Iesus, toke his garmentes (and made foure partes, to euery souldier a part) and also his coate: The coate was without seame, wouen from the toppe throughout.
24 They sayde therfore among them selues, Let vs not diuide it, but cast lottes for it who shall haue it. That the scriptures myght be fulfylled, saying, They parted my rayment among them, and for my coate dyd they cast lottes. And the souldiers dyd such thynges in deede. 25 There stoode by the crosse of Iesus his mother, and his mothers suster, Marie (the wyfe) of Cleophas, and Marie Magdalene. 26 When Iesus therefore sawe his mother and the disciple standyng by, whom he(a) loued, he saith vnto his mother, Woman, beholde thy sonne. 27 Then sayde he to the disciple, Beholde thy mother. And from that houre the disciple toke her vnto his owne. 28 After these thynges, Iesus knowyng that all thynges were nowe performed, that the scripture myght be fulfylled, he saith, I thirste. 29 So there stoode a vessell by full of vineger: therfore they fylled a sponge with vineger, and put it vpon hyssope, and put it to his mouth. 30 Assoone as Iesus then receaued of the vineger, he sayd, It is(b) finished: and bowed his head, and gaue vp the ghost. 31 The Iewes therfore, because it was the preparyng (of the sabbath) that the bodyes should not remayne vpon the crosse on the sabbath day (for that sabbath day, was an hye day) besought Pilate that their legges myght be broken, and that they myght be taken downe. 32 Then came the souldiers and(c) brake the legges of the first and of the other which was crucified with him. 33 But when they came to Iesus, and sawe that he was dead alredy, they brake not his legges.
34 But one of the souldiers with a speare thrust him into the syde, and foorthwith came there out blood and water. 35 And he that sawe it bare recorde, and his recorde is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye myght beleue (also.) 36 For these thynges were done that the scripture should be fulfylled, Ye shall not breake a bone of him. 37 And agayne another scripture saith, They shall loke on him whom they pearsed.
38 After this, Ioseph of Arimathea, (which was a disciple of Iesus, but secretely for feare of the Iewes) besought Pilate that he myght take downe the body of Iesus: and Pilate gaue him licence. He came therefore and toke the body of Iesus. 39 And there came also Nicodemus (which at the begynnyng came to Iesus by nyght) and brought of myrrhe and aloes myngled together about an hundred pounde (wayght.) 40 Then toke they the body of Iesus, and wounde it in lynnen clothes with the odours, as the maner of the Iewes is to bury. 41 And in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a newe sepulchre, wherin was neuer man yet layde. 42 There layde they Iesus therefore because of the preparyng (of the sabbath) of the Iewes: for the sepulchre was nye at hande.

¶ The. xx. Chapter.

1 Marie commeth to the sepulchre.
9 The apostles were ignorant of the resurrection.

The first day of the(a) sabbathes, came Marie Magdalene early when it was yet darke vnto the sepulchre, and sawe the stone taken away from the graue. 2 Then she ran, and and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loued, and saith vnto them, They haue taken away the Lorde out of the graue, and we can not tell where they haue layde him. 3 Peter therfore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre. 4 They ran both together, and the other disciple dyd outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

Luk. 24.a.

5 And when he had stowped downe, he sawe the lynnen clothes lying, yet went he not in. 6 Then came Simon Peter folowyng him, and went into the sepulchre, & saw the linnen clothes lye: 7 And the napkyn that was about his head not lying with the lynnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it selfe. 8 Then went in also that other disciple which came first to the sepulchre, and he sawe, and beleued. 9 For as yet they knewe not the scripture, that he shoulde rise agayne from death. 10 Then the disciples went away agayne vnto their owne house. 11 Marie stoode without at the sepulchre weepyng: So, as she wept, she bowed her selfe into the sepulchre, 12 And seeth two angels clothed in whyte, sittyng, the one at the head, and the other at the feete, where the body of Jesus was layde. 13 They say vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith vnto them, For they haue taken away my Lorde, and I wote not where they haue layde him. 14 When she had thus sayd, she turned her selfe backe, and sawe Jesus standyng, and knewe not that it was Jesus. 15 Jesus saith vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? Whom seekest thou? She supposyng that he had ben the gardener, saith vnto him, Sir, yf thou haue borne him hence, tell me where thou hast layde him, and I wyll fetche him. 16 Jesus saith vnto her, Marie. She turned her selfe, and sayde vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Maister. 17 Jesus saith vnto her, Touche(b) me not: for I am not yet ascended to my father: but go to my brethren, and say vnto them, I ascende vnto my father and your father, and to my God and your God. 18 Marie Magdalene came and tolde the disciples that she had seene the Lorde, and that he had spoken such thinges vnto her. 19 The same day at nyght, which was the first day of the * sabbathes, when the doores were shut where the disciples were assembled together for feare of the Jewes, came Jesus and stoode in the (c)middes, and saith vnto them, Peace be vnto you. 20 And when he had so sayde, he shewed vnto them his handes and his syde: Then were the disciples glad, when they sawe the Lorde. 21 Then sayd Jesus to them agayne, Peace be vnto you: As my father sent me, euen so sende I you also. 22 And when he had sayd those wordes, he breathed on them, and saith vnto them, Receaue ye the holy ghost. 23 Whosoeuers sinnes ye remit, they are remitted vnto them: and whosoeuers sinnes ye retayne, they are retayned. 24 But Thomas, one of the twelue, which is called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. 25 The other disciples therfore sayde vnto him, We haue seene the Lorde. But he sayde vnto them, Except I see in his handes the print of the nayles, and put my finger into the print of the nayles, and thrust my hande into his syde, I wyll not beleue. 26 And after eyght dayes agayne his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: Then came Jesus when the doores were shut, and stoode in the middes, and sayd, Peace be vnto you. 27 After that sayde he to Thomas, Byng thy finger hyther, and see my handes, and reache hyther thy hande, and thrust it into my syde, and be not faythlesse, but beleuyng.

28 Thomas aunswered and sayde vnto him, My Lorde, and my God.

29 Jesus saith vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene me, thou hast beleued: blessed are they that haue not seene, and yet haue beleued.

30 And many other signes truely dyd Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this booke. 31 These are written, that ye myght (d) beleue that Jesus is Christ the sonne of God, and that in beleuyng, ye myght haue lyfe through his name.

other of his disciples. 3 Simon Peter saith vnto them, I (wyll) go a fishing. They say vnto hym, We also will go with thee. They went their way, and entred into a ship immediatly, & that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was nowe come, Jesus stoode on the shore: nevertheless, the disciples knewe not that it was Jesus. 5 Jesus saith vnto them, "Chyldren, haue ye any meate? They aunswered hym, No.

6 And he saith vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall finde. They cast out therfore, and anone they were not able to drawe it for the multitude of fisshes.

7 Then sayde the disciple whom Jesus loued, vnto Peter, It is the lord. When Simon Peter hearde that it was the Lorde, he gyrde his coate vnto hym, (for he was naked) & sprang into the sea. 8 The other disciples came by ship (for they were not farre from lande, but as it were two hundred cubites) and they drewe the net with fisshes. 9 Assoone then as they were come to lande, they sawe whot coales, and fisshes layde theron, and bread. 10 Jesus saith vnto them, Bryng of the fisshe whiche ye haue nowe caught. 11 Simon Peter went vp, and drue the net to the lande full of great fisshes, an hundred and fiftie and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken. 12 Jesus saith vnto them, Come and dyne. And none of the disciples durst aske hym, Who art thou? for they knewe that it was the Lord. 13 Jesus then came and toke bread, and gaue them, and fisshe likewise.

C 14 This is nowe the thirde tyme that Jesus appeared to his disciples, after that he was risen agayne from death. 15 So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon "Joanna, louest thou me more then these? He sayd vnto hym, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He saith vnto hym, Feede my lammes.

16 He saith to hym agayne the seconde tyme, Simon Joanna, louest thou me? He saith vnto hym, Yea Lorde, thou knowest that I loue thee. He sayd vnto hym, Feede my sheepe.

17 He sayde vnto hym the thirde tyme, Simon Joanna, louest thou me? Peter was sory because he sayd vnto him the third tyme, Louest thou me? And he sayde vnto hym, Lorde, thou knowest all thinges, thou knowest that I loue thee. Jesus saith vnto hym, Feede my sheepe. 18 Verily verily I say vnto thee, when thou wast young, thou gyrdedst thy self, and walkedst whyther thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be olde, thou shalt stretche foorth thy handes, and another shall gyrde thee, and leade thee whyther thou wouldest not.

19 That spake he, signifying by what death he shoulde glorifie God. And when he had spoken this, he saith vnto him, Folow me. 20 Peter turned about, and saw the disciple whom Jesus loued, folowing, which also leaned on his brest at supper, and sayd, Lord, whiche is he that betrayeth thee?

D 21 When Peter therefore sawe hym, he saith to Jesus, Lorde, what shall he do? 22 Jesus saith vnto hym, If I wyll haue hym to tary tyll I come, what is that to thee? folowe thou me. 23 Then went this saying abrode among the brethren, that that disciple should not dye: yet Jesus sayde not to hym, He shall not dye: but, If I wyll that he tary tyll I come, what is that to thee? 24 The same disciple is he whiche testifieth of these thinges, and wrote these thinges: and we know that his testimonie is true. 25 There are also many other thinges which Jesus did, the whiche if they should be written euery one, I suppose the worlde could not contayne the bookes that should be written. Amen.

¶ The wordes of Christe and his angels, to the Apostles. 26 The election of Matthias.

A

N the former treatise O Theophilus, we haue spoken of all that Jesus began to do and teache,
2 Vntill the day in whiche he was taken vp, after that he thrugh the holy ghost had geuen commaundementes vnto the Apostles, whom he had chosen. 3 To whom also he shewed hym selfe alyue after his passion, and that by many tokens, appearing vnto them fourtie dayes, and speaking of the kyngdome of God.
4 And gathering (them) together, commaunded them that they shoulde not depart from Hierusalem, but wayte for the promise of the father, whereof (saith he) ye haue hearde of me.
5 For Iohn truely baptized with water, but ye shalbe baptized with the holy ghost, after these fewe dayes.
6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of hym, saying, Lorde, wylt thou at this tyme restore agayne the kyngdome to Israel?
7 And he saide vnto them, It is not for you to know the tymes or the seasons, whiche the father hath put in his owne power. 8 But ye shall receaue power, after that the holy ghost is come vpon you, and ye shalbe witnesses vnto me, both in Hierusalem, and in all Iurie, and in Samaria, and euen vnto the worldes ende. 9 And when he had spoken these thinges, whyle they beheld, he was taken vp an hye, and a cloude receaued hym vp out of their sight. 10 And whyle they looked stedfastly vp toward heauen, as he went, beholde, two men stoode by them in whyte apparell:
11 Whiche also sayd, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gasing vp into heauen? This same Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shal so come euen as ye haue seene hym go into heauen. 12 Then returned they vnto Hierusalem from the mount that is called Oliuete, which is from Hierusalem a sabbath dayes iourney.
13 And when they were come in, they went vp into a parlour where abode both Peter and James and John and Andrewe, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomewe & Matthewe, James (the sonne) of Alpheus, and Simon Zelotes, and Iudas (the brother) of James. 14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication with the women and Marie the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.
15 And in those dayes Peter stoode vp in the middes of the disciples, and sayd (The number of (a) names together were about an hundred & twentie.) 16 Ye men & brethren, the scripture must needes haue ben fulfilled, which the holy ghost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Judas, whiche was guyde to them that take Jesus:
17 For he was numbred with vs, and had obtayned felowship in this ministerie. 18 And the same hath nowe purchased a fielde with the reward of iniquitie: and when he was hanged, he burst a sunder in the middes, and all his bowels gushed out. 19 And it is knowen vnto all the dwellers at Hierusalem: insomuch that the same fielde is called in their mother tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, the blood fielde. 22 For it is written in the booke of psalmes, Let his habitation be desart, and no man be dwelling therein. And his bishopricke let another take.
21 Wherefore of these men whiche haue companied with vs all the tyme that the Lord Jesus went in and out (b) among vs, 22 Beginning from the baptisme of John, vnto that same day that he was taken vp from vs, must one be ordayned to be a witnesse with vs of his resurrection. 23 And they appoynted two, Joseph whiche is called Barsabas, whose surname was Justus, and Matthias. 24 And they prayed, saying, Thou Lorde whiche knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, 25 That he may take the roome of this ministerie and apostleship, from whyche Judas by transgression

¶The.ii. Chapter.

3 The holy ghost came vpon the Apostles in visible signes. 41 The godly exercise of the faythfull.

A NOw when the day of Pentecost was, they were all with one accorde in one (place:) 2 And sodenly there came a sounde from heauen as it had ben the comming of a mightie winde, and it filled all the house where they sate. 3 And there appeared vnto them clouen tongues, lyke as they had ben of fire, and (it) sate vpon eche one of them. 4 And they were al filled with the holy ghost, and began to speake with other tongues, as the spirite gaue them vtterance. 5 There were dwelling at Hierusalē Jewes, deuout men, out of euery nation (of them) that are vnder heauen. 6 When this was noysed about, the multitude came together, & were astonied, because that euery man heard them speake with his owne language. 7 They wondred all, and marueyled, saying among thē selues, Behold, are not al these which speake of Galilee? 8 And howe heare we euery man his owne tongue wherein we were borne? 9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Jurie, and in Capadocia, in Pontus and Asia, 10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parties of Lybia, whiche is beside Cyrene, and straungers of Rome, Jewes and (a) Proselytes, 11 Cretes and Arabians: we haue heard them speake in our tongues the wonderful workes of god. 12 They were all amased, & wondred, saying one to another, What meaneth this? 13 Other mocked, saying, These men are full of newe wine.

14 But Peter standing foorth with the eleuen, lift vp his voyce, and sayd vnto them, Ye men of Jurie, and all (ye) that dwell at Hierusalem, be this knowen vnto you, & with your eares heare my wordes. 15 For these are not dronken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the (b) thirde houre of the day. 16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophete Joel. 17 And it shalbe in the last dayes (saith God) of my spirite I will powre out vpon all flesche: and your sonnes and your daughters shall prophesie, and your young men shall see visions, and your olde men shall dreame dreames. Joel.ij.g. C

18 And on my seruauntes and on my handmaydens I will powre out of my spirite in those dayes, and they shall prophesie. Mat.27.b Luk.xxiii.f 19 And I wyl shew wonders in heauen aboue, and tokens in the earth beneath, blood, and fire, and the vapour of smoke.

20 The sunne shalbe turned into darknesse, and the moone into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lorde come. 21 And it shall come to passe, that whosoeuer shall call on the name of the Lorde, shalbe saued. Rom.x.b 22 Ye men of Israel, heare these wordes: Jesus of Nazareth, a man approued of God among you with miracles, wonders, and signes, which God dyd by hym in the middes of you, as ye your selues also knowe: b

23 Hym haue ye taken by the handes of vnrighteous persons, after he was deliuered by the determinate counsell and foreknowledge of God, and haue crucified and slayne hym.

24 Whom God hath raysed vp, and loosed the sorowes of death: because it was vnpossible that he shoulde be holden of it. 25 For Dauid speaketh of him, I saw the Lord alwayes set foorth before my face: for he is on my ryght hande, that I shoulde not be moued. Psal.xvi.f 26 Therefore did my heart reioyce, and my tongue was glad: moreouer also my flesche shall rest in hope: 27 Because thou wylt not leaue my soule in hell, neither wylt thou suffer thyne holy one to see corruption. 28 Thou hast shewed me the wayes of lyfe, thou shalt make me full of ioy with thy countenaunce.

29 Ye men and brethren, let me freely speake vnto you of the patriarche Dauid, for he is both dead and buryed, and his sepulchre remayneth with vs vnto this day? 30 Therefore, seeing he was a prophete, and knew that God had swoorne with an othe to hym, that Christe as concerning the flesche, shoulde come of the frute of his loynes, and shoulde sit on his seate: 31 He knowing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christe, that his soule shoulde not be left in hell, neither his flesche should see corruption. 32 This Jesus hath God raysed vp, whereof we all are witnesses. 3.Reg.ii.b. Act.i.a.

33 Then

(a) That is, such as were conuerted to the Iewes religion, and whose aunce tours were no Iewes.

(b) The Iewes count the houre of the day, from sixe of the clocke in the morning, to sixe at night. Therfore the thirde houre after the Iewes computation, is nine of the clocke.

33 Then ſince that he by the ryght hande of God was exalted, and hath receaued of the father the promiſe of the holy ghoſt, he hath ſhed foorth this whiche ye nowe ſee and heare.

Pſal.cx.a. Mat.xxij.d

34 For Dauid is not aſcended into heauen, but he ſaith, The Lorde ſayd to my Lorde, Sit thou on my ryght hande, 35 Vntyll I make thy foes thy footeſtoole. 36 Therfore let all the houſe of Iſrael know for a ſuretie, that God hath made that ſame Jeſus whom ye haue crucified, Lorde and Chriſte. 37 Nowe when they heard this, they were pricked in their heartes, and ſayd vnto Peter and vnto the other apoſtles, Ye men and brethren, what ſhal we do? 38 Then Peter ſayde vnto them, Repent, and be baptized euery one of you in the name of Jeſus Chriſte for the remiſſion of ſinnes, and ye ſhall receaue the gyft of the holy ghoſt. 39 For the promiſe was (made) vnto you and to your chyldren, and to al that are a farre of, euen as many as the Lorde God ſhall call.

Luke.xxj.b.

40 And with many other wordes dyd he witneſſe, and exhorted them, ſaying, Saue (your ſelues) from this vntoward generation. 41 Then they that gladly receaued his worde, were baptized: and the ſame day there were added (vnto them) about thre thouſand ſoules. 42 And they continued ſtedfaſtly in the apoſtles doctrine and fellowſhip, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. 43 And feare came vpon euery ſoule: and many wonders and ſignes were done by the apoſtles.

44 And all that beleued, kept them ſelues together, and had all thinges common: 45 And ſolde their poſſeſſions and goodes, and parted them to all men, as euery man had neede.

46 And they continued dayly with one accorde in the temple, and brake bread from houſe to houſe, and dyd eate their meate together with gladneſſe & ſingleneſſe of heart, 47 Prayſing God, and had fauour with all the people. And the Lorde added to the Churche dayly ſuche as ſhoulde be ſaued.

The.iii. Chapter.

7 The halt is reſtored to his feete. 12 Peter preacheth Chriſte vnto the people.

NOwe Peter and John went vp together into the temple, at the ninth houre of prayer. 2 And a certayne man that was lame from his mothers wombe was brought, whom they layde dayly at the gate of the temple which is called beautifull, to aſke almes of them that entred into the temple. 3 When he ſaw Peter and John that they would go into the temple, he deſired to receaue an almes.

4 And Peter faſtening his eyes vpon hym with John, ſayde, Looke on vs.

5 And he gaue heede vnto them, truſting to receaue ſomething of them.

6 Then ſayde Peter, Syluer and golde haue I none: but ſuche as I haue, geue I thee, In the name of Jeſus Chriſte of Nazareth ryſe vp and walke. 7 And he toke hym by the right hande, and lyft hym vp: and immediatly his feete and ancle bones receaued ſtrength. 8 And he ſprang, ſtoode, and walked, and entred with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and prayſing god. 9 And all the people ſaw hym walke, and prayſe God. 10 And they knewe hym, that it was he whiche ſate and begged at the beautifull gate of the temple: and they wondred, and were ſore aſtonied at that whiche had happened vnto him. 11 And as the lame whiche was healed helde Peter and John, all the people ranne amaſed vnto them in the porche that is called Solomons. 12 And when Peter ſawe that, he anſwered vnto the people, Ye men of Iſrael, why marualye ye at this? or why looke ye ſo on vs, as though by our owne power or (a) godlyneſſe we had made this man to go?

¶ The. iiii. Chapter.

7 The apostles are brought before the counsell. 32 The Church increaseth in doctrine and exercises of all godlynes.

Gen.xii.a. AND as they spake vnto the people, the priestes and the ruler of the temple, and the Saducees, came vpon them, 2 Taking it greeu-ously that they taught the people, and preached in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. 3 And they layde hands on them, and put them in holde vntyll the next day: for it was nowe euentide. 4 Howbeit, many of them whiche heard the worde, beleued: and the number of the men was about fiue thousande. 5 And it came to passe on the morow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, 6 And Annas the chiefe priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kinrede of the hye priestes, were gathered together at Exod.iij.c. Mat.xxi.c. Actes.viij.d Hierusalem. 7 And when they had set them before them, they asked, By what power, or in what name haue ye done this? 8 Then Peter full of the holy ghost, sayde vnto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, 9 If we this day be examined of the good deede done to the sicke man, by what meanes he is made whole: 10 Be it knowen vnto you Mat.i.e. Philip.ij.b all and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christe of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raysed agayne from the dead: euen by hym doth this man stande here before you whole. 11 This is the stone which was cast aside of you buylders, whiche is the head of the (a) corner:
(a) Christe is called the chiefe corner, or corner stone, because the Iewes & the Gentiles are ioyned together & buylded vpō him by fayth, and made one Churche.
12 Neither is there (b) saluation in any other: for among men vnder heauen, there is geuen none other name wherein we must be saued.
(b) Neyther saint nor angell, nor workes, nor ought els can saue, but Christ alone. C.
13 Nowe when they sawe the boldnesse of Peter and John, and vnder-stoode that they were vnlearned and lay men, they maruey led, & they knew them that they had ben with Jesu:
14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they coulde not say against it. 15 But commaunding them to go aside out of the counsell, and counseled among them selues, 16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for a manifest signe is done by them, and is openly knowen to all them that dwel in Hierusalem, and we can not deny it.
17 But that it be noysed no farther among the people, let vs threaten and charge them that they speake hence-foorth to no man in this name.
18 And they called them, & commaunded them that in no wise they shoulde speake nor teache in the name of Jesus. 19 But Peter & John answered, and sayde vnto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken vnto you more then to God, iudge ye.
Actes.v.g.
20 For we can not but speake that whiche we haue seene and hearde.
21 So threatned they them, and let them go, and founde nothing howe to punishe them, because of the people, for all men praysed God, because of that whiche was done. 22 For the man was about fourtie yeres olde, on whom this miracle of healyng was shewed. 23 Then assoone as they were let go, they came to their felowes, and shewed all that the hye priestes & elders had sayd vnto them.
W Actes.iiij.b
24 And when they hearde that, they lift vp their voyces to God with one accorde, and said, Lord, thou art God whiche hast made heauen & earth, the sea, and al that in them is: 25 Which Psal.ij.a. by the mouth of thy seruaunt Dauid hast sayde, Why did the heathen rage, E

& the people imagine vayne thinges?
26 The kynges of the earth stoode vp, and the rulers came together against the Lord, & against his Christe.
27 And of a trueth against thy holy childe Jesus whom thou hast annoin-ted, both Herode and also Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, gathered them selues together, 28 For to do whatsoeuer thy hande and thy counsell determined before to be done. 29 And nowe Lord, beholde their threatninges, and graunt vnto thy seruauntes, that with all boldnesse they may speake thy worde, 30 So that thou stretche F foorth thyne hande, that healing, and signes, and wonders, be done by the Act.xvi.f. name of thy holy childe Jesus.
Actes.ii.g. 31 And assoone as they had prayed, the place moued where they were assembled together, and they were all filled with the holy ghost, and they spake the worde of God boldly.
32 And the multitude of them that beleued, were of one heart, and of one soule: neither sayd any of them, that ought of the thinges which he possessed was his owne: but they had all Act.ii.g. thinges common. 33 And with great power gaue the apostles wit-nesse of the resurrection of the Lorde Jesu: and great grace was with them G all. 34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessers of landes or houses, solde them, and brought the price of the thinges that were sold, 35 And layde it downe at the apostles feete:
and distribution was made vnto euery
Actes.vi.d. man according as he had neede.
36 And Joses, whiche was also called of the apostles Barnabas (that is to say, if ye interprete it, the sonne of consolation) beyng a Leuite, and of the countrey of Cypers, 37 When he had land, solde it, and layde the money downe at the apostles feete.

a possession, 2 And kept away (part) of the price, his wyfe also being of counsell: and brought a certayne part, and layde it downe at the apostles feete. 3 But Peter sayde, Ananias, how is it that Satan hath filled thyne heart, that thou shouldest lye vnto the holy ghost, and kepe away (part) of the price of the lande?
4 Whyles it remayned, was it not thyne owne? and after it was solde was it not in thyne owne power?
why hast thou conceiued this thing in thyne heart? thou hast not lyed vnto men, but vnto God. 5 When Ananias heard these wordes, he fell downe, and gaue vp the ghost. And great feare came on all them that heard these thinges. 6 And the young men rose vp, and put hym a part, and caryed hym out, and buryed hym.
7 And it came to passe, that as it B after, his wife came in, ignorannt of that whiche was done. 8 And Peter saide vnto her, Tell me, solde ye not the lande for so much? And she sayd, yea for so much. 9 Then Peter said vnto her, Why haue ye agreed together to tempt the spirite of the Lorde? beholde, the feete of them whiche haue buryed thy husbande, are at the doore, and shall cary thee out.

10 Then fell she downe straightwaye at his feete, and yeelded vp the ghost:
And the young men came in, & founde her dead, and caryed her out, and buryed her by her husbande. 11 And great feare came vpon al the Church, thinges. 12 And by the handes of the Mat.xvii.d.

they heaꝛde that, they entred into the temple early in the mooꝛning, and taught. But the chiefe pꝛiest came and they that were with hym, and called a counsell together and all the el-to the pryson to fetch them. 22 But when the officers came, and founde them not in the pryson, they returned, and told, 25 Saying, The pryson truly founde we shut with all diligence, and the keepers standing without befoꝛe the dooꝛes: but when we had o-

24 Then when the chiefe pꝛiest and doubted of them wheꝛeunto this woulde growe. 25 Then came one that, they claue a sunder, and sought meanes to slea them. 34 Then stoode there vp one in the counsell a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctour of lawe, had in reputation among all the people, and commaunded the apostles to go aside a litle space, 35 And sayde vnto them, Ye men of Israel, take heede to youꝛ selues what ye en-tende to do as touching these men.

36 Foꝛ befoꝛe these dayes ꝛose vp whom ꝛesoꝛted a number of men, about a foure hundꝛed: whiche was to naught. 37 After this man aꝛose vp one Judas of Galilee in the dayes of tribute, and dꝛue away much people after him: he also peꝛished, and all, euen as many as heaꝛkened to hym, were scattered abꝛode. 38 And nowe

I say vnto you, ꝛefꝛayne youꝛ selues fꝛom these men, and let them alone:

of men, it wyll come to naught.

39 But & if it be of God, ye can not destꝛoy it, lest haply ye be founde to stꝛiue against God. 40 And to hym agreed the other: And when they had called the apostles, they beat them, Actes.iiij.d and commaunded that they should not speake in the name of Jesu, & let them go. 41 And they departed fꝛom the 8 And Steuen ful of fayth and power, dyd great wonders and miracles among the people. 9 Then there arose certayne of the (a) synagogue, whiche is called (the synagogue) of the Libertines, & Cyrenians, and of Alexandria, & of Cilicia, and of Asia, disputing with Steuen: 10 And they coulde not resist the wysdome and the spirite by the whiche he spake.

11 Then they priuily prepared men, whiche sayd, We haue heard (b) hym speake blasphemous wordes against Moyses, and against God. 12 And they moued the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came vpon hym, and caught hym, and brought him to the counsell: 13 And brought forth false witnesses whiche sayde, This man ceaseth not to speake blasphemous wordes against this holy place, and the law. 14 For we heard hym say, that this Iesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall chaunge the ordinaunces whiche Moyses gaue vs. 15 And all that sate in the counsell, looking stedfastly on hym, saw his face as it had ben the face of an angell.

Then sayde the chiefe priest, Are these thinges so? 2 And he said, Ye men, brethren, and fathers, hearken: The God of glory appeared vnto our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran, 3 And sayde vnto hym, Get thee out of thy countrey, and from thy kinrede, and come into the lande whiche I shall shewe thee.

5 And he gaue hym none inheritaunce in it, no not the breadth of a foote: and promised that he would geue it to hym to possesse, and to his seede after hym, when as yet he had no childe. 6 God verily spake on this wyse, that his seede should sojourne in a straunge lande, and that they should kepe it in bondage, and entreate them euyll foure hundred (a) yeres. 7 And the nation to whom they shalbe in bondage, will I iudge, sayde God: and after that shall they come forth, and serue me in this place. 8 And he gaue hym the couenaunt of circumcision: & so (Abraham) begat Isahac, and circumcised hym the eyght day: and Isahac (begat) Jacob, and Jacob (begat) the twelue patriarkes. 9 And the patriarkes moued with enuie, solde Joseph into Egypt, & God was with hym, 10 And deliuered hym out of all his aduersities, and gaue hym fauour and wysedome in the sight of Pharao kyng of Egypt: and he made hym gouernour ouer Egypt, and (ouer) all his housholde. 11 But there came a dearth ouer all the lande of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: that our fathers found no sustenaunce. 12 But when Jacob hearde that there was corne in Egypt, he sent our fathers first. 13 And at the seconde (tyme) Joseph was knowen of his brethren, and Josephes kinrede was made knowen vnto Pharao. 14 Then sent Joseph and caused his father Jacob to be brought, and all his kin, threescore and fiftеene soules. 15 And Jacob descended into Egypt, and dyed, both he and our fathers, 16 And were caryed ouer into Sichem, and layde in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for (b) money of the sonnes of Emor the sonne of Sichem. 17 But when the tyme of the promise drue nye, whiche God had sworne to Abraham, the people grewe and multiplyed in Egypt: 18 Tyll another kyng arose, whiche knewe not of Joseph.

(b) Here appeareth an errour. For Abraham seemeth to be put in the text in the steede of Iacob. For Iacob bought the sepulchre of Emor, and not Abrahā, who bought before a feld of Ephron.

Exod.ij.a, Hebr.xi.c. D

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kinrede, and euyll intreated our fathers, and made them cast out their young children that they shoulde not remayne alyue. 20 The same tyme was Moyses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, and nourished vp in his fathers house three monethes.

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaos daughter toke hym vp, & nourished him for her owne sonne. 22 And Moyses was learned in all maner of wysdome of the Egyptians, and was mightie in deedes and in wordes.

23 And when he was full fourtie yeres olde, it came into his heart to visite his brethren the children of Israel. 24 And when he sawe one of them suffer wrong, he defended hym, and auenged his quarell that had the harme harme done to him, and smote the Egyptian. 24 For he supposed his brethren woulde haue vnderstande howe that God by his hande shoulde deliuer them: but they vnderstoode not.

26 And the next day he shewed hym selfe vnto them as they stroue, and woulde haue set them at one agayne, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren: why do ye wrong one to another? 27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a iudge ouer vs?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday? 29 Then fled Moyses at that saying, and was a straunger in the lande of Madian, where he begat two sonnes. 30 And when .xl. yeres were expired, there appeared to () him in the wyldernesse of mount Sina an angel of the lord in a flame of fire in a bushe. 31 When Moyses sawe it, he wondred at the syght: & as he drue neare to beholde, the voyce of the lorde came vnto hym,

32 (Saying) I (am) the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isahac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moyses trembled, and durst not beholde. 33 Then sayde the Lord to him, Put of thy shoes from thy feete: for the place where thou standest, is holy grounde. 34 I haue seene, I haue seene the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I haue hearde their groning, and am come downe to deliuer them: And nowe come, & I wil send thee into Egypt. 35 This Moyses whom they forsooke, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a iudge? the same dyd God send to be a ruler and a deliuerer, by the handes of the angel whiche appeared to hym in the bushe.

36 He brought them out, shewyng wonders & signes in Egypt, and in the red sea, and in the wildernes .xl. yeres.

37 This is that Moyses which sayd vnto the children of Israel, A prophet shal the lorde your God raise vp vnto you of your brethren, lyke vnto me: him shal ye heare. 38 This is he that was in the Church in the wildernesse, with the angel whiche spake to hym in the mount Sinai, and with our fathers: this man receaued the word of lyfe to geue vnto vs. 39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust (him) from them, and in their hartes turned backe agayne into Egypt,

40 Saying vnto Aaron, Make vs gods to go before vs. For as for this Moyses that brought vs out of the lande of Egypt, we wote not what is become of hym. 41 And they made a calfe in those dayes, & offred sacrifice vnto the idol: and reioyced ouer the workes of their owne handes.

42 Then God turned him selfe away, and gaue them vp to worship the hoast of heauen, as it is written in the booke of the prophetes, O ye house of Israel, haue ye offered to me (c) slayne beastes & sacrifices by the space of .xl. yeres in the wyldernesse? 43 Yea ye toke vnto you the tabernacle of Moloch, and the starre of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: & I will cary you away beyonde Babylon. 44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witnesse in the wyldernes, as he had appoynted speaking vnto Moyses that he shoulde make it accordyng to the fashion that he had seene: 45 Which also our fathers that came after brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drane out before the face of our fathers, vnto the dayes of Dauid, 46 Which founde fauour before God, & woulde fayne haue found a tabernacle for the god of Jacob. 47 But Solomon buylt him an house. 48 Howbe it, he that is hyest of all dwelleth not in temples made with handes, as sayth the prophet, 49 Heauen is my seate, and earth is my footestoole: What house wil ye builde for me, saith the Lorde? Or which is the place of my rest? 50 Hath not my hand made all these thynges? 51 Ye stifnecked & of vncircumcised heartes and eares, ye haue alwayes resisted the holy ghost, as your fathers did (so) do ye.

52 Which of the prophetes haue not your fathers persecuted? The. viii. Chapter.

4 The apostles are scattered abrode.
38 Philip baptizeth the Eunuch.

AND Saul consented vnto his death: And at that time there was a great persecution agaynst the Churche whiche was at Hierusalem, and they were all scattered abrode throughout the regions of Iurie and Samaria, except the apostles. 2 And deuout men were carefull together touching Steuen, and made great lamentation ouer him. 3 As for Saul he made hauocke of the Churche, and entred into euery house, and dzewe out both men and women, and put (them) into pryson. 4 Therefore they that were scattered abrode, went enery where preachyng the worde of God.

5 Then came Philip into the citie of Samaria, and preached Christe vnto them. 6 And the people gaue heede vnto those thynges whiche Philip spake with one accorde, hearyng and seeyng the miracles whiche he dyd.

7 For vncleane spirites crying with loude voyce, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with paulses, and many that halted, were healed. 8 And there was great ioy in that citie. 9 But there was a certayne man called Simon, which beforetyme in the same citie vsed witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying that he was a man that coulde do great thynges: 10 Whom they regarded from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And him they set much by, because that of long tyme he had bewitched them with sorceries. 12 But alsoone as they gaue credence to Philips preaching of the kingdome of god, and of the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. 13 Then Simon him selfe beleued also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondred, beholding the miracles & signes which were shewed. 14 When the apostles which were at Hierusalem hearde say that Samaria had receaued the worde of god, they sent vnto them Peter and John. 15 Whiche when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they myght receaue the holy ghost.

16 (For as yet he was come downe vpon none of them, but they were baptized (a) only in the name of Christ Jesu.) 17 Then laid they their handes on them, and they receaued the holy ghost. 18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles handes the holy ghost was geuen, he offred them money, 19 Saying, Geue me also this power, that on whomsoeuer I put the handes, he may receaue the holy ghost. 20 But Peter sayde vnto hym, Thy money perysshe with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be obtayned with money. 21 Thou hast neither part nor felowship in this busines: for thy heart is not vright in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickednes, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgeuen thee: 23 For I perceaue that thou art in the (b) gal of bitternes, & wrapped in (c) iniquitie. 24 Then answered Simon and said, Pray ye to the lorde for me, that none of (these thinges) whiche ye haue haue spoken, fall on me.

25 And they, when they had testified & preached the word of the lord, returned toward Hierusalem, and preached the gospel in many townes of the Samaritanes. 26 And the angel of the lord spake vnto Philip, saying, Arise, and go towarde the south, vnto the way that goeth downe from Hierusalem vnto Gaza: whiche is desart.

27 And he arose, and went on: and beholde a man of Ethiopia an Eunuch, and of great auctorite with Candace Queene of the Ethiopians, and had the rule of all her treasure, came to Hierusalem for to worship.

28 And as he returned home agayne sitting in his charet, he read Esaias the prophete. 29 Then the spirite sayd vnto Philip, Go neare, and ioyne thy selfe to yonder charet. 30 And Philip ran thither to hym, and heard him reade the prophete Esaias, & said, Vnderstandest thou what thou readest? 31 And he sayde, Howe can I, except I had a guyde? And he desired Philip that he would come vp, and sit with

AND Saul (a) yet brethyng out threatninges and slaughter agaynst the disciples of the Lorde, went vnto the hye priest, and desired of him letters (to cary) to Damascus to the synagogues: that yf he founde any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bryng them bounde vnto Jerusalem. 3 And when he iourneyed, it came to passe, that as he was come nye to Damascus, sodenly there shyned rounde about him a lyght from heauen,

Luk. iii.b. Act ii.f.

And the Lorde sayde vnto hym, Aryse, and go into the citie, and it shalbe told thee what thou must do. 7 The men also which iourneyed with him stoode amased, (b) hearing a voyce, but seeing no man. 8 And Saul arose from the earth, and when he opened his eyes he sawe no man: but they led him by the hand, & brought hym into Damascus. 9 And he was three dayes without syght, and neyther dyd eate nor drinke. 10 And there was a certaine disciple at Damascus named Ananias: and to him sayde the Lorde in a vision, Ananias. And he sayde, Beholde, I (am here) Lorde. 11 And the Lorde sayde vnto hym, Aryse, and go into the streete whiche is called Strayght, and seeke in the house of Judas after one called Saul of Tarsus: for beholde he prayeth, 12 And hath seene in a vision a man named Ananias comming in to hym, & putting his handes on hym, that he myght receaue his syght. 13 Then Ananias aunswered, Lorde, I haue hearde by many of this man, howe muche euyll he hath done to thy saintes at Jerusalem: 14 And here he hath auctoritie of the hye priestes to binde all that call on thy name. 15 The Lorde sayde vnto hym, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessell vnto me, to beare my name before the gentiles, and kinges, and the chyldren of Israel. 16 For I wyll shewe hym howe great thynges he must suffer for my names sake.

(b) No marueil though weake and corruptible flesshe was amased at heauenly things, and at the talke of God, whereby it came to passe that they heard a voice, as here is written, and hearde no voyce as is written in the. 22. Chapter: For they hearde a voyce, and vnderstoode it not.

17 And Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, & put his handes on hym, and sayde, Brother Saul, the Lorde (euen Jesus that appeared vnto thee in the way as thou camest) hath sent me that thou myghtest receaue thy syght, and be fylled with the holy ghost. 18 And immediatly there fell from his eyes as it had ben scales, and he receaued syght foorthwith, and arose, and was baptized, 19 And receaued meate, and was comforted. Then was Saul certayne dayes with the disciples whiche were at Damascus.

20 And strayghtway he preached Christ in the synagogues that he was the sonne of God. 21 But all that heard him were amased, and sayd, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hyther for that intent, that he might bryng them bounde vnto the hye priestes? 22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Iewes which dwelt at Damascus, affirmyng that this was very Christe.

23 And after that many dayes were fulfylled, the Iewes tooke counsel together to kill him. 24 But theyr layeng awayte was knowen of Saul: And they watched the gates day and nyght to kyll hym. 25 Then the disciples tooke hym by nyght, and put hym thrugh the wall, and let hym downe in a basket. 26 And when Saul was come to Hierusalem, he assayde to couple hym selfe to the disciples: but they were all afrayde of hym, and beleued not that he was a disciple. 27 But Barnabas tooke hym, and brought hym to the apostles, and declared to them howe he had seene the Lorde in the way, and howe he had done boldely at Damascus in the name of Iesus. 28 And he had his conuersation with them at Hierusalem, 29 Speakyng boldly in the name of the Lord Iesus, and he spake and disputed agaynst the Grekes: but they went about to slea hym. 30 Which when the brethren knewe, they brought hym to Cesarea, and sent hym forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest throughout all Iurie, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lord, and multiplied by the comfort of the holy ghost. 32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, he came also to the saintes which dwelt at Lydda. 33 And there he founde a certayne man named Eneas, which had kept his bed eyght yeres, and was sicke of the palsie. 34 And Peter sayde vnto hym, Eneas, Iesus Christe make thee whole: aryse, and make thy bed. And he arose immediatly. 35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron sawe hym, and turned to the Lord. 36 There was also at Ioppa a certaine woman, a disciple, named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called (c) Dorcas: the same was full of good workes and almes deedes whiche she dyd. 37 And it came to passe in those dayes that she was sicke, and dyed: Whom when they had washed, they layde her in an vpper chaumber. 38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nye to Ioppa, and the disciples had hearde that Peter was there, they sent vnto hym two men, desyryng hym that he would not be greeued to come vnto them.

THere was a certayne man in Cesarea, called Cornelius, a captayn of the bande called the Italian bande, 2 A deuout man, and one that feared God, with all his houshold, which gaue much almes to the people: and prayed God alway. 3 The same sawe by a vision euidently about the .ix. houre of the day, an angell of God comming in to him, and saying vnto him, Cornelius. 4 And when he loked on him, he was afrayde, and sayde, What is it Lorde? And he sayde vnto him, Thy a) prayers and thyne almes are come vp into remembraunce before god. 5 And now send men to Ioppa, and cal for one Simon, whose surname is Peter. 6 He is lodged with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea syde: He shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do. 7 And when the angel which spake vnto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his houshold seruauntes, and a deuout souldier of them that wayted on hym,

And his chaynes fell of from his handes. 8 And the angel sayde vnto hym, Gyrde thy selfe, and bynde on thy sandales. And so he dyd: And he saith vnto hym, Cast thy garment about thee, and folowe me.

9 And (Peter) came out and followed hym, and wyst not that it was truely whiche was done by the angel: but thought he had seene a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the seconde watche, they came to the yron gate that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by the owne accorde: And they went out, and passed throughe one streate, and forthwith the angel departed from hym. 11 And when Peter was come to hym selfe, he sayde, Nowe I knowe of a suertie that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath deliuered me out of the hande of Herode, and from all the waytyng for of the people of the Iewes. 12 And as he considered (the thyng,) he came to the house of Marie the mother of John, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together in prayer. 13 As Peter knocked at the entrie doore, a damsell came forth to hearken, named Rhoda. 14 And when she knewe Peters voyce, she opened not the doore for gladnesse, but ran in, and tolde howe Peter stoode before the doore. 15 And they sayde vnto her, Thou art mad. But she affirmed that it was euen so. Then sayde they, It is his (a) angel. 16 But Peter continued knockyng: And when they had opened the doore and sawe hym, they were astonyed. 17 And when he had beckened vnto them with the hande that they myght holde their peace, he tolde them by what meanes the Lorde had brought hym out of the prysion: and he sayde, Go shewe these thynges vnto Iames and to the brethren. And he departed and went into another place. 18 Nowe assoone as it was day, there was no litle adoe among the souldiers, what was become of Peter. 19 And when Herode had sought for hym, and founde hym not, he examined the keepers, and commaunded them to be caryed away. And he descended from Iurie to Ceasarea, and there abode.

20 And Herode was displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came all with one accorde to hym, and made intercession to Blastus the kynges chaumberlayne, and desyred peace, because their countrey was nourished by the kyng. 21 And vpon a day appointed, Herode arayed hym in royall apparell, and set hym in his seate, and made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gaue a shoute, (saying,) It is the voyce of a God, and not of a man. 23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote hym, because he gaue not God the honour: and he was eaten of (b) wormes, and gaue vp the ghost. 24 And the worde of God grewe & multiplied. 25 And Barnabas & Saul returned to Hierusalem when they had fulfylled their office, and tooke with them John whose surname was Marke.

bas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manahen whiche had ben nourished vp with Herode the tetrarch, and Saul. 2 As they ministred to the Lord and fasted, the holy ghost sayde, Separate me Barnabas & Saul for the worke wherunto I haue called them. 3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and layde their handes on them, they let them go. 4 And they after they were sent forth of the holy ghost, departed into Celencia, and from thence they sayled to Cyprus. 5 And when they were at Salamine, they preached the worde of God in the synagogues of the Iewes: and they had also John to their minister. 6 And when they had gone through the Ile vnto Paphos, they founde a certayne sorcerer a false prophete, a Iewe, whose name was Barieſu: 7 Whiche was with the deputie of the countrey, one Sergius Paulus a prudent man: the same called vnto hym Barnabas and Saul, and desired to heare the worde of God. 8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstoode them, and sought to turne the deputie away from the faith.

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) beyng full of the holy ghost, set his eyes on hym, 10 And sayde, O full of all subtiltie and all mischiefe, thou childe of the deuill, thou enemie of all ryghteousnesse, wylt thou not ceasse to peruert the ryghte wayes of the Lorde? 11 And nowe beholde the hande of the Lorde is vpon thee, and thou shalt be blynde, and not see the sunne for a season. And immediatly there fell on hym a miste and a darknesse, and he went about seekyng (them) that shoulde leade hym by the hande. 12 Then the deputie when he sawe what was done, beleued, and wondred at the doctrine of the Lorde.

13 Nowe when they that were with Paul were departed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departed from them, and returned to Hierusalem. 14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sate downe. 15 And after the lecture of the lawe and the prophetes, the rulers of the synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, yf ye haue any worde to exhort the people, say on. 16 Then Paul stoode vp, and beckened with the hande for scilence, and sayde, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, geue audience. 17 The god of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people, when they dwelt as straungers in the lande of Egypt, and with an hye arme brought he them out of it. 18 And about the tyme of fourtie yeres suffered he their maners in the wyldernesse. 19 And he destroyed seuen nations in the lande of Chanaan, and diuided their lande to them by lot.

20 And afterwarde he gaue vnto them iudges about the space of foure hundred and fyftie yeres, vnto the tyme of Samuel the prophete.

21 And afterward they desired a king, and God gaue vnto them Saul the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Beniamin, by the space of .xl. yeres. 22 And when he was put downe, he set vp Dauid to be their kyng, of whom he repoxted, saying, I haue founde Dauid (the sonne) of Jesse, a man after myne owne heart, whiche shall fulfyll all my will. 23 Of this mans seede, hath God accordyng to his promise brought vnto Israel the sauiour Jesus, 24 When John had first preached before his comming the baptisme of repentaunce to all the people of Israel. 25 And when John had fulfylled his course, he said, Whom ye thinke that I am, the same am I not: but beholde, there commeth one after me, whose shoes of his feete I am not worthy to loose.

26 Ye men and brethren, children of the generation of Abraham, and whosoeuer among you feareth God, to you is the worde of this saluation sent. 27 For they that dwell at Hierusalem, and their rulers, because they knewe hym not, nor yet the voyces of the prophetes whiche are read euery sabbath day, they haue fulfylled them in condemnyng hym: 28 And though they founde no cause of death in hym, yet desyred they Pilate to kill hym. 29 And when they had fulfylled all that were written of hym, they toke him downe from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre. 30 But God rayſed hym agayne from the dead:

42 And when they were gone out of the synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentiles besought that they would preache these wordes to them the next sabbath. 43 Nowe when the congregation was broken vp, many of the Iewes and deuout proselytes folowed Paul and Barnabas, which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God. 44 And the next sabbath day came almost the whole citie together to heare the worde of God. 45 But when the Iewes sawe the people they were ful of indignation, & spake agaynst those thinges which were spoken of Paul, speakyng agaynst, and raylyng.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bolde, and sayde, It was meete that the worde of God shoulde first haue ben spoken to you: but seeyng ye put it from you, and thinke your selues vnworthy of euerlasting lyfe, lo, we turne to the Gentiles. 47 For so hath the Lorde commaunded vs (saying,) I haue made thee a lyght of the Gentiles, that thou be the saluation vnto the ende of the worlde. 48 And when the Gentiles hearde this, they were glad, and glorified the worde of the Lorde: and as many as were ordayned to eternall lyfe beleued.

49 And the worde of the Lorde was published throughout all the region. 50 But the Iewes moued the deuout and honest women, and the chiefemen of the citie, and rayled persecution agaynst Paul & Barnabas, & expelled them out of their coastes. 51 But they shooke of the dust of their (c) feete agaynst them, and came vnto Iconium. 52 And the disciples were filled with ioy, & with the holy ghost.

AND it came to passe in Iconium that they went both together into the synagogue of the Iewes, & so spake that a great multitude both of the Iewes and also of the Grekes beleued. 2 But the vnbeleuing Iewes stirred vp and corrupted the myndes of the Gentiles agaynst the brethren. 3 Long time therefore abode they there, and quit them selues boldely with the helpe of the Lorde, which gaue testimonie vnto the word of his grace, and graunted signes and wonders to be done by their handes. 4 But the multitude of the citie (a) was diuided: & part helde with the Iewes, and part with the Apostles. 5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles & also of the Iewes with their rulers, to do them violence & to stone them, 6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and vnto the region that lyeth rounde about: 7 And there preached the (b) gospel. 8 And there sate a certayne man at Lystra weake in his feete, beyng a creeple from his mothers wombe, and neuer had walked. 9 The same heard Paul speake: which beholding hym, and perceauyng that he had fayth to be whole, 10 Sayde with a loude voyce, Stande vp ryght on thy feete. And he start vp, and walked. 11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lyft vp their voyces, saying in the speache of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the lykenes of men. 12 And they called Barnabas Jupiter, and Paul Mercurius, because he was the chiefe speaker.

13 Then Jupiters priest, which was before their citie, brought oxen and garlandes.

The .xv. Chapter.

1 The decree of the Apostles concernyng circumcision. 35 Paul and Barnabas preache in Antioch.

AND certayne men whiche came downe from Iurie, taught the brethren (and sayd,) Except ye be circumcised after the maner of Moyses, ye can not be saued. 2 So when there was rysen dissention and disputing not a litle vnto Paul and Barnabas agaynst them, they determined that Paul & Barnabas, and certayne other of them, shoulde go vp to Hierusalem vnto the apostles and elders, about this question. 3 And after they were brought on their way by the Church, they passed through Phenices and Samaria, declaring the conuersation of the gentiles: and they brought great ioy vnto all the brethren. 4 And when they were come to Hierusalem, they were receaued of the Churche, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all thinges that God had done with them.

John.13.b.

(a) He meaneth the holy lawe, and not the ceremonies only, and calleth it a yoke not able to be borne, because no man, nor the most hyest and perfect that euer was (Christe only excepted) was able to perfourme the same in all poyntes, both outwardly accordyng to the letter, and inwardly accordyng to the spirite.

10 Nowe therefore why tempt ye God, to put on the disciples neckes the (a) yoke, which neither our fathers nor we were able to beare? 11 But we beleue that through the grace of the Lorde Jesu Christe we shalbe saued, euen as they. 12 Then all the multitude was stilent, and gaue audience to Barnabas and Paul, whiche tolde what signes and wonders God had shewed among the gentiles by them. 13 And when they helde their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken vnto me. 14 Simeon tolde how God at the beginning did viste, to receaue of the gentiles a people in his name.

15 And to this agree the wordes of the prophetes, as it is written, 16 After this I wyll returne, and wyll build a-gayne the (b) tabernacle of Dauid which is fallen downe: & that whiche is fallen in decay of it, wil I builde athe residue of men might seeke after whom my name is called: sayth the Lorde, whiche doth all these thinges.

18 Knowen vnto GOD are (all) his workes from the beginning of the world. 19 Wherfore my sentence is, that we trouble not them which from amõg the gentiles are turned to god:
20 But that we write vnto them that they abstaine them selues from filthinesse of idols, and from fornication, and from strangled, and from blood.
21 For Moyses of olde tyme hath in euery citie them that preache him in the synagogues, when he is read eue-ry sabbath day. 22 Then pleased it the apostles & elders with the whole Churche, to send chosen men of their owne company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: (That is) Judas whose surname was Barsabas, and Silas, which were chiefe men among the brethren, 23 And wrote letters by them after this maner, The apostles & elders and brethrẽ, send greetinges vnto the brethren whiche are of the gentiles in Antiochia, Syria, & Cilicia.
24 Forasmuch as we haue heard that certaine whiche departed frõ vs, haue troubled you with wordes, and cumbred your mindes, saying ye must be circumcised, and kepe the lawe, to whom we gaue no such commaunde-ment: 25 It seemed therfore to vs a good thing, when we were come together with one accorde, to sende chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul, 26 Men that haue ieoparded their liues for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27 We haue sent therfore Judas and Silas, which shall also tel you the same thinges by mouth. 28 For it seemed good to the holy ghost and to vs, to charge you with no more then these necessarye thinges, 29 (That is to say) That ye abstaine from thinges offred to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication: from whiche
if ye kepe your selues, ye shal do wel.
So fare ye wel. 30 Now therefore when they were departed, they came to Antioch: & gathered the multitude together, and deliuered the epistle.
31 Which when they had read, they reioyced of the consolation. 32 And Judas and Silas beyng prophetes, exhorted the brethren with many wordes, and strengthed them. 33 And after they had taryed (there) a space, they were let go in peace of the brethren vnto the apostles. 34 Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to a-byde there still. 35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the worde of the Lorde with other many. 36 But after a certayne space Paul sayde vnto Barnabas, Let vs go agayne and visite our brethren in euery citie where we haue shewed the word of the lord, F and knowe (and see) how they do.
37 And Barnabas gaue counsell to take with them John, whose surname not take him vnto their companye, which departed frõ them from Pamphylia, & went not with them to the worke. 39 And (c) the contention was so sharpe betweene them, that they departed a sunder one from the other: & so Barnabas toke Marke, & sayled vnto Cyprus. 40 And Paul chose Silas & departed, beyng committed of the brethren vnto the grace of god. 41 And he went throughe Cy-ria and Cilicia, stablishing the Churches.

And she constrayned vs. 16 And it came to passe as he went to prayer, a certayne damsell possessed with a spirite of (a) soothsaying, met vs: whiche brought her masters much auantage with soothsaying. 17 The same followed Paul and vs, and cryed, saying, These men are the seruauntes of the most hye God, whiche shewe vnto vs the way of saluation. 18 And this dyd she many dayes: But Paul not content, turned about and sayde to the spirite, I commaunde thee in the name of Jesu Christe, that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre. 19 And when her masters sawe that the hope of their gaynes was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drewe them into the market place, vnto the rulers, 20 And brought them to the officers, saying, These men trouble our citie beyng Jewes: 21 And preache ordinaunces whiche are not lawfull for vs to receaue, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romanes. 22 And the people ranne agaynst them: and the officers rent their clothes, and commaunded them to be beaten with roddes. 2.Cor.11.f.

26 And sodenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and immediatly all the doores opened, and euery mans bandes were loosed. 27 Whe the keeper of the prison waked out of his sleepe, and sawe the prison doores open, he drue out his swoorde and would haue kylled him selfe, supposing that the prisoners had beē fled. 28 But Paul cryed with a loud voyce, saying, Do thy selfe no harme: for we are all here. 29 Then he cal called for a lyght, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell downe before Paul & Silas: 30 And brought them out, and sayde, Syrs, what must I do to be saued? 31 And they saide, Beleue on the Lorde Jesus Christe, and thou shalt be saued and thy householde. 32 And they spake vnto him the worde of the Lorde, and to all that were in his house. 33 And (he) toke them the same houre of the nyght, and washed their woundes, and was baptized him selfe, and all they (of his household) strayghtway. The .xvii. Chapter.

1 Paul commeth to Thessalonica, where A the Iewes set the citie in an vprore.

AS they made their tourney thorowe Amphipolis & Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul as his maner was, went Luke.24.g. in vnto them, & three sabbath dayes disputed (with them) out of the scriptures, 3 Opening and alleaging that Actes.28.f. Christe must needes haue suffred, and risen agayne from the dead: and that this is Christ Iesus which I preache to you. 4 And some of them beleued, and toyned with Paul and Silas, and of the deuout Grekes a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a fewe. 5 But the Iewes which beleued not, moued with enuie, toke vnto them certayne vagaboundes and euill men, and gathered a company, and set al the citie on a roze: and made assault vnto the house of Iason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they founde them not, they drue Iason & certayne brethren vnto the heades of the citie, crying, These that trouble the worlde, are come hither also, 7 Whom Iason hath receaued (priuily:) and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, (a) saying that there is another king (one) Iesus. 8 And they troubled the people and the officers of the citie, when they heard these thinges.

9 And when they were sufficiently aunswered of Iason, and of the other, they let them go. 10 And the brethren immediatly sent away Paul and Silas by nyght vnto Berea: Whiche when they were come thyther, they entred into the synagogue of the Iewes. 11 These were the noblest of birth among them of Thessalonica, which receaued the worde with all redynesse of minde, and searched the scriptures dayly, whether those thinges were so. 12 Therefore many of them beleued: also of honest women which were Grekes, and of men not a fewe. 13 But when the Iewes of Thessalonica had knowledge that the worde of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thyther and moued the people.

14 And then immediatly the brethren sent away Paul, to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still. 15 And they that guided Paul, brought him vnto Athens, and receaued a commaundement vnto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with speede, and went their way. 16 Whyle Paul wayted for them at Athens, his spirite was moued in him, when he sawe the citie geuen to worshipping of idols.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Iewes and with the deuout persons, and in the market dayly with them that came vnto him by chaunce. 18 Then certayne philosophers of the (b) Epicures, & of the (c) Stoickes disputed with him: and some sayde, What will this babler say? Other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of newe gods: because he preached vnto them Iesus and the resurrection. 19 And they toke him, and brought him into Marte streete, saying, May we not know what this newe doctrine whereof thou speakest is? 20 For thou bringest certayne straunge thinges to our eares: We would knowe therefore what these thinges meane. 21 (For al the Athenians and straungers whiche were there, gaue them selues to nothing els, but eyther to tell or to heare some newe thing.) 22 Then Paul stoode in the middes of Marte streete, and sayde, Ye men of Athens, I perceaue that in all thinges ye are to superstitious. 23 For as I passed by and beheld the maner how ye worship your gods, I founde an auter, wherin was written, Vnto the vnknowen God. Whom ye then ignorauntly worship, him shewe I vnto you. 24 God that made the worlde, and all that are in it, seeyng that he is Lorde of heauen and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with handes: 25 Neither is worshipped with mens handes, as though he needed of any thing, seeyng he him selfe geueth lyfe & breath to all euery where: 26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men, for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the tymes before appoynted: and also the boundes of their habitation:

(a) Like quarell piking they vsed against Christ. And these be the weapons whereby the world continually fighteth against the members of Christe: treason and sedition.

(b) The Epicures were a sect of learned men, which (being without the knowledge of god) helde opinion, that there was no lyfe or ioye after this life, but that all mans felicitie did consist in the pleasures of this worlde.

(c) The Stoickes were an other kynde of learned men, whiche lykewyse wantyng the knowledge of God, affirmed that mans whole felicitie and happinesse dyd consist in the qualities and vertues of the mynde.

27 That they ſhoulde ſeeke the Lorde, if perhappes they might haue felt and founde him: though he be not farre from euery one of vs. 28 For in him we lyue, and moue, and haue our beyng: as certayne of your owne poetes ſayde, For we are alſo his ofſpryng. 29 Foraſmuch then as we are the (d) offſpring of God, we ought not to thinke that the Godhead is lyke vnto golde, ſiluer, or ſtone, grauen by art and mans deuice. 30 And the tyme of this ignorauunce god winked at, but nowe biddeth all men euery where to repent: 31 Becauſe he hath appoynted a day in the which he wyll iudge the worlde in righteouſneſſe, by that man by whom he hath appointed, and hath offered fayth to all men, in that he hath rayſed hym from the dead. 32 And when they heard of the reſurrection from the dead, ſome mocked: and other ſayde, We wyll heare thee agayne of this matter. 33 So Paul departed from among them. 34 Howbeit certayne men claue vnto him, and beleued: among the which was Dionys Areopagita, and a woman named Damaris, and other with them.

(d) The Apoſtle termeth vs the ofſpring of god, not that we be of the ſubſtaunce and nature of god, but becauſe god hath created vs, and by his ſonne Ieſus Chriſte hath redeemed vs, and made vs his chyldren by adoption.

The .xviii. Chapter.

3 Paul preacheth at Corinth. 24 Of Apollo, 26 Aquila and Priſcilla.

AFter theſe thinges Paul departed from Athens, & came to Corinth. 2 And founde a certayne Iewe named Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italie with his wife Priſcilla (becauſe that Claudius had commaunded all Iewes to depart from Rome) and he came vnto them. 3 And becauſe he was of the ſame craft, he abode with them, and wrought (for their craft was to make tentes.) 4 And he diſputed in the ſynagogue euery ſabbath, and exhorted the Iewes and the Grekes. 5 And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was conſtrayned by the ſpirite to teſtifie to the Iewes that Ieſus was Chriſt.

6 And when they ſayde contrary and blaſphemed, he ſhooke his rayment, and ſaid vnto them, your blood be (a) vpon your owne heades: from henceforth wyll I go blameleſſe vnto the gentiles. 7 And he departed thence, and entred into a certayne mans houſe named Iuſtus, a worſhipper of God, whoſe houſe toyned harde to the ſynagogue. 8 And one Criſpus the cheefe ruler of the ſynagogue beleued on the Lorde with all his houſholde: and many of the Corinthians hearyng, beleued, and were baptized. 9 Then ſpake the Lorde to Paul in the nyght by a viſion, Be not afrayde, but ſpeake, and holde not thy peace. 10 For I am with thee, and no man ſhall inuade thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this citie. 11 And he continued there a yere and ſixe monethes, and taught the worde of God among them.

12 And when Gallio was the deputie of Achaia, the Iewes made inſurrection with one accorde agaynſt Paul, and brought him to the iudgement ſeate, 13 Saying, This felowe counſelleth men to worſhip God contrary to the lawe. 14 And when Paul nowe was about to open his mouth, Gallio ſayde vnto the Iewes, Yf it were a matter of wrong, or an euyl deede, O ye Iewes, reaſon would that I ſhoulde beare with you: 15 But yf it be a queſtion of wordes and names, or of your law, looke yee to it your ſelues: for I will be no iudge of ſuch matters. 16 And he draue them from the iudgement ſeate.

17 Then all the Grekes toke Soſthenes the cheefe ruler of the ſynagogue, and ſmote him before the iudgement ſeate: and Gallio cared for none of thoſe thinges. 18 And Paul after this tarryed (there) yet a good whyle, and then toke his leaue of the brethren, and ſayled thence into Syria, (Aquila and Priſcilla accompanying him) And he (b) ſhaue his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vowe. 19 And he came to Epheſus, & left them there: but he him ſelfe entred into the ſynagogue, and reaſoned with the Iewes.

(b) Cenchrea is a hauen at Corinth, where Paul taking ſhip dyd ſheare his head, accordyng to his vowe. For accordyng to the lawe of Moyſes, they that vowed them ſelues to god, were commaunded to ſuffer their heere to growe, as long as they would continue Nazarites, and afterwarde to ſheare it, and to burne it. This dyd Paul, not forgetting what he had before decreed with the Apoſtles, touchyng the abolifhing of the lawe: but leſt the Iewes which beleued ſhould be offended, he fayned hym ſelfe a Iewe to wyn the Iewes.

20 When they deſired him to tary longer tyme with them, he conſented not: 21 But bade them farewell, ſaying, I muſt needes at this feaſt that commeth be in Hieruſalem: but I wyll returne agayne vnto you yf God wyll: And he ſayled from Epheſus. 22 And when he was come vnto Ceſarea, and aſcended vp * and ſaluted the Churche, he went to Antiochе. 23 And when he had tarryed there a whyle, he departed, and went ouer all the countrey of Galatia and Phrygia by order, ſtrengthyng all the diſciples. 24 And a certayne Iewe named Apollos, borne at Alexandria, came to Epheſus, an eloquent man, and mightie in the scriptures.

25 The same was informed in the way of the Lord, and spake feruently in the spirite, & taught diligently the thinges of the Lorde, and knewe but the baptisme of John only: 26 And the same began to speake boldly in the synagogue. Whom when Aquila and Priscilla had hearde, they toke him vnto them, & (c) expounded vnto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to go into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receaue him: Whiche when he was come, helped the much which had beleued through grace. 28 For he ouercame the Iewes mightily, and that openly, shewyng by the scriptures that Iesus was Christe.

(c) Apollos beyng a wittie & a learned man, was not ashamed to be taught and instructed in the doctrine of Christe, of a poore craftes man and his wyfe.

(a) By the holy ghost, here he meaneth the visible graces of the holy spirite.

(b) By this place, Iohns baptisme signifieth Iohns doctrine: which therefore is so called, for that he sealed his doctrine with the seale of baptisme in them that beleued.

(c) They that were baptized, were not baptized with water, beyng before baptized of John with water: but they were baptized with visible gistes of the holy ghost, which saint Luke declaryng howe it was, writeth that it vvas by the laying on of saint Paules handes.

The .xix Chapter.

3 Of baptisme, 6 Of the holy ghost geuen by Paules handes.

AND it came to passe, that whyle Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the vpper coastes, & came to Ephesus, & found certayne disciples, 2 And sayde vnto them, Haue ye receaued the (a) holy ghost sence ye beleued? And they sayde vnto him, We haue not hearde whether there be any holy ghost or no. 3 And he said vnto them, Vnto what then were ye baptized? And they sayd, Vnto (b) Iohns baptisme. 4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptisme of repentaunce, saying vnto the people, that they shoulde beleue on him which should come after him, that is, on Christe Iesus. 5 When they heard this, they were baptized in (c) the name of the lord Iesus. 6 And when Paul had laide his handes vpon them, the holy ghost came on them, and they spake with tongues, & prophesied. 7 And all the men were about twelue. 8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three monethes, disputing & perswadyng those thinges that (appertayne) to the kingdome of God.

9 But when diuers waxed hard hearted, & beleued not, but spake euyll of the way (of the Lorde) and that before the multitude, he departed frō them, and separated the disciples: and he disputed dayly in the scoole of one called Tyrannus. 10 And this continued by the space of two yeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the worde of the Lord Iesus, both Iewes and Grekes. 11 And God wrought speciall miracles by the handes of Paul: 12 So that from his body were brought vnto the sicke, napkins, and partlettes, & the diseases departed from them, and the euyll spirites went out of them. 13 Then certayne of the vagabounde Iewes exorcistes toke vppon them to call ouer them which had euyll spirites the name of the Lorde Iesus, saying, We adiure you by Iesus whom Paul preacheth. 14 And there was seuen sonnes of one Sceua a Iewe, and cheefe of the priestes, which did so. 15 And the euyll spirite aunswered, and sayd, Iesus I knowe, and Paul I knowe: but who are ye? 16 And the man in whō the euyll spirite was, ranne on them, and ouercame them, and preuayled agaynst them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was knowen to all the Iewes and Grekes also which dwelt at Ephesus, and feare came on them all, and the name of the Lorde Iesus was magnified. 18 And many that beleued, came, and confessed and shewed their workes. 19 Many also of them whiche vsed curious crafres, brought their bookes, & burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and founde it fiftie thousande peeces of siluer. 20 So mightyly grewe the worde of god, and preuayled. 21 After these thinges were ended, Paul purposed in the spirite when he had passed ouer Macedonia & Achaia, to go to Hierusalem, saying, After I haue ben there, I must also see Rome. 22 So sent he into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but he him selfe remayned in Asia for a seasō. 23 And the same time there arose no litle a do about that way. 24 For a certayne man named Demetrius, a siluer smith which made siluer shrines for Diana, was not a little beneficiall vnto the craftes men:

25 Whom he called together, with the workemen of lyke occupation, and sayde, Sirs, ye knowe that by this craft we haue aduauntage.

26 Moreouer, ye see and heare that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia this Paul hath perswaded and turned away much people, saying that they be not gods whiche are made with handes.

27 So that not onlye this our craft cõmeth into peril to be set at naught: but also that the temple of the great goddesse Diana shoulde be despised, and her magnificence shoulde be destroyed, whom all Asia and the worlde worshippeth. 28 And when they heard these sayinges, they were ful of wrath, and cryed out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians. 29 And al the citie was on a roze, and they rusched into the common hall with one assent, and caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paules cõpanions. 30 When Paul woulde haue entred in vnto the people, the disciples suffred him not. 31 But certayne of the chiefe of Asia which were his freendes, sent vnto him, desyring him that he woulde not prease into the common hall. 32 Some therfore cryed one thing, and some another: and the assembly was out of quiet, and the more part knewe not wherefore they were come together.

37 For ye haue brought hyther these men, whiche are neither robbers of Churches, nor yet despisers of your goddesse. 38 Wherfore yf Demetrius & the crafte men whiche are with him, haue a matter against any man, the law is open, & there are deputies, let them accuse one another. 39 But yf ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shalbe determined in a lawful assembly. 40 For we are in ieopardy to be accused of this dayes vproze, forasmuch as ther is no cause wherebp we may geue a reckening of this concourse of people. 41 And when he had thus spoken, he let the assemblie depart.

Miletum. 16 For Paul had determined to sayle ouer by Ephesus, because he wolde not spende the tyme in Asia: for he hasted, yf it were possible for him, to kepe at Hierusalem the day of Pentecost. 17 And from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the Churche.

18 Which when they were come to him, he sayde vnto them, Ye knowe from the first day that I came into Asia, after what maner I haue ben with you at all seasons, 19 Seruyng the Lorde with all humblenesse of mynde, & with many teares & temptations, which came vnto me by the layinges awayte of the Iewes: 20 And howe I kept backe nothyng that was profitable vnto you, but haue shewed you, & haue taught you openly and throughout euery house: 21 Witnessyng both to the Iewes and also to the Grekes the repentaunce that is towarde God, and the fayth which is towarde our Lorde Jesus. 22 And nowe beholde, I go bounde (a) in the spirite vnto Hierusalem, not knowing the thynges that shall come vnto me: 23 But that the holy ghost witnesseth in euery citie, saying that bondes and troubles abyde me. 24 But none of these thynges moue me, neither is my lyfe deare vnto my selfe, so that I might fulfyll my course with ioy, and the ministerie which I haue receaued of the Lorde Jesu, to testifie the Gospel of the grace of God. 25 And now beholde, I am sure that henceforth ye all through whom I haue gone preachyng the kingdome of God, shall see my face no more. 26 Wherfore I take you to recorde this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I haue kept nothyng backe, but haue shewed you all the counsell of God. 28 Take heede therfore vnto your selues and to all the flocke, ouer the which the holy ghost hath made you ouerseers, to rule the Church of God, which he hath purchased (b) with his owne blood.

29 For I knowe this, that after my departyng shall greeuous wolues enter in among you, not sparyng the flocke. 30 Also of your owne selues shall men aryse speakyng peruerse thynges, to (c) drawe disciples after them. 31 Therefore watch, and remember that by the space of three yeres I ceased not to warne euery one nyght and day with teares.

32 And nowe brethren I commende you to God, and to the worde of his grace, which is able to builde further, and to geue you an inheritaunce among all them which are sanctified. F

33 I haue desired no mans syluer, golde, or vesture. 34 Yea, ye your selues knowe, that these handes haue ministred vnto my necessities, and to them that were with me. 35 I haue shewed you all thynges, howe that so labouryng ye ought to receaue the weake, and to remember the wordes of the Lorde Jesu (howe that he sayd) It is more blessed to geue, then to receaue. 36 And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled downe, and prayed with them all. 37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Paules necke, and kissed him, 38 Sorowyng most of all for the wordes which he spake, that they should see his face no more: And they accompanyed him vnto the ship.

5 And when the dayes were ended, we departed, and went our way, and they all broughte vs on our way, with wiues and children, tyll we were come out of the citie: And we kneeled downe in the more, and prayed.

for I am redy not to be bounde only, but also to dye at Hierusalem for the name of the Lord Iesus. 14 And whē we coulde not turne his mynde, we ceassed, saying, The wyll of the Lorde be fulfylled. 15 And after those dayes we toke vp our burthens, and went vp to Hierusalem. 16 There went with vs also (certayne) of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an olde disciple, with whom we should lodge. 17 And when we were come to Hierusalem, the brethren receaued vs gladly.
18 And on the morowe Paul went in with vs vnto (a) Iames, and all the elders came together. 19 And when he had saluted them, he tolde by order all thinges that God had wrought among the gentiles by his ministerie.
20 And when they heard(it) they glorified the Lorde, and sayde vnto him, Thou seest brother howe many thousande Iewes there are which beleue, and they are al earnest folowers of the lawe. 21 And they are enformed of thee, that thou teachest all the Iewes which are among the gentiles to forsake Moyses, and sayest that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walke (after) the customes.
22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needes come together: for they shall heare that thou art come.
23 Do therefore this that we say to thee. We haue foure men which haue a vowe on them: 24 Them take, and (b) purifie thy selfe with them, and do cost on them, that they may shaue their heades: and all shall knowe that those thinges which they haue heard concernyng thee, are nothyng, but that thou thy selfe also walkest and kepest the lawe. 25 As touchyng the gentiles which beleue, we haue written and concluded, that they obserue no such thyng, saue only that they kepe them selues from thinges offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication. 26 Then Paul toke the men, and the next day purifying him selfe with them, entred into the temple, declaryng the accomplishment of the dayes of the purification, vntyll that an offeryng shoulde be offered for euery one of them.
27 And when the seuen dayes were E almost ended, the Iewes which were of Asia, when they sawe him in the temple, moued all the people, & layde handes on him, 28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery where agaynst the people, and the lawe, and this place: he hath also brought Grekes into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place. 29 (For they had

The .xxiiii. Chapter.

10 Paul beyng accused, aunswereth for his life and doctrine.

AND after fiue dayes Ananias the hye priest descended with the elders, and with a certayne oratour named Tartullus, which appeared before the deputie agaynst Paul. 2 And when Paul was called foorth, Tartullus began to accuse him, saying, Seyng that (a) we haue obtayned great quietnesse by the meanes of thee, and that many good thynges are done vnto this nation thyrough thy prouidence, 3 That alowe we euer and in all places most noble Felix, with all thankes. 4 Notwithstandyng, that I be not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest heare vs of thy curtesie a fewe wordes.

5 For we haue founde this man a pestilent felowe, and a mouer of debate vnto all the Iewes in the whole worlde, and a mayntayner of the sect of the Nazarites: 6 And hath gone about to pollute the temple: Whom we toke, and would haue iudged accordyng to our lawe. 7 But the hye captayne Lysias came vpon vs, and with great violence toke him away out of our handes, 8 Commaunding his accusers to come vnto thee: Of whom thou mayest, yf thou wylt enquire, knowe the certaynte of all these thynges, wherof we accuse him. 9 And the Iewes likewise affirmed, saying that these thynges were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the deputie him selfe had beckened vnto him that he should speake, aunswered, With a more quiet mynde do I aunswere for my selfe, forasmuch as I vnderstande that thou hast ben of many yeres a iudge vnto this nation. 11 Because that thou mayest knowe that there are yet but twelue dayes, sence I went vp to Hierusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither founde me in the temple disputyng with any man, either rayssyng vp the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the citie: 13 Neither can they proue the thinges whereof they accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way which they call (b) heresie, so worship I the God of my fathers, beleuyng all thynges which are written in the lawe and the prophetes: 15 And haue hope towardes God, that the resurrection of the dead which they them selues loke for also, shalbe both of the iust and vniust. 16 And herein study I, to haue alway a cleare conscience towarde God, and towarde men.

17 Nowe after many yeres, I came and brought almes to my nation, and offerynges: 18 In the which they founde me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor yet with vnquietnesse. 19 Howbeit, there were certayne Iewes out of Asia, 20 Which ought to be here (c) present before thee, and accuse me, yf they had ought agaynst me; 21 Or els

Act. 15.d.

¶ The xxv. Chapter.

2 The Iewes accuse Paul before Festus,
8 He answereth for him selfe.

THen when Festus was come into the prouince, after three dayes he ascended from Cesarea vnto Hierusalem. 2 Then enformed him the hye priest and the cheefe of the Jewes, of Paul: and they besought him, 3 And desired fauour agaynst him, that he woulde sende for him to Hierusalem: and they layde awayte in the way to kyll him. 4 But Festus answered, that Paul shoulde be kept at Cesarea, and that he him selfe woulde shortly depart (thyther.) 5 Let them therfore sayde he, which among you are able, come downe with vs, and accuse him, yf there be any fault in this man. 6 And when he had tarryed among them more then ten dayes, he went downe vnto Cesarea: and the next day sate downe in the iudgement seate, and commaunded Paul to be brought. 7 Who beyng come, the Jewes which were come from Hierusalem, stoode about (him) and layde many and greeuous complayntes agaynst Paul, which they coulde not (a) proue. 8 Whyles he answered (for him selfe) that he had agaynst the lawe of the Jewes, neither agaynst the temple, nor yet agaynst Caesar offended any thyng at all. 9 But Festus wyllyng to do the Jewes a pleasure, answered Paul, and sayde, Wylt thou go vp to Hierusalem, and there be iudged of these thynges before me?

10 Then sayde Paul, I stande at Caesars iudgement seate, where I ought to be iudged: to the Jewes haue I no harme done, as thou very well knowest. 11 For yf I had done any hurt, or committed any thyng worthy of death, I refuse not to dye: but yf there be none (of these thynges) whereof they accuse me, no man may deliuer me to them. I appeale (b) vnto Caesar. 12 Then spake Festus with the counsell, and answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Caesar? vnto Caesar shalt thou go. 13 And after certayne dayes, kyng Agrippa and Bernice came vnto Cesarea, to salute Festus. 14 And when they had ben there a good season, Festus rehearsed Paules cause vnto the kyng, saying, There is a certayne man left in bondes of Felix, 15 About whom, when I came to Hierusalem, the hye priestes and elders of the Jewes enfourmed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him. 16 To whom I aunswered, It is not the maner of the Romanes, for fauour to deliuer any man that he shoulde perishe, before that he which is accused haue the accusers before him, and haue licence to answere for him selfe concernyng the cryme layde agaynst him.

17 Therefore when they were come hyther, without any delay, on the morowe I sate to gene iudgement, & commaunded the man to be brought foorth. 18 Agaynst whom, when the accusers stoode vp, they brought none accusation of such thynges as I supposed: 19 But had certayne questions agaynst him of their owne superstition, and of one Jesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alyue. 20 And because I doubted of such maner of questions, I asked him whether he woulde go to Hierusalem, and there be iudged of these matters?

(a) Whyles Paul lyued vnder the lawe lyke other Iewes, his conuersation was perfect and notable, and after his conuersion vnto Christe, he became a more notable example of innocencie: but it is a common case that the true vnautes of god are euyll spoken of for their well doing.

(b) The iniquitie of the iudge, who contrary to equitie wyllyng to please the Iewes, deuised howe to betray Paul, draue Paul to appeale, which is the vttermost remedie for such as by wrong iudgement are oppressed, and this appellation by gods prouidence was a meane that Paul should testifie of Christe at Rome, also.

matters. 21 But when Paul had appealed to be kept vnto the knowledge of Augustus, I commaunded him to be kept tyll I myght sende him to Caesar. 22 Then Agrippa sayde vnto Festus, I wolde also heare the man my selfe. To morowe sayde he, thou shalt heare him.

23 And on the morowe when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pompe, and were entred into the counsell house with the cheefe captaynes and cheefe men of the citie, at Festus commaundement was Paul brought forth. 24 And Festus sayde, Kyng Agrippa, and all men which are here present with vs, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jewes haue intreated me, both at Hierusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to lyue any longer. 25 Yet founde I nothyng worthy of death that he had committed: Neuertheles, seyng that he hath appealed to Augustus, I haue

¶ The. xxvi. Chapter.

1 Kyng Agrippa heareth Paul. 25 Paules modest aunswere agaynst the iniurie of Festus.

A Then Agrippa sayde vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. Then Paul stretched forth the hande, and aunswered (for him selfe,) 2 I thinke my selfe happy, kyng Agrippa, because I shall aunswere this day before thee, of all the thynges whereof I am accused of the Jewes: 3 Namely, because thou art expert in all customes and questions which are among (a) the Jewes: Wherfore I beseche thee to heare me patiently. 4 My life that I haue led of a childe, which was at the first among mine owne nation at Hierusalem, knowe all the Jewes, 5 Which knewe me from the begynnyng (yf they would testifie) that after the most straytest sect of our (b) religion I lyued a Pharisee. 6 And nowe I stand and am iudged for the hope of the promise made of god vnto our fathers. B

7 Vnto which promise our twelue tribes instantly seruyng God day and night, hope to come: For which hopes sake, kyng Agrippa, I am accused of the Jewes. 8 Why shoulde it be thought a thyng incredible vnto you, that God shoulde rayse agayne the dead? 9 I also verily thought in my selfe that I ought to do many contrarye thynges, cleane agaynst the name of Jesus of Nazareth: 10 Which thyng I also dyd in Hierusalem, and many of the saintes dyd I shut vp in prison, hauyng receaued auctoritie of the hye priestes: and when they were put to death, I gaue the sentence.

11 And I punished them oft in euery synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme: and was yet more mad vpon them, and persecuted them euen vnto straunge cities. 12 About which thinges as I went to Damascus with auctoritie and commission of the hye priestes, 13 Euen at midday, O kyng, I sawe in the way a lyght from heauen abone the brightnes of the sunne, shyne rounde about me and them which tourneyed with me. 14 And C when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voyce speakyng vnto me in the Hebrue tongue, and saying, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is harde for thee to kicke agaynst the prickes. 15 And I sayd, Who art thou Lorde? And he sayd, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. 16 But rise, and stande vpon thy feete: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witnesse both of those thynges which thou hast seene, and of those thynges in the which I will appeare vnto thee, 17 Deliuering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom nowe I sende thee, 18 To open their eyes, that they may be turned from darknesse to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receaue forgeuenesse of sinnes, and inheritaunce among them which are sanctified by fayth that is towarde me.

19 Wherfore, O kyng Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heauenly vision: 20 But shewed first vnto them D of Damascus, and at Hierusalem, and throughout all the coastes of Jurie, & then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turne to God, and do suche workes as become them that repent.

(a) He knewe much, but he fayled in the ryght applying of his knowledge, as they do which be wise in their owne conceiptes only, and haue the zeale of god, but not accordyng to knowledge.

(b) He taketh the sect of the Pharisees to be perfectest, because their doctrine was better then the other sectes. The Saducees denyed the resurrection of the dead. The Essens glorying in straytnesse of life, litle regarded true doctrine.

Act. 8. a. 1. Cor. xv. b. Gala. 1. c.

Act. 9. a. and. 22. c.

21 For this cause the Iewes caught me in the temple, and went about to kyll me. 22 Seyng therefore that I haue obtayned helpe of God, I continue vnto this day, witnessyng both to small and to great, sayyng none other thynges then those which the prophetes and Moyses did say should come, 23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shewe lyght vnto the people, and to the gentiles. 24 And as he thus spake for him selfe, Festus sayde with a loude voyce, Paul thou art beside thy(c) selfe, much learnyng doth make thee mad. 25 But he sayde, I am not mad most noble Festus, but speake foorth the wordes of trueth and sobernesse. 26 For the kyng knoweth of these thynges, before whom also I speake freely, neither thynke I that any of these thynges are hydden from him: for this thyng was not done in a corner. 27 Kyng Agrippa, beleuest thou the prophetes? I wote well that thou beleuest.

28 Then Agrippa sayde vnto Paul, Somewhat thou perswadest (d) me to be a christian. 29 And Paul sayde, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both somewhat, and also in a great deale such as I am, except these bondes. 30 And when he had thus spoken, the kyng rose vp, and the deputie, and Bernice, and they that sate with them. 31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betweene them selues, saying, This man doth nothyng worthy of death, or of bondes. 32 Then sayde Agrippa vnto Festus, This man might haue ben let loose, yf he had not appealed vnto Caesar.

(c) Festus beyng much troubled with Paules declaration, and hauing nothing to say against it, yet would not yelde vnto it, but clamorously condempned it as wicked and superstitious, for worldlynges are loth to be cumbred with Godly matters, and count all such foolish that trouble them selues therwith.

(d) He sawe a litle light, but it was soone out, lyke vnto those that hearyng a Sermon are for the time wel mynded, but after returne to their olde trade.

1 Paul shipped towarde Rome.
3 Iulius the captayne entreateth him curteously.
9 He counselleth them to tarry.
14 The shippe is caught with a tempest.
19 They cast out the tackle.
27 They drawe nere to land.
30 The shipmen flee.
33 Paul exhorteth them to eate.
41 The shippe is broken.

AND when it was concluded that we should sayle into Italie, they deliuered both Paul and certayne other prisoners vnto one named Iulius, an vnder captayne of Augustus bande. 2 And we entred into a ship of Adramyttium, and loosed from lande, appoynted to sayle by the coastes of Asia, one Aristarchus out of Macedonia of the countrey of Thessalonica, tarying styll with vs.

Coloss. 4.a

3 And the next day we came to Sidon: And Iulius curteously entreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to go vnto his freendes, and to refreshe him selfe. 4 And when we had launched from thence, we sayled harde by Cypers, because the wyndes were contrarie. 5 And when we had sayled ouer the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra (a citie) which is in Lycia: 6 And there the vnder captayne founde a ship of Alexandria redy, that sayled into Italie, and he put vs therin. 7 And when we had sayled slowly many dayes, and scarce were come ouer against Gnidum, because the wynde withstoode vs, we sayled harde by * Candie ouer against Salmo: 8 And with much worke sayled beyonde it, and came vnto a place which is called the Fayre hauens, nye whereunto was the citie of Lasea. 9 When much tyme was spent, and when sayling was nowe icopardous, because also that they had ouerlong fasted, Paul put them in remembraunce, 10 And sayde vnto them, Sirs, I perceaue that this voyage wyll be with hurt and much damage, not of the ladyng and ship only, but also of our lyues. 11 Nenertheles, the vnder captayne beleued the gouernour and the maister of the ship, more then those thynges which were spoken of Paul. 12 And because the hauen was not commodious to wynter in, many toke counsell to depart thence, yf by any meanes they myght attayne to Phenice, and there to wynter, which is an hauen of Candie, and lyeth towarde the south west and northwest wynde. 13 And when the south wynde blewe softly, they supposyng to obtayne their purpose, loosed vnto Asson, and sayled past Candie. 14 But not long after, there arose agaynst their purpose a flawe of wynde out of the northeast. 15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the wynde, we let her go, and were driuen with the weather. 16 But we were caryed into an Ile, which is named Clauda, and had much worke to come by a boate. 17 Which they toke vp, and vsed helpe, and made faste the ship, fearyng least they should fall into the Syrtes: and so they let downe * a vessell, and were caryed. 18 The next day when we were tossed with an exceedyng tempest, they lyghted the shyp: 19 And the thirde day we cast out with with our owne handes the tackling of the ship. 20 And when neither the sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest laye vpon vs, all hope that we should be saued was then taken away. 21 But after long abstinence, Paule stoode forth in the middes of them, and said, Syrs, ye should haue hearkened to me, and not to haue loosed from Candie, neither to haue brought vnto vs this harme & losse. 22 And nowe I exhort you to be of good cheare: for there shalbe no losse of any mans life among you, but of the ship. 23 For there stoode by me this nyght the angels of God, whose I am, and whom I serue, 24 Saying, Feare not Paul, thou must be brought before Caesar: and lo, God hath geuen thee (a) all that sayle with thee. 25 Wherfore syrs be of good cheare: for I beleue God that it shalbe euen as it was tolde me.

26 Howbeit, we must be cast into a certayne Iland. 27 But when the fourteenth nyght was come, as we were sailing in Adria about midnight, the shipmen deemed that there appeared some countrey vnto them:

28 And sounded, and founde it twentie fadomes: And when they had gone a litle further they sounded agayne, and founde it fifteene fadomes.

29 Then fearing lest they should haue fallen on some roche, they cast foure ankers out of the sterne, and wished for the day. 30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let downe the boate into the sea, vnder a colour as though they would haue cast ankers out of the foreship, 31 Paul sayd vnto the vnder captayne, and to the souldiers, Except these abyde in the ship, (b) ye can not be safe. 32 Then the souldiours cut of the rope of the boate, and let it fall away. 33 And when the day began to appeare, Paul besought them all to take meate, saying, This is the fourteenth day that ye haue tarryed and continued fasting, receauing nothing at all. 34 Wherfore I pray you to take meate, for this no doubt is for your health: for there shall not an (c) heere fall from the head of any of you. 35 And when he had thus spoken, he toke bread, and gaue thankes to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eate. 36 Then were they all of good cheare, and they also toke meate. 37 And we were altogether in the ship, two hundred threscore and fifteene soules. 38 And when they had eaten inough, they lighted the ship, and cast out the wheate into the sea. 39 And when it was day, they knewe not the lande: but they spyed a certayne hauen with a banke, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship. 40 And when they had taken vp the anchers, they committed (them selues) vnto the sea, and loosed the rudder bandes: and hoysed vp the mayne sayle to the wynde, and drue to lande. 41 And when they fell into a place which had the sea on both sides, they thrust in the ship: and the foreparte stucke fast and moued not, but the hinder part brake with the violence of the waues.

42 And the souldiers counsell was to kyll the prysoners: lest any of them when he had swomme out, should run away. 43 But the vnder captayne willing to saue Saul, kept them from their purpose: and commaunded that they which could swimme, should cast them selues first into the sea, & scape to lande: 44 And the other, some on bordes, and some on broken peeces of the ship: And so it came to passe, that they escaped all safe to lande.

The. xxviii. Chapter.

AND when they were escaped, then they knewe that the Ile was called Melita. 2 And the straungers shewed vs no litle kindnesse: for they kyndled a fire, & receaued vs euery one because of the present rayne, and because of the cold. 3 And when Paul had gathered a bundel of sticks, and layde them on the fire, there came a Viper out of the heate, and caught hym by the hande. 4 And when the straungers sawe the beast hang on his hande, they sayde among them selues, No doubt this man is (a) a murtherer, whom though he haue escaped the sea, yet vengeaunce suffereth not to liue. 5 And he shooke of the Viper into the fire, & (b) felt no harme. 6 Howbeit, they wayted when he should haue swolne, or fallen downe dead sodenly: but after they had looked a great whyle, and sawe no harme come to hym, they chaunged their mindes, and sayde that he was a

11 And after three monethes we departed in a ship of Alexandria, whiche had wintred in the Ile, whose badge was (d) Castor and Pollux. 12 And when we came to Syracusa, we taried (there) three dayes. 13 And from thence we fet a compasse, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south winde blew, and we came the next day to Puteolus. 14 Where we founde brethren, and were desyred to tary with them seuen dayes: and so we came towarde Rome. 15 And from thence, when the brethren hearde of vs, they came to meete vs at Appii forum, & at the three tauernes: When Paul sawe them, he thanked God, and waxed bolde. 16 And when we came to Rome, the vnder captaine deliuered the prisoners to the cheefe captaine of the hoast: but Paul was suffered to dwel by him selfe with a souldier that kept hym. 17 And it came to passe that after three dayes Paul called the cheefe of the Iewes together: and when they were come, he sayde vnto them, Men and brethren, though I haue committed nothing against the people or lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prysoner from Hierusalem into the handes of the Romanes, 18 Whiche when they had examined me, would haue let me go, because there was no cause of death in me. 19 But when the Iewes spake contrary, I was constrayned to appeale vnto Caesar: not that I had ought to accuse my people of. 20 For this cause then haue I called for you, euen to see (you) and to speake with you: because that for the (e) hope of Israel I am bounde with this chayne.

21 And they sayd vnto hym, We neither receaued letters out of Iurie concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harme of thee. 22 But we will heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that euery where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appoynted him a day, there came many to him into his lodging, to whom he expounded and testified the kyngdome of God, perswading them concerning Iesus, both out of the lawe of Moyses, and out of the prophetes, euen from morning to night. 24 And some were perswaded in the thinges whiche were spoken, and some beleued not. 25 And when they agreed not among themselues, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one worde, (that is to say) Well spake the holy ghost by Esaias the prophete vnto our fathers, 26 Saying, Go vnto this people, and say, With your eares shall ye heare, and shall not vnderstande: and with your eyes shal ye see, and not perceaue. 27 For the heart of this people is waxed grosse, and their eares are dull of hearing, and their eyes haue they closed: lest they should see with their eyes, and heare with their eares, & vnderstande with their heartes, and should be conuerted, and I should heale them.

28 Be it knowen therfore vnto you that this saluation of God is sent to the gentiles, and they shall heare it.

29 And when he had sayde these wordes, the Iewes departed, and had great reasoning among themselues.

30 And Paul dwelt two yeres full in his owne hyred house: and receaued all that came in vnto hym, 31 Preaching the kyngdome of God, and teaching those thinges whiche concerne the Lorde Iesus Christe, with all confidence, no man forbidding hym.

¶ The first. Chapter.

16 What the gospell is. 18 The vengeaunce of God vpon the wicked.

PAul the seruaunt of Jesus Christe (a) called (to be) an Apostle, seuered into the gospel of God, 2 Which he had promised afore by his prophetes in the holy scriptures 3 Of his sonne, which was made of the seede of Dauid after the flesh: 4 And hath ben declared to be the son of (b) God, with power after the spirite that sanctifieth, by the resurrection from the dead, of Jesus Christe our Lorde.

5 (By whom we haue receaued grace and apostleship, that obedience might be geuen vnto the fayth in his name among all heathen, 6 Among whom ye are also the called of Jesus Christ:)

7 To all that be in Rome, beloued of God, saintes by calling: Grace to you, and peace from God our father, and the Lorde Jesus Christe.

8 First verely I thanke my God through Jesus Christe for you all, that your fayth is published throughout all the worlde. 9 For God is my witnesse, whom I serue with my spirite in the Gospel of his sonne, that without ceassing I make mention of you: 10 Praying alwayes in my prayers, that by some meane at the last, one tyme or other, I might take a prosperous iourney by the will of God, to come vnto you.

11 For I long to see you, that I might bestowe among you some spirituall gyft, that ye might be stablished.

12 That is, that I might haue consolation together with you, eche with others fayth, yours and myne.

13 I would that ye should knowe brethren, how that I haue oftentimes purposed to come vnto you (and haue ben let hytherto) that I myght haue some fruite also among you, as among other of the gentiles. 14 I am debter both to the Grekes and to the (c) barbarous, both to the wyse and to the vnwise. 15 So that as much as in me is, I am redy to preach the gospell to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospell of Christe: because it is the power of God, vnto saluation to all that beleue, to the Jewe first, and also to the Greke. 17 For by it is the righteousnesse of God opened from fayth to fayth: as it is written, The iust shall lyue by fayth. 18 For the wrath of God (d) appeareth from heauen against all vngodlinesse and vnrighteousnesse of men, which (e) withholde the trueth in vnrighteousnesse.

19 For that that may be knowen of God, is manifest among them: because God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For his inuisible thinges beyng vnderstanded by his workes, through the creation of the worlde are seene, that is, both his eternall power and Godhead: so that they are without excuse. 21 Because that when they knew God, (notwithstanding) they glorified hym not as God, neither were thankfull, but waxed full of vanities in their imaginations, and their foolishe heart was blynded. 22 When they counted them selues wyse, they became fooles: 23 And turned the glory of the immortall God vnto an image, made not only after the similitude of a mortall man, but also of byrdes, and foure footed beastes, and of creeping beastes. 24 Wherefore god gaue them vp to vncleannes, through the lustes of their owne hearres, to defile their owne bodyes among them selues. 25 Which chaunged his trueth for a lye, and worshipped and serued the creature, more then the creator, whiche is to be praysed for euer. Amen. 26 Wherefore God gaue them vp vnto shamefull lustes: for euen their women dyd chaunge the naturall vse into that whiche is against nature. 27 And likewise also the men, left the naturall vse of the women, and brent in their lustes one with another, and men with men wrought filthynesse, and receaued to them selues the rewarde of their errour, as it was accoyding.) 28 And as they regarded not to knowe God: (euen so) God deliuered them vp vnto a leaude myndе, that they should do those thinges whiche were not comely: 29 Beyng full of al vnrighteousnesse, fornication, craftines, couetous-

(a) By this he declareth, that he came not into the office of the apostleship by his owne arrogancie, but by the calling of God, wherby he differeth from the false Apostles.

(b) Three maner of waies Paul sheweth here christe to be declared the sonne of God. First, by power or workinge of miracles. Secondly, by the holy ghost appearing in visible signes. Thirdly, by his resurrection from the dead.

(c) All those that were not Iewes, by a common worde were called heathen. And here they are diuided into Grekes and barbarous. By Grekes, he vnderstandeth those that were learned, ciuill, and of good bringing vp. By barbarous, he meaneth rude and sauage people, with who no man could well haue to do.

(d) which appeareth the world knoweth nothing of. For in the sight of God all men are godlesse, sinners, and the chyldren of wrath: and when they knowe any thing of god, yet they be naught, because they neither thanke hym, nor serue him, & therfore plagues are powred vpon them from heauen

(e) They hold the trueth in vnrighteousnesse, the which vnder stande the trueth, & do not expresse the same in their deedes and lyfe.

31 Without vnderstanding, couenaunt breakers, without naturall affection, truce breakers, vnmercifull.

32 The whiche knowing the righteousnesse of God, (howe that they which commit such thinges, are worthy of death) not only do the same: but also haue pleasure in them that do them.

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

1 Gods iudgement vpon the hypocrites. 13 All men are sinners.

THerefore art thou inexcusable, O man, whosoeuer thou be (a) that iudgest: For in that same wherin thou iudgest another, thou condempnest thy selfe: for thou that iudgest doest euen the selfe same thinges.

2 But we are sure that the iudgement of God is according to the trueth against them whiche commit such thinges. 3 Thinkest thou this, O thou man that iudgest them whiche do suche thinges, and doest the same (thy selfe) that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God? 4 Eyther despisest thou the ryches of his goodnesse, & patience, and long sufferaunce, not knowing that the kyndnesse of God leadeth thee to repentaunce?

5 But thou after thy stubbernes and heart that can not repent, heapest vnto thy selfe wrath against the day of wrath and declaration of the righteous iudgement of God: 6 Whiche wyll rewarde euery man according to his (b) deedes: 7 To them whiche by continuing in well doyng seeke for glory, and honour, and immortalitie, eternall life. 8 But vnto them that are contentious, and that do not obey the trueth, but obey vnrighteousnesse (shall come) indignation and wrath.

9 Tribulation and anguishe vpon euery soule of man that doth euyll, of the Iewe first, and also of the Greke: 10 But glory and honour and peace to euery man that doth good, to the Iewe first, and also to the Greke.

11 For there is no respect of persons with God. 12 For whosoeuer hath sinned without lawe, shall also perishe without lawe: and as many as haue sinned in the lawe, shalbe iudged by the lawe. 13 (For in the sight of God, they are not righteous whiche heare the lawe: but the doers of the lawe shalbe iustified. 14 For when the Gentiles whiche haue not the law, do of nature the thinges contayned in the lawe: they hauing not the law, are a lawe vnto them selues, 15 Whiche shewe the workes of the lawe written in their hearres, their conscience bearing them witnesse, and their thoughtes accusing one another, or excusing.) 16 In the day when God shall iudge the secretes of men by Iesus Christe according to my (c) gospell. 17 Beholde, thou art called a Iewe, and (d) restest in the lawe, and makest thy boast of God, 18 And knowest (his) wyll, and alowest the thinges that be excellent, informed by the lawe: 19 And beleuest that thou thy selfe art a guyde of the blind, a light of them (whiche are) in darknesse, 20 An informer of them whiche lacke discretion, a teacher of the vnlearned: which hast the fourme of knowledge, and of the trueth in the lawe. 21 Thou therefore whiche teachest another, teachest not thy selfe? Thou preachest a man shoulde not steale, yet stealest thou? 22 Thou that sayest a man shoulde not commit adultrie, breakest thou wedlocke? Thou abhorrest idoles, and yet robbest God of his honour? 23 Thou that makest thy boast of the lawe, throughe breaking the lawe dishonourest thou God. 24 For the name of God is euyll spoken of among the gentiles throgow you, as it is written,

25 For circumcision verily auayleth, if thou kepe the lawe: but if thou be a breaker of the lawe, thy circumcision is made vncircumcision. 26 Therefore if the (e) vncircumcision kepe the ordinaunces of the lawe, shall not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcision? 27 And shall not vncircumcision whiche is by nature, if it kepe the lawe, iudge thee, whiche being vnder the letter and circumcision doest transgresse the lawe? 28 For he is not a Iewe, whiche is (a Iewe) outwarde: neither is that circumcision whiche is outwarde in the flesh:

29 But he is a Iewe whiche is one inwardly, and the circumcision of the heart, whiche consisteth in the spirite, and not in the letter (is circumcision) whose prayse is not of men, but of God.

¶ The .iii. Chapter.

1 The Iewes haue a prerogative. 21 All are iustified by grace through fayth, and not through workes.

What preferment then hath the Iewe? or what auaunctageth circumcision? 2 Much euery way. Firste, for because that vnto them were committed the wordes of God.

3 What then though some of them did not beleue? Shall their vnbeleefe make the (a) fayth of God without effect? 4 God forbid: yea let God be true, and euery man a lyer, as it is written, That thou mightest be iustified in thy sayings, and ouercome when thou art iudged. 5 But if our vnrighteousnesse setteth forth the righteousnesse of God, what shall we say? Is God vnryghteous whiche taketh vengeaunce? (I speake after the maner of men,) 6 God forbid: for how then shall God iudge the worlde?

7 For if the trueth of God hath more abounded through my lye vnto his glory, why am I as yet iudged as a sinner? 8 And not rather (as men speake cuyll of vs, and as some affirme that we say) let vs do euyl, that good may come thereof? whose dampnation is iust. 9 What then, are we better (then they?) No, in no wyse: for we haue alredy proued howe that both Iewes and gentiles are all vnder sinne: 10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no not one: 11 There is none that vnderstandeth, there is none that seeketh after god. 12 They are all gone out of the way, they are al vnprofitable. there is none that doth good, no not one. 13 Their throte is an open sepulchre, with their tongues they haue deceaued, the poyson of aspes is vnder their lips. 14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bytternesse: 15 Their feete are swyft to shed blood. 16 Heartes greefe and miserie are in their wayes. 17 And the way of peace haue they not knowen. 18 There is no feare of God before their eyes. 19 Nowe we knowe that what things soeuer the law saith, it sayth it to them whiche are vnder the lawe: that all mouthes may be stopped, and that al the worlde may be indaungered to God. 20 Because that by the deedes of the (b) lawe there shall no flesche be iustified in his sight: For by the lawe commeth the knowledge of sinne. 21 But nowe is the ryghteousnesse of God declared without the lawe, beyng witnessed by the testimonie of the lawe and of the prophetes. 22 The ryghteousnesse of God (commeth) by the fayth of Jesus Christe, vnto all, and vpon all them that beleue: There is no difference: 23 For all haue sinned, and are destitute of the glory of God. 24 (But are) iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesu: 25 Whom God hath set forth to be a (c) propitiation through fayth in his blood, to declare his ryghteousnesse, in that he forgeueth the sinnes that are past, 26 Whiche God did suffer, to shewe at this tyme his ryghteousnesse: that he myght be iust, and the iustifier of hym whiche beleueth on Jesus. 27 Where is then thy boasting? it is excluded. By what lawe? of workes? Nay: but by the lawe of fayth. 28 Therefore we holde, that a man is iustified by fayth without the deedes of the lawe. 29 Is he the god of the Iewes only? Is he not also of the Gentiles? yes, euen of the Gentiles also. 30 For it is one God whiche shall iustifie the circumcision by (d) fayth, and vncircumcision through faith. 31 Do we then destroy the lawe through fayth? God forbid: but we rather mayntayne the lawe.

The .iiii. Chapter.

7 Iustification is the free gift of god, as it appeareth by Dauid and Abraham, 13 & also by the office of the lawe and fayth.

What shall we say then that Abraham our father as pertayning to the flesche did finde? 2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, then hath he wherein to boast, but not before God. 3 For what sayth the scripture? Abraham beleued God, and it was counted vnto him for righteousnesse. 4 To him that worketh, is the rewarde not reckened of grace, but of duetie. 5 To him that worketh (a) not, but beleueth on him that iustifieth the (b) vngodly, his faith is counted for ryghteousnesse. 6 Euen as Dauid describeth the blessednesse of the man, vnto whom God imputeth ryghteousnesse without workes, 7 (Saying) Blessed are they whose vnrighteousnesse are forgeuen, and whose sinnes are couered. 8 Blessed is that man to whom the Lorde wyll not impute sinne. 9 (Came) this blessednes then vpon the circumcision onlye, or vppon the vncircumcision also?

(a) Which is the perfourmance of gods promise. For fayth is taken after two sortes, both for our beleefe whe we assure our selues that god wyl perfourme his promise, and also for the stedfastnes of gods promise to his people. For although some of the Iewes dyd not beleue, yet gods trueth neuer fayled.

also? For we say that fayth was reckened to Abrahām for ryghteousnesse.
10 How was it then reckened? when he was in the circumcision, or (vvhen he vvas) in the vncircumcision? Not in the circumcision, but in vncircumcision. 11 And he receaued the signe of circumcision, as the (c) seale of the ryghteousnesse of fayth, which he had yet beyng vncircumcised: that he shoulde be the father of all them that beleue, though they be not circumcised, that righteousnes might be imputed vnto them also. 12 And that he myght be father of circumcision, not vnto them only which came of the circumcised: but vnto them also that walke in the steppes of the fayth that was in our father Abrahām before the time of circumcision. 13 For the promise that he shoulde be the heyre of the worlde (was) not to Abrahām or to his seede through the lawe, but through the ryghteousnesse of fayth.
14 For if they whiche are of the lawe be heyres, then is fayth but vayne, and the promise of none effect:
15 Because the lawe causeth wrath: For where no lawe is, there is no trasgression. 16 Therefore by fayth (is the inheritaunce geuen) that it myght (be) by grace, that the promise myght be sure to all the seede, not to that only which is of the lawe, but to that also whiche is of the fayth of Abrahām, whiche is the father of vs all,
17 (As it is written, I haue made thee a father of many nations) before God, whom he beleued, whiche restoreth the dead vnto life, and calleth those thynges whiche be not, as (d) though they were. 18 Who contrary to hope, (e) beleued in hope, that he should be the father of many nations: according to that whiche was spoken, So shall thy seede be. 19 And he fainted not in the fayth, nor considered his owne body nowe dead, when he was almost an hundred yeres olde, neither yet the (f) deadnes of Sarahs wombe.
20 He starkered not at the promise of God through vnbeliefe: but was strong in fayth, geuyng glory to God:
21 And beyng full certified, that what he had promised, he was also able to performe. 22 And therefore was it reckened to hym for ryghteousnesse.
23 Neuertheless, it is not written for hym only, that it was reckened to him: 24 But also for vs, to whom it shalbe reckened, so that we beleue on him that raised vp Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 Whiche was deliuered for our sinnes, and was raysed agayne for our iustification.

The .v. Chapter.

1 The fruite of fayth. 12 From vvhence commeth death, and from vvhence lyfe.

THerefore beyng iustified by faith, we are at (a) peace with God, thorowe our Lorde Jesus Christe:
2 By whom also we haue had an entraunce by fayth vnto this grace wherin we stande, and reioyce in hope of the glory of God. 3 Not that onlye, but also we reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation worketh patience: 4 Patience proue, proue hope: 5 And hope maketh not (b) ashamed, because the loue of god is shed abrode in our hearres by the holy ghost which is geuen vnto vs.
6 For when we were yet weake according to the tyme, Christe dyed for the vngodly. 7 Now scase wyll any man dye for the righteous: yet peraduenture for the good some men durst dye. 8 But God setteth out his loue toward vs, seyng that whyle we were yet sinners, Christe dyed for vs. 9 Much more then now we that are iustified by his blood, shalbe saued from wrath through him: 10 For yf when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his sonne: much more seyng we are reconciled we shalbe saued by his lyfe
11 Not only so, but we also ioy in God thorough our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we haue nowe receaued the atonement. 12 Wherefore as by one man sinne entred into the worlde, and death by sinne: euen so death entred into all men, insomuch as all haue sinned. 13 For vnto the lawe was sinne in the world: but sinne is not imputed when there is no lawe 14 Neuertheless, death raigned from Adam to Moyses, euer them also that had not sinned with lyke transgression as dyd Adam, which is the figure of him that was to come. 15 But not as the sinne, so is the gift: For if through the sinne of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift of grace, whiche (is) by one man Jesus Christe, hath abounded vnto many. 16 And not as by one that sinned (euen so) the gyft: For the sinne entred by one (of) feace)

The .vi. Chapter.

5 Newnesse of lyfe foloweth iustification, to the which he exhorteth.

WHat shall we say then? Shal we continue in sinne that grace may abounde? God forbid. 2 Howe shall we that are dead(a) to sinne, lyue any longer therein? 3 Knowe ye not that al we which haue ben baptized into Jesus Chriſte,haue ben baptized(b) into his death? 4 We are buried then with him by baptisme into his death, that lykewyse as Chriſte was rayſed vp from the dead by the glory of the father: euen so we also shoulde walke in newnes of lyfe. 5 For if we be graft together by the lykenesse of his death, euen so shall we be (partakers)of the resurrection: 6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with hym also, that the body of sinne might vtterly be destroyed,that henceforth we shoulde not serue sinne.

7 For he that is dead, is iustified from sinne. 8 And yf we be dead with Chriſte, we beleue that we shall also lyue with hym: 9 Knowyng that Chriſte beyng rayſed from the dead, dyeth no more: death hath no more power ouer hym. 10 For as touchyng that he dyed,he dyed concerning sinne once: and as touchyng that he lyueth, he lyueth vnto God.

11 Lykewyse reckon your selues to be dead vnto sinne,but alyue vnto god, through Jesus Chriſte our Lorde.

12 Let not sinne raigne therefore in your mortall body, that ye shoulde therevnto obey by the lustes of it.

13 Neither geue ye your members as instrumentes of vnrychteousnesse vnto sinne: but geue your selues vnto God, as they that are alyue from the dead, and your members, as instrumentes of rychteousnesse vnto God.

14 For sinne shall not haue power ouer you,because ye are not vnder the (c)law,but vnder grace. 15 What then? Shall we sinne,because we are not vnder the lawe, but vnder grace? God forbid. 16 Knowe ye not howe that to whomsoeuer ye commit your selues as seruauntes to obey, his seruauntes ye are to whom ye obey: whether it be of sinne vnto death,or of obedience vnto rychteousnesse? 17 But God be thanked, that ye were the seruauntes of sinne, but ye haue obeyed with heart the fourme of doctrine into the whiche ye are brought vnto.

18 Beyng then made free from sinne, ye are become the seruauntes of rychteousnesse. 19 I speake after the (d) maner of men, because of the infirmitie of your flesh. As ye haue geuen your members seruauntes to vncleannesse and iniquitie, vnto iniquitie: euen so nowe geue your members seruauntes to rychteousnesse vnto holynesse. 20 For when ye were the seruauntes of sinne,ye were free from rychteousnesse. 21 What fruite had ye then in those thynges whereof ye are nowe ashamed? for the ende of those thynges,is death. 22 But now ye beyng made free from sinne, and made the seruauntes of God, haue your fruite vnto holynesse, and the ende euerlastyng lyfe. 23 For the rewarde of sinne, (is)death: but the gift of God(is)eternall life,through Jesus Chriſt our Lorde.

(a) He dyeth to sinne, in whom the strength of sinne is broken by the power of Christe.

(b) That is, that sinne through Christes death,may be abolished & dye in vs. & that as we are made cleane outwardly with water in our baptisme, so inwardly our sinnes may be washed away, and cleansed by the blood of Christe.

The .vii. Chapter.

23 The fight betweene the lawe of the flesh,and the lawe of the spirite.

KNowe ye not brethren (for I speake to them that knowe the law)(howe) that the lawe hath power ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 For the woman whiche is in subiection to a man, is bounde by the lawe to the man as long as he liueth: but if the man be dead, she is loosed from the lawe of the man. 3 So then yf whyle the man liueth, she couple her selfe with another man,she shalbe counted a wedlocke breaker: but yf the man be dead, he is free from the lawe: so that he is no wedlocke breaker though she couple her selfe with another man. 4 Euen so ye also my brethren, are dead concerning the law by the (b)body of Christ: that ye should be coupled to another, who is rayſed from the dead, that we should bryng foorth fruite vnto God. 5 For when we were in the flesshe, the lustes of sinne (which were) by the law wrought in our members, to bryng foorth fruite vnto death. 6 But nowe are we deliuered from the lawe, and dead vnto it whereunto we were in bondage, that we should serue in newenesse of spirite, and not in the oldnesse of the letter. 7 What shall we say then? Is the lawe sinne? God forbid. Neuertheleſſe, I knewe not sinne, but by the lawe: For I had not knowen lust except the lawe had sayde, Thou shalt not lust. 8 But sinne takyng occasion by the commaundement, wrought in me all maner of concupiscence. For without the lawe sinne (was) dead. 9 I once lived without lawe: but when the commaundement came sinne reuyued: 10 And I was dead: and the very same commaundement whiche was (ordayned) vnto lyfe, was founde (to be) vnto me an occasion of death.

11 For sinne takyng occasion by the commaundement, hath deceaued me, and by the same slue (me.) 12 Wherefore the lawe is holy, and the commaundement holy, and iust, and good. 13 Was that then whiche was good, made death vnto me? God forbyd: But sinne, that sinne myght appeare by that whiche was good to worke death in me, that sinne by the commaundement myght be out of measure sinfull. 14 For we knowe that the lawe is spirituall: but I am carnall, solde vnder (c) sinne. 15 For that which I do, I alowe not: For what I woulde, that do I not: but what I hate, that do I. 16 If I do nowe that whiche I woulde not, I consent vnto the lawe that it is good.

17 Nowe then, it is not I that do it any more, but sinne that dwelleth in me. 18 For I knowe that in me (that is to say in my flesshe) dwelleth no good thing: For to wil is present with me: but I fynde no meanes to performe that whiche is good. 19 For the good that I woulde, do I not: but the euyll which I woulde not, that do I. 20 And if I do that I woulde not, then is it not I that doth it, but sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the law, that when I would do good, euyl is present with me. 22 For I delyte in the lawe of God after the inwarde man. 23 But I see another lawe in my members, rebellyng agaynst the lawe of my mynde, and subduyng me vnto the lawe of sinne, whiche is in my members. 24 O wretched man that I am: who shall delyuer me from the (d) body of this death? 24 I thanke God thorough Jesus Christ our Lord. So then, with the mynde I my selfe serue the lawe of God: but with the flesshe the lawe of sinne.

The. viii. Chapter.

1 The assurance of the faithful. 6 The fruites of the holy ghost.

THere is then no dampnation to them whiche are in Christ Jesus, whiche walke not after the flesshe, but after the spirite. 2 For the lawe of the (a) spirite of lyfe thorough Jesus Christe, hath made me free from the lawe of sinne and death. 3 For what the lawe couldē not do, in as muche as it was weake thorough the flesh, god sending his owne sonne in the similitude of sinful flesshe, euen by (b) sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh:

4 That the ryghteousnesse of the law myght be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesshe, but after the spirite. 5 For they that are carnall, are carnally mynded: but they that are spirituall, are spiritually mynded.

6 To be carnally mynded, is death: but to be spiritually mynded, is lyfe and peace: 7 Because that the fleshly minde is enmitie against God: For it is not obedient to the law of God, neither can be. 8 So then they that are in the flesshe, can not please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesshe, but in the spirit: if so be that the spirit of god dwel in you: If any man haue not the spirite of Christe, the same is none of his. 10 And yf Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sinne: but the spirite is life for ryghteousnesse sake.

11 But if the spirite of hym that rayſed vp Jesus from the dead, dwell in you: euen he that rayſed vp Christe from the dead, shall also quicken your mortall bodyes, because that his spi-

(c) Lyke as bondmen are violently thrust, hurled and turmoyled, as it pleaseth their cruel master: So are we through heapes of sinnes drawen to many euil doinges, which we do neither lyke nor alowe.

(a) The lawe of the spirite & the law of sinne is here taken improperly for the power and strength of the lawe and sinne: & it is called the spirite of lyfe, because it quickeneth and geueth lyfe.

rite dwelleth in you. 12 Therefore brethren, we are debters not to the flesshe, to lyue after the flesshe: 13 For if ye lyue after the flesshe, ye shall dye: but if ye through the spirite do mortifie the deedes of the body, ye shall lyue. 14 For as many as are led by the spirite of god, they are the sonnes of God. 15 For ye haue not receaued the spirite of bondage againe to feare: but ye haue receaued the spirite of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, father. 16 The same spirite beareth witnes to our spirite, that we are the sonnes of God. 17 If we be sonnes, then are we also heyres: the heyres of God, and iyntheires with Christ: so that we suffer together, that we may be also glorified together.

Gala. 4.a. 1.Tim.1.b.

2.Cor. 1.b. Ephe.1.a.

18 For I am certaynely perswaded that the afflictions of this tyme, are not worthy of the glorie which shalbe shewed vpon vs. 19 For the feruent desyre of the creature, abydeth looking when the sonnes of God shall appeare: 20 Because the (e)creature is subiect to vanitie, not willing: but for hym whiche hath subdued the same in hope. 21 For the same creature shalbe made free from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.

(e) The creatures shal not be restored before Gods children be brought to their perfection. In the meane season they desire, grone, and wayte.

If god be on our syde, who can be agaynst vs?

Num. 14.b. Luk. 11.b. John. 3.b. Esai. 53.d.

32 Which spared not his owne sonne, but gaue hym for vs all: how shall he not with him also geue vs all thinges?

34 Who shall lay any thyng to the charge of gods chosen? It is god that iustifieth. 34 Who is he that can condempne? It is Christe whiche dyed, yea rather whiche is raysed agayne, whiche is also on the ryght hande of God, and maketh intercession for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of god? (shall) tribulation, or anguishe, or persecution, either hunger, either nakednes, either perill, either swoord? 36 (As it is written, For thy sake are we killed all day long, and are counted as sheepe for the slaughter.) 37 Neuerthelesse, in all these thynges we ouercome through hym that loued vs. 38 For I am sure, that neither death, neither lyfe, neither angels, nor rule, neither power, neither thynges present, neither thynges to come, 39 Neither height, nor deapth, neither any other creature, shalbe able to separate vs from the loue of God, which is in Christ Jesu our Lorde.

30 Sal. 44.b.

(a) He sawe the losse and destruction of his whole nation, fallyng so farre from Gods true religion, he considered howe sore God shoulde be dishonoured, when his wonderfull benefites and blessinges bestowed vpon his people should take none effect, but vtterly be defaced, which so mightilie moued him, that he wished rather to be cut of from Christe, then those thynges shoulde come to passe.

The.ix. Chapter.

1 Paul declareth his feruent loue towarde his nation.

I Say the trueth in Christe, I lye not (my conscience also bearyng me witnesse by the holy ghost,) 2 That I haue great heauynesse, and continuall sorowe in my heart. 3 For I haue wished my selfe to be curssed from Christ for my brethren, my kynsmen as pertaynyng to the flesh, 4 Which are the Israelites: to whom pertayneth the adoption, and the glory, and the couenauntes, and the lawe that was geuen, and the seruice of god, and the promises: 5 Of whom are the fathers, of whom as concernyng the flesshe Christe (came) which is God in all thynges to be praysed for euer. Amen. 6 And it can not be that the worde of god shoulde take none effect: For they are not all Israelites, which are of Israel: 7 Neither are they all chyldren that are the seede of Abraham:

(b) The vvyll and purpose of God, is the cause of the election and reprobation. For his mercie and calling through Christe, are the meanes of saluation: & the vvithdravvyng of his mercie, is the cause of dampnation.

Osee.2.b. 1.Pet.2.d.

Esai.1.c. (c) The word here, is taken for a thing or matter. The Lord diminished his people by sundry plagues, persecutions, & banishmentes, and brought them to a very fewe. Likewyse meaneth S. Paul, that a fewe of them shalbe saued, which fewe notwithstanding shall abound in righteousnesse, to the glory of God.

(d) The seede is Christ Iesu, sowen abrode by his Apostles and Disciples.

(a) That is, Christe hath fulfilled the whole lawe, and therfore whosoeuer beleeueth in him, is counted iust before God, as well as he had fulfilled the whole lawe himselfe.

Wham: but in Isahac shall thy seede be called. 8 That is to say, they which are the chyldren of the flesshe, are not the children of God: but they which be the chyldren of promise, are counted the seede. 9 For this is a worde of promise, About this tyme wyll I come, and Sara shall haue a sonne.

10 Not only this, but also Rebecca was with chylde, by one (euen) by our father Isahac. 11 For yet the (chyldren) were borne, when they had neither done good neither bad, (that the purpose of God by (b) election might stande, not by the reason of workes, but by the caller) 12 It was saide vnto her, The elder shall serue the younger. 13 As it is written, Jacob haue I loued, but Esau haue I hated.

14 What shall we say then? Is there any vnrighteousnes with God? God forbid. 15 For he sayth to Moyses, I wil shewe mercie to whom I shewe mercie: and wyll haue compassion on whom I haue compassion. 16 So then (election) is not of the wyller nor of the runner: but of the mercy of God. 17 For the scripture sayth vnto Pharao, Euen for this same purpose haue I stirred thee vp, to shewe my power in thee, and that my name myght be declared throughout all the worlde. 18 So hath he mercie on whom he wyll, and whom he wyll he hardeneth. 19 Thou wylt say then vnto me? Why then blameth he (vs) yet? For who hath ben able to resist his wyll? 20 But O man, what art thou which disputest with God? Shal the worke say to the workeman, Why hast thou made me on this fashion?

21 Hath not the potter power ouer the claye, euen of the same lumpe to make one vessell vnto honour, and another vnto dishonour? 22 What yf God wyllyng to shewe his wrath, and to make his power knowen, suffred with long pacience the vesselles of wrath ordeyned to destruction:

23 To declare the ryches of his glory on the vessels of mercie, whiche he had prepared vnto glory? 24 Whom also he called, not of the Iewes only, but also of the Gentiles: 25 As he sayth also in Osee, I wyll call them my people, whiche were not my people: and her beloued, whiche was not beloued. 26 And it shal come to passe, that in the place where it was sayde vnto them, Ye are not my people: there shall they be called the chyldren of the lyuyng God. 27 And Esaias cryeth concernyng Israel, (Though) the number of the chyldren of Israel be as the sande of the sea, yet (but) a remnaunt shalbe saued. 28 For he finisheth the (c) worde, and maketh it shorte in righteousnesse: for a shorte worde wyll the Lorde make on earth.

29 And as Esaias sayde before. Except the lorde of Sabaoth had left vs (d) seede, we had ben made as Sodoma, and had ben lykned to Gomorrha.

30 What shall we say then? That the gentiles whiche folowed not righteousnes, haue obtayned righteousnes: euen the righteousnes (which cometh) of fayth: 31 But Israel which folowed the lawe of righteousnesse, hath not attayned to the lawe of righteousnes. 32 Wherefore? Because (they sought it) not by fayth, but as it were by the workes of the lawe: For they haue stumbled at the stumbling stone, 33 As it is written, Beholde, I put in Sion a stumbling stone, & a rocke of offence: and whosoeuer beleueth on hym, shall not be confounded.

The .x. Chapter.

3 Paul sheweth the cause of the fall of the Iewes.

BRethren, my hartes desire & prayer to God for Israel is that they myght be saued. 2 For I beare them record, that they haue a zeale of God: but not according to knowledge.

3 For they beyng ignorant of Gods righteousnes, and goyng about to stablyshe theyr owne righteousnes, haue not ben obedient vnto the righteousnes of God. 4 For Christe is the (a) ende of the lawe, for righteousnes to all that beleue. 5 For Moyses writeth of the righteousnes which (is) of the lawe, howe that the man whiche doth those thinges, shall liue by them.

6 But the righteousnesse whiche is of fayth, speaketh on thus wyse; Say not thou in thyne heart, Who shall ascende into heauen? that, is to fetche Christe downe from aboue. 7 Eyther who shal descende into the deepe? that, is to fetche vp Christe agayne from the dead. 8 But what saith he, The worde is nye thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thy heart. This same is the worde of fayth whiche we preache. 9 For yf thou shalt knowledge with thy mouth the Lorde Iesus, and shalt beleue in thyne heart that that God rayſed him from the dead, thou ſhalt be ſaued. 10 For with the heart man beleueth vnto ryghteouſnes: & with the mouth man confeſſeth to ſaluation. 11 For the ſcripture ſayth, Whoſoeuer beleueth on hym, ſhall not be confounded. 12 There is no differẽce betweene the Iewe and the Greke: for the ſame Lorde ouer al, is ryche vnto all that call vpon hym.

14 Howe then ſhall they call on him on whom they haue not beleued? howe ſhal they beleue on him of whom they haue not hearde? howe ſhal they heare without a preacher? 15 And howe ſhall they preach except they be ſent? as it is wrytten, Howe beautifull are the feete of them which bryng good tydynges of peace, and bryng good tydynges of good thynges.

19 But, I demaunde whether Iſrael did know or not? Firſt Moyſes ſaith, I wyll prouoke you to enuie by them that are no people: and by a foolyſhe nation I wyll anger you. 20 And Eſaias is bolde, and ſayth, I am founde of them that ſought me not: I am manifeſt vnto them that aſked not after me.

The.xi. Chapter.

29 God repenteth him not of his giftes.
33 The deapth of Gods iudgementes.

I Say then, hath God caſt away his people? God forbid. For I alſo am an Iſraelite, of the ſeede of Abraham, of the tribe of Beniamin.

2 God hath not caſt away his people which he knewe before. Wote ye not what the ſcripture ſayth of Elias? howe he maketh intercceſſion to God againſt Iſrael, 3 Saying, Lord, they haue kylled thy prophetes, and dyg-ged downe thine (a) aulters: and I am left alone, and they ſeeke my lyfe.

4 But what ſayth the anſwere of God vnto him? I haue reſerued vnto my ſelfe ſeuen thouſande men, which haue not bowed the knee to (the image of) Baal. 5 Euen ſo at this tyme, there is a remnaunt accordyng to the election of grace. 6 If it be of grace, then is it not nowe of workes: for then grace is no more grace. But yf it be of workes, then is it now no grace: for then worke is no more worke.

7 What then? Iſrael hath not obtayned that which he ſought, but the election hath obtained it, the remnaunt hath ben blinded. 8 (Accordyng as it is wrytten, God hath geuen them the ſpirite of (b) remorſe: eyes that they ſhoulde not ſee, and eares that they ſhoulde not heare) euen vnto this day.

Eſai.6.c. Mat.13.b.

(b) That is, prickyng and vnquietnes of conſcience

9 And Dauid ſayth, Let their table be made a ſnare, and a trappe, and a ſtumbling ſtone, and a recompence vnto them. 10 Let their eyes be blinded that they ſee not: & bowe thou downe their backe alway.

Pſal.69.c.

11 I ſay then, haue they therefore ſtumbled, that they ſhoulde fall? God forbyd: but through their fallnes (is come) vnto the (c) gentiles, for to prouoke them withall. 12 Nowe, yf the fall of them be the ryches of the worlde, and the minishyng of them the riches of the gentiles: howe much more their fulnes? 13 For (I ſpeake to you gentiles, in as muche as I am the apoſtle of the gentiles) I magnifie myne office, 14 Yf by any meane I may prouoke them which are my fleſhe, and myght ſaue ſome of them.

(c) That is, for that the Iewes contemnyng the goſpell of Chriſte fell away from god, the preachyng of the goſpell came vnto the gentiles, which is their ſaluation.

15 For yf the caſtyng away of them, be the reconcilyng of the worlde: what ſhall the receauyng (of them) be, but lyfe from the dead? 16 For if the firſt fruites be holy, the whole lumpe alſo (is holy:) and yf the roote be holy, the braunches alſo. 17 And yf ſome of the braunches be broken (d) of, and thou beyng a wylde Olyue tree, waſt graft in among them, and made partaker of the roote and fatneſſe of the Olyue tree: 18 Boaſt not thy ſelf againſt the braunches: For if thou boaſt thy ſelfe, thou beareſt not the roote, but the roote thee. 19 Thou wylt ſay then, The braunches are broken of, that I myght be graft in.

(d) Theſe broken braunches, were the vnbeleuyng Iewes, whiche for their vnbeliefe were cut of from the promiſe of god, in whoſe ſteade was the vvylde Olyue, that is, the gentiles, grafted through fayth.

20 Well: becauſe of vnbeleefe they were broken of, and thou ſtoodeſt ſtedfaſt in fayth: Be not hye mynded, but feare. 21 For ſeeyng that God ſpared

eed not the naturall braunches (take heede) lest it come to passe that he spare not thee. 22 Beholde therefore the kyndnesse and rigorousnesse of God: on them which fell, rigorousnesse: but towardes thee, kindnesse, if thou continue in kindnesse: or els thou shalt be hewen of: 23 And they, yf they byde not still in vnbeliefe, shalbe grafted in: for God is of power to graffe them in agayne. 24 For yf thou were cut out of a naturall wylde Olyue tree, and were grafted contrary to nature in a true Olyue tree: howe muche more shall the naturall braunches be grafted in theyr owne Olyue tree? 25 For I woulde not brethren that ye shoulde be ignorannt of this mysterie, (lest ye shoulde be wyse in your owne conceytes,) that partlye blyndnesse is happened in Israel, vntyll the fulnesse of the gentiles be come in. 26 And so all Israel shalbe saued, as it is written, There shall come out of Sion he that doth deliuer, and shall turne away vngodlynes from Jacob. 27 And this is my conenannt vnto them, When I shal take away their sinnes. 28 As concerning the Gospell, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touchyng the election, they are loued for the fathers (sakes.) 29 For the gyftes and callyng of God are without repentaunce. 30 For as ye in tyme paste haue not beleued God, yet haue ye nowe obteyned mercy thyough theyr vnbeliefe: 31 Euen so nowe haue they not * beleued the mercy (shewed) vnto you, that they also may obtayne mercy. 32 For God hath wrapped all (nations) in vnbeliefe, that he myght haue mercy on all. 33 O the deepenesse of the ryches both of the wysedome and knowledge of God: how vnsearcheable are his iudgementes, and his wayes past fyndyng out?

34 For who hath knowen the mynde of the Lorde? or who hath ben his counsellour? 35 Either who hath genen vnto hym(c) first, and he shalbe recompenced agayne? 36 For of hym, and thyough hym, and for hym are all thynges: To whom be glory for euer. Amen.

The.xii. Chapter.

1 Howe euery man shoulde walke in his seuerall callyng.

I Beseche you therefore brethren by the mercifulnesse of God, that ye geue vp your bodyes a quicke (a) sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto god (which is) your reasonable seruice: 2 And fashion not your selues lyke vnto this worlde: but be ye chaunged in your shape by the renuing of your mynde, that ye may proue what is the wyll of God, good, and acceptable and perfect. 3 For I say thyough the grace geuen vnto me, to euery man among you, that no man esteeme of him selfe more then he ought to esteeme: but so esteeme (him selfe) that he behaue him selfe discretely, accordyng as God hath dealt to euery man the measure of fayth. 4 For as we haue many members in one bodye, and all members haue not one office: 5 So we beyng many, are one body in Christe, and euery one members one of another. 6 Seyng that we haue dyuers gyftes accordyng to the grace that is geuen vnto vs, either prophecie, (let vs prophesie) after the measure of fayth:

7 Either office, in administration: or he that teacheth, in teachyng:

8 Or he that exhorteth, in exhorting: he that geueth, in singlenesse: he that ruleth, in diligence: he that is mercyful, in chearefulnes. 9 Loue without dissimulation: Hating euyll, cleauyng to good. 10 Affectioned one to another with brotherly loue. In geuyng honor go one before another.

11 Not lither in businesse. Feruent in spirite. Seruyng the Lord. 12 Reioycyng in hope. Patient in trouble. Instant in prayer. 13 Distributyng to the necessitie of saintes. Geuen to hospitalitie. 14 Blesse them which persecute you, blesse, and curse not.

15 Reioyce with them that do reioyce, and wepe with them that wepe.

16 Beyng of lyke affection one towardes another. Beyng not hie minded: but making youre selues equall to them of the lower sort. Be not wise in your owne opinions. 17 Recompensing to no man euyl for euyll. Prouidyng afore hande thynges honest (not only before God, but also) in the syght of all men. 18 If it be possible, as muche as lyeth in you, lyue peaceably with all men. 19 Dearely beloued, auenge not your selues, but rather geue place vnto wrath: for it is written, Vengeaunce is myne, I will repay (sayth the Lorde. 20 Therefore, if thyne enemie hunger, feede hym: if he thyrste, geue hym drynke: For in so doyng, thou shalt heape coales of fyre on his head. 21 Be not ouercome

2. Cor. 3. d.

Esai. 59. d. 30 sal. 14. c.

* Or, obeyed.

(c) By this, the apostle declareth that god by his free wyll and election, doth geue saluation vnto me, without any desertes of their owne.

(a) The Iewes in Moyses law, were commaunded to offer vp the dead carkases of beastes; but christians shoulde exhibite their owne lyuely bodyes for a sacrifice to god, in mortifiyng theyr carnal lustes, and framing the selues by fayth to godlines and charitie.

(b) The worlde hath diuers signifycations in the scriptures, but here is taken specially for the nature & disposition of men in the world, whiche lined after theyr lustes and pleasures, & tenueth not god in holynes of life, & godly conuersation.

(c) Two thynges are required, yf we will esteeme or iudge soberly of Gods giftes in vs: The one, that we do not arrogate to our selues, that whiche we haue not: The next, that we boast not of the gentiles, but reuerently & soberly to vse the to gods honour and glory.

come of euyll: but ouercome euyll with good.

The .xiii. Chapter.

1 Of obedience to the rulers, vvho beare not the svvorde in vayne. 8 Charitie must measure al our doinges.

LEt euery soule be subiect vnto the hyer powers: For there is no power but of God: The powers that be, are ordained of God. 2 Whosoeuer therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receaue to them selues dampnation. 3 For rulers are not fearefull to good workes, but to the euyll. Wylt thou not feare the power? Do well, and thou shalt haue prayse of the same. 4 For he is the minister of God for thy wealth. But yf thou do euyll, feare: for he beareth not the swoid in vayne: For he is the minister of God, reuenger of wrath on him that doth euyl. 5 Wherefore ye must needes be subiect, not onlye for feare of punishment: but also because of (a) conscience. 6 And for this cause pay ye tribute: For they are gods ministers, seruing for the same purpose. 7 Geue to euery man therefore his duetie: tribute to whom tribute (is due) custome to whom custome, feare to whom feare, honour to whom honour (belongeth.) 8 Owe nothyng to no man, but to loue one another: (For he that loueth another, hath fulfilled the lawe. 9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adulterie, Thou shalt not kyll, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witnes, Thou shalt not lust: and yf there be any other commaundement, it is cõprehended in this saying: namely, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe. 10 Charitie worketh no yll to his neighbour: therefore the fulfilling of the lawe is charitie.) 11 And chiefely considering the season, howe that it is tyme that we should now awake out of sleepe. For nowe is our saluation (b) nearer, then when we beleued. 12 The night is passed, the day is come nye. Let vs therefore cast away the deedes of darknesse, and let vs put on the armour of light. 13 Let vs walke honestly as in the day, not in rioting and dronkennesse, neither in chamberyng & wantonnes, neither in strife and enuying. 14 But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christe, and make not prouision for the flesshe to (fulfill) the lustes (thereof.)

(a) For we are bounde in conscience by the worde of God, to obey the higher powers, & in disobeying we shuld hurt the consciences (of) others, through our euyll example. Leuit. xix. d. Mat. xxi. d. Mar. xii. c.

(b) The further vve go, the nearer are vve to the ende. Novv therefore our perfect & full saluation is neerer vnto vs, then vvhe vve began first to beleue. Luke. xxi. f. Eccle. xi. c.

The .xiiii. Chapter.

15 One ought to beare vvith anothers conscience in charitie.

HYm that is weake in the fayth receaue, not to iudgementes of (a) disputing. 2 One believeth that he may eate euery thing: another which is weake, eateth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, dispise him that eateth not: and let not hym which eateth not, iudge him that eateth. For God hath receaued him.

4 What art thou that iudgest another mans seruaunt? To his owne maister he standeth or falleth: yea, he shalbe holden vp: For God is able to make him stande. 5 This man putteth difference betweene day and day. Another man counteth all dayes a lyke. Let euery man be fully perswaded in his owne (b) minde. 6 He that esteemeth the day, esteemeth it vnto the Lorde: and he that esteemeth not the day, to the Lorde he doth not esteeme it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lorde, for he geueth God thankes: and he that eateth not, eateth not to the Lorde, and geueth God thankes. 7 For none of vs liueth to him selfe, and no man dyeth to him selfe.

8 For yf we lyue, we lyue vnto the Lord: And yf we dye, we dye vnto the Lorde. Whether we lyue therefore, or dye, we are the Lordes. 9 For to this ende Christe both dyed and rose agayne and reuiued, that he might be Lorde both of dead and quicke.

10 But why doest thou then iudge thy brother? Eyther, why doest thou despise thy brother? We shalbe all brought before the iudgement seate of Christe. 11 For it is written, I lyue, sayth the Lorde: and all knees shall bowe to me, and all tongues shal geue prayse to God. 12 So shall euery one of vs gene accompt of him selfe to God. 13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but iudge this rather, that no man put a stumblyng blocke, or an occasion to fall in his brothers way. 14 For I knowe, and am perswaded by the lord Jesus, that there is nothing common of it selfe: but vnto him that iudgeth it to be common, to him is it common. 15 But yf thy brother be greeued with thy meate, nowe walkest thou not charitably: destroy not hym with thy meate for whom Christe dyed. 16 Let not your good be euyll spoken of. 17 For the kyngdome

(a) That is, not to this ende, contentiously to dispute vvith him in matters of religion, vvherunto, through the vveakenes of fayth, he can not as yet attayne, lest he shuld depart vvith a greater scruple of conscience, or be offended vvith vncharitable reasonyng. Jacob. 4. b.

(b) We must be assured in our conscience by gods vvorde in all thing that vve do, that if vve be strong, vve may knowe vvhat is our liberties: and yf vve be weake, we may learne to profite dayly.

of God is not meate and drinke: but righteousnesse and peace, and ioy in the holy ghost. 18 For he that in these thinges serueth Christe, pleaseth God, and is commended of men.

19 Let vs therefore folowe those thinges whiche make for peace, and thinges wherewith one may edifie another. 20 Destroy not the worke of God for meates sake: All thinges are pure: but it is euyll for that man which eateth with offence. 21 It is good neither to eate flesshe, neither to drynke wine, neither (any thing) whereby thy brother stumbleth, eyther falleth, or is made weake.

22 Hast thou (c)fayth? Haue it with thy selfe before God. Happy is he that condempneth not him selfe in that (thing which) he alloweth. 23 For he that maketh conscience, is dampned yf he eate, because (he eateth) not of fayth: For whatsoeuer is not of fayth, is sinne.

(c) Fayth, is here taken for a ful persuation of the christian libertie in thinges indifferent.

The .xv. Chapter.

14 Paul sheweth his zeale towarde them, 30 and requireth the like of them.

WE whiche are strong, ought to beare the featines of the weake, and not to stande in our owne conceiptes. 2 Let euery man please his neighbour in that that is good to (a)edifying. 3 For Christ pleased not him selfe, but as it is written, The rebukes of them which rebuked thee, fel on me. 4 For whatsoeuer things haue ben written afore tyme, were written for our learnyng: that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might haue hope. 5 The God of patience and * consolation, graunt you to be lyke mynded one towardes another after the ensample of Christe Iesus: 6 That ye all agreeyng together, may with one mouth prayse God and the father of our Lorde Iesus Christe. 7 Wherefore receaue ye one another, as Christ receaued vs to the prayse of God.

(a) To edifie signifieth to do all maner of dueties to our neighbour, eyther to bring him to Christ, or yf he be wonne, that he may go forwarde in vertue.

* The aucthour of consolation, Deut. 19. b.

8 And I say, that Iesus Christe was a minister of the circumcision for the treuth of God, to confirme the promise (made) vnto the fathers: 9 And that the Gentiles might prayse God for his mercie: as it is written, For this cause I will prayse thee among the Gentiles, & sing vnto thy name.

10 And agayne he sayth, Reioyce ye Gentiles with his people. 11 And agayne, Prayse the Lorde all ye Gentiles, and laude him all ye people together. 12 And agayne Esaias saith, There shalbe the roote of Iesse, and he that shall ryse to raigne ouer the Gentils, in him shall the Gentiles trust. 13 The God of hope fill you with all ioy and peace in beleeuing, that ye may be riche in hope, through the power of the holy ghost. 14 I my selfe am perswaded of you my brethren, that ye also are ful of goodnes, and filled with all knowledge, able also to exhort one another. 15 Neuertheles brethren, I haue somewhat more boldly written vnto you, to put you in remembrance, through the grace that is geuen to me of God, Esai. 11. a.

16 That I should be the minister of Iesus Christe to the Gentiles. and should minister the Gospell of God, that the offering of the (b) Gentiles might be acceptable, and sanctified by the holy ghost. 17 I haue therefore wherof I may reioyce through Christ Iesus, in those thinges whiche (perteyne) to God. 18 For I dare not speake of any of those thinges which Christe hath not wrought by me, to (make) the Gentiles obedient with worde and deede, 19 In mightie signes and wonders, by the power of the spirite of God: so that from Hierusalem, and (the coastes) rounde about, vnto Illyricum I haue fully preached the Gospell of Christe.

(b) He calleth here the offering of the gentiles, the people of the gentiles, whom he wonne to God by the preachyng of the gospell.

20 So haue I enforced my selfe to preache the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should haue built vppon another mans (c) foundation:

Esai. lii. b.

(c) An other mans foundation he calleth here the churches that were taught and instructed of other apostles.

21 But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that heard not, shall vnderstande. 22 For this cause I haue ben oft let, that I could not come vnto you. 23 But nowe, seeyng I haue no more to do in these countreis, and also haue ben desirous many yeres to come vnto you: 24 Whensoeuer I take my iourney into Spayne, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my iourney, and to be brought on my way thytherwarde by you, after that I be somewhat fylled with you.

25 But nowe go I vnto Hierusalem, to minister vnto the (d) saintes. 26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certayne common gatheryng for the poore saintes which are at Hierusalem.

(d) That is, to carry to the poore saintes that lyued at Hierusalem, thalmes that he gathered for them among the gentiles where he preached.

27 It hath pleased them (verily) and their debters are they. For yf the Gentiles be made partakers of their spirituall spirituall thinges (their) duetie is to minister vnto them in carnal thinges.

28 When I haue perfourmed this, and haue(e)sealed to them this fruite, I will come by you into Spayne.

29 And I am sure that when I come vnto you, I shall come with abounddaunce of the blessing of the Gospell of Christ. 30 I beseche you brethren for the Lorde Jesus Christes sake, and for the lone of the spirite, that ye helpe me in my busynesse with (your) prayers to God for me: 31 That I may be deliuered from them whiche beleue not in Iurie, and that this my seruice whiche I haue at Hierusalem may be accepted of the saintes:

32 That I may come vnto you with ioy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed. 33 The God of peace be with you all. Amen.

(e) That is, when I shall faithfully deliuer it to them, as it were sealed most surely. By fruite he meaneth almes, whiche is the fruite of the fayth of those that had receaued the gospell. 1. Cor. 14. k.

The. xvi. Chapter.

¶ A number of salutations. 17 Paul willeth them to beware of false brethren.

I Commende vnto you Phebe our sister, which is a minister of the(a) Churche of Cenchree: 2 That ye receaue her in the Lorde as it becommeth saintes, and that ye assist her in whatsoeuer businesse she hath neede of you: For she hath succoured many, and my selfe also. 3 Greete Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christe Jesus: 4 (Whiche haue for my lyfe layde downe their owne neckes: Vnto whym not onlye I geue thankes, but also all the Churches of the Gentiles:) 5 Lykewyse (greete) the Churche that is in their house. Salute my welbeloued Epenetus, which is the first fruite of Achaia in Christ.

6 Greete Marie, whiche bestowed much labour on vs. 7 Salute Andronicus and Junia my cosins, and prisoners with me also, whiche are well taken among the apostles, and were in Christe before me. 8 Greete Amplias my beloued in the Lorde.

9 Salute Urban our helper in Christe, and Stachys my beloued.

10 Salute Appelles approued in Christe. Salute them whiche are of Aristobulus (housholde.) 11 Salute Herodian my kinsman. Greete them that be of (the housholde of) Narcissus, which (are) in the Lorde. 12 Salute Tryphena, and Tryphosa, which labour in the Lorde. Salute the beloued Perss, whiche laboured much in the Lorde. 13 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lorde, and his mother & myne.

14 Greete Asyncritus, Phlegon, Herman, Patrobas, Mercurius, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saintes whiche are with them. 16 Salute one an other with an holy (b) kisse. The Churches of Christe salute you. 17 Nowe I beseche you brethren, (c) marke them which cause deuision, and geue occasions of cuyll, contrary to the doctrine whiche ye haue learned, and anoyde them. 18 For they that are such, serue not the Lorde Jesus Christe, but their owne belly: and with sweete and flatteryng wordes deceaue the heartes of the innocentes. 19 For your obedience is gone abrode vnto all men. I am glad therfore no doubt, of you: But yet I wouldе haue you wyse vnto that whiche is good, and simple concernyng cuyll. 20 The God of peace shall treade Satan vnder your feete shortly. The grace of our Lorde Jesus Christe be with you. Amen. 21 Timotheus my worke-felowe, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater my kinsmen salute you.

22 I Tertius whiche wrote this Epistle salute you in the Lorde.

23 Gaius myne hoast, and of the whole Churche, saluteth you. Erastus the chamberlayne of the citie saluteth you, and Quartus a brother.

24 The grace of our Lorde Jesus Christe be with you all. Amen.

25 To him that is of power to stablishe you, according to my Gospell, and preachyng of Jesus Christe, by reuealyng of the mysterie which was kept secrete sence the worlde began,

26 But nowe is opened, and by the scriptures of the prophetes, at the commaundement of the euerlasting God, to the obedience of fayth, among all nations published: 27 To (the same) God, wyse only, be glorie, through Jesus Christe, for euer. Amen.

¶ This Epistle was written to the Romanes from Corinthus (and sent) by Phebe the minister vnto the Churche at Cenchrea.

(a) In the primatiue Churche auncient wydowes, and other vertuous women were chosen and appoynted to minister vnto the needy, and therfore called ministers: & not because they had any publique auctoritie to teache in the congregatiō.

(b) This was a signe of amitie amōg the Iewes, which saint Paul wylleth to be holy, that is, that it come from a mynde full of godly charitie.

(c) There are two markes to know the false apostles bye. The one is, when they leaue Christ and serue their belly. The other, when they regarde not the holy scripture, but preache lyes and their owne fantasies.

The first Epistle of Saint Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians.

¶ The first Chapter.

1 He prayseth the great graces of God shewed towarde them, 10 exhortyng them to concorde and humilitie.

PAul called (to be) an apostle of Jesus Chriſt, thorowe the wyll of God, & bzother Sostenes:

2 Unto the Churche of God which is at Corinthus, to them that are ſanctified in Chriſte Jeſus (a) ſaintes by callyng, with all that call on the name of our Lozde Jeſus Chriſte in euery place, both of theirs and ours: 3 Grace be vnto you, and peace from God our father, and from the Lozd Jeſus Chriſte. 4 I thanke my God alwayes on your behalfe, foz the grace of God which is geuen you in Jeſus Chriſte: 5 That in all thinges ye are made riche in him, in all vtteraunce, and in all knowledge:

6 As the teſtimonie of Jeſus Chriſt was confirmed in you. 7 So that ye are deſtitute of no gift, waiting foz the appearing of our Lozde Jeſus Chriſt. 8 Which ſhall alſo * ſtrengthe you vnto the ende, that ye may be (b) blameleſſe in the day of our Lozde Jeſus Chriſte. 9 God is faithfull, by whom ye are called vnto the felowſhipe of his ſonne Jeſus Chriſte our Lozde.

10 Nowe I beſeche you bzethzen by the name of our Lozde Jeſus Chriſt, that ye all ſpeake one thing, and that there be no diſcentions among you: but be ye knyt together in one minde, and in one meanyng. 11 Foz it is ſhewed vnto me my bzethzen of you, by them whiche are of the houſe of Cloe, that there are contentions among you. 12 Nowe this I ſay, that euery one of you ſaith, I am of Paul, and I am of Apollo, and I am of Cephas, and I am of Chriſte. 13 Is Chriſte diuided? was Paul crucified foz you? eyther were ye baptized in the name of Paul? 14 I thanke God that I baptized none of you, but Criſpus and Gaius: 15 Leſt any ſhould ſay that I had baptized in myne owne name. 16 I baptized alſo the houſeholde of Stephana: Furthermoze knowe I not whether I baptized any other. 17 Foz Chriſte ſent me not to baptize, but to preache the Goſpel: not with wyſdome of (c) wozdes, leſt the croſſe of Chriſt ſhould be made of none effect. 18 Foz the preachyng of the croſſe is to them that periſhe fooliſhneſſe: but vnto vs whiche are ſaued, it is the power of god. 19 Foz it is wzitten, I wyll deſtroy the wyſdome of the wyſe, and wyll caſt away the vnderſtandyng of the prudent.

20 Where is the wyſe? where is the Scribe? where is the diſputer of this wozlde? hath not God made the wyſdome of this wozlde fooliſhneſſe? 21 Foz after that the wozlde through wyſdome knewe not God in the wyſdome of God: it pleaſed God thzough fooliſhneſſe of preaching to ſaue them that beleue. 22 Foz the Jewes require a ſigne, and the Grekes ſeeke after wyſdome: 23 But we preache Chriſte crucified, vnto the Jewes a ſtumblyng bloche, & vnto the Grekes fooliſhneſſe: 24 But vnto them which are called, both of the Jewes and Grekes (we preache) Chriſte the power of God, and the wyſdome of God. 25 Foz the fooliſhneſſe of god is wyſer then men: and the weakeneſs of God is ſtronger then men.

26 Bzethzen, ye ſee your callyng, howe that not many wyſe men after the fleſhe, not many mightie, not many noble (are called:) 27 But God hath choſen the fooliſhe thinges of the wozlde, to confounde the wyſe: and God hath choſen the weake thinges of the wozlde, to confounde thinges whiche are mightie: 28 And vnnoble thinges of the wozlde, and thinges which are deſpiſed, hath God choſen, (yea) and thinges whiche are not, to bzyng to naught thinges that are: 29 That no fleſſe ſhoulde reioyce in his preſence. 30 And of him are ye in Chriſte Jeſus, whiche of

The .ii. Chapter.

1 He putteth for example his maner of preachyng, which was accordyng to the tenour of the Gospell,

A

AND I brethren, when I came to you, came not in gloriousnesse of wordes, or of wysdome, shewyng vnto you the (a) testimonie of God.

(a) That is the gospell, wherby god doth manifest him selfe to the world, or whereof God is the aucthour & witnesse.

2 For I esteemed not to knowe any thing among you, saue Jesus Christe, and him crucified. 3 And I was among you in weakenesse, and in feare, and in much tremblyng. 4 And my wordes and my preachyng (was) not with entising wordes of mans wysdome, but in shewyng of the spirite, and of power: 5 That your fayth shoulde not stande in the wysdome of men, but in the power of god. 6 And we speake wysdome among them that are perfect: not the wysdome of this worlde, neither of the princes of this worlde, which come to naught:

7 But we speake the wysdome of God in a mysterie (euen) the hyd (wysdome) which God ordayned before the worlde vnto our glorie. 8 Whiche none of the princes of this worlde knewe: For had they knowen it, they that loue him. 10 But God hath reuealed (them) vnto vs by his spirite. For the spirite searcheth all thinges, yea the deepe thinges of god. 11 For what man knoweth the thinges of a man, saue the (b) spirite of a man which is in him? Euen so the thinges of God knoweth no man, but the spirite of God. 12 And we haue receaued not the spirite of the worlde, but the spirite which is of God: that we might knowe the thinges that are geuen to vs of god. 13 Which thinges also we speake, not in the wordes which mans wysdome teacheth: but which the holy ghost teacheth, comparyng spirituall thinges with spirituall thinges. 14 But the naturall man perceaueth not the thinges of the spirite of God, for they are foolishnesse vnto him: neither can he knowe (them) because they are spiritually discerned. 15 But he that is spirituall discerneth all thinges, yet he him selfe is iudged of no man.

Esai.xl.c. Rom.xi.e.

16 For who hath knowen the mynde of the Lorde, that he myght instruct him? But we haue the (c) mynde of Christe.

(c) That is, Christes spirite.

The .iii. Chapter.

3 Paul rebuketh the sectes and aucthours thereof. 11 Christe is the foundation of his Churche.

A

AND I coulde not speake vnto you brethren, as vnto spirituall, but as vnto carnall (euen) as vnto (a) babes in Christ. 2 I gaue you milke to drinke, and not meate: for ye then were not strong, neither are ye as yet.

(a) Beyng ingrafted in Christe by fayth, we begyn to moue by his spirit: & as we profite in fayth, we growe vp to a ripe age. And here let him take heede that teacheth, lest for mylke he geue poyson. For mylke & strong meate in effect are one, but only differ in maner and fourme.

3 For ye are carnall: Seeing then there is among you enuying, & strife, and sectes, are ye not carnall, and walke as men? 4 For whyle one sayth, I am of Paul, and another, I (am) of Apollo: are ye not carnall?

B

5 What is Paul? what is Apollo? Only ministers are they by whom ye beleued, euen as the Lorde gaue to euery man. 6 I haue planted, Apollo watred: but god gaue the encrease.

7 So then, neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth: but God that geueth the encrease. 8 He that planteth, and he that watereth, are one: and euery man shall receaue his rewarde accordyng to his labour. 9 For we together are gods labourers, ye are gods husbandrie, ye are gods buyldyng. 10 Accordyng to the grace of god geuen vnto me, as a wyse maister buylder haue I layde the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let euery man

Ephe.ii.d.

(b) take heede how he buildeth vpon. 11 For other foundation can no man lay then that that is layde, whiche is Jesus Christe. 12 If any man build on this foundation, golde, siluer, precious stones, tymber, hay (or) stubble: 13 Euery mans worke shall appeare. The day shall declare it, because it shalbe reueiled by the fyre, and the fyre shall trye euery mans worke what it is. 14 If any mans worke that he hath buylt vppon abyde, he shall receaue a rewarde. 15 If any mans worke burne, he shall suffer losse, but he shalbe safe him selfe: neuertheless, yet as it were through

(b) He reproueth the ministers of Corinth, as teachers of curious doctrines and questions.

Mat.xvi.c.

1.Cor.vi.d. fyre. 16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the spirite of God dwelleth in you? 17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the temple of God is holy, which (temple) ye are.

18 Let no man deceaue him selfe: If any man among you seeme (to hym selfe) to be wyse in this worlde, let him be a foole, that he may be wyse.

Iob.v.e. (c) Whe they them selues are entangled in the same snares which they layde for others.

19 For the wysdome of this worlde, is foolishnesse with God: For it is writtē, He compasseth the wyse in (c) their owne craftynesse. 20 And agayne, The Lorde knoweth the thoughtes of the wyse that they be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man reioyce in (d) men: for all thinges are yours.

(d) But in God, who worketh by his ministers to his owne glorie, and the comfort of his Churche.

22 Whether it be Paul, or Apollo, or Cephas, either the worlde, either life, or death, whether they be present thinges, or thinges to come: all are yours, 23 And ye are Christes, and Christe (is) Gods.

The .iiii. Chapter.

1 After he had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 seyng they dyd not acknowledge him such one, 4 he appealeth to Gods iudgement.

LEt a man so esteeme of vs as the ministers of Christe, and disposers of the secretes of God.

2 Furthermore, it is required of the dispolers, that a man be found faythfull. 3 With me it is but a very small thing that I shoulde be iudged of you, eyther of mans iudgement: no, I iudge not (a) myne owne selfe.

A Deut.19.d.

(a) Whether I haue great giftes or little, fewe or many.

4 For I knowe nothyng by my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustified: but he that iudgeth me is the Lorde.

5 Therefore iudge nothyng before the tyme, vntyll the Lorde come, who wyll lighten thinges that are hyd in darknesse, and open the counsels of the heartes: and then shall euery man haue prayse of God. 6 And these thinges brethren, I haue figuratiuely applyed vnto my selfe and to Apollos, for your sakes; that ye myght learne by vs, that no man conceaue in mynde aboue that whiche is written, that one swell not agaynst another for any mans cause. 7 For who (b) separateth thee? And what hast thou that thou hast not receaued? yf thou haue receaued it, why reioycest thou as thoughe thou haddest not receaued it. 8 Now ye are full, now ye are made riche, ye raigne as kinges without vs, and I wouldde to God ye dyd raigne, that we also might raigne with you. 9 For me thinketh that god hath set forth vs which are the last apostles, as it were men appoynted to death. For we are made a gasing stocke vnto the worlde, and to the angels, & to men. 10 We (are) (c) fooles for Christes sake, but ye (are) wyse in Christe. We (are) weake, but ye (are) strong: Ye (are) honorable, but we (are) dispised. 11 Euen vnto this " time we both hunger & thirst, and are naked, and are bufketed, and haue no certayne dwellyng place,

25 (b) To wyt, from other men, and preferreth thee.

12 And labour, worknyng with our owne handes: we are reuyled, and we blesse: we are persecuted, and suffer it: 13 We are cuyl spoken of, and we pray: we are made as the filthynesse of the worlde, (and as) the offscowryng of all thinges vnto this day. 14 I wryte not these thinges to shame you, but as my beloued sonnes I warne you. 15 For though ye haue ten thousande instructours in Christ, yet (haue ye) not many fathers: For in Christe Iesus I haue begotten you through the gospell. 16 Wherefore I desyre you, be ye folowers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne and faythfull in the Lorde, which shall put you in remembraunce of my wayes which be in Christe, as I teache euery where in al Churches.

18 Some swell as though I woulde come no more at you: 19 But I wyl come to you shortly, yf the Lord wyll, and wyll knowe, not the wordes of them which swell, but the power.

20 For the kingdome of God is not in word, but in (d) power. 21 What wyll ye? Shall I come vnto you with a rod, or in loue and in the spirite of meeknesse?

A Dare any of you, hauyng busines " with another, be iudged vnder the (a) vniust, and not rather vnder the saintes? 2 Do ye not know that the saintes shal iudge the world? If the worlde shalbe iudged by you, are ye vnworthy to iudge the smallest matters? 3 Knowe ye not howe that we shall iudge the angels? Howe much more, thinges that partayne to this lyfe? 4 If then ye haue iudgement of thinges partaynyng to this lyfe, set vp them to iudge whiche are least esteemed in the Churche. 5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wyse man among you? no not one that can iudge betweene brother and brother? 6 But one brother goeth to lawe with another, and that vnder the vnbeleuers? 7 Now therefore there is vtterly a fault among you, because ye go to lawe one with another: Why rather suffer ye not wrong? why rather suffer ye not harme? 8 Nay, ye your selues do wrong, and do harme, & that to your brethren. 9 Knowe ye not that the vnrighteous shall not inherite the kyngdome of God? Be not deceaued: neither fornicatours, nor idolatours, nor adulterers, nor weakelinges, nor abusers of them selues with mankynde, 10 Nor theenes, nor couetous, nor drunkards, nor cursed speakers, nor " pylers shall inherite the kyngdome of God. 11 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are iustified in the name of the Lorde Jesus, and by the spirite of our God.

The .vii. Chapter.

The apostle aunswereth to certayne questions which the Corinthians desyred to knowe.

NOwe as concernyng the thinges whereof ye wrote vnto me: It is (a) good for a man not to touche a woman. 2 Neuertheleße to auoyde fornication, let euery man haue his owne wyfe, & let euery woman haue her owne husbande. 3 Let the husbande geue vnto the wyfe due beneuolence: Likewise also the wyfe vnto the husbande. 4 The wyfe hath not the power of her owne body, but the husbande: And lykewyse also the husband hath not the power of his owne body, but the wyfe. 5 Defraude you not the one the other, except (it be) with both your consentes for a tyme, that ye may geue your selues to fasting and prayer: and afterwarde come together agayne, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie. 6 This I say of fauour, and (b) not of commaundement. 7 For I would that all men were as I my selfe (am:) but euery man hath his proper gyft of God, one after this maner, another after that. 8 I say therefore vnto them that be vnmarryed & wydowes, it is good for them yf they abyde euen as I: 9 But yf they can not abstayne, let them marry: for it is better to marry then to burne. 10 Vnto the marryed commaunde, not I, but the Lorde, let not the wyfe depart from the husbande: 11 But and yf she depart, let her remayne vnmarryed, or be reconciled to her husbande (agayne:) And let not the husband put away his wyfe. 12 But to the remnannt speake I, not the Lorde, If any brother haue a wyfe that beleueth not, if she be content to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath to her husbande an infidel, and be consent to dwell with her, let her not put him away. 14 For the vnbeleuing husband is sanctified by the wyfe, and the vnbeleuing wife is sanctified by the husbande: els were your chyldren vncleane, but nowe are they (c) holy.

15 But yf the vnbeleuyng depart, let him depart: A brother or a sister is not in subiection in such (thinges:) but God hath called vs in peace.

16 For how knowest thou O woman, whether thou shalt saue thy husbande or how knowest thou O man, whether thou shalt saue thy wyfe?

17 But as God hath distributed to euery man, as the Lorde hath called euery one, so let him walke, and so ordayne I in all Churches. 18 Is any man called beyng circumcised? let him not adde (vncircumcision:) Is any called vncircumcised? let him not be circumcised. 19 Circumcision is nothyng, & vncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commaundementes of God. 20 Let euery man abyde in the same callyng wherein he was called. 21 Art thou called a seruaunt? care not for it: neuertheless yf thou mayst be free, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lorde (beyng) a seruaunt, is the Lordes freeman: lykewyse also he that is called (beyng) free, is Christes seruaunt.

23 Ye are dearely bought, be not ye the seruauntes of men. 24 Brethren, let euery man wherein he is called, therein abyde with (d) God. 25 Now concernyng virgins I haue no commaundement of the Lorde: yet geue I counsel, as one that hath obtayned mercie in the Lorde to be faythfull.

26 I suppose therefore that it is good for the present necessitie, for (I say) it is good for a man so to be. 27 Art thou bounde vnto a wyfe? seeke not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wyfe? seeke not a wyfe.

28 But and yf thou marry a wyfe, thou sinnest not: and yf a virgin marry, she hath not sinned: neuertheless, such shall haue trouble in their flesche: But I beare with you.

29 But this say I brethren, the time is short: it remayneth that they which haue wyues, be as though they had none: 30 And they that weepe, as though they wept not: and they that reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that bie, as though they possessed not: 31 And they that vse this world, as though they vsed it not: For the fashion of this worlde goeth away. 32 I would haue you without care. He that is vnmarryed, careth for the thinges that belong to the Lorde, howe he may please the Lorde: 33 But he that hath marryed a wyfe, careth for the thinges that are of the worlde, howe he may please his wyfe. 34 There is difference betweene a virgin and a wyfe: The vnmarried woman careth for the thinges that are of the Lorde, that she may may be holy both in body and in ſpirite: (Agayne)the that is marryed,careth for the thynges that pertayne to the worlde, howe she may please her husbande. 35 This speake I for your profite: not to tangle you in a snare, but that honestly and comely ye may cleane fast vnto the Lorde without separation. 36 But yf any man thinke that it is vncomely for his virgin yf she passe the tyme of marryage, (c)and neede so require: let him do what he will,he sinneth not: let them be married. 37 Neuertheleſſe,he that purposeth surely in his heart, hauyng no neede, but hath power ouer his owne will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will kepe his virgin, doth well. 38 So then he that ioyneth (his virgin)in marryage,doth well: but he that ioyneth not(his virgin)in marryage, doth better. 39 The wyfe is bounde to the * lawe as long as her husbande liueth: but yf her husbande be dead, she is at libertie to marry with whom she will: only in the Lord. 40 But she is happyer if she so abide, after my iudgement: And I thinke verily that I haue the ſpirite of God.

¶ The.viii. Chapter.

1 He rebuketh them that vſe their libertie to the ſclaunder of other, in goyng to the idolatrous ſacrifices,

AS touchyng thynges offred vnto idols,we are ſure that we all haue knowledge. Knowledge maketh a man ſwell: but loue edifieth. 2 If any man thinke that he knoweth any thyng, he knoweth nothyng yet as he ought to knowe. 3 But yf any man loue God, the ſame is * knowen of him. 4 As concernyng the eatyng of thoſe thynges that are offred vnto idols, we are ſure that an idoll is nothyng in the worlde, and that there is none other God but one. 5 And though there be that are called gods, whether in heauen or in earth, (as there be gods many,and(a)lordes many:) 6 yet vnto vs is there but one god, (which is) the father of whom are all thynges, and we in him: and one Lorde Jeſus Chriſt, by whom are all thinges,and we by him. 7 But euery man hath not knowledge: For ſome hauyng conſcience of the idoll vntyll this houre, eate as a thyng offred vnto the idols: and ſo their conſcience beyng weake,is defiled. 8 But meate maketh vs not acceptable to God: For neither yf we eate, haue we the more: neither yf we eate not, haue we the leſſe. 9 But take heede lest by any meanes this libertie of yours be an occaſion of fallyng to them that are weake. 10 For yf any man ſee thee which hath knowledge, ſit at meate in the idols temple: ſhall not the conſcience of him which is weake, be (b) boldened to eate thoſe thynges which are offred to idols: 11 And thorowe thy knowledge ſhal the(c)weake brother periſhe,for whom Chriſt died? 12 When ye ſinne ſo agaynſt the brethren,and wounde their weake conſcience,ye ſinne againſt Chriſt. 13 Wherefore,if meate offend my brother, I wil eate no fleſhe whyle the worlde ſtandeth,leſt I ſhould offende my brother.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

1 He exhorteth them by his example to vſe their libertie to others edification.

AM I not an apoſtle? am I not free? Haue I not ſeene Jeſus Chriſt our Lorde? Are ye not my worke in the Lorde? 2 If I be not an apoſtle vnto other, yet doubtleſſe am I vnto you: For the (a) ſeale of myne apoſtleſhip are ye in the Lorde.

3 Myne aunſwere to them that aſke me,is this, 4 Haue we not power to eate and to drynke? 5 Haue we not power to leade about a (b) ſiſter a woman,aſwell as other apoſtles, and as the brethren of the Lord and Cephas? 6 Either only I and Barnabas haue not power this to do? 7 Who goeth a warfare at any tyme at his owne coſt? Who planteth a vineyarde, and eateth not of the fruite therof? Or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the mylke of the flocke? 8 Say I theſe thinges after the maner of men? or ſaith not the lawe the ſame alſo? 9 For it is written in the lawe of Moyſes, Thou ſhalt not mooſell the mouth of the ore that treadeth out the corne. Doth God take care for oren? 10 Either ſaith he it not altogether for our ſakes? For our ſakes no doubt (this)is written: that he which eareth, ſhould eare in hope:and that he which threſheth in hope, ſhould be partaker of his hope. 11 If we haue ſowen vnto you ſpirituall thinges, is it a great thing if we reape your carnal thinges? 12 If others be partakers with you of (their)power,(wherfore are) not we rather? we shoulde hynder the Gospell of Christ. 13 Do ye not knowe that they which minister about holy thynges, eate of the thinges of the temple? and they which wayte at the aulter, are partakers with the aulter? 14 Euen so hath the Lorde ordayned, that they which preache the Gospell, shoulde lyue of the Gospell. 15 But I haue vsed none of these thynges. Neuertheles, I wrote not these thynges, that it shoulde be so done vnto me: For it were better for me to dye, then that any man shoulde make my reioycyng vayne. 16 For if I preache the Gospel, I haue nothyng to reioyce of: for necessitie is layde vpon me. But wo is vnto me if I preache not the Gospell. 17 For if I do it with a good wyll, I haue a rewarde: but if (I do it) against my will, the (c) dispensation is committed vnto me. 18 What is my reward then? Verily that when I preache the Gospell, I make the Gospell of Christ free, that I misuse not myne auctoritie in the Gospell. 19 For though I be free from al men, yet haue I made my selfe seruaunt vnto all men, that I might win the more. 20 Vnto the Iewes I become as a Iewe, that I might win the Iewes: to them that are vnder the lawe, (I become) as (though I were) vnder the lawe, that I might win them that are vnder the lawe: 21 To them that are without lawe (become I) as (though I were) without lawe, (when I was not without lawe as partepnyng to the lawe of god, but in the lawe of Christ) to win them that are without lawe. 22 To the weake became I as weake, that I might win the weake: I am made all thinges to all men, that I might at the leaste way saue some.

23 And this I do for the Gospels sake, that I might haue my part therof. 24 Perceaue ye not (howe) that they which runne in a race, runne all, but one receaueth the rewarde? So runne that ye may obtayne. 25 Euery man that proueth masteries, abstayneth from all thynges: and they (do it) to obtayne a crowne that shal perishe: but we (to obtayne) an euerlastyng (crowne.) 26 I therfore so runne, not as at an vncertayne thyng: so fight I, not as one that beateth the ayre: 27 But I tame my (d) body, and bryng it into subiection: lest by any meanes that when I haue preached to other, I my selfe shoulde be a castaway.

¶ The.x. Chapter.

1 He feareth them with the examples of the Iewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God.

BRethren, I woulde not that ye shoulde be ignorant, howe that all our fathers were vnder the cloude, and all passed thyough the sea: 2 And were all baptized * vnto Moyses in the cloude, and in the sea: 3 And did all eate of one (a) spirituall meate: 4 And did all dyynke * of one maner of spirituall drinke: (And they dranke of that spirituall rocke that folowed them: which rocke was (b) Christe.) 5 But in many of them had God no delyte: for they were ouerthrowen in the wildernesse.

6 These verily are ensamples to vs, (to thintent) that we shoulde not lust after euyl thinges, as they also lusted. 7 Neither be ye idolatours, as (were) some of them, as it is written, The people sate downe to eate and dyynke, and rose vp to play. 8 Neither let vs commit fornication, as some of them committed * fornication, and fel in one day three and twentie thousande. 9 Neither let vs tempt Christe, as some of them tempted, and were destroyed of serpentes. 10 Neither murmure ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. 11 All these thynges happened vnto them for ensamples: but they are written to put (c) vs in remembraunce, whom the endes of the worlde are come vpon. 12 Wherfore, let him that thinketh he standeth, take heede lest he fall. 13 There hath no temptation taken you, but such as followeth the nature of man: but God is faythfull, which shall not suffer you to be tempted aboue your strength: but shall with the temptation make away, that ye may be able to beare it. 14 Wherfore my deare beloued, flee from idolatrie. 15 I speake as vnto them which haue discretion: iudge ye what I say. 16 The cup of blessyng which we blesse, is it not the partakyng of the blood of Christe? The bread which we breake, is it not the partakyng of the body of Christe? 17 For we that are many, are one bread and one body, in as much as we all are partakers of one bread. 18 Beholde Israel (which is) after the flesshe: are not they which eate of the sacrifices, partakers of the

THough I ſpeake with the tongues of men and of (a) angels, and haue not loue, I am (as) ſounding braſſe, or (as) a tinckliyng cymbal. 2 And though I coulde prophesie, and vnderſtoode all ſecretes, and all knowledge: yea, if I had all fayth, ſo that I coulde moue mountaynes out of their places, and haue not loue, I were nothyng. 3 And though I beſtowe all my goodes to feede the poore, and though I geue my body that I burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth (me) nothyng. 4 Loue ſuffreth long, and is curteous: Loue enuieth not, loue doth not frowardly, ſwelleth not, 5 Dealeth not diſhoneſtly, ſeketh not her owne, is not prouoked to anger, thinketh none euyll. 6 Reioyceth not in iniquitie: but reioyceth in the trueth: 7 Suffreth all thynges, beleueth all thinges, hopeth all thinges, endureth all thinges. 8 Though that prophecyinges faple, either tongues ceaſſe, or knowledge vanithe away, (yet) loue falleth neuer away. 9 For our knowledge is vnperfect, and our prophesiyng is vnperfect: 10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is vnperfect ſhalbe done away. 11 When I was a childe, I ſpake as a childe, I vnderſtoode as a childe, I imagined as a childe: but aſſoone as I was a man, I put away childiſhneſſe. 12 Nowe we ſee in a (b) glaſſe, euen in a darke ſpeakyng: but then (ſhall we ſee) face to face. Nowe I knowe vnperfectly: but then ſhall I knowe euen as I am knowen.

(a) If the angels had tongues, and I had the vſe therof, & did not beſtowe them to profite my neighbour, it were nothyng but vayne babblyng.

¶ The. xiiii. Chapter.
1 He exhorteth to loue, commendeth the gyft of tongues, and other ſpirituall gyftes, 5 But cheefely propheciyng.

FOlowe after loue, and couet ſpirituall (gyftes:) but moſt cheefely that ye may propheſie. 2 For he that ſpeaketh with the tongue, ſpeaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man (a) heareth (him.) Howbeit, in the ſpirite he ſpeaketh myſteries.

(a) Vnderſtandeth him.

3 But he that propheſieth, ſpeaketh vnto men to their edifiyng, to their exhortation, and to their comfort.
4 He that ſpeaketh with the tongue, edifieth him ſelfe: he that propheſieth, edifieth the Church. 5 I woulde that ye all ſpake with tongues, but rather that ye propheſied: For greater is he that propheſieth, then he that ſpeaketh with tongues: except he expounde it, that the Churche may haue edifiyng. 6 Nowe bzethren, if I come vnto you ſpeakyng with tongues, what ſhall I propheſie you, except I ſpeake to you either by reuelation, or by knowledge, or by propheſiyng, or by doctrine? 7 Moreouer, thinges (it be) a pype or an harpe, except they make a diſtinction in the ſoundes, howe ſhall it be knowen what is pyped or harped? 8 And alſo yf the trumpe geue an vncertayne ſounde, who ſhall prepare him ſelfe to the warre? 9 Euen ſo lykewyſe, when ye ſpeake with tongues, except ye ſpeake wordes that haue ſignification, howe ſhall it be vnderſtande what is ſpoken? For ye ſhall ſpeake into the (b) ayze. 10 There are ſo many kyndes of voyces, as it commeth to paſſe in the worlde, and none of them are without ſignification. 11 If I knowe not what the voyce meaneth, I ſhalbe vnto him that ſpeaketh an alianut: and he that ſpeaketh, ſhalbe an alianut vnto me. 12 Euen ſo ye, foraſmuch as ye couet ſpirituall (gyftes) ſeeke that ye may excell, vnto the edifiyng of the Churche. 13 Wherfore let him that ſpeaketh with tongue, pray that he may interprete. 14 For yf I pray with tongue, my ſpirite prayeth, but my vnderſtandyng is without fruite. 15 What is it then? I wyll pray with the ſpirite, and wyll pray with the vnderſtandyng alſo: I

(b) Your wordes ſhalbe loſt: for ye ſhall neither glorifie god therby, nor profite man.

* Geue thankes by singyng.

wyll * sing with the spirite, and wyll sing with the vnderstandyng also.
16 Els when thou blessest with the spirite, howe shall he that occupieth the roome of the vnlearned, say Amen at thy geuyng of thankes? seyng he vnderstandeth not what thou sayest.
17 Thou veryly geuest thankes well: but the other is not edified. 18 I thanke my god, I speake with tongues more then ye all. 19 Yet had I rather in the Churche to speake fiue wordes with my vnderstandyng to the information of other, then ten thousande wordes with the tongue. 20 Brethren, be not children in wit: howbeit as concernyng malicyousnesse be children, but in wit be perfect. 21 In the lawe it is written, With (men of) sundry tongues and sundry lippes wyll I speake vnto this people: and yet for all that wyll they not heare me, saith the Lorde. 22 Wherefore tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleue, but to them that beleue not: But prophesiyng (serueth) not for them that beleue not, but for them which beleue. 23 If therfore, when all the Churche is come together in one, & all speake with tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleue not, wyll they not say that ye are out of your wittes?
24 But yf all prophesie, and there come in one that beleueth not, or one vnlearned: he is rebuked of all men, and is iudged of euery man: 25 And so are the secretes of his heart made manifest, and so falleth he downe on his face and worshipperth God, and saith that God is in you of a trueth.
26 Howe is it then brethren? When ye come together, euery one of you hath a psalme, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a reuelation, hath interpretation: Let all thinges be done vnto edifying: 27 If any man speake with tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course: and let one interprete. 28 But if there be no interpreter, let him kepe silence in the Churche, * and let him speake to him selfe, and to God. 29 Let the prophetes speake two or three, and let the other iudge. 30 If any reuelation be made to another that sitteth by, let the first holde his peace. 31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learne, and all may haue comfort.
32 And the (c) spirites of the prophetes, are subiect to the prophetes.

Wlat.28.c

& That speaketh with tongue.

(c) That is, the doctrine that they do bryng, as being put in minde by the spirite of god.

33 For * God is not (the author) of confusion, but of peace, as in all Churches of the saintes. 34 Let your women kepe silence in * the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake, but (they are commaunded) to be vnder obedience, as saith the lawe. 35 If they wyll learne any thyng, let them aske their husbandes at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Churche.
36 Sprong the worde of God from you? Either came it vnto you only?
37 If any man thynke him selfe to be a prophete, either spirituall, let him knowe that the thynges that I write vnto you, are the commaundementes of the Lorde. 38 But yf any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.
39 Wherefore brethren, couet to prophesie, and forbyd not to speake with tongues. 40 Let all thinges be done honestly and in order.

* Or, he is not the god.

¶ The.xv. Chapter.

1 He proueth the resurrection of the dead, 3 and first that Christ is risen.

MOreouer brethren I declare vnto you, The Gospell which I preached vnto you, which also ye haue receaued, and wherin ye continue 2 By the which also, ye are saued yf ye kepe in memorie after what maner I preached vnto you, except ye haue beleued in vayne. 3 For first of all I deliuered vnto you that which (a) I receaued: howe that Christe dyed for our sinnes, agreeyng to the scriptures: 4 And that he was buryed, and that he rose agayne the thirde day accordyng to the scriptures: 5 And that he was seene of Cephas, then of the twelue: 6 After that, he was seene of mo then fiue hundred brethren at once: of which many remayne vnto this day, and some are fallen a sleepe.
7 After that he was seene of James: then of all the Apostles. 8 And last of all he was seene of me, as of one borne out of due tyme. 9 For I am the least of the Apostles, which am not worthy to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Churche of God. 10 But by the grace of God I am that I am: and his grace which is in me, was not in vayne, but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.
11 Therefore, whether it were I or they, so we preache, and so haue ye beleeued. 12 If Christe be preached howe that he rose from the dead, howe say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? 13 If C there be no risyng agayne of the dead, then is Christe not risen agayne.

(b) For yf Christe be swalowed vp of death, there remayneth no hope of lyfe any more.

14 If Christ be not risen agayne, then is our preachyng vayne, and your fayth is also (b) vayne. 15 Yea, and we are founde false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of God, howe that he raysed vp Christe: whom he raysed not vp, yf it be so that the dead ryse not agayne. 16 For yf the dead ryse not agayne, then is not Christe rysen agayne. 17 If it be so that Christe rose not agayne, then is your fayth vayne, and ye are yet in your sinnes. 18 Therfore, they which are fallen a sleepe in Christe, are perished. 19 If in this lyfe only we haue hope in Christ, then are we of all men most miserable. 20 But nowe is Christe risen from the dead, (and vvas made) the firste (c) fruites of them that sleept. 21 For since by man (came) death, euen so by man (came) the resurrection of the dead: 22 For as by Adam all dye, euen so by Christe shall all (d) be made alyue. 23 But euery man in his owne order: the first fruites (is) Christe, afterwarde, they that are Christes at his commyng. 24 Then (commeth) the ende, when he hath deliuered vp the kingdome to God the father, when he hath put downe all rule, and all auctoritie, and power. 25 For he must raigne tyll he haue put all his enemies vnder his feete. 26 The last enemine that shalbe destroyed, (is) death. 27 For he hath put downe all thinges vnder his feete. (But when he saith, All thinges are vnder him, it is manifest that he is excepted which dyd put all thynges vnder him.) 28 When all thynges are subdued vnto him, then shall the sonne also him selfe be subiect vnto him that put all thynges vnder him, that God may be all in all. 29 Els what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, yf the dead ryse not at all? Why are they then baptized for them. 30 And why stande we in ieopardye euery houre? 31 By our reioycyng which I haue in Christe Jesus our Lorde, I dye dayly. 32 If I haue fought with beastes at Ephesus after the (e) maner of men, what auaunctageth it me, yf the dead ryse not agayne? Let vs eate and drynke; for to morowe we shall dye. 33 Be not deceaued. Euyll wordes corrupt good maners. 34 Awake truely out of sleepe, and sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of God, I speake this to your shame. 35 But some man wyll say, Howe are the dead raysed vp? With what body shall they come? 36 Thou foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it dye. 37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shalbe, but bare corne, as of wheate, or of some other (corne.) 38 But God geueth it a body at his pleasure, to euery seede his owne body. 39 All fleshe is not " the same fleshe, but there is one (maner of) fleshe of men, another fleshe of beastes, another of fishes, & another of birdes. 40 There (are) also celestial bodyes, and bodyes terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and (the glory) of the terrestrial another. 41 There is another glorie of the (f) sunne, and another glorie of the moone, and another glorie of the starres: For (one) starre differeth from (another) starre in glorie: 42 So is the resurrection of the dead, it is sowen in corruption, it ryseth in incorruption. 43 It is sowen in (g) dishonour, it ryseth in honour: it is sowen in weakenesse, it ryseth in power. 44 It is sowen a naturall body, it ryseth a spirituall body: There is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body. 45 As it is also writ-, ten, The first man Adam was made a lyuyng soule, and the last Adam (was made) a quickenyng spirite. 46 Howbeit, that is not first which is spirituall, but that (which is) naturall, and then that (which is) spirituall. 47 The first man (is) of the earth, earthy: the seconde man (is) the Lord from heauen. 48 As is the earthy, such (are) they that are earthy: and as is the heauenly, such (are) they also that are heauenly. 49 And as we haue borne the image of the earthy, so shall we beare the image of the heauenly. 50 This say I brethren, that fleshe and blood can not inherite the kingdome of God: neither doth corruption inherite incorruption. 51 Beholde, I shewe you a mysterie. We shall not all sleepe, but we shall all be chaunged. 52 In a moment, in the twinckelyng of an eye, at the last trumpe, (for (the trumpe) shall blowe) and

¶ The .xvi. Chapter.

1 He putteth them in remembraunce of the gathering for the poore brethren at Hierusalem.

CConcerning the gathering for the saintes, as I have ordayned in the Churches of Galatia, euen so do ye. 2 Vpon (a) some sabbath day, let euery one of you put aside by him selfe, and lay vp as God hath prospered him, that then there be no gatherynges when I come. 3 When I am come, whom soeuer ye shall alowe by (your) letters, them will I sende to bring your liberalitie vnto Hierusalem. 4 And yf it be meete that I go also, they shall go with me. 5 I will come vnto you, after I have gone ouer Macedonia (For I will passe through Macedonia,) 6 And it may be that I will abyde, yea or wynter with you, that ye may bring me on my way, whyther soeuer I go. 7 For I will not see you nowe in my passage: but I trust to abyde a whyle with you, yf the Lorde shall suffer me. 8 I will tary at Ephesus vntyll Whitsontyde: 9 For a great doore and effectuall is opened vnto me, and there are many aduersaries. 10 If Timotheus come, see that he be * without feare with you: for he worketh the worke of the Lorde, as I do. 11 Let no man therfore despise him: but conuay him forth in peace, that he may come vnto me: for I loke for him with the brethren. 12 As touchyng our brother Apollo, I greatly desired him to come vnto you with the brethren, but his mynde was not at all to come at this tyme: howbeit he will come when he shall have conuenient tyme. 13 (b) Watche ye, stande fast in the fayth, quite you lyke men, be strong. 14 Let all your thynges be done with loue. 15 I beseche you brethren (ye knowe the house of Stephana, that it is the (b) first fruites of Achaia, and that they have appoynted them selues to minister vnto the saintes:) 16 That ye be obedient euen vnto such, and to all that helpe (with vs) and labour. 17 I am glad of the commyng of Stephana, and Fortunatus, and Achaius: for that which was lackyng (vnto me) on your (c) part, they have supplied. 18 For they have comforted my spirite, and yours. Loke therefore that ye knowe them that are such.

19 The Churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lorde, and so doth the Church that is in their house. 20 All the brethren greete you: Greete ye one another with an holy kysse. 21 The salutation of (me) Paul with myne owne hande. 22 If any man loue not the Lorde Iesus Christe, the same be Anathema * maranatha. 23 The grace of * our Lorde Iesus Christe (be) with you. 24 My loue be with you all in Christe Iesus. ¶ The first Chapter.

4 He declareth the great profite that commeth to the faythfull by their afflictions.

A

PAul an Apostle of Jesu Christe by the wyll of God, and brother Timotheus, vnto the Church of God which is at Corinthus, with all the saintes whiche are in all Achaia: 2 Grace (be) with you, and peace from God our father, and from the Lorde Jesus Christe.

Rom.i.a. 1.Cor.i.a. Gala.i.a. Ephe.i.a. 1.Pet.i.a.

3 Blessed be God the father of our Lorde Jesus Christe, (whiche is) the father of mercies, and the God of all comfort: 4 Whiche comforted vs in all our tribulation, insomuch that we are able to comfort them whiche (are) in any maner trouble, with the comfort wherewith we our selues are comforted of God. 5 For as the (a) afflictions of Christe are plenteous in vs: euen so is our consolation plenteous by Christe. 6 Whether we be troubled, (it is) for your consolation and saluation, which saluation sheweth her power, in that ye suffer the same afflictions whiche we also suffer: or whether we be comforted (it is) for your consolation and saluation, and for you our hope is stedfast:

Actes.19.f.

8 For we would not brethren, haue you ignorant, of our trouble whiche came vnto vs in Asia, for we were greeued out of measure passing strength, so greatly, that we dispayred euen of lyfe. 9 Yea we receaued the sentence of death in our selues, that we shoulde not put our trust in our selues, but in God, which rayseth the dead, 10 Who delivered vs from so great a death, and doth deliuer: on whom we trust that yet hereafter he wyll deliuer. 11 By the helpe of your prayer for vs, that by the meanes of many persons, thankes may be geuen of many on our behalfe, for the grace geuen vnto vs.

14 Paul reioyceth in God for the efficacie of his doctrine.

BVt I determined this in my selfe, that I woulde not come agayne to you in heauines. 2 For if I make you sory, who is he that shoulde make me glad, but the same whiche is made (a) sory by me? 3 And I wrote this same vnto you, lest when I came, I shoulde take heauinesse of them of whom I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I towarde you all, that my ioy, is (the ioy) of you all. 4 For in great affliction and anguishe of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye shoulde be made sory, but that ye might perceaue the loue whiche I haue most " specially vnto vnto you. 5 But if any man hath caused sorow, the same hath not made me sory, but partly, lest I shoulde greeue you all. 6 It is sufficient vnto the same (man) that he was rebuked of many: 7 So that nowe contrarywyse ye ought rather to forgeue hym, and comfort (him,) lest that same person shoulde be swalowed vp with ouermuch heauinesse. 8 Wherefore I pray you that you woulde con-firme your loue towards him. 9 For this cause verily dyd I wryte, that I myght knowe the proofe of you, whether ye be obedient in all thinges.

10 To whom ye forgeue any thing, I (forgeue) also: For if I forgaue any thing, to whom I forgaue it, for your sakes (forgaue) I it, in the (b) sight of Christe, 11 Lest Satan should circumuent vs: for his thoughtes are not knowen vnto vs. 12 Furthermore when I came to Troada to (preache) Christes Gospell, a doore was opened vnto me of the Lorde, 13 I had no rest in my spirite, because I founde not Titus my brother: but toke my leaue of them, and went away to Macedonia. 14 Nowe thankes be vnto God, which alwayes geueth vs the victory in Christe, and openeth the sauour of his knowledge by vs in euery place. 15 For we are vnto god the sweete sauour of Christ, in the that are saued, & in them which perishe. 16 To the one part, (are we) the sauour of death vnto death: and vnto the other part (are we) the sauour of lyfe vnto lyfe: And who is meete vnto these thinges? 17 For we are not as many are, which chop and chaunge with the worde of God, but as of purenesse, but as of God in the sight of God, speake we in Christe.

(b) That is, truly & from mine heart, euen as in the presence of Christe.

The. iii. Chapter.

1 He taketh for example the fayth of the Corinthians for a probation of the trueth whiche he preached.

DO we begin to prayse our selues agayne? or neede we, as some other of epistles of recommendation vnto you? or (letters) of recommendation from you? 2 Ye are our epistle written in our hearties, which is vnderstande and read of all men:
3 Forasmuche as ye declare that ye are the epistle of Christe ministred by vs, and written not with ynke, but with the spirite of the liuing God:
not in tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart. 4 Suche trust haue we through Christe to godward.
5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues to thinke any thing, as of our selues: but our ableness is of God:
6 Whiche hath made vs able ministers of the newe testament, not of the letter, but of the spirite: For the letter killeth, but the (a) spirite geueth lyfe. 7 If the ministration of death through the letters figured in stones, was in glory, so that the chyldren of Israel coulde not beholde the face of Moyses, for (b) the glory of his countenaunce, which (glory) is done away:
8 Howe shall not the ministration of the spirite be much more in glory?
9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory: much more doth the ministration of righteousnesse exceede in glory. 10 For euen that whiche was glorified, is not glorified in respect of this exceeding glory.
11 For if that whiche is destroyed was glorious: much more that which remayneth is glorious. 12 Seyng then that we haue such hope, we vse great boldnesse: 13 And not as Moyses, whiche put a vayle ouer his face, that the children of Israel should not see for what purpose that serued whiche is put away. 14 But their

3 If our Gospell be yet hyd, it is hid in them that are lost: 4 In whom the (a) god of this worlde hath blynded the mindes of them whiche beleue not, lest the light of the Gospell of the glory of Chriſte (whiche is the image of God) ſhoulde ſhine vnto them. 5 For we preache not our ſelues, but Chriſte Jeſus the Lorde: and our ſelues, your ſeruauntes for Jeſus ſake. 6 For it is God that commaundeth the light to ſhine out of darkneſſe, whiche hath ſhined in our hearres, for (to geue) the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jeſus Chriſte. 7 But we haue this treaſure in earthen veſſels, that the excellencie of the power be gods, and not ours. 8 We are troubled on euery ſide, yet are we not without chift: we are in powertie, but not vtterly without ſomewhat:

9 We ſuffer perſecution, but are not forſaken therein: we are caſt downe, but we periſhe not. 10 We alwayes beare about in the body the dying of the Lorde Jeſus, that the lyfe of Jeſus might alſo appeare in our body.

11 For we whiche liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Jeſus ſake, that the lyfe alſo of Jeſus myght appeare in our mortall fleſhe. 12 So then death worketh in vs, but lyfe in you. 13 Seyng then that we haue the ſame ſpirite of fayth (accordyng as it is written, I beleued, and therefore haue I ſpoken:) we alſo beleue, and therefore ſpeake. 14 For we knowe that he, whiche rayſed vp the Lorde Jeſus, ſhall rayſe vp vs alſo by the meanes of Jeſus, and ſhall ſet vs with you. 15 For all thinges (do I) for your (ſakes,) that the plenteous grace by thankes geuing of many, may redounde to the prayſe of God. 16 Wherefore we are not weryed: but though our outwarde man periſhe, yet the inwarde man is renued day by day. 17 For our exceeding tribulation whiche is momentanie and (b) light, prepareth an exceeding and an eternall wayght of glory vnto vs: 18 Whyle we looke not on the thinges whiche are ſeene, but on the thinges whiche are not ſeene: For the thinges whiche are ſeene, are temporall: but the thinges which are not ſeene, are eternall.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

1 Paul proceedeth to declare the vtilitie that commeth by the croſſe.

FOr we knowe that if our earthly (a) houſe of this tabernacle were deſtroyed, we haue a building of God, (euen) an habitation not made with handes, but eternall in heauen. 2 For therfore ſigh we, deſiring to be clothed with our houſe which is from heauen. 3 So yet if that we be founde clothed, and not naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle, ſigh beyng burdened, because we woulde not be vnclothed, but woulde be clothed vpon, that mortalitie myght be ſwalowed vp of lyfe. 5 He that hath ordayned vs for this thing (is) God, whiche hath alſo geuen vnto vs the earneſt of the ſpirite.

6 Therefore we are alway of good cheare, and knowe that as long as we are at home in the body, we are abſent from the Lorde. 7 (For we walke by fayth, not after outwarde appearaunce.) 8 Neuertheleſſe we are of good comfort, and had rather to be abſent from the body, and to be preſent with the Lorde. 9 Wherfore whether we be at home, or from home, we endeuour our ſelues to be accepted vnto hym. 10 For we muſt all appeare before the iudgement ſeate of Chriſte, that euery man may receaue (the workes) of his body accordyng to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 11 Seeyng then that we knowe the feare of the Lord, we fare fayre with men, for we are (b) knowen well inough vnto God: I truſt alſo that we are knowen in your conſciences. 12 For we prayſe not our ſelues agayne vnto you, but geue you an occaſion to reioyce of vs: that ye may haue ſomewhat againſt them whiche reioyce in the face, and not in the heart. 13 For (c) if we be to feruent, to God are we (to feruent:) or if we kepe meaſure, for your cauſe (kepe we meaſure.)

14 For the loue of Chriſte conſtrayneth vs, becauſe we thus iudge, that if one dyed for all, then were all dead.

15 And he dyed for all: that they whiche liue, ſhoulde not henceforth liue vnto them ſelues, but vnto hym which dyed for them, and roſe againe.

16 Wherfore henceforth know we no man after the (d) fleſhe: inſomuche though we haue knowen Chriſte after the fleſhe, nowe yet henceforth knowe we hym ſo no more. 17 Therefore if any man be in Chriſte, he is a newe creature:

13 Therfore we are comforted,because ye are comforted: yea and exceedingly the more ioyed we for the ioy that Titus had, because his spirite was refreshed by you all. 14 I am therfore not nowe ashamed, though I boasted my selfe to him of you: for all things whiche we spake vnto you are true: euen so our boasting that I made vnto Titus is made true. 15 And his inwarde affection is more abounduant towarde you,when he remembred the obedience of you all,howe with feare and tremblyng ye receaued him.

16 I reioyce that I may be bolde in you in all thinges.

The. viii. Chapter.

1 By the example of the Macedonians 9 and Christ,he exhorteth them to continue in releeuing the poore saintes.

MOreouer we do you to wit brethren,of the grace of God,which was geuen in the Churches of Macedonia, 2 How that the abounduance of their reioycing is,that they are tryed with much tribulation: and though they were exceeding poore,yet haue they geuen exceeding richly, and that in singlenes. 3 For to their powers (I beare them recorde)yea and beyond their powers,they were willing: 4 And prayed vs with great instaunce that we would receaue this (a) grace and societie of the ministerie which is (bestowed) vpon the saintes. 5 (And this they did)not as we looked for: but gaue their owne selues first to the Lorde and (after)vnto vs,by the wyll of God: 6 So that we couldc not but desire Titus to accomplishe the same grace among you also, euen as he had begun. 7 Nowe therfore as ye are riche in all thinges, in fayth,in worde,in knowledge, in all feruentnesse,and in loue which ye haue to vs: euen so, see that ye be plenteous in this grace also. 8 This say I not by commaundement, but because of the feruentnes of * other, and alowyng the vnfaignednesse of your loue.

9 For ye know the grace of our lord Iesus Christe, that though he was riche, yet for your sakes he became poore, that ye thorowe his pouertie might be made rich. 10 And I geue counsell herein: For this is expedient for you, whiche haue begun not to do only,but also to wyll a yere ago.

11 Nowe therefore perfourme the thing whiche ye began to do: that as there (was) in you a redynes to wyll, euen so ye may perfourme the deede of that which ye haue. 12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. 13 Truly,not that other be set at ease, and ye brought into combraunce, 14 But that there be equalnesse nowe at this time,and that your aboundaunce may (succour) their lacke,and that their aboundaunce may supply your lacke, that there may be equalitie: 15 As it is written, He that had muche,had not the more aboundaunce, & he that had litle,had not the lesse. 16 Thanks be vnto god which put the same good mynde for you in the heart of Titus, 17 Because he accepted the exhortation,yea rather he was so well wylling,that of his owne accorde he came vnto you. 18 We haue sent with him that brother(b) whose prayse is in the Gospell throughout al the Churches: 19 (And not that only,but is also chosen of the churches to be a felow with vs in our iourney, concerning this grace,that is ministred by vs vnto the glory of the same Lord, & (to stirre vp) your redy minde.) 20 For this we eschewe,that any man shoulde rebuke vs in this plenteous distribution that is ministred by vs: 21 And make prouision for(c)honest things,not only in the sight of the Lorde,but also in the sight of men. 22 We haue sent with them a brother of ours, whom we haue oftentymes proued diligent in many thinges,but nowe much more diligent,for the great cõfidence(which I haue) in you: 23 Partly for Titus sake, whiche is my felowe and helper concerning you: partly because of other whiche are our brethren and the messengers of the Churches,(and)the glory of Christe. 24 Wherfore shewe ye vnto them the proofe of your loue, and of our reioycing of you, in the

OF the ministring to the saintes, it is but superfluous for me to write vnto you: 2 For I knowe the redinesse of your mynde, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, that Achaia was prepared a yere a go: and * your zeale hath prouoked many. 3 Yet haue I sent the brethren, lest our boasting whiche I make of you, shoulde be in vayne in this behalfe, that ye (as I haue sayde) may prepare your selues: 4 Lest if they of Macedonia come with me, & finde you vnprepared, we (I wyll not say you) shoulde be ashamed in this matter of boasting. 5 Therefore I thought it necessarie to exhort the brethren to come before hande vnto you, and to prepare your good blessing promised afore, that it might be redy: so that it be as a blessing, and not a defrauding. 6 This yet (I say) he which soweth litle, shall reape litle: and he that soweth in geuing largely and freely, shall reape plenteously.

The. x. Chapter.

1 He toucheth the falie apostles, and defendeth his authoritie, exhorting them to obedience.

I Paul my selfe beseche you by the meekenesse and gentlenesse of Christe, whiche when I am present among you, am lowly: but am bolde towarde you beyng absent. 2 I beseche you that I neede not to be bolde when I am present, with that same boldnesse wherewith I am supposed to haue ben bolde against some, which repute vs as though we walked according to the flesshe. 3 For though we walke in the flesshe, yet we do not warre according to the flesshe. 4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mighty through God, to cast downe strong holdes,) 5 Wherewith we ouerthrowe counsels, and euery hye thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bryng into captiuitie all imagination to the obedience of Christe: 6 And are redy to take vengeaunce on all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled. 7 Looke ye on thinges after the vtter appearaunce? If any man trust in him selfe that he is Christes, let hym consider this agayne of hym selfe, that as he (is) of Christe, euen so (are) we of Christe. 8 For though I shoulde boast my selfe somwhat more of our auctoritie, whiche the Lorde hath geuen to vs for edification, and not for your destruction, it shal not be to my shame. 9 Lest I should seeme as though I went about to make you afraide by letters. 10 For the letters (saith (a) he) are sore and strong: but (his) bodyly presence is weake, and (his) speache rude. 11 Let hym that is such, thinke on this wyse, that as we are in worde by letters when we are absent, suche (are we) in deede when we are present. 12 For we dare not make our selues of the number of them, or to compare our selues to them which prayse them selues: nenertheles, whyle they measure them selues with them selues, and compare them selues with them selues, they vnderstande not. 13 But we wyll not reioyce aboue measure: but according to the (b) measure of the rule which God hath distributed vnto vs, a measure to reache euen vnto you.

The. xi. Chapter.

2 He declareth his affection towarde them. 5 The excellencie of his ministerie. 9 and his diligence in the same.

WOulde to God ye coulde haue suffered a litle (my) foolishnesse: and in deede ye do forbeare me.

2 For I am gelous ouer you with godly gelousie. For I haue coupled you to one man, to present (you) a chaste virgin vnto Christe. 3 But I feare lest by any meanes, that as the serpent begyled Eue through his subtilte, euen so your myndes should be corrupted from the singlenesse that is towarde Christe. 4 For if he that commeth preacheth another (a) Iesus, whom we haue not preached: or if ye receaue another spirite whom ye haue not receaued: eyther another Gospell whiche ye haue not receaued, you would well haue suffered (him.)

5 Verely, I suppose that I was not behinde the cheefe apostles. 6 But though (I be) rude in speaking, yet not in knowledge: but in all thinges among you we haue ben well knowen to the vttermost. 7 Did I sinne because I submitted my selfe, that ye might be exalted, and because I preached to you the Gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other Churches, taking wages of them, to do you seruice.

9 And when I was present with you and had neede, I was chargeable to no man: for that whiche was lacking vnto me, the brethren whiche came from Macedonia supplied: and in all thinges I haue kept my selfe, so that I shoulde not be chargeable to you, and (so) will I kepe my selfe.

10 (b) The trueth of Christe is in me, that this reioycing shall not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia. 11 Wherefore? because I loue not you? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that will I do, to cut away occasion from them whiche desire occasion: that they myght be founde lyke vnto vs, in that wherein they gloried. 13 For such false apostles, are deceiptfull workers, transformed into the apostles of Christe.

14 And no marueyle: for Satan him selfe is transformed into an angell of light. 15 Therefore it is no great thing though his ministers be transformed as the ministers of righteousnesse: whose ende shalbe according to their workes. 16 I say againe, let no man thinke that I am foolishe: or els euen nowe take ye me as a foole, that I also may boast my selfe a litle.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the (c) Lorde: but as it were foolishly in this maner of boasting. 18 Seyng that many glory after the flesche, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fooles gladly, seeyng ye your selues are wyse. 20 For ye suffer if a man bryng you into bondage, if a man deuour, if a man take, if a man exalt hym selfe, if a man smyte you on the face. 21 I speake concerning reproche, as though we had ben weake: Howbeit, wherein soeuer any man is bolde, (I speake foolishly) I am bolde also.

22 They are Hebrues, euen so (am) I: they are Israelites, euen so (am) I: they are the seede of Abraham, euen so (am) I: 23 They are the ministers of Christe, (I speake as a foole) I am more: in labours more aboundaunt, in strypes aboue measure, in prison more plenteously, in death (d) oft. 24 Of the Iewes fiue tymes receaued I fourtie (strypes) saue one. 25 Thryse was I beaten with rodded, once stoned, thryse I suffered shipwracke, nyght and day haue I ben in the deapth: 26 In iourneying often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of myne owne nation, in perils among the heathen, in perils in the citie, in perils in the wylderneſſe, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren. 27 In labour and trauayle, in watchinges often, in hunger and thyrst, in fastinges often, in colde and nakednesse, 28 Besides the thinges whiche outwardly (come) vnto me: my dayly encombraunce (is) the care of all the Churches.

Most gladly therefore I wyll rather glorye in my infirmities, that the power of Christe might dwell in me. 10 Therefore haue I delectation in infirmities, in rebukes, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguishes for Christes sake: For when I am weake, then am I strong. 11 I am become a foole in glorying, ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue ben commended of you: For nothing was I inferiour vnto the cheefe apostles, though I be nothing. 12 Truely the signes of an apostle were wrought among you, in all patience, and signes, and wonders, and mightie deedes. 13 For what is it wherein ye were inferiour vnto other Churches, except (it be) that I was not chargeable vnto you? forgeue me this wrong. 14 Beholde, nowe the thirde tyme I am redy to come vnto you, and yet wyll I not be chargeable vnto you: For I seeke not yours, but you: For the children ought not to lay vp for the fathers and mothers, but the fathers and mothers for the children. 15 I will very gladly bestowe, and wyll be bestowed for your " sakes, though the more aboundauntly I loue you, the lesse I am loued agayne. 16 But be it (that) I was not chargeable vnto you: (d) Neuertheless, when I was craftie, I caught you with guyle.

THen fourteene yeres after, I went vp agayne to Hierusalem with Barnabas, and tooke Titus with me. 2 I went vp also by reuelation, and I declared vnto them the gospell which I preache among the gentiles: but priuatly with them whiche were the cheefe: lest by any meanes I shoulde runne or had runne in vayne. 3 But neither Titus which was with me, beyng a Greke, was compelled to be circumcised: 4 And that because of incommers beyng false brethren, which came in priuitly to spye out our libertie whiche we haue in Christ Iesu, that they myght bryng vs into bondage. 5 To whom no not for an houre, we gaue place by subiection, that the trueth of the gospell myght continue with you. 6 Of them which seemed to be somewhat (what they (a) were in tymes passed it maketh no matter to me, god accepteth no mans person:) for they which seemed (b) added nothyng (to me.) 7 But contrarywyse, when they sawe that the gospell of the vncircumcision was committed vnto me, as the gospell of the circumcision was committed vnto Peter: 8 (For he that was myghtie in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was myghtie in me toward the gentiles:) 9 When they perceaued the grace that was geuen vnto me, (then) James, Cephas, and John, which seemed to be pyllers, gaue to me and Barnabas the ryght handes of felowship: that we (shoulde be apostles) vnto the heathen, and they vnto the circumcision. 10 Only that we should remember the poore: Wherin also I was diligent to do the same. 11 But when Peter was come to Antioche, I withstoode hym (c) to the face, because he was to be blamed. 12 For yer that certayne came from James, he dyd eate with the gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrewe, and separated hym selfe, fearing them (which were) of the circumcision. 13 And the other Iewes dissembled lykewyse with hym: insomuche that Barnabas also was brought into their simulation. 14 But when I sawe that they went not the ryght way to the trueth of the gospell, I sayde vnto Peter before them all: If thou beyng a Iewe, lyuest after the maner of the gentiles, and not as do the Iewes: why causest thou the gentiles to liue as do the Iewes? 15 We (which are) Iewes by nature, and not (c) sinners of the gentiles, 16 Knowe that a man is not iustified by the deedes of the lawe, but by the fayth of Iesus Christ: and we haue beleued on Iesus Christ, that we myght be iustified by the fayth of Christ, and not by the deedes of the lawe, because by the deedes of the law no flesche shalbe iustified. 17 If then whyle we seeke to be made righteous by Christe, we our selues are founde sinners: is therfore Christ the minister of sinne? God forbid. 18 For if I buylde agayne the thinges which I destroyed, then make I my selfe a trespasser. 19 For I through the lawe, am dead to the law, that I might liue vnto God: I am crucified with Christe. 20 Neuertheles, I lyue: yet nowe not I, but Christe lyueth in me: and the lyfe which I nowe lyue in the flesche, I liue by the faith of the sonne of god, which loued me, and gaue hym selfe for me. 21 I reiect not the grace of God: For if ryghteousnesse (come) of the lawe, then Christe is dead in vayne.

The.iii.Chapter.

1 He rebuketh them sharply, 2 and proueth by dyuers reasons that iustification is by fayth.

O Foolishe Galathians, who hath bewitched you that ye should not obey the trueth: to whom Jesus Christe was (a) described before the eyes, and among you crucified?

(a) To whom Christe was so liuely preached, as if his liuely image were set before your eyes, or els had ben crucified among you.

2 This only woulde I learne of you, whether ye receaued the spirite by the deedes of the lawe, or by the hearyng of the fayth? 3 Are ye suche fooles, that after ye haue begun in the spirite, ye woulde nowe ende in the flesshe? 4 Haue ye suffered so great thynges in vayne? yf it be yet in vayne. 5 He therefore that ministreth to you the spirite, and worketh miracles among you, doth he it through the deedes of the lawe, or by hearyng of the fayth? 6 Euen as Abraham beleued God, and it was accounted to hym for ryghteousnesse.

Gen.xv.b. Rom.4.a. Iames.2.d.

7 Knowe ye therefore that they whiche are of fayth, the same are the chyldren of Abraham. 8 For the scripture seeyng afore hande that God woulde iustifie the heathen through fayth, shewed before hande glad tydynges vnto Abraham, (saying,) In thee shall all nations be blessed.

Gen.xii.a. and.xxii.b.

9 So then they whiche be of fayth, are blessed with the faythfull Abraham. 10 For as many as are of the (b) deedes of the lawe, are vnder the curse: For it is written, Cursed is euery one that continueth not in all things which are written in the booke of the lawe, to do them. 11 But that no man is iustified by the lawe in the sight of God, it is euident: For the iust shall lyue by fayth. 13 And the lawe is not of faith: but the man that doth them, shal liue in them. 13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the lawe, being made a curse for vs: For it is written, Cursed is euery one that hangeth on tree. 14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the gentils through Jesus Christ, that we myght receaue the promise of the spirite through fayth. 15 Brethren, (c) I speake after the maner of men: Though it be but a mans testament, yet if it be alowed, no man reiecteth it, or adderh therto. 16 To Abraham & his seede were the promises made. He saith not, To the seedes, as of many: but, To thy seede, as of one, whiche is Christ. 17 This I say, that the lawe which began afterwarde beyond foure hundred and thirtie yeres, doth not disanull the testament that was confirmed afore of God vnto Christewarde, to make the promise of none effect. 18 For if the inheritaunce be of the lawe, then not nowe of promyse. But God gaue (the inheritaunce) vnto Abraham by promise.

For yf there had ben a lawe geuen whiche coulde haue geuen lyfe, then no doubt ryghteousnes shoulde haue ben by the lawe. 22 But the scripture hath concluded all vnder sinne, that the promise by the fayth of Jesus Christe shoulde be geuen vnto them that beleue. 23 But before fayth came, we were kept vnder the lawe, and were shut vp vnto the fayth whiche shoulde afterwarde be reuealed. 24 Wherefore the lawe was our scoolemaister vnto Christe, that we shoulde be iustified by fayth. 25 But after that fayth is come, we are no longer vnder a scoolemaister. 26 For ye are all the children of God by fayth in Christ Jesus. 27 For * all ye that are baptized, haue put on Christe.

24 Whiche thynges are spoken by (e) an allegorie. For these are two testamentes: the one from the mount Sina, which gendreth vnto bondage, which is Agar: 25 For Agar is the mount Sina in Arabia, and bordereth vpon the citie whiche (is) nowe (called) Hierusalem, and is in bondage with her children. 26 But Hierusalem whiche is aboue, is free, whiche is the mother of vs all. 27 For it is written, Reioyce thou barren, that bearest no children, breake forth and crye, thou that trauaylest not: For the desolate hath many mo children, then she which hath an husbande. 28 But brethren, we are after Isahac the children of promise. 29 But as then he that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the spirite: euen so is it nowe. 30 Neuertheless, what sayth the scripture? Put away the bondwoman and her sonne: for the sonne of the bondwoman, shal not be heyre with the sonne of the free woman. 31 So then brethren, we are not children of the bondewoman, but of the free.

The first Chapter.

1 Afrer his salutation, 4 He sheweth that the chefe cause of their salnation standeth in the free election of God through Christe.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Chriſte by the wyll of god, to the saintes which are at Epheſius, & to the faythfull in Chriſt Jesus, 2 Grace (be) with you, and peace from God our father, and (from) the Lorde Jesus Chriſte. 3 Blessed be God the father of our Lorde Jesus Chriſte, whiche hath blessed vs in all spirituall bleſſing, in heauenly thynges by Chriſte: 4 Accordyng as he had chosen vs in hym, before the foundation of the worlde, that we should be holy & without blame before hym through loue. 5 Who hath predestinate vs vnto the adoption of (a) chyldren by Jesus Chriſte vnto hym selfe, accordyng to the good pleasure of his wyll: 6 To the prayse of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made vs accepted in the beloued. 7 In whom we haue redemption through his blood, the forgeuenesse of sinnes accordyng to the riches of his grace, 8 Wherin he hath abounded towarde vs in all wiſdome and prudence. 9 And hath opened vnto vs the mysterie of his wyll, accordyng to his good pleasure which he had purposed in him selfe, 10 That in the dispensation of the fulnesse of the tymes, he might gather together in one all thinges in Chriſt, both which are in heauens, and which are in earth, in him. 11 In whom also we are chosen, beyng predestinate accordyng to the purpose of hym who worketh all thynges after the counsell of his owne will: 12 That we should be vnto the prayse of his glory, which before beleued in Chriſte. 13 In whom also ye (hoped) after that ye heard the worde of trueth, the Gospell of your saluation: wherin also after that ye beleued, were sealed with the holy spirite of promise, 14 Whiche is the earnest of our inheritaunce, vnto the (b) redemption of the purchased possession, vnto the prayse of his glory. 15 Wherfore I also after that I heard of the fayth whiche ye haue in the Lorde Jesus, and loue vnto all the saintes: 16 Ceasse not to geue thankes for you, making mention of you in my prayers, 17 That the god of our Lorde Jesus Chriſte, the father of glory, may geue vnto you the spirite of wysdome and reuelation, in the knowledge of hym: 18 The eyes of your myndes beyng lyghtened: that ye may knowe what the hope is of his callyng, and what the rychesse of the glory of his inheritaunce (is) in the saintes: 19 And what is the exceeding greatnes of his power to vswarde which beleue, accordyng to the worckyng of his myghtie power, 20 Whiche he wrought in Chriſt, when he rayſed hym from the dead, and set hym on his ryght hande in heauenly (places,) 21 Farre aboue all rule, and power, and myght, and dominion, and euery name that is named not in this worlde only, but also in the worlde to come. 22 And hath put all thynges vnder his feete, and gaue hym (to be) the head ouer all thynges to the Churche, 23 Whiche is his body, the fulnesse of hym that fylleth all in all.

AND (he quickened) you that were dead in treſpasses & sinnes: 2 In the whiche in tyme passed ye walked, according to the course of this worlde, after the gouernour that ruleth in the ayre, the spirite that nowe worketh in the chyldren of disobedience. 3 Among whom we al had our conuersation also in tyme past in the lustes of our flesshe, fulfillyng the will of the flesshe and of the mynde, and (a) were by nature the chyldren of wrath, euen as other: 4 But God which is riche in mercy, for his great loue wherwith he loued vs, 5 Euen when we were dead by sinnes, hath quickened vs together with Chriſte, by (whose) grace ye are saued: 6 And hath rayſed (vs) vp together, and made (vs) sit together in heauenly thinges in Chriſte Jesus: 7 That in ages to come he might shew the exceeding ryches of his grace, in (his) kyndnesse to vswarde through Chriſte Jesus. 8 For by grace are ye made made safe through fayth, and that not of your selues: it is the gyft of God:

9 Not of workes, lest any man should boast him selfe. 10 For we are his workemanshyp, created in Christe Jesus vnto good workes, whiche God hath ordayned that we should walke in them. 11 Wherfore remember that ye beyng in time passed gentiles in the flesshe, called vncircumcision of that whiche is called circumcision in the flesshe, made by handes: 12 That at that tyme ye were without Christe, beyng alyauntes from the common wealth of Israel, and straungers from the testamentes of promyse, hauyng no hope, and without God in this worlde. 13 But now in Christ Jesus, ye which sometyme were farre of, are made nye by the blood of Christe.

14 For he is our peace, whiche hath made both one: & hath broken downe the (b) wal that was a stoppe betweene vs, 15 Taking away in his flesshe the hatred, (euen) the lawe of commaundementes (contayned) in ordinaunces, for to make of twayne one newe man in hym selfe, so makyng peace: 16 And that he might reconcile both vnto God in one body through (his) crosse, and slue hatred thereby.

17 And came and preached peace to you (whiche were) a farre of, and to them that were nye. 18 For through hym we both haue an entrance in one spirite vnto the father. 19 Now therefore, ye are no more straungers and forrayners: but citizens with the saintes, and of the housholde of God, 20 And are buylt vpon the foundation of the apostles and prophetes, Jesus Christ him selfe beyng the head corner stone, 21 In whom all the buyldyng coupled together, groweth vnto an holy temple in the Lorde.
22 In whom also ye are buylded together for an habitation of God through the spirite.

The.iii.Chapter.

1 He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment, 13 desireth them not to faint because of his trouble.

FOr this cause I Paul (am) a prysoner of Jesus Christe for you heathen: 2 If ye haue heard of the dispensation of the grace of God whiche is geuen me to youwards: 3 For by reuelation shewed (God) the (a) mysterie vnto me (as I wrote afore in fewe wordes: 4 Whereby when ye reade, ye may vnderstande my knowledge in the mysterie of Christ) 5 Which (mysterie) in other ages was not opened vnto the sonnes of men, as it is nowe reuealed vnto his holy apostles and prophetes by the spirite: 6 (That) the gentiles should be inheritours also, and of the same body, & partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospell:
7 Wherof I am made a minister according to the gift of the grace of god, whiche is geuen vnto me after the working of his power. 8 Vnto me the least of all saintes is this grace geuen, that I should preache among the gentiles the vnsearchable riches of Christ, 9 And to bring to light to al men what the felowship of the mysterie is which from the beginnyng of the world hath ben hid in God, which made al things through Jesus Christ:
10 To thintent that nowe vnto the rulers & powers in heauenly (thinges) might be knowen by the (b) Church, the very manifolde wisdome of God,
11 According to the eternall purpose whiche he wrought in Christe Jesus our Lord: 12 By whom we haue boldnesse, and entrance in the confidence, by fayth of hym. 13 Wherfore I desire that ye faint not for my tribulations for you, whiche is your glory.
14 For this cause I bowe my knees vnto the father of our Lorde Jesus Christe, 15 Of whom all the family in heauen and earth is named:
16 That he would graunt you, according to the ryches of his glory, to be strengthed with might by his spirite in the inner man, 17 That Christ may dwell in your hearte by fayth: that ye beyng rooted and grounded in loue,
18 Myght be able to comprehende with all saintes, what is the breadth, and length, and deapth, and heigth:
19 And to knowe the loue of Christe, whiche excelleth (all) knowledge, that ye myght be fylled with all fulnesse of God. 20 Vnto hym that is able to do exceedyng aboundauntly aboue all that we aske, or thynke, according to the power that worketh in vs, 21 Be praise in the Church by Christ Jesus, throughout all ages worlde without ende, Amen.

(a) Mysterie is that secret hydden purpose of salua tion through Christe.

(b) The Church being gathered of so many kyndes of people, is an example or a glasse for the Angels to behold the wysdome of God in, who hath tourned their particuler discordes into an vniuersall concorde, and of the synagogue of bondage, hath made the Churche of freedome.

led, 2 With al lowlines and meekenesse, with long sufferyng, forbearyng one another in loue, 3 Endeuouring to kepe the vnitie of the spirite in the bonde of peace. 4 One body and one (a) spirite, euen as ye are called in one hope of your callyng. 5 One Lorde, one fayth, one baptisme. 6 One God and father of all, whiche is aboue all, and through all, and in you all.

7 But vnto euery one of vs is geuen grace, accordyng to the measure of the gift of Christe. 8 Wherfore he saith, When he went vp on hye, he led captiuitie captiue, and gaue gyftes vnto men. 9 (But that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower partes of the earth? 10 He that descended, is euen the same also that ascended vp farre aboue all heauens to fulfill al thyngs.)

11 And he gaue some apostles, and some prophetes, and some euangelistes, and some shepeheardes, and teachers, 12 To the gatheryng together of the saintes, into the worke of ministration, into the edifyng of the body of Christ: 13 Till we all meete together into the vnitie of faith and knowledge of the sonne of God, vnto a perfect man, vnto the measure of the age of the fulnesse of Christe: 14 That we henceforth be no more chyldren, wauering and caried about with euery wynde of doctrine, in the wylynesse of men, in craftynesse to the layeng (b) wayte of deceipt: 15 But folowing trueth in loue, let vs growe vp into hym in all thynges whiche is the head (euen) Christ: 16 In whom al the body beyng coupled and knit together, by euery ioynt of submynistration, according to the effectual power in the measure of (c) euery part, maketh increase of the body, vnto the edifyng of it selfe in loue. 17 This I say therfore, and testifie in the Lorde, that ye henceforth walke not as other gentiles walke, in vanitie of their mynde: 18 Darkened in cogitation, beyng alienated from the lyfe of God by the ignorance that is in them, by the blyndnesse of their hearte. 19 Whiche being past (d) feelyng, haue geuen them selues ouer vnto wantonnesse, to worke all vncleannesse with greedynesse. 20 But ye haue not so learned Christe. 21 If so be that ye haue hearde him, and haue ben taught in him, as the trueth is in Jesus, 22 To lay downe, accordyng to the former conuersation, the (d) olde man, which is corrupt accordyng to the lustes of errour: 23 To be renued in the spirite of your minde, 24 And to put on that newe man whiche after God is shapen, in ryghteousnesse and holynes of trueth. 25 Wherfore, putting away lying, speake euery man trueth vnto his neighbour: for as much as we are members one of another.

26 Be ye (e) angry, and sinne not: let not the sunne go downe vpon your wrath. 27 Neither gene place to the deuyll. 28 Let him that stole, steale no more: but let hym rather labour, worcking with his handes the thyng which is good, that he may geue vnto him that needeth. 29 Let no fylthy communication proceede out of your mouth, but that whiche is good to edifie withall, as oft as neede is, that it may minister grace vnto the hearers. 30 And greeue not the holy spirite of God, by whom ye are sealed vnto the day of redemption. 31 Let all bytternesse, and fiercenesse, and wrath, and crying, and euil speaking, be put away from you, with all malicious nesse. 32 Be ye curteous one to another, mercyfull, forgeuyng one another euen as God for Christes sake hath forgeuen you.

(a) So that ye can not dissent one frō another, seyng the spirite which ioyneth you in one body can not dissent from him selfe.

seruice of your fayth, I reioyce, and reioyce with you all. 18 For the same cause also do ye reioyce, and reioyce with me. 19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus, to sende Timothe-us shortly vnto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I knowe your state. 20 For I haue no man lyke mynded, who wyll naturally care for your state. 21 For all seeke their owne, not the thinges which are Jesus Christes. 22 Ye knowe the proofe of him, that as a sonne with the father, he hath serued with me in the gospell. 23 Him therfore I hope to sende, assoone as I know my state.
24 But I trust in the Lorde, that I also my selfe shall come shortly.
25 But I supposed it necessary, to sende to you Epaphroditus my brother and companion in labour, and fe-lowe souldier, but your apostle, and the minister of my neede. 26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heauynesse, because that ye had heard that he had ben sicke. 27 And no doubt he was sicke nye vnto death, but God had mercie on him: and not on him only, but on me also: lest I shoulde haue sorowe vpon sorowe.
28 I sent him therefore the more diligently, that when ye see him againe, ye may reioyce, and that I may be the lesse sorowfull. 29 Receaue him therefore in the Lorde with all glad-nesse, and make much of such: 30 Because for the worke of Christe he was nye vnto death, not regardyng his lyfe, to fulfill your lacke of seruice to-warde me.

(a) Whiche barke against the true doctrine, to fyll their bellies, (b) Saint Paul here allegeth vnto circumcisiō by semblaunce of a like word, because that they who craked therof, dyd rather cause a scisme, diuision, or cutting of Churches.

I myght also haue confidence in the fleshe. If any other man thynketh that he hath wherof he might trust in the fleshe, I more: 5 Circumcised the eyght day, of the kinred of Israel, of the tribe of Beniamin, an Ebrue of the Ebrues, after the lawe a Pharisee. 6 Concernyng feruentnesse, persecutyng the Churche: touchyng the righteousnesse whiche is in the lawe, I was blameles. 7 But the thynges that were dauntage vnto me, those I counted losse for Christes sake. 8 Yea, I thinke all thinges but losse for the excellencie of the knowledge of Christe Iesus my lorde: for whom I haue counted all thing losse, and do iudge them but vile, that I may win Christe, 9 And be found in him, not hauing myne owne righteousnesse which is of the lawe: but that whiche is through the fayth of Christe, the righteousnes which commeth of god through fayth: 10 That I may knowe him, and the power of his resurrection, and the felowship of his passions, beyng made conformable vnto his death. 11 * If by any meanes I might attayne vnto the resurrection of the dead. 12 (b) Not as though I had alredy attayned, either were alredy perfect: but I folowe, yf that I may comprehende, wherein also I am comprehended of Christe Iesus. 13 Brethren I count not my selfe as yet that I haue attayned: but this one thing (I say), I forget those thinges which are behinde, and endeuour my selfe vnto those thinges which are before, 14 And I presse towarde the marke, for the price of the hye callyng of God in Christe Iesus. 15 Let vs therefore as many as be perfect, be thus minded: And yf ye be otherwyse mynded, God shall reueale the same also vnto you.

16 Neuertheles vnto that whiche we haue attayned vnto, let vs proceede by one rule, that we may be of one accorde. 17 Brethren be followers together of me, & loke on them which walke so as ye haue vs for an ensample. 18 For many walke of whom I haue told you often, & now tell you weeping, (that they are) the enemies of the crosse of Christe:

19 Whose end (is) dampnation, whose God (is their) belly, and glory to their shame, which minde earthly thinges.

20 But our conuersation is in heauen, from whence also we loke for the sauiour, the Lorde Iesus Christe:

21 Who shal chaunge our vyle body, that it may be fashioned lyke vnto his glorious body, accordyng to the workyng whereby he is able to subdue all thinges vnto him selfe.

The .iiii. Chapter.

THerefore my brethren beloued & longed for, my ioy and crowne, so continue in the Lord ye beloued.

The Lorde is at hande. 6 Be careful for nothing: but in all thinges let your petition be manifest vnto God, in prayer & supplication with geuing of thankes.

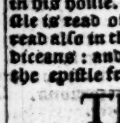
the Apostle, vnto the Thessalonians.

¶ The first Chapter.

1 He thanketh god for them, that they are so stedfast in fayth and good workes.



Paul & Siluanus and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Thessalonians (which is) in (a) god the father, and in the Lorde Jesus Christe, Grace (be) vnto you, & peace from God our father, and the Lorde Jesus Christe. 2 We geue thankes to God alwayes for all you, makyng mention of you in our prayers.

3 Without ceassing callyng to remembraunce the worke of your fayth, and labour of loue, and patient abydyng in the hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our father:

4 Knowyng, brethren beloued, your election of God. 5 For our gospell came not vnto you in worde only, but also in power, & in the holy ghost, and in much certaintie, as ye knowe after what maner we were among you, for your sake. 6 And ye became followers of vs, and of the Lorde, receauing the word in much affliction, with (b) ioy of the holy ghost: 7 So that ye were an ensample to all that beleue in Macedonia & Achaia. 8 For from you sounded out the worde of the Lord not only in Macedonia & Achaia, but also in euery place your fayth to godwarde is spread abrode, so that we neede not to speake any thyng.

9 For they them selues shewe of you, what maner of entryng in we had vnto you, & howe ye turned to God from images, to serue the (c) lyuing & true God. 10 And to tary for his sonne from heauen, whom he rayled from the dead, (euen) Jesus which deliuereth vs from the wrath to come.

The .ii. Chapter.

2 He commendeth his diligence in preachyng, 13 and theirs in obeyyng.

For ye your selues, brethren, know our entraunce in vnto you, that it was not in (a) vayne: 2 But euen after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated as ye knowe at Philippos, we were bolde in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospell of God, in much struyng.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceipt, neither of vncleannesse, neither in guile: 4 But as we were alowed of God to be put in credite with the gospel, euen so we speake not as pleasing men, but God, whiche tryeth our heartes. 5 For neither at any time vsed we flattering wordes, as ye know, neither cloke of couetousnesse, god (is) recorde: 6 Neither sought we prayse of men, neither of you, nor yet of others: 7 When we might haue ben in "auctoritie as the apostles of Christe: but we were tender among you, euen as (b) nourse cherisheth her children. 8 So beyng tenderly affected toward you, our good wyl was to haue deale vnto you not the gospel of god only, but also our owne soules, because ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and trauaple: for we labouryng nighe & day, because we would not be chargeable vnto any of you, preached vnto you the gospell of God. 10 Ye (are) witnesse & god (also,) how holyly and iustly and vnblameably we behaued our selues among (c) you that beleeue: 11 As ye know how that as a father his children, so we haue exhorted, comforted, & besought euery one of you, 12 That ye would walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glory. 13 For this cause thanke we God also without ceassing, because ye receauyng the worde which ye heard of vs concernyng God, ye receaued it not as the worde of men, (but as it is in deede) the

14 For ye, brethren, became folowers of the Churches of God which in Iurie are in Christe Iesus: for ye haue suffred like thinges of your countreymen, as they haue of the Iewes:
15 Who both kylled the Lorde Iesus and their owne prophetes, and haue persecuted vs: and God they please not, and are contrary (d) to all men:
16 And hynder vs to speake to the Gentiles that they myght be saued, to fulfyll their sinnes alway. For the wrath (of God) is come on them to the vttermost. 17 Forasmuch, brethren, as we are kept from you for a short season in person, not in heart, we endeuored the more to see you personally with great desire. 18 And therefore we woulde haue come vnto you (euen I Paul) once and agayne: but Satan hyndered vs. 19 For what is our hope, or ioy, or crowne of reioycyng? Are (e) not ye it in the presence of our Lorde Iesus Christ, at his commyng?
20 Yea, ye are our glorie and ioy.

¶ The. iii. Chapter.

1 He sheweth howe greatly he was affectioned towarde them, both in that he sent Timotheus to them, 10 and also prayed for them.

WHerefore seince we coulde no longer forbeare, we thought it good to remayne at Athens alone:
2 And sent Timotheus our brother and minister of God, and felowe labourer in the Gospell of Christ, to stablishe you, and to comfort you concernyng your fayth. 3 That no man shoulde be moued in these afflictions: For ye your selues knowe that we are appoynted thereunto. 4 For verily when we were with you, we tolde you before that we shoulde suffer tribulation: euen as it came to passe, and (as) ye knowe. 5 For this cause when I (a) coulde no longer forbeare, I sent (him) to knowe your fayth, lest by some meanes the tempter had tempted you, and our labour had ben vaine.
6 But nowe lately when Timothens came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tydynges of your fayth and loue, and howe that ye haue good remembraunce of vs alwayes, desiryng to see vs, as we also (to see) you:
7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted ouer you, in all our aduersitie and necessitie, because of your fayth:
8 For nowe we (b) lyue, yf ye stande fast in the Lord. 9 For what thankes can we recompence to God agayne for you, for all the ioy wherwith we ioy for your sakes before our God?
10 Praying nyght & day exceedingly to see you personally, and repayre the wantynges of your fayth? 11 Nowe God him selfe and our father and our Lorde Iesus Christ guide our way vnto you. 12 And the Lord increase you, and make you abounde in loue one towarde another, and towarde all men, euen as we also towarde you: 13 To stablishe your hartes vnblameable, in holinesse before God and our father, in the commyng of our Lorde Iesus Christe with all his saintes.

¶ The. iiii. Chapter.

1 He exhorteth them to holinesse, 6 innocencie, 9 loue, 11 labour, 13 and moderation in lamentyng for the dead.

FOrthermore we beseche you brethren, and exhort you by the Lorde Iesus, that ye increase more and more, as ye haue receaued of vs, howe ye ought to walke and to please God.
2 For ye knowe what commaundementes we gaue you by the Lorde Iesus. 3 For this is the wyll of god, (euen) your holinesse, (a) that ye shoulde abstayne from fornication: 4 That euery one of you shoulde knowe howe to possesse his vessell in holinesse and honour: 5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, euen as the Gentiles which knowe not God. 6 That no man oppresse and defraude his brother in (any) matter: because that the Lord is the auenger of all such, as we also haue forewarned you, and testified.
7 For God hath not called vs vnto vncleannesse, but into holinesse. 8 He therefore that dispiseth, dispiseth not man, but God, who hath geuen to you his holy spirite. 9 But as touchyng brotherly loue ye neede not that I write vnto you: for ye are taught of God to loue one another. 10 Yea and that thyng verily ye do vnto all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseche you brethren, that ye encrease more and more: 11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your owne businesse, and to worke with your owne handes, as we commaunded you: 12 That ye may walke honestly towarde them that are without, and that nothyng be lacking in you. 13 But I woulde not haue you to be ignorant, brethren, concernyng them

¶ The.v. Chapter.

1 He enformeth them of the day of iudgement and comming of the Lord.

BVt of the tymes and seasons, brethrē, ye haue no neede that I write vnto you. 2 For ye your selues knowe perfectly that the day of the Lorde shall so come euen as a theefe in the nyght. 3 For when they shall say, Peace, and saferie: then shall sodayne destruction come vpon them, (a) as sorowe vpon a woman with childe: and they shall not escape. 4 But ye brethren, are not in darkness, that that day shoulde ouertake you as a theefe. 5 Ye are all the children of lyght, and the children of the day: We are not of the nyght, neither of darknesse. 6 Therfore let vs not (b) sleepe as (do) other, but let vs watche and be sober. 7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night: and they that be dronken, are dronken in the night. 8 But let vs which are of the day, be sober, puttyng on the brestplate of faith and loue, and a helmet, the hope of saluation.

9 For God hath not appoynted vs to wrath: but to obtayne saluation by our Lorde Iesus Christe, 10 Which dyed for vs, that whether we wake or sleepe, we shoulde lyue together with him. 11 Wherefore comfort your selues together, and edifie euery one another, euen as ye do. 12 And we beseeche you brethren, to knowe them which labour among you, and haue the ouersight of you in the Lorde, and admonithe you: 13 That ye haue them in hye reputation in loue, for their worke: and be at peace among your selues. 14 We exhort you brethren, warne them that are vnruly, comfort the feeble mynded, lift vp the weake, be patient towarde all men.

15 See that none recompence euyll for euyll vnto any man: but euer followe that which is good, both among your selues, and to all men. 16 Reioyce euer. 17 Pray continually.

18 In all thinges geue thankes: For this is the wyll of God in Christe Iesus towarde you. 19 Quench not the spirite. 20 Despise not (c) prophesynges. 21 Examine all things: holde fast that which is good. 22 Abstayne from all appearaunce of euyl. 23 And the very God of peace sanctifie you throughout (And I pray god) that your whole spirite, and soule, & body may be preserued blameles in the comyng of our Lorde Iesus Christ. 24 Faithfull is he which called you, which will also do it. 25 Brethren pray for vs.

26 Greete all the brethren in an holy kisse. 27 I charge you in the Lorde, that this epistle be read vnto all the holy brethren. 28 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christe (be) with you. Amen.

sheweth what fruite shall come therof.

PAul, and Siluanus and Timotheus, vnto the Churche of the Thessalonians in God our father and the Lorde Iesus Christe: 2 Grace vnto you, and peace from God our father, and the Lorde Iesus Christe. 3 We are bounde to thanke God alwayes for you brethren, as it is meete, because that your fayth groweth exceedyngly, and and the loue of euery one of you towardes another aboundeth: 4 So that we our selues reioyce in you in the Churches of God, ouer your (a) patience and fayth in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye suffer: 5 (Which is) a (b) token of the ryghteous iudgement of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdome of God, for which ye also suffer: 6 For it is a ryghteous thyng with God, to recompence tribulation to them that trouble you: 7 And to you which are troubled, rest with vs, in the reuelation of the Lorde Iesus from heauen, with the angels of his power, 8 In flamyng fyre, rendryng vengeaunce vnto them that knowe not God, and that obey not the Gospell of our Lorde Iesus Christe. 9 Which shalbe punished with euerlastyng dampnation from the presence of the Lorde, and from the glorie of his power: 10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saintes, and to be made marueylous in all them that beleue (because our testimonie towarde you was beleued) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray alwayes for you, that our God woulde make you worthy of the calling, and fulfyll all good pleasure of goodnesse, and the (c) worke of fayth in power:

12 That the name of our Lorde Iesus Christe may be glorified in you, and ye in him, accordyng to the grace of our God, and the Lorde Iesus Christe.

(a) Which proceedeth of your faith as a most notable fruite.

¶ The. ii. Chapter.

¶ He sheweth them that the day of the Lorde shall not come, tyll the departyng from the fayth come first, 9 and the kingdome of antechriste. 15 And therefore he exhorteth them not to be deceaued, but to stande stedfast in the thinges that he hath taught them.

WE beseche you brethren, by the commyng of our Lorde Iesus Christe, and by our assemblyng vnto him, 2 That ye be not sodenly moued from (your) mynde, nor be troubled, neither by (a) spirite, nor by worde, nor yet by letter, as from vs, as though the day of Christe were at hande. 3 Let no man deceaue you by any meanes: for (the Lorde shall not come) except there come a fallyng away first, and that man of sinne be reuealed, the sonne of (b) perdition, 4 (Which is) an aduersarie, and is exalted aboue all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewyng him selfe that he is God. 5 Remember ye not that when I was yet with you, I tolde you these thynges? 6 And nowe ye knowe what withholdeth, that he myght be reuealed in his tyme. 7 For the mysterie of iniquitie doth already worke, only he which nowe letteth (vvyll let) vntyll he be taken out of the way. 8 And then shall that wicked be reuealed, whom the Lorde shall consume with the spirite of his mouth, and shall destroy with the bryghtnesse of his commyng: 9 (Euen him) whose commyng is after the worckyng of Satan, in all power and signes, and wonders of lying, 10 And in all deceaueablenesse of vnryghteousnesse in them that perishe: because they receaued not the loue of the truth that they myght be saued. 11 And therfore God shall sende them strong delusion, that they should beleue lyes: 12 That all they myght be dampned which beleued not the truth, but had pleasure in vnryghteousnesse. 13 But we are bounde to geue thankes alway to God for you, brethren beloued of the Lorde, because that God hath from the begynnyng chosen you to saluation in sanctifiyng of the spirite, and (in) fayth of the truth:

14 Whereunto he called you by our Gospell, to the obtaynyng of the glorie of our Lorde Iesus Christe.

15 Therefore brethren stande fast, and holde the ordinaunces which ye haue ben taught, whether it were by (our) preachyng, or by our epistle. 16 Our Lorde Iesus Christe, and God and our father which hath loued vs, and hath geuen vs euerlastyng consolation and good hope in grace, FOrthermore bzethzen, pzay ye foz vs, that the wozde of the Lozd may haue fzee passage, and be glozified euen as with you: 2 And that we may be deliuered from disozdered and euyll men: Foz all men haue not (a) fayth. 3 But the Lozde is faythfull, which shall stablishe you, and kepe you from enyll. 4 And we haue confidence in the Lozde to youwarde, that ye both do, and wyll do the thynges which we cõmaunde you. 5 And the Lozde guide your heartes to the loue of God, and to the patient wayteyng foz Chzistes. 6 We commaunde you, bzethzen, in the name of our Lozde Jesus Chzist, that ye withdzawe your liues from euery bzother that walketh inozdinatly, and not after the (b) institution which he receiued of vs.

7 Foz ye your selues knowe howe ye ought to folowe vs: foz we behaued not our selues inozdinatly among you, 8 Neither toke we bzead of any man foz naught: but wzought with labour and sweate nyght and day, because we would not be chargeable to any of you. 9 Not but that we had "auctho3itie, but to make our selues an ensample vnto you to folowe vs. 10 Foz when we were with you, this we warned you of, that yf any would not wozke, the same should not eate. 11 Foz we haue heard that there are some which walke among you inozdinatly, wozking not at all, but be busybodyes. 12 Them that are such, we commaunde, & exhozt by our Lozde Jesus Chzist, that they wozkyng in quietnesse, eate their owne bzead. 13 And ye bzethzen, be not weery in well doyng. 14 If any man obey not our doctrine, signifie him by an epistle: and haue no companie with him, that he may be ashamed. 15 Yet count him not as an enemie, but warne him as a bzother.

16 Nowe the very Lozde of peace gene you peace alwayes by all meanes. The Lozde be with you all.

¶ The first Chapter.

3 He exhorteth Timotheus to wayte vpon his office, namely to see that nothyng be taught but gods worde. &c.

A Act. 9. c.

PAul an Apostle of Jesus Chzistes by the commission of God our sauiour, and Lozde Jesus Chzistes (which is) our hope, 2 Vnto Timotheus a naturall (a) sonne in the fayth: Grace, mercie, (and) peace from God our father and Jesus Chzist our Lozde.

3 As I besought thee to abide styll in Ephesus when I departed into Macedonia, (so do) that thou commaunde some that they teache no other doctrine: 4 Neither gene heede to fables & endlesse genealogies, which breede questions more then godly edifying which is in fayth. 5 But the ende of the commaundement, is loue out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of fayth vnfaigned. 6 From the which thynges some hauyng erred, haue turned vnto vayne iangling:

B 7 Coueryng to be doctours of the lawe, yea vnderstandyng what they speake, neither whereof they affirme. 8 But we knowe that the lawe is good, yf a man vse it lawfully.

9 Knowyng this that the lawe is not genen vnto a righteous man, but vnto the lawlesse and disobedient, to the vngodly and to sinners, to vnholy and vncleane, to murtherers of fathers and murtherers of mothers, to manslears, 10 To whozemongers, to them that defile them selues with mankinde, to manstealers, to lyars, to periured, and yf there be any other thyng that is contrary to wholsome doctrine: 11 Accozdyng to the gospel of glozie of the blessed God, which is cõmitted vnto me. 12 And I thanke Chzistes Jesus our Lozde which hath made me strong: foz he counted me faithfull, puttyng (me) into the ministerie: 13 Beyng befoze a blasphemer, and a persecuter, & an oppressour: But yet I obtayned mercie, because I did it (b) ignozauntly in vnbeleefe.

¶ The. ii. Chapter.

1 He exhorteth to pray for all men. 4 Wherefore, 8 and howe. 9 As touchyng the apparell and modeſtie of women.

I Exhort therefore, that firſt of all prayers, ſupplications, intercceſſions, and geuyng of thankes be made for all men: 2 For kynges, and for all that are in auctoritie, that we may leade a quiet and peaceable life, in all godlyneſſe and honeſtie. 3 For that is good and acceptable in the ſight of God our ſauiour, 4 Who wyll haue all men to be ſaued, and to come vnto the knowledge of the trueth. 5 For (there is) one God, and one mediatour of God and men, the man Chriſt Jeſus: 6 Who gaue him ſelfe a (a) raunſome for all, a teſtimonie in due tymes. 7 Whereunto I am ordeyned a preacher and an apoſtle (I tell the trueth in Chriſte and lye not) a teacher of the gentiles in faith and verite. 8 I wyll therefore that the men pray euerywhere, liftyng vp holy handes without wrath and reaſoning.

9 Lykewyſe alſo the women, that they aray them ſelues in comely apparell, with shamefaſtneſſe, and diſcrete behauiour, not in brayded heere, either golde or pearles, or coſtly aray:

10 But (that becommeth women profeſſyng godlineſſe) through good workes. 11 Let the woman learne in ſcilence in all ſubiection. 12 But I ſuffer not a woman to teache, neither to vſurpe auctoritie ouer the man, but to be in ſcilence. 13 For Adam was firſt fourmed: then Eue. 14 And Adam was not deceaued: but the woman beyng deceaued, was (b) in the tranſgreſſion. 15 Notwithſtandyng, through bearyng of children ſhe ſhall be ſaued, yf * they continue in faith and loue, and holineſſe, with modeſtie.

¶ The. iii. Chapter.

1 He declareth what is the office of miniſters, 11 and as touching their families, 15 and the dignitie of the Churche, 16 and the principall poynt of the heauenly doctrine.

THis is) a faithfull ſaying, If a man deſire the office of a biſhop, he deſireth a good worke. 2 A biſhop therefore muſt be blameleſſe, the huſbande of one wyfe, watchyng, ſober, comely apparelled, a louer of hoſpitalitie, apt to teache, 3 Not geuen to ouermuch wine, no ſtryker, nor greedy of filthy lucre: but gentle, abhorryng fyghtyng, abhorryng couetouſneſſe:

4 (One) that ruleth well his owne houſe, hauyng children in ſubiection with all grauitie: 5 (For yf a man knowe not to rule his owne houſe, howe ſhall he care for the Churche of God?) 6 Not a young ſcoler: leſt he beyng puffed vp, (a) fall into the condempnation of the deuyll. 7 He muſt alſo haue a good report of them which are without, leſt he fall into the rebuke and ſnare of the deuyll.

13 For they that haue miniſtred well, get them ſelues a good degree, and great liberte in the fayth which (is) in Chriſte Jeſus. 14 Theſe thinges write I vnto thee, hopyng to come ſhortly vnto thee: 15 But yf I tary long,

¶ The.iiii. Chapter.

2 He teacheth him what doctrine he ought to flee, 6.8.11. and what to folowe, 15 and wherin he ought to exercise him selfe continually.

NOwe the spirite speaketh euidently that in the latter tymes some shall depart from the faith, geuyng heede vnto spirites of errour, and doctrines of deuyls, 2 Which speake false in hypocrisie, hauyng (a) their conscience seared with an hot iron: 3 Forbiddyng to marry, (and commaundyng) to abstayne from meates which God hath created to be receaued with geuyng thankes, of them which beleue and knowe the trueth. 4 For euery creature of God (is) good: and nothyng to be refused, if it be receaued with thankesgeuyng. 5 For it is sanctified by the worde of God, and prayer. 6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these thynges, thou shalt be a good minister of Iesus Christe, which hast ben norished vp in the wordes of fayth, and of good doctrine, which thou hast continually folowed. 7 But cast away prophane and olde wiues fables: and exercise thy selfe rather vnto godlynesse. 8 For bodyly exercise profiteth litle: but godlynesse is profitable vnto all thynges, hauyng promise of the lyfe that is nowe, and of that which is to come. 9 (This is) a sure saying, and by all meanes worthy to be receaued. 10 For therefore we both labour, and suffer rebuke, because we haue hoped in the lyuyng God, which is the sauiour of all men, specially of those that beleue. 11 These thynges commaunde and teache. 12 Let no man despise thy youth: but be thou a paterne of the beleuers, in worde, in conuersation, in loue, in spirite, in fayth, in chastitie. 13 Tyll I come, geue attendaunce to readyng, to exhortation, to doctrine. 14 Neglect not the gyft that is in thee, which was geuen thee (b) through prophesie, with the layyng on of handes by the auctoritie of the elderchip. 15 Haue a care of these thynges, and geue thy selfe vnto them: that it may be seene howe thou profitest in all thynges. 16 Take heede vnto thy selfe, and vnto doctrine, and continue therin: For in doyng this, thou shalt both (c) saue thy selfe, and them that heare thee.

REbuke not an elder, but exhort him as a father, the younger men, as brethren: 2 The elder women, as mothers, the younger, as sisters, in all chastitie. 3 Honour widowes which are widowes in deede. 4 But yf any widowe haue children or nephues, let them learne first to rule their owne houses godly, and to recompence also their elder kinsfolkes: for that is good and acceptable before God. 5 And she that is a widowe (a) in deede and left alone, hopeth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers nyght and day. 6 But she that liueth in pleasure, is dead beyng alyue. 7 And these thynges commaunde, that they may be blamelesse. 8 But if any prouide not for his owne, and specially for them of his householde, he hath denyed the fayth, and is worse then an infidell. 9 Let not a widowe be chosen vnder three score yeres olde, hauyng ben the wife of one man. 10 And well reported of in good workes: yf she haue brought vp children, if she haue lodged straungers, yf she haue washed the saintes feete, yf she haue ministred vnto them that were in aduersitie, yf she haue ben continually geuen to euery good worke. 11 But the younger widowes refuse: for when they haue begun to ware wanton against Christ, they will marry: 12 Hauyng damnation, because they haue cast away their first fayth. 13 They learne to wander about from house to house idle: yea not idle only, but also tatlers and busibodyes, speakyng thynges which are not comely. 14 I will therefore that the younger women do marry, to beare children, to guide the house, to geue none occasion to the 17 The elders that rule well are worthy of double honour, most specially they which labour in the worde and teachyng. 18 For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not moosell the oxe that treadeth out the corne: And, The labourer is worthy of his rewarde.

19 Agaynst an elder receaue none accusation, but vnder two or three witnesses. 20 Them that sinne, rebuke before all, that other also may feare. 21 I testifie before God, and the Lord Jesus Christe, and the elect angels, that thou obserue these thynges without hastinesse of iudgement, and do nothyng after partialitie. 22 Laye handes sodenly on no man, neither be partaker of other mens sinnes. ¶ The. vi. Chapter.

1 The duetie of seruauntes towarde their maisters. 3 Agaynst such as are not satisfied with the worde of God.

LEt as many seruauntes as are vnder the yoke, count their maisters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed. 2 And they which haue beleuyng maisters, despise (them) not because they are brethren: but rather do seruice, forasmuch as they are beleuyng and beloued, & partakers of the (a) benefite. These thynges teache, and exhort. 3 If any man teache otherwise, and consenteth not vnto the wholsome wordes of our Lorde Jesus Christe, and to the doctrine which is according to godlynesse:

4 He is puft vp, knowyng nothyng, but dotyng about questions & stryfes of wordes: whereof commeth enuie, stryfe, raylynges, euyll surmisinges, 5 Wayne disputations of men of corrupt myndes, destitute of the trueth: thynkyng lucre to be godlinesse. From such be thou separate. 6 Godlinesse is great lucre, if a man be content with that he hath. 7 For we brought nothyng into the worlde, and it is certayne that we may cary nought away. 8 But hauyng foode, and rayment, we must therwith be content. 9 For they that (b) will be riche, fall into temptations and snares, and into many foolishe and noysome lustes, which drowne men in perdition and destruction. 10 For loue of money is the roote of all euyll: which whyle some lusted after, they erred from the fayth, and (c) pearced them selues through with many sorowes. 11 But thou, O man of god, flee these thinges: and folowe after righteousnesse, godlinesse, fayth, loue, patience, meekenesse. 12 Fyght the good fyght of fayth, lay hande on eternall life, whervnto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses. 13 I geue thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all thynges, and before Jesus Christe, which vnder Pontius Pilate witnessed a good profession: 14 That thou kepe the commaundement, without spot, vnrebukeable, vntyll the appearing of our Lorde Jesus Christe: 15 Which in his tymes he shal shewe that is blessed and prince only, (d) the kyng of kynges and lorde of lordes: 16 Who only hath immortalitie, dwellyng in the light that no man can attayne vnto, whom no man hath seene, neither can see: vnto whom be honour and power euerlastyng. Amen.

17 Charge them which are riche (e) in this worlde, that they be not hye mynded, nor trust in vncertayne riches: but in the lyuyng God, (which geueth vs aboundantly all thynges to enioy:) 18 That they do good, that they be riche in good workes, that they be redy to geue, glad to distribute: 19 Layng vp in store for them selues a good foundation agaynst the tyme to come, that they may lay holde on eternal lyfe. 20 O Timotheus, saue (f) that which is geuen thee to kepe, auoydyng prophane (and) vayne babblynges, and (g) oppositions of science falsly so called: 21 Which some professyng, haue erred concernyng the fayth. The ſeconde Epiſtle of the Apoſtle ſaint Paul, to Timotheus.

¶ The firſt Chapter.

6 Paul exhorteth Timotheus to ſtedfaſtneſſe and patience in perſecution, and to continue in the doctrine that he had taught them.

PAul an Apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſte by the wyll of God, (a) accordyng to the promiſe of lyfe which is in Chriſte Jeſus.

2 To Timotheus a beloued ſonne, grace, mercie, and peace from God the father, and Chriſte Jeſus our Lorde. 3 I thanke God whom I worſhip from (my) forefathers in pure conſcience, that without ceaſſyng I haue remembraunce of thee in my prayers nyght and day: 4 deſiryng to ſee thee, myndfull of thy teares: that I may be fylled with ioy. 5 When I call to remembraunce the vnfaigned fayth that is in thee, which dwelt firſt in thy graundmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice: and I am aſſured that (it dwelleth) in thee alſo. 6 Wherfore I put thee in remembraunce that thou (b) ſtirre vp the gyft of God, which is in thee by the puttyng on of my handes. 7 For God hath not geuen to vs the ſpirite of feare: but of power, and of loue, and of a ſounde mynde. 8 Be not thou therfore aſhamed of the teſtimonie of our Lorde, neither of me his priſoner: but ſuffer thou aduerſitie with the Goſpell, accordyng to the power of God: 9 Who hath ſaued vs, and called vs with an holy calling, not accordyng to our workes: but accordyng to his owne purpoſe and grace, which was geuen vs in Chriſte Jeſus before the worlde began:

10 But is nowe made manifeſt by the appearyng of our ſauiour Jeſus Chriſte, who hath put away death, and hath brought lyfe and immortalitie vnto lyght through the Goſpell:

11 Whereunto I am appoynted a preacher and apoſtle, and a teacher of the gentiles. 12 For the which cauſe I alſo ſuffer theſe thynges, neuertheleſſe, I am not aſhamed: for I knowe whom I haue beleued, and I am perſwaded that he is able to kepe that which I haue committed to him agaynſt that day. 13 See thou haue the paterne of wholſome wordes, which thou haſt hearde of me in fayth and loue that (is) in Chriſte Jeſus.

14 That (b) good thyng which was committed to thy kepyng, holde faſt through the holy ghoſt which dwelleth in vs. 15 This thou knoweſt, that all they which are in Aſia be turned from me: of whom are Phygelius and Hermogenes. 16 The Lorde geue mercie vnto the houſe of Oneſiphorus: for he oft refreſhed me, and was not aſhamed of my chayne.

17 But when he was in Rome, he ſought me out very diligently, and founde (me.) 18 The Lorde graunt vnto him that he may fynde mercie with the Lorde in that day: And in howe many thynges he miniſtred vnto me at Epheſus, thou knoweſt very well.

¶ The. ii. Chapter.

1 He exhorteth him to be conſtant in trouble, to ſuffer manly, to abyde faſt in the wholſome doctrine of our Lord Jeſus Chriſte.

THou therfore my ſonne, be ſtrong in the grace that is in Chriſte Jeſus. 2 And the thynges that thou haſt hearde of me by many witneſſes, the ſame commit thou to faithfull men, which ſhalbe apt to teache other alſo. 3 Thou therefore ſuffer afflictions as a good ſouldier of Jeſus Chriſt. 4 No man that warreth, entangleth him ſelfe with the affayres of (this) lyfe: that he may pleaſe him which hath choſen him to be a ſouldier. 5 And yf a man alſo wreſtle, yet is he not crowned except he wreſtle lawfully. 6 The labouryng husbandman (a) muſt firſt be partaker of the frutes. 7 Conſider what I ſay: and the Lorde geue thee vnderſtandyng in all thynges. 8 Remember that Jeſus Chriſte of the ſeede of Dauid was rayſed from the dead, accordyng to my Goſpel: 9 Wherin I ſuffer trouble, as an euyll doer, euen vnto bondes: but the worde of God is not bounde.

10 Therfore I ſuffer all thynges for the electes ſakes, that they might alſo obtayne the ſaluation which is in Chriſte Jeſus, with eternall glorie.

11 (It is) a faythfull ſaying: for if we be dead with him, we ſhall alſo lyue (with him:) 12 If we be patient, we ſhal alſo raigne (with him:) yf we deny him.

14 Of these thinges put them in remembraunce, testifie before the Lord, that they striue not about wordes, to no profite, (but) to the peruertinge of the hearers. 15 Studie to shewe thy selfe approued vnto God, a workman not to be ashamed, rightly diuiding the worde of trueth. 16 But prophane voyces of vanitie passe ouer: for they wyll encrease vnto greater vngodlynesse. 17 And their worde shall fret as doth a cancker: of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus, 18 Which about the trueth haue erred, saying that the resurrection is past already: and do ouerthrowe the fayth of some. 19 But the strong foundation of God standeth styll, hauing this seale, (b) The Lorde knoweth them that are his: and, Let euery one that nameth the name of Christe depart from iniquitie. 20 But in a great house are not onlye vessels of golde, and of siluer, but also of wood and of earth: some to honour, and some vnto dishonour. 21 If a man therefore purge him selfe from these, he shalbe a vessell vnto honour, hallowed and meete for the vse of the Lorde, and prepared vnto euery good worke. 22 Lustes of youth auoyde, but folow righteousnesse, fayth, loue, peace, with them that cal on the Lord out of a pure heart. 23 But foolishe and vnlearned questions put from thee, knowyng that they do but gender stryfe. 24 And the seruaunt of the Lorde must not striue: but be gentle vnto al men, apt to teache, suffering euill. 25 In meekenesse instructing them whiche are (c) contrary minded, if God at any time wyll gene them repentaunce to the knowledge of the trueth: 26 And that they may come to them selues againe out of the snare of the deuill, whiche are holden captiue of him at his wyl.

¶ The .iii. Chapter.

1 He prophesieth of the perilous tymes, 16 What profit commeth of the scriptures.

THis knowe also, that in the last dayes perilous tymes shalbe at hande. 2 For men shalbe louers of their owne selues, couetous, boasters, proude, blasphemers, disobedient to fathers and mothers, vnthankfull, vngodly: 3 Without naturall affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, riotous, fierce, despisers of them whiche are good: 4 Traytours, headdy, hye minded, louers of pleasures more then louers of God: 5 Hauing a fourme of godlynesse, but denying the power therof: Turne away from these. 6 These are they which enter into houses, and leade captiue (simple) women laden with sinne, caryed with diuers lustes: 7 Euer learning, and neuer able to come vnto the knowledge of the trueth. 8 For as Iannes and Iambres withstoode Moyses, so do these also resist the trueth: Men of (a) corrupt mindes, reprobate concerning the fayth: 9 But they shall preuaile no longer: for their madnesse shalbe manifest vnto all (men) as also theirs was. 10 But thou hast followed my doctrine, fashion of liuyng, (b) purpose, fayth, long suffering, loue, pacience, 11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came vnto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra, whiche persecutions I suffred pacientlye: and from them all, the Lorde deliuered me. 12 Yea, and all that wyll lyue godlye in Christe Iesus, shall suffer persecution. 13 But the euill men and deceauers shall waxe worse and worse, deceauing, and deceaued. 14 But continue thou in the thinges whiche thou hast learned, whiche also were committed vnto thee, knowyng of whom thou hast learned (them:) 15 And that from an infant thou hast knowen the scriptures, whiche are able to make thee wyse vnto saluation, through fayth which is in Christ Iesus. 16 All scripture (is) geuen by inspiration of God, and (is) profitable to doctrine, to reproue, to correction, to instruction which is in righteousnesse: 17 That (c) the man of God may be perfect, instructed vnto all good workes.

The .iiii. Chapter.

2 He exhorteth Timotheus to be feruent in the worde, and to suffer aduersitie.

I Testifie therefore before God, and the Lorde Iesus Christe, whiche shal iudge the quicke and the dead at his appearing, and his kingdome: 2 Preache the worde, be (a) instant in season, out of season: improue, rebuke, exhort in all long suffering and doctrine. 3 For the tyme wyll

The Epistle of saint Paul vnto Titus.

¶ The first Chapter.

5 He aduertiseth Titus touching the gouernment of the Churche.

PAul a seruaunt of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ according to the (a) fayth of Gods elect, and the knowledge of the trueth which is after godlynesse: 2 In the hope of eternall lyfe, which God that can not lye promised, before the worlde began: 3 But hath made manifest his word at the tyme appointed thorowe preaching, which is committed vnto me according to the ordinaunce of god our sauiour: 4 To Titus a naturall (b) sonne after the common faith, Grace, mercy, (and) peace from God the father and the Lord Jesus Christ our sauiour. 5 For this cause left I thee in Creta, that thou shouldest reformе the thinges that are left, and ordayne elders in euery citie, as I had appointed thee: 6 If any be blameles, the husbande of one wife, hauing faythfull children, not accusable of riote, or vnmanagable. 7 For a bishop must be blameles, as the steward of God: not stubborne, not angry, not geuen to wine, no striker, not geuen to filthy lucre: 8 But a louer of hospitalitie, a louer of goodnesse, sober, righteous, godly, temperate:

13 This witnesse is true: Wherfore rebuke them sharpely, that they may be sounde in the fayth, 14 Not taking heede to Iewes fables, and commaundementes of men turning from the trueth. 15 Vnto the pure (are) all thinges pure: but vnto them that are defiled and vnbeleeuing (is) nothing pure, but euen the mynde and conscience of them is defiled. 16 They confesse that they knowe God, but with workes they denye hym: seeing they are abominable, and disobedient, and vnto euery good worke reprobate.

The. iii. Chapter.

1 Of obedience to such as be in authoritie. 6 He warneth Titus to beware of foolishe and vnprofitable questions.

WArne them to be subiect to rule and power, to obey magistrates, to be redy to euery good worke: 2 To blaspheme no man, to be no fighters, (but) gentle, shewing all meekenesse vnto all men. 3 (a) For we our selues also were sometyme foolish, disobedient, deceaued, seruing diuers lustes and voluptuousnesse, lyuing in malicious saelle & enuie, full of hate, hating one another. 4 But after that the kindnesse and loue of our sauiour God to manwarde appeare:

5 Not of workes that be in righteousnesse which we haue wrought, but according to his mercy he saued vs by the (b) fountaine of regeneration & renuing of the holy ghost, which he shed on vs richly through Jesus Christ our sauiour: 7 That we iustified by his grace, should be made heyres according to the hope of eternall lyfe.

8 (That is) a faythfull saying, & these thinges I wil that thou confirme, that they which haue beleued in god, might be carefull to shewe forth good workes: These thinges are good and profitable vnto men. 9 But foolishe questions, & genealogies, and contentions, and striuinges about the lawe auoyde: for they are vnprofitable and vayne. 10 A man that is an aucthour of sectes, after the first & the seconde admonition auoyde: 11 Knowing that he that is such is subuerted, and sinneth, beyng dampned of hym selfe.

¶ The Epistle of Saint Paul to Philemon.

5 He reioyceth to heare of the fayth and loue of Philemon, 9 whom he desireth to forgeue his seruaunt Onesimus, and louingly to receaue hym agayne.

1 PAul a pryſoner of Jesus Christ, and brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon the beloued and our felowe labourer, 2 And to the beloued Apphia, and to Archippus our felowe ſouldier, and to the Churche in thy house: 3 Grace to you, and peace from God our father, and the Lorde Jesus Christe. 4 I thanke my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers, 5 Hearing of thy loue and fayth whiche thou haſt towarde the Lorde Jesus, and towarde all saintes: 6 That the (a) felowſhip of thy fayth may be effectuall in the knowledge of euery good (worke) whiche is in you towarde Christe Jesus. 7 For we haue great ioy and conſolation in thy loue, because the bowels (b) of the saintes are refreſhed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, though I myght be mucho bolde in Christe to inioyne thee that whiche is conuenient: 9 yet for loues sake I rather beſeche thee, beyng ſuch a one as Paul the aged, and nowe also a pryſoner of Jesus Christe. 10 I beſeche thee for my ſonne Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bondes: 11 Whiche in tyme paſſed was to thee vnprofitable, but nowe profitable to thee and to me. 12 Whom I haue ſent agayne: thou therefore receaue him, that is, myne owne bowels, 13 Whom I would haue retayned with me, that in thy steade he might haue miniſtred vnto me in the bondes of the Goſpell: 14 But without thy mynde would I do nothing, that thy benefite ſhould not be as it were of neceſſitie, but wyllyngly. 15 For haply he therefore departed for a ſeaſon, that thou ſhouldeſt receaue hym for euer: 16 Not nowe as a ſeruaunt, but aboue a ſeruaunt, a brother beloued, ſpecially to me: but howe muche more vnto thee both in the fleſhe and in the Lorde?

17 If thou count me therefore a felowe, receaue hym as my ſelfe.

18 If he haue iniured, or oweth (thee ought) that lay to my charge.

19 I Paul haue written it with myne owne hande, I will recompence it: albeit, I do not ſay to thee howe that thou oweſt vnto me euen thyne owne ſelfe. 20 Yea brother, let me enioy (this) "pleaſure of thee in the Lorde: comfort my (c) bowels in the Lorde. 21 Truſting in thyne obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wylt alſo do more then I ſay. 22 Moreouer, prepare me alſo a lodging: for I truſt that through your prayers I ſhalbe geuen vnto you. 23 There ſalute thee Epaphras my felowe pryſoner (d) in Christe Jesus, 24 Marcus, Ariſtarcus, Demas, Lucas, my felowe labourers. 25 The grace of our Lorde Jesus Christe (be) with your ſpirite. GOD whiche in tyme past at sundry times and in diuers maners spake vnto the fathers in the prophetes, 2 hath in these (a) last dayes spoken vnto vs in the sonne, whom he hath appoynted heyre of all thinges, by whom also he made the worldes. 3 Who beyng the brightnes of the glorie, and the very image of his substaunce, vpholding al thinges with the worde of his power, hauing by him selfe pourged our sinnes, * hath sit on the ryght hande of the maiestie on hye: 4 Beyng so much more excellent then the angels, as he hath by inheritaunce obtayned a more excellent name then they. 5 For vnto whiche of the angels sayde he at any tyme, Thou art my sonne, this (b) day haue I begotten thee? 6 And agayne, I will be to hym a father, and he shalbe to me a sonne? And agayne when he bringeth in the first begotten sonne into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship hym. 7 And vnto the angels he saith, Ye maketh his angels (c) spirites, and his ministers a flame of fire: 8 But vnto the sonne (he saith) Thy seate, O God, (shalbe) for euer and euer: the scepter of thy kyngdome (is) a scepter of rightcousnesse. 9 Thou hast loued rightcousnesse and hated iniquitie: therefore God, euen thy God, hath annoynted thee with the oyle of gladnesse aboue thy felowes. 10 And, Thou Lorde in the beginning hast layde the foundation of the earth: and the heauens are the workes of thy handes:

11 They shall perishe, but thou endurest: and they all shall wax olde as doth a garment: 12 And as a vesture shalt thou folde them vp, and they shalbe chaunged: but thou art the same, and thy yeres shall not fayle.

13 But vnto whiche of the angels sayd he at any tyme, Sit on my right hande, till I make thyne enemies thy footestoole? 14 Are they not all ministring spirites, sent foorth into ministerie for their sakes whiche shalbe heyres of saluation?

1 He exhorteth vs to be obedient vnto the newe lawe whiche Christe hath geuen vs.

WHerefore we ought to gene the more earnest heede to the thinges which we haue heard: lest at any (a) tyme we should let them slip. 2 For if the (b) worde spoken by angels, was stedfast: and euery transgression and disobedience receaued a iust recompence of rewarde:

3 Howe shall we escape if we neglect so great saluation? whiche at the first began to be preached of the Lord, and was confirmed vnto vs warde by them that heard it, 4 God bearing witnesse (therto) both with signes and wonders also, and with diuers powers, and gyftes of the holy ghost according to his owne will. 5 For vnto the angels hath he not put in subiection the worlde to come, whereof we speake. 6 But one in a certayne place witnessed, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? Or the sonne of man, that thou wouldest loke vpon him? 7 Thou madest hym for a litle whyle lower then the angels, thou hast crowned hym with (c) glory and honour, and hast set hym aboue the workes of thy handes. 8 Thou hast put al thinges in subiection vnder his feete. In that he put all thinges vnder hym, he left nothing that is not put vnder hym. But nowe we see not yet all thinges put vnder hym. 9 But hym that for a whyle was made lesse then the angels, we see (that it was) Iesus, who through the suffering of death was crowned with glory and honour, that he by the grace of God, should taste of death for all. 10 For it became him for whom are all thinges, and by whom are all thinges, after he had brought many sonnes vnto glory, that he should make the captayne of their saluation perfect through afflictions.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of fleshe and blood, he also hym selfe likewise toke part with them, that through death he might expell him that had lordship ouer death, that is the deuyll: 15 And that he might deliuer them whiche through feare of death were all their lyfe tyme in daunger of bondage. 16 For he in no place taketh on hym the (c) angels: but the seede of Abraham taketh he on hym. 17 Wherefore, in all thinges it became hym to be made lyke vnto his brethren, that he might be mercifull and a faythfull hye priest in thinges concerning God, for to purge the peoples sinnes. 18 For in that he hym selfe suffered and was tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

The.iii. Chapter.

1 He requireth them to be obedient vnto the word of Christe, 3 who is more worthy then Moyses.

Wherefore holy brethren, partakers of the celestiall calling, (a) consider the apostle and hye priest of our profession Christe Iesus, 2 Being faythfull to hym that appointed him, as also Moyses (was faythfull) in all his house. 3 For this (man) is counted worthy of more glory then Moyses, inasmuch as he which hath builded the house, hath more honour then the house. 4 For euery house is builded of some man: but he that builded all thinges, is God. 5 And Moyses verely was faythfull in all his house, as a minister, for a witnesse of those thinges whiche were to be spoken after: 6 But Christe as a sonne hath rule ouer his owne house: (b) whose house are we, if we holde fast the confidence and the reioycing of that hope vnto the end. 7 Wherefore, as the holy ghost saith, To day if ye will heare his voyce, 8 Harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation, in the day of the temptation in the wildernesse: 9 Where your fathers tempted me, proued me, and sawe my workes fourtie yeres. 10 Wherefore I was greeued with that generation, and saide, They do alway erre in heart, they verily haue not knowen my wayes. 11 So that I sware in my wrath, (c) If they shall enter into my rest. 12 Take heede brethren, lest at any time there be in any of you an euyll heart of vnbeliefe, to depart from the liuing God: 14 But exhort ye one another dayly, whyle it is called to day: lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulnesse of sinne. 14 For we are made partakers of Christe, if we kepe sure vnto the ende (d) the beginning of the substaunce, 15 * So long as it is said, To day if ye will heare his voyce, harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation. 16 For some when they had heard, dyd prouoke*: howbe it, not all that came out of Egypt by Moyses. 17 But with whom was he displeased fourtie yeres? Not with them that had sinned, whose carkases fell in the desart? 18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them that were not obedient? 19 And we see that they could not enter in because of vnbeliefe.

The.iiii. Chapter.

2 The worde without fayth is vnprofitable. 3 The Sabbath or rest of the Christians.

Let vs feare therefore, lest at any tyme by forsaking the promise of entring into his rest, any of you should seeme to be defrauded. 2 For vnto vs was the Gospell preached, aswell as vnto them: but the worde whiche they hearde dyd not profite them, not being coupled with fayth to them that hearde. 3 For we which haue beleued do enter into his rest, as he sayde, Euen as I haue sworne in my wrath, if (a) they shall enter into my rest: although the workes were made perfect from the foundation of the world. 4 For he spake in a certaine place of the seuenth day on this wise, And God dyd rest the seuenth day from all his workes. 5 And in this place agayne, If they shall enter into my rest. 6 Seyng therefore it foloweth that some must enter there into, and they to whom the gospell was first preached entred not therein for vnbeliefe: 7 Agayne, he appoynteth a certayne day, by to day, saying in Dauid after so long a time (as it is sayde,) To day if ye will heare his voyce, harden not your hearts.

(a) Although that God by his rest after the creation of his works, signified the spiritual rest of the faythfull: yet he sware to geue rest in Chanaan, whiche was but a figure of the heauenly rest, & dured but for a tyme.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

5 He compareth Iesus Christe with the Leuiticall priestes. &c.

FOr euery hye priest taken from among men, is ordayned for men in thinges (pertayning) to God: to offer (a) gyftes and sacrifices for sinne: 2 Which can sufficiently haue compassion on the ignorant, and on them that erre out of the way: forasmuche as he hym selfe also is compassed with infirmitie. 3 And for the same (infirmitie) he is bounde to offer for sinnes, aswell for hym selfe, as for the people. 4 And no man taketh this honour vnto hym selfe but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 Euen so, Christe also glorified not hym selfe, to be made the hye priest: but he that sayde vnto hym, Thou art my sonne, to day haue I begotten thee (gaue it hym.) 6 As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for euer after the order of Melchisedec. 7 Whiche in the dayes of his flesche, when he had offred vp prayers and supplications with (b) strong crying and teares, vnto hym that was able to saue hym from death, and was heard in that whiche he (c) feared:

8 Though he were the sonne, yet learned he obedience by these thinges whiche he suffered: 9 And beyng perfect, was made the authoure of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey hym: 10 And is called of God an hye priest after the order of Melchisedec. 11 Of whom we haue many thinges to say, and harde to be vttered: seeyng ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when as concerning the tyme ye ought to be teachers, yet haue ye neede agayne that we teache you the first principles of the beginning of the worde of God: and are become suche as haue neede of mylke, and not of strong meate. 13 For euery one that vseth mylke, is vnexpert of the worde of righteousnesse: for he is a babe. 14 But strong meate belongeth to them that are perfect (euen) those whiche by reason of vse, haue their wittes exercised to discerne both good and euyll.

THerefore leauing the doctrine of the begynnyng of (a) Christe, let vs go forth vnto perfection: not laying agayne the foundation of repentaunce from dead workes, and of fayth towarde God, 2 Of the doctrine of baptismes, and of laying on of handes, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternall iudgement.

3 And this wyll we do, if God permit. 4 For it can not be that they whiche were once lighted, and haue tasted of the heauenly gyft, and were become partakers of the holy ghost, 5 And haue tasted of the good worde of GOD, and the powers of the worlde to come: 6 And they fall away, shoulde be renued agayne vnto repentaunce, hauyng crucified to them selues the sonne of God a fresh, and made a mocke of hym.

The. vii. Chapter.

1 He compareth the priesthood of Christ vnto Melchisedec. 11 also Christes priesthood with the Leuites.

FOr this Melchisedec kyng of Salem, priest of the most hye God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kynges, and blessed hym, 2 To whom also Abraham gaue tythe of all thinges: first being called by interpretation kyng of righteousnesse, & after that also kyng of Salem, whiche is, king of peace.

3 Without (a) father, without mother, without kin: hauing neither beginning of dayes, neither ende of life, but lykened vnto the sonne of God, & continueth a priest for euer. 4 Nowe consider howe great this (man) was, vnto whom also the patriarche Abraham gaue tythe of the spoyles.

5 And verely they whiche are of the children of Leui, whiche receaue the office of the priesthood, haue a commaundement to take tithe of the people according to the lawe, that is, of their brethren, though they came out of the loynes of Abraham. 6 But he whose kinrede is not counted among them, receaued tythe of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises. 7 And without all controuersie, the lesse is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that dye, receaue tythes: but there he (receaueth them) of whom it is witnessed that he liueth. 9 And (to say the trueth) Leui also whiche receaueth tythes, payed tythes in Abraham. 10 For he was yet in the loynes of his father, when Melchisedec met Abraham. 11 If therfore perfection was by the priesthood of the Leuites (for vnder that priesthood the people receaued the law) what needed it furthermore that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, & not to be called after the order of Aaron? 12 For if the priesthood be translated, of necessitie also there is made a translation of the lawe. 13 For (he) of whom these thinges are spoken, pertayneth vnto another tribe, of whiche no man stoode at the aulter. 14 For it is euident that our Lorde sprong out of Juda: of whiche tribe spake Moyses nothing concerning priesthood:

15 And (it is) yet a farre more euident thing, if after the similitude of Melchisedec there aryse another priest, 16 Whiche is not made after the law of the carnall commaundement, but after the power of the endelesse lyfe: 17 For he thus testifieth, Thou art a priest for euer after the order of Melchisedec. 18 For there is truely a disanulling of the commaundement goyng before, for the weaknesse and vnprofitablenesse thereof. 19 For the lawe made nothing perfect, but (was) the bryngyng in of a better hope, by the whiche we drawe nygh vnto God. 20 And in as muche as that was not without an othe (For those priestes were made without an othe: 21 But this priest with an othe, by hym that sayde vnto hym, The Lorde sware, and made a suertie of a better testament.

23 And among them many were made priestes, because they were forbydden by death to endure: 24 But this man, because he endureth euer, hath an (b) vnchaungeable priesthood.
25 Wherfore he is able also euer to saue them to the vttermost that come vnto god by him, seeing he euer liueth to make intercession for them.
26 For such an hye priest became vs,
(which is) holy, harmeless, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then heauens: 27 Which needeth not dayly, as those hye priestes, to offer vp sacrifice first for his owne sinnes, and then for the peoples: for that did he once when he offered vp hym selfe. 28 For the lawe maketh men hye priestes which haue infirmitie: but the worde of the oth which (was) after the lawe (maketh) the sonne, whiche is perfect for euermore.

The. viii. Chapter.

6 He proueth the abolishing aswell of the Leuiticall priesthood, as of the olde couenaunt, by the spiritual & euerlasting priesthood of Christe, 8 and by the newe couenaunt.

BVt of the thynges which we haue spoken, (this is) the summe, We haue an hye priestе, that sitteth on the ryght hande of the throne of the maiestie in the heauens, 2 A minister of holy thynges, and of the true tabernacle which the Lord pight, and not man. 3 For euery hye priest is ordeined to offer giftes and sacrifices: Wherefore it is of necessitie that this man haue somewhat also to offer.
4 For he were not a priest, if he were on the earth, seeyng there are priestes that accoyding to the law offer giftes,
5 Who serue vnto the example and shadowe of heauenly thynges, as Moyses was admonished of God, when he was about to finishe the tabernacle, For see, saith he, (that) thou make all thynges accoyding to the patterne shewed to thee in the mount.
6 But now hath he obteyned a more excellent office, by howe muche also he is the mediatour of a better couenaunt, which was confirmed in better promises. 7 For yf that first (couenaunt) had ben founde faultlesse, then shoulde no place haue ben sought for the seconde. 8 For in rebuking them, he saith, Beholde the dayes (a) come, saith the Lord, and I wyll finishe vpon the house of Israel and vpon the house (b) of Juda a newe couenaunt:
9 Not lyke that that I made with their fathers, in the day when I toke them by the hande to leade them out of the lande of Egypt: because they continued not in my conenaunt, and I regarded them not, saith the Lorde.
10 For this is the couenaunt that I wyll make with the house of Israel after those dayes, sayth the Lorde, geuyng my lawes into their mynde, and in their heart I wyll wryte them, and I wyll be to them a God, and they shalbe to me a people. 11 And they shall not (c) teache euery man his neighbour, and euery man his brother, saying, Knowe the Lorde: for all shall knowe me, from the lytle of them to the great of them. 12 For I wyll be mercifull to their vnryghteousnesse, and their sinnes and their iniquities wyll I thinke vpon no more. 13 In that he saith a newe (couenaunt) he hath worne out the first: for that which is worne out and waxed olde, is redy to vanishe away.

The. ix. Chapter.

1 Howe that the ceremonies and sacrifices of the lawe are abolished, 11 by the eternitie and perfection of Christes sacrifice.

THye first (couenaunt) then had verely iustifying ordinaunces, seruinges of God, and worldly holynesse. 2 For there was a tabernacle made before wherein (was) the lyghte, and the table, and the shewe bread, which is called holy. 3 But after the (a) seconde vayle, (was) a tabernacle which is called holyest of all,
4 Whiche had the golden senser, and the arke of the couenaunt ouerlayde rounde about with golde, wherein was the golden pot hauyng Manna, and Aarons rod that had budded, and the tables of the couenaunt. 5 And ouer it the Cherubims of glory shadowyng the mercy seate: of whiche thinges we can not nowe speake particularely. 6 When these thynges were thus ordeyned, the priestes went alwayes into the first tabernacle, accomplishyng the seruice of God.
But into the seconde (went) the hye priest alone once euery yere, not without blood whiche he offred for hym selfe and (for) the ignoraunces of the people.

people. 8 The holy ghost this signifieng, that the (b) way of holy thinges was not yet opened, whyle as yet the firste tabernacle was standyng: 9 Whiche (was) a similitude for the tyme then present, in whiche were offered giftes and sacrifices, that coulde not make the worshipper perfect as pertaynyng to the conscience, 10 With only meates and drynkes, and diuers washyngnes, and iustifyinges of the fleshe, which were layde by vntill the time of reformation. 11 But Christ beyng come an hye priest of good thynges that shoulde be, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with handes, that is to say, not of this buildyng, 12 Neither by the blood of Goates and Calues: but by his owne blood he entred in once into the holy place, and founde eternal redemption.

13 For if the (c) blood of Bulles & of Goates, and the asshes of a young Cowe sprinckling the vncleane, sanctifieth to the purifiyng of the fleshe:

14 Howe muche more the blood of Christ, which through the eternall spirite offered him selfe without spot to god, shall purge your conscience from dead workes, to serue the liuing God?

15 And for this cause is he the mediatour of the newe couenaunt, that through death, whiche was for the redemption of the transgressions that were vnder the first couenaunt, they whiche are called myght receaue the promise of eternall inheritaunce.

16 For where as is a testament, there must also of necessitie be the death of hym that maketh it. 17 For a testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no value, as long as he that maketh the testament is aliue. 18 For whiche cause also neither the firste (testament) was dedicated without blood. 19 For when Moyses had spoken euery precept to all the people accordyng to the lawe, takyng the blood of Calues and of Goates, with water and purple woll and hysope, he sprinckled both the booke it selfe, and all the people,

20 Saying, This is the blood of the testament whiche God hath enioyned vnto you. 21 And likewise he sprinckled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vesselles of the ministerie.

22 And almost all thynges are by the lawe purged with blood: and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It is neede then that the paterne of heauenly thynges be purified with suche thynges: but the heauenly thynges them selues (be purified) with better sacrifices then are those.

24 For Christe is not entred into the holy place made with handes, whiche is a paterne of the true (holy place:) but into heauen it selfe, nowe to appeare in the sight of God for vs.

25 Not that he shoulde offer him selfe (b) often, as the hye priest entreth into the holy places euery yere in straunge blood: 26 (For then must he haue often suffered sence the foundation of the worlde:) but nowe once in the ende of the worlde hath he appeared, to put away sinne, by the sacrifice of hym selfe. 27 And as it is appoynted vnto men once to dye, and after this the iudgement: 28 Euen so, Christe once offered to take away the sinnes of many, the seconde time shall be seene without sinne of them which wayte for hym vnto saluation.

The. x. Chapter.

1 The olde lawe had no power to clense away sinne, 10 but Christ did it with offering of his body once for all.

FOr the lawe hauing the (a) shadowe of good thynges to come, and not the very fashion of the thynges them selues, can neuer with those sacrifices which they offer yere by yere continually, make the commers thereunto perfect. 2 For would not then those (sacrifices) haue ceassed to haue ben offered, because that the offerers once pourged, shoulde haue had no more conscience of sinnes? 3 Neuertheles, in those (sacrifices) is mention made of sinnes euery yere. 4 For it is not possible that the blood of Bulles and of Goates shoulde take away sinnes. 5 Wherefore when he commeth into the worlde, he sayth, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not haue, but a body hast thou ordayned me. 6 In burnt sacrifices (and offerynges) for sinne thou hast had no pleasure: 7 Then sayde I, Lo I come (In the begynnyng of the booke it is written of me) to do thy wyll O God.

8 Aboue when he sayth, that sacrifice and offeryng, and burnt offerynges (and offerynges) for sinne thou wouldest nor, neither hadest pleasure (therein) (whiche are offered by the lawe:) 9 Then sayde he, Lo I come, to do thy wyll O God: He taketh away the first (b) to stablishe the (c) seconde. 10 In the whiche wyll we are made holy,

(b) So long as the hye priest offered once a yere for his owne sinnes & for the peoples, & also while this earthly tabernacle stoode, the way to the heauenly tabernacle, whiche is made open by Christes blood, could not be entred into.

(c) The Leuiticall priestes offred beastes blood: but Christe the true and eternal priest offered his owne blood whiche was most holy & pure. The Leuiticall priest offred yerely, & therfore did only represent the true holines: but Christ by one only sacrifice hath made holy for euer the that beleue.

holy, euen by the offeryng of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. 11 And euery preest standeth dayly ministrynge, and offeryng oftentymes the same sacrifices, which can neuer take away sinnes: 12 But this man, after he hath offered one sacrifice for sinnes, " is set downe for euer on the ryght hande of God: 13 From henceforth tarying tyll his foes be made his foote stoole. 14 For with one offeryng hath he made perfect for euer them that are sanctified. 15 And the holy ghost also beareth vs recorde: For after that he had tolde before,

16 This is the couenaunt that I wyll make vnto them after those dayes, (sayth the Lord) geuyng my lawes in their heart, and in their myndes wyll I wryte them. 17 And their sinnes and iniquities wyll I remember no more. 18 And where remission of these thinges (is,) there (is) no more offeryng for sinne. 19 Hauyng therefore, brethren, libertie to enter into holy (places) in the (d) blood of Jesus, 20 By the newe and (e) lyuing way which he hath prepared for vs thrugh the vayle, that is to say, his flesshe: 21 And (seeyng we haue) an hye preeste ouer the house of God: 22 Let vs drawe nye with a true heart, in assurance of fayth, sprynckeled in our heartes from an euyll conscience, and washed in body with pure water, 23 Let vs holde the profession of the hope without wauering, (for he is faythfull that promised:)

24 And let vs consider one another to prouoke vnto loue and good workes, 25 Not forsakyng the assemblyng of our selues together, as the maner of some (is,) but exhortyng (one another,) and so muche the more as ye see the day approchyng. 26 For yf we sinne wyllyngly after that we haue receaued the knowledge of the truerth, there remayneth no more sacrifice for sinnes: 27 But a fearfull lookyng for of iudgement, and violent fire, which shall deuour the aduersaries. 28 He that dispiseth Moyses lawe, dyeth without mercy vnder two or three witnesses: 29 Of howe muche sorer punishment suppose ye shall he be worthy, whiche treadeth vnder foote the sonne of God? and counteth the blood of the couenaunt wherem he was sanctified, an vnholy thing and doth dispite to the spirite of grace? 30 For we knowe hym that hath sayde, Vengeaunce (belongeth) vnto me, I wyll recompence sayth the Lorde. And agayne, The Lorde shall iudge his people. 31 It is a fearefull thyng to fall into the handes of the lyuyng God. 32 Call to remembraunce the former dayes, in the whiche after ye had receaued light, ye endured a great fight of aduersities: 33 Partly whyle ye were made a gasyng stocke, both by reproches and afflictions, and partly whyle ye became companions of them which were so tossed to and fro. 34 For ye sufferd also with my bondes, and take in worth the spoyling of your goodes with gladnesse, knowyng in your selues howe that ye haue in heauen a better and an enduryng substaunce.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, whiche hath great recompence of rewarde. 36 For ye haue neede of patience, that after ye haue done the wyll of God, ye myght receaue the promise. 37 For yet a very litle whyle, a whyle (I say) and he that shall come, wyll come, and wyll not tary. 38 And the iust shall lyue by fayth: and yf he withdrawe hym selfe, my soule shall haue no pleasure in him. 39 But we are not of them that withdrawe our selues vnto perdition: but we pertayne vnto fayth to the wynnyng of the soule.

3 Through fayth we vnderstand that the worldes were ordeyned by the worde of God, and that thynges which are seene, were made of thinges which were not seene. 4 By fayth Abel offered vnto god a more excellent sacrifice then Caine: by which he was witnessed to be (b) righteous, God testifying of his giftes: by which also he being dead, yet speaketh. 5 By fayth was Enoch translated, that he should not see death, neither was he founde, for God had taken hym away: For afore he was taken away, he was reported of to haue pleased God. 6 But without fayth it is impossible to please (him:) for he that commeth to god, must beleue that God is, and that he

he is a rewarder of them that seeke him. 7 By fayth Noe beyng warned (of god) of thinges not seene as yet, moued with reuerence prepared the arke to the sauyng of his house, thorowe the which arke he condempned the worlde, and became heyre of the righteousnes which is by faith.

8 By fayth Abraham when he was called, obeyed (god) to go out into a place whiche he should afterwarde receaue to inheritaunce: and he went out, not knowyng whither he should go. 9 By faith he remoued into the lande of promise as into a straunge countrey, when he had dwelt in tabernacles with Isahac and Jacob heyres with hym of the same promise:

10 For he looked for a citie hauyng a foundation, whose builder and maker is God. 11 Through faith also Sara her selfe receaued strength to conceaue seede, and was deliuered of a childe when she was past age, because she iudged hym faythfull whiche had promised. 12 And therefore sprang there of one, euen of one whiche was as good as dead, (so many) in multitude as are the starres in the skye, and as the sande which is by the sea shore innumerable. 13 These all dyed according to fayth, not hauyng receaued the promises, but seeyng them a farre of, and beleuyng and saluting, and confessing that they were straungers and pilgrimes on the earth.

14 For they that say suche thynges, declare that they seeke a countrey.

15 Also yf they had ben mindfull of that (countrey) from whence they came out, they had leasure to haue returned: 16 But nowe they desyre a better, that is, a heauenly: Wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called theyr God: for he hath prepared for them a citie. 17 By fayth Abraham offred vp Isahac when he was (c) proued: & he that had receaued the promises, offred vp his only begotten sonne, 18 To whom it is sayde, that in Isahac shall thy seede be called. 19 For he considered that God was able to raise the dead vp againe, from whence also he receaued hym in a (certayne) similitude (of the resurrection.) 20 By fayth did Isahac bleese Jacob & Esau, concernyng thynges to come. 21 By fayth Jacob when he was a dying blessed both the sonnes of Joseph, and worshipped "towarde the toppe of his sceptre. 22 By fayth Joseph when he dyed, remembred the departyng of the children of Israel: and gaue commaundement of his bones.

23 By fayth Moyses when he was borne, was hid three monethes of his father and mother, because they sawe he was a proper childe: neither feared they the kinges commaundement.

24 By fayth Moyses when he was great refused to be called the sonne of Pharaos daughter: 25 Choosing rather to suffer aduersitie with the people of God, then to enioy the pleasures of sinne for a season: 26 Esteemyng the rebuke of Christe, greater ryches then the treasures of Egypt: For he had respect vnto the recompence of the reward. 27 By fayth he forsooke Egypt, fearing not the wrath of the kyng: for he endured, euen as though he had seene hym whiche is inuisible. 28 Through fayth he ordeyned the Passouer and the effusion of blood: lest he that destroyed the firste borne, should touche them.

29 By fayth they passed through the redde sea as by drye (lande:) whiche the Egyptians assaying to do, were drowned. 30 By fayth the walles of Jericho fell downe, after they were compassed about seuen dayes. 31 By fayth the harlot Rahab perished not with them that were disobedient, when she had receaued the spyes with peace. 32 And what shall I more say? for the tyme would fayle me to reherse of Gedeon, of Barac, and of Sampson, and of Jephte, of Dauid also and Samuel, and of the prophetes: 33 Whiche through fayth subdued kyngdomes, wrought ryghteousnesse, obteyned the promises, stopped the mouthes of the Lions,

34 Quenched the violence of fyre, escaped the edge of the swoorde, out of weakenesse were made strong, waxed valiaunt in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliantes. 35 The women receaued theyr dead, raysed to lyfe agayne: other were racked, not lookyng for deliuerance, that they myght receaue a better resurrection.

36 And others were tryed with mockynges, and scourgynges, yea moreouer, with bondes and imprisonment: 37 They were stoned, were hewen a sunder, were tempted, were slayne with swoorde, wandred about in sheepe skinnes and goates skinnes beyng destitute, afflicted (and) tormented, 38 Of whom the worlde was

The. xii. Chapter.

1 An exhortation to be pacient & stedfast in trouble & aduersitie, vpon hope of euerlastyng rewarde. 25 A commendation of the newe testament aboue the olde.

Wherefore, seeyng that we are compassed with so great a cloude of witnesses, lay away all that (a) presseth downe, and the sinne that hangeth so fast on, let vs run with patience vnto the battaile that is set before vs: 2 Lookyng vnto Jesus the captayne and finisher of our fayth, whiche for the ioy that was set before hym, endured the crosse, hauyng dispised the shame, and is set downe on the ryght hande of the throne of God.

3 Consider therefore hym that endured suche speakyng agaynst hym of sinners, lest you shoulde be weeryed, fayntyng in your myndes. 4 Ye haue not yet resisted vnto blood, stryuyng agaynst sinne. 5 And ye haue forgotten the exhortation whiche speaketh vnto you as vnto children, My sonne, despyse not thou the chastenyng of the Lorde, neither faynt when thou art rebuked of hym. 6 For whom the Lorde loueth he chastneth, and scourgeth euery sonne that he receaueth.

7 If ye endure chastenyng, God offereth hym selfe vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is he whom the father chasteneth not? 8 But yf ye be without chastisement, whereof al are partakers, then are ye bastardes and not sonnes. 9 Furthermore, we haue had fathers of our flesshe whiche corrected vs, and we gaue (them) reuerence: shall we not then much rather be in subiection vnto the father of spirites, and lyue? 10 For they verily for a fewe dayes chastened vs after their owne pleasure: but he, for our profite, that we might be partakers of his holynes. 11 Now chastisyng for the present seemeth to be ioyous, but greeuous: neuertheles, afterwarde it bryngeth the quiet fruite of ryghteousnesse vnto them whiche are exercised thereby.

12 Strayghten vp therefore the handes whiche were let downe, and the weake knees: 13 And make right steppes vnto your feete, lest (b) that which is halting, turne (you) out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

14 Folowe peace with all men, and holynes, without the whiche no man shall see the Lorde: 15 Takyng heede that no man fall away from the grace of God, lest any roote of bytternesse spryngyng vp, trouble you, and therby many be defyled. 16 Let there be no fornicatour or vncleane person, as Esau, whiche for one morsell of meate solde his birthryght. 17 For ye knowe howe that afterwarde, when he woulde haue inherited the blessyng, he was reiobated: For he founde no place of repentaunce, thongh he sought it with teares.

18 For ye are not come vnto the mount that is (c) touched, and vnto burnyng fyre, and vnto stourme and darkenesse, and tempest of weather, 19 And sounde of a trumpe, and the voyce of wordes: whiche (voyce) they that hearde it, wished away that the worde shoulde not be spoken to them: 20 (For they did not abyde that which was commaunded, If a beast touch the mountaine, it shalbe stoned, or thrust through with a dart. 21 And so terrible was the syght whiche appeared, that Moyses saide, I feare and quake:) 22 But ye are come vnto the mounte Sion, and to the citie of the lyuyng God, the celestiall Hierusalem, and to an innumerable company of (d) angels, 23 And vnto the congregation of the first borne, which are written in heauen, and to God the iudge of al, and to the spirites of iust & perfect men: 24 And to Jesus the mediatour of the newe couenaunt, and to the blood of sprynchlyng that speaketh better then (did the blood) of Abel. 25 See that ye dispise not hym that speaketh: For yf they escaped not whiche refused hym that spake on earth: muche more shall we (not escape) yf we turne away from hym that (speaketh) from heauen:

26 Whose voyce then shooke the earth, and nowe hath declared, saying, Yet once more wyll I shake not the earth only, but also heauen.

27 And this, Yet once more, signifieth remouyng of those thynges whiche

2 Be not forgetfull to lodge straungers: for thereby some hauyng lodged angels, were vnawares thereof. 3 Remember them that are in bondes, as bounde with them: and them which suffer aduersitie, as also ye your selues being in the body (suffered aduersitie.) 4 Wedlocke (is) honourable among all (men) and the bed vndefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will iudge. 5 Let your conuersation be without couetousnes, (beyng) content with such thynges as ye haue: for he hath sayde, I will not fayle thee, neither forsake thee.

10 We haue an aulter, whereof they haue no right to eate whiche serue in the tabernacle. 11 For the bodies of those beastes whose blood is brought into the holy place by the hye priest for sinne, are (b) burnt without the tentes. 12 Therfore Iesus also that he might sanctifie the people with his owne blood, suffered without the gate. 13 Let vs go forth therefore vnto hym out of the tentes, bearyng his reproche. 14 For here haue we no continuyng citie: but we seeke one to come. 15 By hym therefore do we offer sacrifice of laude alwayes to God, that is, the fruite of lippes confessyng his name. 16 To do good and to distribute forget not: for with such sacrifice God is pleased. 17 Obey them that haue the ouersyght of you, and submit your selues: for they watche for your soules, as they that must geue accomptes, that they may do it with ioy, and not with greefe: for that is vnprofitable for you. 18 Pray for vs: for we trust we haue a good conscience, in all thynges wyllyng to liue honestly. 19 But I desire you the more earnestly that ye so do, that I may be restored to you the sooner.
20 The God of peace that brought a-gayne from the dead our Lorde Iesus the great shepheard of the sheepe through the blood of the euerlastyng couenaunt, 21 Make you perfect in all good workes, to do his wyll, worke in you that which is pleasaunt in his syght through Iesus Christ, to whom (be) prayse for euer and euer. Amen. 22 And I beseeche you brethren, suffer the worde of exhortation: for I haue written vnto you in fewe wordes, 23 Knowe ye that (our) brother Timotheus is deliuered: with whom (if he come shortly) I will see you. 24 Salute al them that haue the ouersyght of you, and all the saintes. They of Italie salute you. 25 Grace (be) with you all. Amen.

9 Let the brother of lowe degree, reioyce in that he is (a) exalted:

10 Agayne, the ryche, in that he is made lowe: because as the flowre of the grasse he shall passe away.

11 For (as) the sunne hath risen with heate, and the grasse hath withered, and his flowre hath fallen away, and the beautie of the fashion of it hath perished: so also shall the ryche man fade away in his wayes.

12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tryed, he shall receaue the crowne of lyfe, whiche the Lorde hath promised to them that loue hym. 13 Let no man say when he is (b) tempted, I am tempted of God: for God can not be tempted with euyll, neither tempteth he any man. 14 But euery man is tempted, when he is drawen away & entised of his owne concupiscence. 15 Then when lust hath conceaued, it bryngeth foorth sinne: and sinne when it is finished, bryngeth foorth death. 16 Do not erre my deare brethren. 17 Euery good geuyng, and euery perfect gyft is from aboue, and commeth downe from the father of lightes, with whom is no variablenesse, neither shadowe of turnyng.

18 Of his owne wyll begate he vs with the worde of trueth, that we shoulde be the firste fruites of his creatures. 19 Wherefore my deare brethren, let euery man be swyft to heare, slowe to speake, slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man, worketh not that which is righteous before God. 21 Wherefore lay apart all filthynesse, and superfluitie of malitiousnesse, and receaue with meekenesse the word that is grafted in you, which is able to saue your soules. 22 And be ye doers of the worde, and not hearers only, deceauyng your owne selues. 23 For yf any be a hearer of the worde, and not a doer, he is lyke vnto a man beholding his bodily face in a (d) glasse. 24 For he hath considered hym selfe, and is gone his waies, and hath forgotten immediatly what his fashion was. 25 But who so looketh in the perfect law of libertie, and continueth (therein) he beyng not a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the worke, shalbe blessed in his deede.

26 If any man among you seeme to be ᵛ deuout, and refrayneth not his tongue, but deceaueth his owne heart, this mans ᵛ deuotion is vayne.

27 Pure deuotion and vndefiled before God and the father, is this, To visite the fatherlesse and wydowes in theyr aduersitie, and to kepe hym selfe vnspotted of the worlde.

The .ii. Chapter.

1 He forbiddeth to haue any respect of persons, 5 but to regarde the poore aswell as the ryche.

My brethren, haue not the fayth of our Lorde Iesus Christe the lord of glorie, (a) with respect of persons. 2 For yf there come into your ᵛ company a man wearing a gold ryng, clothed in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poore man in vile rayment: 3 And ye haue a respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a good place: and say vnto the poore, Stande thou there, or sit here vnder my foote stoole: 4 Are ye not partiall in your selues, and are made iudges of euyll thoughtes? 5 Hearken my deare beloued brethren, Hath not God chosen the poore of this worlde, (that they myght be) ryche in fayth, and heyres of the kyngdome whiche he promised to them that loue hym?

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Do not riche men oppresse you by tyrannye, and drawe you before the iudgement seates? 7 Do not they blaspheme that (b) good name by the which ye are named? 8 If ye fulfyll the royall lawe according to the scripture, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye do well: 9 But yf ye regarde one person more then another, ye commit sinne, and are rebuked of the lawe as transgressours.

10 Whosoeuer shall kepe the whole lawe, and yet sayle in one poynt, he is gylty of all. 11 For he that sayde, Thou shalt not commit aduoutrie: sayde also, Thou shalt not kyll. Though thou do none aduoutrie, yet if thou kyll, thou art become a transgressour of the law. 12 So speake ye, and so do, as they that shalbe iudged by the lawe of (c) libertie. 23 For he (shall

1 He forbiddeth all ambition to seeke honour aboue our brethren. 3 He describeth the propertie of the tongue.

MY brethren, be not many maisters, knowyng howe that we shall receaue the greater damnation. 2 For in many thynges we sinne all. If a man sinne not in (a) worde, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle all the body. 3 Beholde, we put bittes in the horses mouthes, that they may obey vs, and we turne about all the body of them: 4 Beholde also the shippes, whiche though they be so great, and are driuen of fierce wyndes, yet are they turned about with a very small helme, whither soeuer the violence of the gouernour will: 5 Euen so the tongue is a litle member also, and boasteth great thynges: beholde howe great a matter a litle fire kindleth. 6 And the tongue is fyre, euen a worlde of wickednesse: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defyleth the whole body, and (b) setteth on fyre the course of nature, and it is set on fyre of hell. 7 All the nature of beastes, and of byrdes, and of serpentes, and thynges of the sea, is meeked and tamed of the nature of man: 8 But the tongue can no man tame, (it is) an vnruly euyll, full of deadly poyson. 9 Therewith blesse we (our) god & father: & therwith curse we men which are made after the similitude of God. 10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessyng & cursyngs. My brethren, these thynges ought not so to be. 11 Doth a fountayne sende foorth at one place swete (water,) and bitter (also?) 12 Can the figge tree, my brethren, beare olive beries? eyther a vine beare figges? so (can) no fountayne geue both salt water and freshe also. 13 Who is a wise man, and endued with knowledge among you? let him shewe his workes out of good conuersation with meekenes of wisdome. 14 But yf ye haue bitter enuying and stryfe in your heart, glory not, neither be lyers agaynst the truth. 15 For such wisdome descendeth not from aboue: but is earthly, sensuall, and deuilishe. 16 For where enuying and strife is, there is sedition and all maner of euyll workes.

17 But the wisdome that is from aboue, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easie to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruites, without iudgyng, without simulation.

18 Yea, and the fruite of righteousnes is sowen in peace, of them that make peace.

¶ The ende of the Epistle of saint James.

The first Epistle of Saint Peter the Apostle.

The first Chapter.

1 He sheweth that through the aboundaunt mercie of God, we are elect and regenerate to a lyuely hope, 7 and howe fayth must be tryed.

PEter an apostle of Jesus Christe, to (a) them that dwel here and there as straungers throwout Ponthus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, & Bithynia: 2 Elect accordyng to the (b) foreknowledge of god the father, vnto the sanctifyng of the spirite, through obedience & sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: grace & peace be multiplied vnto you. 3 Blessed be god the father of our Lord Jesus Christ, whiche accordyng to his aboundaunt mercye begat vs againe vnto a lively hope, by that that Jesus Christe rose agayne from the dead, 4 To an inheritaunce immortal, & vndefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserued in heauen for you, 5 Which are kept by the power of god through fayth vnto saluation, whiche is prepared already to be shewed in the last time. 6 In the which ye reioyce, though now for a season (yf neede require) ye are in heauinesse through manyfolde temptations: 7 That the tryall of your fayth beyng much more precious then golde that perisheth, though it be tryed with fire, might be founde (to be vnto you) vnto laude, glory, and honour, at the appearyng of Jesus Christe. 8 Whom ye haue not seene, & yet loue him, in whom euen now though ye see him not, yet do you beleue (him) and reioyce with ioy vnspeakeable and glorious: 9 Receauing the ende of your fayth, euen the saluation of your soules. 10 Of which saluation haue the prophetes enquired and searched, which prophesied of the grace that (should come) vnto you: 11 Searching when or at what time the spirite of Christe which was in them shoulde signifie, (which spirite) testified before the passions that should happen vnto Christe, and the glory that should folowe after.

12 Vnto which prophetes it was also declared, that not vnto them selues, but vnto vs, they shoulde minister the thinges which are nowe shewed vnto you of them, whiche by the holy ghost sent downe from heauen, haue in the gospell preached vnto you, the thinges which the angels desire to beholde.

13 Wherefore gyrde vp the loynes of your minde, be sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you by the reuelation of Jesus Christe: 14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto the former lustes of your ignoraunce:

15 But as he which called you, is holy, euen so be ye holy also in all maner of conuersation. 16 Because it is written, Be ye holy, for I am holy.

17 And if so be that ye call him the father, which without respect of person iudgeth accordyng to euery mans worke, see that ye passe the tyme of your dwellyng here, in feare: 18 Forasmuch as ye know, how that ye were not redeemed with corruptible (things) as siluer and golde from your vayne conuersation whiche ye receaued by the tradition of the fathers: 19 But with the precious blood of Christe, as of a lamme vndefiled, & without spot: 20 Which was ordayned before hand, euen before the worlde was made, but was declared in the (c) last tymes for your sakes: 21 Which by his meanes do beleue on God that raysed him vp from the dead, and glorified him, that ye might haue fayth and hope toward God: 22 Euen ye whiche haue purified your soules, through the spirite in obeying the trueth, with brotherely loue vnfayned, see that ye loue one a nother with a pure heart feruently:

23 For ye are borne a newe, not of mortall seede: but of immortall, by the worde of God, whiche lyueth and lasteth for euer. 24 For all flesshe is as grasse, and all the glory of man

1 He exhorteth men to ceasse from sinne, 7 and to be sober and apt to pray.

FOr as much then as Christe hath suffered for vs in the flesshe, arme
A ye your selues likewyse with the same minde: for he which suffereth in the flesshe, ceaseth from sinne: 2 That he henceforward should lyue as much tyme as remayneth in the flesshe, not after the lustes of men, but after the wyll of god. 3 For it is sufficient for vs that we haue spent the tyme that is past of the lyfe after the wyl of the gentiles, walking in wantonnesse, lustes, in excesse of wines, in excesse of eating, in excesse of drinking, and abominable idolatrie. 4 And it seemeth to them an inconuenient thing, that ye runne not also with them vnto the same excesse of riote, and therefore speake they euyll of you: 5 Whiche shall gene accomptes to him that is redye to iudge quicke and dead.

Rom. 1. b. Ephe. 4. b.

6 For vnto this purpose verily was the Gospel preached also vnto the (a) dead, that they shoulde be iudged lyke men in the flesshe, but should lyue before god in the spirite. 7 The ende of al thinges is at hande. Be ye therfore sober, and watch vnto prayer. 8 But aboue all thinges, haue feruent loue among your selues: for loue shal couer the multitude of sinnes. 9 Be ye harberous one to another without grudging. 10 As euery man hath receaued the gyft, euen so minister the same one to another, as good ministers of the manifolde grace of God. 11 If any man speake (let him talke) as the wordes of God; yf any man minister, let him do it as of the habilitie which God ministreth (vnto him) that God in all thinges may be glorified through Jesus Christe, to whom be prayse and dominion for euer & euer. Amen.

(a) Although the wicked thinke this Gospell newe, and vexe you that imbrace it: yet hath it ben preached to them of tyme past, which now are dead: to the intent that they might haue ben condempned or dead to sinne in the flesshe, and also might haue lyued to god in the spirite, which two are the effect of the Gospell.

1 The duetie of pastours is to feede the flocke of Christe, and what rewarde they shall haue yf they be diligent.

THe (a) elders whiche are among you I exhort, which am also an el-of Christe, and also a partaker of the glory that shalbe opened: 2 Feede you Gods flocke which is committed vnto you, takyng the ouersight of them, not as compelled thereto, but wyllingly: not for the desire of filthie lucre, but of a good minde: 3 Not as though ye were lordes ouer gods he-

¶ The first Chapter.

4 Forasmuch as the power of God hath geuen them all thinges partayning vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruption of worldly lustes.

1.Cor.8.a. knowledge temperaunce, in temperaunce patience, in patience godlynesse, 7 In godlynes brotherly kindnesse, in brotherly kindnes loue.
8 For yf these thinges beamong you, and be plenteous, they wyl make you that ye neither shalbe idle, nor vnfruitefull in the knowledge of our Lorde Jesus Christe. 9 But he that lacketh these thinges, is blinde, and can not see farre of, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his olde sinnes. 10 Wherfore brethren, geue the more diligence for to make your callyng & election (b) sure: for yf ye do such thinges, ye shall neuer fall.

(b) Albeit it be sure in it selfe, forasmuch as god can not chaunge: yet we must confirme it in our selues by the fruites of the spirite, knowyng that the purpose of God electeth, calleth, sanctifieth, and iustifieth vs.

11 Yea, & by this meanes an entring in shalbe ministred vnto you aboundantly into the euerlasting kingdome of our Lord & sauiour Jesus Christe.
12 Wherefore I wyl not be negligent to put you alwayes inremembraunce of such thinges, though ye knowe them your selues, and be stablished in the present trueth, 13 Notwithstandyng I thynke it meete, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you vp by puttyng you in remembraunce:
14 Forasmuch as I am sure that shortly I must put of this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Jesus Christ shewed me. 15 I wyll euer also geue my diligence that ye may haue wherwith to stirre vp the remembraunce of these thinges after my departing.
1.Iohn.1.a. 16 For we haue not folowed deceitful fables, when we opened vnto you the power and commyng of our Lord Jesus Christe, but with our eyes we sawe his maiestie: 17 Euen then verely when he receaued of God the father honour and glory, and when there came such a voyce to him from the excellent glory, This is my deare beloued sonne in whom I delyte.
Mat.17.b. Mark.1.b. 2.Cor.4.b. 20 So that ye first knowe this, that no prophesie in the scripture is of any priuate * motion. 21 For the prophesie came not in olde time by the wyl of man: but holy men of god spake as they were moued by the holy ghost.

The.ii. Chapter.

1 He prophesieth of false teachers, and sheweth their punishement.

THere were false prophetes also among the people, euen as there shalbe false teachers among you, which priuily shall bryng in dampnable heresies, euen denying the Lorde that hath bought them, and bryng vpon them selues swyft dampnation.
2 And many shall folowe their dampnable wayes, by whom the way of trueth shalbe euyll spoken of. 3 And through couetousnes shall they with fayned wordes make marchaundize of you: whose iudgement is now not farre of, and their dampnation sleepeth not. 4 For yf God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them downe into hell, and deliuered them into chaynes of darknesse to be kept vnto iudgement: 5 Neither spared the olde worlde, but saued Noe the eyght (person) a preacher of righteousnesse, & brought in the flood vpon the worlde of the vngodly, 6 And turned the cities of Sodome and Gomorrhe into ashes, ouerthrew them, dampned them, and made of them an ensample vnto those that afterwarde should lyue vngodly: 7 And iust Lot vexed with the vncleane conuersation of the wicked deliuered he. 8 (For he beyng righteous, and dwellyng among them, in seeyng and heayng vexed his righteous soule from day to day with (their) vnlawfull deedes.)
9 The Lorde knoweth howe to deliuer the godly out of temptation, and to reserue the vniust vnto the day of iudgement for to be punished:
10 But chiefely them that walke after the flesche in the lust of vncleannesse, and despise auctoritie. 3 He sheweth the impietie of them which mocke at Gods promises.
7 After what sort the ende of the worlde shalbe.

THis is the seconde epistle that I nowe write vnto you, dearely beloued, wherewith I stirre vp and warne your pure mindes, 2 By puttyng you in remembraunce, that ye may be mindefull of the wordes which were tolde before of the holye prophetes, & also the " commaundement of vs, whiche be apostles of the Lorde and sauiour. 3 This first vnderstande, that there shall come in the last dayes mockers, whiche wyll walke after their owne lustes,

4 And say, Where is the promise of his commyng? For sence the fathers dyed, all thinges continue alike from the beginning of the creation. 5 For this they knowe not (and that (a) wylfully) howe that the heauens were of olde, and the earth that was of the water, and by the water, by the worde of God: 6 By the whiche thinges the worlde that then was, perished, beyng then ouer runne with water.

7 But the heauens and earth whiche are nowe, be kept by his worde in store, and reserued vnto fire agaynst the day of iudgement, and perdition of vngodly men. 8 Wearely beloued, be not ignorant of this one thing, howe that one day is with the Lorde as a thousande yere, and a thousande yere as one day. 9 The Lorde that hath promised, is not slacke, (as some men count slacknesse) but is pacient to vs warde (forasmuch) as he woulde haue no man lost, but wyll receaue all men to repentaunce. 10 Neuertheles the day of the Lorde wyll come as a theefe in the nyght, in the which the heauens shall passe away with a noyse, and the elementes shall melt with heate, the earth also and the workes that are therein shall burne. 11 Seyng then that all these thinges shall perishe, what maner persons ought ye to be in holy conuersation and godlynesse, 12 Lokyng for, and hastyng vnto the commyng of the day of God, " by whom the heauens shall perishe with fire, and the elementes shal melt with heate? 13 Neuertheles we accordyng to his promise loke for a newe heauen and a newe earth, wherein dwelleth righteousnesse.

the Apostle.

The first Chapter.

2 True witnesse of the euerlasting word of God. 7 The blood of Christe is the purging of sinne. 10 No man is without sinne.

That whiche was from the begynnyng, which we haue heard, whichewe haue seene with our eyes, whiche we haue loked vpon, and our handes haue handled of, the word oflife, 2 (And the lyfe appeared, and we haue seene, & beare witnes, & shew vnto you that eternall life which was with the father, & appeared vnto vs.) 3 That which we haue seene & heard, declare we vnto you: that ye also may haue (a) felowship with vs, & that our felowship may be with the father and his sonne Jesus Christe. 4 And this write we vnto you, that your ioy may be full. 5 And this is the tydynges which we haue hearde of him, and declare vnto you, that God is light, and in him is no darknelle at al. 6 If we say that we haue felowship with him, and walke in darknelle, we lye, and do not the trueth. 7 But & yf we walke in lyght, euen as he is in lyght, then haue we felowship (b) one with another, & the blood of Jesus Christe his sonne cleanseth vs from all sinne.
8 If we say that we haue no sinne: we deceaue our selues, and the trueth is not in vs. 9 If we knowledge our sinnes, he is faithful and iust, to forgeue vs our sinnes, and to cleanse vs from all vnrighteousnelle. 10 If we say we haue not sinned: we make him a lyer, and his word is not in vs.

The. ii. Chapter.

1 Christe is our aduocate. 10 Of true loue, and howe it is tryed. 18 To beware of antichristе.

My litle children, these thinges write I vnto you, that ye sinne not. And yf any man sinne, we haue an aduocate with the father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 2 And he is the attonement for our sinnes: not for our (sinnes) onlye, but also for the (sinnes) of all the worlde. 3 And hereby we are sure that we (a) knowe hym, yf we kepe his commaundementes. 4 He that sayth, I know him, and kepeth not his commaundementes, is a lyer, and the " veritie is not in him: 5 But who so kepeth his word, in him is the loue of God perfect in deede: Hereby knowe we that we are in him. 6 He that sayth he bydeth in him, ought to walke euen as he walked. 7 Brethren, I write no newe commaundement vnto you, but that olde commaundement which ye haue had from the beginnyng. The olde commaundement, is the worde which ye haue heard from the begynnyng. 8 Agayne, a newe commaundement I write vnto you, that is true in him, and (the same is true) also in you: for the darknelle is past, & the true lyght nowe shyneth. 9 He that sayth howe that he is in the lyght, and yet hateth his brother, is in darknelle euen vntyll this time. 10 He that loueth his brother, abydeth in the lyght, and there is none occasion of euyll in him. 11 He that hateth his brother, is in darknelle, and walketh in darknelle: & can not tell whyther he goeth, because that darknelle hath blynded his eyes. 12 Babes I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgeuen you for his names sake. 13 I write vnto you fathers, because ye haue knowen him that is frō the begynning. I write vnto you younge men, because ye haue ouercome the wicked. 14 I write to you litle children, because ye haue knowen the father. I haue 15 See that ye loue not the worlde, neither the thynges that are in the worlde. If any man loue the worlde, the loue of the father is not in him.

Ioh.17.b

16 For all that is in the worlde, as the lust of the flesshe, and the lust of the eyes, and the pryde of lyfe, is not of the father, but of the worlde.

17 And the worlde passeth away, and the lust therof: but he that fulfylleth the wyll of God, abydeth for euer.

18 Litle children, it is the last tyme: and as ye haue hearde howe that antechriſte shall come, euen nowe are there many antechriſtes: wherby we knowe that it is the last tyme.

19 They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: For yf they had ben of vs, they wolde no doubt haue continued with vs: But * that it might appeare that they were not all of vs. 20 Neuertheleſſe ye haue an (b) ointment of him that is holy, and ye knowe all thinges. 21 I haue not written vnto you as thoughe ye knew not the trueth: but because ye knowe it, and that no lye is of the trueth.

¶ The. iii. Chapter.

1 The singuler loue of God towarde vs, 7 and howe we agayne ought to loue one another.

BEholde what loue the father hath shewed vs, (euen) that we shoulde be called the sonnes of God: for this cause the worlde knoweth you not, because it knoweth not hym.

A Luk.10.f. Ioh.1.b.

2 Dearely beloued, nowe are we the sonnes of god, and yet it doth not appeare what we shalbe: But we knowe that when he shall appeare, we shalbe like him: for we shal see him as he is.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth him selfe, euen as he also is pure. 4 Whosoeuer committeth sinne, trangresseth also the lawe: for sinne is the transgression of the lawe. 5 And ye knowe that he appeared to take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne. 6 As many as abyde in him, sinne not: whosoeuer sinneth, hath not seene him, neither knowen him. 7 Babes, let no man deceaue you: he that doth righteousneſſe, is righteous, euen as he is righteous. 8 He that committeth sinne, is of the deuyll: for the deuyll sinneth sence the beginnyng: For this purpose appeared the sonne of God, to loose the workes of the deuyll.

9 Whosoeuer is borne of God, sinneth not: for his seede remayneth in him, and he can not sinne, because he is borne of God. 10 In this are the children of God knowen and the children of the deuyll: whosoeuer doth not righteousneſſe, is not of God, neither he that loueth not his brother.

11 For this is the tydynges that ye hearde from the begynnyng, that we should loue one another. 12 Not as Cain (which) was of that wicked, and slue his brother: And wherfore slue he him? because his owne workes were cupll, and his brothers good.

19 Hereby we knowe that we are of the trueth, and shal assure our heartes before him. 20 For if our heart condempne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all thynges.

1 Difference of spirites, 2 howe the spirite of God may be knowen from the spirite of errour.

DEarely beloued, beleue not euery spirite: but proue the spirites whether they are of God or not: for many false prophetes are gone out into the worlde. 2 Hereby shall ye knowe the spirite of God: Euery spirite that confesseth that Iesus (a) Christe is come in the flesche, is of God: 3 And euery spirite which confesseth not that Iesus Christe is come in the flesche, is not of God, and this is that (spirite) of antechriste, of whom ye haue hearde howe that he shoulde come: and euen nowe alredy is he in the worlde. 4 Litle children, ye are of God, and haue ouercome them: for greater (is) he that is in you, then he that is in the worlde. 5 They are of the worlde, therefore speake they of the worlde, and the worlde heareth them. 6 We are of God: he that knoweth God, heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby knowe we the spirite of veritie, and the spirite of errour. 7 Dearly beloued, let vs loue one another, for loue commeth of God: and euery one that loueth, is borne of God: and knoweth God. 8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his sonne to be the agreement for our sinnes. 11 Dearely beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another. 12 No man hath seene God at any tyme. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs. 13 Hereby knowe we that we dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath geuen vs of his spirite. 14 And we haue seene, and do testifie that the father sent the sonne (to be) the saiuour of the worlde.

15 Whosoeuer confesseth that Iesus is the sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God. 16 And we haue knowen and beleued the loue that God hath to vs. God is loue, and he that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, and God in him. 17 Herein is the loue perfect in vs, that we should haue boldnesse in the day of iudgement: for as he is, euen so are we in this worlde. 18 There is no feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hath paynfulnesse: he that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

19 We loue him, for he loued vs first.

20 If a man say, I loue God, and yet hate his brother, he is a lyar: For howe can he that loueth not his brother whom he hath seene, loue God whom he hath not seene? 21 And this commaundement haue we of him: that he which loueth God, shoulde loue his brother also.

WHosoeuer beleueth that Iesus is Christ, is borne of god: and euery one that loueth him which begat, loueth him also which is begotten of him. 2 By this we knowe that we loue the children of God, when we loue God, and kepe his commaundementes. 3 For this is the loue of God, that we kepe his commaundementes: and his commaundementes are not greeuous.

he which beleueth that Jesus is the sonne of God? 6 This Jesus Christ is he that came by water(a) and blood: not by water only, but by water and blood: And it is the spirite that beareth witnesse, because the spirite is(b) trueth. 7 For there are three which beare recorde in heauen, the father, the worde, and the holy ghost, and these three are one. 8 And there are three which beare recorde in earth, the spirite, and water, and blood, and these three agree in one. 9 If we receaue the witnesse of men, the witnesse of God is greater: For this is the witnesse of God, which he testified of his sonne. 10 He that beleueth on the sonne of God, hath the witnesse in him selfe: he that beleueth not God, hath made him a lyer, because he beleued not the recorde that God gaue of his sonne. 11 And this is the recorde, (howe) that God hath geuen vnto vs eternall lyfe, and this lyfe is in his sonne. 12 He that hath the sonne, hath lyfe: and he that hath not the sonne of God, hath not lyfe.

13 These thinges haue I written vnto you that beleue on the name of the sonne of God, that ye may knowe howe that ye haue eternall lyfe, and that ye may beleue on the name of the sonne of God. 14 And this is the trust that we haue in him: that yf we aske any thyng accordyng to his wyll, he heareth vs. 15 And yf we knowe that he heare vs whatsoeuer we aske: we knowe that we haue the petitions that we desire of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne (which is) not vnto death, let him aske, and he shall geue him lyfe for them that sinne not vnto death. There is a sinne vnto death: I say not that thou shouldest pray for it. 17 All vnrighteousnesse is sinne: and there is sinne not vnto death. 18 We know that whosoeuer is borne of God, sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, keepeth him selfe, and that wicked toucheth him not. 19 We knowe that we are of God, and the whole worlde lyeth in wickednesse. 20 We knowe that the sonne of god is come, and hath geuen vs a mynde to knowe him whych is true: and we are in him that is true, thyough his sonne Jesus Christe: The same is very God, and eternall lyfe. 21 Babes kepe your selues from * idols, Amen.

¶ The.ii. epistle of S. Iohn.

1 He writeth vnto a certayne Lady, 4 reioycyng that her chyldren walke in the trueth, 5 and exhorteth vnto loue.

THE elder vnto the elect Lady and her children, whom I loue in the(a) trueth: and not I only, but also all that haue knowen the trueth: 2 For the truethes sake which dwelleth in vs, and shalbe in vs for euer: 3 Grace be with you, mercie, and peace from God the father, and from the Lorde Jesus Christe the sonne of the father in(b) truety and loue. 4 I reioyced greatly that I founde of thy children walkyng in (c) trueth, as we haue receaued a commaundement of the father. 5 And nowe beseche I thee Lady, not as though I wrote a newe commaundement vnto thee: but that same which we haue had from the begynnyng, that we shoulde loue one another. 6 And this is the loue, that we shoulde walke after his commaundement. This commaundement is, that as ye haue heard from the begynnyng, ye shoulde walke in it. 7 For many deceauers are entred into the worlde, which confesse not that Jesus Christe is come in the flesche. This is a deceauer and an antechriste. 8 Loke on your selues, that we loose not that we haue wrought: but that we may haue a full rewarde. 9 Whosoeuer transgresseth, and byderh not in the doctrine of Christe, hath not God: He that endureth in the doctrine of Christe, hath both the father and the sonne. 10 If there come any vnto you, and bryng not this learnyng, him receaue not to house, neither bydd him God speede. 11 For he that byddeth him God speede, is partaker of his euyll deedes. 12 I had many thynges to write vnto you, neuertheless I wolde not write with paper and inke: but I trust to come vnto you, and speake with you mouth to mouth, that our ioy may be full. 13 The sonnes of thy elect sister greete thee, Amen.

(a) According to godlyneesse, and not with any worldly affections.

THE elder vnto the beloued Gaius, whom I loue in the trueth. 2 Beloued, I wishe in all thynges that thou prospercdst and faredst well, euen as thy soule prospereth. 3 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came, and testified of the trueth that is in thee, howe thou walkest in the trueth. 4 I haue no greater ioy, then (for) to heare howe that my sonnes walke (a) in verite. 5 Beloued, thou doest faythfully whatsoeuer thou doest to the brethren and to straungers: 6 Which beare witnesse of thy loue before the Churche: which (brethren) yf thou bryng forwardes on their iourney after a godly sort, thou shalt do well. 7 Because that for his names sake they went forth, and toke nothing of the Gentiles. 8 We therefore ought to receaue such, that we might be helpers to the trueth. 9 I wrote vnto the Churche: but Diotrephes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them, receaueth vs not. 10 Wherefore yf I come, I wyll declare his deedes which he doth, iestyng on vs with malicious wordes: neither is therwith content, not only he him selfe receaueth not the brethren, but also he forbiddeth them that wolde, and thrusteth them out of the Churche. 11 Beloued, folowe not that which is euyll, but that which is good: he that doth wel, is of God: but he that doth euyl, seeth not God. 12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the trueth it selfe: yea & we our selues also beare record, and ye knowe that our record is true. 13 I haue many thinges to write: but I wyll not with inke and pen write vnto thee. 14 I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speake mouth to mouth. Peace be vnto thee. The louers salute thee. Greete the louers by name.

9 I John your brother and companion in tribulation, and in the kyngdome and patience of Jesus Christe, was in the Ile that is called Pathmos, for the worde of God, and for the witnessyng of Jesus Christe. 10 I was in the spirite on the "Lordes day, and hearde behynde me a great voyce as it had ben of a trumpe. 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: that thou seest write in a booke, and sende it vnto the seuen Churches whiche are in Asia, vnto Ephesus, and vnto Smyrna, and vnto Pergamos, and vnto Thyatira, and vnto Sardis, and vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicea. 12 And I turned backe to see the voyce that spake to me. And when I was turned, I sawe seuen golden candlesticks, 13 And in the middest of the seuen candlesticks, (one) lyke vnto the sonne of man, clothed with a garment downe to the feete, and gyrde about the pappes with a golden gyrdle. 14 His head and his heeres were whyte, as whyte wooll, and as snowe: and his eyes were as a flame of fyre. 15 And his feete lyke vnto fine brasse, as though they burnt in a furnace: and his voyce as the sounde of many waters.

16 And he had in his ryght hande seuen starres: and out of his mouth went a sharpe two edged swoorde: and his face shone euen as the sunne in his strength. 17 And when I sawe hym, I fell at his feete euen as dead: and he layde his right hande vpon me, saying vnto me, Feare not, I am the first and the last. 18 And am alyue: and was dead, and beholde I am alyue for euermore, Amen, and haue the keyes of hell and of death. 19 Write therefore the thinges whiche thou hast seene, and the thynges whiche are, and the thynges whiche must be fulfylled hereafter. 20 The mysterie of the seuen starres whiche thou sawest in my ryght hande, and the seuen golden candlesticks. ¶ The. iiii. Chapter.

1 The vision of the maiestie of God. 2 He seeth the throne, and one sittyng vpon it, 8 and. xxiiii. seates about it, with. xxiiii. elders sittyng vpon them, and foure beastes praysyng God day and nyght.

AFter this I loked, and beholde a A doore was open in heauen: and the first voyce which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talkyng with me, which sayde, Come vp hy-ther, and I will shewe thee thynges which must be fulfylled hereafter.
2 And immediatly I was in the spi-rite: and beholde, a throne was set in heauen, and (one) sate on the throne.
3 And he that sate, was to loke vpon lyke a Jasper stone and a Sardine stone: and there was a raynebowe about the throne in sight lyke vnto B an Emeralde. 4 And about the throne were. xxiiij. seates, and vpon the seates (I sawe) xxiiij. elders sitting, clothed in whyte rayment, and had on their heades crownes of golde.
5 And out of the throne proceeded lyghtnynges, and thundrynges, and voyces: and there were seuen lampes of fire burnyng before the throne, which are the seuen spirites of God.
6 And before the throne there was a sea of glasse lyke vnto Crystal: and in the myddest of the throne and rounde about the throne, were foure beastes full of eyes before and be- C hynde. 7 And the first beast was lyke a Lion, and the seconde beast like a Calfe, and the thirde beast had a face as a Man, and the fourth beast was like a fleeyng Egle. 8 And the foure beastes had eche of them sixe wynges about him, and they were full of eyes within, and they had no rest day neither nyght, saying, Holy, holy, holy Lorde God almightie, which was, and is, and is to come. 9 And when Esai. 6. b those beastes gaue glorie and honour and thankes to him that sate on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer, D 10 The. xxiiij. elders fell downe before him that sate on the throne, and worshipped him that liueth for euer and euer, and cast their crownes before the throne, saying, 11 Thou art worthy O Lorde to receaue glorie and honour and power: for thou hast created all thynges, and for thy pleasures sake they are and were created.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

1 He seeth the lamme opening the booke, 8. 14. and therfore the foure beastes, the. xxiiii. elders, and the angels, prayse the lamme, and do him worshyp, 9 for their redemption and other benefites.

AND I sawe in the right hande of A him that sate on the throne, a booke written within and on the backe

backe side, sealed with seuen seales.
2 And I sawe a strong angell which preached with a loude voyce, Who is worthy to open the booke, and to loose the seales thereof? 3 And no man in heauen nor in earth, neither vnder the earth, was able to open the booke, neither to looke thereon.
4 And I wept muche because no man was founde worthy to open, and to reade the booke, neither to looke thereon. 5 And one of the elders sayd vnto me, Weepe not: beholde a Lion of the tribe of Iuda, the roote of Dauid, hath obtayned to open the booke, and to loose the seuen seales thereof. 6 And I beheilde, and loe in the middes of the throne and of the foure beastes, and in the middes of the elders, stoode a lamme as though he had ben kylled, hauing seuen hornes and seuen eyes, whiche are the seuen spirites of God, sent into all the earth. 7 And he came, and toke the booke out of the right hande of hym that sate vpon the throne.
8 And when he had taken the booke, the foure beastes and foure and twentie elders fell downe before the lamme, hauing euery one of them harpes, & golden vials ful of odours, whiche are the prayers of saintes:
9 And they song a newe song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the booke and to open the seales therof: for thou wast kylled, and hast redeemed vs to God by thy blood, out of all kinrede, and tongue, and people, and nation, 10 And hast made vs vnto our God kynges and priestes, and we shall raigne on the earth.
11 And I beheilde, and I hearde the voyce of many angels about the throne, and (about) the beastes and the elders, and hearde thousande thousandes, 12 Saying with a loude voyce, Worthy is the lamme that was kylled to receaue power, and riches, and wisdome, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.
13 And all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, honour, glory, and power be vnto him that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the lamme for euermore. 14 And the foure beastes sayd, Amen. And the twentie and foure elders fell vpon their faces, and worshipped hym that liueth for euermore.

The. vi. Chapter.

The lamme openeth the sixe seales, and many things folow the opening therof.

AND I sawe when the lamme opened one of the seales, and I hearde one of the foure beastes say, as it were the noyse of thunder, Come, and see. 2 And I sawe, and beholde (there was) a whyte horse: and he that sate on hym had a bowe, and a crowne was geuen vnto hym, and he went forth conquering and for to ouercome. 3 And when he had opened the seconde seale, I hearde the second beast say, Come, and see. 4 And there went out another horse that was redde: and power was geuen to hym that sate thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they shoulde kyll one another: and there was geuen vnto hym a great sworde. 5 And when he had opened the thirde seale, I hearde the thirde beast say, Come, and see. And I beheilde, & loe a blacke horse: and he that sate on hym had a payre of balaunces in his hande.
6 And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beastes say, A measure of wheate for a penie, and three measures of barly for a penie, and oyle and wine see thou hurt not.
7 And when he had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come, and see.
8 And I looked, and beholde a pale horse, and his name that sate on hym was death, and hell folowed after hym: and power was geuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth to kyll with sworde, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beastes of the earth. 9 And when he had opened the fift seale, I saw vnder the aulter the soules of them that were killed for the worde of God, and for the testimonie whiche they had.
10 And they cryed with a loude voyce, saying. Howe long (taryest) thou Lorde holy and true, to iudge and to auenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? 12 And long whyte garmentes were geuen vnto euery one of them: and it was sayde vnto them, that they shoulde rest yet for a litle season, vntyll their felowe seruauntes, & their brethren that shoulde be kylled as they were, were fulfilled.
12 And I beheilde when he had opened the fift seale, and loe there was a great earthquake, and the sunne was blacke as sackcloth made of heere, and the moone waxed all euen as D blood. 13 And the starres of heauen fel vnto the earth, euen as a figge tree casteth her vntimely figges when she is shaken of a mightie wind. 14 And heauen vanished away as a scrowle when it is roulled together, and all mountaines and yles were moued out of their places. 15 And the kynges of the earth, and the great men, and the ryche men, and the cheefe captaynes, and the mightie men, and euerie bonde man, and euery free man, hid them selues in denues

Ose.x.b. and in rockes of the hylles:
Luk.xxiij.d 16 And said to the hilles and rockes, Fall on vs, and hyde vs from the presence of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the lamme: 17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who is able to endure?

The.vii. Chapter.

4.9. He seeth the seruauntes of God sealed in their foreheades, out of al nations and people, 15 whiche though they suffer trouble, yet the lamme feedeth them, leadeth them to the fountaynes of liuing water, 17 and god shall wype away all teares from their eyes.

A AND after that I sawe foure angels stande on the foure corners of the earth, holdyng the foure windes of the earth, that the winde shoulde not blowe on the earth, neither on the sea, neither on any tree.
2 And I sawe another angel ascende from the rising of the sunne, whiche had the seale of the liuing God: and he cryed with a loude voyce to the foure angels to whom power was geuen to hurt the earth and the sea, 3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, neither the trees, tyll we haue sealed the seruauntes of our God in their foreheades. 4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and fourtie and two thousand of all the tribes of the chyldren of Israel:
B 5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of Ruben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousande. 6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousande.
Of the tribe of Nephthali were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelue thousande. 7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of Leui were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelue thousand. 8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelue thousand.
Of the tribe of Beniamin were sealed twelue thousand. 9 After this I beheld, and loe a greate multitude which no man coulde number, of all nations, & kinredes, and people, and tounges, stoode before the throne, and before the lamme, clothed with long C whyte garmentes, and palmes in their handes: 10 And cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Saluation be ascribed to him that sitteth vpon the throne of our God, & vnto the lamme.
11 And all the angels stoode in the compasse of the throne, and of the elders, and of the foure beastes, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 Saying, Amen:
Blessing, and glory, and wysdome, and thankes, and honour, and power, and might, be vnto our God for euermore, Amen. 13 And one of the elders aunswered, saying vnto me, What are these which are arayed in long whyte garmentes? and whence came they?
14 And I sayde vnto hym, Lorde thou woteste. And he said to me, These are they whiche came out of great tri-D bulation, and haue washed their long
(a) That is, their long robes. robes, and made (a) them whyte by the blood of the lamme. 15 Therefore are they in the presence of the throne of God, and serue hym day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth in the throne wyll dwell among them. 16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst, neither shall the sunne light on them, neuher any heate. 17 For the lamme which is in the middes of the throne shal feede them, and shall leade them vnto foun-taynes of liuing water: and God shall wype away al teares from their eyes.

The. viii. Chapter.

1 The seuenth seale is opened, there is silence in heauen. 6 The foure angels blowe their trumpets, and great plagues folowe vpon the earth.

A AND when he had opened the seuenth seale, there was silence in heauen about the space of halfe an houre: 2 And I sawe the seuen angels standing before God, and to them

them were geuen seuen trumpets.
3 And another angell came and stoode before the aulter, hauing a golden senser: and much of odours was geuen vnto hym, that he shoulde offer of the prayers of all saintes vpon the golden aulter whiche was before the throne. 4 And the smoke of the odours whiche came of the prayers of all saintes, ascended vp before God, out of the angels hande. 5 And the angell toke the senser, and filled it with fire of the aulter, and cast it into the earth: and voyces were made, and thundrynges, and lightninges, and earthquake. 6 And the seuen angels whiche had the seuen trumpets, prepared them selues to blowe.
7 The first angell blewe, and there was made hayle and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth: and the thirde part of trees was burnt, and all greene grasse was burnt. 8 And the seconde angell blewe, and as it were a great mountayne burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the thirde part of the sea turned to blood. 9 And the thirde part of the creatures whiche were in the sea and had lyfe, dyed, and the thirde part of shippes were destroyed. 10 And the thirde angell blewe, and there fell a great starre from heauen, burning as it were a lampe, and it fell into the thirde part of the riuers, and into fountaynes of waters:
11 And the name of the starre is called wormewood, and the thirde part was turned to wormewood: and many men dyed of the waters, because they were made bitter. 12 And the fourth angell blewe, and the thirde part of the sunne was smitten, and the third part of the moone, and the third part of starres, so that the thirde part of them was darkened: and the day was (smytten) that the thirde part of it shoulde not shyne, and lykewyse the night. 13 And I behelde, and hearde an angell flyeng through the middes of heauen, saying with a loude voyce, wo, wo, wo to the inhabiters of the earth, because of the voyces to come of the trumpe of the three angels whiche were yet to blowe.

The. ix. Chapter.

12 The first wo is past. 14 The foure angels that were bounde are loosed. 18 And the third part of men is killed.

AND the fifth angell blewe, and I A sawe a starre fall from heauen vnto the earth: and to hym was geuen the key of the bottomlesse pit.
2 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and the smoke of the pit arose, as the smoke of a great fornace: and the sunne and the ayre were darkened by the reason of the smoke of the pit.
3 And there came out of the smoke locustes vpon the earth: and vnto them was geuen power, as the scorpions of the earth haue power. 4 And it was commaunded them that they should not hurt the grasse of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but only those men whiche haue not the seale of God in their foreheades. 5 And to them was commaunded that they shoulde not kyll them, but that they shoulde be vexed fiue monethes, and their payne was as the payne that commeth of a scorpion when he hath stong a man.
6 And in those dayes shal men seeke death, and shall not finde it: and shall desire to dye, and death shall flee from them. 7 And the similitude of the locustes was like vnto horses prepared vnto battaile: and on their heades (were) as it were crownes lyke vnto golde, and their faces were as it had ben the faces of men. 8 And they had heere as the heere of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of Lions. 9 And they had habbergions as it were habbergions of iron: and the sounde of their wynges was as the sound of charets when many horses runne together to battayle.
10 And they had tayles lyke vnto scorpions, and there were stinges in their tayles: and their power was to hurt men fiue monethes. 11 And they had a kyng ouer them, whiche is the angell of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in the Hebrue tongue is Abaddó, but in the Greke tongue Apollyon (that is to say, a destroyer.) 12 One wo is past, and behold two woes come yet after this. 13 And the first angell blewe, and I hearde a voyce from the foure hornes of the golden aulter which is before god, 14 Saying to the first angell which had the trumpe,

15 And the foure angels were loosed, whiche were prepared for an houre, for a day, for a moneth, and for a yere, for to slea the thirde part of men. 16 And the number of horsemen of warre were twentie thousand tymes ten thousande: and I hearde the number of them. 17 And thus I sawe the horses in a vision, & them that sate on them hauing fierie habergions of a iacint colour, and brymstone, and the heades of the horses were as the heades of lions, and out of their mouthes went foorth fire, and smoke, and brymstone. 18 And of these three was the third part of men killed (that is to say) of fire, smoke, and brymstone, whiche proceeded out of the mouthes of them. 19 For their power was in their mouthes, and in their tayles: for their tayles were lyke vnto serpentes, and had heades, and with them they dyd hurt.
20 And the remnaunt of the men whiche were not kylled by these plagues, repented not of the deedes of their handes, that they shoulde not worship dewils, and idoles of golde, and siluer, and brasse, and stone, and of wood, whiche neither can see, neither heare, neither go: 21 Also they repented not of their murther, and of their sorcerie, neither of their fornication, neither of their theft.

The.x. Chapter.

1 The angel hath the booke open, 6 he sweareth there shalbe no more tyme, he geueth the booke vnto Iohn, whiche eateth it vp.

AND I sawe another mightie angell come downe from heauen, clothed with a cloude, and the raynebowe vpon his head: and his face was as it were the sunne, and his feete as it were pillers of fire. 2 And he had in his hand a litle booke open: and he put his right foote vpon the sea, and his left foote on the earth:
3 And cryed with a loude voyce, as when a Lion roareth: and when he had cryed, seuen thunders vttered their voyces. 4 And when the seuen thunders had vttered their voyces, I was about to wryte: and I hearde a voyce from heauen, saying vnto me, Seale vp those thinges which the seuen thunders vttered, and wryte them not. 5 And the angell which I sawe stande vpon the sea and vpon the earth, lyft vp his hande to heauen. 6 And sware by hym that liueth for euermore, whiche created heauen and the thinges that therein are, and the earth and the things that therein are, and the sea and the thinges which therin are, that there should be no longer tyme. 7 But in the dayes of the voyce of the seuenth angell, when he shall begin to blow, euen the mysterie of God shalbe finished, as he declared to his seruauntes the prophetes. 8 And the voyce whiche I hearde from heauen, spake vnto me agayne, and sayde, Go, and take the litle booke (whiche is) open in the hand of the angell which standeth vpon the sea & vpon the earth. 9 And I went vnto the angell, and sayd vnto him, Geue me the litle booke. And he sayd vnto me, Take it, and eate it vp, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shalbe in thy mouth as sweete as hony. 10 And I toke the litle booke out of the angels hande, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as sweete as hony: and assoone as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter. 11 And he sayd vnto me, Thou must prophesie againe among the people, and nations, and tongues, and to many kynges.

¶ The.xi. Chapter.

1 The temple is measured. 3 Two witnesses raysed vp by the Lorde, are murthered by the beast.

AND then was geuen me a reede lyke vnto a rod, and the angell stoode by, saying, Ryse and meate the temple of God, and the aulter, and them that worship therein. 2 But the court whiche is without the temple cast out, and meate it not: for it is geuen vnto the gentiles, and the holy citie shall they treade vnder foote fourtie and two monethes. 3 And I will geue (power) vnto my two witnesses, and they shal prophesie a thousand, two hundred, & threscore dayes, clothed in sackcloth. 4 These are two olyue trees, and two candlesticks, standing before the God of the earth.
4 And if any man wil hurt them, fire shall proceede out of their mouthes, & consume their enemies: and if any man wil hurt them, this wise must he be killed. 6 These haue power to shut heauen, that it rayne not in the dayes of their prophesying: and haue power

ouer waters, to turne them to blood, and to smyte the earth with all maner plagues, as often as they wyll.

7 And when they haue fynished their testimonie, the beast that commeth out of the bottomlesse pit, shall make warre against them, and shall ouercome them, and kyll them. 8 And their bodyes shall lye in the streates of the great cities whiche spiritually is called Sodome and Egypt, where our Lord was crucified. 9 And they of the people, and kinredes, and tongues, and they of the nations, shal see their bodyes three dayes and an halfe, and shal not suffer their bodyes to be put in graues. 10 And they that dwel vpon the earth shall reioyce ouer them, and be glad, and shall sende gyftes one to another: for these two prophetes vexed them that dwelt on the earth. 11 And after three dayes and an halfe, the spirite of lyfe (comming) from God shal enter into them: and they shall stande vp vpon their feete, and great feare shall come vpon them whiche sawe them. 12 And they shall heare a great voyce from heauen, saying vnto them, Come vp hyther. And they shall ascende vp to heauen in a cloude, and their enemies shall see them. 13 And the same houre shall there be a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the citie shall fall, and in the earthquake shalbe slayne names of men seuen thousande: and the remnaunt shalbe afrayde, and geue glory to the God of heauen. 14 The seconde wo is past, and beholde the thirde wo wyll come anone. 15 And the seuenth angell blewe, and there were made great voyces in heauen, saying, The kyngdomes of this worlde are our lordes, and his Christes, and he shall raigne for euermore. 16 And the .xxiiij. elders which sit before God on their seates, fell vpon their faces, and worshipped God, 17 Saying, We geue thee thankes, O Lorde God almightie, whiche art, and wast, and art to come: for thou hast receaued thy great might, and hast raigned. 18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the tyme of the dead that they shoulde be iudged, and that thou shouldest geue rewarde vnto thy seruauntes the prophetes and saintes, and to them that feare thy name, smal and great: and shouldest destroy them whiche destroy the earth. 19 And the temple of God was opened in heauen, and there were seene in his temple the arke of his testament: and there folowed lightninges, and voyces, and thunderinges, and earthquake, and much hayle.

The .xii. Chapter.

1 There appeared in heauen a woman clothed with the sunne.

AND there appeared a great "wonder in heauen, A woman clothed with the sunne, and the moone vnder her feete, and vpon her head a crowne of twelue starres: 2 And she was with childe, and cryed trauayling in byrth, and payned redy to be deliuered. 3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for beholde a great red dragon, hauing seuen heades and ten hornes, and seuen crownes vpon his heades. 4 And his tayle drue the thirde part of the starres of heauen, and cast them to the earth: and the dragon stoode before the woman which was redy to be deliuered, for to deuour her childe assoone as it were borne. 5 And she brought foorth a man childe, whiche shoulde rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her sonne was taken vp vnto God and (to) his throne.

6 And the woman fled into wildernesse, where she had a place prepared of God, that they shoulde feede her there a thousande two hundreth and threscore dayes. 7 And there was a battaile in heauen, Michael and his angels fought with the dragon, and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And preuayled not, neither was their place founde any more in heauen. 9 And the great dragon, that olde serpent, called the deuill and Satanas, was cast out, whiche deceaueth all the worlde: and he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with hym. 10 And I heard a loude voyce saying in heauen, Now is made saluation, and strength, and the kyngdome of our God, and the power of his Christe: for the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, whiche accused them before our God day and nyght. 11 And they ouercame hym by the blood of the lamme, and by the worde of his testimonie, and they loued not their liues vnto the death.

The. xiii. Chapter.

1. 8 The beast deceaueth the reprobate. 2. 4. 11. and is confirmed by another. 17 The priuiledge of the beastes marke.

A Nd I saw a beast ryse out of the sea, hauing seuen heades, and ten hornes: and vpon his hornes ten crownes, and vpon his heades the name of blasphemie. 2 And the beast whiche I sawe was lyke a Leoparde, and his feete were as (the feete) of a Beare, and his mouth as the mouth of a Lion: and the dragon gaue hym his power, and his seate, and great auctho[r]itie. 3 And I sawe one of his heades as it were wounded to death: and his deadly wounde was healed: and all the worlde wondred after the beast. 4 And they worshipped the dragon whiche gaue power vnto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is lyke vnto the beast? who is able to warre with hym: 5 And there was geuen vnto hym a mouth that spake great thinges and blasphemies: and power was geuen vnto him to do fourtie and two monethes. 6 And he opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heauen. 7 And it was geuen vnto hym to make warre with the saintes, and to ouercome them: and power was geuen him ouer all kindredes, and tongues, and nations. 8 And all that dwell vpon the earth worshipped hym, whose names are not written in the booke of lyfe of the lamme which was kylled from the beginning of the worlde. 9 If any man haue an eare, let him heare. 10 He that leadeth into captiuitie, shall go into captiuitie: he that killeth with a swoorde, must be kylled with a swoorde. Here is the patience and the fayth of the saintes. 11 And I beheelde another beast commyng vp out of the earth, and he had two hornes lyke a lamme, and he spake as dyd the dragon.

Gen. xl. b. Mat. 26. f.

12 And he dyd all that the first beast coulde do in his presence, and he caused the earth and them which dwell therein to worshyp the first beast, whose deadly wounde was healed.

13 And he dyd great wonders, so that he made fire come downe from heauen on the earth in the sight of men.

14 And deceaued them that dwelt on the earth, by the meanes of those signes whiche he had power to do in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwelt on the earth, that they shoulde make the image of the beast whiche had the wounde of a swoorde, and dyd liue. 15 And he had power to geue a spirite vnto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should speake: and shoulde cause that as many as woulde not worshyp the image of the beast, should be kylled.

16 And he made all both small and great, riche and poore, free and bonde to receaue a marke in their right hande, or in the foreheades: 17 And that no man myght bye or sell, saue he that had the marke or the name of the beast, other the number of his name. 18 Here is wysdome. Let hym that hath wit, count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man, and his number is sixe hundred threescore and sixe.

The. xiiii. Chapter.

1 The notable companie of the lamme. 6 One angell announceth the gospell. 8 Another, the fall of Babylon. 9 And the thirde warneth to flee from the beast.

A Nd I looked, and lo a lamme stoode on the mount Sion, and with hym an hundreth fourtie and and foure thousande, hauing his fathers name written in their foreheades. 2 And I heard a voyce from heauen as the sounde of many waters, and as the voyce of a great thunder: and I heard the voyce of harpers harping with their harpes:

3 And they song as it were a newe song before the throne, and before the foure beastes, and the elders: and no man coulde learne that song but the hundreth and fourtie and foure thousande, whiche were redeemed from the earth: 4 These are they whiche were not defiled with women, for they are virgins: these folowe the lamme whyther soeuer he goeth: these were redeemed from men, beyng the first fruites vnto God and to the lamme.

5 And in their mouthes was founde no guyle: for they are without spot before the throne of God. 6 And I saw another angell flee in the middes of heauen, hauing the euerlasting Gospell to preache vnto them that Act.xiiij.c. sit and dwell on the earth, and to all B nations, and kynredes, and tongues, and people: 7 Saying with a loude voyce, Feare God, and geue honour to hym: For the houre of his iudgement is come: and worship hym that made heauen and earth and the Esai.xxi.c. sea and fountaynes of water. 8 And Ierc.li.a. there folowed another angell, saying, Babylon is fallen is fallen that great citie, for she made all nations drinke of the wine of the wrath of her fornication. 9 And the thirde angell folowed them, saying with a loude voyce, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receaue his marke in his forehead or on his hande, 10 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, (yea) of the pure wine whiche is powred in the cup of his wrath: and he shalbe punished in fire and brymstone before the holy angels, & before the lamme.

11 And the smoke of their torment ascendeth vp euermore: and they haue no rest day nor night whiche worship the beast and his image, and whoso- C euer receaueth the print of his name.

12 Here is the pacience of the saintes: here are they that kepe the commaundementes of God, and the fayth of Iesus. 13 And I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto me, wryte, Blessed are the dead, whiche hereafter dye in the Lorde. Euen so saith the spirite that they rest from their labour: and their workes folowe them. 14 And I looked, and beholde a whyte cloude: and vpon the cloude one sitting lyke vnto the sonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hande a sharpe sic- Ioel. iij.c. kle. 15 And another angell came out of the temple crying with a loude voyce to hym that sate on the cloude, Thrust in thy sickle, and reape: for the tyme is come to reape: for the har- D uest of the earth is rype. 16 And he that sate on the cloude thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped. 17 And another angell came out of the temple whiche is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle. 18 And another angell came out from the aulter, whiche had power ouer fire, and cryed with a loude cry to hym that had the sharpe sickle, and sayde, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, and gather the clusters of the vineyarde of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

19 And the angell thrust in his sharpe sickle on the earth, and cut downe the grapes of the vineyarde of the earth, and cast them into the great winefat of the wrath of God.

20 And the winefat was troden without the citie, and blood came out of the fat euen vnto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousande and sixe hundreth furlonges.

The .xv. Chapter.

3 The song of them that ouercome the beast.

AND I sawe another signe in hea- A uen great and marueylous, seuen angels hauing the seuen last plagues, for in them is fulfilled the wrath of God. 2 And I sawe as it were a glassie sea mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, stande on the glassie sea, hauing the harpes of God. 3 And they sang the song of Moyses the ser- uaunt of God, and the song of the lamme, saying, Great and marueilous Esai.21.c. are thy workes Lorde God almigh- Ier.51.a. tie: iust and true are thy wayes, thou kyng of saintes. 4 Who shall not feare thee O Lorde, and glorifie thy name? for thou onlye art holy. And all gentiles shall come, and worship before thee: for thy iudgementes are made manifest. 5 And after that I looked, and beholde, the temple of the tabernacle of testimonie was open in heauen: 6 And the seuen angels came out of the temple, which had the seuen plagues, clothed in pure and bryght linnen, and hauing their brestes gyrded with golden gyrdels. 7 And one of the foure beastes gaue vnto the seuen angels seuen golden vials, full of the wrath of God whiche liueth for euermore.

8 And the temple was full of the smoke of the glory of God, and of his power, and no man was able to enter into the temple, tyl the seuen plagues of the seuen angels were fulfilled.

The.xvi. Chapter.

1 The angels powre out their vials full of wrath, 6 and what plagues folowe therof. 15 Admonition to take heede and watche.

AND I heard a great voyce out of the temple, saying to the seuen angels, Go your wayes, powre out the seuen vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth. 2 And the first (angell) went and powred out his vial vpon the earth, and there fel a noysome and sore botch vpon the men which had the marke of the beast, and vpon them whiche worshipped his image. 3 And the seconde angell shed out his vial vpon the sea, and it turned as it were into the blood of a dead man: and euery liuing thing dyed in the sea. 4 And the thirde angell shed out his vial vpon the riuers and fountaynes of waters, and they turned to blood. 5 And I heard the angell of the waters say, Lorde whiche art and wast, thou art righteous and holy, because thou hast geuen such iudgementes: 6 For they haue shed out the blood of saintes and prophetes, and therefore hast thou geuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthy. 7 And I hearde another out of the aulter say, Euen so Lorde God almightie, true and righteous are thy iudgementes. 8 And the fourth angell powred out his vial on the sunne, and power was geuen vnto hym to vexe men with heate of fire.

9 And men boyled in great heate, and blasphemed the name of God whiche hath power ouer these plagues, and they repented not, to geue hym glory. 10 And the fift angell powred out his vial vpon the seate of the beast, and his kyngdome waxed darke, and they gnewe their tongues for sorowe, 11 And blasphemed the God of heauen for their sorowes, and for their sores, and repented not of their deedes. 12 And the sixt angell powred out his vial vpon the great riuer (euen) Euphrates, and the water dryed vp, that the wayes of the kynges (comming) from the east shoulde be prepared.

13 And I sawe three vncleane spirites lyke frogges come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophete. 14 For they are the spirites of deuils working miracles, to go out vnto the kinges of the earth & of the whole world, to gather them to the battayle of that great day of God almightie. 15 Beholde, I come as a theefe. Happy is he that watcheth and kepeth his garmentes, lest he walke naked, and men see his filthynesse. 16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrue tongue Armagedon.

17 And the seuenth angell powred out his vial into the ayre: and there came a great voyce out of the temple of heauen from the throne, saying, It is done. 18 And there folowed voyces, thundringes, and lightnings: and there was a great earthquake, such as was not sence men were vpon the earth, so mightie an earthquake and so great. 19 And the great citie was diuided into three partes, and the cities of all nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembraunce before God, to geue vnto her the cup of the wine of the fearcenesse of his wrath.

20 Euery Ile also fled away, and the mountaynes were not founde.

21 And there fell a great hayle, as it had ben talentes out of heauen vpon the men: and the men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the hayle: for the plague therof was exceeding great.

¶ The.xvii. Chapter.

1 The description of the great whore, 8 her sinnes and punishment.

AND there came one of the seuen angels, whiche had the seuen vials, and talked with me, saying vnto me, Come, I wyll shewe vnto thee the iudgement of the great whore that sitteth vpon many waters:

2 With whom haue committed fornication the kinges of the earth, and the inhabiters of the earth are dronken with the wine of her fornication.

3 So

Mat. 24. b. 1. Thes. 5. b. 1. Pet. iii. c.

3 So he caryed me away in the spirite into the wyldernesse: and I sawe a woman sitte vppon a scarlet coloured beast full of names of blasphemie, whiche had seuen heades and ten hornes. 4 And the woman was arayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with golde, precious stone, and pearles, and had a cuppe of golde in her hande, full of abhominations and fylthynesse of her fornication.

5 And in her forehead was a name written, A mysterie, Great Babylon, the mother of whoredome and abhominations of the earth. 6 And I sawe the woman dronken with the blood of saintes and with the blood of the martyrs of Iesus: and when I sawe her, I wondred with great marueyle. 7 And the angel sayde vnto me, Wherfore maruaylest thou? I wyll shewe thee the mysterie of the woman, and of the beast that beareth her, whiche hath seuen heades and ten hornes. 8 The beast thou sawest, was, and is not, & shall ascende out of the bottomelesse pyt, and shall go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder (whose names are not written in the booke of lyfe from the begynnyng of the worlde) when they beholde the beaste that was, and is not, and yet is. 9 And C here is a mynde that hath wysdome. The seuen heades, are seuen mountaynes on which the woman sitteth: they are also seuen kynges.

10 Fyue are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and when he commeth, he must continue a short space. 11 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the eyght, and is one of the seuen, and shall go into destruction. 12 And the ten hornes whiche thou sawest, are ten kynges whiche haue receaued no kyngdome as yet: but shall receaue power as kynges at one houre with the beast. 13 These haue one minde, and shall geue their power and strength vnto the beast. 14 These 1.Tim.6.f. shall fight wyth the lamme, and the lamme shall ouercome them: for he is Lord of Lordes, and kyng of kynges: and they that are on his syde, are called, and chosen, and faythfull.

15 And he sayde vnto me, The waters whiche thou sawest where the whore sitteth, are people, and folke, and nations, and tongues. 19 And the ten hornes whiche thou sawest vppon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eate her flesshe, and burne her with fyre.

17 For God hath put in theyr hearres to fulfyll his wyll, and to do with one consent, for to geue theyr kyngdome vnto the beast, vntyll the wordes of God be fulfylled. 18 And the woman whiche thou sawest, is that great citie which raigneth ouer the kynges of the earth.

The.xviii.Chapter.

1.9 The louers of the worlde are sory for the fall of the whore of Babylon.
20 But they that be of god, haue cause to reioyce for her destruction.

AND after these thynges, I sawe another angel come from heauen, hauyng great power, and the earth was lyghtened with his glory. A

2 And he cryed myghtyly with a strong voyce, saying, Great Babylon Esai. xxi. & Ier. l. a. is fallen is fallen, and is become the habitation of deuyls, and the holde of all fonle spirites, and a cage of all vncleane and hatefull byrdes:

3 For all nations haue dronken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kynges of the earth haue committed fornication with her: and the marchauntes of the earth are waxed ryche of the aboundaunce of her pleasures. 4 And I hearde another voyce from heauen say, Come away from her my people, that ye be not partakers of her sinnes, and that ye receaue not of her plagues.

5 For her sinnes are gone vp to heauen: and God hath remembred her wickednesse. 6 Rewarde her euen as she rewarded you, and geue her double accordyng to her workes, and powre in double to her in the same cuppe whiche she fylled vnto you.

7 And as muche as she glorified her selfe and lyued wantonly, so muche powre ye in for her of punishment C Esai.47.b. and sorowe: for she sayde in her heart, I sit beyng a queene, and am no wydowe, and shall see no sorowe.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and sorowe, and hunger, and she shalbe brent with fire: for strong is the Lorde God whiche shall * iudge her. 9 And the kynges * Or, condemne. of the earth shall bewayle her, and shall lament for her, which haue committed fornication (with her) and haue lyued wantonly with her, when they shall see the smoke of her burnyng.

10 And

10 And shall stande a far of for feare of her punishment, saying, Alas, alas, Jere.51.8. that great citie Babylon, that mightie citie, for at one houre is thy iudgement come. 11 And the marchauntes of the earth shall weepe and wayle ouer her: for no man wyll bye theyr ware any more. 12 The ware of gold, and siluer, and precious stones, and of pearle, and raynes, and purple, and sylke, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all maner vessels of yuorie, and all maner vesselles of most precious wood, and of brasse, and iron, and marble, 13 And cinamom, and odours, and ointmentes, and frankensence, and wyne, and oyle, and fyne floure, and wheate, and beastes, and sheepe, and horses, and charrets, and bodyes, and soules of men. 14 And the apples that thy soule lusted after are departed from thee: and al thinges which were daintie and had in price are departed from thee: and thou shalt fynde them no more. 15 The marchauntes of these thynges whiche were waxed ryche, shall stande a farre of from her for feare of the punishment of her, weepyng and waylyng, 16 And saying, Alas, alas, that Jere.51.b. great citie, that was clothed in raines, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with golde, and precious stones, and pearles: 17 For at one houre so great ryches is come to naught: And euery shippe gouernour, and all they that occupie shippes, and shippemen, whiche worke in the sea, stoode a farre of: 18 And cryed when they sawe the smoke of her burnyng, saying, What citie (was) lyke vnto this great citie? 19 And they cast dust on theyr heades, and cryed, weepyng and wayJere.51.b. lyng, and saying, Alas, alas that great citie, wherin were made ryche all that had shippes in the sea, by reason of her costlynesse, for at one houre is she made desolate. 20 Reioyce ouer her thou heauen, and ye holy apostles and prophetes, for God hath geuen your iudgement on her. 21 And a mighty angel toke vp a stone lyke a great mylstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, With suche violence shall that great citie Babylon be cast, and shalbe founde no more. 22 And the voyce of harpers and musitions and of pypers and trumpetters shalbe heard no more in thee: and no crafty man of what soeuer craft he be shalbe founde any more in thee: and the sounde of a mill shalbe heard no more in thee: 23 And the light of a candle shal shine no more in thee, and the voyce of the bryde grome and of the bryde shalbe heard no more in thee: for thy marchauntes were the great men of the earth, and with thyne inchauntment were deceaued all nations. 24 And in her was founde the blood of the prophetes and of the saintes, and of all that were slayne vpon the earth.

The. xix. Chapter.

1 Prayses are geuen vnto God for iudgyng the whore.

AND after these thinges I hearde a great voyce of muche people in heauen saying (a) Alleluia: saluation, and glory, and honour, and power be ascribed to the Lorde our God: 2 For true & righteous are his iudgementes, for he hath iudged the great whore whiche dyd corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath auenged the blood of his seruauntes of her hande. 3 And agayne they sayde, Alleluia: and her smoke rose vp for euermore. 4 And the .xxiiii. elders and the foure beastes fell downe, and worshypped God that sate on the throne, saying, Amen, Alleluia. 5 And a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Prayse our Lorde God all ye that are his seruauntes, and ye that feare hym both small and great. 6 And I hearde the voyce of muche people, euen as the voyce of many waters, & as the voyce of strong thunderinges, saying, Alleluia: for the Lorde our God omnipotent raigneth. 7 Let vs be glad, and reioyce, and geue honour to hym: for the mariage of the lamme is come, and his wife made her selfe redy. 8 And to her was graunted that she shoulde be arayed with pure and goodly raynes: for the raines is the righteousnes of saintes. 9 And he sayd vnto me, Write, Happy are they whiche are called vnto the supper of the lammes mariage. And he sayde vnto me, These are the true sayinges of God. 10 And I fell at his feete, to worship him: And he sayde vnto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy felowe seruaunt, & of thy brethren, euen of them that haue the testimonie of Jesus. Worship God: for the testimonie monie of Jesus is the spirite of pro-his head were many crownes, and he had a name written that no man knew but he him selfe. 13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipt in blood: and his name is called the worde of God.

14 And the warryers which were in heauen folowed hym vpon whyte horses, clothed with whyte and pure raynes. 15 And out of his mouth went a sharpe sworde, that with it he shoulde smyte the heathen: And he shall rule them with a rodde of iron:
and he trode the winefat of the fiercenesse and wrath of almightie God.
16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thygh a name written, Kyng of kinges, and lord of lordes. 17 And I sawe an angel stande in the sunne, and he cryed with a loude voyce, saying to all the fowles that flee by the middes of heauen, Come and gather your selues together vnto the supper of the great God: 18 That ye may eate the flesche of kynges, and the flesche of hye capitaynes, and the flesche of myghtie men, and the flesche of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesche of all free men and bonde men, and of small and great. 19 And I sawe the beast, and the kinges of the earth, and their warryers gathered together to make battayle agaynst hym that sate on the horse, and agaynst his souldiers. 20 And the beast was taken, and with hym that false prophete that wrought miracles before hym, with which he deceaued them that receaued the beastes marke, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast quicke into a ponde of fyre, burnyng with brymstone: 21 And the remnaunt were slayne with the sword of him that sate vpon the horse, which sworde proceeded out of his mouth:
and all the fowles were fylled with their flesshe.

The .xx. Chapter.

1 Satan beyng bound for a certaine time,
7 and after let loose, vexeth the Churche greeuously.

AND I sawe an angel come downe from heauen, hauyng the key of the bottomlesse pyt, and a great chayne in his hande. 2 And he tooke the dragon, that olde serpent, which is the deuil and Satanas, and he bounde him a thousand yeres: 3 And cast hym into the bottomlesse pyt, and he shut him vp, and set a seale on hym, that he shoulde deceaue the people no more, 28 tyll the thousande yeres were fulfyl-led: and after that he must be loosed
(for) a lytle season. 4 And I sawe thrones, and they sate vpon them, and iudgement was geuen vnto them: and I sawe the soules of them that were beheaded for the witnes of Jesus, and for the worde of God, and whiche had not worshypped the beast, neither his image, neither had taken his marke vpon their foreheades, or in their handes, and they lyued and raigned with Christ a thousande yeres.
5 But the other of the dead men shall not lyue agayne, vntyll the thousande go out to deceaue the people whiche are in the foure quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battayle: whose number is as the sande of the sea. 9 And they went vp in the plaine of the earth, and compassed the tentes of the saintes about, and the beloued citie: and fire came downe from God out of heauen, and deuoured them: 10 And the deuyll that deceaued them was cast into a lake of fyre and brymstone, 29 where the beast and the false pro-phete shalbe tormented day and nyght for euermore. 11 And I sawe a great whyte throne, and hym that sate on it, from whose face fled away both the earth and heauen, and their place was no more founde.

12 And I saw the dead both great and small stand before god: and the bookes were opened: and another booke was opened, which is (the booke) of life: and the dead were iudged of those thinges which were written in the bookes, ac-cordyng to their deedes. 13 And the sea gaue vp her dead whiche were in her: and death and hell deliuered vp the dead whiche were in them: and they were iudged euery man accoꝛdyng to his deedes. 14 And death and hell were caſt into the lake of fire: this is the ſeconde death. 15 And whoſoeuer was not founde wꝛytten in the booke of lyfe, was caſt into the lake of fyre.

The .xxii. Chapter.

1 The riuer of the water of lyfe. 9 The angel wyll not be worshipped.

A ND he shewed me a pure ryuer of water of life, cleare as crystal, proceedyng out of the throne of God, and of the lamme. 2 In the myddes of the streete of it, and of either side of the ryuer (was) there wood of lyfe, whiche bare twelue maner of fruites, and gaue fruite euery moneth: and the leaues of the wood serued to heale the people withal. 3 And there shalbe no more curse, but the throne of God and the lamme shalbe in it, and his seruauntes shall serue hym. 4 And they Esai.xl.d. shall see his face, and his name (shalbe) in their foreheades. 5 And there shalbe no nyght there, and there needs no candle, neither light of the sunne: for the Lorde God geueth them lyght, and they shall raigne for euermore.

6 And he sayde vnto me, These sayinges are faythfull and true. And the Lorde God of the holy prophetes sent his angel to shewe vnto his seruauntes the thynges which must shortly be fulfylled. Apoc. i.a. 7 Beholde, I come shortly: Happy is he that keepeth the C saying of the prophecie of this booke.

8 I Iohn sawe these thynges and hearde them. And when I had heard Apoc.xi.b. and seene, I fell downe to worshippe before the feete of the angel, whiche shewed me these thynges. 9 And he sayde vnto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy felowe seruaunt, and (the felowe seruaunt) of thy brethren the prophetes, & of them which kepe the sayinges of this booke: but worship god.

10 And he saide vnto me, Seale not the sayinges of the prophecie of this booke: for the tyme is at hande.

11 He that doth euill, let hym do euil still: and he which is filthie, let him be filthie still: and he that is righteous, let him be ryghteous still: and he that is holy, let hym be holy styll. 12 And beholde, I come shortly, and my reward is with me, to geue euery man accordyng as his deedes shalbe. 13 I am Alpha & Omega, the beginning & the end, the first and the last. 14 Blessed are they that do his commaundementes, that their power may be in the tree of lyfe, and may inter in through the gates into the citie.

15 For without (shalbe) dogges, and Esai.44.bi inchaunters, and whoremongers, and Reue.i.b. murtherers, and idolaters, and whosoeuer loueth or maketh leasynges.

16 I Iesus sent myne angel to testi- D fie vnto you these thynges in the Churches. I am the roote and the generation of Dauid, & the bryght morning starre. 17 And the spirite and Esai.lv.a. the bryde say, Come. And let hym that Iohn.7.f. heareth, say also, Come. And let hym that is a thirst, come. And whosoeuer wyll, let him take of the water of lyfe freely. 18 I testifie vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the prophecie of this booke, If any man shall Deut.4.a. adde vnto these thynges, God shall Ioio.30.a. adde vnto hym the plagues that are written in this booke. 19 And if any man shall minish of the wordes of the booke of this prophecie, god shal take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holy citie, and from the thynges whiche are written in this booke. 20 He which testifieth these thynges sayth surely, I come quickly. Amen. Euen so, come Lorde Iesus. 21 The grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
